PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

I bid you welcome to Old Willamette. I share the happiness you have in entering upon the great adventure of college days. You have come upon a heritage and a treasure spot: the past sends its blessings and the present offers wealth for the taking. To attain an education, however, does not violate the orderly ways of the world we live in—the riches are to be taken by hard toil. Forgive me for so early reminding you of the ancient truism.

Willamette exists for you; it has no other purpose. The president, faculty, trustees, benefactors are working for you. They want you to profit by what they shall be able to do; they want you to become highly useful citizens, to make pure and abiding friendships, to gather a world of happy experiences and to fill a treasury with memories which shall afford joy for fifty years.

You come to a growing, verile Willamette. You will largely determine what the college is to be while you are here and thereafter. Responsibility walks hand in hand with opportunity. Your co-operation and the spirit thereof are the royal alchemists which shall make your days and the institution golden.

My hand in yours and our eyes straight ahead.

—Carl G. Doney.

Organizations

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

Each year with the matriculation fee is included a student body fee which every student is required to pay at the time of registration. Thus in becoming a student of Willamette University one becomes a member of the Associated Student Body which has control over all student activities. The regular meetings are semi-monthly, but special meetings may be called by the president or by petition.

The executive committee is formed that certain business affairs of the Student Body may be handled more readily and conveniently. The committee is composed of the officers of the Student Body, the editor of the Collegian, a faculty member, and four members from the Student Body at large elected during the first of each year. All business done by the executive committee must be published.

With the Student Body ticket comes admittance to all inter-collegiate contests and a copy of the Collegian.

Y. W. C. A.

Why is there such an organization at Willamette University? Sometimes a girl is lonely and homesick, and finding a friend means much. Perhaps she needs a place to work, and the Y.W.C.A. can help her find it. New girls and old feel longings and aspirations that call for an open door to fuller life and more effectual service. Christianity must be made real to college students. The Y.W.C.A. does not guarantee to fill all the needs of every girl; but thru its influence the glorious days at Willamette are given a deeper and more lasting value in building Christian character. Give and receive full measure!

Seabeck Conference.

Each summer an eager group of girls, representing the various colleges of the Northwest, gathers at Seabeck for ten happy days of work and worship, fun and friendship, learning to know each other and themselves and to think more clearly both of college and of world problems. Those who have once been to Seabeck are boosters forever and come back with a store of enthusiasm for the Y.W.C.A.

Departments.

The departments of the Y.W.C.A. correspond to its varied interests. The chairman of each committee leads in that work, but the Association aim is to give each girl an active share.

The Bible Study department emphasizes the place of prayer and daily Bible reading in the Christian life.

The department of Social Service offers opportunities for practical helpfulness on the campus, and in the community; while the World Fellowship committee leads to wider interests and influence by acquainting us with world problems.

The good times that are always remembered are planned by the Social Committee, in charge of the social activities.

Each Thursday afternoon the girls of the Y.W.C.A. meet for a devotional hour which is always full of interest and inspiration.

The Advisory Board, composed of faculty ladies and friends of the Association, advises and counsels from larger experience in Association work.

Y. M. C. A.

The University Y.M.C.A. supplies a definite need of the men students not supplied by any other organization on the campus. Its purpose is to help men in their personal Christian experience and actively engage them in some form of Christian work.

Devotional Meetings.

The weekly devotional meetings for this year are in charge of Ralph Barnes and his plan is to give the men a series of definitely planned meetings including devotional meetings with student leaders, forums and lectures from noted men of the Pacific coast. These meetings are the real source of the men's spiritual experience on the campus. Be sure to acquaint yourself with them.

Social Life.

This part of man's life is instinctive and needs right direction. The Y.M.C.A. meets this need by holding social hours at various times thruout the year. They are purely men's affairs and under the leadership of Lester Day, we are assured of good quality entertainment for this year. The first thing along this line is the stag-mix. Make plans to be there.

Campus Service.

It's the purpose of this department to locate rooms, board, employment and to give general aid to the incoming students. This is one of the most practical and helpful departments and is in charge of Hugh Doney.

Deputations.

This is the most spiritual department of the Association and under the leadership of Edwin Socolofsky much valuable work was done last year. Our deputation teams make week-end visits to outlying high schools and bring the message of Christ to them in a practical way. Socolofsky is in charge again this year and after his experience in New York this past summer we expect great things from him.

