CAMPAIGN STARTED FOR WOMEN BUDGET

DRIVE CLOSING MONDAY

Y. W. C. A. Under Leadership of Members of Four Classes to Raise Money

To raise over $200 for the carrying out of the campus Y. W. C. A. budget this school year a brief but strenuous drive is being launched this week-end by the Y. W. finance committee.

At a meeting of this finance committee held Monday afternoon plans for the financial campaign were made. According to these plans the drive should be completed by Monday evening.

The committee was divided into groups according to classes. Small committees were chosen to act as chairmen for the class groups. The chairmen are: Seniors, Loretta Varley and Doris Phenice; juniors, Ruth Buren and Dorothy Gordon; sophomores, Pauline Findley and Evelyn High; freshmen, Edith Findley, Mary Kafoury, and Isabel Childs.

The work of the Y. W. C. A. and the plans for raising money will be presented in chapel Friday morning. At that time pledge cards will be passed out and each girl will be asked to pledge what she feels able to give. These cards will be signed and turned in to the class committees on Monday.

Every Willamette girl is a member of the Y. W. C. A. No dues are charged by this society but each year a financial drive is held. Last year's budget demanded practically the same amount of money as this year's and was raised in the same fashion.

The sales at the homecoming game netted $20.04 which will be applied on the budget.

HOMECOMING RECEIPTS LESS THAN YEAR AGO

Dedication of High School Field Cuts Into Attendance as Well as Receipts

Approximately $460.00 was taken in at the Homecoming game on Saturday, October 27. Of this amount, $42.50 was received from the 170 C. P. S. rooters, who were admitted at 25c each, and the remainder was paid in regular admission by the Alumni and others.

This amount was not as large as that of last year, although the attendance at the game was average; the total receipts are about the same as that taken at the Oregon game two weeks ago. The fact that the C. P. S. rooters were given a special price and that the new football field of the high school was being dedicated, explains the smaller return this year.

These figures are not complete as yet but it is estimated that the game hardly paid for itself.

FRESHMEN WATCH FOBS TO ARRIVE THIS WEEK

The watch fobs, ordered by the Freshman class this year will soon be here. Those who ordered will be able to obtain their fob by paying the remaining twenty-five cents.

FOREST GROVE SPECIAL DEFINITELY ARRANGED

Price of Tickets to be $2.00 with Special Consideration Given To Excursionists

It was announced today that tickets for the special to Pacific university on November 17th would be placed on sale one week from today by Blue Kty men the price being $2.00 for the trip and return.

The football squad will have their car connected with the student train, and a stop will be made at McMinnville in order that the team may have time to get their lunch.

The train will leave immediately after the game at Forest Grove and light lunches will be available on the train to all of those who wish to obtain them.

Further plans will be announced by the Yell King in the next issue of the Collegian.

SHIELDS GIVES BOOKS TO LAW COLLECTION

Law Library Receives Valuable Books and Court Reports For Its Shelves

Dean Hewitt and Librarian Ebinger of the law school went to Portland last Friday and brought back several books for the law library. Through the generosity of Mr. Roy F. Shields of Portland, the library was able to take a long step toward the completion of its set of Oregon Reports. A number of U. S. Supreme Court Reports, some New York Reports, and miscellaneous books were added to the collection.

CAMPUS YMCA PLANS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

With the expectation of having Chresto Cottage turned over to them in the near future, the members of the campus Y. M. C. A. are formulating plans for the active use of the building. Three definite policies are announced by Harold Shellhart, president of the organization.

The first is that the weekly meetings of the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed. These meetings will be, as in the past, discussion groups, or will be led by outside speakers. The second policy will be an attempt to solve the problem of a place for the men to retreat. The building will be maintained at all times as a men's reading room. The third policy is a result of the other two which will involve hard work on someone's part. Every man in the "Y" will be given a definite job with definite duties to perform, and every man in the organization will be kept busy.

HOMECOMING EXPENSE ACCOUNT MADE PUBLIC

As most of the older students know, the money for Homecoming is taken from the A. S. W. U. treasury. This apportionment is made by the Executive committee. This year no specific sum was named by the committee, but the Homecoming manager was urged to curtail his expenses as much as could logically be done. The report of the manager shows that approximately $94.00 was spent

DEBATES FEATURE CHAPEL PROGRAMS

FOUR CHAPEL PERIODS

Credit Will Be Given in Inter-class Rivalry Standing For Current Year

The questions for inter-class debate as sponsored by Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary forensic fraternity, were released today by Margaret Pro, chairman of the forensic council. Further it was emphasized that any other questions which should be turned in to the council would receive consideration.

The debates take place in four consecutive weeks at chapel and are judged on the basis of cleverness, wit, argument, and platform appearance. The contest will be run off in the following manner: Freshmen versus sophomore men and women, respectively, and juniors (Turn to page 3, please)

LITERARY GROUPS DISCONTINUE WORK

Chrestomatheans and Clonians Last to Dissolve Their Organization

The Chrestomathean and Clonian Societies formally announced their disbanding this week. This marks the end of the Literary societies on the campus. Several years ago the men's literary societies disbanded; last year, just before school closed, the Adelante Society; and this fall the Philodossians.

When the societies were organized they took the place that the sororities and fraternities now hold. They ran the campus politics and helped to put across all worthwhile movements. Now that they are not active in this manner it seemed necessary that they disband.

