FOR A STUDENT'S MOTTO

Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

THE PRESIDENT'S GREETING

It is evident that the results of anyone's life will depend upon both plan and performance; and if either be defective, the desired end can not be achieved.

You who have come to Willamette University have planned to secure a higher education; and the judgments of the wise agree that such a plan is entirely worthy and to be much commended. You, therefore, have made a first and considerable step toward a real success; but the longer and harder task of translating the plan into a performance is now before you. It is a time for steady courage because there will be a good deal that is irksome and the true significance of much you do will not be easily discerned. It will be a helpful habit to look often at the invisible: to tell yourself what lies beyond the hill. It will be good to have faith in your plan and determine to the last ounce that it shall be fulfilled. Prayer and work are an excellent combination for a student.

We are glad you have come to Willamette. You are with a wholesome, friendly and democratic student body and with a faculty whose strong purpose is to serve you. You are among friends. All of us are upon a high mission: there should be a song in the heart and sweat upon the brow.

Very sincerely,

—Carl Gregg Doney.

SOME WILLAMETTE TRADITIONS

No Willamette man smokes on the campus.

The senior bench is for seniors only.

The underclassmen may use the junior bench.

Regular chapel attendance is worth while.

Everyone attends the Y. M.-Y. W. reception.

Willamette is sportsmanlike whatever the outcome of her games.

The Soph-Frosh Bag-Rush, if won by the freshmen, entitles them to place their numerals on the grandstand.

Willamette songs and yells are to be learned.

To be a part of Willamette, join the Y. M. or Y. W. C. A.

Freshmen are to perform all duties assigned to them in student activities.

"His Best"

Like the star that shines afar,

Without haste and without rest.

Let each man wheel with steady sway

Round the task that rules the day

And do his best.

INTERCLASS RIVALRY RULES*Article I.

Section 1. There shall be an interclass rivalry committee elected each year, consisting of the following members: one member elected by each of the classes and chairman elected by the Student Body.

Section 2. The class elections shall take place within the first two weeks of school; the chairman of the committee shall be elected at the first regular Student Body meeting.

Section 3. The chairman shall be chosen from the two upper classes.

Section 4. There shall be an advisory committee consisting of the athletic coach and the professor of public speaking.

Article II.

Section 1. The duties of this interclass rivalry committee shall be to regulate and control all forms of interclass rivalry and activities. These duties shall include the regulating of numeral painting and settling of interclass disputes.

Section 2. Each class represented is entitled to a vote on the committee and the chairman in the case of a tie.

Section 3. The following interclass activities shall be held each year: basketball, tennis, baseball, track, forensics, and any other activities that the committee shall decide upon.

Section 4. The following shall be the system of awarding points: first place in any activity, five points; second place, three points, and third place, one point. Also the class contributing the largest percentage of its members to the varsity teams shall receive five points; second, three, and third, one.

Article III.

Section 1. The class having the largest number of points at the close of the year shall be declared interclass rivalry champion, and shall receive a suitable reward.

Section 2. The following numbers of credits shall be required for eligibility to represent each class: seniors at least 88; juniors, at least 56; sophomores, at least 24.

Section 3. Men who have been in the service and desire to affiliate with their old class shall be considered an exception to the above rule.

Section 4. Students registered for less than twelve hours shall not be eligible to represent a class in a contest.

Article IV.

Section 1. The committee shall have power to formulate any new rules not herein stated, and regulations as to the conduct of the various contests.

GREEN CAP REGULATIONS

Section 1. All freshmen boys shall don green caps not later than the third Monday after the opening of the school year.

Section 2. Green caps shall be worn exclusively by all freshmen boys while in the city of Salem.

Section 3. The freshman class shall discard their green caps publicly at the May Day festival, making the discarding of the caps the subject of an original stunt.

Section 4. It is further recommended that the two upper classes be made the final court of appeals for any difficulties arising over the carrying out of the rules laid down.

FRESHMAN GLEE RULES*Section I.

Article I. The time for the Freshman Glee shall be on the second Friday in March.

Article II. The freshman class shall issue the challenge to the other classes at least six weeks before the time of the Glee.

Article III. The management shall be in the hands of the freshman class and under the supervision of an upperclass committee of three. The manager shall be elected by the freshman class, and the committee appointed at least one week before the challenge is issued.

Article IV. The freshman class shall award a pennant to the winning class.

Section II.

