

BEARCATS HARD AT IT ON FALL GRIDIRON WORK

Nearly Twenty Men Respond to the Initial Call for Gridiron Candidates

RAREY BACK WITH FIGHT

Bain Nominee for Athletic Manager Game With Whitman Scheduled For Thanksgiving; Others Are Merely Tentative

Sweetland field has been the scene of daily football workouts since the opening day of registration, when nearly 20 men answered the initial call for gridiron candidates. Rain was not permitted to interfere with the early practice periods, which were spent principally in putting the men through setting-up exercises and drill work designed for improving the wind.

Captain "Russ" Rarey and five other letter-men have put in their appearance during the first week of practice. They will be bolstered by at least a dozen substitutes and second-string players from the 1919 squad, while a number of new men are showing to advantage. Advance reports indicated that Rarey would be unable to execute any of his dependable line plunging and hard tackling as of old, due to his injured knee which has bothered him during the summer, but the gritty fullback appears to be in excellent condition so far.

It looked for a time like a new punter would have to be discovered and developed, but "Tuffy" Irvine's return to the campus has dispelled all fears, and his right toes give evidence of tip-top shape. Irvine will again be in line for a backfield position, probably resuming the quarterback reins. Loren Herman Basler, the lanky center and another former cripple with a couple of cracked vertebrae, has lost none of his former "fight," so barring accidents, "Baz" will again be seen tearing holes through the center of the opposing line.

Wapato, Day, and Lawson, three additional line-men wearing award sweaters, are back in the Bearcat camp ready to take up their old jobs. "Les" Day filled in a part of last season at center, finishing up at guard while "Wap" spent most of the season appearing forward passes from an end position and "spiffing" the opposing backs for five and 10-yard losses. Big Bill Lawson, who played left guard during the 1919 season, made that side of the line practically impregnable. It is not unlikely that Bill will be shifted to a tackle position this year.

One more "W" man is scheduled to appear in football toge in a week or two, "Fat" Zeller being unable to return at the first of the semester. Zeller's long end runs furnished any number of thrills last year, and his reappearance will increase the backfield strength manifold.

A large number of good men from the 1919 second team, several of them near-letter-men are scrambling for open positions both in the line and backfield. Jackson's speed should go far in earning for him an end or halfback berth, while Bernard Ramsey, winner of the Hansen trophy, should make a guard position if his injured foot can hold up under the strain. Gannans and Sherwood are making good impressions carrying the ball, while Bain, Moody, Radepinner and Socolofsky, all of whom had some experience last season, will make somebody work hard for line vacancies. White, Barnes, Lyman and two or three others comprise the remaining members of the 1919 eleven who are enjoying the daily grind, while several new men, among them Hicks, Bird, Smith, Oliver, Richards, Anslow, and Rookstool, are turning out.

No accurate policies are yet possible regarding the probable strength of the Bearcat machine, since most of the work thus far has consisted in passing, punting, going down under the ball, tackling, blocking and work on the charging machine. However, prospects appear fairly good, and barring injuries, the team should compare favorably with former Willamette elevens. Of course, the graduation of ex-captain Dimick and Paul Brown, and the non-return of the Fighting Table

MUSIC BACK ON CAMPUS

Department Returns to Old Home in Music Hall for Work

The music department of the university faces one of the greatest years in its career. Professor Hobson, the new musical director, is very enthusiastic and anxious to improve the musical part of the university life.

The Men's Glee club that has always proved popular with the Salem audiences and cities where concerts have been given, is planning on a wonderful season, with probably an increased membership, and new members being taken into the club to fill the vacancies that were left by members who didn't return to school. The manager, Dan McGrew, made an appeal in chapel Monday for any new men in school that are desirous of being in the club and have good voices to try out with Professor Hobson.

The Ladies' Glee Club last year was disappointed with their plans for the year not working out on account of the production of "Yokohama Maid" and the heavy school schedule. But with most of the old members back and a new musical director, who will give his hearty cooperation to the work of the club, great things may be expected.

The College of Music has been moved back upon the campus and this makes it more convenient for the music students to go, meet their liberal arts classes, and does away with the forced smile of the professor as the student comes rushing in to class late from his lesson.

Handbook Appreciated by All

Showing its spirit thru its cardinal and gold cover, the 1920-21 edition of the handbook made its appearance Tuesday morning. To Edna Gilbert as editor and to Harry Rarey and Hubert Wilkin as managers belong the credit for this handy little volume of useful information. The books have been distributed from the Y. M. C. A. desk on the second floor of Eaton hall.

REV. R. BISBEE WRITES LETTER

Missionary Thanks Students for Money Raised During the Last School Year

Will Build Willamette Chapel With This Sum; Work in India Grows Each Year and Urgent Need Is Felt for Buildings

Godhra, Pancha Mahlas, India, June 4, 1920.

I am very happy indeed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of March 20, in which you write that the Willamette University students have raised $400 to aid me in my work. This is splendid. I feel that the response comes to us in a direct answer to prayer.

During the year 1918 we had nearly 500 baptisms in the Godhra district, and last year over twice that number, there being 1028. During the first six months of this year we have sold 3970 Gospel portions, and distributed free of charge 26,277 tracts. There have been 1920 baptisms and there are 426 candidates being instructed for baptism. This rapid growth of our work means that we have opened up work in many new villages, and that we have great need of more evangelists and teachers. Not only that, but there is an urgent need for the building of mission chapels and village schools. A village chapel not only gives our Christian people a central place for worship but it is a testimony to the heathen of God's power to forgive men of sin. With your permission I propose to use the $400 in the erection of the "Willamette Mission Chapel." For $400 a very substantial building can be erected—one that will stand as a monument for years of the love of the students of the Willamette University for God's work.

