

World Touring Artist to Present Free Concert

THEODORE ULLMAN

(Fabian Bachrach)

Theodore Ullman, pianist, will be presented free of charge in a concert in the Fine Arts auditorium Wednesday at 8 p.m.

SPONSORS of the program are the Music Foundation Artists Bureau and Pi Kappa Lambda, music honorary at Willamette. Each year the bureau selects a young artist to make a world concert tour comprising appearances at institutions of education in each of the 48 states as well as on each of the other five continents of the globe.

The three performances in each of the 48 states and one in each of the other 80 countries affiliated as a member of the United Nations are available annually through a grant from the Louise N. Grace Memorial Fund.

ULLMAN HAS toured widely and has presented recitals on all continents and in each of the states. He is winner of many competitive awards in music including the MacDowell Club Young Artists Contest and the $1,000 Bamberger Competition. He is a former faculty member of the Biarritz University in France and now is on the Juilliard School of Music staff.

Ullman has studied at the University of Wyoming, New York University, Columbia, Shriveham in England, The Sorbonne, Newark University, Conservatoire de Paris, the Institute of Music Art and Juilliard.

EVERY ARTIST selected for sponsorship by the Music Foundation Artists Bureau remains under agreement to perform return engagements at any location to which he was originally introduced by the bureau at a fee of not more than $300 no matter at what figure his fee may be set by any subsequent commercial management.

Ullman's program includes "Rhapsody Opus 119" by Brahms, "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach-Hess, "Scherzo in B minor," "Three Preludes from Opus 34" by Shostakovich, "The White Peacock" by Griffes, "Tocatta" by Ravel and "Sonata Opus 81 in E flat major" by Beethoven.

Convo Manager Promises Variety

Convocations for the rest of the year will offer a variety of interesting and educational assemblies, according to Joanne McGilvra, convo manager. One new feature will be a series entitled "Oregon Culture."

Since this is Oregon's centennial year, it was felt that students should be aware of the great heritage of their state. Arrangements have been made so that each month an expert on Oregon history will speak before the student body for a convocation program.

The schedule of January and February convos is:

- Jan. 13—Band program.
- Feb. 3—Finals—no convo.
- Feb. 10—Lincoln Day speech, Dr. Howard Runkel.
- Feb. 17—Rally tryouts and AWS candidates.

Pre-Registration Opens in 2 Weeks

A word to the wise: pre-registration will begin a week from Monday, and will continue until Friday of that week. This preliminary period will give students more time to consult leisurely with their advisors and to obtain signatures for the registration slips.

THE SEQUENCE of procedure will begin when students meet with their advisors. Then registration booklets may be picked up in the Registrar's office. After signatures have been received from professors, the student's advisor will approve the schedule and it must be signed by the Dean of Women or the Dean of Students.

The fee slip is next obtained from the Registrar's office and students may pay tuition and other fees at a table in front of the business office. Student body cards will again be sold in the registration line instead of at the student body office. Students who take advantage of the pre-registration period may leave after their finals and need not return until the evening of February 9.

Formal registration will take place on Monday, February 9, in the library between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m. After this closing hour students will be charged $5 to register.

Calendar

- TODAY—Basketball, here, 8 p.m.
- TOMORROW—Basketball, here, 8 p.m.
- Ski Club retreat.
- Pi Phi open house after game.
- SUNDAY—YWCA discussion in Lausanne, 10 a.m.
- WEDNESDAY—Nora Pyron, College of Music, 8:15 p.m., cello concert.

Hall Picks Committee Heads, Assistants for Freshman Glee

Committee chairmen and assistant chairmen for Freshman Glee have been announced by Stu Hall, Glee manager.

PETE KREMER heads the ticket committee with Gail Walton and Bonnie Dugdale as his assistants. Entertainment will be planned by Dick Barton, chairman, and Diane Brown. The stage crew will be directed by Lyle Green and his assistant, Doug Austin.