The Philodossians were organized in 1883. The president for this year was Esther Lisle. All the furniture is to be sold but (Continued on page 3.)

this year—a sum fifty-five dollars less than was spent for Homecoming last year.

All Freshmen Glee Songs Winning Coveted First Prize Have Failed In Becoming Choice of Songsters

That the decision of judges in the annual Freshman Glee contest by no means determines the popularity of the song in years to come is evidenced by the popularity of the Freshman song of past year. This song, "Fight, Sons of Old Willamette," written by Grace Henderson and Mary Allen, ranks as one of the best fight songs the school has, while the winner, "Let's Go, Willamette U.," is seldom sung.

This is not the first time that the winning song has not been the one to live, although it is the first time a fourth place song has been received so favorably by the student body. "Fight On, Ye Bearcats" placed fourth in 1926.

COLLEGIAN TO LEARN HOW INDIVIDUALS RATE

Student Vote to be Taken After Chapel Tomorrow; Results To be Given Next Week

With the fall election season nearing its close, the Collegian is taking its final fling with the use of ballots for gathering information. Tomorrow this paper will conduct a poll to determine the exact campus rating of several types of individuals, to determine which individuals, in the estimation of the campus, best exemplify these types. The types to be considered are: the man and woman of most service to Willamette university, the best looking man and woman on the campus, the best dressed man and woman, and the most popular man and woman.

Ballots for this vote will be passed out after Chapel tomorrow; the voting will be done immediately and the ballots collected at the doors. Results will be tabulated and will not be made public until the publication of the next Collegian.

It is the desire of those sponsoring this canvass that voting be done in all seriousness. There is real purpose behind this election, and the results will be of significance and benefit both for those elected and for the university.

Dr. Oliver was speaker at the Methodist church in Amity last Sunday, and at the high school the following day.

DR. DONEY SPEAKS TO PRESIDENT MEET

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney has been requested to give the closing address on January 9 to the annual convention of the Educational association at Chattanooga, Tenn., on the subject, "The College President." This address will sum up the entire spirit of the conference.

The assembly is composed of Methodist college presidents from all over the United States, and its purpose is to consider problems of religious education.

Each year this group works out a central theme in the discussion which take place during the two days duration of the conference. Last year the theme was "Legislation." This year it is to be "College Administration."

SOCIAL FRATS PROMOTED

Special To Pacific Assured Whitman Game Figures in Group Discussion

The Blue Key fraternity in accordance with its policy of being the most active campus leadership organization agreed in a meeting Tuesday to take charge of the excursion to Pacific university November 17, to head a movement having students remain for the game with Whitman. Thanksgiving, to extend campus hospitality to students from Whitman college, to aid the Pep committee in the promotion of any further rallies, and to take steps in conjunction with the faculty to establish national social fraternities on the campus.

Harold Shellhart brought before the group a report concerning the Homecoming programs sold by members of the organization. About 450 were sold, and according to Mr. Shellhart had more been obtainable they could have been readily disposed.

A resolution was passed to the effect that: because of the importance of the game with Whitman Thanksgiving, the Blue Key fraternity requests that all students remain here long enough to attend the game before leaving for the holiday festivities. In connection with this game a committee was appointed to confer with the various fraternity heads with the object of extending to the students of Whitman college who plan to attend the game here an invitation to stay at the various living organizations for the night.

The secretary was authorized to send a telegram to the football team at Boise, Idaho, next Monday, and along with this action (Continued on page 3)

DEBATE QUESTIONS ARE DISCUSSED BY FERREY

Martin F. Ferrey, Local Attorney Addresses Debate Squad on Saturday Morning

Questions relating to the subject for debate this year were answered Saturday morning at a regular debate meeting by Martin F. Ferrey, pastor of the Unitarian church, local attorney and author of a book dealing with the debate subject.

The questions were mainly of a legal nature and were brought to the meeting by members of the squad and Dr. J. O. Hall, coach. These questions were on technical points concerning the advisability of prohibiting the plea of temporary insanity in defense of criminal cases.

Dr. Ferrey graduated from the Willamette School of Law in 1927.

Know What You Put Aside

Appointment of Athletic Managers

Lately there has been a gradual growth of the system of preparation for and working toward the various managerial positions on the campus. This inauguration is not the result of any organized effort, but, rather, has come about as a result of the initiative of the individuals themselves. These men have been familiarizing themselves with the nature and fulfillment of duties pertaining to the position, in short serving apprenticeship, without any definite promise of recognition on the part of the student governing body.

It is a well known fact that the man who is equipped with the knowledge of his duties, and trained in the administration of them is much more able to fill his job as manager than is the man who is merely transposed to the position without serving the initial apprentice period.

As a result of the appointment of men unfamiliar with existing conditions by the student council it has been necessary for the athletic department to hire work done which ordinarily should have been relegated to this manager. Student money has thus been paid out which under proper system of appointment could have been saved. The system now informally started would have saved this expense. To recognize merit is to simultaneously foster further effort along the same line.

We see how the system of apprenticeship is of benefit. It possesses two qualifications which cannot be overlooked: Good business practice, and the recognition of merit with the furtherance of the system.

The time is past when inefficient student government, when managerial appointments are based upon the political pull of the individual. To be exact, under efficient government it never existed. Ability and training should play the major role in matter of choice. Appointments should be made on the basis of merit.