You will be interested to learn that there are several Willamette University students in India. Miss Laura F. Austin is working here in Godhra, and Miss Ruth Field is in Calcutta, and I understand that

SEABECK LURES LARGE NUMBER OF W. U.'S BEST

Over Twenty Men Go From Y. M. to Attend Conference of Lively College Men

MOODHE WINS AT TENNIS

Life Full of Spiritual, Social and Athletic Interests; Men Win Victor's Pennant and Women Come Second in Song

Both the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations of Willamette were well represented at the Seabeck conference this year. In the athletic, social and spiritual life these delegates took an active part, showing Willamette spirit in every line of work.

When the boat "Kingston" sailed from Seattle for its usual journey up the sound in June it carried the largest delegation that the Willamette Y. M. C. A. has ever sent to Seabeck. Full of Willamette spirit and pep, they walked off with the victor's banner as a result of high points in track and water meets. Basler, Davies and Cramer were the high point men. Moodhe was the tennis champion of the whole conference. Wilken was elected a member of the advisory committee for the planning of the conference for next year, while Edwin Socolofsky was chosen as one of the delegates to be sent to New York City for special boys' work.

Later in the year the Y. W. C. A. delegation took the same boat for the same place. These young women carried off second honors in the song contest by writing "Seabeck words to the 'Willamette Spring Song'." Vivian Isham represented the delegation in the tennis meet but lost out in the semi-finals.

Association and friendships with the students and faculty will ever be remembered by every delegate. The classes were of the highest inspiration while the technical hours and group discussions brought out the aim of the conference as nothing else could: "A deeper personal experience with our Savior." Social life of the conference was overflowing with baseball, volleyball, tennis, hikes, swimming, rowing and games of all kinds.

The Y. M. C. A. delegates were: Rodney Alden, Raymond Atterberg, Ralph Barnes, Loren Basler, Vaughn Callow, Truman Collins, Ivan Corner, Francis Cramer, Everett Craven, Lawrence Davies, Lester Day, Hugh Doney, Vorne Ferguson, Keith Lyman, Fred McGrew, Noble Moodhe, Sheldon Sackett, Raymond Schmalte, Edwin Socolofsky, Elton Von Eschen, Hubert Wilken.

The Y. W. C. A. delegates were: Mildred Clark, Grace Collins, Vivian Isham and Mildred Garrett.

Tom—What was the racket in the shower last night?

Dick—Oh, Harry was using one of his crash towels.—Exchange.

Prof. Von Eschen in class—"To make good here this year, I want every one to display his ignorance." Byers—"I qualify."

A.S.B. MINUS HEAD

Miss Garrett Presides When Flegel Is Elected Chairman in Class Rivalry

Because of the failure of student body President Raymond Atterberg to return to Willamette this year, Mildred Garrett, vice president, presided over the first student body meeting of the year. At this meeting, held Friday morning after chapel, Paul Flegel was elected to the chairmanship of the interclass rivalry committee.

Miss Garrett announced that another meeting would probably be called Friday of this week for the election of members-at-large to the executive council. She further stated that the first business of this new council would be the election of a new president for the student body.

Because our suits are tailored in Salem they are not high in price. Many are less than ready-made. H. Mosher, tailor, 474 Court St.—Advs.

PESTER IS NEW MASCOT

Fleg's Dog Enters Easily Into Life of Frat and College

Pester is the most popular dog upon the campus. Inheriting the bed and board vacated last spring by Sig, this dignified bull dog has come to lead the picturesque to fraternity and campus life. His quiet manner, coupled with his friendly spirit, has already found for him a spot in each student heart.

Pester, who came to Salem with Paul Flegel, accepts college life with the ease and grace of his master. Moreover, altho he may visit chapel or attend a senior class meeting, he shows his good breeding by maintaining a discreet silence, but if a game of hide-and-seek is in session Pester's shouts ring joyfully. If Jenny drops him a handful of water from the Eaton hall fountain, Pester registers gratefulness thru his eyes, so as not to disturb classes.

Pester comes as a graduate student. In the spring of 1912 he enjoyed his freshman life, tagging at the heels of Paul's big brother, Austin Flegel. Like Bob Story and Evelyn DeLong, Pester could not resist the call of Willamette campus this fall, so he has come back to file his intentions on an A. M.

COLLEGIAN ASKS STUDENTS TO AID

Support of Every Business Firm Which Advertisises Needed for Success

The editor and the manager of the Collegian are useless if students fail to patronize the advertisers who make the paper possible. It is a plain fact that no amount of college spirit will make a successful paper unless business men support the paper through advertising. The advertising men really make the paper!

The Collegian is entering a difficult year, made especially so by the great increase of expenses. IT IS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY that EVERY student give his trade to the men who are behind the paper. Read their ads, drop in and talk to them, and be sure and give your patronage to these Willamette backers, who advertise because they expect your support and cooperation. If the student body of Willamette will realize the importance of giving advertisers their business, the Collegian staff need have no worry. If on the other hand, you fail to live up to your real responsibility, the Collegian fails!

Do your bit! Live up to your duty! It is not a hard task—the advertisers carry the best line of goods in Salem. Give them your hearty support!

Here's for a year of cooperation between advertisers and student body, then and only then, will the Collegian become the paper fit for the student body of Willamette University!

Professor Herzog Holds Unique Position; to Help Life Service Volunteers

Professor Herzog arrives this week to take up his duties as instructor at Willamette University. The position of Professor Herzog is unique. As instructor in rural sociology he will deal with the place of the school, the church, and other institutions in community life. Professor Herzog will work with the students who are interested in life service and his courses will deal much with opportunities along this line.

Professor Herzog is a Drew Seminary with opportunities along this interchurch movement.

