TAXATION EXEMPTION LITIGATION OBJECT

Papers Filed With Court Which Will Try to Obtain Dropping From Tax Polls

TEST CASE INSTITUTED

Local Fraternity Used as Ex- ample in Test Case Backed by Combined Fraternities

With the filing of papers last Tuesday at the Marion county court house was begun a test case to see whether or not sorority and fraternity houses should be exempt from taxation. The suit will be officially known as Kappa Gamma Rho against Marion county, O. D. Bower, county sheriff, and O. A. Steinhilber, county assessor. The suit asks an injunction prohibiting the collection of taxes levied against the fraternity property.

The suit is a test case instituted by the fraternities of the University of Oregon and Willamette University. Oregon State fraternal groups may support the suit.

The basis for the contention that fraternity properties should be exempt from taxation rests on basis that the fraternity is organized and incorporated on a non-profit basis and that its benevolent and charitable purposes give it a right to the same exemption enjoyed by churches, lodges, colleges, and similar organizations.

The alumni of the fraternities are supporting the project. Willamette representatives on the committee which has been pushing the move are Clarence Phillips, Sigma Tau; Harold Aiken, Alpha Psi Delta; and Robert Notson, Kappa Gamma Rho. The suit if it were successful would mean about $250 less in the expense of the fraternity named in the suit and would mean a similar result in the case of the other fraternities and sororities on the campus.

That the suit will eventually be taken to the Oregon Supreme court is anticipated by the backers of the suit. Local attorneys with the assistance of two legal firms in Portland are handling the suit.

PROF. MATHEWS DELIVERS COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Demand For Veteran Willamette In- structor to Speak at Graduating Exercises Great

With the coming of the commencement season, Professor James T. Mathews is nearly deluged with appointments, as evidenced by his schedule of addresses which began last Friday evening when he made the commencement address for the 1928 graduating class of the Woodland, Washington, High School.

Professor Mathews was very much pleased to find that the Woodland High School had a class of seventeen. He says that the people gave him a good time. His next appointment is to preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class at Chemawa next Sunday evening. On May 31st the Stuyton High School commencement address will be delivered by Professor Mathews. Other addresses which he is scheduled to make are: June 5, commencement, Jefferson, Oregon, grade school; June 7, commencement at Rickerd High school.

The demand for Professor Mathews as a speaker is always great, and especially at this time of the year.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION ADOPTS NEW STATEMENT

Restatement of Principles of Organi- zation Resents From Sacra- mento Assembly

A new statement of the purpose of the student Y. W. C. A. was adopted by the National Student Assembly in its meeting in Sacramento. The statement which was passed his the basis for membership of all student Y. W. C. A. organizations. The purpose is stated as follows:

"We, the members of the Young Women's Christian Association, unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

"We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

"In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him."

Four elements indispensable to such a purpose are included here—fellowship, search, worship and moral struggle.

This purpose gives an incentive for action and is intended to be an individual and social challenge.

GOOD OLD DAYS RECALLED BY SEARCH INTO RECORDS

Many Changes in Standards of Pro- priety Made Since the Period of 1881

If the next forty years produce as many changes as the last equal length of time the descendants of the present class of 1928 will have to employ a dictionary on obsolete words to discover the meaning of the term "chaperone". Lura Morgan who has done considerable research on the early history of Willamette has found many interesting incidents from the faculty records in the year 1881.

A system of demerits was at that time exceedingly popular. One girl was indefinitely suspended for carrying on a "secret" correspondence but because her conduct seemed to the faculty to indicate "true repentance and an earnest desire to reform" she was allowed to return to school and given two demerits. A certain lad was suspended for giving "mock programs" of the Hesperian and Cordia Societies.

In the library no student was allowed to take any book from the shelf or return it to the shelf. On Friday of each week records had to be handed in by each student concerning Sabbath observance and study hours; these were signed by the parents. Demerits were given for boisterous conduct in the hall.

Rules in the Hall would have sent the present co-ed out of the window. Visitors were allowed only on Saturday afternoon and no washing could be done in the hall. The girls might build fires in their own rooms on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Editor of the College Journal was "respectfully and earnestly" requested "to desist from calling the attention of our students to the traffic in tobacco and cigarettes."