Seabeck Conference.

This is an annual conference of all associations of this great Northwest. To be able to attend it is one of the exceptional privileges that can come in the life of any student. The grounds where the conference is held are ideal and the best of leadership is furnished by the Inter-State Committee. If you have any questions in reference to your religious experience, topics of the day, life work, or life in general Seabeck is the place for you. This conference is held at the close of each school year; so, men, begin right now to save for this festival. It is worth every cent you may sacrifice. Willamette's delegation this last summer numbered twenty-four and she carried off all honors in the track meet as well as general good spirit curing the entire conference.

GREATER WILLAMETTE CLUB

The Greater Willamette Club has accomplished big things for the school. Headed by the Student Body president, with a manager to carry on its activities and composed of all Willamette students and faculty it strives to make great Willamette greater. It is expected that the coming year the club may be organized in a more definite manner or its work may be transferred to a part of the Student Body.

Retiring Manager Harold Miller

WOMEN'S WILLAMETTE CLUB

The Women's Willamette Club is composed of all the young women in the University. The purpose of uniting the young women in this way is three fold: to keep alive the memory of Jason Lee uphold the true Willamette spirit and its ideals, and to aid in every possible way in the promotion of the best interests and progress of the school.

President Mary Notson

"W" CLUB

No other organization on the campus is more outstandingly significant than is the "W" Club of Willamette. Physical prowess is necessary. The right to membership is eagerly worked for and comes only as a result of continuous and patient endeavor. This year the "W" Club was able to boast of some thirty members. The place which Willamette now holds in the Northwest Conference makes the winning of an Athletic letter truly worth while.

It was decided last year that the "W" Club shall arrange for two award programs—one in the fall and the other in the spring after which all "W" men in school both new and old shall be given a banquet.

The women have equal opportunities with the men in the earning of a tennis letter.

President, retiring Loren Basler

BAR-W CLUB

Any student who has represented Willamette University in an inter-collegiate contest of debate or oratory is eligible for membership in the Bar-W organization. Membership in this organization means arduous labor and scholarly attainment. An award for forensics is a distinction few achieve while in school.

LADIES GLEE CLUB

The Ladies Glee Club consists of eighteen women selected because of their musical ability. An open tryout is held at the beginning of each year at which time the vacancies are filled by the successful candidates. Tho rather quiet last year on account of the May Day operetta, the Club plans for an unusually effective year during 1920-21.

Not only do the girls learn to understand and appreciate the best in music, but they also remember the experiences in the Club and the associations as composing an important factor of college life.

President Mildred Garrett

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Men's Glee Club is the most enthusiastic and efficient advertiser of Willamette University. Competitive try-outs for reading and singing music and stage appearance, conducted by the Dean of Music and a Committee from the Club determines the membership which is thus limited to about twenty of the best musical men in the University. Under the Dean of Music, Dr. Sites, this Club has received training of the highest order for the past two years. The Varsity Quartet, altho a separate organization, is composed of Club men. Under Edwin Socolofsky, manager, an exceptionally successful tour was made of parts of Oregon, Washington and Idaho in the year 1919-20. With Floyd McIntire, president, and Fred McGrew, manager, the Club is assured of the most successful season in its history in the year 1920-21

President Floyd McIntire

WASHINGTONIAN CLUB

Every student and faculty member in the University may become a member of this popular club if he proves to have the interests of Washington and old Willamette at heart. The purpose of the club is to aid the Greater Willamette Club by distributing Willamette posters and propaganda. Besides serving as an advertising agency the club takes charge of the chapel exercises on Washington's birthday and later serves a banquet to the entire student body, faculty members and friends of the University.

Retiring President Russell Rarey

LAUSANNE HALL CLUB

The Lausanne Hall Club is composed of a jolly bunch of girls whose interests are concentrated in the fostering of the true Willamette spirit and keeping alive the ideals and traditions of the old school. Not only are the many good times and midnight spreads remembered but the friendships are of lasting quality. This year will no doubt be an unusually pleasant one in the new building of which the University is very proud. Life in the hall develops an appreciation of the best, leads to culture and refinement and advances the highest ideals of Christian womanhood.