Frosh Elect Notson to Temporary Chairmanship

Robert Notson was elected temporary chairman of the freshman class at the first meeting of that body held Monday noon. The meeting was called and presided by Lester Day, retiring president of the class of 22. At this first meeting a committee was appointed to investigate the feasibility of a new student body.

Turn about is fair play. Read the ads and patronize public spirited backers of the paper.

NEW FRATS AND SORORITY OPEN SALEM HOUSES

Organizations Formed During Last Semester Show That They Propose to Stay

HOMELIKE ATMOSPHERES

Fellowship Spirit to Be Cultivated and Willamette Standards Held Aloft by New Brotherhoods and By New Sorority.

The opening of the school year finds four new organizations taking their place in the student life of Willamette. One sorority and three fraternities mark the result of several months of conscientious and determined effort on the part of the various groups of students involved, and in each case the new orders are able to report the first cycle of their experience comfortably housed and equipped to be of real service to their members.

The history of the movement resulting in the establishment of the new sorority and fraternities begins with their inception during the second semester of the last school year. With the perfection of their organization came the laying of definite plans for the ensuing year and the setting of standards toward which to strive in the upholding of their responsibility toward the university. Not only are the fraternal ideals for a fine type of friendship, mutual helpfulness, and loyalty to the greater aspirations of the university fully recognized, but the members of the organizations feel that the problem of student homes, heretofore a vexing one, is brought much nearer solution. By relieving the congestion always incident to the opening of the fall term the sororities and fraternities have served themselves as well as the student body as a whole.

Below are the names and personnel of these organizations.

Delta Phi, 322 North Church—Marie Corner, president; Mary Notson, vice president; Helen McInturff, secretary; Fay Pratt, treasurer; Vivian Isham, manager.

Members: Marguerite Cook, Sadie Pratt, Mildred Strevey, Dean Hutton, Maude Holland, Fern Glenner, Genevieve Findley, Dorothy Lamb, Mildred Wells, Virginia Mason, Gladys Gilbert.

Alpha Psi Delta, 940 Mill St.—Tinkham Gilbert, president; Hubert Wilken, manager.

Members: Noble Moodhe, Ivan Corner, Elmer Strevey, Howard George, Waldo Zeller, Leon Jennings, Hugh Walker, Orio Gillet.

Kappa Gamma Rho, 1133 Court—Raymond Schmalte, president; Edward Notson, manager.

Members: Robert Story, Truman Collins, Edwin Norene, Hugh Doney, Dean Pollock.

Pi Kappa Phi, 250 South Cottage—Brian Conley, president; Paul Wapato, manager.

Y. HAS CLASSES

Christian Association Will Study Books by Fosdick on Tuesday Mornings

Allowed by the faculty the use of the 9:35-10:25 period on Tuesday mornings, the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations have started their Bible study classes with a vim. The young women will study H. E. Fosdick's book, "The Meaning of Faith," and the young men will undertake "The Manhood of The Master," also by Fosdick.

First classes were held yesterday morning. The young women met for organization with their various leaders and each class elected its secretary. As the textbooks have not yet come the regular study was postponed. The young men met for a more informal meeting in the chapel to perfect the organization of their classes. Their books are here and work will start immediately. Leaders have been chosen from among the students and are as follows:

DELTA PHI UNDER GUARD

But Sentinels Seem Careless as to Whom They Challenge

It is all very well for young gentlemen of the romantic age to "keep watch while in golden dreams"—and curl papers—their ladies sleep. Even serenaders have been generally accepted by the citizens of Salem with tolerance and resignation. But it is doubtful if the Delta Phi would appreciate a police raid in the middle of the night, even if brought about by the devotion of three young swains. Probably these will be more cautious hereafter, especially when playing with guns.

It was Wednesday night and Church street lay calm and undisturbed beneath the smile of many stars. Two ladies, gentle Methodists, no doubt, were chatting their homeward way along the sidewalk. They were in the 500 block, but that was no cause for worry to them. They always went thru that block on their way home.

Suddenly a stalwart sentinel, with a Big Bertha over his shoulder, stepped forth from the other flowers and bid them a stern "Halt!" Strangely affected by the presence of military law, the ladies did as commanded. They even faltered and fell back a few steps, then retreated altogether. Back at the corner they stood and talked—then crossed the street and went home by the other side. But they might have called the police, and then how would Fred and Cherub and Tommy have felt?

These three inescapables were glad that the ladies went home quietly. For of course it was all a horrible mistake. Being by some unknown way in the possession of the wonderful weapons, and having escorted their own Delta Phi favorites safely past the porch swing, the three musketeers wanted to continue their game. Strutting back and forth before the house they challenged all who had dared to break girl's rules and then upon receipt of the password guarded them into the house. And now wouldn't it be nice if those strange ladies should read this, for wouldn't they be so flattered at being mistaken for college sisters that they'd forgive the young men for their fright of Wednesday night?

FOUR NEW PROFS ARE INTRODUCED

Tennison Helps Students to Feel at Home With New Instructors at W. U.

Professors Harding, Hanna, Erickson and Hobson Make Bow to Public; Eulogize W. U.

Four new professors have come to Willamette. In order that the students might early enjoy the friendship of these instructors, Leon Jennings, a Collegian reporter, has handed in the following story:

Do you know the new members of the faculty? If you don't here's a good chance to get acquainted. Since the November election is so near at hand, let's begin with Miss Harding. She declines any relationship to the presidential nominee, but there is certainly a similarity in name. The rest of her name is Minna Laurence and she hails from the good town of Boston. For the past 19 years she has headed the department of expression, dramatic art and oratory at Wesleyan College in West Virginia. She is a graduate of the Greeley School of Expression, formerly of Boston but now located in New York. She has done additional post-graduate work in the School of Poetry and Dramatic Art in Canada as well as private work in Harvard. She has extensive plans for this year in the nature of plays in both modern and classic drama—from light comedies to Shakespeare—and that ought to cover the extensive plans part of the program.