The Web of Life

A few days ago a woman died in a state hospital as result of a broken heart. She came from the Isle of Jersey to this country, met a man uncultured and uneducated from the South and they were married. Along with becoming his wife she also became his teacher, as a result of which teaching he was able to take his place in the general file of men. Jumping to the final epic of their lives, they had risen in the community life where they were located, children had been adopted, they were making good materially on a dairy ranch, he was clerk of the school board, and together they had organized three granges in the surrounding country—all in the course of two years. Then came the break. Losing control of his temper in an argument over a calf the husband hit a neighbor on the head, killing him. Five months has this man been branded as a criminal, been lying in the penitentiary and jail, with penalty of death over his head. His wife, forced to seek work, grieved to the extent that she could not hold jobs which were obtained for her. Finally it became necessary to take her to the hospital at which institution she died. Died, according to doctors, as result of a broken heart.

Thus we see that the acts of this one man involved the life of his wife, the future of his children, and the sorrow of countless friends. No example which we can name is more indicative of the influence that our actions exert upon those about us.

We are not alone responsible to ourselves but to an indefinite number of surrounding people. They form the web in which we are entangled. We cannot get away from it. Just as our deeds may bring joy and pride, so too, do they bring sorrow and suffering. Personality and human insight may become like knives in a sore.

Not for ourselves alone are we accountable. We are in the Web of Life.

It Is Not Too Early

It is not too early to lay plans for that trip to Forest Grove which in reality is only a trifle over a week hence. Two years ago a large number of Willamette rooters made the trip returning with the "bacon" as well as having had a good time. Much more enthusiasm can be worked up on an excursion than is possible in a group disorganized by use of varied methods of transportation. Further, it is known that because of the intense rivalry existing between the two colleges, Pacific always puts up a better fight against the Bearcats than it does against any other school. Therefore the team needs your backing.

"W" Club Banquet

Due to an error the account of the "W" club banquet held in the "Y" Friday night previous to the game with College of Puget Sound, was left out. The news of the affair itself is now old, but the nature of the occasion was such that it should not be forgotten. It was one of the best things which the club has done in the last several years, and served to create the spirit that was evidenced on the field the following day. Effective leadership on the part of any organization is bound to bring results.

Now that Hoover has been elected we may be able to again enjoy the radio in the evening. At any rate strains of East Side, West Side, will not dominate the ether.

Every organization of the campus which possesses the office of treasurer should send a telegram to the team at Boise, Idaho next Monday, when the Bearcats vie with College of Idaho.

Along the Way

(By The Wayfarers)

Aha! A popularity contest. What a wonderful chance to annihilate the omnipresent up-and-coming superiority complexes. Maybe some of these self-considered inferior persons will get conscious, too.

But beware! If you don't vote, the sorority papas and fraternity mammas will vote by "heart" and carry the election. "Let your conscience be your guide."

Minors allowed. You don't have to be twenty-one to vote here.

If we did not have a manager who wore his diamonds facing the palm of his hand we would run a picture of that Willamette student who in Tuesday's election received several votes for the official purpose of which is to care for dead folks. Since we cannot run the photograph we shall have to enlighten you by other means. Willis Hathaway got two votes for county coroner.

Did you see the dazed look on the face of the gentleman in the library last night, when he pulled a handkerchief from his pocket and discovered it to be that of a lady?

Untoosie what Dean Clark, chairman of the grounds committee, has rigged up to gather in the potential mold which has been gently falling in Willamette's fair forest. What shall we call it, a shovelcoopushus? At any rate, it does the work.

When the editor solicited ads in the days long gone beyond recall, he seems to have believed in putting forward anything to please his advertisers. From one of the ancient Collegians the Wayfarers find that he stated that one of his blacksmith patrons would give an axle grease bathing suit as second prize for the great San Francisco to Hong Kong swimming marathon. Why, William!

"While a girl is but a frail craft on the sea of life, the older she gets, the craftier she becomes." So they say—who think they know.

The Men's Glee Club gave a very pleasing merenade under the library windows the other night. Since they were out where the fountain is fountainless, 'twould have been very appropriate had they sung "How Dry I Am!" The fellow in front of us says that's all boloney—it won't be dry long now if the rain keeps up.

A Word of Commendation

The Beta Chi's are to be congratulated on the perspicacity they show in their recent announcement bulletin. It's one of these "It's so simple, why didn't I ever think of it?" ideas. These women have learned that system pays.

Rules: 1. Only one couple may announce in any one week. 2. Miss X and Mr. Y must announce whenever there is no one else to do so. (X and Y are unknowns here as in algebra, due to the severe admonitions which Far A. Wayfarer received when he investigated this tasty bit of gossip.)

Suggestions: 1. Candy and flowers would be quite appropriate. Ay, there's the rub. A perpetual supply of sweets would be very agreeable, we are certain.

To those fraternities who may deem it unwise to imitate this wily scheme, we suggest the following

PAN-PACIFIC MEET AT REED COLLEGE

Students of International Problems to Gather in Port- land for 3-Day Conference

Plans are being made for a joint Y. M.-Y. W. conference to be held on the Reed college campus in Portland November 23, 24, and 25 to discuss problems facing the countries bordering on the Pacific. This will include both men and women from the colleges of the northwest. The delegations from each school are limited to ten students half of them to be from the Orient and half from the Occident. The students attending the meeting should have had courses in International Relations, Race Problems, and Economics.

Interest in the meeting has been very keen on the Willamette campus, and a large number have expressed a desire to attend. The committee in charge of choosing the representatives, had some difficulty in selecting those best qualified. This committee, which was composed of Dr. Gutke, Dr. Laughlin, Elsie Tucker, and Harold Shellhart selected the delegates on the basis of past interest in the problems, on the apparent ability to profit by such experience, and on the class to which the student belongs, since there will probably be a conference of like nature next year.

