Ode to Willamette

By Perry Reigleman, '12

There's an old historic temple rising grandly through the years,
 Where the oaken hearted fathers drew their strength for strong careers;
 Down the years, its portals open,
 Gathered wise ones to its fold,
 Breathed the spirit of the Westland-Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.
 Dear old School! How strong we love thee! 'round thy mem'ries how we cling!
 Gladsome hearts beneath thy shadow, loyal hearts to thee we bring.
 Old Willamette how we cherish
 All thy legends and thy lore,
 Born upon the calm Pacific, Guides us onward evermore.
 Spirit of the Golden Westland, breathing through our father's tears,
 Tells the story of the temple, bids us hope adown the years,
 Sing, oh, sing of dear Willamette
 Sing while hearts are young and true,
 Sea to sea the chorus swelling, Dear Old School our W. U.

Our President's Message

A COLLEGE year-book is an intimate history of a world, populated by a peculiar people who are addicted to uniqueness. No other world is like it; nor does it remain the same for successive years. It is a pioneering world of adventuring souls. They are torch-lighters, trail-blazers, truth-testers and truth-finders. Their generation needs them, will neglect and honor them, will be saved by them.

The college man touches the widest range of experience; he develops a capacity for vast and keen contacts and is obliged to make them. His four years of youth with youth are a well-spring to which he will return for life's renewals. Memory and friendship will be a sun on darkened days and bread in desert places.

Therefore, it is good that Wallulah be written to make record of the time when life was fair, except for professors; when dreams were lovely, except for the toil needed to turn them into fact. These pages which now create interest and hilarity will in the future produce laughter and the tear, will awaken recollection and subdue the spirit, will cause wonder and a sweet sense of gratitude for Willamette's call—and your answer with yourself.

Carl G. Doney.

The Willamette Forward Movement

EIGHTY-THREE YEARS AGO last February Jason Lee and his missionary associates meeting near the present site of Salem determined to found an institution of higher learning—the first institution of higher learning west of the Rocky Mountains. After three-quarters of a century of service Willamette has been placed upon a financial basis which will insure its even greater and continued service to the Northwest in the future by the $1,250,000 endowment campaign, which was successfully concluded at midnight December 20.

The move for a permanent endowment was instituted in 1915, when Dr. Carl G. Doney, president of Willamette, interested Wallace Butterick of the Rockefeller General Board of Education in the financial needs of the school. Negotiations, which were halted by the war, were resumed with the result that in 1920 the board made an offer of $350,000 contingent upon the ability of the administration to raise the remainder of $1,000,000 for endowment purposes. The gift was made comparatively higher than the ordinary policy of the board permits. This was due, according to Mr. Butterick, who took a personal interest in the school, to the way in which the school had demonstrated its ability to give educational service as well as manage its business affairs in good shape. "We believe," declared Mr. Butterick, "that Willamette is an ideal center for a college of 1000 students."

With this promise in view, the board of trustees determined upon a wise course of action for Willamette. Instead of promoting mushroom growth of the student body, inaugurating an extensive building program, or pursuing other courses for immediate benefit but entailing a heavier liability than could be permanently beneficial, the trustees decided to build up an endowment large enough to insure the permanent financial basis of the school, to add buildings, equipment facilities and faculty as those funds become available, and allow the student body by a selective method to gradually increase to the neighborhood of 1000 students. The endowment was placed at $1,000,000 to meet the requirements of the board and an additional $250,000 added for building purposes.

Two years were spent in organization of the campaign. Under the leadership of Dr. John W. Hancher, counsellor in finance of the Methodist Board of Education, the forward movement was launched in September of 1922 and ended at 11 o'clock the night of December 20, over-subscribed by several thousand dollars. Trustees, officers of administration, faculty, students, alumni, Methodists of Oregon, and members of other denominations splendidly donated time and effort to make the campaign a success and congratulation is due them all.

Some large individual gifts were received, the most notable of which were the pledges of $100,000 each by E. S. Collins of Portland, and R. A. Booth of Eugene, Oregon. Approximately $250,000 was raised in Salem and a like amount in Portland.

WALLULAH

The student body played a big part in making the campaign a success both by definite work and by individual, class, and group subscriptions. Student subscriptions aggregated over $53,000, or an average of more than $100 per student. The Portland Telegram commenting on the student drive said editorially: "A subscription of nearly $100 per capita by students, many of whom are working their way through college, is eloquent evidence of a fine college spirit. No unworthy institution of learning could command such loyalty." The entire student subscription will be devoted to the endowment of the "James T. Matthews Chair of Mathematics by the Classes of 1923-24-25-26," in honor of the beloved head of the mathematics department who has devoted more than thirty years of his life to Willamette University and to Willamette students.

The university has received congratulations from its hosts of friends in every section of the country. The same congratulatory spirit is reflected by the press of the state.

"The response of the people of Oregon to Willamette University's appeal for an endowment fund of $1,250,000 is first gratifying and then amazing, under all of the circumstances, and affords material for philosophic reflection," reads an editorial in the Oregonian. "The breadth of the principle of which the success of the campaign is an endorsement is indicated by the circumstances that a very considerable proportion of the contributors are men and women not members of the Methodist church."

"A better financed Willamette University is of great value to the state," declares the Oregon Journal. "There is no better education. At the denominational institution more attention is paid to Christian character building. The impressions from such college training are never effaced. Nobody knows to what extent this ancient temple of character-moulding has influenced Oregon for the better."

The most immediate result of the campaign will be the construction of the new gymnasium to replace the old structure, which was destroyed by fire two years ago. The new building will cost in the neighborhood of $70,000, will be equipped with swimming tank, basketball court, locker and dressing rooms, physical education equipment—in fact, the very latest specifications for one of the best college gymnasiums in the Northwest. A central heating plant is next.

Other probable results as listed by Dr. Doney are: the financial permanency of the institution assured, a larger student body received under constantly improving conditions of instruction, thousands of new friends who have informed themselves about the school and evidenced their friendship by their gifts, and the students and faculty heartened and encouraged.

CLASSES

SENIORS

Class of 1923

AS UGLY ducklings three years ago we were not allowed to boast, but now at the time of our swan song, we shall preen our feathers and none shall forbid. As the class of '23 we have left our impress on every phase of campus life, from athletics to forensics. We placed five men on the football team in our freshman year and also three out of four debaters. Four of those men have won four-year blanket awards in football. We have assisted in the improvement of the campus by building a cement walk east from Eaton hall. We have left our imprint on school traditions by breaking the green cap Sunday observance. Our record in Freshman glee contests is one third place, two seconds and one first. We have always loyally supported the activities and growth of the school as our pledges to the endowment of Willamette will bear testimony. We believe that we may modestly claim the right to say that we have rendered a good account of ourselves.

And now, as we prepare to leave the old familiar halls, we cannot help but have certain emotions. We are glad that we shall always have four unforgettable years of Willamette life upon which we can look back. We are sorry that it is time for us to leave; that we cannot stay on. We are glad that we have played our part in making Willamette a bigger, better school than it was when we found it. We regret that we have not played a greater part; that our record is not a better one. Still, we must remember that these things are past and cannot be changed. It is now for us to look forward to the time when, leaving the campus, we shall go out into the world and continue, to the best of our ability, to represent Willamette University, now our Alma Mater.

