

DEBATERS TO SEEK NATIONAL CHAPTER

TAX PLEDGED TO TRUSTEES

Guarantee Given to W. U. Board to Finance Gym

WEDNESDAY TO BE OPEN

Committee on Constitution Revision Heard

A resolution requesting that Wednesday evenings be left open as far as possible for Y. M. C. A. and men's literary society meetings, a resolution to be presented to the board of trustees stating the share of responsibility that the student body would assume for the running expenses of a new gymnasium, and a report from the constitution revision committee were the main points of interest at the regular meeting of the associated student body, Friday. Action in regard to the adoption of the point system was referred until the next meeting. At that time nominations of the student body officers for the coming year will be made.

Tax May be Served

A five dollar tax to be assessed each member of the student body for the running expense of the new gymnasium was a much debated point of the resolution proposed by the executive committee. The resolution was formed in answer to the request of the board of trustees for a statement of the exact responsibility the associated student body would assume provided a new gymnasium were erected immediately. Objection was raised to levying a tax on future student bodies who would have had no voice in the passing of this resolution. The resolution was referred to the executive committee that some time limit might be specified in the new draft.

A new constitution organizing all the old measures that are not obsolete with several new measures that will greatly improve the student body government was the recommendation of the constitution revision committee as presented by Verne Bala, chairman. The following are some of the new measures recommended:

1. The incorporation of the associated student body.
2. An athletic council to consist of two alumni members, two student body members, the athletic director, and the student body president.
3. A budget system of finance.
4. The glee club to be made a department of the student body.
5. The appointment of Collegian and forensic managers by the executive committee of the student body.
6. Individual managers for different branches of athletics.
7. That the executive committee be made to include the athletic director and four members at large, one from each class.
8. The selection of Yell King, crown prince, and song queen by vote of the student body after try-out.
9. The codifying of the freshman glee regulations and placing of same in by-laws. It is also suggested that the type of freshman glee song for the following year be chosen before the close of the present term.

Oregon History Classes Make Trip to Missouin Near Wheatland Ferry; Professor R. M. Gatke, Chief Guide

And it came to pass—Professor Gatke's Oregon History classes visited the Old Oregon mission site near the Wheatland ferry Monday afternoon and evening. They feasted on the famous chili con carne concocted and cooked by Robert M. Gatke; they gathered around a smoldering campfire and sang songs in the twilight and falling darkness; played games of their childhood and then returned to Salem a happy, tired group of students.

Under the guiding hand of Professor Gatke the 35 students were bundled into cars and set going on the road towards the mission spot. An uneventful ride brought them to the house that stands on the site of the hospital that was established some distance from the mission. At the residence of Alex LaPollett the party was taken in charge and directed across ploughed and fallow fields to the banks of the Mission slough. Mr. LaPollett pointed out here and there the different sites of the several buildings of the old mission group. The place where once

BALLET DANCERS CAUSE CRITICISM OF ROOKS' PARTY

Much criticism has been leveled against the freshman class as a result of one of the stunts at their party Saturday night. "Actually," say the critics, "there were six ballet dancers there, in short skirts and bloomers, with a spot light shining on them. And they actually had the nerve to stop the performance to powder their knees; and the shimmy! Oh! My!"

Although Dr. Doney has not been personally interviewed concerning the matter, the impression was given by the president's office boy, that the invitation to all of the dancers elsewhere, is being considered. It was also hinted that the whole freshman class might be eliminated for countenancing such a thing, and that it was entirely within the realm of possibility that the junior class would also be blamed (for they saw the dance, all 10 of them).

But most shocking of all is the announcement that some of the faculty is also under presidential disapproval as a result of their being in the same building with the starting exposure of last Saturday night. Although the names to the suspected pedagogues have not been divulged, it has been hinted that there are among their number the dean of women, an instructor in history, a teacher of piano, and the professor of philosophy. The worst punishment of all, however, will probably be meted out to the offending dancers, Bill Walsh, Milton Grallap, Jack Burleson, Fred Halvorson, Floyd Horton and Ted Emmel.

STUDENTS MUST SEEK ENTRANCE

Prospective Entrants Are to Fill Formal Blank

MANY QUESTIONS ASKED

University to Inquire Into Applicant's Activities and Character

Coincident with the ruling which limited next year's freshman class was the passing of a requirement for all prospective students and all persons desiring permission to enter the college to fill out, in addition to their regular application for admission, a separate blank which aims to secure information in regard to the prospective student's record of activities outside the classroom, and his object in coming to Willamette. Aside from the technicalities as to name, address, etc., two sets of questions are asked the prospective applicant. The first of those concerns the school activities, asking information as to work on school publications, offices held, prizes and honors won, debate activities and athletic records.

Outside Activities Asked

The second set concerns the activities outside the school. The exact questions are as follows: "Paid work or work for parents without wages? Member of what church? Church preferred, if not a member? Church activities? Outside reading, what books have you recently read? What periodicals do you read?"

C. P. S. VICTOR IN DUAL MEET

Northerners Secure 4-2 Victory in Women's Debate

NEGATIVE STAYS HERE

National Rights in China Is Question Under Discussion

By winning both contests by a two to one decision, the College of Puget Sound co-ed debaters triumphed over the Willamette women in a dual meet Friday evening. The affirmative teams of both institutions travelled. The question discussed was: Resolved, that the Eastern nations and Japan are justified in refusing to relinquish their territorial rights which they hold in China by treaty.

Elaine Oberg and Violet Coe represented Willamette here while Esther Osborne and Florence Maddock defended C. P. S. The Puget Sound women rested largely on trick arguments, making very little attempt to construct a logical case. Miss Osborne, opening the argument for the affirmative, outlined the C. P. S. case and advanced the point that "history does not warrant the relinquishing of territorial rights in China."