Marcia Ruby is chairman of the souvenirs committee, and Dick Es-court is the assistant. Program chairman is Suellen Stanley; her assistant is Maggie Hanna. The backdrop will be devised by co-chairmen Chris Schurr and Jon Wollander and assistant, Karen Hillman.

CHAIRMAN of decorations is Ray Honerlah who will be assisted by Lee Dietz. In charge of lighting are Al Stevens and Sid McAnley, assistant. Jack Withers, chairman of the publicity committee, will be assisted by Marilyn Sparks and Harry Coolidge.

The ushers will be directed by Karen Erb and her assistant Donna Horn. Dave Haugeberg is in charge of records with Phil Thom serving as assistant. The secretaries for the 51st annual Freshman Glee are Barbara Henken, Bonnie Scott and Sylvia Takeuchi.

Classes Elect Glee Leaders

Glee leaders for the freshmen, sophomores and seniors were chosen this week, but the juniors have not yet selected their leaders.

Ray Allen was picked as formation leader for the frosh with Jerry McAllister as his assistant, and Pat Avery was chosen song leader and Pat Kirkpatrick as her assistant.

Sophomores elected Jerry Darby song leader and Tony Meeker formation leader and the seniors will stick with Gail Boden as song leader and Larry Willingham, formation leader.

Hoodoo to Host Ski Club Spree

By KARON EGAN

Snow in the air gives most everyone the feeling of wanting to "get out in it." The members of the Ski Club are no different. With the first hint that snow was due, plans were set into motion for their first big expedition of the year.

Tomorrow and Sunday the Ski Club's plans materialize as they head for the Hoodoo Ski Bowl for two days packed with skiing. The group will leave here at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and spend the night at Santiam Ski Lodge. Cost for the entire weekend will be $4.50 which includes three meals and one night's lodging.

"The Ski club is open to anyone on campus interested in skiing, and one doesn't have to be a pro to join," says ski president Terry Kent. Tentative plans for the future include having a tutor to instruct beginners, Kent said.

'Plum Wore Out'

After her vacation, Miss Ruud plans to work in California.

Proposed Chapel Requirement Dropped by Policy Committee

A proposal to make chapel a requirement for graduation was dropped by the Educational Policy committee as not sufficient to meet the constitution at Willamette, student body president Willingham announced at Student Council Wednesday.

THE DEANS will present a new plan for compulsory chapel attendance using existing regulations at next week's council meeting.

Dean Walter Blake will also discuss the problem of reimbursing Lewis and Clark for the alumni's goal posts supposedly sawed in half by Willamette students the night before the Lewis and Clark-Willamette football game.

REGISTRAR Richard A. Yocum presented the council with results of the poll taken on student's opinion of three-hour classes on Tuesday and Thursday. The poll was taken in convocation December 16, with only 300 turning in the questionnaire.

"As expected," he said, "most of the students voted to keep classes as they are, but the plan to have one and a half hour classes on Tuesday and Thursday received the second most votes. Only twenty-one brave souls wanted Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday classes," he added.

TUESDAY AND Thursday three-hour classes would make greater variety of courses possible because more classrooms and faculty would be available, Yocum said.

On other business the council decided to investigate the possibility of a bulletin board between Eaton and Waller Hall. The policy to limit the use of trees for signs was clarified to include class along with student body activities by Willingham.

WILLINGHAM said that some trees have up to 50 pounds of nails in them, and this is gradually killing the trees. He suggested that when signs are removed the nails should also be pulled out.

Chi Omega requested an open house for Miss America following dinner February 6. The proposal was turned over to JoAnne McGilvra, who is in charge of entertainment for Miss America.

6 'Helping Hands' Oversee Sledding

Six Willamette men gave the City of Salem a helping hand by supervising sledding in blocked-off areas this week. Working for the city were Neil Hutchinson, Dennis Toomy, Chuck Cheeld, John Holmes, Gene Paterson and Tom Adams.

Vern Gillmore, supervisor of recreation for the Salem public schools, called the university seeking a number of men for employment on a use-when-needed basis.

