

O. A. C. MEETS VARSITY NINE ON CAMPUS TODAY

Good Game Is Expected with Strong Ball Team of the Aggies.

FORMER GAMES POSTPONED FOR RAIN

Both Teams have Good Records—Willamette strong in spite of broken practice.

The first inter collegiate base ball game to occur on the local diamond will take place this afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, when O. A. C.'s nine lines up against the Varsity aggregation.

The "Aggie" team will stop here on their way from Seattle, where they have been playing University of Washington the past two days. They are rated among the best in the conference having taken two out of three from Oregon and lost two out of three to Washington, not including the game played in Seattle yesterday, the score of which was not obtained at press time.

While the visiting team is recognized as among the best in the conference, it must be remembered that the local nine has proved itself to be fully capable of coping with conference teams and will beyond doubt, give the "Aggie" delegation a good close rub, and should victory fail to rest with cardinal and gold, it will be on account of the exceptional merit of the opposition.

As has been usual of late the behavior of the weather has materially interfered with practice and added to this drawback have been the medic exams. However, the field is in first class shape once more and with old reliable Drake in the box, and all the men in their regular positions there is every reason to believe that the cardinal and gold will be well represented.

The game with Corvallis was on the regular schedule for April 19th, but rain interfered at that time and no definite arrangements for another date until Monday, when Dr. Sweetland and Dr. Steward of O. A. C. fixed up today's game over the wire. According to present plans, the return game at Corvallis will be played Saturday, May 31.

Willamette will probably line up as follows: Steelhammer, c; Drake, p; Hamilton, 1 b; Homan (C) 2 b; McKee, 3 b; Booth, s; Gates, 1 f; Doane, c. f; Lund, r. f. The only change is the substitution of Doane for Howard, who has returned to his home.

CRITERIONS ARE SURPRISED.

Sister Society Comes Unawares and Is Royally Received.

Last Wednesday evening the Adelpheans unexpectedly came on masse into the Criterion meeting. The boys to return the surprise made up an extemporaneous program for the girls. The Adelpheans rendered this in good style, and in addition gave an entertaining drama. Miss McKinney led the ten-minute parliamentary practice, and proved herself able to handle the gavel, even before the Criterion. On the whole, both surprises were enjoyed very much, but it is not likely that the Criterion will take the Adelpheans unawares in any of their meetings after returning the compliment of Wednesday evening.

Miss Ruth Young entertained her brother Frederick over the week-end.

EXAMINATIONS JUNE 10-16.

Estimated as 136th Application of Inquisition Methods.

The dates for final exams have at last been definitely arranged. The examinations will begin Tuesday morning, June 10th, and close at noon, on Monday, June 16th. The schedule averages about eleven subjects a day. For a whole week the campus will be infested with long-faced Sophomores with a Bible under one arm and a history under the other; and pale-faced Freshmen will inquire in hollow tones, "Can you state the binomial theorem?" and "Did Shakespeare or Pope write 'Paradise Lost'?" and the Seniors will smile a superior smile.

Assuming that the custom of semester examinations was inaugurated with the University, this is the one hundred and thirty-sixth spasm of legalized torture which has swept over "and the end is not yet."

BIG PLANS BEING LAID FOR SENIOR CLASS DAY

Senior Program, College Parade, Class Stunts, and "Mill Stream Court" Fill Day.

From sunrise until long after sunset on Senior Class Day, there is to be one continuous round of pleasure, both for students and campus visitors. The program will be clever and varied, with many entirely new features. Miss Krenning predicts that the weather will be settled by that time and that a really fine day may be expected.