Article I. Words and music shall be original within the class and shall be submitted at least two weeks before the date of the Glee.

Article II. Every member of the class shall take part in rendition. Affiliated members are eligible to participate.

Article III. There shall be three judges on each of the following: words, music, rendition, adaptation.

Article IV. The judges shall be selected from a list previously submitted by each class by a committee consisting of the manager of the Glee and a member from each of the other classes.

Article V. Judges shall judge according to the following: 25 per cent on words; 25 per cent on adaptability; 25 per cent on music, and 25 per cent on rendition. No judge shall give any class a score of less than 15 per cent except as provided in Section III, Article I.

At the discretion of the management a form of ballot shall be included in the printed program whereby the public may express its choice of winners.

Section III.

Article I. The student body shall decide upon the type of song to be submitted at the beginning of the school year. Types other than the one selected shall receive a score of zero on adaptability.

Section IV.

Article I. It shall be the duty of the president of the student body to see that these rules be carried out.

SCHOLARSHIP DISTINCTIONS

At the end of each year, following the graduation exercises, prizes are awarded to those students in the University who have shown distinction in some line of study or branch of activity.

Oratory—Prizes of $15 and $10 for first and second honors in oratory.

Latin—For the best work in Latin $10 is offered.

Debate—For first and second honors in debate $10 and $5 is given.

University Prizes—The University offers the following prizes to winners in any University contest in public speaking, to be applied, except when won by seniors in their last semester, on any semester following the one in which the contest takes place:

1. One-half semester's bill to the winner in local contest.
2. One semester's bill to the winner in an intercollegiate contest.
3. Two semesters' bill to the winner in an interstate contest.

Albert Prize—Based on the record of faithful study and scholarship, an award of $25 to the student making, during the year, the greatest progress toward the ideal in character, service and wholesome influence. Three students are nominated by the faculty and voted upon by the student body two weeks before commencement.

Senior Scholar—On the basis of scholastic standing and fitness to profit by the appointment, a limited number of departments may appoint certain juniors, majoring in their department, as student assistants for the next college year.

Hollingsworth Prize—To the member of the graduating class earning the highest general scholastic average during the year is awarded $10.

Honorary Senior Fraternity. Alpha Kappa Nu—Election to membership is based on scholarship and character and not more than 20% of any graduating class can be elected.

"Four Things"

Four things a man must learn to do
If he would make his record true,
To think without confusion clearly;
To love his fellow men sincerely;
To act from honest motives purely;
To trust in God and heaven securely.

ORGANIZATIONS

Associated Students

All the students of the University, who pay the fee, are members of the Associated Student Body. The students so organized, directly control all collegiate and intercollegiate activities; such as athletics, forensics, general social events and the business management of the Collegian. The regular meetings of the Student Body are semi-monthly, and at these a chance is given for a free discussion of any subject that may benefit the school. This organization offers an excellent opportunity for every student to obtain valuable experience in management and general legislative knowledge.

The Executive Committee consists of the officers of the Student Body, the editor of the Collegian, a member of the faculty, and four members elected at large from the Student Body. These four members are elected at the beginning of each school year and hold office during the same. This committee is to facilitate the handling of student affairs.

The payment of the Student Body fee entitles every member to admission to athletic games, a copy of the Collegian, and a ballot in the annual election.

The Young Women's Christian Association wishes to welcome every girl to Willamette University campus. We welcome the new girls, for in them we know we shall find true womanhood and noble ideals. We gladly welcome the girls who have been here before, for they will bring added enthusiasm and energy for the work which is to be done.

The work which is done by the Y. W. C. A. is many fold. The main purpose is to strengthen and uplift the ideals of womanhood, to promote Christian fellowship and in all ways to be a "big sister" to every girl.

The vice president and her committees welcome the new girls at the trains. Also, if any girl wishes work of any kind, it is supplied, if possible, through this department.

Devotional Meetings

The devotional meetings held each Thursday afternoon are of a varied nature. The subjects are chosen in view of the needs of a girl of today and they are presented in an intensely interesting manner.

Bible and Mission Study

The purpose of the Bible and mission study classes is to promote Christian learning among the students, to develop the call and necessity of service to mankind.

Social Service

In the vicinity of W. U. there is a great opportunity and need for social service work. The keen joy and satisfaction which comes from service to others are found in the activities of this department. It is the aim to share our joys with those who are less fortunate.