Their duties were to maintain discipline, administer first aid, and generally keep the participants under control. According to Hutchinson, the work proved interesting and "a fast way to make a buck!"

Willamette Given $1000

An award of $1,000 has been granted to Willamette for distinguished achievement in the development of alumni support. The announcement of the award and presentation of the check was made at the 45th annual meeting of the Association of American Colleges in Kansas City, Kansas.

Willamette was one of 34 of the nation's colleges, schools and universities honored. It placed seventh in its division of large coeducational schools.

This program was initiated by the United States Steel Foundation and has eight divisions. The plan is a new type of aid to education by industry. It is the first corporation grant designed to recognize and reward institutions showing notable success or improvement in obtaining financial support from alumni.

Due to the efforts of Jerry Whipple, alumni affairs director, a total of 2,216 alumni subscribed an amount totaling $63,817.40. Willamette's total of participating alumni was 39.7 percent while the national average was a little more than 20 percent.

Your attention is directed to paragraph 3 page 37 of the 1959-61 University Bulletin or paragraph 3 page 34 of the 1957-59 University Bulletin.

Wallulah Receives $250 Windfall; Work Advances

The Wallulah, Willamette yearbook, received a settlement from Intercollegiate Press of Kansas City for $250 on last year's annual. Editor John Galbraith announced that the settlement which was requested at the beginning of the school year because of defective trimming on last year's book will be used to offset costs on this year's budget.

PRINTING of this year's book will be done by Your Town Press of Salem. Costs will be approximately $4,700. The 1958-59 edition of the Wallulah is about one-fourth completed, Galbraith said.

Prospective Teachers To Try Job Interview

All students interested in teaching are invited to attend a mock interview and discussion about applications for jobs and what to expect when actually teaching in a school system.

Dr. George B. Martin of the Salem public schools will lead the discussion and interview.

The meeting will be in the basement lounge at Doney Hall from 7 to 8 p.m. next Thursday.

Languages Galore Amuse Blewett in Denmark

"Nothing can be so frustrating as attempting to express yourself in a language which is understood by perhaps half the group.

"NOTHING CAN be so humorous as three or four languages going at one time with the poor befuddled interpreter in the middle holding his head in his hands, confused as to whether to express his emotions in French, Danish, German or English."

This, from Pete Blewett as he exclaims over his experiences at the International high school or People's College in Helsingr, Denmark. A would-be member of the junior class at Willamette this year, Blewett considers his opportunities at the school to be most valuable ones.

DESCRIBING the school as a converted Danish folk high school, some thirty miles from Copenhagen, he has found that it is "seventeen nations working together, learning together and living together; a workshop in international relations." Here, these seventeen nations study life in all aspects: educational, vocational, philosophical and practical. This is accomplished through the instruction of the four languages, French, Danish, German and English.

A decided difference from the everyday American university life, an average day for any student at the IPC consists of from four to five hours of instruction, one hour's manual work, and "last but not least, the one hour tea-party in the evening where the students can really get to know one another."

Carrying from 20 to 30 hours a week, a student might be following courses in Danish, German, English or French; orientation on Denmark, world civilization, men through the ages or Danish rural development. Also offered is Scandinavian literature, modern French literature, jazz or film development. Evening classes center around treasure seeking in literature, creative art, painting and music.

"In addition to the courses which follow a set curriculum, we attend discussion groups. It is here that often a real understanding of problems and difficulties is realized. Questions concerning life in the various countries that are represented, the educational systems of these countries, and the criticisms leveled at these systems never fail to stimulate a real interest and set off a hot argument."

Blewett feels that a short description of the IPC would be an impossibility if it were to do justice to the institution. His feelings are summed up in the closing lines of his letter.

"Suffice it to say that perhaps if just a little of the spirit of the school here could seep out into the rest of the world, possibly from graduate students or from those who have taught and learned here in the school, then would international understanding come just a little easier."