Miss Maddock Pleasing

Miss Oberg, speaking for the negative, outlined the case of the Willamette women and pointed out that the holding of territory was unethical from many standpoints. Miss Maddock, arguing on the affirmative again, made a very pleasing presentation of arguments that seemed to bewilder the local co-eds. A large part of the second affirmative's time was spent in showing what the negative must and must not do. Miss Coe, concluding the constructive arguments, argued that the territorial rights in question were a menace to world peace.

It was the comment of the judges that throughout the constructive argument, Willamette had the best of it, but that C. P. S. won on rebuttal. The decisions were rendered by Mr. Kusner, superintendent of the boys' training school; Hon. J. C. Perry of the Oregon legislature; and George W. Hug, superintendent of Salem schools. Dean Alden was chairman.

Irish Arguments in Evidence

The contest at Tacoma was largely a replica of the Salem mix, the Willamette university women presenting the logical side, but being trapped by the trick arguments of the Sound college. Lorlei Blatchford and Louise Joughlin were the Willamette upholders, while Helen Brace and Dorothy Wallace spoke for C. P. S. Willamette defended the territorial rights in question on four grounds: legal, ethical, economical and political. The negatives points were three: 1. China is capable of governing herself; 2. The attitude of the foreign nations shows passion for power; and 3. A continuance of the present state of affairs will lead to internal trouble.

The rules of the debates provided that each speaker was to have 15 minutes for constructive argument and seven minutes for refutation.

Soul Power Emphasized As Greatest Resource in Talk Made in University Chapel

"The greatest undeveloped resource of the United States is its undeveloped soul power," said Thomas Lane, D. D. of Puyallup, Wash., in an address in chapel yesterday. Choosing as a subject "The Things That are Worth While," Dr. Lane pointed out that moral and religious education was lacking in the United States, despite the enormous material prosperity of the country. The speaker emphasized the need of the integrity in business, saying that soul-value underlay every material enterprise.

Faculty at Idaho Puts Damper on Basketball Schedule for Next Year

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, April 18.—(P. I. N. S.)—At a recent faculty meeting, a ruling was made whereby Idaho's basketball schedule for next year cannot exceed 22 games for the season. The Christmas game barnstorming tour is not included in this rule. In accordance with the rule, Idaho's 1922-23 basketball schedule will be much lighter than this year's was, as during the present year Idaho played in the neighborhood of 30 games, not including the Christmas season.

Many Local Men Planning to Attend Conference of Y. M. Officers at Corvallis

Many Willamette men, including the recently elected Y. M. C. A. officers and chairmen of committees, are expecting to attend the Y. M. C. A. officers' training conference which will be held in Corvallis on Saturday and Sunday, April 22 and 23. A great conference of Y. M. C. A. leaders of the northwest is anticipated.

DONEY FROWNS ON EXEMPTIONS

Petition That Seniors Be Excused From Final Exams Is Not Favored

"Any plan for an exemption of seniors from final exams will fail to get past the faculty." Such was the answer of President Doney to a senior petition presented by a class committee headed by Lester Day, asking that seniors who carried a semester average of "E" should be exempted from final examinations.

Dr. Doney stated the reasons for this attitude of the faculty were an appreciation that under the conditions desired, the seniors, always having a tendency to stack up in their work, would thus be unduly tempted, and that exams were necessary as an indication of the students' knowledge. He was of the opinion, however, that oral exams might be substituted for written ones in the case of seniors.

At the class meeting held Monday, April 17, when Mr. Day submitted his report, the seniors, with very little debate, laid the matter indefinitely "on the table." This reversal of opinion was due to the fact that as senior exams come about two weeks early, many students after further consideration had rather have the two weeks of vacation at this especially busy pre-graduation time, with exams, than school attendance until the regular date, with exemption from tests.

The belief of Dr. Doney and other faculty members who had been approached on the subject was taken into consideration in the decision to postpone any further action on the matter.

Reed of O. A. C., Brother of Willamette Student, Wins National Wrestling Title

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, April 18.—(P. I. N. S.)—Robin Reed, freshman at O. A. C., won the national wrestling championship of the United States in the 135-pound class in Boston Saturday afternoon. This makes two championships for Robin as he won the championship of the United States in the 125-pound division.

University Band to Give Concert Next Wednesday

Announcement of the university band concert for next Wednesday evening in Waller hall was made yesterday by Glen Chandler, organizer of the band. An admission charge of 25 cents will be made, the proceeds of the concert going to provide uniforms for the organization. The concert will consist of ensemble numbers, duets and solos with a number of musicians outside of school appearing on the program.

"Profiles of Prejudice" Panunzio's Lecture Topic

"Profiles of Prejudice" is the topic Professor Panunzio has announced for his lecture Monday evening in the chapel at Waller hall. The lecture will be the concluding number of the faculty series which has been conducted this year throughout the winter months. All students and the general public are invited to attend. No admission will be charged.

Websterians Elect New Officers to Serve for Remainder of Semester

Officers were elected by the Websterian literary society at the last meeting to serve for the last term of this year. They are: President, Sheldon Sackett; vice president, Elton Von Eschen; recording secretary, Donald J. Ryan; treasurer, William Patten; critic, Waldo Kaise; sergeant-at-arms, Lester Day.

CO-ED CARNIVAL NEXT SATURDAY

All Women of University to Disport in Annual Affair

SCRATCH LIST IN ORDER

Silver Cups Goes to Organization Presenting Best Stunt

At an important meeting of the Girls' Willamette club Friday plans were formulated for the co-ed carnival which will be held on the evening of April 22, in Waller hall.