Social Department

There are playtimes, too! In the early fall, the Jolly Jaunt gives every girl a glimpse of the spirit of the Y. W. C. A. Various other good times follow, and lasting friendships are formed among the girls.

Rest Room and Conference

It is the work of the chairman of this department to see that the rest room shall always appear inviting.

Then, there is the Y. W. C. A. conference which is held at Seabeck, Wn. every year. The wonderful inspiration, the friendships formed and the splendid playtimes are lasting memories for every girl who has ever attended.

So, we say again, we welcome you! We want you! We need you!

The bars of life at which we fret

That seem to prison and control,

Are but the doors of daring, set

Ajar before the soul.

Say not, "Too poor," but freely give;

Sigh not, "Too weak," but boldly try.

You never can begin to live

Until you dare to die.

The Young Men's Christian Association makes for the upbuilding and the strengthening of the Christian life of every man in the University. The purpose is to bring Christ's life onto the campus, so that He becomes the every day companion of the students. The activities of the association are extensive.

Bible and Mission Study

Believing that prayer and Bible study should be daily habits of the Christian, the "Y" plans classes in Bible and mission study led by student leaders. These classes are held the third period every Tuesday morning, throughout the year. They acquaint the student with the life of the Master and the work done in missionary fields; and by this they learn to know and love Christ and His people better. Harry Rarey and Ed Norene are making the arrangements for this work for the coming year.

Devotional Meetings

It is in the weekly devotional meeting that the men gather together and discuss topics that grip the heart. It is here that you learn the ideals and the character of the other fellow. Under the direction of our vice president, Dean Pollock, we shall have a splendid series of religious meetings. They will be of the devotional type, or open forums with professors leading, or a meeting with some noted speaker as leader. Be sure and find your place in these meetings, you are wanted.

Campus Service and Socials

This department seeks to be of general aid and benefit to the students on the campus. We hope that you will first become acquainted with our activities, by the efforts of this department. If you are in need of board and room or a job, look up Herbert Lamphere or any member of his committee in the "Y" headquarters.

Under the leadership of Elmer Strevey various social events will be staged for the men during the year. Make your plans to be at the Stag Mix, the second week-end of school.

Social Service

The Y. M. C. A. is not alone satisfied with its campus attainments, but reaches out and gives to the boyhood of the community a true spiritual meaning of our Christ. This not only morally builds up our younger brothers, but also gives the workers a deeper spiritual life and a practical experience in Christian leadership. We are making a big success of two phases of this work.

Community Service

This department works with the boys in the immediate vicinity of the University and is under the direction of Roy Skeen. Success is obtained through co-operation with the city Y. M. C. A. and the various churches of the community. During the past year Hi-Y clubs were conducted in the three Junior High Schools of the city and nine boys' clubs at the city "Y" progressed with University men as leaders. This department also keeps in touch with the various Sunday schools of the city and provides teachers for the boys' classes.

Deputations

Deputation teams, composed of live Christian fellows under the leadership of Everett Craven, make week-end visits to the outlying high schools and bring the message of Christ to the fellows there. Five of such are being planned for the coming year. Those of the past have proved to be most helpful to the boys of other communities, who need the touch of the older college man, and we expect great success in the future.

Seabeck Conference

The annual student Y. M. C. A. conference of the Pacific northwest is held at Seabeck, Washington. The man that goes there has ten days vacation, and also vital connection with the world's greatest religious leaders. It makes a man broader in every way. Gale Seaman, secretary of the Pacific coast, credits a large share of Willamette association's success to our big delegation at Seabeck every year. Eighteen of our men were there this last spring; they will testify to its worth. Willamette has taken all honors in track and aquatic events for the past four years, and in tennis for the past two.

Student Volunteer Band

Composed of those students who have decided to enter the foreign field in Christian service, the Student Volunteers are an organization of character and purpose. The weekly meetings seek to present the needs of the nations to the members.

Missionary Committee

The Missionary Committee, though but recently organized, has as its purpose the re-stimulation of University students to missionary activities. The membership includes three students from each the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A. and the Student Volunteer Band.

What doth better become wisdom than to discern what is worth the living?