EPICUREAN CLUB

Fanfaring under the ancient precepts of Father Epicurus, a group of students met to consider the high cost of pie and other staples with a view to reconciling Epicurean principles with modern food prices. A co-operative boarding club with a membership of about thirty-five boys was organized during the latter part of September. The first semester brought many difficulties. The club was twice forced to seek new quarters, each move entailing extra expense for plumbing and for other necessary adjustments to the new surroundings. Consequently the figures given here are somewhat in advance of the actual per capita cost of operating the club. Substantial fare was served at an average rate of $19.00 per month.

THE STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND

Undoubtedly the Student Volunteer Convention at Des Moines has quickened the interest in Student Volunteer purposes. It is remarkable that each of the five delegates sent to Des Moines came back resolved to be a Student Volunteer which means "God willing," a life worker in a foreign land.

Each week a meeting is held in order to present the needs of the nations to the members. It is an organization filled with character and purpose.

Leader Marie Corner

THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

The Missionary Committee has gained remarkable momentum at Willamette. Only last March after the return of the delegates from the Student Volunteer Convention at Des Moines was the Committee organized. It includes three students from each the Y.W.C.A., the Y.M.C.A. and the Student Volunteer Band.

Its purpose has been to re-stimulate University students to missionary activities and support and its efficiency has been remarkable.

Chairman Robbin Fisher

"You cannot dream yourself into a character; you must hammer and forge one for yourself."
—Froude.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Collegian.

The student paper published weekly is indispensable to all Willamette. One is surprised at the eagerness with which its publication on each Wednesday is anticipated. The Student Body elects the editor and manager before the close of the year to take office the following year. The paper is the official organ of the Student Body and is growing with Willamette.

Editor Faye Peringer

Wallulah

The Wallulah is a book not only valued for a day or even a year but valued the more after the college years. The book is published each year by the Junior class and records in a permanent way the school events of the past year.

Editor Dean Pollock

Song Book

Willamette is ever proud of her songs composed by her students. Every year at least four songs are written, one for each of the four classes, to be a contestant in the annual Freshman Glee. It is expected that a new edition of the Song Book will appear this year. Every student feels the necessity for a book.

Hand book

Willamette's Handbook is published each year by the Christian Associations primarily for the use of the new students. The book explains itself.

A TRUE EDUCATION

—WHAT IS IT?

It is awakening a love for truth; giving a just sense of duty; opening the eyes of the soul to the great purpose and end of life. It is not so much giving words as thoughts; or mere maxims as living principles. It is not teaching to be honest, because "honesty is the best policy," but because it is right.

It is teaching the individual to love the good for the sake of the good; to be virtuous in action, because so in heart; to love and serve God supremely, not from fear, but from delight in his perfect character.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.Women's Inter-Society Rules.

The three young women's societies have adopted the following rules:

Rule I.—That each society shall hold its reception and each new woman shall have an opportunity to attend each society at least once, and not more than twice, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Rule II.—That no woman shall be invited to join a society, either by verbal or written invitation, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Rule III.—That each woman answer in writing.

Rule IV.—That an inter-society council be established to consist of two members from each society to be appointed by the presidents of the respective societies at the last business meeting of the school year.

Rule V.—That there shall be an additional member of the council, a faculty lady, elected by the council.

Rule VI.—That the duty of the council shall be to decide all inter-society matters. Its decision shall be final.

Rule VII.—That these rules shall be published in the Handbook and the first issue of the Collegian.

Philodosian.

Standing for the best in the ideals and standards of womanhood, the Philodosian Society has long held a foremost place upon the campus. Its very carefully selected membership enables the girls to gain culture and intellectual development as well as forming the basis for many a lasting friendship. Not only is the intellectual side taken care of but social life is by no means neglected. Many jolly hours are enjoyed with the brother society, the Philodorians, hours which are some of the happiest of the college life and are dear to the heart of the students.

Its pin, the circle of friendship crossed by a bar of love, is a symbol of the aims for which the society stands.

President Faye Peringer

Adelante.

The Adelante Literary Society strives to ever instill the best things of life into the hearts of its members. Each one is impressed with the desire to live her best for Willamette and for all finer things. Adelante—"progress"—progress in character, in poise, in efficiency.

President Edna Gilbert

Chrestomathean.