The co-ed carnival is an annual event which has become traditional at Willamette, the first one having been staged in the spring of 1920. The girls of each class and sorority and of Lausanne hall will present an original stunt, and a silver cup will be presented to the organization whose stunt is considered best.

Cost Limited to $10.

At the meeting Friday it was voted that no stunt should require more than ten minutes for presentation, or should cost more than $10 for preparation. A committee, in charge of an upper class girl, was appointed for each organization and authorized to collect a fee of 20 cents from every girl, to meet the expenses of the carnival. A new feature of this year's program is a stunt to be given by members of the faculty.

As there are to be no men present, dates are to be made via the scratch list, the sophomore, junior and senior girls scratching the names of the freshmen. Every girl in Willamette is expected to attend.

Co-Ed Awards Considered

At the meeting an important resolution, dealing with girls' athletics, was presented. A committee was appointed to confer with Coach Bohler on the advisability of undertaking the establishment of intercollegiate athletics for girls, with awards similar to those now earned by various athletes among the men. Should this be considered practicable, it will open to the girls a new field of endeavor which will be very attractive to all. The report of the committee will be read at the next meeting of the Girls' Willamette club.

According to Grace Collins, president of the Girls' Willamette club, the following committees are at work:

Advertising—Phyllis Palmer, Marjorie Edmonds. Music—Lella Ruby, Mary Jane Albert, Marian Emmons. Program—Pauline Remington, Margaret Legge. Refreshments—Mildred Clarke, Marian Linn, Edna Donnelly. Decorations—Laura Ruggless, Gladys Wilson. Stage managers—Mary Wells, Alice Wells. Finance—Laura Hoyt, Esther McCracken, Ethel Mcroft. Virginia Mason. Scratch list—Gladys Bartholomew.

Junior Frolic Innovation Announced As Feature on Junior Week-end Program

A junior frolic to displace the time honored but sadly inadequate "junior prom" has been announced by the junior class as the crowning event of May week-end. The frolic to be in the nature of a lawn fete, will be held on the campus which will be gayly lighted with Japanese lanterns. Students and guests, in so far as possible, will be asked to make a contribution to the fund for the frolic. Cardinal and gold predominating as the colors for costumes as well as for decorations.

A stage will be erected for the program, which will be varied and attractive of about an hour's duration. Refreshment booths will be placed about. A feature of the evening will be the grand march and the unmasking.

Scattering of confetti abounding, elves and sprites, and the light airy demeanor of summer, all indicate much success for this year's regular May week program.

GONZAGA UNIVERSITY, April 18.—(P. I. N. S.)—A golf team is to be organized within the next few days. With a wealth of material in store, a tournament will be held within the next few weeks to decide the University championship, and a team will then be selected.

Efforts are now being made to arrange inter-collegiate contests as well as meeting the many golf clubs of the city.

WHITMAN COLLEGE, April 18.—(P. I. N. S.)—"Kampus Kooking Kinks" is the name of the new book of recipes being sold by the Whitman Y. W. C. A. to raise funds to pay the remainder of the national pledge.

FIRST SYLLABLE PROVES FATAL TO INNOCENT FROSH

There are on the campus of Willamette university two young ladies in whose names appears the syllable "holm," and they be both of the genus Lausanne, but of entirely different species. But how is the innocent freshman, at the mercy of a formidable scratch-list for his party date, to know all this? A certain wearer of the green lid and cognomen Walsh beheld the Holm of the date-makers' press-sheet, and it failed to impress in his mind a distinct concept.

However, he obliterated it with a stroke of his Eversharp and placed after it initials of his own, and proceeded to follow the traditional course of allowing the Pacific Telephone company to act as his intercessor. The phonoclastic secretary of Lausanne, being weary of bells, and prone to jump at conclusions, connected the hopeful Walsh with one Miss Holman of faculty persuasion, and the date was made. So did W. Walsh and Miss M. Holman enjoy a very entertaining evening on last Saturday, while in an upper story of Lausanne hall there mourned a certain Miss A. Holm, whom faulty psychology had cheated out of her second-class party.

NORTHERN TEAM TO BE DEBATED

College of Puget Sound to Meet Local Men's Team

CONTEST IS DUAL AFFAIR

Two Men to Receive Initial Intercollegiate Practice

Coming as almost an anticlimax to a heavy debate schedule Willamette men's varsity debate team is to meet the College of Puget Sound team in a dual debate next Friday, April 21. Although handicapped by sickness and inexperience, the squad which will go into this debate hopes to atone for the double defeat administered to the women's team last week by the northerners.

"This debate will hardly be of the character of the Redlands or University of Denver debates," said Coach Erickson Tuesday, "but lack of time to prepare, inexperience, and sickness may make the contests fairly even. We intend to introduce new blood into this debate to give the men a chance to develop for another year."

Negative Team Travels

The question will be on a subject comparatively new to debate circles, "Resolved, That the United States Government should establish a system of unemployment insurance for the employees in American corporate industry." Because of the new material which the debate will introduce it will possess an unusual interest. Willamette will uphold the affirmative at home and the negative at Tacoma.

An opportunity will be given two new men in this debate to win their bar-W pins. Albert Geyer and Rodney Alden have been selected from the debate squad as the fortunate ones. Robert Notson will lead the affirmative team and will be mated (Continued on page 2.)

Keeping House, Traveling, Golf, These All Find Place in Resume of Language Professor's Hobbies

"Keeping house and traveling!" smiled the lovely white-haired lady in answer to the usual question: "And, oh yes—golf!" "Of course all of my poor hobbies have been tied up so long that they are getting stiff in the knees." At present, Miss Hanna is indulging the first mentioned hobby. Her descriptions of home would make a hardened heart pligh for a comfortable residence.