The morning is to be occupied by the Senior class program, which will include the Class History, Prophecy, Poem, and some "statistics," which, for accuracy, will vie with the latest patent medicine almanac. The festivities will continue through the noon hour in the form of a student feed, similar to that of May Day. Immediately following this will be a parade, in costume, led by the "Varsity band," which bids fair to eclipse anything ever attempted by Ringling or Sells-Floto. The Seniors in their academic robes, the Juniors in caps and gowns of their class colors, the Sophomores in fools' caps, and the Freshmen in their christening robes, or perhaps carrying Teddy bears, will form a procession worthy of the occasion. After this, the several classes will give their "stunts." Deep mystery surrounds these, but, needless to say, they will be humorous and original.

"The Mill Stream Court," the masque to be presented in the evening will climax one of the most successful class days ever given at Old Willamette.

The Seniors desire the hearty co-operation of every student to make this affair worth while to Commencement visitors and to give them a real insight into college life at Willamette. It is hoped that no student will find it necessary to go home before the completion of college festivities.

The general plans for the day are in the hands of a committee consisting of Miss Lina Heist and Miss Pearl Bradley, while the class shave committees working on their particular contributions to the day's entertainment.

Seniors to Wear Hoods

The Seniors, at a recent meeting voted to send for bachelor of arts hoods which they will don as their diplomas are presented to them at the graduating ceremonies. The wearing of bachelor's hoods is a new departure at Willamette, previous classes having been content to get away with their sheepskin in mere cap and gown.

CLASSES MIX IN MEET ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Varsity Track Men Are Barred From Their Regular Events.

LARGE SQUADS ON TRACK THIS WEEK

Entries Limited to Two from a Class In each Event—Seniors Favorites.

Next Friday will see the biggest inter-class contest of the year when the affiliated classes of the University mix in the annual inter-class track and field meet. The meet is the result of a challenge proffered by the Sophomores and immediately accepted by all the other classes at last Friday's chapel service.

The rules for the contest provide that no point winner in a Varsity meet shall enter any event in which he has won a place.

The track was somewhat rugged after the meet between Eugene and Salem.

IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS ARE POSTED

Provide for Five Dollar Student Body Tax and Collegians for all.

The following important amendments to the Student Body constitution were read at Chapel Monday and have been posted. They will be voted upon Friday, May 30th.

Proposed amendments to the constitution:

To amend article 3, section 2 to read as follows, "The dues of the organization shall be two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per semester, payable upon registration, upon payment of which the student will be entitled to an admission ticket to all athletic and other contests conducted by the Student Body during the semester. This amendment to go into effect only upon ratification of the Board of Trustees at its meeting in June, 1912." To amend the above amendment to article 3 section 2, by suffixing to the first sentence the words, "and a subscription to the Willamette Collegian."

An amendment to the By-laws. To amend article 2, section 1, of the By-laws to read, "All monies received from the Student Body dues shall go into a general fund, to be expended at the order of the Executive committee, except that twenty-five cents ($0.25) per semester for each $2.50 fee collected, shall be turned over to the manager of the Willamette Collegian for the support of that paper."

In order that there can be no mistakes in voting on the amendments to the constitution which were posted Monday, a word of explanation may be in order. The two first amendments were drawn up separately so that the students will have an opportunity of voting upon both phases of the question. Thus, is the amendment to the amendment, which will be the first to be voted upon, or if it is last, the question of raising the student body tax to five dollars a year, will be before the house. The idea of the amendment to the By-laws is merely to give the Collegian fifty cents a year from every student body fee, thus putting it upon a firm financial basis and at the same time giving every student in school a vital interest in the paper.

Y. W. HEARS REV. P. F. SCHROCK

Interest in Meetings Continues Despite Spring Weather.

The fact that interest in the Y. W. C. A. meetings does not lag perceptibly in these spring days speaks well for the ability of the devotional committee. Miss Jessie Young gave the girls an original and interesting talk under the title of "With My Father and Mother on Lookout Mountain," and a pleasing variation from the usual program was the review of "The Penny Philanthropist," given by the Rev. P. F. Schrock at the last meeting. The book presents a unique phase of an old problem in picturing the life of a little Irish newsgirl who daily devoted one penny to cheering someone less fortunate. It is another sermon upon the never out-worn theme of "He who gives himself with his gift." The special music of the afternoon was furnished by the Misses Kuntz and McMahon.