In that day there was such a thing as class room etiquette. Ladies went out of classes first (hard on couples). No lounging, whispering or prompting was allowed after entrance into a class room.

Each student had to present either before his literary society or before a member of the faculty one declamation, one essay, one select reading and one additional oration or essay each year. This explains the importance of the literary societies. Once each term the minutes of each society were read before the school.

Spelling was considered an art and spelling tests actually took place.

APPROVAL WELCOMES FIRST PRESENTATION

"The Master Builder" Success- fully Presented Before Silverton Audience

PLAY GREATLY SHORTENED

Drama Will Be Given Tomorrow Night at 8:00 O'clock in Capital Theatre

Undivided interest and enthusiastic applause were the tributes paid to the Theta Alpha Phi production of Ibsen's great drama "The Master Builder" in Silverton Monday evening.

Willamette students under the direction of Dr. J. O. Hall have been working on the play for several weeks. The manner in which it was presented in the Eugene Field auditorium fully justifies their efforts. Each member of the cast did excellently, each character seeming to fit his role in dominant thought, action and emotion.

Everything possible has been done to get more action into the play and yet allow it to retain its great dramatic value. Dr. Hall has cut twenty-six pages out of the play, and thus shortened the production time to two hours. These cuts have improved rather than injured the drama, since the omission of longer speeches has allowed the plot to be speeded up. Cheap movies with sensational thrills have spoiled the taste of the public for long dramatic monologues.

According to Dr. Hall the climax which comes in the third act is especially strong, and this final climax is a great contrast of action as compared to the former dialogues.

The play is to be presented again tomorrow night at the Capitol theatre. The management of the theatre has given the players an exceptionally good contract. Professor Rurhyn Turnay has graciously offered his orchestra for the evening. The orchestra will play from 7:30 until 8:00 when the curtain will rise. Long waits between acts have been eliminated.

The realism in the play is simple and easy to follow, and should appeal to many classes of audience.

MISS FRANCES RICHARDS RETURNS FOR VACATION

Work During Past Year at University of California Found Interesting

Dean of women, arrived in Salem more than a week ago to spend the summer with Prof. and Mrs. Ernest C. Richards.

During the past year Miss Richards has been teaching Freshman composition and studying at the University of California. Her study has been directed towards a doctor of philosophy degree. She says that she has found her study very enjoyable. Working in the library which contains over 700,000 volumes has been especially delightful.

In being interviewed Miss Richards says that although her year has been very happy and profitable and that she has found the change in routine inspirational, she has missed Willamette and her friends here. When she first reached Berkeley she says that she remembers suffering from as bad a case of homesickness as when she first went away from home to college. Now that she has returned to Salem she feels much like a graduate returning to her Alma Mater.

Miss Richards does not believe that California is superior to Oregon. She finds qualities in each state which are commendable. As for college students it is her opinion that they are much the same everywhere. Looking back over her Willamette life she considers the friendships formed between professors and students the outstanding feature of Willamette life.

Miss Richards plans to spend the entire summer in Salem, visiting, resting, and enjoying her vacation.

SERVICE ORGANIZATION SELECTS NEW MEMBERS

The Blue Key Fraternity recently elected ten new members. They are: Gernie Cranon, Frank Lombard, George Poor, Frank Van Dyke, Kenneth Vannice, John Versteeg, Wilburn Swafford, Wayne Welch, Frank Alfred, and Harold Shellhart.

Blue Key is a national service fraternity composed of upper classmen. The requirements for membership are all around good scholarship, service to the university, high moral standing and personality.

ACTIVITIES FOUND ASSET TO TEACHING APPLICANTS

Schools Desire New Instructors Who Can Direct Activities as Well as Teach

The new high school teacher, "What does she teach?" in order that she may have the opportunity to cram the craniums of dozens of rebellious students of high school age with Latin, English, and Mathematics? And how little do these students—in name—care for such things in comparison to other possible centers of their interests? Some of the more studious do take up debate. Others are attracted by dramatics, social features, and list of all and most notable, athletics. Where do we get this information? From the Willamette University Teacher's Placement Bureau. Dean Frank Morton Erickson says that the greatest demand for teachers is for those who can work with extra-curricular activities as well as with the usual teaching courses.

