PHILOSOPHANS ENTERTAIN.

A Very Pleasant Evening in Their Halls.

On Friday night the Philosophians entertained the Philodorian and invited guests in the society halls. The decorations were beautifully arranged, and the girls deserve much praise for the pleasing and artistic effect. From the sides of one room, extending in a graceful curve to the center of the ceiling, was a large cable of ivy. The lights were subdued to a delightful red. In one corner of the room was a Japanese tea booth with two young ladies in Japanese costume. In the other corner was a booth presided over by a most fascinating fortune teller. The other room contained a stand where two young ladies served punch to the drinkers. With sofas, cushions, college emblems, Chinese lanterns, etc., the completed effect was indeed pleasing. Here's to the Philosophians, may they ever remain, as fair, as hospitable, as earnest, as altogether lovely as they are today.

Two former Philosophians were present, Misses Matthews and Beatty.

The program was as follows:

Piano Duet—Misses Lee and Stowell.
Scene "Two Willamette Co-eds,"—Misses Baker and Stowell.

Prophecy—Miss Lewis.

Philodorian Song—Composed by Miss Townsend.

PLEASANT RECEPTION.

Mrs. W. C. Hawley Receives the College Students.

One of the most enjoyable evenings of the college year was spent by the college students at the home of Vice-President and Mrs. W. C. Hawley last Wednesday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated for the occasion. One of the most prominent items of decorations was a large bunch of white carnations and green ferns, the class colors of the Freshies, who sent the bouquet.

During the evening a number of familiar rhymes were illustrated by silhouettes. A contest was held in which Miss Erma Clark, '03, showed her superior knowledge of birds, beasts and flowers. She was suitably rewarded by a box of fine candies. Miss Ruth Field, '06, was second and received a book.

Light refreshments were served in the dainty manner usual to Mrs. Hawley.

It was a happy and delighted crowd that left at a late hour. This evening has been made memorable to all who were fortunate enough to be present and enjoy the charming hospitality of Dean and Mrs. Hawley.

Prof. Collier Married.

Announcements have been received by friends in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Ellen B. Lynch, of Washington, D. C., to A. J. Collier, of the same city, Saturday, April 4. Mr. Collier was for a time professor of natural sciences at Willamette. While here he made hosts of friends, who delight in giving him a royal welcome every time he sees fit to give us a visit. He is at present engaged on the staff of the United States Geological Survey, in its offices in Washington.

The Collegian congratulates Prof. Collier and wishes him the greatest happiness in his new state.

Y. M. C. A.

There are in the United States and Canada 616 Student Associations, exclusive of those in institutions for Indians and colored young men with a total membership of not less than 38,000. The total number of young men who are students where Associations exist is about 140,000.

In the United States fully 15,000 students are enrolled in Bible study, most of them using courses which provide for daily study. And this Bible study in every other school, as in Old Willamette, has done much to deepen the spiritual life of students and to make effective the work of the Associations.

Our sister colleges and the Walla Walla, Wash., Whitman, has received a rich blessing in a spiritual awakening, and a large increase in the Bible study enrollment. During the month of February 20 men took a stand for Christ. Among these were some of the strongest men in the institution, one man being a prominent athlete and the president of one of the leading societies of the college. By means of a Bible study rally and personal work following it, the number of students in Bible study has been increased from 20 to 40.

A Student Summer Conference will be held for the colleges of the Pacific Northwest, at Gearheart Park, Or., from May 29 to June 7. It will be the first Student Summer Conference held north of California. Delegates will attend from colleges of Oregon, Washington and Idaho. A block of ground and a building have been given to the Conference. Prof. Edward I. Bosworth, of Oberlin College, will be one of the teachers. Willamette must send at least four men.

One of the strongest addresses of the year was delivered last Sunday afternoon by Rev. Hiram Gould, of Newberg. His main thought was that we thrash out just what we glean.

Probably the majority of the students do not know of the work accomplished during the past week in a financial line by the Y. W. C. A. Subscriptions for the Capitola fund were made to the amount of $50. As far as the students are concerned, the most of it was from the girls.

This, with the money already on hand, is sufficient to send two delegates to the conference which meets at Capitola, Cal., May 15-25. Misses Clara Holmstrom and Ruth Field have been chosen to represent Willamette at that conference.

It may be of interest to read the totals of the subscription lists.

President Coleman pledged $10, provided the entire sum be raised during the week, and that was just the condition needed to make us hasten.

Further subscriptions are:

Freshmen.....	4 25
Third years.....	5 50
Second years.....	3 50
First years.....	5 75

The Y. W. C. A. girls wish to thank all who have helped them so liberally.

Pinhole Photography.