JUNIORS

Class of 1924

THE class of '24 entered school during the reactionary period following the world war. This had its effect on the type and personnel of our class. Our reward has come chiefly thru persistency and industry rather than thru brilliance and talent. We have run the same cycle as other classes. Our efforts in student body activities this year have been outstanding. We captured first place in the Freshman Glee, presented the Junior Play, staged a successful Junior Week-end and edited the WALLULAH.

The philosophy of a Junior is a happy philosophy. He already has achieved three milestones and is pressing forward with eagerness to attain the fourth. He has left his academic immaturity behind him and does not yet hear the clarion call of Service into the vacant places of the world. Little does he dream that tomorrow, today will be a happy memory.

Junior Week-end is passed. Now we assume the role of Seniors. Hope is our oriflamme — we cannot fail!

SOPHOMORES

Class of 1925

A SOPHOMORE is a year-old Freshman with the newness worn off. For that reason, his logical place is an important position in the background of college activities. The ideal Sophomore is one whose bubbling enthusiasm of Freshman days has simmered down to careful, persistent effort, backed by worthy purposes and unselfish motives.

The Class of '25 is proud of its Freshman year. It is still more proud of its Sophomore year. It has filled its place quietly, yet convincingly, accomplishing its undertakings. It has supplied its share of men for the basketball, football and track teams. Two wearers of the Bar "W" are from its membership.

When the call came for the students to contribute to the endowment fund, the Class of '25 showed its true Willamette spirit by being the first of the four classes to go over the top.

The Sophomore class was greatly outnumbered by the Freshmen, and apparently was the loser in early class "scraps," but when the real organized contest came in the form of the bag rush, the class proved its ability.

The Class of '25 is starting at the bottom, and rising step by step, but the final heights cannot be estimated by height or depth, for the Sophomore class is "building the ladder by which it climbs."

Class of 1925

GREEN as the Freshmen must proverbially be, the Class of Nineteen Twenty-six has evidenced an abundance of real school spirit and has contributed no small share to the success of Willamette's enterprises. It promptly organized, and the success of its organization was shown in the way in which the "wearers of the green" vanquished the aggressive Sophomores. Later the class voluntarily cleaned up the campus and athletic field before the command was given by the upper-classmen. In debate and oratory the class made a worthy record, while in interclass athletic contests it scored high.

It was only to be expected that a class which displayed such spirit in its own undertakings should evidence a corresponding spirit in school affairs. A moment's consideration of the part played in putting over the endowment campaign or a brief glance at the names of the representatives it has furnished the university in forensics and every branch of her athletic activities will reveal at once the devotion and contribution of the class to the "old school."

The school has reason to be proud of a class which has entered with such zeal into every task which has arisen, and has well fulfilled its duties in upholding the standards of the institution. With such a beginning, great things may be predicted for the Class of '26.

Kimball Glee Club

THE GLEE CLUB of Kimball School of Theology has been engaged in an active season of preparation and public appearances. Under the excellent leadership of Professor Donald W. Riddle, a well balanced program has been developed. The Club has appeared in concerts at Dayton, Pratum, Livesley and the State Penitentiary and has received appreciative commendations. Percival M. Blenkinsop is president of the club and Mrs. Donald W. Riddle is accompanist and soloist.

Kimball School of Theology

KIMBALL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY is the outstanding Christian leadership training school of the Northwest. The seminary was organized January 31, 1906, by Dr. Henry D. Kimball, and the building in which it was located was the gift of his wife, Mrs. Luella D. Kimball. It is located on the campus of Willamette University and the two schools co-operate in the exchange of courses but are wholly independent in business administration.

Already the school has passed the one hundred mark in enrollment. Many of these are Life Service students from Willamette University who are majoring in Religion. In view of the great need for Christian Workers in the West the growth of Kimball is heralded with much rejoicing.

ATHLETICS

The New Gymnasium

THE most outstanding and immediate result of the Endowment Campaign is the new gymnasium. This edifice, which will fill a long-felt need on the Willamette campus, will be a strictly modern structure, costing $70,000 and embodying all the best ideas in gymnasium building. Men's and women's locker rooms, a large basketball floor, classrooms, and modern equipment of the best kind will be included.

Work is already begun and the building will be ready for occupancy by next fall. The gymnasium is being built near the mill-race, in such a position as to be adjacent to the old Sweetland field, and also in position for the new athletic field, which is to be placed on the east end of the campus in the near future.

The basket-ball floor will be one of the finest in this part of the country, and, in addition to providing a place for basketball games, will provide a place for all University functions, which have been heretofore held in the society halls in Waller Hall, and have suffered from lack of space.

COACH ROY BOHLER

Coach Bohler, at the end of his second year as mentor of Willamette University, still seems to be struggling with the jinx which marked his arrival here. In spite of this, however, he has worked on for the best interests of Willamette. He has put clean athletics above victories, and the hard-fighting teams of the last couple of years reflect his spirit. The success of the basketball tournament was largely due to his efforts.

ASSISTANT COACH SPARKS

As the handling of Willamette teams has become too great for one man, an assistant was added to the department this year. Leslie Sparks, an alumnus of Willamette, who has taken special work in coaching, was chosen for the position. He demonstrated his worth in the excellent way in which he handled the second team in football, and the Freshman basketball team. In this team he developed several men into varsity material.

ATHLETIC MANAGER CAUGHLAN

After having served out the term of the athletic manager last spring, Caughlan entered upon his duties this year with a knowledge which has resulted in efficiency.

Caughlan is the last of the athletic managers of all sports. Under the new constitution, the work will be divided under a manager for each sport.

CAPTAIN ZELLER

Zeller, this year, closed a very remarkable career in football at Willamette. Numbered among his achievements is four years of participation, during which time he has played in every game. He has had very little time taken out for injuries. He served as captain for two years. Willamette shall certainly miss his marvelous broken-field running and general all around play. Zeller would be an addition to any team.

CAPTAIN-ELECT PATTON

This sandy-haired youth from Forest Grove played his second year of varsity ball this season. He was shifted to left end, where he found his stride. He is eminently qualified to make a good field general next year.

CONVERTING A GOAL

The Season of 1922

THE 1922 FOOTBALL SEASON was one of those heart-breaking ones which come to every institution at one time or another, and which can only be forgotten with the resolve to do better next time. Weight, experience, and an unbeatable "jinx" were all against the Bearcats in the important contests.

In the initial game of the season the Alumni fell to the tune of 17-7. After the first quarter the game was slow on account of the poor condition of both teams. Zeller showed up as the star of the game. The game had a few thrills in the line of an alumni defense on the first yard line and a blocked kick, which paved the way for the only alumni score.

The University of Oregon swamped the Bearcats, 37-0, in the next game of the season. The old Willamette fight was prominent throughout the contest and Willamette held the heavy and experienced warriors of the Lemon-Yellow for the whole first half to a single touchdown. Twice

Willamette threatened to score, once on a phenomenal run on an intercepted pass by Zeller, which was stopped almost on the goal line and again on an attempted drop-kick by Isham. In the last half Oregon scored four touchdowns, two of which were in the last three minutes on a fumble and a blocked punt.