SEABECK CONFERENCE ASSOCIATION OBJECT

Local Campus Y Has Goal of 15 Signing Up to Intercollegi- ate Convention

From June 9, to June 18 about fifteen Willamette men will enjoy the Seabeck conference, held every year at Seabeck, Washington under the auspices of the student council of the Y. M. C. A. If anyone is doubtful of the fun of the conference, a look at the circular will convince him that there will be plenty to keep the mind occupied at least.

This year the conference is particularly fortunate in having a very exceptional group of speakers. The director of the conference is Dean U. G. Dubach of O. S. C. He will be the speaker on the everyday problems of the college man. Another speaker who will play an important part in the discussion of the conference will be Dr. George Stewart of an Oregon man and a graduate of Linfield college. Dr. Stewart is at present associate pastor of Madison Avenue Presbyterian church, New York. Dr. Stewart is a man of wide experience, having traveled extensively in Europe since his graduation from the law school of Yale. After spending two years studying in Europe, he has devoted his time to writing and is the author of several books that have won national recognition. He will conduct the Evening Vesper services that will be held every evening at sunset on the hills that rise behind Seabeck. Dr. Stewart's topic will be "Foundations of Christian Belief."

J. Stitt Wilson, former mayor of Berkeley, California, will be the speaker of foreign relations and will be a very competent speaker because he has spent the last year in Europe studying the present conditions. Stitt Wilson has a record of long service with labor and belongs to that group known as Christian. SEABECK CONFERENCE cont'd.

A speaker that will be of interest because of his collegiate career is for no other reason is A. J. "Dad" Elliott. He is associate secretary of the student division, National Council of the Young Men's Christian Associations. Formerly he was a football star at Northwestern University.

Some of the other speakers will be: Arthur Hugh of China, Secretary, Foreign Division of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian Associations. Rev. William Young, University Pastor and Professor, University of Montana. John H. Rudd, Town and County Secretary, Northwest Council of Young Men's Christian Associations. Lewis G. Bates, Secretary for Physical and Industrial Work, Northwest Council of Young Men's Christian Associations. Rev. Monroe G. Everett, Student Pastor, Oregon State College. Francis Benson, Chairman, National Council of Student Associations. Willamette is particularly interested in the instructor of Bible study this year, who is Professor Herman Clark.

The conference topics for each day will be as follows: Down religion make a difference; Our Educational System; Personal Problems; The Labor Question; International Relations; The Missionary Enterprise; Modern Industrial Relations; The Church Present and Future; The Resources of Jesus.

"Jim Hietto is the student chairman of the conference. The quota for Willamette is fifteen and every effort is being made to sign up men for the conference. Discussion groups will take up good share of the time of the conference but the lectures and supervised discussion there will be

WILLIS NOMINATION MADE BY PRESIDENTS

Louise Nunn, Eugenia Savage, and Kenneth McCormick Nominated For Prize

RICCO ALBERT WINNER

Faculty Announces Approval of Nominations Made by Presi- dents of Four Classes

Rosa Ricco was elected as choice of the Associated Student Body for the annual Albert Prize, intended for the student who, opportunities being considered, has made the greatest progress toward the ideal of character, service, and wholesome influence.

The student choice for the Colonel Willis Prize is to be made soon also. The nominations for this award, as announced yesterday, are Louise Nunn, Eugenia Savage, and Kenneth McCormick, all of Salem. This honor is to be made "to the student who throughout the school year has done the most real good to fellow students and the University by deeds of kindness and genuine helpfulness, coupled with steadfast devotion to high ideals and upright character."

Louise Nunn has played an important part in campus activities throughout her four years here. In athletics her major interest has been in tennis. For her participation in this field she is to be awarded a W-blanket. She has been actively associated with Y. W. C. A. work, having served on the cabinet of that organization for three years. She has served in various capacities in the First Presbyterian church and as secretary of the Student Body, she has also served on the Executive Committee throughout the past year.

Eugenia Savage has found her main interest in the fields of music and religious work. She is a member of the Beethoven Society and serves in many capacities as a musician and religious worker in the various young people's organizations in the First Methodist church. She also has been a cabinet member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Wesleyan Society.

Kenneth McCormick has had varied interests during his years in the university, having served as Manager of Freshman Glee, May Day, and Homecoming. He was editor of the Song Book and has done considerable work with the First Methodist church orchestra. He has also served in the Y. M. C. A. and is now president of both the Beethoven Society and the W-club. The election of one of these nominees will take place at the next Student Body meeting.