Vacant Secretary of State Position Confuses Hatfield Inauguration Date

By STEWART BUTLER

Governor-elect Mark Hatfield's inauguration planned for Monday is still up in the air unless a solution is reached over who has the power to select the new Secretary of State, Governor Robert Holmes or Hatfield.

HOLMES FEELS he has the right to select the new Secretary of State because Hatfield must resign before taking the oath of office. On the other hand Hatfield claims he doesn't have to resign before taking the oath and feels the Oregon State Supreme Court should settle the argument.

Presiding at the inauguration will be president-elect of the senate, Walter Pearson, who has announced that the house and senate will not accept Hatfield as governor until he resigns his secretarial post.

HOWEVER, if Hatfield is inaugurated Monday the oath of office will be given by Chief Justice William M. McAllister who is on Willamette's Board of Trustees and is an alumni.

The ceremony will be held at 1 p. m. in the chamber of the House of Representatives. Only a few seats will be open to the general public.

ENTERTAINMENT during the inauguration will be provided by the Eugene Gleeman, and the Oregon National Guard band. There is also a program of organ music planned.

Following Hatfield's oath of office, Governor Holmes will deliver his biennial message to the legislature.

A PUBLIC reception will be held in the governor's suite immediately after the ceremony on Monday evening. Willamette friends of Hatfield planning to attend the reception should go in the evening hours when there will be a smaller crowd, assistant Secretary of State Travis Cross said.

Several Willamette alums and students will work in the next legislative session. Dale Mortenson, Richard Crooks and Robert Pierce will be pages in the senate. Dan Marsh and Fred Chambers will be telephone pages. Mrs. E. Runfroe, a Willamette alum, will be chief clerk of the House of Representatives.

College Orientation Class to Be Offered

Students who wish to enroll in Psychology 101, College Orientation (one credit), should give their names to the secretary in the Dean of Student's Office before January 13.

The course is offered by the Dean of Students for students who feel the need for improving their study and reading skills. The class will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8 a. m. in room 36 of Eaton Hall, beginning February 10.

Diamonds Add Sparkle to Holiday Season

Yule logs and tinsel trees were not the only things adding special sparkle to the Christmas season. This fact is attested to by the engagement rings being worn by four Willamette coeds.

A nest of boxes, delivered to the Alpha Phi house Monday evening eventually yielded a poem revealing the engagement of Dorothy Jacobson to Don Hodges.

Dorothy is a sophomore economics major from Portland, and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Alpha Phi where she is standards chairman.

Hodges, a native of Roswell, New Mexico, is affiliated with Sigma Chi. The junior biology major is participating in Willamette's honors program.

No date has been set for the wedding.

A late summer wedding lies ahead for Kathy Burnard and Jim Warner. Miss Burnard, sophomore English major from Forest Grove, has been active in Alpha Lambda Delta, Beta Alpha Gamma, Mu Phi Epsilon, Wesley and choir. She is a member of the Independent Women's group.

Warner, a senior in music education, is from Portland, and has been active in Phi Mu Alpha, Wesley, choir and in his living group, Baxter Hall.

The couple will continue at Willamette next fall.

Monkey shines and a double talk song in the Delta Gamma chapter meeting by the Three M's, Karma Miller, Carolyn Miller and Jody Mills provided not only entertainment but the surprise announcement of Miss Mills' engagement to Ed Everts, former Willamette student, now at the University of Oregon Medical School.

A senior, Miss Mills has participated in many campus activities and is social chairman of her living group. She is from Bremerton, Washington.

Everts, former president of the Willamette chapter of Beta Theta

Pi, was a 1958 graduate of this school.

A summer wedding is planned by the couple who will live in Portland.

Vivacious junior, Joyce Brown, announced shortly before Christmas, her engagement to senior Dick Crooks. Joyce, who returned to Willamette this year after a year in Europe, is a member of Delta Gamma, and graduated from North Salem high school.