Photography without a lens would seem at first glance to be impossible. It is so generally understood that for good work a good lens is necessary that it is scarcely creditable that some of the finest photographic work is obtained without the use of a lens at all, merely by the aid of a minute hole in the side of a light-tight box, which is arranged to contain a sensitive plate. But the practicability of this method of photography is amply proved by the fine specimens that accompany an article on the subject, by Juan C. Abel, in the May Delineator. One of the distinct advantages of pinhole photography is the slight expense incurred in apparatus; any kind of a light-tight box will suffice, provided it can be opened to insert the plate. Explicit directions for procedure are given in the article.

EDITORIAL.

Smith is not yet buried in the annals of college affairs.

His body has been exhumed by "A Human Being" for a post mortem examination. The Albany Herald of April 9 gives two or three columns to the expressions of the opinions of this "Being." Nor are they altogether wrong.

It would do the Executive Committee of the I. O. A. O. good, now that they are rested and through preening themselves in the public eye, to "see themselves as others see them." Some others any way. And Prof. Kelsey will find himself beaten into an unrecognizable mass.

The author of the article is an extremist, but he is far from wrong in much that he says. He is inflamed by the sense of wrong that has been done Smith and some of his utterances are overdrawn.

It is difficult to see just what is to be gained by the whole matter. There is no doubt but that Smith is an honorable man. He has borne an excellent reputation at all times. His comrades in the Philippines speak highly of him. If there is a furnace to try the souls of men, that furnace is war. Smith came out of the Philippines with the respect and good will of all his fellows. At home he has ever been a faithful worker for Christian principles. Such a man is not the one to stoop to steal a paltry medal and honors (?) of first place in a state contest. He has shown himself to be more manly in the after-contest than some of his enemies.

Let it be to the eternal shame of Pacific College that she should be the one to prosecute this man after having escaped herself by the skin of her teeth so recently. That she should use the evidence she has to convict Smith of plagiarism when the evidence against her own orator was even greater is more of a disgrace than plagiarism. We have little respect for a college which has for its motto, "See no evidence less it be in thy own favor," or, "Revenge is sweet."

Hurrah for the new athletic field! The committee into whose hands was placed the business of raising money for the grading, leveling and fencing of the new athletic field has done some good work. The partial report of the work done so far is truly encouraging. Those who croaked and did not believe it would be done have begun to look for a knot hole through which to crawl and say from the other side, "I told you so." It seems an established fact that we are at last to have a thoroughly good field. The present plan is to have a field large enough for a full-sized football field, surrounded by a track of about four and one-half laps. Between the track and gridiron will be a margin of some twelve or fourteen feet. This will give a place for a straight way track for the 100-yard dash and short hurdle races. There will be room for a baseball diamond also. Surrounding the whole is to be a fence that will make practicable the collection of an entrance fee. This is something that not only Willamette but Salem has needed for a long time.

Heretofore it has been necessary to hold all athletic contests of any consequence at the State Fair Grounds. The expense attached to this and the difficulty in obtaining a crowd has made this almost impracticable. That such a field is to be ours is assured by the report aforementioned. About $350 has been subscribed and more is in sight. The canvassers are having splendid success in their work. There is a general and generous response to the call for subscriptions. We heartily commend the committee for its good work.

At the annual debate between the Ohio Wesleyan and the Ohio State University, in Columbus, there were present 700 rooters from Ohio Wesleyan, 300 of whom were co-eds. Ohio Wesleyan won. The University of Indiana has defeated Illinois in debate, and Earlham College defeated the University of Indianapolis.

The debate and oratory council at the Ohio State University have decided to grant their debaters the 'Varsity "O" in the shape of a neat gold pin, to be worn on the vest. The "O" will be the regulation 'Varsity "O" on a smaller scale and will have two crossed gavels in the center. It is expected that this will be a great incentive to students interested in these lines and will bring out more contestants.

Charges of riot have been filed against the entire Freshmen class at Purdue University for resisting the officers and defacing a building where the Sophomores were holding a banquet.

"At the annual state intercollegiate oratorical contest of Oregon McMinnville College's representative was awarded first place and Pacific College second. Pacific College's representative won first place, however, according to the marking of the judges."—Pacific Wave.

Hereafter all places on the staff of the Ohio State University paper will be filled by a merit system of appointment and promotion. The competition among the candidates will be based upon the total amount of matter which each has had.

E. P. Watt, a former student, visited chapel Wednesday.

Remember the piano contest, there is yet a show for us to win if we will work.

Misses Eva Coshaw and Lucia Cochran were chapel visitors Tuesday.

Dean Hawley attended the Republican convention held at Eugene, Thursday.

Watch for announcements concerning the Electrical Display, which is coming soon.

If we are not going to have any important field meets this year, why not have a baseball nine?

Once more Dean and Mrs. Hawley have proven themselves to be the best of entertainers.