And what does she think of Willamette? Just what it most deserves—the eulogy of "a beautiful school in a beautiful location." Now you know Minna Laurence Harding, and she has become one of "us."

Professor Frank M. Erickson came to Willamette from a state institution—the University of Idaho—and as he expressed it, he came in a somewhat critical frame of mind but he finds the faculty of unusual caliber and that "something different" permeating the spirit of the entire student body—that something

BUILDINGS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS DURING SUMMER

Chapel Is Already in Use and Library Will Be Ready As Soon As Tables Come

LAUSANNE PORCH IN USE

Large Sleeping Apartment Is Being Occupied; Third Floor Near to Completion; Other Halls Receive Fresh Painting

New students at Willamette this year were greeted, as they arrived on the campus, by the sight of cement mixers, bricks, scaffolds, and all kinds of men and machinery, busily engaged in finishing up the work of reconstructing Waller and building Lausanne hall, and if it looked somewhat promising to them it surely looked more encouraging to the older students who remember what condition the buildings were in when they left, last commencement.

Lausanne hall had hardly been more than started as far as the real construction work was concerned last June when school closed. The foundation had been laid and brick work started as far as the second story. Now the building is up and is on a rapid road to completion. The brick work has been completed, the roof put on, the white stone entrances have been constructed and work is now being rushed on finishing up the interior.

The plastering is all finished and as far as the upper story is concerned it is practically done. The girls have moved in already. The sleeping porch belonging to that story is now ready for use also. The porch to the second floor is not finished, but it will not be used for sleeping purposes. It is the intention, when it is completed, to finish it out as a sort of service porch or outside hall. With a set of wicker furniture it would make an ideal place for afternoon study, viewing the athletic field, or as a spring day siesta.

All of the plumbing and heating plant is now ready as is also the electric wiring. The kitchen is now doing service. Interior decorators are at work on the dining room, which promises, when it is done, to be the most beautiful part of all.

The first floor has to be finished and also the stairways, coal bins, wash rooms and supply rooms of different kinds are to be put in the basement. The rough ground around the building is going to be smoothed off and ornamental trees and shrubbery planted around the hall, all of which will add much to the attractiveness of this home for young women.

Wiring and plastering had hardly been finished in Waller hall when school closed last year. Now the inside has been finished, the outside has been painted and painting is now being done on the inside. The chapel which has been used since school opened is a great improvement over what it was last year, and when the new opera chairs come it will be better yet. The library tables are expected daily and the library on the second floor of Waller hall will be ready for use as soon as they arrive. It is hoped that that will be some time this week.

The society halls are also coming to a quick completion. Already the Adelantes and Websterians have their rooms assuming a cheerful and homelike air while the Philodolans and Philodolans expect to move in soon. The Web halls are hung with art paper and the woodwork is given an oak finish while the Phils have chosen gray tint walls with ivory woodwork.

In the basement of Waller hall locations are being arranged for new Variety bookstore headquarters, a men's eating club, and several classrooms.

Kimball College has been donating a new coat of white, while Music hall is also being painted by popular subscription. If the money holds out, Science hall may also receive a share of these external furnishings.

THE COLLEGIAN IS YOURS

The Collegian is the paper of the Willamette students. You are its owners, and you have your rights of ownership. The editorials as well as the news sections should be representative of Willamette ideas and ideals. To the owners of a paper belong the right to mold the policy of that paper, and the editor, as your chosen servant, should always be ready to welcome and receive your wishes.

You are invited to take an active interest in the paper. Editorials, suggestions for improvement, and contributions of merit will be gratefully received. Anonymous offerings have never been favored by the Collegian, but an authorship known to the editor does not require that the name be printed.

GET THE HABIT

"Get the habit," says a sign in a certain city, "of reading, playing, swimming, rooming, serving others at the Y. M. C. A." Note the language: "Get the habit"—not come once, nor come twice, but get the habit. Habit is obtained by practice, and Dr. Frank Crane says that habit is much safer than rule and is much more important in our lives. By practice we may make our habits what we will. Now is the time to begin forming our habits, for the college year.

The first habit for us to consider is that of our attitude toward our university. Frequently repeated but none too often assimilated is the saying that our school is what we make it. Willamette spirit is a matter of habit. When we all have the habit of giving our attendance and our enthusiasm to the college activities, whether athletic, social or intellectual, that spirit rises to its full strength and glory. The habit of pride in our institution and of happiness in our every day incidents adds the real zest to college life.

Get the habit of sociability. Four years of campus life give wonderful possibilities in the line of human relationship. Daily contact with ambitious youth and with wise maturity offer inexhaustible mines of that precious jewel, friendship. Get the habit of rubbing elbows and exchanging chat with the students, not with some of the students but with all of the students, for they bring pep, variety of interest, and merriment. Cultivate the professors, for they bring a sense of judgment, a broadened perspective and hours of entertainment. A friendly greeting on the campus may have all the cheer of a rainbow.

Get the prepared lesson habit. If a student starts school life on the school year with no other thought than to always study his lessons, he will soon find that the habit of daily preparation is a part of his life. When all the other tasks of campus life come swirling along, this habit only adds to the zest, for the wedging of study periods into a busy schedule is a game by itself. And how saving such a habit is on the just-before-exams rush!

Get the habit of support. Support athletics, support class and society, support the Christian associations, support all college life. When the Bearcats are turned loose on field or floor, let us get the habit of thinking victory. We have long heard much of the marvelous works of faith, and faith is just as killful on a college campus as elsewhere.