COLUMBIA BEACH GREAT PLACE FOR COLLEGE MEN

Willamette Should Be Well Represented at Y. M. C. A. Conference, June 14-22.

Many men in the Pacific Northwest are facing the question: "Are you going to Columbia Beach?" Almost the invariable answer is: "I should like very much to go, but don't see where I can get the necessary cash."

Eventually most of these men will solve the difficulty in some way and on June 14 the Y. M. C. A. at Columbia Beach will be alive with college men from Idaho, British Columbia, Washington and Oregon.

The conference begins at a time when the Willamette students are recovering from an attack upon the semester examinations. Those who go will be obliged to miss most of the Commencement week exercises. While this is a disadvantage, the men will nevertheless find a valuable substitute presented by the conference at Columbia Beach.

For eight days they will be in company with some of the ablest religious work leaders of the country. They will come into personal touch with men who understand the peculiar problems of college men. These men also enter heartily into all the sports, which play such an important part in the development of a healthy body. The combination of physical, intellectual and spiritual activities, as found at the conference, is an ideal one.

Under these ideal surroundings, purposes and determinations are fixed which react upon the entire future course of the individuals.

The attitude of the faculty of the conference is broad-minded and practical. It may be said that one of the key-notes is: "No secular profession, but all sacred, and devoted to the service of mankind, under divine guidance."

Every college man should attend at least one Y. M. C. A. conference during the course of his college life, preferably during the Freshman or Sophomore year. The necessary sacrifices involved in attending the conference will be amply repaid by the larger vision and inspiration received.

Satisfactory arrangements have been made for the examinations of those who go to the conference. These will be given earlier than the schedule time, so no one needs stay away from Columbia Beach on this account.

A number of fellows have already decided to go. Willamette should be represented by twenty men and every effort will be made to reach that number.

COMMENCEMENT EVENTS BEGIN FRIDAY EVENING

Schools of Law and Medicine Will Graduate Forty-six Persons.

DR. BENJAMIN YOUNG MAKES ADDRESS

Various Commencement Events Follow Later—Total of 64 Seniors to Graduate.

The first of the Commencement exercises of this year will be those of the Law and Medical Schools, to be held next Friday evening in the First Methodist Church. The Seniors of the College of Law and the College of Medicine have united for their Commencement exercises, so that the one service will be a first-class college affair.

Dr. Benjamin Young of Portland will deliver the address to the combined classes. The program will otherwise consist of the charge to the Law graduates by Judge Burnett, and to the Medics by Dr. Griffith, the presentation of the Tamiesie medal for high scholarship in medicine, and musical selections by Prof. Walsh, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, and the Peerless Orchestra. The exercises begin at eight o'clock.

Miss Nettie Snyder will be graduated from the vocal course of this department.

The Commencement exercises of Kimball College of Theology will follow on Friday, June 13. The men to be graduated from this department are T. D. Yarus, Roy Jackson, R. H. Stone, and T. M. Jasper.

"WILLAMETTE WILL SHINE"

The time of the year is here for concerted action in getting students interested in Willamette for next year. Every student has friends in his home town who are planning to go to college during the coming year. Why should they not come to Willamette? We have the school. All we need is the concerted boosting effort that will make the thing go. We can have the largest Freshman class in the history of the school if we go after it in a business like manner.

High schools are closing for the summer months and as each closes there are a number graduated. The graduates are making up their minds for the coming year. A letter at the opportune time might mean a student for Willamette that would add honor to her name. Write today to your friends and keep it up. The Christian associations are the only organizations that do an active work during the summer in this respect. They have their lists, supplied from various sources, of the students who are contemplating coming to Willamette. They write concerning the many questions that would interest a prospective student. They were the means last year of securing many students. Some of you will remember the time when a letter of good fellowship added the last impetus that decided you for Willamette.

