WELCOME

With all heartiness we welcome the new students to Willamette University; with equal warmth we are pleased by the return of others. For new and old, the beginning of a college year must be momentous. What the college does for you will depend on what you do for the college. No great ingenuity is required to invent excuses for failures, but excuses do not change results. A student can do himself no better service than to have no excuses.

A college is a place of strong temptations, good and bad; a person should be wise enough to seek only the upward temptations. Be a genuine part of the school, commit yourself to it completely, "get wet all over" immediately—thus will you give and receive joyously, abundantly. Hold fast the Christian life and it will hold you to the integrity which is greatness. We join you and bid you welcome in the high enterprise of attaining the truth which confers power and liberty.

Dr. Carl G. Doney
President W. U.

Sincerely yours.

CARL G. DONEY.

GREETINGS

Greetings, Class of 1933. You are welcome to Willamette. Let us hope that your stay with us is filled with the abundant blessings of the lasting qualities of life, which can be had only through perseverance, diligence, intellectual research, and introspection. The University honors scholarship. May scholarship honor you.

The sooner one becomes acquainted with his immediate surroundings in a new situation, the sooner one succeeds. Your success here depends upon how quickly you catch onto the inevitable swing of the spirit of the University, for when you find that spirit, you start to become acquainted with your new situation. College spirit and success go hand in hand. The more spirit a school has, the more successful it is. The more spirit you have, the more successful you will be.

Then throw yourself into the spirit of the thing. Live the life of your University. Live the life of the class of 1933. Live the life of a clean-cut, wholesome, Christian student. Success will then be yours for the asking.

William Mumford

BILL MUMFORD,
President A. S. W. U.

WELCOME!

It is with great pleasure indeed that the Willamette chapter of the Blue Key national service fraternity extends to the new students of Willamette University a most hearty welcome.

Blue Key is an upperclassmen's organization which has as its motto and purpose "service." So not only do we welcome you, but also we offer you our aid and help at all times. We want you to feel free to ask a Blue Key man when there is anything you need. Tell a Blue Key man about anything which you think ought to be done for the benefit of the students or to the betterment of old Willamette.

George Poor

So again we say "Welcome!" and ask that you do not fail to take advantage of the offer of our services.

Cordially yours,

GEORGE L. POOR,

President Blue Key.

GREETINGS—FRESHMEN

You have honored this school with your presence; yet after all you owe Willamette something more than your tuition, you owe Willamette a respect for her traditions, a spirit of loyalty, and a desire to help the University in all ways possible. You are doubtless aware of the position accorded the Freshmen at most universities; Willamette is not an exception. The Cubs are here to try to help give you the right start. Although we have seemingly paradoxical duties to perform we want you to remember that we are always ready to give you real help. You are entering into a new and strange life, conduct yourself accordingly. May you attain that success of which we know you are capable.

Charles Campbell*CHARLES CAMPBELL.

President of the Cubs.

Until Homecoming Freshmen are requested to:

Carry the Handbook.

Boys to wear a cardinal and gold cap of the kind which may be purchased at the University Book Store.

The Cubs have made these requests.

WELCOME

The Y. W. C. A. extends a welcome to you who are entering Willamette for the first time.

We hope that each girl will come to realize that the Y. W. is not an organization—it is a fellowship.

The Y. W. belongs to you, and we hope that you will help us, so that through our combined efforts we may really find a fellowship with each other and with God.

Use our Y room, and get acquainted with the girls you meet there.

We hope to know each of you so that we may better work and play together during this coming year.

Dorothy Taylor

Sincerely,

DOROTHY TAYLOR,

President Y. W. C. A.

PURPOSE

We unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

We determine to make this life possible for all people.

In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him.

WELCOME

Welcome, Students—those of you who are returning to Willamette, but especially to the newcomers, the class of 1933.

The purpose of the Y. M. C. A. is to help the student in his religious life on the campus, in attaining to the goal and ideal as set by the great teacher. The University maintains a definitely Christian tone, and the Y. M. C. A. is an organization in which the men may express themselves in this way.

We feel that to justify our existence we must be of service to the students individually and to the school. We have mapped out a dynamic program for this year of weekly and monthly meetings, some of which will be definitely devotional while others will be of general interest to all the men. A prominent place will be given to the recreational part of student life also. Through co-operation with the National Association we will bring some eminent leaders to the campus to stimulate our thinking.