Linfield was the victim in a practice game, which the Bearcats won, 26-0, and used in trying out new men and in perfecting an offense. This was Linfield's first football game for fifteen years and they proved themselves worthy opponents. In another year or two they will be a factor to be reckoned with. The Chemawa Indians next succumbed to the Bearcat's attack in a contest which ended 52-6. The thriller of the game was a fifty-yard run on an intercepted pass by Bryson, Indian half, for a touchdown.

game of all was that against Whitman, which the Bearcats won and then lost in the last quarter, 9-7, when they mistook the linesman's whistle for the referee's and allowed a Whitman runner to slip over for a touchdown. The contest was hard fought throughout. Whitman scored a field kick in the first quarter. Willamette took the offensive after that. By numerous penalties, Willamette was kept from scoring until the third quarter, when a poor punt opened the way for a touchdown on a thirty-yard run by Zeller. During the fourth quarter, Whitman opened their bag of tricks and finally put over the winning score.

Close on the heels of the defeat by Whitman came another by Pacific, the second one in fifteen years. This time Pacific humbled the Bearcats 20-6 in a game in which Willamette seemed unable to cope with the Badgers' trick formations and fast play. In the first quarter Willamette rushed the ball down the field for a touchdown. After that Pacific opened up with a series of tricks and soon evened the count. Then Willamette nearly scored on a thirty-yard pass, but failed to put the ball over. Pacific gained two more touchdowns before the final gun sounded.

Before the season ended the Bearcats again white-washed Linfield—this time 36-0 on their own field. This game was a repetition of the first, with the result at no time in question. Piling up a score was the only concern of the Bearcats. The last game of the season was lost, 9-0, to the College of Puget Sound in a sea of mud. The advantage of weight on the muddy field was one of the deciding factors. The first score was on a safety after a blocked punt. Willamette then carried the ball down the field to the eleven-yard line, when an intercepted pass and a ninety-yard run by Parker, the C. P. S. half, finished the scoring of the game with a touchdown. The second was a grind in which C. P. S. used its weight in pushing the ball down the field, and Willamette, not being able to punch the line, resorted to end runs and passes. On one of these, Zeller made an eighty-five yard run, and was prevented from making a touchdown only by being forced to step out of bounds when a few yards from the goal line.

BUCKING IT THROUGH TACKLE

Thus ended the season of 1922. Bohler found plenty of green material to work with during the season, but inexperience and lack of weight handicapped his men in nearly every game. Captain Zeller was outstanding for his individual work during the season. In one game he made three runs—one 45 yards, one 60 yards, and another 80 yards for touchdowns. The squad will lose Zeller, Bain and White. The rest of the men are expected back. With the experience of the season just passed behind them, the prospects for next year may be viewed with hope.

A heavy schedule—in fact, the heaviest Willamette has ever attempted—will be played. Coach Bohler has arranged for the Bearcats to meet the University of Washington at Seattle, the University of Oregon at Salem, Whitman College at Salem, Pacific University at Salem, and College of Puget Sound at Tacoma. Games with Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis and University of Idaho at Moscow are still pending. Other games with Linfield, College of Idaho, and smaller schools, may be added.

A supreme effort will be made to put a strong Bearcat team in the field next fall. The fullest co-operation of the new athletic council has been pledged to assist in that direction, and, with the addition of the new gymnasium and equipment, athletes of experience should be attracted.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Basketball

A RECORD of thirteen straight defeats is not a disgrace when it is accompanied by such a fighting spirit as that which marked the work of the Bearcat squad this season. Lack of experience and weight removed any chance of developing a winning combination. With Logan and Patton as the only men of experience, Bohler labored to develop from the host of green material men of sufficient strength to make a winning combination.

As far as fight went, Willamette measured up to the standard of any of its opponents — fight which was maintained in every game of the season in the face of the most hopeless odds. Only the superior shooting ability of opposing teams caused the score to indicate such one-sided results.

The first game of the season was with Oregon Agricultural College. This team, with two All-Coast men, and four letter men, took the Bearcats into camp at the small end of a 38-19 score. This was a good start against one of the strongest teams in the conference.

When the Whitman team came, the Missionaries were doped to win easily, but the Bearcats upset the dope. Whitman was given a fight which it will not forget soon. The Bearcats rallied again and again, but could not quite make the grade. The game was more even than the score of 29-18 would indicate.

After throwing a scare into the camp of the Vandals by keeping at the long end of the score for the first ten minutes, the Bearcats lost out. Fox, Idaho captain, had his rabbit foot with him, and garnered shots from all parts of the floor for an individual score of 30 points. The final score was 49-13.

The University of Washington came next. Weight and skill were all with the Huskies, and they won, 42-16.

Because of his speedy work, Patton was shifted to forward as a running mate for Captain Logan. These men worked well together, and the shift strengthened the lineup materially. However, it was not strong enough to beat the fast, rangy Pacific five, who won a 19-18 victory. Willamette held the lead until just as the gun sounded a long shot connected with the Pacific basket.