Home Life Praised

"Every woman should have her home. It is an instinct which should be indulged. But you should see my neighbors! Across the hall are Mr. and Mrs. So-and-so. Downstairs is a little high school teacher and her mother, and it is like a big family."

Pure joy and contagious enthusiasm made this able invalid's eyes sparkle. "Down at the 'Little Lady's' store there is a particular stool that I sit upon when the 'cracker-box senate' has its meetings. It's all so friendly

PETITION TO BE SENT THIS WEEK

Delta Sigma Rho, Honorary Debate Fraternity, Desired

DECISION MADE TUESDAY

Committees Hard at Work in Preparation of Application

A chapter of Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary forensic fraternity, is the object of the wearers of the official bar-W for debate and oratory. At a meeting held yesterday noon it was decided to petition the meeting of the national council which is to meet on April 28 at Iowa City, Iowa. Committees to collect the necessary material and to frame the formal petition were appointed.

"A chapter of Delta Sigma Rho would be a great thing for Willamette," said Professor C. M. Panunzio discussing the question of a petition. "I think on the basis of the record Willamette has made in debate, that the chances of having the petition granted are fairly good." Professor Panunzio is a Delta Sigma Rho by virtue of his debate work at Ohio Wesleyan.

Membership Restricted

The Delta Sigma Rho is a national honorary society which has for its object the promoting of interest in debate and oratory. Membership in it is restricted to those who have represented their college or university in debate, oratory, or recognized intercollegiate forensic contest. Many of the leading colleges of the country have chapters of Delta Sigma Rho, including Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Bates, Cornell, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania State, Princeton, and practically all of the leading state universities as well as other large independent schools too numerous to mention. In the west the only chapters held at the present time are at Leland Stanford University, Washington State College and University of Southern California.

Willamette has had a good record both in oratory and debate. Three years ago Margaret Garrison, representing Willamette, won the Oregon State Intercollegiate Prohibition Oratorical contest, the Pacific Coast title, and took first honors at the national contest at Des Moines, Iowa. The women's varsity defeated O. A. C. two years ago by two unanimous decisions, took W. S. C.'s measure by one unanimous and one two to one decision last year, and have been generally successful with the smaller schools.

Record Is Good

The men's varsity lost last year to the strong Morningstar team, divided honors in a dual debate with the Whitman college team which had won handsily from the University of Washington a few weeks previous. This year the men's debaters have been exceptionally fortunate. They have defeated the University of Redlands team which had previously won from all the Southern California colleges including the University of Southern California. The University of Denver team which had an impressive record in the east and which had defeated the Washington State college team but a few nights previous, on the same question like-

Blessed is he who has found his work. Let him ask no other blessedness. He has his work—a life purpose; he has found it and will follow it.—Thomas Carlyle.

SCHOOL SPIRIT—DIFFICULT OF DEFINITION BUT VERY REAL

WHAT is school spirit? So often is the question asked and so often is the answer that school spirit merely is that vague indefinable, intangible "something," which pervades a campus that we loose sight of outstanding qualities which characterize this motive force in university life.

School spirit may be characterized as a personalization of school interest. Best is this illustrated by viewing campus examples. The student who with ardor and interest, follows a diligent quest after the truth through the medium of the classroom, to him there is allotted a portion of that magic spirit which we laud by word and extol in our songs. The student who gives of his time to work for the upbuilding of the school, not questioning the difficult task but pursuing it with a vim, his share in school spirit. The man or woman who represents Willamette in contests with other schools, not striving for personal honor but earnestly working that the good and honor of the school may be attained—these is the privilege of possessing this intangible but real "something."

Spirit comes when we make the school ours, feeling happy when it progresses, dissatisfied when it is retarded. Spirit never comes from contentment; school spirit is born from a real desire to accomplish things. Strange as it may seem, this very wonderful "something" is available to all who would seek its benefits; hard work, some sacrifice, a willingness and a desire to see Willamette advance—with these purposes there is sure to come that ennobling "something" which encourages and enthuses and leads its possessors on to make the university better each day.

THE FUTURE OF THE GLEE CLUB

COMMENT, conjecture and pointed proposals, all these have issued from recent murmurings, somewhat inaudible to the ear of the student body but nevertheless distinctly heard by the occasional listener, to the effect that the university glee club has outlived its day of independence and that the time has arrived and this year is the appointed season when the organization should be taken under the protecting wing of the student body proper.

The Collegian can see many sound and convincing arguments for such a change. It would undoubtedly give a prestige to this desiring club which cannot be attained as long as the latter continues to serve as an independent body. Again it would better co-ordinate one of the multiple activities which at present exist on the campus.

On the other hand, with the proposed assumption of the glee club by the student body as an activity of the latter directly under the control of the executive committee, there come certain disadvantages which should not be overlooked. The urge to make good financially might be somewhat stifled, for with student body backing the club would lose the incentive to make good invariably attached to a separate organization. Again such a step as that proposed might set a precedent for the incorporation of all activities with the student body, a move which in a school the size of Willamette must be logically questioned.

At any event, the question is bound to arise and it is well that students be informed on the issues. We withhold at the present our opinion on this important student matter, believing that the good judgment of the majority will settle the issue; surely from a careful consideration of the proposed step there is bound to come some advance.

We vex our editorial imagination with ponderings as to whether or no professors ever went to school, knew spring and felt the impelling call which nature makes in its awakening period. Faculty degrees would indicate the former is true but those long lessons—! One breathes a sigh and tries to study and pitifully though it be, the attempt is often inhibited by the impressive attractions of the great out-of-doors.

This morning come nominations for the major student body officers for the coming year; the duty to propose able candidates has been stressed. All's ready for the customary orations and the fight for positions is on.