TENNIS TITLE AT STAKE IN NORTHWEST TOURNEY

White and Minto Represent Willa- mette on Tacoma a Court This Week-end

Willamette's representatives in the Northwest Conference tennis meet to be held this week-end at Tacoma will be Ivan White in the singles and White and Jack Minto in the doubles.

White has been out because of blood poison for the last week but should be in shape for the meet. Whitman is hoped to take the conference title unless the Willamette men show some unusual form. The Whitman first man, Oswald, should have little trouble taking the singles title, but if the Bearcat team can do the unexpected they may take the doubles title.

This is the third year of competition for the Willamette men and if they could take the title it would make the second time that the conference trophy has rested in Willamette's hands, as a result of their efforts.

Last Tuesday the Boursats administered a severe drubbing to the Pacific University men. Minto defeated Bauer 4-1, 6-3. Hagaman had no trouble with Shoen and won 6-1, 6-1. White and Minto took the doubles match in easy style 6-1, 6-1.

CONTRACT FOR COLLEGIAN COMPLETED BY MCGILVRA

Smullin With New Staff Will Publish Last Issue of Publication Next Friday

With this issue the Collegian staff completes its contract with the student body binding it to put out at least thirty editions of the paper. This paper is in reality one more than the present staff is obliged to put out for it has long been the custom for the newly elected editor and his staff to put out one issue of the paper at the close of the school year. However, by arrangement with the present staff and the student body, William Smullin, the editor of the Collegian, has the opportunity to read through the papers of the Collegian. The new editor and his staff will publish the last issue of the year for distribution on next Friday.

VICE PRESIDENT OLIVER ADVERTISES WILLAMETTE

Fifty-one Addresses and $55,000 In Pledges Are Testimonials of Year of Work

A bright smile—whether the day be sunny or rainy; a cheery "Goodmorning"; a wave of the hand. These has Vice-President George Oscar Oliver for any student he meets on the campus. He is a busy man, always hurrying along, never loitering. But like most truly busy people, he is a cheerful, happy man. And a better rooter for Willamette University there never was. At Willamette's athletic contests he is to be seen as wildly enthusiastic over a touchdown, a basket, a race won, or a home run, as the most active student. A word of encouragement from this blithe spirit awaits anyone in need of it.

Attending to Mr. Oliver's activity are the fifty-one addresses which he has made since last June, and the $55,000 in pledges which he has secured for the endowment fund of Willamette.

He must be a versatile man, for besides doing much individual friend-making for Willamette, he talks to a wide variety of audiences. From Ashland in southern Oregon to Portland on the lower Willamette, eastern Oregon and the central part of the state, and many way points between, he has spread first-hand information of the wonderful opportunities which Willamette University has to offer. Mr. Oliver is in demand as a speaker, and, no doubt, representing Willamette University with his pleasing personality, he makes a good name for her. Just last Sunday morning and evening he spoke at the Jason Lee Methodist church here in Salem. Next Friday he delivers the commencement address of the Auburn High School; and next Sunday morning he preaches the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Mill City High School. In churches, before commercial organizations, and to high school assemblies he speaks. Invaluable are the services which Mr. Oliver renders the University.

And he seems to have let the "grown-ups" know the opportunities for investments in making better men and women which Willamette tends, for through his untiring efforts the endowment fund has been swelled considerably over last year's figure. Mr. Oliver has been instrumental in collecting $64,712 which has been contributed to Willamette as a result of the Forward Movement.

There are a few positions on the managerial side remaining unfilled but the persons picked for these positions will be announced soon.

WALLULAH DISTRIBUTION TAKES PLACE NEXT WEEK

Actual Printing Work on Annual to be Completed by Printers Today

With but 15 pages of composing work to be completed on the 1928 Wallulah and less than forty pages to be printed on the press, it seems that without any unforeseen delays that the annual will be ready for distribution some time next week. The actual printing work will probably be completed today. The pages as fast as they have been printed, have been sent to the bindery to be folded and made ready for the final binding.

All students who have paid their student body dues and have not yet obtained their student body ticket are urged to secure their student body card immediately in order that they may secure their Wallulah.