Those who will attend are: Virginia Edwards, Mildred Hubbard, Elsie Tucker, Dorothy Hutchason, Teruyi Otsuki, Jack Majoski, Chai Whan Lee, Ivan White, Harold Shellhart, and Hugh Currin.

Floyd S. Bailey, a local graduate of the class of 1927 is studying religious education at the Pacific School of Religion at Berkeley, Calif. He is social and athletic director for the year at the First Congregational church, Oakland, Calif. Last year, Mr. Bailey taught history in the Mid-Pacific Institute of Honolulu. He also had charge of athletics and social work in the Mid-Pacific Institute. His wife, who will be remembered as Miss Dorothy Jackson is superintendent of the Junior department of the First Congregational church.

LOCALS

Percy Carpenter spent the week-end at his home in Mill Plain, Washington.

Miss Josephine Conn spent Sunday in Portland.

Willamette students who attended the O. S. C.-Montana football game at Corvallis last Saturday included Harold Hauk, Donald Faber, Willard Ruch, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Welch.

Miss Buena Brown and Miss Margaret Eddy spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bohrnsteadt near Salem.

Miss Nellie Badley spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bohrnsteadt.

Miss Helen Cochran spent the week-end at her home in Albany.

Miss Jean Spencer was at her home in McMinnville for Sunday.

Miss Helen Tooze, a former Willamette student, was a visitor on the campus last week. Miss Tooze is now attending the University of Southern California and is acting as secretary to the president of that institution.

In connection with the observance of National Education week, Dean Erickson spoke of "Education" at the Rotarian Wednesday noon.

Virginia Mason '22 who has been teaching in the Mills City high school is taking a vacation this year. She is living with her parents in Jefferson, Oregon.

Willamette students attending the Kreisler concert in Portland October 31 were Ruth Margaret Hall, Virginia Slusser, Dorothy Pemberton, William Hall, and Gurnie Flesher.

Mary Rettie '28 is at home at Fossil, Oregon. She is keeping house while her mother is on a five months' visit to Scotland.

tion went the suggestion that all members use their influence to see that other organizations do likewise.

Vice president Smullin was placed in charge of the promotion of the excursion to Pacific university on November 17, when the Bearcats meet the Badgers at this time. Acting with Smullin in this matter will be Hathaway and Vannice, as well as the Pep committee. It was also urged upon the members to have the students refrain from "small town stuff" such as the grabbing of opponent's rooter's lids, etc. A letter was also dispatched to the Forest Grove brother chapter urging them to do the same. Further duties of this committee will be to aid the Pep trio in the promotion of further rallies.

The fraternity agreed to assume charge of a float if the student council would furnish the necessary funds to be used in the Armistice day parade.

As a final matter to be brought up for consideration, President White introduced the question of establishment of national social fraternities on the campus. After some discussion the body went on record as being in favor of such action and a committee was appointed to confer with the trustees in conjunction with Dr. Doney and the faculty. The personnel of aforesaid is Ivan White, ex-officio member, William Smullin, Kenneth Litchfield, and Harold Shellhart.

lor versus senior men and women respectively; with the winners of the contest meeting in a final tournament following which will be run the consolation debate.

Five points toward inter-class rivalry are awarded to the class winning the contest, three to the one taking second place and two to the winner in the consolation series. In addition to this the names of members of the winning class team are engraved upon a silver loving cup which was presented to Tau Kappa Alpha last year for this purpose by T. A. Livesley.

The first debate is slated to be heard in chapel two weeks hence. Questions for consideration are: Resolved, that students should take more seriously their duty of educating the professors; that Willamette should not limit its enrollment; that the University should maintain a larger number of men than women in its registration, and that the student body should accept the obligation of enforcing college discipline.

as yet it has not been decided what will be done with the money that is left after it is sold. The dishes which are marked with the Philodorian emblem will be sent to the alumni, if they wish to keep a piece.

The Chrestomatheans were organized in 1916. The president for this year was Anna Mary McKinley. The cottage is to go to the Y. M. C. A. with the provision that the name be retained. They will also receive some of the furniture. The rest of the furniture and the dishes will go to the Y. W. C. A.

The Chionians were organized in 1921. The president for this year was Alice Lane. The use for the money in the treasury has not been decided yet. It is a prevalent idea that since most of the girls belong to the Independent Society that the money will be given to that society.

Skies with Commerce*

THE air map of America is now in the making—on the ground.

Ten years ago, there were 218 miles of air mail routes with two station stops; to-day, a network of sky roads bridges the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Can you imagine this growth without electricity—without illuminated airports—without trunk lines studded with electric beacons?

Men of vision are building for increasing traffic of the air. Soon, the skies will be filled with commerce.

Just as electricity is helping to conquer the air, the land, and the sea to-day, so to-morrow it will lead to greater accomplishments in aviation and in every human activity.

A majority of the beacon lights used in airport and airway illumination have been designed and manufactured by the General Electric Company, whose specialists have the benefit of a generation's experience in the solution of lighting problems.

Alpha Phi Alpha Has Treasure Hunt Friday

Members of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority were hostesses Friday night at an unusually clever treasure hunt. The treasure was the password to a "cabaret" at the sorority house on Oak street, with the guests giving the password before entering. The living rooms of the big house were decorated with gay crepe paper streamers, confetti and serpentine ribbons.