The Chrestomathean Literary Society was organized in 1916 and since that time has grown and worked with the enthusiasm of its youth. The great ideal of the society is to develop the highest type of a perfectly well-rounded womanhood. The name Chrestomathean signifies "lovers of learning" and high literary standards are kept. The membership is limited, the new members being carefully chosen each fall. The socials are enjoyed in companionship with the brother society, the Chrestophilians.

President Myrtle Mason

Palladian.

This society has the distinction of being the youngest women's society on the campus. The principles that prompted them to organize are those which will develop the best in womanhood. The literary program is held every Wednesday afternoon, which not only fosters intellectual development but forms a basis for lasting friendships. The membership is of considerable size already and the future promises much for the Palladians.

Retiring President Loa Briggs

"No one will fulfill the laws of leadership unless they do the lesser tasks."

—Raymond Robbins.

MEN'S INTER-SOCIETY RULES

As Recommended by Temporary Committee.

1. There shall be three open nights, two societies being hosts to the new men each night. All three societies shall hold open meeting on the fourth night.

2. There shall be no pledging until the day following the fourth night.

3. No man shall revisit any society until all others have been visited.

4. Invitations shall be extended from an alphabetical list to be furnished by the inter-society committee.

5. We recommend that there be a permanent inter-society committee to be composed of two members from each society and one faculty member to be chosen by the committee.

N. B. These rules were drawn and posted before the organization of the fourth society. For that reason they will need revision by the newly elected committee.

Philodorian Literary Society.

No more worthy purpose can inspire any order or organization than the earnest, active endeavor to bring men—first the individual man, and then, so far as possible, those united with him—to a deeper, richer fellowship with spiritual and intellectual reality. The Philodorian Literary Society, founded in 1883, embraces these purposes in all of its meetings. The social functions, the business meetings, the programs of readings, talks, extempore and formal debates, the occasional "feeds" at Spa, all strive to satisfy the craving of the men for unity, while invoking in them a sense of loyalty and steadfastness for the traditions and ideals of Old Willamette. Consciousness of a social solidarity has led the members to say "Phil spirit will do it." Phils always enjoy the social gatherings with their sisters—the Philodosians. New students are cordially invited to attend the Wednesday Philodorian meeting in their halls. President Bryan McKittrick

Websterian.

Websterianism is the exemplification of that principle adhered to by Daniel Webster—"American Brotherhood."

The Websterian Literary Society was founded by men desirous of attaining the highest literary and social standards. Its aim is to promote character building, leadership, and to imbue every Websterian with the true Willamette spirit. A Websterian is not worthy of his name if he cannot think and speak fluently and coherently while on his feet, feel at ease before the public, conduct business meetings with parliamentary precision, and at all times use the discretion necessary to leadership.

Above all this society emphasizes the true fraternal spirit of fellowship which will remain a living force in the life of every Websterian.

Chrestophilian.

Next to the Christian associations, the literary societies contribute most to the social and intellectual development of the student.

It is the purpose of the Chrestophilian society, as stated in its constitution, to promote the spirit of brotherhood and secure the advantages of united effort in the cultivation of logical thinking, fluency of expression, parliamentary skill and social culture.

With this purpose actually put to practice our members realize the practical worth of the literary society. Actual experience is what counts in the world today and that is what our society offers you.

President Frank Bennett

Lincolnian.

This literary society was organized last year by a number of Willamette men who saw the need of an additional society. As their name suggests they take Lincoln as their ideal of manhood and as an organization they stress the principles of freedom and democracy as did Lincoln.

FRATERNITIES AND SORORITIES.

Thru the past history of Willamette University fraternities and sororities have been an unknown reality. To some they never would be such in Willamette, but now it seems their prophecy was false. We now have four fraternities and two sororities organized at Willamette, two of which have been organized and in operation for the past year and have proven the real worth of their organizations.

The advantages of fraternities and sororities are many: it unites the members in a closer bond of friendship; gives them actual experience in managing a house of their own, and stimulates united activity for the school.

We believe fraternities and sororities are here to stay, altho they are on trial, so to speak. Let us make the decision in their favor.

Beta Chi.

The Beta Chi was organized in the spring of 1919, as the first local sorority at Willamette. As a result of this organization last year a residence was maintained near the campus where fourteen girls enjoyed the privileges of home as well as college life. Other than these there are members living in Salem who are connected more closely with college experiences through the Beta Chi. To those belonging to this organization comes an opportunity for closer friendships, enlarged social benefits, and for a development of individual capacities. A strict adherence to all that leads to a greater Willamette is the aim of every member.