LITERARY SOCIETIES

The eight literary societies of Willamette hold an important place in student affairs. The associations are progressive and enthusiastic in upholding the high ideals and purposes for which they strive. The weekly programs consist of readings, talks, debates, story telling and musical numbers, while dramatics have their place also. The chief purpose of the programs is to make each of the members better acquainted with the best and noblest of literary work, and to further develop those fine traits of character and the singleness of purpose which mark the true man or woman and leader. Above all, a deeper respect and appreciation of their Alma Mater is instilled in the heart of each member.

Women's Inter-Society Rules

The three young women's societies have adopted the following rules:

Rule I.—That each society shall hold its reception and each new woman shall have an opportunity to attend each society at least once, and not more than twice, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Rule II.—That no woman shall be invited to join a society, either by verbal or written invitation, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Rule III.—That each woman answer in writing.

Rule IV.—That an inter-society council be established to consist of two members from each society to be appointed by the presidents of the respective societies at the last business meeting of the school year.

Rule V.—That there shall be an additional member of the council, a faculty lady, elected by the council.

Rule VI.—That the duty of the council shall be to decide all inter-society matters. Its decision shall be final.

Rule VII.—That these rules shall be published in the Handbook and the first issue of the Collegian.

MUSIC*Ladies' Glee Club

The purpose of the Ladies' Glee Club is to cultivate a greater appreciation of music and to become better acquainted with the best. All vacancies are filled at an open tryout the beginning of each year. Besides several short trips the local concert, given each spring, merits commendation. The associations and experiences in this club are long to be remembered and are considered an important factor in college life.

Men's Glee Club

The most thoroughly efficient and enthusiastic advertiser of the University is the Men's Glee Club. Competitive tryouts determine the limited membership, composed of the best male voices in the University. Under the leadership of the dean of music, the club receives the highest training. Besides numerous short trips, an unusually successful tour was made last year of parts of Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Varsity Band

The year of 1921-1922, marking only the second year of the existence of the Varsity Band, has shown its merit. The best musical talent in the school is comprised in this band of some twenty-five pieces, which has added considerably to the "pep" displayed at rallies and all athletic contests during the year.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES

Although among the most recent organizations on the campus, the "frats" and sororities have proven their real worth. At the present time there are four fraternities and two sororities at Willamette, all of which are locals.

The advantage of such associations are numerous; the members are united in a closer bond of friendship; here also the privileges of home as well as college life are enjoyed; and all have as their aim to be a strong and worthy asset to the school. The underlying purpose is for the promotion of scholarship, friendship and the high ideals and best interests of Willamette.

A limited interpretation of the word fellowship is not sought, for the organizations believe that campus relationships are important and all Willamette students are worth knowing.

During the Open House evening, the members are delightful hosts and hostesses to the entire student body, faculty and friends of the University.

PUBLICATIONS

Collegian

The Collegian is the official student newspaper of the campus, issued weekly. The editor and manager are elected by the student body at the close of each year to take office the following year. The Collegian is essential for all students to a knowledge of campus affairs and life.

Editor .....Sheldon Sackett

Wallulah

The Wallulah, edited and published by the junior class, records verbally and pictorially the events of the year. The 1922 book will be edited by Rodney Alden.

Song Book

Willamette has a wealth of song which has been collected and published in a new edition of the Song Book. The songs are so closely interwoven into campus life that every student feels the necessity for a book.

Hand Book

The Willamette Hand Book is published in the autumn by the University Christian Associations. It contains, besides diary space, information on all campus activities and is meant to be a convenient guide and source of information for old and new students alike.

CLUBS

Women's Willamette Club

Composed of all the young women of the University, the Women's Willamette Club strives toward a three-fold object—to uphold the spirit and ideals of Willamette; to promote the best interests of the school; and to help keep alive the memory of Jason Lee.

President .....Grace Collins

"W" Club

The purpose of this organization is to further the interest in athletics and to keep up the high standards of the "W" and of athletics in general. The club is composed of those who have won the official award in any branch of athletics promoted by the University. The official Award Day program is under the supervision of the "W" club and it is then that those having won their award are presented and become members of the most honored organization on the campus.

Bar "W"

The Bar "W", also a symbol of service, designates those individuals who have represented the University in either debate or oratory in an intercollegiate contest. Such an award is significant of scholarly attainment and arduous labor. It is not only an honor to be a member of the Bar "W" but also a distinction which few can achieve.

Washingtonian Club

Composing a large per cent of the student body, those students who have resided in the state of Washington, organized under the title of "Washingtonians".