WILLAMETTE TRADITION

Must Be Observed by All Freshmen and By Upperclassmen

The following resolutions were passed upon by the student body last June, and are here printed for the benefit of new students.

The freshman class, being the lowest of the four classes of the university, shall at all times maintain a proper conduct, respect to upper classes and a regard for the traditions of the school. On entering Willamette University, the student is placed on his honor to abide by these traditions. The student is to accept these in a friendly manner and not to show an antagonistic spirit if he is reminded that he is not complying with them.

1. All freshman boys shall wear green caps in accordance with green cap regulations.

2. The senior bench is to be occupied by seniors only.

3. The freshman class has not the right to place numerals on the grandstand until after the bag rush, and not then unless they win. The right may also be obtained or lost by the freshman-sophomore football game. If the freshmen win they have the right to leave or place their numerals on the grandstand, but if they lose they must remove them. In case of a tie the game is lost for the freshmen and won by the sophomores. The same rule is in force in regard to basketball.

4. Daubing the numerals of the three upper classes or the placing of numerals or signs about the campus is strictly out of custom.

5. The freshman class shall challenge the sophomores to a bag rush to take place in the third week after the beginning of school. The rules for the same are to be made by the coach.

6. Hazing shall cease after the bag rush.

7. Freshmen shall take part in all school activities; and in athletics according to interclass rivalry rules.

8. Freshmen are expected to do their share of campus and athletic field work.

9. Willamette expects an enthusiastic attendance at athletic sports and school activities.

10. Freshmen shall not loiter in hallways or on the front steps of Eaton Hall.

11. In accordance with Freshman Glee rules, the freshman class shall challenge the other classes to a glee.

12.—It is the custom for all students and alumni of Willamette to stand when the "Ode to Willamette" is sung.

13. For violations of these traditions the freshman class shall punish their own culprits.

Green Cap Regulations Will Soon Be Enjoyed

Section 1. All freshman boys shall don green caps not later than the third Monday after the opening of the school year.

Section 2. Green caps shall be Rule 1.—That no woman shall wear white in the city of Salem.

Section 3. The freshman class shall discard their green caps publicly at the May Day festival, making the discarding of the caps the subject of an original stunt.

Section 4. It is further recommended that the two upper classes be made the final court of appeals for any difficulties arising over the carrying out of the rules laid down.

Style, fit, finish and quality characterize Mosher's Salem made, all-wool suits for men and women.—Adv.

WOMEN'S INTER-SOCIETY RULES

The three young women's societies have adopted the following rules:

Rule I.—That each society shall hold its reception and each new woman shall have an opportunity to attend each society at least once, and not more than twice, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Rule V.—That there shall be an be invited to join a society, either by verbal or written invitation, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Rule III.—That each woman answer in writing.

Rule IV.—That an inter-society council be established to consist of two members from each society to be appointed by the presidents of the respective societies at the last business meeting of the school year.

Rule V.—That there shall be an additional member of the council, a faculty lady, elected by the council.

Rule VI.—That the duty of the council shall be to decide all inter-society matters. Its decisions shall be final.

Rule VII.—That these rules shall be published in the Handbook and the first issue of the Collegian.

The marriage of Elma Ohling to Mr. Schilling at the bride's home in Albany was another event of the summer. Many will remember Miss Ohling, '16, sister of Merrill Ohling, '19. Miss Ohling belonged to the Philodorian society.

DR. AVISON QUILTS SALEM

Pastor of Long Association Answers Call to Spokane Work

Much regret was expressed among Willamette students and faculty when the announcement was made that Dr. Richard N. Avison, pastor of the first Methodist church would not be returned for the coming year. The first church has always had a large number of university students in attendance, and as its pastor Dr. Avison has always been on the best of terms with them. It is the consensus of opinion that it will be a difficult undertaking to secure another man of Dr. Avison's ability.

Dr. Avison has been in Salem for some 10 years. During that time he has always cooperated heartily in every religious undertaking which the university has attempted. Pres. Doney says that he could always be depended on and always, like a cat, got there on both feet.

It is one of Dr. Avison's favorite sayings that two-thirds of his life as a pastor has been spent in a university church. Before coming to Salem he spent 10 years with the Methodist church at Hamlin, which is a suburb of St. Paul, Minn. While pastor there he had most of the students of Hamlin University in his charge. He became closely connected with student activities and won for himself a warm place in the hearts of the students.

Dr. Avison goes to St. Paul's church, Spokane, which is considered by many to be the finest church in the Columbia River conference. He has been receiving congratulations from all sides, the everyone is very sorry to see him go. Dr. Doney expressed the sentiment of the entire church when he said, "Salem has always been generous. Spokane needs help."

As yet it has not been officially announced who is to succeed Dr. Avison. It is understood that several men are under consideration, and whichever one is selected the church is assured of a very able man.

A farewell reception was given last Wednesday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Avison. They left Friday afternoon for Spokane.

which has given to Willamette the prestige of the "best school in the West." So much is this true, according to Prof. Erickson, that without any reservation, he has agreed with those of his friends, who were entirely disinterested in the school, that Willamette is a school whose standards are unusual and his word for describing such standards was "good." Prior to his professorship in the U. of I. he taught in Rigdon College of Wisconsin. For six months he headed an educational corp of the army in France. He is a graduate of Wabash College, located at Wabash, Indiana. His post-graduate work was taken at the University of Chicago, Harvard and Stanford. His purpose this year is to offer a practical course in educational work, not only supplementing Dr. Sherman's work but dealing with this department with a view to every day practical applications. Now everybody ought to say "Hello" to Professor Erickson.