Crooks, whose home is in Albany, is a political science major, and a member of Phi Delta Theta.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Classes Select Candidates For Spring Semester Offices

All classes are holding elections of their officers for the spring semester this week and next. Yesterday and today will conclude the general election with next Monday and Tuesday being the days set for the run offs.

The students running for each office are as follows: Freshman class—Bill Adams, Neil Goldschmidt Jeff Keuss, Tom Morris, president; Eleanor Carlson, Paul Ritchey, Ed Sasaki, Chris Schurr, Phil Thom, Ron Williams, vice

According to the figures in the student body office the percent of students voting in the elections during the semester is "mighty low!"

The Freshmen have the biggest turn-out with 72.3 percent voting in the primaries and 70.6 percent marking ballots in the run offs.

The Seniors are next with 68 percent and 58 percent; the Sophomores are hot on their heels with 66 percent and 56 percent and the Juniors are in last place with 63 percent and 55 percent.

WU Relieved Of Expenses

Growing private support for Willamette's educational program was demonstrated in figures released today by University Financial Vice President Richard P. Petrie.

The figures show, said Petrie, that a student at Willamette today is paying less of his education bill than he was a dozen years ago. Private sources have been making up the difference, he said.

A STUDENT in 1947 paid 80 per cent of what it cost to educate him; today he pays only a little over 63 per cent. Today the University raises over one-third of the cost of each student's education while in 1947, Willamette had to find funds for only one-fifth of it.

Endowment income in 1947 made up another 15 per cent of the cost of a student's education, Petrie said, but, despite a steady growth in the endowment fund, today only 15.5 per cent of the bill is still paid from this source. The endowment has risen from $1,878,000 to $3,273,000 but the income from this fund pays only about the same percentage because of an expanded educational program, rising costs and a larger physical plant to maintain.

PRIVATE SOURCES in 1947 made up only 5 per cent of what it costs to educate a student. Today, because the tuition and fees paid by the student have not kept pace with what it costs to educate him, 21 per cent of the cost must be borne by private sources.

U. of Chicago Dean To Visit WU Tuesday

Theodore Heimarck, Assistant Dean of Students of the School of Business, University of Chicago, will visit Willamette Tuesday afternoon, January 13.

Heimarck will meet with members of the faculty and the students to discuss the graduate programs offered by the School of Business. Students interested in graduate study in business at the University of Chicago will have an opportunity to talk with Heimarck concerning programs of study, career opportunities, and the scholarship program during informal interviews in the Cat Cavern.

Announce Registration For Reading Program

Students who wish to enroll in the reading improvement program of the Salem Public Schools should register either on January 13, from 4 to 5 p. m. in room 105 of North Salem High School; or in the Dean of Student's Office before January 13.

The course is offered primarily for students who feel the need for improving their reading skills. The class will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4 to 5 p. m. in room 105, North Salem High School, for ten weeks beginning January 13.

The tuition is $5 and no texts will be used in the course.

College Board Representatives Inspect Campus

Willamette underwent extensive inspection this week after the Christmas interim. Leslie McMitchell arrived Monday with returning students to evaluate the campus in connection with the College Board examination organization which he represents.

McMitchell is on a tour of the colleges which employ the College Board examination as an entrance requirement. He conferred with Deans Regina Ewalt and Walter S. Blake and Charles Paeth, director of admissions, during the week.

THE NATIONAL field secretary for Delta Gamma sorority has been a resident of Lausanne Hall during her week visit of the Willamette Delta Gamma chapter. She is Miss Leola Lorenzen, a 1958 graduate of the University of Oregon. Miss Lorenzen will continue to visit other chapters of the sorority in the area for evaluation next week.

Results and recommendations of the visits are not available for release at the present time.

INDEPI to Elect

Joining the rash of class elections taking place this month, INDEPI will elect officers for the Spring-Fall semesters of 1959 next Monday. The election will be held at noon in the Waller auditorium, and all independent students are urged to attend.

Six Music School Students Present Year's First Recital Tuesday at 3

The first recital of the year will be presented by six school of Music students Tuesday in the recital hall at 3 p.m.