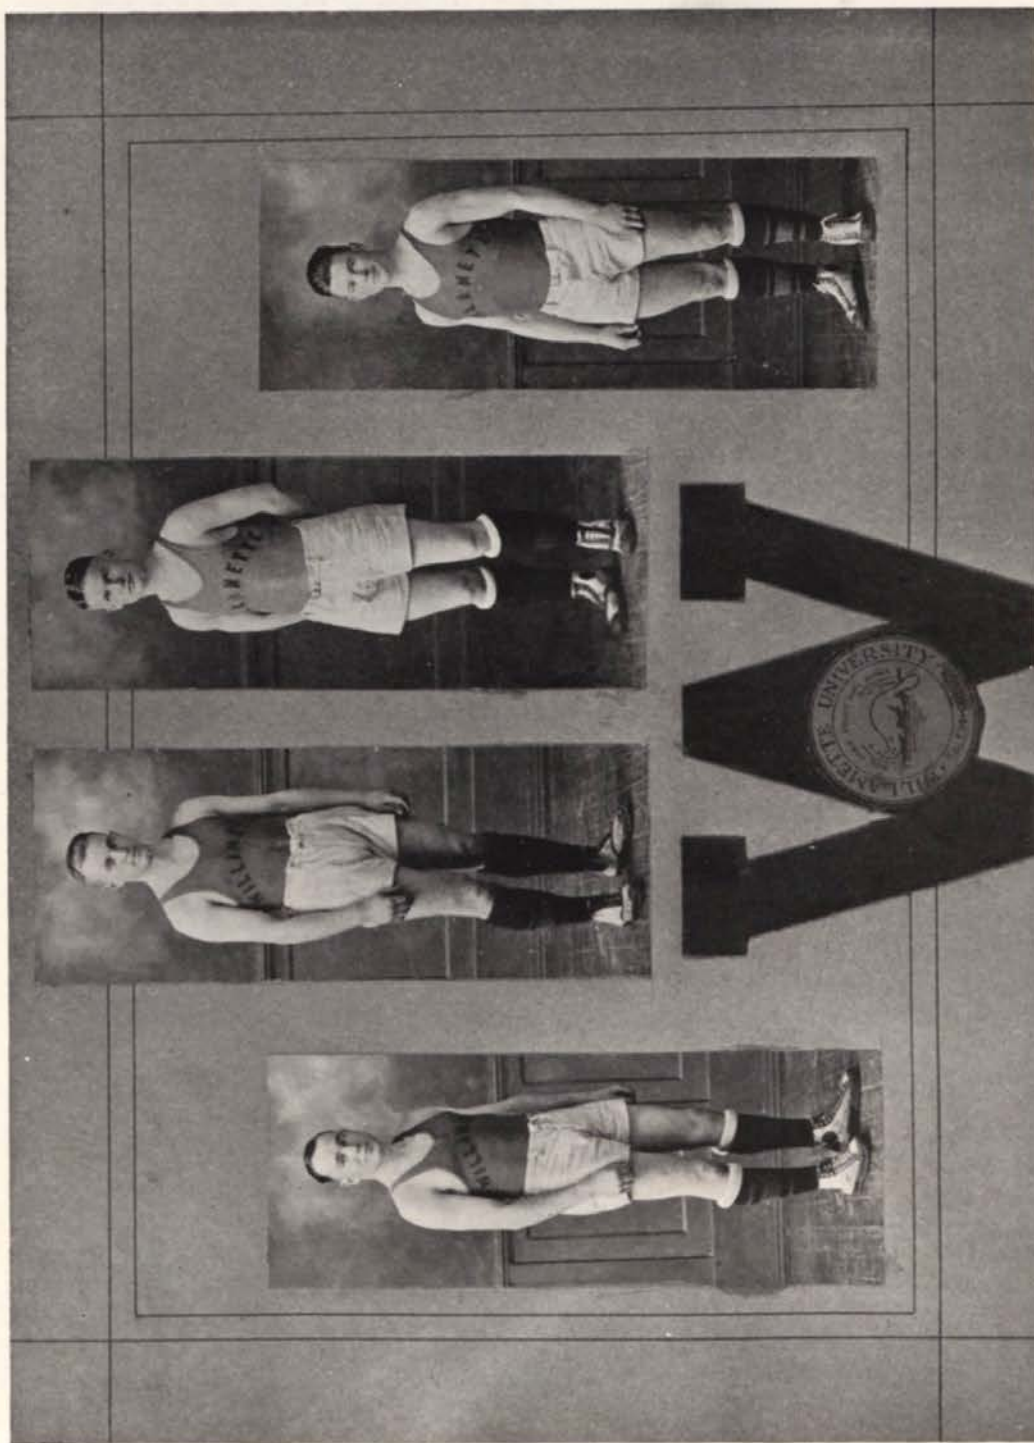

The trip north was a disastrous one. Stolzheise was unable to go, and Shepard and Jones, who looked good at the first of the season, were declared ineligible because of scholastic standing. However, Bohler took several Freshmen along, with the idea of developing them. In the process, Multnomah walked on the Bearcats, 48-18, and Whitman twice overcame them, 30-13 and 39-28. Idaho again took the Bearcats' measure, 62-23, and Washington State College, after defeating Willamette with second string men in Salem a week before, 33-11, repeated, this time 35-17. Gonzaga piled up 37 marks on the scoreboard against the Bearcats' 17.

CAPTAIN LOGAN Forward

"Vic" Logan proved himself a fighting leader in a season of hard luck. This Eastern Oregon bunch-grasser has made good by ranking among the best scorers in the conference. He should be in rare form next year.

The final Pacific game was a fight from beginning to end, with the score close and the winner doubtful. The Bearcats had a grim determination to win, and they fought gamely and well. However, Balcom of Pacific, converting 11 out of 13 fouls, won the game for the Red and Black. Willamette excelled in floor work, but could not convert the fouls. Within the last three minutes the score was 19-all, but Pacific, by a field basket and two fouls, made it reach 23 to 19 in their favor.

In the unlucky thirteenth conference game, Oregon handed the Bearcats a lemon in the shape of a 61-20 defeat. This may have been in revenge for the defeats of last year, when Willamette made Oregon take the cellar in conference standing. This year Willamette holds that place undisputed.

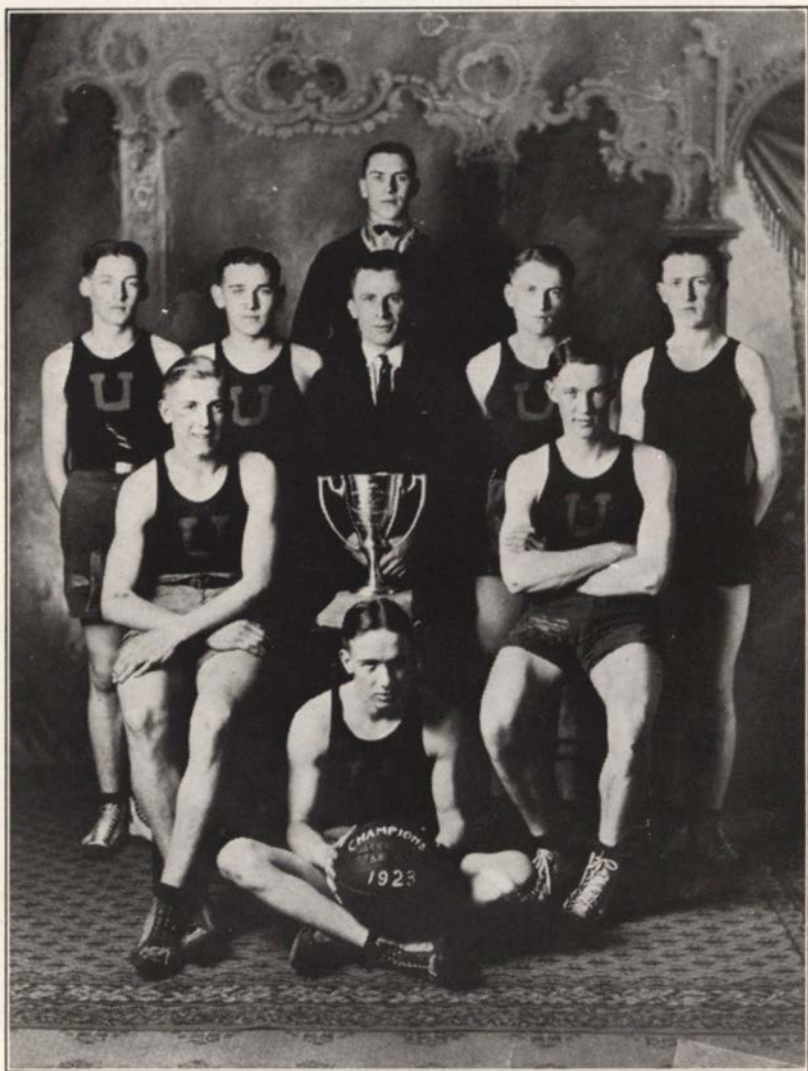

Next season will see the same team in suit—a team of veterans whose spirit thirteen defeats could not daunt. A much different standing is anticipated.

State Basketball Tournament

THE 1923 State Basketball tournament was the most successful held so far. Eight fast, hard, clean games of high-class basketball, any of which might have been a championship game, came to a climax when the University High team of Eugene carried off championship honors by defeating Astoria, 28-25.

The teams coming from The Dalles, Astoria and University High were all of championship caliber, but the southern team, with two players only fifteen years old, showed the most consistent form in breaking up plays and in garnering in baskets from all points of the floor. They fought throughout and showed the result of good coaching combined with plenty of fight.