We have had a fine time this year. Willamette has nearly completed her paid up endowment of half a million dollars. She is increasing her faculty; she is centrally located; she has good libraries. She has a live student body and a healthy College spirit. Everything that a student could wish for is here. If every student will write to the friends that he knows are contemplating going to school and will ask another student to write a letter, it will do wonders in swelling the number of students and in boosting the Willamette spirit throughout the Northwest. Get in touch with the Y. M. or Y. W. C. A. committees that have this in charge and they will assist you in getting the essential points necessary, providing you cannot make an interesting letter from your own observations during the past winter. Get Busy—Boost—Push—Willamette is on the map.

POINTERS

1. Hard in names of prospective students at the office so that they can send printed matter, perhaps a letter if you think best.
2. Write a good hearty letter telling of the good things of Willamette.
3. Get another student to write, just to show that we are interested.
4. If he is in your home town, don't forget to boost when you get home this summer. Talk Willamette. (Live It).
5. Get busy Now! Help the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. committees in their work.

PUTTING AWAY CHILDISH THINGS.

Reference has been made by the Monitor to a period of intellectual renaissance for Yale University as manifesting itself in a variety of ways, not the least of which is frank criticism of much of the puerility, flummery and secrecy connected with the society life of the students, using that descriptive word "society" in the sense common to colleges and university men. Is it not about time that Harvards' societies came in for a similar process of criticism? Is it creditable to the institution to read of the feats demanded of initiates, which subject them to public ridicule and force upon them degrading publicity? Is there anything hinting of culture in the ordeal that compels the young English kinsman of John Harvard, now matriculated in the college, to go about yard and square serving as a bootblack? It discloses no special fertility of invention, viewed from the standpoint of cleverness; and it compels a line of conduct that some natures would rather choose voluntarily if at all.

The appeal of the public to the university today is for a somewhat more serious rating of opportunity and duty than has governed teachers and students of late. Neither secrecy nor mummery nor horseplay, if reported of an institution as flourishing with it, increases its rating with contemporary American democracy. Serious times demand less frivolity and froth and more close grappling with life by teachers and by students—Christian Science Monitor.

PHILODORIANS HOLD TRIAL

Tatro and Gardiner Leading Attorneys in Thrilling Case.

The Philodorian halls last Wednesday evening were the scene of a gathering of unusual interest. The principal feature of the occasion was a mock trial, in which Burr E. Tatro and Lawrence Gardiner, both members of this year's graduating law class, acted in the capacity of leading attorneys. From the moment of calling the court to order—Assistant Attorney General VanWinkle having been secured to act as judge—to the rendering of the final verdict in favor of the plaintiff by the dignified co-ed jury, the air was heavy with ponderous legal phrases, with animated examination and cross-examination, followed by startling and heart-rending results. During the course of the proceedings refreshments were served, and the thirty or more guests who were present were refreshed beyond measure at the conclusion of the first course.

At a seasonable hour the assembly adjourned, after having appreciated the efforts of the committee in working up to such a successful conclusion one more of the programs for which the society is celebrated.

Miss Hansen Entertains.

Miss Mary Hansen entertained very pleasantly Saturday evening in honor of her guests, Miss Mande Mitchell and Miss Bessie Isbourn of Gresham. Those invited were the Misses Ruth Young, Alice Fields, Valeda Hoxie, Grace Thompson, Gertrude Eakin, Ethel Casebeer, Mildred Martholomew and Mave Lovelace, and the Messrs. Paul Todd, Don Gary, Wm. Oldenburg, Lester Proebstel, Emery Doane, Eric Bolt, Seth Axley, Harry Irvine, Arthur Marsh and Harold Jory.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION COMMENCEMENT FEATURE

An additional Commencement event which has not been mentioned heretofore, is the president's reception for the faculty, visitors and student body. The time has not been definitely set as yet, but it will be sometime during Commencement week.