BEGINNING the recital will be Gary Frame who will play "In Autumn," Etude by Moszkowski. Parts of the piano piece could remind one of the wind, according to Frame. It is fast and tricky.

"Velvet Shoes" by Thompson and "To A Hill-Top" by Cox will be sung by Peggy Cowan, soprano. The first piece, Miss Cowan says, has a quiet mood and an easy and appealing melody. It is contrasted by the second which is vivacious, fast and loud, portraying one who is alone with God and appreciating nature.

NANCY FORBES, soprano soloist; Elizabeth Laird, flute obligato and Sonja Peterson, piano accompanist will present "Aria From II Re Pastore" by Mozart. An aria from opera, it exemplifies pure, beautiful and melodic musical style.

Concluding the recital Mildred Edmundson on the cello and accompanied by Barbara Dixon will play the first movement of "Concerto Bb major" by Boccherini, outstanding for its romantic elements.

Music Audition Slated Saturday

Scholarship aspirants from high schools all over the Northwest will audition at the Willamette University College of Music this Saturday.

Students who live a great distance from Salem have already submitted tapes of their musical specialty as they vie for 12 new music scholarships totaling over $4800. The scholarships will be awarded to freshmen entering Willamette next fall.

Scholarships offered include seven applied music scholarships at $480 each, four honor scholarships at $300 each and the Glen C. Wade scholarship of $250.

The College of Music will host a luncheon for all students in Salem the day of the audition.

Organizations Must File Constitutions

Campus organizations which do not have copies of their constitutions or statements of purpose filed in the student body office by the beginning of the second semester, February 9, will remain on probation until April 1.

Activities board voted to put this motion into effect because many campus organizations are not fulfilling their purposes and the constitutions are not filed in the office. During second semester the board will review the purposes and the activities of all campus organizations. If at this time the Board finds they are not fulfilling their purpose, the group may go on probation for a length of time decided by the board.

Organizations who do not have a copy of their constitution or statement of purpose in the student body office are: Chemistry club, Creative Writing club, Student Education Association, Panhellenic Council, UNESCO, Mortar Board, Mu Phi Epsilon, Phi Eta Sigma, Omicron Delta Kappa, Sigma Alpha Chi, Sigma Delta Pi, Theta Alpha Phi and Sigma Beta Phi.

Bearcats Break Even; Eye Conference Play

Bearcats Beat S-P Falcons; End Non-Conference Tilts

What looked like a nip and tuck battle turned into a rout for the Bearcats Friday night, as they thoroughly trounced the Seattle Pacific Falcons, 76-62. The victory finished the Jasons' pre-conference schedule and gave them a record of five wins and five losses. The 'Cats victory in the non-conference encounter was their third in a row.

Coach John Lewis reviewed the evening's activities, saying, "No, it wasn't our best game, but I was surprised at the ease with which we won. This team has come a long way since we started practice in November," Lewis continued. "I think this was the first game of the year in which we were in control all the way. We had a comfortable night coming."

Lewis Praises Three

Lewis cited Larry Lynn, Buz Wilfert and Ed Grossenbacher for their outstanding performances in the fracas. Lynn warmed the bench in the early minutes of the game, but after he got into the fray he scored 25 points and grabbed off 10 rebounds. Rangy Buz Wilfert tallied 14 points and took a dozen rebounds, while "Steady Eddy" Grossenbacher hooped 14 points and led the Jasons' offensive and defensive play.

Anderson Leads Falcons

Orv Anderson, the highly touted SPC center, turned in a fine ball game for the visitors by dropping in 22 points. He was hampered, however, by a stubborn Jason defense that managed to swipe the ball from him several times.

With 15 seconds gone in the game, Ed Grossenbacher sank a two-hander that gave the 'Cats a lead that they never lost. Four times in the first few minutes, the Falcons cut the Willamette margin to one point at 3-2, 5-4, 7-6 and 9-8. After that, the Lewis quint took command except for brief flashes by the Falcons.