The championship game, between Astoria and University was a real thriller and the result was in doubt until the final gun had sounded. Four times during the game with the "Fighting Fins" the score was tied.

WALLULAH

Within five minutes of the end of the game the scoreboard showed 25-25, with both teams playing like demons. Then a foul shot made it 26-25. After this Astoria missed several shots which would have won the game, but just as the gun sounded Ridings of University High dropped in a basket and the game ended, 28-25.

IN THE 1922 BASEBALL SEASON Willamette showed up well, taking five out of eight games by decisive scores. All three of the games lost were to teams which had been previously beaten, but who managed to scare up enough horseshoes to pull them out on top of the second game.

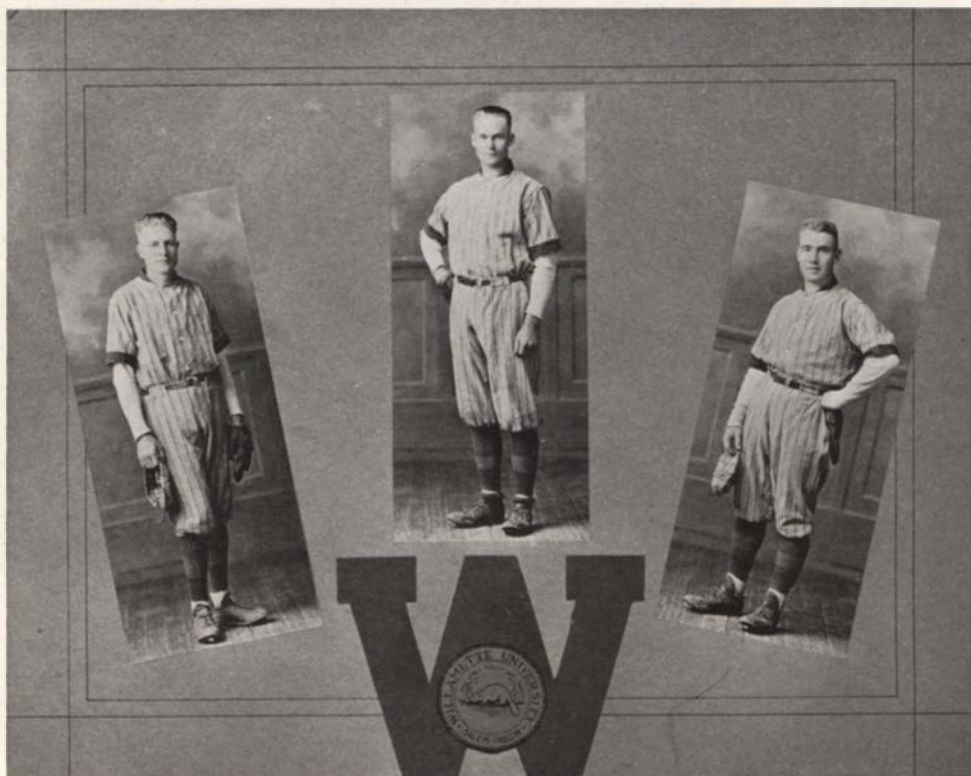

The season had a bad opening in a loss to Albany 9-4. Both teams played poor ball and showed first season form.

The next game against Pacific showed more baseball and resulted in a Willamette win 5-1. Ashby showed good pitching form and two double plays by the Willamette infield were the features of the game.

Linfield threw a scare into Willamette when in the ninth inning, with the score 5-0 in favor of Willamette and two outs already chalked up, they ran in three runs. Errors in the Bearcat infield were responsible for this, but they tightened up and the game ended 5-3.

Albany next fell under the Bearcat attack, 4-2. The first score of the game came from a home run by Isham, over center field. This was the only home run of the season, and started a scoring which did not end until the Bearcats had won the game.

The Pacific game was a winner on Bearcat fight and last inning rally. At the beginning of the seventh the score stood 6-2 in favor of Pacific, and both teams going good. In the seventh three walks and a hit gave the Bearcats three tallies. In the ninth, four more runs were scored and the game ended 9-6.

In the next contest, Linfield won 7-2. Weak hitting and fielding on the part of the Bearcats was responsible.

Willamette returned to early season form in the Chemawa game and lost, 6-5. A rally in the ninth gave the Bearcats five runs, but not enough to win.

The prospects for the coming season are very good, as practically all of last year's letter men are in school, and the Freshman class has brought in some very promising and experienced baseball men. Some of last year's regulars will have to scramble for their places.

The year's schedule as planned included games with the University of Oregon, Pacific, Linfield, Chemawa, and Mount Angel, with the possibility of more games. Baseball at Willamette has staged a comeback that we hope will last.

Dean Pollock, captain of the track squad, was easily the outstanding man of the season. THE 1922 TRACK SEASON had a poor send-off in the relay meet held at the University of Oregon on April 15. Due to a misunderstanding, only a part of the track team was taken along. To add to this, in the two-mile relay the team was not called from the dressing room, and lost their chance. However, the team managed to scrape up fifteen points, while Pacific won in the B division with forty-five points.

The next track class of the season was with Chemawa, in which the Redskins were scalped most cruelly. Six

As a workout it was good, but was not much of a track meet. Logan's run of the mile, half the way in bare feet, deserves mention. After stopping twice to fix his shoes, he discarded them and ran "a la" small boy, winning easily in spite of stops.

The Bearcats showed their goods in the non-conference meet held on Sweetland field. At the end of the meet, Willamette had 66 points, Pacific 40½, Linfield 30, and

Moodhe

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, after a record of eight victories and no defeats, holds undisputed title as champion of the Northwest. Numbered among those overcome are Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, Idaho, and Washington State College.

Moodhe, a player of years' experience, has been for the last two years individual collegiate champion of the Northwest with a record of no defeats in four years' participation in collegiate tennis. Doney, another four-year man, could not show as good a record, but he is one of the most brilliant players ever seen in action on the Willamette courts. Huston, although this was his first year, showed his metal in winning a majority of his matches during the year and has earned himself a place in tennis circles.

The first meet of the season was against the University of Oregon, resulting in a three-to-two victory for the Bearcats. This was a hard-fought meet, lasting from 11 in the morning until 7 in the evening. The longest match of the day was between Moodhe and Smith, which lasted from 11 A. M. until 2 P. M., Moodhe winning, 3-6, 7-5, 9-7.

Washington State College next fell under the slashing attack of the Bearcats, 4 to 1. "Nibs" played in his usual form. Doney and Huston played a steady game.

The Varsity showed superiority over O. A. C. in the next match, 3 to 2. The Willamette men were hampered by dirt courts, but won in spite of that. Albany was met the same week and easily defeated, 3 to 0.

The Northern trip resulted in excellent returns in defeats handed out to the University of

A unique precedent was set when, on account of rain the preceding day, but the University of Idaho and Washington State College were met and defeated in a single day. The Vandals were snowed under in straight sets, only being able to get seven games in six sets. That same afternoon Washington State College was met and defeated a second time this season, 2 to 1. The Spokane Athletic Club fell, 2 to 1, after a hard struggle.

The last meet of the season resulted in white-washing O. A. C. 5 to 0. Huston won the first match after a hard fight, 10 to 8 and 6 to 2. Moodhe won on straight sets, giving him clear title to individual collegiate Northwest champion. Doney staged a come-back and defeated his old rival, Maberly, in great style. Maberly had defeated Doney a number of times before and the first set went to him, 6 to 0. The second set was a battle royal.