U. of W. to Send Crew East.

Subscriptions are being taken to send the University of Washington crew to the big intercollegiate regatta to be held at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 28. This contest is the big rowing event of the United States and the Washington boys are fortunate in being privileged to contest at this meet. They have a strong crew and are expected to make a good showing. Over $2,500 of the $3,600 needed has been subscribed.

Francis Heads Eaton Club.

At the fourth annual election, recently held, the members of the Eaton Club elected F. S. Francis, '15, to the managership of that organization.

R. F. Harper, under whose efficient management the club has so favorably progressed during the year just closed, retires, and with him goes the sincerest appreciation of his services by all.

FRESHMEN DEFY WEATHER MAN

Picnic Festivities Transferred to Gym—Impending Sophomoredom Forgotten.

The multiple misfortunes of the Freshman class reached a climax Saturday, when the day ordained for their semester picnic broke with a drizzling rain. When the ill-starred ones had bestowed appropriate consternation upon the calamity, they put their wits together to contrive a substitute festivity, and finally agreed to defy the weather clerk and hold their picnic in the gymnasium. It was a bit less romantic, but the fact that the lunch was unaffected by barometric conditions proved a substantial consolation, for there was a picnic supper complete from the roasted sausages to the ice cream and coffee.

Realizing that the rigidity of being Sophomores was impending, the '16-ers took advantage of the final function of their Freshman year for a last juvenile frolic, and the zest with which a track meet, a very novel form of spelling match, and a Virginia reel were carried on almost savoured of high school days. The evening ended with a grand march. Professor and Mrs. Walsh acted as chaperones.

The 1913 Senior class totals 64 members, the largest number ever graduated from the various departments in any one year.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND.

The Student Volunteer Band welcomed to their open meeting Monday evening, Mrs. Guthrie and a number of friends. Mrs. Guthrie addressed the members and guests on the subject, "Zenana Work Among the Hindustani Women." After a very interesting talk, which brought with it some disillusion concerning the life of Zenana women and some idea of the terrible filth engendered by some of the religious practice in India, Mrs. Guthrie exhibited some unusual pictures of life in India. Mr. Guthrie was also a guest of the Band.

Prof. and Mrs. Walsh and son were guests of Miss Helen Wastell at dinner Sunday.

Miss Ruth Johns visited at the home of Miss Areta Jones over Saturday and Sunday.

The O. A. C. students are to go on their annual excursion to Newport next Friday.

The friends of Esther Emmel are glad to welcome her to Salem again, if not to school.

PHILODOSIAN

The Adelphean Literary Society was entertained by the Philodorsians on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Walsh gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the Southern College Girl, comparing her with the eastern and the western types of girls. The principal points of difference are found in the conventional-ity and social customs of the south.

A piano solo was rendered by Miss McQueen and clever readings were given by Miss Thomas and Miss Liston. A short business session followed the enjoyed.

COLLEGE CLASSES PAY RESPECTS TO SENIORS

PROF. AND MRS. PATTERSON AT HOME TO LARGE THROG.

Classes Come at Different Hours, Each
Providing Entertainment for Guests of Honor.

A treat is always in store when Dr. and Mrs. Patterson open their doors to the University students and the reception which they gave last Friday evening in honor of the Liberal Arts Seniors proved the most uniquely successful social affair of the college year. The Seniors appeared in cap and gown and stood waiting to greet the guests after they had been received by the host and hostess and the members of the faculty.

Promptly at seven-thirty the Freshmen arrived, and after paying their respects to the faculty and Seniors, the youthful contingent presented for the entertainment of their elders a short drama entitled "Pyramus and Thisbe," in which the love-lorn heroine (Chas. Hall) quite won the hearts of the audience. At eight-thirty the Sophomores appeared to take the place of the departing underclassmen. Their contribution to the program of the evening was musical and literary. Three songs by a quartet, composed of the Messrs. Chappell, Pfaff, Manning and Irvine, were much appreciated, as also were the reading by Miss Daisy Mulkey and the vocal solo by Harold Jory.