Prizes for stunts at the co-ed carnival are exciting; why not a prize for the first girl to talk in student body meeting? Feminine voices are woefully lacking in important discussions.

The "cosmetic urge" as one wily punster puts it, seems fittingly lacking on the Willamette campus.

May Day is just 'round the corner. Let's make it the best ever.

The death of Chester Goplerud removes from the campus a faithful student, who was a loyal friend to those who knew him and represented to people outside of the school, a devoted Willamette backer. His passing leaves a gap in the ranks of his class and his presence will be missed by many with whom he came in contact.

Student Opinion is Reflected

Why Not Open the Museum?

Editor of the Collegian: There are very few students in school at the present time who even know that Willamette has a museum. Still fewer have ever been in it. It is on the third floor of Eaton Hall. There are many specimens of interest contained therein, and every student ought to have the privilege of visiting the museum at least once or twice a year. It is true that one can secure a key and go through it, but it should be open to all.

Also, when prospective students and friends visit the school they would be very glad to go through this interesting room, but I venture to estimate that 99 per cent of our visitors never see the museum. At least it should be open during the state basketball tournament and the May Day activities.

There are some educational advantages Willamette does not possess, but we do have a museum, and it is certain that a great many people would appreciate the opportunity to visit it if they were given the chance.

Why not have our museum open to everyone at least a few hours each week?

HOWARD GEORGE.

DEBATE NORTHERN TEAM

With Albert Geyer, while Robert Little will appear as leader of the negative with Rodney Alden as a colleague. Coach Erickson has planned to use this debate to develop some new talent for next year and has, therefore, allowed Sheldon Sackett, veteran debater, to sit on the bench for this debate.

Preparation Limited.

With only two weeks to prepare both teams started immediately to work and by hard effort have been drawing up some strong cases for and against unemployment insurance. However, old man jinx has invaded the Willamette debate camp for the first time this year with the result that Albert Geyer and Robert Notson who compose the affirmative team have been stricken. Geyer was first to succumb with external infection of the throat, and Notson, according to last reports, was suffering with an attack of tonsillitis which has hampered his work for the past few days.

The four debaters composing the squad which will appear Friday are hoping to turn the tables on their northern neighbors who met and defeated the Women's team last Friday. The debate here will be held in the local chapel at 8 o'clock.

Redlands Debaters Takes Third Place in National College Oratory Contest

Of interest to Willamette students is the news coming from the convention of the Phi Kappa Delta, honorary forensic fraternity, at Indianapolis, Iowa, that Leon Hickman, leader of the Morningside debate team, which appeared here last year, took second place in the national oratorical contest conducted by that organization. Douglas McPhee, leader of the Redlands debate team, who debated here but a few days previous to the contest, placed third. Hayek Skerrik, a Serbian boy from Nebraska Wesleyan, was accorded first honors over a field of 17 contestants.

PETITION TO BE SENT

wise lost to the Willamette ground by a unanimous vote.

Sheldon Sackett was named temporary chairman of the meeting of the weathers of the bar-W held yesterday, and organization was effected to rush the collection of the material necessary for the petition. The committees appointed were: Petition—Blatchford, Little and McNeen. Information—Hoover and Rosenkranz. Forensic history—Oberger, Skeen and Coe. Current information—Notson. Every effort will be made to have the petition ready for mailing by Saturday of this week. Enthusiasm has been displayed by every member of the committee, and it is hoped that a favorable action on the petition may be had by the executive council which is to meet the end of this month.

Dean and Mrs. Alden and Professor and Mrs. Sherman were entertained at the Delta Phi house on Monday evening.

SOCIETY

Miss an Slyke and Miss Rumohr Announce Engagements

The home of Miss Louise Bryan, 500 North Capitol, was the scene of a unique announcement party Saturday evening, April 15, when the engagements of Miss Harriet Van Slyke to Mr. Raymond Ganzans, and Miss Louise Rumohr to Mr. Bernard Ramsey, were made known. The invitations were written on Easter bunnies who hid the guests to a dinner party. After the young people had arrived, the doors were opened into a beautifully decorated dining room where covers were laid for twelve. From the rosebud chandeliers radiated rose and pink streamers. In the center of the table was a large rosebud, in the heart of which were two large kewpies, in whose hands were tied rose and pink ribbons extending to miniature kewpies at each guest's place. A four-course dinner was served. The first course consisted of fruit cocktail in orange shells; the dinner course, of potatoes, roast meat, gravy, corn, sweet potatoes, parkerhouse rolls, Easter rolls, olives, pickles, relish, jelly, nuts and stuffed dates in rosebud containers, and an egg salad uniquely arranged in the form of a nest. The next course was a strawberry special, a dainty combination of fresh strawberries, whipped cream and candied cherries. Just before the last course, at which the guests were served with coffee, after-dinner mints, angel food cake, and ice cream in the shape of a pink heart pierced with a gilt arrow, the hostess untied the ribbons attached to the hands of the kewpies. The guests were entertained at and out of the heart of the rose came tiny envelopes bearing Easter greetings. Enclosed were cards in the shape of the Phi Kappa Pi emblem bearing heart-shaped pictures of the couples and the message, "When dreams come true." Mr. Nickel acted as toastmaster, the men responding. After the dinner the dinner the guests were entertained at a "line party" at the Oregon theater. The engagements were also made known to Lausanne hall and the Phi Kappa Pi fraternity by Western Union messengers who carried the greetings. Both girls are members of the sophomore class and have been room mates at Lausanne since their entrance into the university. Miss Rumohr is affiliated with the Chrestomathean literary society. Her home is in Leavenworth, Washington. Miss Van Slyke comes from Chelan, Washington. Mr. Ramsey comes from Madras, Oregon, while Mr. Ganzans is a Salem resident. The young men are members of and officeholders in the Phi Kappa Pi fraternity. Mr. Ganzans is a Philadelphian and Mr. Ramsey a Chrestomathean. They are both registered in the college of law, in which Mr. Ganzans is a junior and Mr. Ramsey a senior. Both men are prominent in athletics, having received their W's. Mr. Ramsey is also a Bar-W man.