OUR SWAN SONG

With this issue another staff has completed its year of work. Following this issue the "we" of this column will have behind it a new personality and possibly new ideas. Whatever the change, the Collegian will continue to exist and grow. At the thought of leaving the editorial direction of this paper there is a bit of sadness in severing connections which have been enjoyable and profitable. At the same time there is present the urge to develop and progress into bigger fields with the hope that some of the experience and knowledge acquired in this position will be of value to us. No matter what the future may hold; as for the past we can say that we have liked the job.

The Collegian this year has been edited with but one purpose in mind; namely, that it should be a newspaper in the fullest sense of the word. We have tried to learn and follow professional standards. We have acted on the belief that in adhering to those principles, established by professional journalists there would be the greatest opportunity for rendering service to the university and giving valuable training to those working on the staff.

As for the university itself, our purpose has been to support and defend it. We have worked with the sincere belief in the importance of putting out a newspaper which would represent Willamette in its true and proper light. At the same time we have striven to be constructively critical.

Any credit for the past year of achievement which may be given to the Collegian justly belongs to every member of the staff who has given loyal and consistent support throughout the entire year. This credit also includes the managerial staff, which has cooperated with editorial department in every possible way. The manner in which the faculty and administration have responded to our efforts and their interest in the Collegian has been most gratifying.

Without further adieu we pass from the scene. In obedience to the irresistible law of progress and change and with the best of wishes for our successors we retire.

THE DEBATE SITUATION

Graduation of necessity means a loss of leadership in many activities. In no place more than in debating will the loss be felt this year. Among the graduates of this year are included two men who have carried the burden in debating and oratory at Willamette for more than two years. If their departure merely meant the opening of the opportunity for the participation to a member of younger men who had been working up with the hope that they would some day be the stars in the forensic heaven, there would be no reason for comment. However, there are but two men in the student body who have worked during the past year with this object in view. At the best it seems that we can look forward to next year with a men's debate team composed of two men. There appears to be a noticeable lack of enthusiasm to turn out on the part of those who might normally be considered potential material for the debate squad.

If two men go out and win victories there is usually nothing much said. Most of us have been so thoroughly sold on the idea that victories are the necessary thing that we ignore the fact that debating takes up a large part of the time of one member of the faculty for the more important purpose of training and developing more than two men in the course of a college generation.

If such a situation is to continue, Willamette might well hire two professional debaters to represent her in argumentative contests and allow the time and money spent in this activity be turned to more productive efforts. A definite change in the situation is necessary.

VACATION AND LIFE

Get a hobby and ride it hard is good advice providing that it is taken with the proper amount of salt. Collegians as well as self centered business men can heed this suggestion with equally beneficial results.

Edward Bok has recorded the account of his visit to the workshop of Oliver Wendell Holmes and the wise words spoken by the good autocrat of the breakfast table. Dr. Holmes said, "You know I am a doctor, and this is my medicine. I believe that every man must have a hobby that is as different from his regular work as it is possible to be. It is not good for a man to work all the time at one thing. So this is my hobby. This is my change."

"... Now if you think you can learn anything from me, learn that and remember it when you are a man. Don't always keep at your business, whatever it may be. It makes no difference how much you like it."

The summer offers a great opportunity for the student to widen his horizon and awaken latent interest which will make later life productive and interesting. Vacation is a time when it is possible to discover and follow hobbies. Vacation has a more serious purpose in that it offers to the student a period in which he may experiment and try to discover his interests and talents and possibly decide the important question of his life work. Vacation has great possibilities. It can be made to pay big dividends if it is considered as an investment. Vacation ought to be made in such a manner that it will contribute to larger and fuller living.

A NORMAL COLLEGE YEAR

As we approach the close of college year it is natural for us to look back on what has taken place and strive to evaluate and make comparisons. From the standpoint of the entire college, the past year might be said to have been a normal college year devoid of any particular distinguishing qualities. Things for the most part have moved along smoothly and there has been no alarming slump in any part of the university life.

The spirit of the student body has been good. There has been continued evidence of a fine spirit and a noticeable absence of dissatisfaction. Without enumeration of the achievements of the different departments of the university activity, we can say without fearing any substantial contradiction that the past year has been one of important but not outstanding success.