President Sibyl Smith

Delta Phi.

The Delta Phi Sorority was organized in the spring of 1920; its purpose being to promote scholarship, friendship and the highest ideals and best interests of Willamette University. The Delta Phis will maintain a house at 332 N. Church street.

President Marie Corner

Sigma Tau.

The Sigma Tau Fraternity is a home for Willamette students, membership being limited. The house is situated $4\frac{1}{2}$ blocks from the campus at 920 Oak street. Here students and friends will always find a ready welcome. The fraternity, although only a year old, has made a name for itself and can rightfully be called a real "frat" because there is a spirit of brotherhood that makes bonds of friendship which are priceless to the holders. A progressive, strong and worthy asset to the school is its aim. It stands for the noblest qualities and highest ideals attainable, Willamette standards and scholarship are woven in its creed.

President Loren Basler

Alpha Psi Delta.

Among the fraternities now at Willamette University the Alpha Psi Delta was the second to be organized. Much care was taken in perfecting the organization to assure its membership of high standards of living.

Our moral standards require a strict and conscientious adherence to the recognized principles of conduct as prescribed by the University.

We have put a special interpretation upon the spirit of fellowship, which we believe will aid not only the members concerned but the entire school.

Our purpose is to maintain a high grade of scholarship and to establish the principles of Christian living in our every day life.

President Frank Foster

Kappa Gamma Rho.

Having satisfactorily completed its organization, the Kappa Gamma Rho Fraternity formally announced itself late last spring. Incident to this announcement, the fraternity expressed some of its hopes and plans for the coming school year. It is the belief of each Kappa Gamma Rho that in fostering a true spirit of brotherhood, in holding high its standards of scholarship, and in friendly co-operation with similar organizations on the campus, the fraternity is best accomplishing its share in the Greater Willamette. And so, "Willamette First" is to act as the lodestar to the Kappa Gamma Rho craft during the new school year.

President Ray Schmalle

Pi Kappa Phi.

The purpose and aims of the Pi Kappa Phi is to enable its members to rise to the full stature of genuine Christian manhood, of scholarly attainment, lasting friendships, of loyalty to the traditions and ideals of Willamette University.

Honorary Senior Society—Alpha Kappa Nu.

By a vote of the faculty last spring an honorary scholarship society for seniors was established. Not more than 20 per cent of any graduating class can obtain membership, election being based upon the scholarship and character of the student. Eight members of the class of 1920 were selected by the faculty who are entitled to wear the emblem of the society, a neat gold pin or pendant with the Greek letters, Alpha Kappa Nu, inscribed thereon.

"How often it is difficult to be wisely charitable—to do good without multiplying the sources of evil. To give alms is nothing unless you give thought also. It is written, not 'Blessed is he that feedeth the poor,' but 'Blessed is he that considereth the poor.' A little thought and a little kindness are often worth more than a great deal of money."

ATHLETICS

With Willamette in the Northwest Conference, our athletics have every promise of an enthusiastic support not only from the confidence of the students but in that of the business men. Willamette's athletics are becoming more and more prominent and are working to a well-recognized place.

To all those who have participated the required length of time in any major sport the Student Body presents an official "W" on the first regular award day following, there being one each after the fall and spring athletics. The second and third year of participation a certificate is awarded and for four years of service in any one branch of athletics a "W" blanket, a much-coveted prize, is given.

Athletics is one of the departments with which the executive committee deals largely. All bills must be passed by the committee and together with the athletic council it controls the department entirely. Willamette has every reason to be proud of her excellent coach and much credit is due to him for securing Willamette's admission to the conference.

Football.

Football, the first of the year's athletics, is one of the most loyally supported. All men are urged to be on the field in football suits for practice from the first week in school till the close of the season. Football men feel well rewarded for the perseverance and energy they must show. The coming year the opposition will probably be stronger but Willamette's fighting spirit indicates a squad determined on giving the best there is. Dimmick is lost this year but he is the only "W" man gone from the team.
Captain-elect Russell Rarey

Basketball.