Refreshments were served at small tables centered with tapers to complete the "cabaret" idea. An informal program was given, with vocal numbers by Arnold Taylor accompanied by Miss Bessie Weaver, musical number by Miss Grace Henderson, and a feature dance by Miss Mary Jane Law.

The guests included Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Alice Fisher, Wilburn Swafford, Vernon Taylor, Van Bateson, George Poor, Alfred King, Frank Grover, Louis Oberon, Randolph Pope, Leslie Manker, Donald Taylor, Francis De Harport, Charles Wilson, Albert McBee, Clarence Poor, Robert Parrish, Glenn Ellis, Reeve Betts, Harold Shellhart, Joe Lane, Jesse Deetz, Sam Bowe, Walter Vinson, Dale Vandergriff, Rex Garrison, Lee Tate, Willis Baldersee, Ralph Purvine, Ray Miller, Clarke Wood, Alfred French, Harold Thayer, Charles Campbell, Stanley Satchell, Frank Shafer, Basil DeLysle and Joseph Silver.

Elsinore Is Scene Of Delta Phi Party

Saturday evening the Delta Phi sorority held a line party at the Elsinore theatre. The film "The Fleet's In" and the Manhattan players in "White Wreckage" were viewed by the young women and guests. After the theatre refreshments were served at the house on Court street.

Hallowe'en Party Is Event of Wednesday

Mildred Cook and Marie Messersmith were hostesses at a delightful Hallowe'en Masquerade party held at the home of Max O. Buren on Oct. 31st.

As the guests arrived they were met by ghosts and conducted, blindfolded, to the attic, which had been converted into an abode of ghosts and skeletons. In one corner was a miniature cemetery containing the conscience or moral remains of some of the guests. Fortunes were told.

After unmasking, the guests returned to the living room for games and contests. Apple cider, doughnuts, apples and nuts were served around the fireplace.

Those present included: Bonnie Zeller, Marvel Edwards, Rosalie Buren, Anna Lanke, Esther Cook, Dorothy Taylor, Roberta Vannice, Louise Lanke, Orma McIntyre, Herman Lanke, Reeve Betts, George Birrell, Henry Millard, Willard Ruch, John Versteeg, Frank Lockhart, Raymond Wadill, Edwin Rounds, Ronald Taylor, and the hostesses, Mildred Cook and Marie Messersmith.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CONFERENCE FRIDAY

Student Volunteer Council To Meet On Campus

The Student Volunteer council will meet on the campus this Friday and Saturday. The group will include the members of the Willamette council and about three or four representatives from every other campus in Oregon. The council proposes first to take up the work of the Student Volunteer movement Friday night when a talk will be given and the discussion will be led by Camilla Anderson, Union council member from University of Oregon Medical school in Portland.

On Saturday morning a talk was given by Dorothy Hutcherson, president of the State Union. The program included a talk on "Deputation Work", by Esther Lisle, Union vice president, and a talk and discussion on "Out of College Volunteer Activities," led by Evelyn Hulit, alumnus of Albany college, and secretary of the Union. The group will finish Saturday afternoon with a talk and discussion on the "Student Volunteer Council Group", led by Esther Lisle. The date and meeting place of the spring conference of the organization will be determined this week-end, and the year's work outlined and promoted.

The Student Volunteer council is a national organization composed of members from all schools of higher learning, and there is a current movement sponsored by them to try to get all students who can to take part in foreign missionary work and to interest those who cannot personally serve to support the work in other ways. Three of the Willamette Student Volunteer group have signed declaration of purpose cards. The membership this year on the campus reaches a total of twelve.

Additional Society

Miss Beryl Holt, prominent alumnus of W. U., now teaching in Salem high school, entertained as special guests over the week-end for homecoming, Mary Parnounian, '20, and Helen Wastell Winters, '16, who both teach at Grant high school in Portland. They attended all the homecoming events, including the alumni dinner at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening.

Meta Walker and Glemma Teeters, W. U. alumni, were special guests of Miss Lella Johnson over the homecoming week-end. Miss Teeters is a teacher at Jefferson high in Portland and Miss Walker is an attorney in that city.

At Willamette Lodge recently a farewell dinner was given for Miss Calthea Vivian, a California artist who has been in the state painting Oregon scenery. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, and Dr. H. C. Kohler.

Elsie Tucker spent the week-end at O. S. C. as the guest of Susan Martin at Waldo Hall. She attended the Seabeck Division committee meeting and the O. S. C. Montana game.

Delta Phi announces the formal initiation of Miss Frances Virginia Melton and Maribell Quinn.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney and Dr. J. D. McCormick were dinner guests at Delta Phi on Thursday evening.

Musical Numbers Presented by Members of Campus Music
Organization

Each of the Beethoven Society entertains the students of the University with its musical Chapel programs. The first of the season was held Wednesday. The program included: Violin solo, "Alt View" by Godowski, played by Iva Claire Love accompanied by Edith Findley; vocal solo, "I Know a Lovely Garden", D' Harelot, sung by Marjory Miller, accompanied by Rosalind Van Winkle; piano solos, "The Lover" and "The Villain," MacDowell, played by Edith Findley, and a vocal solo, "Oh, Moon of My Delight", Lehmann, sung by Ronald Craven, accompanied by Rosalind Van Winkle.

The club is planning a concert to be given at the Y. M. C. A. in the near future.