Mr. Coffin, of Pacific College, and Rev. Hiram Gould, the M. E. pastor at Newberg, were chapel visitors Monday.

Prof. Kerr presented the plans and purposes of the Athletic Committee to the students, in a very neat manner, Tuesday morning.

Herman Baker, who was compelled to leave school early in the year on account of ill health, has been visiting friends in the city the past week.

Rev. Grim, of Oregon City, led chapel devotionals Friday, and Dr. Smythe, of San Francisco, favored us with an excellent address.

"Willamette is great because she gives." That thought recently expressed upon our chapel platform is worthy of remembrance.

Not least among the eminent people who are to visit Salem soon, is Miss Ellen M. Stone, the missionary who was ransomed from the Bulgarian Brigands.

The campus looks rather deserted with all the old scrubby apple trees removed, but when we have our new athletic field in place of them, we will not notice their loss.

The debaters have been chosen and now it only remains for the doughty Seniors to demonstrate our superiority over Pacific University on the forensic arena.

Among the delegates to the Epworth League convention, recently held in this city, were four students from Pacific University, the Misses Emmel, Lunn and Hollinger and Mr. Patton.

Senator R. A. Booth is certainly proving himself to be one of the best friends of higher education in the state. His last gift was that of four pianos to the music department of the University of Oregon.

The personal editor is in favor of a reseating of the chapel which will result in the editor of the Ginger Can being seated up among the rest of the kindergartners, where he can clap his hands to his heart's content.

The basketball boys met at the Spa, Monday evening, and formally disbanded for the season. This has been the most successful year in the history of basketball at Willamette.

The third game of basketball between Dallas College and our own team has been declared off, owing to the inability to agree on a neutral floor on which to play the game.

Capt. Richmond P. Hobson, of Merimac fame, and probably the greatest modern war hero in the world, will lecture in the M. E. church, Saturday evening, under the auspices of the city Y. M. C. A. He is a great lecturer as well as hero.

At last the College of Oratory is filling a long-felt want in the University. The Sophomore class taken up the work of "extemporaneous speaking." This is a step in the right direction and Prof. Carter should be highly commended for her efforts.

The canvass among the students for funds with which to build our new athletic field is meeting with the success it deserves. The same is true of the one being made among the citizens of Salem. Salem is at last waking up to the fact that a great University will mean a much greater Salem.

One of the most interesting and practical classes in the University is the class in parliamentary law, conducted by Prof. Hawley, who is second to none in that practice. Attendance at any conference, or convention of any sort, will readily convince any one of the importance of a thorough drill in this line.

Announcements of the wedding of Prof. A. J. Collier to Miss Ellen Barker Lynch at the home of the bride's parents, in Washington, D. Then comes the sublime afterthought, "a good rousing yell and three cheers for the winning college, all seven joining in the chorus might be tolerable, etc." What a revelation?"

HAIL WILLAMETTE, MY WILLAMETTE.

This poem was first published in May, 1895. It has been suggested that many of the newer students were not aware of its existence. It was written by W. P. Matthews, '96, to the tune of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp."

I.
Hail Willamette, first and best,
Day-spring of the golden West!
Sound her praises, youths and maidens,
in your song;
Tell her glorious works afar,
Tell how great her triumphs are,
Tell the world that all our hearts to her belong.

CHORUS.
Hail Willamette, my Willamette!
Alma Mater, audi me!
Oh, I sing thy praise today,
With true heart, and true for aye,
Ever singing, dear Willamette, hail to thee!

2.
Happy students are we here,
Bound in ties of friendship dear;
And we owe our hopes of high attainment all
To the blessings we enjoy,
Sheltered from the world's annoy,
In the pleasant shades of Old Willamette's hall.

CHORUS.
Hail Willamette, Alma Mater!
Thou art fair among the fair;
Many sons shall bless thy name,
Many daughters spread thy fame,
And their noble deeds shall still thy works declare.

3.
Hail Willamette, hail to thee,
Sing we still thy jubilee!
And when other fifty years away have rolled,
Would we might again unite,
In a chorus of delight,
Singing with our children then this age of gold!

CHORUS.
Hail Willamette, Alma Mater!
We rejoice in thee alway.
Oh may Heaven delight to bless,
Crown thy work with all success,
Magnify thy name forevermore, we pray.
Close with first chorus.

THE CREATION OF WOMAN.

When Adam slept, God from him took
A bone, and as an omen,
He made it like a scrap book,
And thus created woman.

He took this bone, not from man's pate,
To show his power more ample;
Nor from his feet to designate
That he on her might trample.

But 'neath his arm, to clearly show
He always should protect her,
And near his heart, to let him know,
How much he should respect her.

He took this bone, crooked enough,
Most crooked of the human—
To teach man how much crooked stuff
He'd always find in woman.