Again, welcome to Willamette. Let us help you in any way possible and give us the benefit of your enthusiasm and ambition.

Sincerely,

LESLIE MANKER,
President Y. M. C. A.

It has been in existence but a short time here, but already it promises to be an organization of great strength in the Law School. The honor of having the Law School of Willamette recognized in this manner is felt to be a big step forward for the University.

OLD HISTORIC TEMPLE

There's an old Historic temple
Rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken-hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers.
Down the years its portals open,
Gathers wise ones to its fold;
Breathes the spirit of the Westland.
Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Spirit of the Golden Westland.
Breathing through our fathers' tears;
Tells the story of the Temple.
Bids us hope adown the years.
Sing, oh sing, of old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true;
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old school, our W. U.

I LOVE WILLAMETTE U

I love Willamette U.
I love her campus too;
I love her Profs so good and true,
I love her spirit real true blue.
I love the old mill stream,
I love to sit and dream;
I see it all in shadows cool,
I love our dear old school.

QUEEN OF THE WEST

The East may love old Harvard,
The North love old Cornell;
But the school of fame, whose noble name,
Forever shall excel
Stands proudly in the Westland
Where friends are staunch and true;
We love our dear old college,
So here's to W. U!

Chorus—

Willamette, to thee we will be true,
Willamette, we'll ever fight for you,
We pledge our loyalty.
Our homage pay to thee,
Pride of all the West, you are the best,
Willamette, our hearts we pledge anew,
Willamette, our fealty to you,
Faithful we will be
With staunch fidelity,
Willamette, queen of all!

Fling high our glorious colors
The Cardinal and the Gold,
Exalt the dream which stands supreme
Wrought by the men of old.
With eager hearts and voices
And veneration true;
Sing forth our acclamations
Bold sons of W. U.

LET'S GO WILLAMETTE

Let's go! Willamette U.

Onward to win the score

Show our spirit true

Fighting for evermore

And may the victory bell

Our praises tell

And ring them out tonight

Rah for the fame of Willamette's name

Show 'em the Bearcat Fight.

WILLAMETTE

There's a school we call Willamette

That will ever prompt our praise,

For 'tis there we win our victories

And there our standards raise.

It's a school that makes true sportsmen

And will lasting service give

To those who dare to do their share

And fight that she might live.

Chorus—

Willamette, Willamette, we're with you to the end!

Willamette, Willamette, our voices gladly blend

To cheer you, revere you. and your un-
daunted fame,

Oh, Willamette U,

We will see you through,

And guard your glorious name!

So we'll fight for old Willamette

And with courage ever bold

We will cheer our mighty Bearcats,

Cheer the Cardinal and the Gold;

And our team still striving onward,

With a victory in view,

Brings cheer for old Willamette,

Brings cheer for W. U.

OUR PLEDGE

Oh, Willamette fairest name,
School we love forever more,
We shall strive to keep thy fame,
Though we win or lose the score.
Singing ever through the fight,
"I love Willamette U,"
Aiming, striving with our might.
T'ward a worthy purpose true.

Chorus—

Oh dear Willamette U.,
The school we love so well,
We pledge our love to you
And e'er your praises tell.
Oh may we always be
Most worthy sons of thine,
We pledge our loyalty
Willamette, school of mine.

College friends will go their way
And our world will hurry on
Our strife lost but a day
And our cause be lost or won
But through all our lives we'll sing
"I love Willamette U."
And to the end we'll bring
Our trust kept faithful true.

TRUE TO YOUR SPIRIT

True to your spirit!
On brave warroirs to the end
Fight till the foe shall fear us
Till the enemy's haughty head shall bend,
On for Willamette,
Fight the battle as of old,
Victory the prize shall be
Of the cardinal embossed with gold.

WILLAMETTE SPRING SONG

Oh, springtime at Willamette,
There's naught could sweeter be!
Like mists by sunlight melted,
The clouds of trouble flee.
And all of life seems gladness
At just a sparrow's trill,
Or glimpse of maple blossoms,
Our hearts with rapture thrill.

Oh, sweet is day's stern labor,
We conquer without fear;
And sweet the hours of evening
When college friends are near.
So gathered here at twilight
Amid the shadows long,
Soft notes of youth and springtime
Are mingled in our song.