Basketball also has unqualified support. The quick and consistent moves of the men on the floor deserve recognition and commendation. The past year the team always fought its hardest, playing a good game. Some of the fastest teams in the conference were held to a low score if not defeated, Willamette often leading the first half. A very heavy schedule was fulfilled, the team taking an extended trip into Washington and Idaho to fulfill engagements. Not a single letter man is lost this year and there is greater hope than ever before for a championship five.

Retiring Captain.....Paul Wapato

Baseball.

The leading spring sport is undoubtedly baseball. The season this last year was opened on May Day and although Willamette played well last season more is expected in the coming season.

Track.

Track has been found to be a fascinating form of athletics here. Sometimes the work is interrupted to some extent by the interest in baseball. The interest in track has been largely shown in its place in inter-class rivalry, this year the cup being won by the class of '21.

Tennis.

Willamette has always upheld her honor well in tennis, the latter years due to the efficiency of Mary Findley and also Noble Moodhe. The University of Oregon was obliged to put up a hard fight to overcome Willamette material and Miss Findley was not defeated. This sport offers an especially good opportunity for the women of the University to earn a "W." Miss Findley, who has the honor of being the only woman in the "W" club, won her letter thus.

FORENSICS.

For a school to maintain her high standards of scholarship forensics must be a strong factor in her activities. Mind is more powerful than body. When it is trained to think forceful thoughts which can be delivered to an audience a high peak in one's education has been reached. Numerous opportunities are offered the students in this line. Take advantage of them.

Debate.

Willamette has always been more than able to hold her own in debate. This past year our forensic manager put our school on the map in a very prominent way. Debate is open to both men and women. Keep in touch with the dates for tryouts.

Oratory.

Willamette University has for several years been considered as a strong contender for honors in the Intercollegiate Oratorical association of Oregon. This has been true because of the strong public speaking department. In contests held every year at one of the educational institutions, Willamette invariably makes a strong showing, scoring high in construction and delivery. Among some of the institutions "Beat Willamette" has been the admonition to their contestants. Any student who has taken work in the public speaking department is eligible for the tryouts. This year the oratorical contest is to be held at Eugene, the Eugene Bible school acting as host.

INTERCLASS RIVALRY RULES.Article I.

Section 1. There shall be an interclass rivalry committee elected each year, consisting of the following members: one member elected by each of the classes and chairman elected by the Student Body.

Section 2. The class elections shall take place within the first two weeks of school; the chairman of the committee shall be elected at the first regular Student Body meeting.

Section 3. The chairman shall be chosen from the two upper classes.

Section 4. There shall be an advisory committee consisting of the athletic coach and the professor of public speaking.

Article II.

Section 1. The duties of this interclass rivalry committee shall be to regulate and control all forms of interclass rivalry and activities. These duties shall include the regulating of numeral painting and settling of interclass disputes.

Section 2. Each class represented is entitled to a vote on the committee and the chairman in the case of a tie.

Section 3. The following interclass activities shall be held each year: basketball, tennis, baseball, track, forensics, and any other activities that the committee shall decide upon.

Section 4. The following shall be the system of awarding points: first place in any activity, five points; second place, three points, and third place, one point. Also the class contributing the largest percentage of its members to the varsity teams shall receive five points; second, three, and third, one.

Article III.

Section 1. The class having the largest number of points at the close of the year shall be declared interclass rivalry champion, and shall receive a suitable reward.

Section 2. The following numbers of credits shall be required for eligibility to represent each class: seniors at least 88; juniors, at least 56; sophomores, at least 24.

Section 3. Men who have been in the service and desire to affiliate with their old class shall be considered an exception to the above rule.

Section 4. Students registered for less than twelve hours shall not be eligible to represent a class in a contest.

Article IV.

Section 1. The committee shall have power to formulate any new rules not herein stated, and regulations as to the conduct of the various contests.

GREEN CAP REGULATIONS.

Section 1. All freshmen boys shall don green caps not later than the third Monday after the opening of the school year.

Section 2. Green caps shall be worn exclusively by all freshmen boys while in the city of Salem.

Section 3. The freshmen class shall discard their green caps publicly at the May Day festival, making the discarding of the caps the subject of an original stunt.

Section 4. It is further recommended that the two upper classes be made the final court of appeals for any difficulties arising over the carrying out of the rules laid down.

WILLAMETTE PEP

The popular thing is to know Willamette songs.