In short the past year has been one of those periods which may soon be forgotten but will nevertheless have made its contribution toward the realizations of the purposes and ideals which have been cherished and built up for a period of eighty-four years.

PERSONALITY MAKE-UP STUDIED IN CONFERENCE

Possibility of Developing Personality and Correcting Faults Advanced

MADISON, WISC.—Personality is no longer a mystical quality which some persons have and some do not, and which no one can really define, Dr. A. R. Gilliland, professor of psychology at Northwestern University told scientists from forty universities at the third annual session of the Midwestern Psychological association in Madison. Today the scientist can accurately measure personality and can improve individuals who make a poor impression, the professor said.

"Common sense is probably the most important factor in personality makeup," Dr. Gilliland said. "If a man lacks just plain horse sense, he's pretty sure to have a weak personality and one which will make his associates shy away."

"The psychologist has found that aggressiveness constitutes another extremely important factor in personality makeup, and we can measure this in the laboratory. In fact, our clinics are each day attempting to measure all the personality traits and to catalog them in a manner that is useful and definite."

"People must have an interest in one another if they are to improve and grow," Dr. Gilliland said, and he emphasized the importance of a healthy interest in mankind.

"Although a pleasing appearance is an important personality factor," said Dr. Gilliland, "there must be more to a well-rounded personality than mere beauty or a matter of dress. In fact, very ugly people may have a rather pleasing personal appearance. The perfect personality must include intelligence, forcefulness, sociability and morality."

Professor Gilliland predicted that further research in psychology will enable the scientist to teach people how to develop the most successful personalities and also how to correct personality faults.

Four Out of Six Matches Won by Feminine Stars Last Saturday on Local Court

The Willamette women's net team defeated Puget Sound last Saturday in four out of six matches. The women were victorious in three of the singles matches and won one of the doubles.

Pauline Findley had little trouble with Mary Alleman and took the match in two sets 6-2, 6-3. Louise Nunn ran up against a strong opponent in Mildred Martin, and although she put up a strong fight and won the second set the Puget Sound player showed superior net work and won the last set 7-5.

Margaret Moorhouse played a good game against Betty Martin and took the match 6-1, 5-7, 6-3. Louise Findley, after losing the first set 4-6, took the next two 7-5, 6-3. In their doubles Moorhouse and Findley were not so successful as in singles and lost the match to Ralsberg and Mable Bennett 6-0, 6-2. Pauline Findley and Louise Nunn won their doubles from Alleman and Mary Martin 6-4, 6-3.

FORMER STUDENT WRITES TO FRIENDS ON CAMPUS

Chapin Completes 3 Years of Teaching in China and Will Return to U. S.

In a recent letter to friends on the Campus, Leland Chapin '25 writes that he expects to return to the United States and the Willamette campus within the coming year. Mr. Chapin, who was graduated from Willamette in 1925 as a major in philosophy, has been teaching English in Lingnan University at Canton, China, for the past three years. He has had many interesting experiences, and several that are thrilling. During the time that he has been in Canton the government has changed five times.

Mr. Chapin's contract will expire sometime this summer. He will leave immediately for Marseilles, France and will spend about four months in Europe and three in England, before he returns to the United States.

BREAKING THE MIRROR

NEW YORK, N. Y.—(By New Student Service) — College editors throughout the land are applauding the action of the Western Association of College Comics in breaking their reprint contracts with College Humor. It is generally agreed that the humorous magazine, which purports to reflect college life, has been giving a distorted view. The break was especially applauded by editors in the East, who from the first were among the few who refused to join in syndication of the content of the college comics. The Daily Nebraskan, however, holds that the fault lies primarily with the college comic editors, who published the jokes which College Humor is accused of giving too prominent display. Elimination of the objectionable jokes from the college magazines would, it says, more properly strike at the root of the evil.

LITERARY SLEUTHING

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio.—(By New Student Service)—That Andre Siegfried's popular book, "America Comes of Age," was written in English, largely by Americans, and is not a translation from the French, is the conclusion advanced by Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, president of Antioch College, in an article he wrote for the Antiochan.

Dr. Morgan bases his conjecture on internal evidence, such as "statements which show unusual first-hand knowledge of America" and certain "pepped-up" portions of the book. He suggests that Siegfried may be another Dumas who makes use of assistants and underwriters.

