

The Class of 1987
Proudly Presents
The 76th Annual

FRESHMAN GLEE 1984

FIGHT: AN ENDEAVOR OF HONOR

Willamette University

Dedication

Freshman Glee of 1984 is dedicated with pride and enthusiasm to Daniel H. Schulze, a man who has devoted much energy to the academic excellence of Willamette. He came to Willamette as Professor of Bible and Religion. From 1935 to 1946 he held the position of Dean of Men, and from 1946 to his retirement in 1965 was Professor of German.

Dr. Schulze was very involved in the tradition of Glee, and presented the Glee Banner for 12 years (1953-1965). Always having a smile and kind word, he was respected and loved by all who sought him for counsel.

In his honor the Daniel H. Schulze Award was created by the class of 1965 to annually honor a member of the senior class and who exemplifies "the spirit of Freshman Glee," and is considered "the best friend of the class."

HISTORY

Freshman Glee began in 1909 when the class of 1912 challenged the other classes to a song competition--an event which became a tradition distinct to Willamette. Glee has been held in the Chapel of Waller Hall, the First Methodist Church, the Salem Armory, and the old Willamette Gym (today's Playhouse). Since 1975, Cone Field House has been used to accommodate the everpopular Glee.

Freshman Glee was originally a simple presentation of songs on a bare stage. Over the years, elaborate sets, marching and complex formations have become essential parts of this special event.

"Freshman Glee is," according to the Wallulah of 1912, "an event belonging distinctly to Willamette. No other college in the Northwest, as far as known, no other college in the country has a similar contest."

JUDGES AND JUDGING

Lyrics/Composition: Mrs. Glenda Blanchard, Mr. Gary Frame and Prof. Charles Heiden

Vocal Rendition/Presentation: Prof. Maurice Brennen, Mr. Larry Brown, Miss Donna Cole and Mrs. Sharon Wallace

Marching/Formation: Mrs. Gwen Crane, Col. Hugh Nelson and Miss JoAnne Leddingham

FRESHMAN GLEE is judged in three major categories: musical composition and lyrics, vocal rendition, and marching and formations. Musical composition and lyrics is based on originality, coordination, adaptibility to the Glee theme and overall impact of the song. Vocal rendition is judged on expression, tone quality and musicality. Marching and formations are judged on the basis of precision, originality and overall impact. Using an established point system, the judges award points for each of the three areas. The class accumulating the most points will be the winner of Freshman Glee, and the loser walks the millstream for more marching practice on Blue Monday.

ODE TO WILLAMETTE

Words by Perry Reigleman 1912

Music by F.S Mendenhall, Dean of the School of Music

There's an old historic temple rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken hearted fathers drew their strength for strong careers;
Down the years, its portals open, Gathered wise ones to its fold.
Breathed the spirit of the Westland Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold

Dear old School! How strong we love thee! 'Round thy mem'ries how we cling!
Glad some hearts beneath thy shadow, loyal hearts to thee we bring.
Old Willamette how we cherish all thy legends and thy lore,
Born upon the calm Pacific, Guides us onward ever more.

Spirit of the Golden Westland, breathing through the father's tears,
Tells the story of the temple, bids us hope a down' the years.
Sing, oh, sing of dear Willamette, Sing while hearts are young and true,
Sea to sea the chorus swelling, Dear Old School of our W.U.

ANOTHER BEARCAT VICTORY

By Steve Gilson

Class of 1984

It's time to show your might, Willamette the bold,
Proudly fighting for our glory of old.
To victory we thunder, taking the foe,
Captive under Bearcat power as we go!
We'll conquer all who dare to tread in our path,
With our terrifying fury and wrath.
We'll triumph evermore as we score
ANOTHER BEARCAT VICTORY!

Cheer the mighty Bearcat team,
Their valor long shall reign supreme.
Soaring to the highest height,
We'll loudly cheer them onward, Fight! Fight! Fight!
Then go on to victory we fly,
The Gold and Cardinal we shall glorify.
Our fame we shall defend and in the end we'll see,
ANOTHER BEARCAT VICTORY!

INTERLUDE:

W.U. Bearcats Go! Prove your power and might!
Gold and Cardinal courage show, Fight! Fight! Fight!
W-I L-L-A M-E T-T-E
B-E-A-R-C-A-T-S
Bearcats, Bearcats, Bearcats, Bearcats
Go 'Cats Go! Rah! Rah! Rah!

HERE WE ARE

By Tim Duffy and Lisa Hellemn

Class of 1985

INTRODUCTION:

What is this thing called Glee?
Here we are and we're ready to win
Here we are (Repeat)

The Bearcat team is a fighting machine
at Willamette At Willamette
It just takes a few and the other team's through at Willamette At Willamette
We've got a lot of pride and nothing to hide
At Willamette At Willamette
We know we're the best 'cause we've passed the test at Willamette At Willamette

CHORALE:

We must pause just briefly to think about our past, To calculate just briefly, the time we've lost in class.
Willamette is the sort of place where one tries to stay sane. With never ending homework along with constant rain.

Willamette University, we want to thank you for our poverty. This is the time we'd like to say, we've enjoyed the therapy.
We've got a year till we are through.
The thought of ending makes us say to you,
We're a class that's alive,
We are the class of '85.

HAIL TO WILLAMETTE

By John Powell, Dean Radford, and Kathi Rice
Class of 1986

Hail to Willamette
It's for her we fight
the colors will call us and we'll fight on through the night.

REFRAIN

Honor bound, duty found
Our enemies will tremble for our might

Hail to Willamette
It's for her we sing
Our hearts filled with gladness
When the bells of Eaton ring.

Repeat refrain

Hail to Willamette
It's for her we love
She warmly surrounds us
all around and from above.

Repeat Refrain

Hail to Willamette
It's for her we live
Our minds become much stronger
As we learn how to give.

Repeat Refrain

THE QUEST FOR HONOR

By Sue Lundy and Brett Strobel

Naomi Sugino and Brenda Kisor

Class of 1987

In the age of old King Arthur
And the days of Guinevere,
They, like we, were searching
But the goal wasn't clear.
Knights in shining armor,
The clash of swords in battle;
A fight until death
In an endeavor of honor.

A fight to the finish
Is the way many see.
Is this what we want --
Do we think this is the key?
Have we looked at ourselves?
Is this what we want to be?

The way can be stormy
Or the way can be fair.
Wherever there's darkness,
The light's always there.
Is it the light that we want --
Or do we really care?

With our swords raised skyward
We will fight and defend.
Identity we will gain,
Our souls will not bend.
And when we find our following --
Honor in its true form,
We'll be true to ourselves
And we'll be reborn.

Now in modern times we're searching
For the goal King Arthur sought.
Could this be the meaning
Of the word our quest has brought?
Raise your swords in battle:
Fight to be yourself.
Be who you are
In an endeavor of honor.