Those present at the party were: Misses Zelda Mulkey, Alice Sykes, Gladys Beakley, Harriet Van Slyke, Louise Rumohr, and the hostess, Louise Ryan, and Messrs. Dave Ellis, Charles Coryell, Jacob Nickel, Raymond Ganzans, Bernard Ramsey and James Reed.

Senior Party Is Held at Beta Chi House on Easter Eve

The senior class party held at the Beta Chi house, 1499 State street, was an affair of Easter-eve. Easter games and contests were the appropriate diversions of the evening. Hard boiled eggs were cleverly dressed, and an egg-eating contest was arranged, Harry Rarey achieving first place. An interesting feature of the party was the dramatization of two-minute football, debate, and canoeing dates. The refreshments consisted of ice cream served with pineapple and whipped cream, and wafers. Professor and Mrs. Morton E. Peck and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Legge were present as chaperons.

STORM-CHILD

(By Audred W. Bunch.)

"What shall I do to comfort you,
You with the foam-bird's cry?
How shall I soothe the sobbing breath?
The teardrops, how shall I dry?"

Oh, you may give me a star to hold,
Or Plato's breath to breathe,
Or, around my brow all snow and rose
A garland of comets wreath."

"Strange other things have you asked of me,
You who like sea-wind has cried:
Is there naught else in this wide world
That will leave you satisfied?"

"Naught is there else for a phantom-child
Estranged 'tween sun and sea;
Till time shall end I shall cry,
You cannot comfort me."

Twenty Juniors Attend Pre-Easter Party in Phil Halls

Twenty juniors met on Saturday evening for a sparsely attended party in the Phil halls. For diversions, hard-boiled eggs were dressed, and games were played, such as "Stage Coach." Accepting the invitation of the merry-makers across the hall in the Web-Adelante halls, the juniors were guests of the freshman during a particularly effective stunt. For refreshments, ice cream and cookies were served. Miss Frances M. Richards and Professor Robert M. Gathe chaperoned.

Sophomores Enjoy "Gingham and Overall" Party Saturday Night

In gingham aprons and overalls, the sophomores collected in the Chresto bungalow for a mirthful pre-Easter party on Saturday night. The rustic company first circled its joy with "Farmer in the Dell." Next, a lively egg-hunt divided the class into two groups, the "cats" and the "dogs," the former group winning the contest. The old, glad game of "New York" exercised the ingenuity of the class for half an hour. A contest stunt, almost akin to a successful fashion show, occupied a later part of the evening. The girls and boys were grouped and numbered, the boys being required to fashion, out of a yard of red, blue, lavender or green crepe paper, an Easter hat fit for the young lady whose number corresponded to his own. As soon as the time was up, madlades passed in millinery parade before Professors Ebsen and Von Eschen who, together with their wives, served both as chaperones and judges. The prize hat, which was worn by Anne Lavender, was fashioned by Oury Hisey. The program number was an appreciated duet rendition of "I Love You Truly"—somewhat modified—by Kathleen La Raut and Don Lockwood. "Virginia Reel" and refreshments of brick ice cream with wafers closed the "gingham and overall" party.

April Is Clonian Motif; Pins Are Presented

The April motif colored the Clonian program on Wednesday. A piano solo in two parts: "Spring Morning," and "Under the Willows," was played by Marguerite Gutchow. "April, the Month of Promise," was a delightful spring paper by Rosa Fredenburg. As a reading, Carmelita Barquist gave "Green Fire." This closing number was a piano solo by Sybil McKnight. Following the program, the girls from the other literary societies on the campus who formed the nucleus of the new society, were presented with Clonian pins in appreciation of the faithfulness which has made the society possible. Those receiving these tokens were: Esther McCracken, Loriel Blatchford, Marguerite Gutchow, Edna Jennison, Ruby Ledbetter, Marian Linn, Grace Tyler and Gladys Bartholomew.

Modern Writers Entertain Chrestomatheans

A group of modern writers entertained the Chrestomatheans on Friday afternoon with music, essays, stories and poetry. A vocal solo was delightfully sung by Ruth Bedford, with Laura Hoyt as accompanist. "A Dull Day," one of Dr. Frank Crane's essays, was read by Mabel Rentfro. Thelma Mills read a humorous story, "How the Widow Caught the Deacon," and Gladys Beakley gave a well interpreted piano solo. Readings from Rachel Lindsay's "The Couzo," by Paloma Prouty, concluded the program. A short business meeting followed.

Freshman Have Cabaret Program at Party on Saturday

With a cabaret program, the freshman entertained themselves with jollity and enjoyment at their pre-Easter party, held Saturday night in the Web-Adelante halls. The first part of the evening was spent with "acquaintance cards," each one present finding among the freshman company names to match the letters in his name. On the program, the first number was a violin solo by Jeannette Coraki. Lola Milard, Faye Sparks, Faye Spaulding and Josephine Bross sang entertainingly in an old fashioned quartet. Josephine Bross sang a vocal solo, after which a boys' trio, composed of Floyd Horton, Lyall Bolton and Richard Briggs rendered selections. Joe Nee gave a group of Scotch songs with the true lauder appeal. Conspicuous in the evening's entertainment was the "chorus girl" stunt, the vocal participants of which were Don Schrieber, who gave a feature number; Floyd Horton, Lyall Bolton, William Walsh Milton Grapp, Jack Burleson and Fred Halverson. Partners for refreshments were found by means of Easter eggs with names enclosed. Ice cream and wafers were served. Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Sherman were present as chaperons.