The climax of the evening occurred when at nine-thirty the Juniors appeared in a body, garbed in caps and gowns of silver and cardinal. With counterfeited Senior dignity, they greeted the company, and presently distributed programs of "A Play in Three Acts." Act one proved to be a dramatic gem entitled "Quarantine," a clever burlesque upon the Senior masque. Funeral measures then were sounded from the piano, before which the quasi-Seniors seated themselves in a semi-circular group upon the floor, while the noted Doctor of Divinity, Louis Hepp, delivered in pantomime a masterful and impressive baccalaureate sermon. In imitation of graduation, diplomas were then presented by President Stearns and distributed by Dean Vandervort. The delightful humor of the Junior burlesque consisted in the fact that each Senior found himself impersonated in caricature by one of his younger brethren.

The Patterson home was decorated for the occasion with masses of Scotch broom, while yellow-shedded candles cast a soft glow throughout.

Assisting in the dining room during the evening were Miss Krenning, Mrs. Grover Belling, Mrs. Homan, Mrs. Peck, Miss Margaret Graham and Miss Chappell.

Lausanne to "Hold a School."

Next Saturday evening the Lausanne Hall girls are entertaining. The entertainment is to take the form of an old-fashioned district school and everyone is to be a "child" again, from seven to ten. Great preparations are being made, and it is planned to have this one of the jolliest affairs of the year.

Misses Rosamond Gilbert, Clara Perkins, Greta Jennings and Beulah Kopf entertained informally at Lausanne Hall Friday evening. The guests were Messrs. Haight, Frank Bagley, Grover Gates and Willis Bartlett. The main feature of the evening was a taffy-pull.

Several Salem High students are turning out for spring football practice. The local school is always strong on the gridiron and expects to make a good showing next season.

Miss Florence Metcalf, ex-'13, has returned to Salem after a year in the University of California, from which she recently was graduated.

Harold Wieder paid a visit to his home in Albany over the week-end.

SUMMER SCHOOL IS FOR BENEFIT OF TEACHERS

BULLETIN DEVOTED TO COURSES AND ATTRACTIONS

Joseph, Oregon, Scene of Session in Midst of Most Scenic Section of State

The last issue of the University bulletin, recently issued, is devoted to a detailed presentation of the courses and attractions of the fourth session of the Willamette University Summer school, to be held at Joseph, Oregon, near Wallowa Lake, July 14th to August 22nd.

The Summer School has been arranged with the idea of serving the teachers of Eastern Washington and Oregon and of Idaho especially, but for all the tourists who visit this beautiful mountain resort. "The Switzerland of Oregon," the Summer School session will be an opportunity of combining intellectual stimulation and physical recreation.

Work will be given to prepare teachers for passing the state examinations for one year, five year and life certificates. Advanced work for admission as College Freshmen will be offered if there are any applicants. Music will be taught by a very competent instructor to those desiring it. The principal emphasis, however, will be laid upon preparation for teaching.

The faculty will be composed of experienced instructors. Willamette will be represented by Pres. Homan, Vice-pres. Todd, James T. Matthews, Florian Von Sechen. The other four are people well known in eastern Oregon and Washington. Ernest Coe and wife, of Prineville, Prof. O. C. Whitney, of the University of Puget Sound, and Supt. J. C. Conley, of Wallowa county schools. Prof. Matthews will be Dean of the session.

There will be fare-and-a-third rates in effect on the O. W. R. & N., and the rates of the school will be inconsiderable. Lectures and entertainments will be provided for the Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week, admission free to those connected with the Summer School. There will also be an Epworth League institute at Joseph, from the 16th to 20th of July.