HOMEcoming PLAY NETS FIFTY DOLLARS, REPORT

After all the bills of the Homecoming play have been paid there will be about $50 profit, according to Raymond Derriek, manager of the production. The expenses of the play are as follows: coach, $75; scripts, $10; rent of theatre, $100; stage hands, $45; miscellaneous, $50. The management hired their own stage hands who were union men. Because of the newness of the play, the royalty was considerable. The price of admission this year was cut from $1.00 and 75c to 75c and 50c. The Oregon theatre seats approximately 600 people and 500 of these were sold for the play.

COMPANY PRESENTS THREE-ACT COMEDY

Moroni Olsen Players Come
To Salem in First of Season Series

The Moroni Olsen Players, well and favorably known at Willamette, will be back in Salem at the Elsinore theatre on Wednesday evening, November 14th, presenting an entertaining comedy of American life by Rachel Crothers entitled "Expressing Willie." This is to be the first of a series of three plays to be presented by the company in Salem this season under the auspices of the Salem Lions' and Kiwanis clubs.

This will be the sixth season for the company since its organization, and during this time it has made available in the West a type of play not usually found outside the larger eastern cities. Members of the company who have been with it since its creation are Moroni Olsen, Byron Kay Foulger, Janet Young, Dorothy Adams, Lora Thatcher, and Joseph Williams. During five seasons of cooperative effort these artists have developed an effective interpretative unit which has become an important factor in the contemporary development of the American theatre.

"Expressing Willie" is a thoroughly American comedy treating certain hypocritical phases of American life in a gently satirical manner. Willie is a self-made millionaire who attempts to cultivate the artistic side of his nature by gathering about him a collection of pseudo-artists and so-called "intellectuals" whose theme is self-expression and who have no selves worth expressing. They lay down an aesthetic barge and advance on Willie's pocket-book behind it. Willie's mother becomes suspicious and invites Minnie, an old sweetheart of his, to come and visit them in the hope that she will provide a standard of comparison that will open his eyes. She comes, and in the amusing situations which follow Willie learns the difference between true and false artistic values.

Other plays to be presented this season by the Moroni Olsen company are "Autumn Fire", and Irish folk drama by T. C. Murray, and "What Every Woman Knows", the well-known Scotch comedy by Sir James Barrie. The first will be given some time in February and the second in May.

BEARCATS TROUNCE ALBANY TEAM 38-6

Second Team and Varsity Divide Scoring Honors; Game is Finished in Dark

Willamette University trounced Albany College, on Sweetland field, Friday afternoon by a score of 38 to 6. The reserves scored two more touchdowns over the Presbyterians but once they were offside and once a linesman was holding; neither score counted.

Cranor was the outstanding star of the day. His flashy return of the kickoff for a 90 yard run, and his return of a punt for 65 yards were the most thrilling plays of the day.

Reserves Start

The reserves started the game for the Bearcats, and after playing on even terms for the first period, "Spec" sent in the varsity to give them a try at Albany. The Cardinal and Gold scored first on a pass from Englebreton to Ellis. They also converted for the extra point.

Later in this period, Albany bucked the ball over for their only score of the day. The quarter ended 7-6 favoring Willamette.

After driving down the field for 40 yards, Willamette lost the ball by a fumble; Albany tried two plays and then punted to the center of the field from where the Bearcats scored their second touchdown with another of the beautiful passes of Cranor with the diminutive French on the receiving end.

The reserve squad again went in at the half and McBee went 10 yards for a touchdown but a linesman was holding and the score didn't count. The young Bearcats kept the ball in the enemies' territory most of this period.

Veterans Finish

In the final period, Spec again sent in his veteran warriors who proceeded to score at will. An intercepted Albany pass put the ball in the center of the field. Page went 45 yards for a touchdown but an offside man sent the team back to the center of the field. A pass from Cranor to French put the ball on the two yards line. DePoe smashed the line for the score. The score was then 25 to 6.

The next touchdown came when Cranor carried the ball for 90 yards behind some of the neatest interference that has been seen on the local field.

The starting lineup was:

Albany	Willamette
Campbell	LE Smith
Cox	LT Carpenter
W. Cochrane	LG Gill
Shearer	C Pope
Talustad	RG Hillis
Simpson	RT Ruch
Dougherty	RE Gibson

MEET THE TEAM

May we introduce Reeve (Bevo) Betts. Reeve who is one of the hardest workers, and most faithful trainers on the squad deserves a lot of credit for his consistency.

"Bevo's" contribution to Willamette football is his love of the game and faithfulness in the smaller details of team moral and team spirit.

Elmer Smith is making a good showing this year at left end for Willamette. Smith is an experienced and clever player who can not only receive passes with deadly accuracy, but can run them forward for a substantial gain after he catches them. This is his first year of varsity competition; so Willamette can expect great things of him in the future.

Gibson is Spec Keene's other wing man and is a good running mate for Smith. Gibby's specialty is drop kicking, and how he does dropkick! He puts them over from anywhere! Gibson can snare passes as well as perform all he necessary requisites of a good wing man, and as he is also playing his first year for Willamette, we can count on him to do a lot for W. U.

The Kappa Gamma Rho football team again proved superior to worthy foes, when they defeated the Alpha Psi team by a score of 7-6. The game was played Thursday noon on the Sweetland field. Although the field was soggy from recent rains, the game was hard fought, and was featured by many sensational runs. Yarnes of the K. G. R's. and Harris of the A. P. team were the most consistent ground gainers.