And then there is that unassuming person—Don't you like her? So. And the difficult task of sharing a part of the work of that dear, beloved, heretofore overburdened professor of modern language, will surely be not nearly so difficult after you have known her. And the first of her name is Helen I. Just between you and me, "I" stands for Irene and Miss Helen I. Hanna will instruct in Spanish II and German. She comes here from Epworth, Iowa, and formerly she taught in Florida. Now here is a little secret—she thinks the faculty is very good and the campus lovely. Did you ever stop to think that this is very near the truth? So students of old Willamette, Miss Helen I. (Irene) Hanna has been formally announced.

Now Professor Emory W. Hobson comes from the Cincinnati College of Music where he graduated with distinction, receiving the Springer gold medal, and his delight is a "singing student body." Willamette has it and Professor Hobson is delighted. Our music department is ably headed. And can he sing? Well, did you hear him in our opening chapel? Get acquainted with our singing professor.

Society

The new school year of 1920-21 has opened. It is sure to be one full of new experiences and good times for us all. During the next few weeks there will be many social events to attract our attention. The Epworth League reception has come and gone; it was a grand success. But the Y. M. C. A. reception, Chestnut Farm picnic and various other events of equal importance are still to come. To all the old students I would say, let us make it our chief aim at these functions to get acquainted with the newcomers at Willamette—to give them a taste of the true spirit of Willamette social life the first thing. The society column takes this opportunity to extend a welcome and cheery greeting to the class of 1921!

The annual Epworth League reception was held at the First M. E. church last Friday night. The registrar reports a large enrollment on that night. After all had registered, the leaders of the various groups conducted the students to their classes as scheduled. The classes in M. B. V. and modern drama were particularly popular. It may be stated here that those who failed to take the course in abnormal metaphysics missed a rare treat, as this course is not given every year. After classes were over, the student body assembled for a student feed.

When leaving the building each student was presented with a miniature diploma. Be sure to read the contents of this valuable souvenir and take advantage of its invitation! Great credit should be given to Miss Mildred Garrett for the success of this reception.

One evening during August, Marjorie and Paul Flegel entertained at their home in Portland, a group of old Willamette people and prospective students. The evening was one of typical W. U. jollity. Old students present were Sibyl Smith, Evelyn Gordon, Helen Hoover, Mildred Hargrove, Mildred Wells, Laura Ruggles, Iris Chenoweth, Lorlei Blatchford and the host and hostess.

The Beta Chi sorority wish to announce that Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards will reside at their house the coming year.

Several of our W. U. young women are going to Oregon this year. Among these are Mary Jane Albert, Helen Rose, and Florence Cartwright. We shall miss them all and especially will our former society editor be missed by this column.

The Beta Chi sorority welcome as new members of their house Miss Mabel Stanford '22, Cashmere, Washington; Miss Winifred St.

Clair, '23, Gresham, Ore.; Miss Pauline Rickli, '23, Spring Garden, Calif.

The following have been visitors at the Beta Chi house: Miss Ruth Hill, Vancouver, Wash.; Miss Margaret McDaniel, Portland, Ore.; Miss Verletta Gowdy, Boise, Idaho, and Miss Zelma Knipfburg, Boise, Idaho.

One of the many weddings that took place during the summer was that of Miss Laura Shipley. The wedding of Miss Shipley and Dr. Stanley of Portland, took place on July 4. The couple spent their honeymoon of several weeks in the mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley are now at home to their friends at their new home on Council Crest. Miss Shipley was a popular member of the class of '23. She was secretary of the college Y. W. C. A., a member of the Adelante Literary society and of the Beta Chi sorority.

Willamette students will be interested in the wedding of Mr. Williston, of football fame, and Miss Alma Rhorer, W. U. '22, which took place in Silverton June 24, 1920. Mrs. Vinson has returned to school this semester and Mr. Vinson is expected later.

Miss Marjory Cable, Lois Nebergall and Irene Pratt, are house guests of the Delta Phi's until Lausanne Hall is ready for occupancy.

Floyd McIntyre, Orla Thomas and Edwin Noren were Sunday evening callers at the Delta Phi house.

Miss Annelles Packenham, ex-'21, was in Salem over the week-end. Miss Packenham is on her way to Los Angeles to enter the University of Southern California.

The Chresto societies are rejoicing over the completion of the fireplace in their halls.

Miss Martha Ferguson has returned to school and will live in Lausanne hall this year.

Miss Lella Ruby is ill at her home in Gresham, but she expects to return to school next week.

Miss Annelles Packenham, Miss Myrtle Mason and Miss Virginia Mason were guests for tea Sunday evening at the Delta Phi house.

The Alpha Psi Deltas are pleased to announce the election of the following officers for the coming year: Tinkham Gilbert, president; Noble Moodhe, vice president; Elmer Strevey, secretary; Howard George, treasurer; Hubert Wilken, manager; Orlo Gillett, assistant manager. The Alpha Psi Deltas are comfortably ensconced in their house at 940 Mill street, more commonly recognized as Roselawn.

In accord with their old pep, originality, and putting things over, the members of the Black Sheep class held a jolly reunion at the home of Winnifred Eyre, last Wednesday night. The evening was spent in re-enacting the outstanding events of three previous college years.

After this, their much loved scratch list was used in obtaining partners for dainty refreshments; then college songs concluded the evening.

Another wedding which will be of interest to Willamette students is that of Mr. Barrett Lockhart and Miss Grace Oth, which took place in St. Johns, Wash., June 19, last. Miss Crystal Lockhart and Mr. Frank Bennett were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart are making their home on the Lockhart ranch in St. Johns.

Miss Grace Farrar was the guest of Miss Muriel Steeves last week. She was on her way to attend the University of Idaho.

On August 25, at the home of her aunt, in Forest Grove, Miss Irene Hall became the wife of Mr. Harold Pedersen. The Reverend Hiram Gould, a former pastor of Miss Hall's, officiated. Miss Evelyn DeMoss sang "Oh, Promise Me." The bride was attended by Miss Ethel Moore.