The scenic attractions of the vicinity around Joseph must be seen to be appreciated. The last University bulletin gives a very good idea of the wonderful beauties of this district, revelations of austere grandeur to those who have been raised in the low lands where quieter phases of nature prevail. Excursions have been arranged, under the guidance of men well acquainted with the region, for every Saturday of the entire six weeks, so that whoever attends the Summer school will come away with a full knowledge of the natural beauty and resources of this beautiful bit of Oregon.

WEBSTERIANS STUDY WEBSTER

Kennell Relates Thrilling Incidents of Visit to Lausanne Hall.

The regular meeting of the Websterians Wednesday night was one of the best of the year. The program, a study of Daniel Webster, was of special interest to the Webs. The first number on the program, a 45-minute address on "The Life of Webster," was very interesting and very beneficial. The talk showed thorough preparation on the part of Mr. Minon. The music rendered by Mr. Proebstel was excellent. The open discussion, led by Mr. Richter, of "Webster, His Life and Beliefs," gave all a clearer insight into the life of the author of the 7th of March speech. Mr. Kennell gave a very amusing account of his visit with a young lady at Lausanne Hall. Mr. Kennell said he fully enjoyed himself, although he dare not speak a word, and, besides, he expressed his wish to go again if an opportunity presented itself. After fifteen minutes of lively parliamentary practice, a rousing business meeting was held.

Miss Merene Digerness entertained her sister over the week-end.

BOOST NEEDED FOR CLASS GAMES

Interest in Interclass Baseball Series
Lags in Spite of New Diamond.

While those inter-class baseball games seem to have disappeared, there is still a strong belief that energy from some unknown source will arouse the erstwhile would-be tennis sharks, campus fusers and otherwise engaged personnel of the male portion of the student body, and some live class games result.

Both the Freshmen and Sophomores have elected managers, but this is the only action taken so far toward inter-class games. The new diamond has been completed as far as the filling in is concerned and the only work left to do is the putting up of the netting on the posts for the backstop, which have, by the way, been set for some time. Dr. Sweetland as usual doing the work.

Just why the usual interest in the national game should take such an un-called for slump, campus Pinkertons have failed to reveal. The fact remains, however, that somebody should be moved to action, lest talent become an unknown quality among the 'varsity boys.

EUGENE HIGH DOWNS SALEM IN HOTLY CONTESTED MEET

Score Is 69-62—Races Are Good in Spite of Miry Condition of 'Varsity Track.

Salem and Eugene High Schools defied the elements with the true Oregonian spirit last Saturday and held a very stiffly contested track meet on Willamette Field, which was covered about ankle deep with mud of the consistency of molasses in June. The Salem boys had almost conceded the meet to Eugene, but the uncertainties of the day held several surprises in store and the Salem athletes gradually crawled up on their rivals until they led by a few points, and it was only in the last two events that Eugene gained the winning points, the score being 69-62.

Bownes, Ross, West and Titus were the big point winners for Eugene, and Ford, the two Fruit boys, Lowe and Brown did exceptionally well for Salem. There were several very pretty races run, and had the track been in decent shape it would have been as pretty a contest as one usually sees. Creditable time was made in spite of the mud.

About twenty students are planning a trip to Silver Creek Falls on Decoration Day. The party is to make the trip in an auto truck, spending the night at farmhouses in the vicinity of the Falls and returning on the following day.

SENIORS LEAD Y. M. MEETING

Out of Four Years Accumulated Wisdom, Give Share to Underclassmen

The Senior men presided at the weekly devotional meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. "The College Man" was the theme of the meeting. Wm. Schrieber spoke on "The College Man and His Fellow Students." Ray Smith talked about "The College Man and His Responsibility to His Community." Kenneth Mickey's subject was "The College Man's Attitude." Carl Hollingworth presided, and also spoke briefly. All the speeches were concise and pithy. The whole meeting was a success and the words of the men as they leave the University were much appreciated.

The fifth annual Commonwealth Conference was held at Eugene last Friday and Saturday. Well known speakers from over the state addressed the conference and many phases of the various questions affecting the public affairs of the state received able discussion.