The Kappas scored their touchdown when Pratt, halfback, intercepted a pass and galloped away for a touchdown. They converted for the extra point which proved to be the winning point.

The Alphas came back with a touchdown by Harris, quarterback but failed to make the goal.

The Willamette team is working a little more determinedly than ever this week; a general air of grim determination pervades the squad indicating realization that in playing against last year's champions in their own territory, they are opposing distinct odds.

The passes displayed by the Whitman Missionaries in their 44-0 victory over Pacific was the feature of Saturday's play in the Northwest conference.

The Missionaries ran wild at all times and despite the fact that their second team saw action for almost thirty minutes, scored in every period. Their five exhibition marks them as favorites for the Northwest title.

The remaining conference teams which show action, Willamette and C. P. S., turned in disappointing performances.

Willamette failed to show power in her attacks through the line and was forced to fall back on passes and the flat open field running of Garrie Cranor for victory over Albany.

Hopes for a Logger victory over Washington's oft-beaten Huskies were sunk under a 40-0 score in the Tacoma stadium.

Big "Chuck" Carroll ruined College of Puget Sound's homecoming by ploughing through the Loggers for six touchdowns.

College of Idaho and Linfield rested in preparation for Saturday's battles.

Willamette fans will watch for the result of the Logger-Missionary scrap, November 12, at Walla Walla with considerable interest.

est. A Logger victory coupled with Bearcat triumphs against Idaho and Pacific would clinch Willamette at least a tie for championship honors. However, Whitman will be highly favored to trounce Coach Hubbard's proteges.

Lack of offensive power through her line caused the Bearcats somewhat disappointing showing against Albany, Friday. Willamette passing attacks worked beautifully and several of her men showed a fleet pair of heels in the open field. The line failed to open the holes that had made an eighty yard mark against C. P. S. possible.

PREPARE TO BEAT PACIFIC

BASKETBALL TEAMS STRONG THIS YEAR

All Northwest Conference Teams have Prospect for Competition

From all the schools in the conference comes the prediction that competition in basketball in the Northwest Conference is going to be much stronger this year than last. Seven lettermen are back at Whitman and are even now going through light workouts. Since they had the strongest team in the conference last year, sport critics predict that they will repeat again this year. Puget Sound reports a more powerful team this season because nearly all of their regulars are back and they have plenty of reserves to take the places of any vacancies. Pacific U. began last season with an inexperienced team, but with a year's experience, they should be a hard team to beat. College of Idaho, with practically their entire team back for the coming season and with a wealth of new material, is looking forward to making a serious fight for the title.

Willamette also, with her last year's team intact and with a host of experienced reserves and new material, will be in the final reckoning, without a doubt. To begin with, Ed Cardinal, all conference center, and high point man in the conference is back again with a determination to do even bigger things for Willamette this season. Dwight Adams, another Willamette scoring ace, will be found in his old place at forward when the first whistle blows. Both of these men have been turning out for football to get in good condition for the basketball season. Reginald (Freak) Depoe, an outstanding forward will be eligible for varsity competition by the first of the basketball season, and should be even better this year than he was last. Kenny Litchfield played a consistent game at forward last season and can be expected to continue his good work.

Willamette will be well-supplied for guards, as three lettermen; Flesher, Hawk and Ledbetter have returned. "Skinner" Flesher was mentioned on an all-conference team last season, and his scrappiness should make him a serious contender again this year. Hawk, too, was mentioned on an all-conference team, and should become one of the five main reasons why Willamette will win the title. Ledbetter showed up well in defensive play last year, and will probably see plenty of action this year.

Many critics judge a team by its reserves, and if that be the case, our team should have an A-1 rating. Minto, alternate varsity center last year is back again this year, and is going to make competition hot for the position of center. Then the entire freshman squad will be out and putting forth a mighty effort to prove to Spec Keene that they are worthy of a first-string berth. Some men of the last year's frosh team who may break into the final lineup are: "Fritz" DeHarpport and "Cece" Harmon, clever forwards; Waddel the gargantuan center; and Masters, Trachsel and Page, stellar guards; Seales, a star forward from Franklin High of Portland, should make the first squad this year, and we have heard favorable comments of Claude Harris and Glenn Ellis, stellar hoopsters from West Linn and Raymond, Washington, respectively.

From the above, the conclusion may be drawn that not a single position on the team is a "cinch," and that competition for a place on the varsity will be stiff. Most of the players on the squad are men with from one to three years of varsity competition ahead of

Sportorials

Let's not forget the warning of our coaches: that the Willamette football team is in its most critical period of the season. Remember that overconfidence is a team's greatest handicap and the fact that we have won one or two games this season is not sufficient grounds for an attitude of superiority. The three hardest games of the conference are yet to be played, with Willamette being the favorite in only one of these.

Whitman has instituted a plan whereby the athletic managers have to begin as freshman assistants and then work up. Willamette has a similar plan, but if the insistent demands of the football players are met, the athletic managers will be required to observe training rules as well as the players. We believe that such a clause would greatly increase the morale and spirit of the team.

One of this year's football conditions at Willamette, is the fact that the team and coaches have enjoyed the best of football training weather. In addition to this the Bearcat field has been in excellent shape and has been a most influencing factor in the progress of the team.

them. This means that Willamette will not only have a winning team this year but for many years to come. However, we are now concerned mostly with the present, namely, are we going to win the conference title this year? We have the team, the coach, and the student body, all we need to put it across is the spirit.