Recalling H. L. Mencken's comment on the book, "so good it seems almost incredible," Dr. Morgan advances the idea that the Mercury staff may have had a hand in the writing, so far as internal evidence goes.

FOR THE ELM TREES

MONTREAL, Can.—(By New Student Service)—Stephen Leacock, better known as a humorist than as professor of economics at McGill University, was hardly joking when he told University of Pittsburgh students that their Cathedral of Learning, or "high-up" building, as he calls it, is all wrong.

"I should prefer the dream life and elm trees of the old college campus to anything the Cathedral of Learning might offer," he said. "Your campus will be rubber trees on the fiftieth floor and the shaded lanes will be elevator pits."

"I have realized that the world has changed since my youth. When I first heard of the proposed design for the Cathedral of Learning I could hardly believe that so extraordinary a building would be put into actual effect. Now I begin to think that my ideals and those of the older generation will go the same path as prejudices and hates."

"But even up there on the fiftieth floor," Mr. Leacock admitted, "you will be doing characteristic work. We can, like the White Knight in 'Alice in Wonderland,' learn to think upside down if we only know how."

THE ROYAL ROAD

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. (By New Student Service)—"In America today one does not attain literary success merely by writing good literature, but by accomplishing some such feat as flying the Atlantic or going to the pole, then writing about it."

The complainant was Richard Halliburton, traveler and author, who spoke recently at the University of North Carolina. His advice to literary aspirants is: "Do not hope to add to your ability by reading the works of other writers. It is waste of time; you must write from your own rich experience and develop unaided your own style. Mingle with people, all classes, live with them, know their lives, try to feel all the emotions of men, and don't stay in one spot, move about; it is only through these things that you will acquire a true sense of values." Whitman, Puget Sound, and College of Idaho Favored to Place Above Willamette

Next Thursday, ten bearcat tracksters will leave enroute for Whitman and the Northwest conference track meet. The main stays of the Willamette squad who will go, and upon whom Coach Sparks is counting for points are: Rodgers, sprinter and weight man; McCormick, mile; Gull, sprints; French, 400 yard dash, Tweedie, hurdler; Hathaway, two mile; and Van Dyke, mile and half mile.

Of these men, Hathaway is the only man of the squad given a chance for first place. Both McCormick and Van Dyke are conceded a good chance of placing in the mile, while Rodgers in the weights also has a chance to place. The relay team composed of Tweedie, Gull, French and Rodgers, is one of the best teams ever developed at Willamette, and is hoped to give the leaders a run for their money.

From records obtained from the various track meets of the teams of the conference, Whitman has by far the best chance of copping the meet. Coach Sparks goes so far as to say that they should win with sixty points or more. Puget Sound seems to be strong enough to easily take second position, while College of Idaho appears likely as third place team. The battle for fourth place seems likely to be between Willamette, Pacific, and Linfield, with neither team having a decided advantage.

Whitman will be exceptionally strong in the hurdles, sprints, and jumping events, as well as having other men good enough for places

Woody will be back in school next year to complete his course in the law school, but he will not be eligible for conference competition since he has participated in football four years.

In the other events, C. P. S. should score their heaviest in the distance races and in the weights. College of Idaho is picked for third place because of their well balanced squad. In all events, the meet promises the best of competition, with the possibility of many new records being established.

TRACK SQUAD MAKES CREDITABLE SHOWING

Slow Meet Won by Oregon Frosh; Willamette Track Men Place Fourth

Although competing in competition considerably above Northwest conference calibre, Willamette University track men made a creditable showing in the Multnomah stadium last Saturday. The meet which was slow and interesting was won by the Oregon Frosh. The O. S. C. Rooks, Multnomah athletic club, Willamette, and Chemawa, finished in order named. Pacific University failed to show up.

The relay furnished the biggest thrill of the day. Tweedie lead off and gained a ten yard lead for Willamette. Gull and French, second and third men, capably held this lead, while Rodgers, Bearcat anchor men had little trouble in cinching the race for Willamette. It was one of the prettiest races of the day and would indicate that Willamette has an excellent chance to win at Whitman next Friday.

Hathaway, with his usual steady pace, was never pressed in the two mile event, and won with a fifty yard lead. Van Dyke upset the dope when he took third in a fast mile. McCormick, who had lead until the last lap finished fourth. Rodgers, with a throw of 40 feet, two inches, in the shot put, while placing but fourth in the meet, bettered the Willamette record by more than a foot. With another year of experience, Fred gives promise of being one of the best weight men in the Northwest conference.