ON WILLAMETTE

On Willamette. ever onward,
To the highest goal in view,
From the bell tower rings the story
Of thy conquests, W. U.
In our mighty Alma Mater
Let our faith be ever bold,
That victory may be the prize,
Of the Cardinal and the Gold.

MAGIC SPIRIT

Then we'll strive, we'll stand, we'll stay by old Willamette
With her legends and traditions old and true
Something seems to draw us onward ever
to the victor's goal;

'Tis the magic of thy spirit, W. U.

CHALLENGE TO LOYALTY

There's a cardinal bar from a western sky,
And a golden beam from the sun,
The cardinal for the men of old
Whose valiant courage won,
To these memories we are loyal,
They were wrought with a purpose true,
On these we build our standards
And our faith in Willamette U!

There's a challenge flung from this western sky,
And this golden beam of light,
There's a flaming hope of victory
That will guide us ever right,
And from these colors blended,
The cardinal and golden hue,
We gain the strength of our loyalty,
And our love for Willamette U!

BEND THE KNEE

Bend the knee, yes, bend the knee
To the Cardinal and the Gold;
Before the Bearcats' fighting power
Mars himself must even cower.
Rise, ye sons of Jason Lee,
We will win the victory.
So bend bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

Victory; yes, victory to the Cardinal and the Gold;
Then fearful foes will bite the dust,
For win we will, for win we must.
Onward, then to mastery,
This our conquering song shall be;
So bend bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

DREAM ON

The stars are softly gleaming,
In the shadows of the night,
The moon like glowing silver
Covers all with mellow light.
The world is resting peaceful
From the hurry of the day,
So now beneath your window
Do I sing to you and say—

Chorus—(Boys sing)

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
Till the golden heart of you
Thrills with night-time's beauty,
And your fairest dream come true.

(Girls sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
Till the youthful heart of you
Thrills with life and love and glory,
And your fairest dreams come true.

The mill stream ripples onward
Through the mottled shade of trees,
The moon is wafted gently
By the golden evening breeze.
And making light the shadows
Dance the moonlight fairy beams
And they mingle with our music
And they harmonize your dreams.

FIGHT 'EM BEARCATS

Fight 'em, Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette through the years;
Fight with mighty strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.
Fight 'em Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold,
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted Gold.

JUNIOR SONG '28

When all the campus is sleeping,
Bathed in a silv'ry glow,
Lulled to rest by the mill stream,
Murmuring soft and low,
Our voices will lift 'neath your window,
Soft as the palest moonlight
Not to disturb your fair slumbers;
But wish as we bid you good night.

Chorus—

While you are sleeping, sleeping,
Under the milky way,
Wrapt in the shadow of night-time.
Far from the cares of the day;
May you be dreaming, dreaming,
Dreams of a love ever true
Love that a lad of Willamette
Holds in his heart for you.

Hark! as the voices of nature
Break thru the quiet night,
The singing sigh of the tree tops
Whispering low and light,
The distant chirp of the cricket,
Night breezes age-old song
Oh, may you hear in your dreamland
The wish of this choral throng.

GO, WILLAMETTE

Fight the fight that knows no fear,
Oh, Willamette, heart of cheer.
Then we'll shout the name we love,
To the bending skies above.
Go Willamette, go Willamette, go W. U.
Go win the victory
Show them all both great and small,
What Willamette fight can do.

In order to prevent waste and to insure confidence and to promote business methods, the Executive Committee of the Associated Students created a budget system which will be operative in September, 1929, and will apply to all organizations, under the direction of the student body, which handle money.

There will also be appointed a Graduate Manager who shall be responsible to students and trustees for the proper conduct of all such business matters and to whom and by whom reports shall be made.

This is a proposed resolution which has not yet been incorporated in the constitution.

GO TO CHURCH

History records man as a being who worships. The desire to worship is universal. Among every people of whom we have record, signs of worship have been discovered. Let us develop and direct this instinct of worship.

Today, while attending college, most of us are away from home; yet the deep wish in the heart of every father and mother is that we remain true to the teachings of our youth. By home training and tradition we have some knowledge of the purposes and claims of religion. We believe that in the Bible man finds a standard whereby to guide his life. Religion in its broadest sense is life lived in all its relationships. Religion is the ballast which steadies man's life. Religion is friendship with God.

Willamette wishes to co-operate with the churches of Salem. We have included this church directory in the handbook with the special hope that the church going habit learned at home may not be lost at college.