Doney played with a brilliancy which he never before had exhibited, winning 9 to 7. He also annexed the last set 6 to 1. The Bearcats took the doubles and the fighting of Doney and Moodhe for the Cardinal and Gold was ended in a well-won victory—and with it undisputed claim to the Northwest Conference tennis title.

Inter-Class Rivalry

THE INTER-CLASS rivalry contest series is not yet completed. The latest available report as the Wallulah goes to press leaves the Seniors and Sophomores in a neck-and-neck race for the finish with Sophomores ahead. The Juniors are a length behind and Freshmen trailing. The standing up to May 24, as officially compiled, is:

Sophomores	20
Seniors	17
Juniors	12½
Freshmen	11½

The first event on the calendar of contests was the cross-country run. Only the Sophomores and Freshmen entered teams for the race, which was won by the second-year men by a good margin of points. Laird of the Rooks finished first, but his teammates did not place sufficiently high to support him.

The basketball series was won by the Senior class team. The Freshmen finished second, the Juniors third, and the Sophomores took fourth place. Due to the early season condition of the players, these games were exceedingly rough and showed poor basketball form. They served, however, to uncover several varsity prospects. The games were hotly contested and well attended.

Rodney Alden, with his oration, "The Hearts of Men," placed first for the Seniors in the oratorical contest. Merle Bonney was accorded second place for the Sophomores, and George Oliver, Junior, and Walter Lee, Freshman, placed third and fourth, respectively.

The Juniors proved dark horses in the Freshman Glee Contest. After placing third and fourth in the past two contests they came from behind this year and romped home with flying colors. Their song, "Dream On," was a serenade, and took first place with undisputed merit. The Seniors took second, the Sophomores third, and the Freshmen last. The silver clasp bearing the numeral of 1924 will be pinned to the Freshman glee pennant.

WALLULAH

The Freshmen walked away with the inter-class track meet by a score of 66 points. The Sophomores finished second with 25 points, the Seniors third with 14, and the Juniors last with 8. Stolzheise, a first-year man, was high-point man of the meet with a total of 17 points. Most of his points were won in the weights. Some splendid Freshman prospects were given an opportunity to prove their ability in this meet.

The debate series was won by the Sophomores after a hard struggle with the Seniors. The question discussed was, "Resolved, That the United States should establish a Federal Court with power to enforce its decisions for the adjudication of industrial disputes." In the first round the Freshmen team, composed of Warren Day and Victor Hicks, met defeat at the hands of Robert Forkner and Rawson Chapin, representing the Sophomores, while the Senior team, composed of Elmer Strevey and Grace Brainerd, were winning over Ethel Adams and Linden Martin, Juniors. In the final the Sophomores were victorious. All the decisions were by 2-to-1 verdicts.

The Juniors took the baseball title by defeating the Seniors 18-6 and Sophomores, who had previously defeated the Freshmen in the finals 8-4. Third place is yet to be settled between Seniors and Freshmen. This point together with the tennis results may decide the final standings.

IF THE SUCCESS of a Frosh basketball team must be judged entirely by the number of games won, then the class of '26 did not have a brilliant success. But if, on the other hand, we judge a Frosh team by the material that it finds and develops for the more important Varsity squad, then we can say that the basketball team of the class of '26 was a decided success. Five of the Frosh players participated in Varsity games. Stolzheise won his letter, Erickson participated in games on the trip, and Hiday, Jones and Robertson played in at least two games. The Frosh defeated the Sophs 9 to 2; the Juniors, 13 to 11; but lost to the Seniors, 16 to 19, securing second place in inter-class basketball. The Green Cappers won 6 out of 11 games. Some of the outside teams which they played were Jefferson High of Portland, Salem High, Turner High, and Silverton High. Assistant Coach Sparks handled the squad.

YELL KING LOCKWOOD AND CROWN PRINCE REHBOCK

Pell Leaders

UNDER THE able leadership of Yell King Lockwood and Crown Prince Rehbock the pep rallies at Willamette have been very successful. The Freshman bonfire last fall was a pep-raiser and the excursion to Pacific University was put over in good style.

King Lockwood deserves especial mention for his organizing the "Cubs," which have begun to serve efficiently at rallies, games, and other student activities.

THE WILLAMETTE CUBS established themselves on the campus January 1, 1923, for the purpose of maintaining the general campus friendliness and greeting and entertaining visitors in a very unique and systematic manner. The occasions in which they are most active are during varsity athletic games, the annual high school tournament, and Junior Week-end. Freshmen and Sophomores compose the membership, except higher officers and ex-officio advisors.

Freshman Glee

ONE of the richest of Willamette's traditions and memories is yearly perpetuated in the annual Freshman Glee. Originating fifteen years ago, this contest has continued, bringing with it Willamette's glorious heritage of songs, to tie the hearts of her loyal subjects closer to that of their Alma Mater.

The contest of this year was a hard fought battle which resulted in the class of 1924 with its song — "Dream On" — taking the laurels, while 1923 ran a close second; 1925 and 1926 took third and fourth places respectively.

WALLULAH

"Dream On"

Words by Ruth Hill

Music by Kathleen La Raut and Mary Jane Albert

I

The stars are softly gleaming
In the shadows of the night,
The moon like glowing silver
Covers all with mellow light,
The world is resting peaceful
From the hurry of the day,
So now beneath your window
Do I sing to you and say:

CHORUS:

(Boys Sing)

Dream on, gently, pretty maiden,
Till the golden heart of you
Thrills with night-times silver beauty,
And your fairest dreams come true.

(Girls Sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
May the youthful heart of you
Thrill with life and love and glory,
And your fairest dreams come true.

II

The mill stream ripples onward
Through the mottled shade of trees,
The moon is wafted gently
By the golden evening breeze,
And making light the shadows
Dance the moonlight fairy beams,
They mingle with our music
And they harmonize your dreams.

Co-ed Carnival

THE co-ed Carnival has become an annual springtime custom. Each woman's organization on the campus presents a stunt which is judged for beauty, cleverness and originality. A silver loving cup is awarded each year by a local firm to the winner. This year the honors fell to Lausanne hall. The picture of their stunt appears above.

The Forensic Council

FOLLOWING the outline as provided in the new constitution the Forensic Council was this year organized upon a new basis. The Councilman of the council was given supervisory powers over the management of debate and oratory with two assistants to serve as managers of men's and women's debate. Robert C. Littler was named chairman of the council, Merle Bonney manager of men's debate and oratory and Francis Kinch manager of women's debate. Mr. Kinch resigned in the middle of the year. Other members of the council were: Rodney Alden and Ruby Rosenkranz. Mr. Littler conducted, personally, the plans for the varsity debate trip.

Among the activities of the council were the successful staging of the eastern debate trip for the men's varsity, the entertaining of the state oratorical Peace Contest and the scheduling of debates for the women's varsity with University of British Columbia and University of California, which for outside reasons were canceled. Mr. Bonney deserves mention for the efficient way he handled inter-class forensics.