Three new men won letters in this meet. Bill Tweedie, 440 yard dash man and hurdler, ran in the winning relay team to win his letter.

Van Dyke, by taking third in the mile also won his right to wear the 'W' sweater. French was the other man to make his track letter. He ran as third man in the relay team. After the meet, Coach Sparks treated the men to a supper and a show, the last bit of entertainment to be indulged in before the conference meet at Whitman this Friday.

LAST YEAR OF PLAY FINISHED BY 6 MEN

Zeller, McCormick, Oberson, Hermann Graduate; Winslow and Woodworth Play 4 Years

Six men have participated, fought, and won for Willamette for their last time. Four of these men will be lost by graduation and two are taking a five year course but have already participated the four years allowed.

Ted Zeller finishes a colorful career as an athlete. He was out for football four years making three letters. He was out for basketball for three years making the all-star intra mural selection at center for three years. Ted also was out for three years and made two letters.

Kenneth McCormick went out for track his Junior year and made his letter in the mile run and the two mile. This year he has made his letter in the mile and the half. Kenneth has by his persistent practice made a valuable track man out of himself when prior to his Junior year he had no athletic development whatever.

Lawrence Winslow, the yell king for next year, has participated in football for four years making his letter the last three years. He has also been out for basketball and track for three years but has not made his letter in either. Buck always been small in stature but he has made up for it by his everlasting fight. After the 108 to 0 defeat at the hands of the University of Washington fans were heard to remark that Buck was the 'whole defense of his team in that he had made more than three-fourths of the tackles.

Woodworth has played on the football team for four years. His weight has always proved a bulwark in defense. For a big man he has always been exceedingly fast.

Herman and Oberson are also graduating, but since making letters have not represented Willamette in athletics—Herman giving up athletics for Glee club and Oberson being content that he had won his letter.

Reed College last week by a score of 5 to 2.

The Willamette men were handicapped by the absence of Hike White, but the other men seemed to lack the final punch to put over a victory. Hageman and Litchfield won the only matches for Willamette from Atkinson and Griffen.

Hageman took two love sets from Atkinson and Litchfield won 6-2, 6-4. Minto dropped his match to Sweet 6-4, 6-1. Haworth put up a stiff match against Trenholm but lost out 8-6, 6-4. Campbell took McGhyra for a cleaning 8-6, 6-2 after he had dropped the first set 6-2.

Hageman and Minto lost a hard fought doubles match to Sweet and Atkinson in three sets. The scores 4-6, 6-3, 6-3. In the final match Litchfield and Haworth dropped their doubles to Griffen and Trenholm 2-6, 6-4, 6-2.

TACOMA GAMES SPLIT EVENLY BY BEARCATS

Willamette Games Second Game 10-8; Season Closes With 3 Wins and 3 Losses

Willamette split the two-game series with Puget Sound, the loggers taking the first by a 11 to 6 score and the Bearcats coming back in the last and winning by a 10 to 8 score.

In the last half of the first inning the College of Puget Sound tied up the game by scoring six runs on six hits. Gilhan singled Croxel singled, Crow singled scoring Gilhan, Gamero singled, Ferguson singled scoring Croxel and Kapa homed to clear the bases. The loggers scored two runs in the fifth on a walk and a home run by Croxel.

In the third inning the Bearcats made their biggest threat when Ledbetter walked, Roundtree doubled, scoring three runs. Cardinal homed in the seventh to tally and the Bearcats scored two runs in the eighth but the first inning rally took the loggers out of danger. The long trip seemed to have affected Ledbetter's arm as he pitched mediocre ball.

Cardinal, Hauk and Ledbetter, the hard hitting trio of the Bearcat squad worked to advantage but they did not have enough support.

In the second game the score stood 10 to 8 in Willamette's favor but the bases were loaded and there were two outs. Croxel was up to bat and he had already made eight hits in the series. Vannice was getting worried and so Ledbetter was sent in and Croxel fanned out on three pitched balls.

Willamette scored a run in every inning but the fifth and ninth while the loggers confined their scoring to four innings. Adams and Hauk each made three hits for the Bear-