BEARCATS PREPARE FOR IDAHO ELEVEN

Coach Keene and Assistants
Put Squad Through Intensive Practice Schedule

Following the game with Albany, the Bearcats Monday night began workouts for the coming encounter with the College of Idaho eleven. The Bearcats have been going through stiff tackling scrimmages, and coach Keene and his assistants are doing their utmost to strengthen the Willamette players in this department. Pass defense and the renewing of Idaho's offense will constitute the remaining practice hours.

Idaho Dangerous

A few facts about the Idaho team make them a most dangerous foe. So far this season, Anne Cornell's men have not found themselves. Against the College of Puget Sound the Coyotes were handicapped by injuries to some of their star men.

The College of Idaho eleven lost but one regular from their 1927 championship squad and in addition, they have four all-conference men in their present line-up. Dille, all-conference fullback, is back in shape and semi-headed for the most successful year of his career. Gillam, 190-pound center, is one of the best defensive and offensive players on the coast. Swim, tackle, and O'Connor, half, are other men of all-conference mention who are back and determined to upset the other conference teams.

Willamette Unimpressive

Willamette, although having made a fair showing so far for this season, is far from being a favorite over the Coyotes. The Willamette line is somewhat lighter than the Coyote forward wall, however, the backfields of the two elevens will be of about the same weight.

From all appearances it seems that the two teams are about evenly matched, with perhaps the more experienced Idaho eleven, a slight favorite. At all events, it will be a hard fought battle and will help to give a definite line on the conference championship. The Idaho line-up:

Baldridge, RB; Thayer, RT; Stim-mel, RG; Gillam, C; Rodman, LG; Whittier, LT; Kolster, LE; A. Brown, Q; Kim, LH; O'Connor, RH; Dille, P.

Riddle of Student Inefficiency Solved; Or Why Do Collegians Approve More National Holidays?

With illimitable fortitude and "peptomism" we bear heavily upon the desk gleaning with the ferocious appetite of a collegiate intellect to disclose and engulf the hidden; to deepen and flute that wrinkle in the right high region of the cortex and lend to it significant dignity. Were a day snatched from our limited allotment of studying time, even as Cleopatra, you and I might "let coil and asp above our respective hearts, and poison till we die." We would, we fancy, were it not for the scarcity of asps in the regions outlying.

As from the cocoa bean comes the cocoa, so from studying comes the student. No tree, no cocoa—no time, no student. Longer hours is the plea. A good student—yes, even a scholar—or nothing, not while of the 1919 songs none are known.

In 1920 the judges awarded first to the sophomore song, "Fight 'em Bearcats" and the Seniors and Freshmen tied for second place. A popular vote, however, gave first place to the Freshmen, second to the Sophomores, third to the Juniors, and fourth to the Seniors. Since then the chorus of "Fight 'em Bearcats" has been combined with the chorus of the Freshman song, "Go Willamette" and is very popular.

Time has proved the 1921 prize song, "Willamette Spirit" less adaptable than the second place song, "Bend the Knee," which is sung a great deal, while the students never hear of the first.

The songs of 1922 have failed to find favor with students for some reason or other, for not even the winner is ever heard. The serenade songs of 1923 marked a distinct change of theme in glee contests, and the winning song, "Dream On," has lived as our most beautiful serenade.

Of the loyalty songs of 1924, even a worm. (Riddle) What is more miserably outcast in naval circles than a student "inefficient" is in intellectual circles? Immediate answer, devoid of thought: A marine.

As we progress, the point becomes more inobscure, but ever long there will be a glimmer of light. We insist that nothing shall come between us and the book; that with the nerve and bravery of the Trojan aviator we will strive to forbid the limiting of the study periods.

So many vials of prune juice. We have been trying to voice with you the sentiment that is so prevalent: of course, we do not welcome the coming Monday which, by national proclamation, is a holiday commemorating the signing of the Armistice November 11, 1918.

the winner, "Oh, Willamette Fairest Name", has survived, while the others have been forgotten.

Two popular songs have come from the 1925 group, "There's a School We Call Willamette" and "Mighty Fighting Bearcats" which ranked first and second, respectively, for the Freshmen and Juniors.

Again in 1927 the theme was serenade. Of the two highest ranking songs, "When All the Campus Is Sleeping" is proving more popular than the winner "Drifting".

BROWNLEE SPEAKS TO NEWS WRITERS

Publisher of New Oregon
Statesman Addresses News-writing Class Thursday

"News is the timely statement of fact", stated Mr. Earl C. Brownlee in an address to the news writing class last Thursday. Mr. Brownlee, who has recently become part owner and editor of the Oregon Statesman, has had extensive experience on several large city newspapers as well as experience as an instructor in journalism at Forest Grove.

According to Mr. Brownlee, three important problems which a news writer must know how to answer are: how to find news, where to find it, and how to present it most effectively. In deciding these questions, the journalist must have the ability to determine the value of news, must have wide experience and must be able to work rapidly.

A news story has several essentials: It must be current, interesting, include everything, and contain only the facts.

"Therefore," Mr. Brownlee said in summarizing these points "the value of a news story is determined by the number of people it interests and to what extent it interests them."

A local department store manager believes that the college newspaper as an advertising medium does not interest him. The amount of space sold to the leading merchants of the town tends to disprove this manager's view.

But why should a store get Willamette business if the officials of this store do not have a high enough regard for university patronage to make a fair bid for it?