Bearcats Move Ahead

Two counters by Lee Weaver and one each by Wilfert and Jim Litchfield gave the Jasons a 17-8 margin. Seattle Pacific closed the gap to 24-23 with about six minutes remaining in the first half. From that point onward Grossenbacher, Lynn and Wilfert went on a scoring spree that gave the Bearcats a half-time spread of 40-28.

In the second half, Lynn turned in what might be called a red hot performance. He was scoring, ball hawking and rebounding all over the gym. Lynn personally accounted for 14 points in less than nine minutes as the Jasons built a 63-37 lead. This proved to be the 'Cats widest margin of the evening, and it was more than enough to win the ball game.

Reserves See Action

At this point Lewis cleared his bench and even the 'Cat reserve platoon scored well and kept the Falcons at a respectable distance. The Seattle school never got closer than the final 14-point spread.

Statistically, the Bearcats had all the best of it. In rebounds the Jasons had an edge of 16 at 56 to 40. Shooting percentages showed the same Bearcat advantage with .423 to .354 from the field and .625 to .572 at the foul line.

Lynn Scores 25

Lynn took scoring honors for the night with 25. Eighteen of Lynn's total came in the second half. Seattle's Orv Anderson was second with 22 tallies.

All but one of Willamette's 12 players hit the scoring column.

Larry Lynn came off the bench to lead Bearcat scoring.

Tom Weston gained a starting berth for his fine showing in the Far West tourney.

AA's Battle; Praise Given Long, Raid

Bill Long and Gary Raid drew praise from their Little All-American Bowl team coach, Volney Ashford, in spite of a 14-12 loss at the hands of the big college All-Americans. The game at Tuscon, Arizona, was the first All-American Bowl game and it pitted All-Americans from small colleges against their counterparts from the bigger schools.

"They both did a tremendous job defensively," said Ashford. Long played both ways—offensive center and defensive linebacker. Raid saw more action on offense than defense.

"I'm a little disappointed we didn't win," Raid said after the game. "I feel the small school boys were tougher than the big school crew," the Bearcat tackle concluded.

Raid figured in the game's key play, a fourth quarter plunge that the officials ruled was stopped with the ball nosing the goal line. The small college team, trailing 14-12, drove inside the major college eleven and on fourth down, half-back Ed Meador of Arkansas Tech drove into the line. The ball was ruled dead just short of pay dirt.

Raid said the play went right over him.

"I think he (Meador) did score," said the Jason tackle. "I don't know, I was blocking."

Meador said he thought he was about a yard into the end zone.

Missionaries, Coyotes Meet Jasons in First NWC Action

Following last night's conference opener against Whitman, the Bearcats face a tough College of Idaho squad tonight and tomorrow night on the Salem court.

Coach "Babe" Brown's Coyotes have gained the ranks of pre-season conference favorites along with Lewis & Clark and Linfield. The C of I team had a spotless record while piling up seven pre-conference victories.

Center Julian Laca, who stands forward with a fine jump shot, Ken Ackerman, speedy senior guard, and guard Chuck Short, senior playmaker and set shot artist.

The western swing has continually been the downfall for Coyote squads. The traveling College of Idaho five scored only one victory away from home in Northwest Conference action last year. However, they had a spotless record on their home floor, winning all seven games on the Caldwell court to grab third 6'8", is a fine rebounder as an experienced junior letterman. He should provide interesting competition for Bearcat center Buz Wilfert as the two tangle under the boards.

Forward Bob Moreno, back from a stint with Uncle Sam, has been a standout in pre-conference play. He has scored consistently and has grabbed more than his share of rebounds. Moreno, as a freshman, should have a fine college career ahead of him.

Rounding out the starting five will be Ed Merritt, an experienced place in conference play behind Willamette and Linfield.

Victories in these two contests are almost a must for the Bearcats if they plan to stay in the thick of the race for the conference title. Willamette is another team that experiences traveling difficulties. All four of last year's Bearcat losses were suffered on the road.