Their aim is to "Boost Willamette" in their home state, but several social affairs are participated in while in Oregon. One of the most enjoyable is the annual banquet given by the members to the rest of the students, faculty and friends of the University.

Lausanne Hall Club

The beautiful new Lausanne Hall is more than a building, it is an ideal. The interests of the girls are concentrated in the fostering of the true Willamette spirit and keeping alive the ideals and traditions of the old school. Not only are the many good times remembered but the friendships are of lasting quality. Life in the hall develops an appreciation of the best, leads to culture and refinement and advances the highest ideals of Christian womanhood.

ATHLETICS

With Willamette men under the training of Coach Bohler and the assurance of a new fully equipped and modern gymnasium, the next few years loom prominent for the University.

The past year recorded many victories for Willamette, the football season was the most successful one in years, while much distinction was won through basketball. Although four letter men will be gone from the team this season, there are great possibilities for the 1921-1922 team.

The baseball season began rather late but the squad was exceptionally good. Willamette is achieving some degree of prominence through tennis, being represented last year by Noble Moodhe and Hugh Doney. The interest in track has been largely shown in its place in inter-class rivalry, this year the cup being won by the class of '21.

FORENSICS

Willamette has long held an enviable reputation in debate and oratory among the colleges of the northwest. There is no asset more valuable to a young man or woman than to be able to express themselves distinctly and fearlessly in public. Students desiring to avail themselves of the opportunities offered will find an ample reward for their efforts.

Debate

Our debate teams have done exceptionally well in the last few years. The girls' teams have been particularly fortunate, having won practically all their debates with the larger schools as well as with those not so large. The men's teams are also well up toward the top in forensic circles. Last year they debated with Morningside College, reputed to have one of the strongest teams in the middle west.

Interclass debates offer ideal practice for those desiring to try for Varsity teams, as no students who have won the much coveted Bar "W" are eligible to participate.

Oratory

Each year Willamette is represented in the state oratorical contest, which is held at one of the institutions participating. A representative is chosen by the popular tryout method. To represent their school in these contests is an honor and privilege few ever attain in their college career.

The publication of this book is made possible largely through the kind personal contributions of the following:

WILLAMETTE SPIRIT

To an even greater extent than Willamette spirit has influenced and colored the life of the entire northwest, do we find her spirit predominating the play times during the school year. The spirit of fellowship, embracing all coming within her portals, is distinctive of Willamette, and cannot be considered as apart from the institution.

The first social affair is the Jolly Jaunt, on which occasion the young women of the University have a delightful opportunity to become acquainted. The Stag Mix serves the same purpose for the masculine portion of the student body.

The Epworth League of First Church always welcomes the students to a party in the church parlors and this evening is one long to be remembered.

Now passing from informals, we come to the first formal of the year. Everyone goes to the Y. M.-Y. W. reception, and although one cannot remember all the names written on one's card that evening, yet this occasion serves to formally introduce the members of the entire student body to each other. After this event, everyone speaks to everyone else on the campus.

For all the students remaining in the city over Thanksgiving, the Jolly Up is eagerly anticipated. Informal games and impromptu stunts quickly chase away the blues, and the evening serves as a real "jolly up".

The society "at homes" and the fraternity and sorority "open houses" are not to be forgotten and afford much pleasure to all attending.

The Post-Exam Jubilee explains itself.

Never to be forgotten, whether through joy or grief, is the annual Freshman

Glee. At this time, each class writes an original song and these are presented by the classes, competing for first place which entitles the winning class to have their numerals engraved on the silver clasp of the permanent glee pennant. This privilege last year was granted to the class of 1923.

The annual Junior Week-end is the official guest time at Willamette.

The May Morning breakfast, crowning of the May queen and the May dances, student lunch and junior play are among the joyful events of the May Festival.

With Commencement comes the realization that one more year of our college experience has passed.

The president's reception marks one of the last of the year's events, at which Dr. and Mrs. Doney are always delightful hosts. Other events of the week are the class day stunts, senior gift, and the breakfast served by the Y. W. cabinet to senior girls, while the alumni banquet comes as a fitting climax.

WILLAMETTE SONGS*Willamette Ever Onward

On Willamette, ever onward
To the highest goal in view
From the bell tower rings the story
Of thy conquests, W. U.,
In our mighty Alma Mater
Let our faith be ever bold,
That victory may be the prize
Of the Cardinal and the Gold.