OLD LINE CONTEST

IN WILLAMETTE'S first inter-collegiate forensic clash of the year, Roy Skeen, Bearcat orator, carried off honors for the Varsity in taking third place over the University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, and twice as many other schools at the annual Old Line state oratorical contest at Albany. It does not discredit the six orators that fell below him to say that they were defeated by an able, eloquent speaker, nor does it detract from the glory of those two who were fortunate enough to place above him to add that they did so only after a close contest.

PEACE ORATORICAL CONTEST

LELAND CHAPIN represented Willamette in the Peace Oratorical Contest. He took third place. His oration, "The International Mind," easily placed first in composition. In delivery one judge rated him as low as possible against the unanimous verdict of the remainder, who placed him an easy second. Even so, Leland ranked within 5 points of Elmer Goudy, of Oregon Agricultural College, who placed first, and within less than one tenth of one per cent of George Owen, of Oregon, who took second place. A prize of $75 went to Goudy for his oration, "The Pitfalls of Peace," and a prize of $35 to George Owen for "The Higher Patriotism."

Debate

THE varsity debate team ended a season marked with victory and notable for the permanent forensic reputation and relations established. Five victories in six debates on the tour, which extended east to Chicago, south to Arizona and California, and north to Salem, is one result of the trip; two signed contracts for return contests and prospects of entering the recently formed Pacific Coast debate conference is another.

The squad was composed of Robert Littler, Robert Notson, Rodney Alden and Ward Southworth. The question debated on the trip was Resolved, That the United States should enter the League of Nations. Willamette upheld the affirmative throughout, which, by choice of all of the schools met, was the unpopular side of the question.

The first debate was to have been with the University of North Dakota on the Oxford no-decision plan, but had to be canceled because the snow-blocked passes in the Rocky Mountains delayed the team in reaching Grand Forks. Gustavus Adolphus College, at St. Peter, Minnesota, offered stiff resistance in the first clash, due to their familiarity and experience with the question, but Willamette took the decision on argument by vote of the critic-judge.

WALLULAH

Lawrence College, at Appleton, Wisconsin, administered the first and only defeat which the Willamette debaters have experienced in two years. Experience in six previous debates was of great assistance to these men, who handled their case cleverly enough to win, 2 to 1. Wheaton College was an easy victim, and the Bearcat hot-air expounders were victorious.

The University of Arizona team was routed in their desert oasis at Tucson by a vote of 2 to 1. Arizona is a Delta Sigma Rho school and two of their team were post-graduates of wide debate experience.

The University of Redlands debate was something of a repetition of last year's performance, and the decision was the same — a 2 to 1 victory for Willamette. Redlands had previously won the collegiate championship of Southern California, and had been primed by their noted coach, Egbert Ray Nichol, for the Willamette contest. The debate was a battle royal, but the Willamette men defeated the Redlands men at their own strategy.

The last debate of the trip was with College of the Pacific at San Jose. The Pacific men had a good case, but the Willamette men were veterans at handling such cases from previous experience. The decision was 3 to 0 for Willamette. J. G. Emerson, coach of debate at Stanford, who judged the contest, remarked that he had seldom seen a team with such team work and pleasing delivery on the platform.

Two contracts are already signed for return appearances in Salem next year. University of Arizona and Lawrence College of Wisconsin have both agreed to terms. Probably of more permanent importance is the possibility of Willamette entering the Pacific coast debate conference, which has recently been formed by nine coast colleges. University of Washington, Washington State College and Whitman in the state of Washington; University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College and Reed College in Oregon, and University of California, University of Southern California and Stanford in California are already members. Reports from these schools indicate a friendly attitude toward the formal petition which is to be made by the Forensic Council at the conference meeting.

Prospects for next year insure hope for continued success. Coach Erickson who, during his two years of service, has had nine victories and one defeat chalked to his credit, will doubtless have charge of the team again. Notson, a three-year varsity man; Littler, a two-year letter man, and Southworth, a first-year man, will all return next year. With a nucleus for a strong squad W. U. may look to the future with confidence.

Inter-Class Forensics

I NTER-CLASS FORENSICS this year produced some contests of merit. The oratorical contest was first to be held. Rodney Alden, representing the Seniors, placed first with his oration, Hearts of Men. Merle Bonney, sophomore, came second with his oration, America's Need. George Oliver, Junior, was given third with Ideals of Democracy as his theme. Walter Lee, freshman, was last with The Call of the Black Man.

The Sophomores captured the class debate title on the question Resolved, That the United States should establish a Federal court with power to enforce its decisions for the adjudication of industrial disputes. In the first round of the series the Sophomore team, composed of Robert Forkner and Rawson Chapin, defeated the Freshman team, composed of Warren Day and Victor Hicks, while the Senior team, composed of Elmer Strevey and Grace Brainerd, won from the Junior team — Linden Martin and Ethel Adams.

The Public Speaking Department

THE Public Speaking department has done well this year from the standpoint of plays and recitals presented. Under the direction of Miss Minna L. Harding, head of the department, two class recitals and four plays have been staged during the year.

Two productions were put on for the benefit of the Student Body. The operetta "Yanki San," written by Miss Harding, which has obtained widespread popularity, was staged under the personal direction of the author. The lead was taken by Mildred Strevey in the part of Yanki San. Jerome's "Passing of the Third Floor Back" was probably the season's biggest work, and ranks high in the scale of Willamette productions. Ruby Rosenkranz, Virgil Anderson and Martha Mallory took leads in the play.

Tarkington's "Tristing Place" and the "Southern Cinderella" were two other plays given by advanced students in the department. A number of individual recitals filled in the schedule, both with and without the co-operation of the music department.

The purchase of scenery for the stage, the quality of the productions and the reinstating of Theta Alpha Phi national dramatic fraternity rank as the achievements of the year.

The Willamette Collegian

TO PRINT the news of the campus in a veracious and attractive manner, has been the unpretentious endeavor of the Collegian during the past year. To a large extent, we believe it has succeeded.

There have been no attempts to revolutionize the paper, but there has been a consistent effort to evolutionize it, toward the highest standards of a student news organ. With this end in view, there have been taken steps toward relating the Collegian to the Department of Journalism of the University, because we believe that only with such a union can good journalism be secured for the paper. The newswriting class published one issue of the Collegian this year. It so happens that a large part of that class is working on the Collegian staff. It is hoped that in the future all members of the staff will have had journalistic training, and that the Department itself will have grown in scope and efficiency so that it will be adequate training for metropolitan journalistic work.

We would advocate the publication — next year, if possible — of a semi-weekly paper, which will tell news that is really new. The growth, both in numbers and variety of activities, of the student body, certainly warrants such an addition. The Collegian must improve with the student body, whose life it represents. With the loyal co-operation of the staffs this year, we believe that such improvement has been held.

The 1924 Wallulah

IN PUBLISHING the 1924 Wallulah the staff has tried to present a year-book accurate in its fact, inclusive in its material, and neat in its appearance. We have endeavored to retain the best features of past publications and to add to them different ones which we hope our readers will approve. Doubtless there are many points in which the book might be improved, but it embodies our best efforts. If our production invites your interest and commendation, we shall feel satisfied.