Miss Oberg and Miss Coe Entertain Debaters

Miss Elaine Oberg and Miss Violet Coe were hostesses for the visiting debate team on Friday evening at the Beta Chi house. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and chocolate were served. The guests were: Miss Florence Maddock, Miss Esther Osborne, the girls' coach, Mrs. Hovias, her daughter, Miss Hovias, Miss Monroe, Oury Hisey, Virgil Anderson, Robert Little, Robert Notson, Tinkham Gilbert, Rodney Alden, Professor and Mrs. Frank M. Erickson, Miss Erickson, and Mrs. Fred A. Legge.

Adelantes Hear "What's Happening"

"What's Happening" came to the ears of Adelantes on Friday in three numbers of current interest. What's happening in modern poetry was intimated in a group of original poems read by Miss Audred Bunch. What's happening in the realm of science was informally presented in Miss Mildred Brown's careful synopsis on "Radio." As a closing number, Miss Lois Warner's piano solo, "Marche Grottesque," gave what's happening in music with vivid effectiveness.

Palladians Have Easter Program

An Easter program made the regular Wednesday meeting of the Palladians a most enjoyable one. The program opened with a piano solo, "Monastery Bells," by Ruth Roeder. Next, the Easter story was told in an impressively delightful way by Elsie Smith. Lila Marcy gave a piano monologue, "Easter Music." Gladys Wilson completed the program with an inspiring talk, "The Easter Message."

Paul Flegel was a campus visitor on Monday.

Ruth Smith and Pauline Rickil journeyed to Dallas for Easter Sunday.

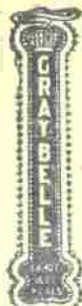

Winifred St. Clair spent the Easter week-end with her family in Gresham.

Esther Paronagian spent the week-end at her home in Amity.

Margaret McDaniel was a guest at her home in Portland over the week-end.

Professor and Mrs. Rentfro and Professor and Mrs. Erickson were entertained at Delta Phi on Friday evening.

SEASON STARTS ON WEDNESDAY

Baseball Team Plays Albany
in Opening Contest

THREE GAMES NEXT WEEK

Lineup of Team Undecided With Many Vying for Each Post

The opening of the baseball season is one week further removed than was at first contemplated, the game with Albany college having been postponed until Wednesday, April 26.

This makes the curtain week an exceptionally heavy one, with three games on the Bearcat docket. Besides the Albany fray, which will take place on the Albany diamond, a game has been arranged with Pacific for Friday on Sweetland field, and Saturday the Bearcats will travel to McMinnville for a clash with Linfield college.

The lineup is still doubtful, with every infield position contested for by at least two candidates, but the man who can best wield the stick has least to fear when the pruning process begins. The addition of Mike Edwards to the squad adds to the prospects for a good infield.

Outfielders Numerous.
The selection of outfielders is a matter of batting and base running, according to a recent statement by Coach Bohler. There are a number of likely candidates, and the outfield contenders will probably have their ranks increased soon by men shifted from the infield.

Varsity Debate Squad Praised

Redlands Declares Willamette
Men Excel Any Team
Met on Trip

Unqualified praise has been given the Willamette debaters by their opponents in the past two contests. From the University of Redlands "Campus" comes the following:

"The first debate with Willamette university at Salem, Oregon, was the only contest in which the decision was unfavorable to the local debaters. The Northern team won by a split decision in a battle of words in which the winner was ever in doubt. The Redlands men declare that the Willamette platform trio presented the strongest case they have met this year. The winners excelled in ease, speaking ability and debate tactics the University of Southern California team which the local debaters have already met and defeated."

In a personal letter Douglas McPhee, leader of the Redlands team, goes further than this. After hearing a number of debates in the east, he writes: "The team which we met was easily the best team which we saw on route, and we met and heard some of the best in the United States."

The Denver men were likewise loud in their praise of the men who met them here. "We were clearly beaten," said Marvin Bauer, leader of the University of Denver team, "and we are certainly willing to admit it. You had it on us from the start."

The University of Denver team was composed of three seniors with three years debate experience. They, like Redlands, were making an extensive tour and had defeated Washington State college, as well as a number of strong teams in the east. They represented a Methodist school of 2800 students at Denver. This was their first defeat of the year.

CLASSES MAKE TRIP

climbed into the kitchen and was fed upon the kitchen table was greeted with shouts of glee.

Best of all was the big feed prepared by the committee in charge of cats. The winners, huns, mustard, salad, doughnuts, coffee and apples proved a delightful feast. As an added treat Professor Gatzke's famous chili con carne was placed on a fire and warmed. This was true to all expectations and several members were observed making more than one trip to the chili jar.

Dean Frances Richards, Professor Lida M. Fike and Professor Gatzke were the faculty members in the party. They participated in the game of "run sheep run." Every one is familiar with the principles involved in this game. Sides are selected and the one or the other remains in camp while the other leaves and tries to return without being caught.

Each side scored a clean entrance and the party was broken up and all returned to the city tired and happy.

STUDENTS MUST SEEK

Below these sets of questions, a space is provided to "make a statement of about 200 words, telling why you wish to go to college; why you select Willamette, and what you wish to make of yourself." Exactly the same blank is sent to both the men and the women.

On the back of the application form is a 450-word statement as to the purpose of Willamette, what the institution expects of her students. The last paragraph of the statement is: "If you are in sympathy and agreement with such methods, we shall be glad. If you disagree with the program, we shall be pleased to receive your criticism."