Spring Song.

Oh, sweet is day's stern labor
We conquer without fear;
And sweet the hours of evening
When college friends are near,
So gathered here at twilight
Amid the shadows long,
Soft notes of youth and springtime
Are mingled in our song.

Willamette Ever Onward.

On Willamette, ever onward
To the highest goal in view
From the bell tower rings the story
Of thy conquests, W. U.,
In our mighty Alma Mater
Let our faith be ever bold,
That victory may be the prize
Of the Cardinal and the Gold.

Magic Spirit.

Then we'll strive, we'll stand, we'll stay by Old Willamette
With her legends and traditions old and true,
Something seems to draw us onward ever to the victor's goal;
'Tis the magic of thy spirit, W. U.

That's the Old Fight.

Come, show Willamette's spirit,
Let's battle for the right.
Shout so all can hear it,
That's the old fight.
To win will ever be our aim,
We'll strive with all our might;
And we'll shout it to the victory,
"That's the old fight."

Sing a Song for Old Willamette.

We'll sing a song for Old Willamette,
For our dear old school so grand.
Where all the boys are "Bearcats."
Who fight and have the sand.
We'll cheer them on forever.
As they fight the victory thru,
And they, like Old "Willamette,"
Will e'er be strong and true.

Willamette Spirit.

Oh, W. U., thy spirit calls us,
Bids us conquer and be true,
We'll strive whate'er befalls us
To be worthy, W. U.
We'll win, we'll win, when bright before us
Willamette spirit leads us on;
Tho' dark defeat may hover o'er us,
The guerdon waits us at the dawn.

In the Land of Golden Sunset.

Rah! for our dear Alma Mater!
Rah! for the football score!
Rah! for the men who defend her
On gym or debating floor.
Ever to thee we'll be loyal,
True to thy cardinal and gold;
Oh! Willamette, Willamette, we love thee,
Our school we'll forever uphold

Our Dear Old Willamette.

For our dear old Willamette U,
The varsity loved so well,
The college leading all others
As our contests nobly tell.
We shall live and die for W. U.,
And do it with a will.
So here's to the best in all the West,
The greatest college still,

Legend Ballad.

Then let us sing a song for old Willamette,
For we love her halls so dear;
Lift her standards ever higher,
May her glories rise from year to year.

Willamette's the School for Mine.

For Willamette's the school for mine, for mine,
Willamette's the school for mine;
Whether playing the game or wooing the dame, or marching the serpentine.
She took us in when freshmen green,
We leave her with polished mien;
And we'll tell her fair story in song and rhyme,
For Willamette's the school for mine.

Cannibal King.

The cannibal king with the big nose ring
Got stuck on a Zula maid,
And every night when the moon shone bright
Across the canal he'd wade
To hug and kiss that dusky miss
Out under the big bay tree;
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:

[Yell]

Hip, heck tra boom!
Gin bisum yah zoom!
Hulla baloo, baloo, balee!
Old Willamette 'Varsity!

FRESHMAN GLEE 1920Fight 'em, Bearcats.

Freshman Glee, 1920, winning song. Class
'22, Sophomore:

Fight 'em, Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette thru the years
Fight with might, strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.
Fight 'em, Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted gold.

O, Here's to W. U.

Class '20, Senior

Then wave the radiant colors,
Unfurl the Cardinal and the Gold
Then cheer the best team of the west.
Then we'll pile the bonfire higher,
Pass the Bearcats in review,
Give a rousing cheer for everyone
And a Here's to W. U.

Go, Willamette.

Class '23, Freshman

Fight the fight that knows no fear,
Oh, Willamette, heart of cheer.
Then we'll shout the name we love
To the bending skys above.
Go Willamette, go Willamette, go W. U.!
Go and win the victory.
Show them all, both great and small,
What Willamette fight can do.

The Victors' Song.

Class '21, Junior

Then we'll win for Old Willamette,
The school we love so well.
We'll rally 'round her standards
With songs and rousing yell.
Then come and fight, Oh Bearcats,
Fight for the colors true,
For as you fight, Oh Bearcats,
We are here to see you through.

E.—Excellent, 90-100.

S.—Satisfactory, 80-90.

P.—Passing, 70-80.

F.—Failure, below 70.