Magic Spirit

Then we'll strive, we'll stand, we'll stay
by Old Willamette
With her legends and traditions old and true.
Something seems to draw us onward
ever to the victor's goal;
'Tis the magic of thy spirit, W. U.

Willamette Spirit

Oh, W. U., thy spirit calls us,
Bids us conquer and be true.
We'll strive whate'er befalls us
To be worthy, W. U.
We'll win, we'll win, when bright before us
Willamette spirit leads us on;
Tho' dark defeat may hover o'er us,
The guerdon waits us at the dawn.

In the Land of Golden Sunset

Rah! for our dear Alma Mater!
Rah! for the football score!
Rah! for the men who defend her
On gym or debating floor.
Ever to thee we'll be loyal,
True to thy cardinal and gold;
Oh! Willamette, Willamette, we love
thee,
Our school we'll forever uphold.

Cannibal King

The cannibal king with the big nose ring
Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
And every night when the moon shone bright

Across the canal he'd wade
To hug and kiss that dusky miss
Out under the big bay tree;
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:

[Yell]

Hip, heck tra boom!
Gin bisum yah zoom!
Hulla baloo, baloo, balee!
Old Willamette 'Varsity!

Fight 'em, Bearcats

Fight 'em, Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette thru the years
Fight with mighty, strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.
Fight 'em, Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted Gold.

Go, Willamette

Fight the fight that knows no fear,
Oh, Willamette, heart of cheer.
Then we'll shout the name we love
To the bending skys above.
Go Willamette, go Willamette, go W.U!
Go and win the victory.
Show them all, both great and small,
What Willamette fight can do.

Ricka-chicka-Boom !!!
Boom, Boom, Boom, Boom,
Boom, Boom, Boom !!!
Ah-hh-hh-hh-!
Ah-hh-hh-hh-!
Willamette, Willamette
Rah, Rah, Rah.

Alli-pa-dock

Alli-pa-dock; Ka-chee; Ka-ching
Ka-zeek, Ka-ziok, Biff, Bang, Bing !!!
Kick-a-poo, Wal-a-poo, Zip, Boom, Bah!!!
Willamette, Willamette, Rah, Rah, Rah.

K-Zip

K-zip, K-zip, K-zee.
K-zip, K-zip, K-zoo.
At 'em, Willamette;
Kill 'em, Willamette
Rah for W. U.

Locomotive

Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, W. U., W. U.
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, W. U., W. U.
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, W. U., W. U.
Rah, Rah, Rah, Rah, WILLAMETTE.

Y-e-a—W. U.

Y-e-a—W. U.
Y-e-a—W. U.
Y-e-a—W. U.
Fight 'em, Fight 'em, Fight 'em,
WILLAMETTE.

FRESHMAN GLEE—1921

Winning song, class of '23:

"Willamette Fight"

We are here to fight for Willamette,
And the Bearcats with courage so bold,
While our hearts are exalted with praises
Let us hail to the Cardinal and Gold.
Fight, fight, fight!
Rally for our dear old Willamette,
Raise the score to fame,
Bring forth to us the victory;
We're here to win the game.
With the grit and pep of the Bearcats,
Our fervor shall carry the day,
And the fight of our warriors shall send them
In triumph away from the fray.
Fight, fight, fight!
At them, Bearcats, victory's awaiting
For fighters that never say die.
Stand firm your ground for W. U.
And shout the victor's song.

SENIOR SONG

Bend the knee, yes bend the knee
To the Cardinal and the Gold,
Before the Bearcat's fighting power,
Mars himself must even cower.
Rise ye sons of Jason Lee,
We will win the victory.
So bend, bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.
Victory, yes victory to the Cardinal and the Gold.
Then fearful foes will bite the dust,
For win we will, for win we must.
Onward then to mastery,
This our fighting song shall be.
So bend, bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

FRESHMAN SONG

"Cheer, Willamette, Cheer"

JUNIOR SONG

"Hail Willamette"

Live Wires Class

---

Willamette students are most cordially invited to join Methodism's largest Sunday School class of mature young people in Salem—the Live Wires of Leslie Church. Down - to - the - minute topics and World-Wide Problems are taught and discussed in a practical and up-to-date manner. You will feel at home and not only have a place where you can get the home touch, but have a place as well where you can get sympathetic and intelligent counsel and advice, both as to your religious and temporal needs. Come—we have a place for you.

Very sincerely yours,

IVAN H. CORNER,

The Live Wires.