Seventy Blanks Out.
About 70 of these blanks have been sent out, according to a statement issued from the registrar's office Friday.

In addition, all students now in school, who intend to return next year, are being asked to fill out cards stating their intention.

DEPUTATIONERS MEET SUCCESS

Number of Towns Are Visited
During School Year

GEYER IS TEAM LEADER

Deputation to Portland Good Example of Methods of Work

The Willamette men's deputation work has been a marked success during the year under the able leadership of Albert Geyer. Twenty-five men have been actively engaged during the winter in the week-end trips which have purposed to bring the gospel to men and boys in such a way as to win them to Christ and give them spiritual life. Rev. J. D. McCormick of the Kimball School of Theology was the faculty adviser for the enterprise.

During the year eight towns were visited by the deputation teams, and six longer trips were made. There were 98 conversions and re-consecrations at these meetings.

Typical Program Given.

A typical program of the deputation team may be illustrated by the recent trip to the Rose City Park church in Portland. Seven men who composed this team were Sheldon Sackett, Simon Nehler, George Oliver, Clarence Oliver, Lloyd Waitz, Albert Logan, and Albert Geyer. Professor Robert Gatzke furnished the transportation.

The team was entertained at lunch Saturday, in the Chamber of Commerce building by F. W. Wells. In the afternoon a hike and weepee roast to Rocky Butte for the boys of the church was under the special direction of George Oliver. The team and the boys returned to the church for a feed which was arranged by the ladies of the church. A stag mix, arranged by Albert Logan, was the program for the evening.

At the Sunday school hour, a boys' conference was conducted, led by Robin Fisher of the class of '21, now a student in the Portland medical school. This team considered an especially successful meeting. At the morning service the deputation men assisted Dr. Hewitt. Clarence Oliver conducted the Epworth League on the topic "The Unused Talent." The evening service was conducted entirely by the team, each delegate giving a testimony and exhortation. Robin Fisher acting as chairman. When the altar call was given 75 people presented themselves, some for the first time, some for reconsecration. The men returned in time for classes Monday morning.

During the past two weeks about 18 men have been visiting various adjacent towns, meeting with the H-Y clubs to stimulate an interest in the church membership campaign that is being conducted by the county Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Geyer expresses his deep appreciation of the efforts of all, who either by direct participation or by prayer, have had a share in making the meetings a success. Especial mention should be made, he says, of the untiring efforts and able cooperation of Edwin Socolofsky, class of 1921.

Mr. Cecil Shotwell was the guest of Miss Irma Fanning at dinner on Sunday.

Varsity Loses in Relay Meet

Misunderstanding of Events and Lack of Training
Handicap Team

The relay carnival at Eugene Friday and Saturday proved to be a fiasco as far as Willamette was concerned. Due to the poor condition of the local track, it proved nothing more than a work-out for the Bearcats, since there were no actual try-outs before the meet. On arriving at the meet it was found that several plans had been changed with the result that special events, which they had believed to be apart from the relay, were counted on the same score. Not being prepared for all of these, cut down the possible number of points. The rest of the damage was done by the lack of sufficient training, and by an amusing mistake, when the team was not called from the dressing room before the two-mile relay, thus losing them their chance for the race.

In the special events that the Willamette team entered, a good showing was made. Pollock took second place in the high jump, while Willis Vinson was second, and his brother was third in the hurdles. Jack Vinson placed second in the pole vault. Willamette 15 points.

Pacific University with 45 points won first place in class B.

There will be other chances for Willamette to show her colors this spring, Coach Bohler declares. The team will meet Chemawa here on May 6 in connection with the junior week-end, and will compete with Pacific at Forest Grove June 2. On May 26 a non-conference meet will be held here, and a number of schools will enter.

close of the meeting. The fine display of vocal power combined with ingenuity won for Donald Lockwood and Donald Redhook first and second places respectively. They will fill the offices of yell king and crown prince next year if the popular vote is approved by the executive committee. Radie Pratt, Josephine Brown and Mildred Strevey received first, second and third places respectively in the votes cast for song queen.

In essence the resolution deploras the indifference which has been manifested toward the specially appointed time of meeting of the literary societies. This, reads the resolution, has made "it necessary for these societies to give up meetings for a large number of the members to miss the meetings." The petition requests that the dates be kept for the literary society and that the practice of granting such evenings for other purposes, "except on rare occasions" be censured.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, April 18.—(P. I. N. S.)—April 17-24 has been set aside as student loan fund week at which time a state-wide campaign will be held to collect money for the loan fund. The drive is strictly a student affair, the faculty being in no way connected with the campaign except as trustees of the fund. The purpose of this fund is to lend money to students who would otherwise be forced to leave college before the close of a semester.

Daily wireless service is given by the department of physics of the University of Wisconsin for the benefit of farmers and amateur radio operators. It includes market reports, weather forecasts, special lectures, musical concerts and reports of athletic events.

School Library Recipient of About 900 New Books to Date in Present Year

Willamette has been exceptionally fortunate this year in being the recipient of about 900 volumes for the library. Some 375 of these have come from one source, the donor requesting that the name of Miss Hanna should not be made public. These works are chiefly the works of classic writers.

A recent gift of an eight volume set, the "Library of Universal History," has been given by E. T. Barnes of this city. This is a very valuable addition. Several books have been given by the class in Oregon history, while numerous volumes have been secured by Professor Panunzio as a result of a gift of money for the purpose.

learn that you are on the wrong car; that is maddening."

To live near a lake, river, or ocean has always been one of Miss Hanna's good fortunes.

"From my New York office I could see the boys, and from my Florida school room one could see the ocean. Before I came to Will-