The following clipping from the Spokane Spokesman-Review of August 25 will be of interest to Willamette students:

WILLAMETTE U.

REUNION LUNCHEON

A reunion luncheon was held yesterday noon at Culbertson's by students of Willamette University. Miss Hortense Harrild and Miss Margaret Lynn arranged the affair and a number of clever toasts were given under the direction of Miss Dean Hutton.

Guests at the luncheon were: Miss Faerie Wallace, Miss Gladys Brodie, Miss Mildred Strevey, Miss Elsie Gilbert, Miss Marian Armstrong, Miss Bertha Harrild, Miss Hortense Harrild, Miss Mand Holland, Miss Dean Hutton, Miss Mildred Lawson, Miss Mary Elizabeth Hunt, Miss Margaret Lynn and Mrs. Haight.

Among the guests entertained at Seaside this summer by Miss Muriel Steeves were Miss Bruce Putnam, Miss Margaret Legge and Miss Charlotte Croisan.

Soon after commencement this summer came the tidings of the marriage of Miss Mary Putnam, '19, to Mr. Howard Mort, ex-'21. The Reverend H. T. Green of Lewiston, Idaho, officiated. After a wedding trip to the coast Mr. and Mrs. Mort made their home in Salem for the remainder of the summer. At present they have moved to the Columbia River conference where Mr. Mort will do ministerial work.

The Live Wire class of Leslie Methodist Episcopal church held their annual reunion banquet at the home of their teacher, Mr. A. C. Bohmstedt in Fairmount park. At the beginning of every school year the members of the class and their friends assemble for a rousing good time. The day started with the class devotions at the church. The rapid growth of the class in the past few years was exemplified by the extraordinary large attendance, there being nearly 200 present. The morning worship at 11 was especially for the Live Wires. After the services were concluded the class hurried to Fairmount Park where a picnic luncheon was served to 150 people. Several new ways of getting acquainted were introduced and in a short time all were greeting each other in the familiar way so well known to the Willamette students.

A wedding of interest to all their many school friends was that of Miss Ethel Fogg and Mr. Harold A. Dintek, which took place at the bride's home near Dayton, on Monday, July 5. The ceremony was performed in a woody spot near the home place, and the assembly of the many relatives and college friends added a beautiful touch to the scene.

John Medler acted as best man while the Varsity quartet furnished music for the occasion. The bride was a member of the class of '21.

Her many friends, while regretting her necessary absence, wish her much happiness. "Dim" is too well known to require description and his splendid record with the class of '20 speaks ably for itself. The couple are making their home in Tillamook where the groom is engaged as athletic coach in the high school.

One of the society affairs of the summer of interest to many students was the marriage of Miss Fannie McKennon of LaGrande to Leland R. Sackett of Eugene. Both parties are alumni of Willamette. Mr. Sackett graduating in 1915 and Miss McKennon in the class of 1918.

Only the immediate friends and relatives were present at the wedding which took place at LaGrande, Sunday evening, August 15. Misses Ruby and Eva Ledbetter acted as bridesmaids and Vernon Sackett was best man for the occasion. The couple have made their new home in Eugene, where Mr. Sackett holds a good position with the Southern Pacific company.

Another wedding of former Willamette students, known to many of those here now, was that of Homer Tasker and Ruth Winters at the home of the bride in Caldwell, Idaho, June 23. After the wedding, the happy couple motored to California where they are making their home. Ruth Winters, '16, and Homer Tasker, '19, were both prominent Phils while at Willamette.

Miss Freda Campbell, W. U. '20, left last week for New York City. After spending four or five days there as the guest of Mrs. Helen Goltra Bagley, W. U. '19, Miss Campbell will embark with other American students for France. Miss Campbell is one of the nineteen American college women elected to scholarships by the French department of education. Until she arrives in that country Miss Campbell will not know to which Lycee she will be sent. While attending Willamette she was a very popular member of the Adelante Literary Society and was a charter member of the Beta Chi sorority.

Those theatergoers of Salem who last season enjoyed the performance of Harold Vermilye as John Paul Bart in the delightful comedy, "A Tailor Made Man," will have another chance to see this young actor in an entirely new role on Monday evening, September 27, at the Grand Opera House. Mr. Vermilye will be seen in Geo. Cohan's production of "The Acquittal," the drama which enjoyed long runs in Chicago and New York last season. As Joe Conway, the cub reporter, Mr. Vermilye has for his associate Marie Louise Walker, Charles L. Douglass, Keran Cripps, Mildred Southwick, Will T. Goodwin, John E. Sanders, Harriet Mayfield and others of prominent theater position in the theater world.

What promises to be one of the really big moving pictures of the season is scheduled for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday when "Humoresque," featuring Alma Rubens, will be offered to the public. Press reports throughout the country have been exceedingly enthusiastic over the picture and theatergoers everywhere have lauded it as a great success. Advertised as a photoplay of merit, there is moreover, something above the ordinary to be gained from "Humoresque." Strong pathos, mother love, and a touch of comedy combine to give the picture the human interest attributes of a truly good play.

PROFESSOR RICHARDS WILL STAY AT HOME

To Teach Composition While New Vice President Finds Work With Finances

With the election of Dr. T. E. Elliott to the position of vice president of the university, Professor E. C. Richards has been released from the duties of field secretary and is doing active work in instruction in the College of Liberal Arts. Professor Richards is in the English department at the head of the work in composition. Besides the classes in freshman composition, he is offering a course in advanced composition which has drawn a large number from the three upper classes as this work has been lacking for several years.