There is now instituted the system of quality hours, allowing three quality hours for each hour of a subject in which the student rates an E, two for S plus, one for S and none for P. Each student must have at least 120 quality hours in order to graduate, and any number above the stated amount may be counted on extra credits, five quality hours making one hour credit. This is compulsory for all students entering the University after June, 1919.

SPIRIT OF PLAY.

Willamette's spirit of play is as remarkable and irresistible as her spirit constantly shown on all occasions. Many of her play times are traditional, and some, such as a swim by request in the mill race, the seniors' privilege of the senior bench, the ringing of the old bell proclaiming Willamette victory, or the joy of moonlight on the Willamette, some such as these are not formally listed.

Of those formally called Willamette play-times, although not always formal, first comes the Y.M.-Y.W. reception. The list of names written on one's card that night is long and difficult to remember, but no one should miss that evening, for a good part of the entertainment is afterwards at home attempting to remember this one and that one. Everyone is to speak to everyone else on the campus after this event.

Chestnut Farm is the destination for all the young women of the University some time early in the semester. Everyone must go and everyone must get acquainted. Chestnut Farm is synonymous to good times, to good eats.

The Stag-Mix belongs wholly and absolutely to the men. The other half of the University find it hard to imagine all the things that transpire, but the men give glowing reports. And if for no other reason than to recount to the young women all their independent joy, they delight in attending.

Now open-house of the various fraternities will occupy a place in Willamette's social calendar. Last year the Sigma Tau and Beta Chi open-house were well worth the attending.

Around Thanksgiving time, when so many of the students go home, there are also many here who cannot. The Thanksgiving Jolly-up supplies the needs of all such. It is usually a masquerade, and one of the most informal gatherings of the year.

The Post-exam. Jubilee explains itself, joy at the disappearance of the last list of examination questions. No one would not like to have a part in that.

The Annual Freshman Glee is Willamette's own institution. The excitement and interest is high at this time. Each class writes a song and presents it, a pennant being given the class obtaining the highest per cent. Freshman Glee is one of the most anticipated of college events, to some the happiest evening, to some the saddest, but long-looked-for and long-remembered.

May Day and Junior Week-end also take a prominent place. Two whole days are devoted to these festivities, Willamette being guest to many friends. The May morning breakfast, the crowning of the May Queen and May dances, the Junior play, such are the entertainments, also student feed, inter-class contests and numerous other pleasures.

Commencement closes the year's events. The last week is filled. There is a feeling of happiness, but a note of sadness at the close of the year. The seniors are leaving the school and the large majority wish to stay longer at Willamette, but they go out with determination and the promise of great things in the future. This week comes the President's Reception, presentation of the Senior Gift, class day stunts and the senior women are entertained at a breakfast served by the Y.W.C.A. cabinet every year. Commencement exercises and the alumni banquet close the events of the week.

Where Every Girl Finds A Friend

Do you want to find a friend?

The young ladies of the Wegfaf
Class of the First M. E. Sunday School wish to know you.

Won't You Come?

LIVE WIRES CLASS

Willamette students are most cordially invited to join Methodism's largest Sunday School class of mature young people in Salem—the Live Wires of Leslie Church. Down-to-the-minute topics and World-Wide Problems are taught and discussed in a practical and up-to-date manner. You will feel at home and not only have a place where you can get the home touch, but have a place as well where you can get sympathetic and intelligent counsel and advice, both as to your religious and temporal needs. Come—we have a place for you.

Very sincerely yours,

LESLIE SPRINGER, President,
The Live Wires.

(Paid Adv.)

The Epworth League of First M. E. Church purposes to make all students feel at home in its association.

Plan from the start to meet with us every Sunday evening at 6:30.

All departments of the league work and social life are open to the students.

THE LIFE I WOULD LIVE

Let me but live my life from year to year
With forward face and unreluctant
soul,
Not hastening to, nor turning from the goal.
Not mourning for the things that disappear
In the dim past, nor holding back in fear
From what the future veils, but with a whole
And happy heart that gladly pays its toll
To youth and age, and travels on with cheer.
So let the way wind up the hill, or down,
Though rough or smooth, the journey will be joy;
Still seeking what I sought when
but a boy,
New friendships, high adventure, and
a crown,
I shall grow old, but never lose
life's zest,
Because the road's last turn will be the best.

—Dr. Henry Van Dyke.