It is inevitable that, in the publication of a book of this kind, there should be some upon whom the main burden of the work devolves. Permit the Editor, therefore, to take this occasion to acknowledge the special services of Miss Ruth Hill, Associate Editor; Miss Mary Wells, Class Editor; Miss Caroline Stober, art work, and Mr. Albert Geyer, snaps, who devoted themselves and their time to the success of the book. In a like manner a special expression of appreciation is due Miss Margaret Legge, Mr. Dean Pollock, Mr. Carl Watts and Miss Carmelita Barquist for the work they contributed. Their work for the most part bears their signatures except the sketch of Professor Matthews, which was penned by Miss Barquist.

The Willamette Handbook

ONE of the most useful publications issued on the campus is the Willamette Handbook, which is yearly published under the auspices of the Willamette Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. The purpose of the publication is to present in a convenient form the most useful information about student and school customs, regulations, traditions, campus directories, yells and songs. The Freshmen especially find the handbook a source of invaluable information.

The Associated Student Body

THE Student Body Administration, headed the first semester by Bruce White and the second semester by Verne Bain, accomplished a number of important pieces of work. Chief among these was the adoption of a new constitution by the Student Body which it is hoped will answer a long felt need in the ordering of Student Body affairs. The most striking features of this constitution are the creation of an Athletic Council, the delegation of more extensive power to the Executive Committee. The personnel of the Committee is to include a member at large from each of the four classes. A petition system of nominating Student Body officers was also instituted and the elections of this year were held according to the provisions of the new constitution.

THETA ALPHA PHI, Oregon Alpha Chapter, was originally organized on the Willamette campus in 1920. Before it had been fully started the leaders of the group left school and the charter was allowed to lapse. This year an interested group of students acting through Miss Minna L. Harding, head of the public speaking department, secured a renewal of the charter. The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in dramatics. A requirement of two years' work in the public speaking department and special training in dramatics is necessary to entrance as a member.

MEMBERS

SENIORS — Martha Ferguson, Mildred Stevens.

JUNIORS — Irene Walker, Mary Wells, Ethelyn Yerex, Pauline Remington, Lloyd Waltz, Albert Geyer, Caroline Stober, Ruth Hill.

SOPHOMORES — Zelda Mulkey, Joe Nee, Richard Briggs, Leroy Walker, Elliott Curry, Louise Joughin.

ADVISORY MEMBER — Professor Minna L. Harding.

LISTEN TO THIS

Where can a man buy a cap for his knee?
Or a key for a lock of his hair?
Can your eyes be called an academy
Because there are pupils there?
In the crown of your hair
What jewels are found?
Who travels the bridge of your nose?
Could you use in shingling the roof of your mouth
The nails on the end of your toes?
Could the crook in your elbow be sent to jail?
If so, what did he do?
How can you sharpen your shoulder blades?
I'll be darned if I know, do you?
Could you sit in the shade of the palm of your hand?
Or beat on the drum of your ear?
Does the calf on your leg eat the corn on your toe?
Then why not grow corn in the ear?
Can you beat it? Sure we can.
Turn the page with your eyes shut.

DON'T BE WHAT YOU AIN'T

Jes' be what you is.
If you is not what you am,
Then you am not what you is.
If you're just a little tadpole,
Don't try to be a frog.
If you're just the tail,
Don't try to wag the dog.
You can always pass the plate,
If you can't exhort and preach.
If you're just a little pebble,
Don't try to be the beach.
Don't be what you ain't,
Jes' be what you is,
For the man who plays it square
Is a-going to get "his."

Prof. Panunzio—The members of my class who have married have had an average of a little less than two children.

Prof. Sherman—Isn't that remarkable? The married women of my class have averaged almost three.

Prof. Panunzio—What do you suppose that that demonstrates?"

Prof. Sherman—Oh, not much. Simply that women have more children than men.

COLLEGE OF LAW

Tribute of the Supreme Court of the States of Oregon to the Law Department of the Willamette University

Extracts from a letter, written by the Supreme Court of Oregon, to the President of the University, bearing date of December 29th, 1913:

"In our examination of applicants to practice Law in Oregon, we have always found the graduates of the Willamette Law School as full and well prepared as the graduates from any of the Law Schools, including the leading colleges of the United States and graduates of the Willamette Law School have repeatedly taken first honors in such examinations. We have also observed that many of the Alumni of the Willamette Law School have taken high rank in the practice of their profession, and are among the prominent and useful citizens of the Pacific Northwest, thus reflecting credit not only on the Law School, but on the Willamette University, which they regard as their alma mater."

The College of Law has several special advantages. It is located in the capital city where the Supreme Court is almost constantly in session. The Law Department has exceptional facilities in its nearness to the State Library, containing more than thirty thousand volumes, to which the law students have free access.

This school is fully accredited by the State and Federal authorities for the payment of benefits to those entitled to them under the returned soldiers, sailors and marines educational aid and vocational training acts.

The home of the Law School is on the college campus. Law students are members of the Student Body of the University and have the opportunity of engaging in the various student enterprises and activities, and do in fact take a prominent place in the student affairs.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Applicants for admission to the Freshman year must be at least eighteen years of age and must furnish certificates of good moral character. Graduates of high schools maintaining a standard four-year course of study, or educational institutions whose course is equivalent to such high school course, are admitted without examination; other applicants are required to pass satisfactory examination in the essential subjects of a four-years' high school course; opportunity of making the necessary grades in the College of Liberal Arts or the Academy during the time they are taking the Law Course.

The course covers three years, graduates receiving the degree of LL.B.

FEES

Tuition, $60.00 per year. Student body fee, $10.00 per year.

HOW TO MAKE A HIT WITH YOUR INSTRUCTOR

1. Tell him you aren't interested in the course, and do all you can to prove the truth of your assertion.
2. Don't come to class oftener than three times during the quarter—this tends to make you more appreciated when you do come.
3. Never come on time—it is such a pleasant surprise to have you come after he has given up hopes.
4. Come in whistling or singing, and slam the door in a joyful manner—it adds the desired touch of free comradeship to the occasion.
5. Talk to all your personal friends, and get acquainted with the other members of the class.
6. Always dispute the teacher's word—it adds the informal discussion atmosphere to the classroom.
7. Above all, don't study—your instructor will think you want to stay with him, and if you flatter him enough in this way, he is sure to reward our efforts with a "P."

FOOTBALL

An interview with the captain of the football team.

The way it appeared in the Collegian:
"We expect to have a hotly contested game, but are confident of victory. They are strong, but are gentlemen, and as such we intend to meet them."

Actual interview:

"They're a bunch of cockeyed cows,
but we'll knock the whey out of them
if it takes all summer—dawgone right we will!"

TRACK MEAT

She walked out on the dusty track;
 She quivered in her glee.
 Her eyes, they shone like evening stars.
 She made a hit with me.
 Her even teeth, like ivory,
 Gleamed 'twixt two rosy lips.
 A belt of polished leather
 Hung 'round her shapely hips.
 She danced and pranced around the track;
 Then slowly raised her head:
 The strain had been too much for her—
 The girl dropped over dead.
 And as they skinned her body, I heard an old man say,
 "She surely was a good old horse—but she has had her day."

GRADUATES

Having equipped yourselves by a course of mental training and now are about to enter upon life's activities, permit us to say that one of the essentials of business success is the establishing of a bank account and through it acquire the habit of saving.

Your banker can be helpful in many ways; he can be your most valuable business acquaintance—if you will let him. The officers of this bank tender you their services and will be glad to see you and help you all they can to get the right start in life.