Dr. Elliott, who will shoulder the financial cares of the university with his new position of vice president, will make his home in Portland. Dr. Elliott comes from a pastorate in Bellingham, Wash., where he has done well in starting the church out upon a road to financial success.

Meanwhile, Dean Frances M. Richards, who has taken freshman composition as a part of her work during the past two years, will now be released and enabled to devote all her time to new Lausanne and its occupants.

Twenty-four Freshmen Hold W. U. Scholarships

This year in the freshman class there are 24 who have received Willamette scholarships. For the past three or four years Willamette has been making an annual offer of these scholarships. The following is a list of the freshmen who hold them this year: Isabel Clawson, Joseph, Paul Wright, Grants Pass; Velma Shubert, Athena; Alice Dow, McMinnville; Phyllis Palmer, Woodburn; George Oliver, Pomeroy, Wash.; Sallie McKirdy, Drain; Oury Hisey, St. Helens; Harold Regille, Canby; William Fox, Fossil; Walter Boyer, Bethel (Rickreall); Howard Nottage, Newberg; Robert Notson, Salem; Willis Sargent, Emmett, Idaho; Ernest Aegerin, Stayton; Rosa Fredenburg, Coquille; Helen Dark, Hood River; Aster Moore, Seaside; Margaret McDaniel, Washington High, Portland; Vashti Johnson, Franklin High, Portland; Irene Brainerd, Marshfield; Olive Merry, Scotts Mills; Anna Lavender, Weston; Wilma Rayburn, Lind, Wash.

With the registration books open for one week the enrollment has now reached 374. Many old students who purpose to return are still absent, and these together with late newcomers, should bring the number of students to the top of the 400 mark in a few weeks.

CHAPEL IS DAILY

Waller Hall Again Open for Daily Exercises; Dean of Music Sings First Day

Announced by the first toll of the historic bell in Waller hall, for more than 35 years, the first student gathering of the year took place in the new chapel Thursday morning. Despite the rather unfinished atmosphere of the room, Willamette spirit reigned supreme and with the first notes of the familiar songs, the chapel room, deserted since last year's fire, was rechristened as a place for all chapel gatherings in the future.

While the room is not completely finished, enough is done to predict a hall of much more size and attractiveness than the one of former years. The offices on the side have been removed giving way for wings on either side of the main seating space. Students found the familiar old benches but assurance is given that these are but temporary and will soon be replaced by more comfortable opera chairs.

Students noticed with pleasure the new additions to the faculty, and Prof. Hobson's novel introduction was greatly enjoyed by every person present. He chose for his first number "The Trumpeter" and gave as a second selection a negro spiritual song. As dean of the school of music, Prof. Hobson promises to be very satisfactory, for his own musical ability is of high quality and he possesses a personality that both pleases and attracts.

Dr. Doney welcomed all the students to the new year of school life, giving a particular greeting to the freshmen. He emphasized the real responsibility of a college opportunity, declaring that no student will obtain more from a college education than he put into the school through his own endeavor.

The advertisers make the paper. Every student must reciprocate.

Seniors Choose Flegel and Sophs Pick George

Seniors and sophomores held their respective class elections after chapel Tuesday, with the results that Paul Flegel wields the senior gavel and Howard George leads the sophomores. Each class elected a goodly number of officers in a short time.

Senior office holders are: President, Paul Flegel; vice president, Marguerite Cook; secretary, Mary Notson; treasurer, Raymond Rarey; athletic manager, Loren Basler; forensic manager, Frank Bennett; member of interclass rivalry committee, Rein Jackson; sergeant-at-arms, Winifred Eyre.

Juniors First to Elect Officers for New Year

Juniors headed the line in the matter of class elections and enrolled themselves under a new regime at a class meeting held Monday noon. The new officers are: President, Sheldon Sackett; vice president, Emma Shanafelt; secretary, Marjorie Minton; treasurer, Bryan McKittick; sergeant-at-arms, Lester Day; athletic manager, Hugh Doney; forensic manager, John Luckner; member of interclass rivalry committee, Ramon Dimick.

Mr. Raymond Schmalke had as his guests for dinner Monday evening, at the Kappa Gamma Rho house Messrs. Loren Basler and Benjamin Rickli from Sigma Tau; Herbert Wilken and Tinkham Gilbert from Alpha Psi Delta, Bernard Ramsey and Raymond Gansians from Pi Kappa Phi, and Dean Pollock of Kappa Gamma Rho.

leave big holes to be filled. "Bill" Vinson, one of last year's most dependable ends, expects to return to school, but his long period of illness will likely prohibit his participation in any athletics for the present season, at least.

A tentative schedule has been drawn up by Coach Matthews, but the only certainty is the Thanksgiving battle with Whitman, which will be played on Sweetland field. The alumni eleven will probably test the Bearcat strength on October 2 in the season's opening contest. Other institutions which have spoken for games are Chemawa Indian school, Reed College, Pacific University, and the College of Puget Sound, all of which were trounced by the university eleven last fall and are coming back for vengeance this year. The dates for these battles have not yet been set, and it is likely that in addition to them, one or two other gridiron contests will be arranged. At any rate, the student body is promised an exceptionally good schedule for 1920.

Vern Bain, '23, has been nominated by Coach Matthews for the position of athletic manager, and has taken over the duties of his office. The nomination will likely be ratified by the executive committee in its first session next week.

The letter reassures us that no one can regret that the gift was directed as it was. Willamette students should keep the work of Mr. Bisbee in mind, and pray that God will make it effective in giving light and life to the peoples of India.

Men's Glee Club Holds Trials

Tryouts for membership in this year's glee club were held Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Professor Hobson in Music hall. Vacancies are limited this year, as not many of the old members are lost. A meeting of last year's members was called by McGrew on Monday to consider prospects and to make plans for the coming year.
