ODE TO WILLAMETTE

There's an old historic temple rising grandly through the years, Where the oaken hearted fathers drew their strength for strong careers;
Down the years its portals open, gathered wise ones to its fold, Breathed the spirit of the Westland, card'nal emblem, 'bossed with gold.

Dear old School! How strong we love thee, 'round thy mem'ries how we cling!
Glad some hearts beneath thy shadow, loyal hearts to thee we bring.
Old Willamette how we cherish all thy legends and thy lore, Born upon the calm Pacific, guides us onward ever more.

Spirit of the Golden Westland, breathing through the fathers' tears, Tells the story of the temple, bids us hope a' down the years, Sing, oh, sing of dear Willamette, sing while hearts are young and true.
Sea to sea the chorus swelling, dear Old School of our W.U.

HISTORY

Freshman Glee began in 1909 when the class of 1912 challenged the other classes in a song competition—an event which became a tradition unique to Willamette. In the past, Glee has been held in the Chapel of Waller Hall, the First Methodist Church, the Salem Armory, and the old Willamette Gymnasium (today's Playhouse). Since 1975, Cone Field House has been used to accommodate the ever popular Freshman Glee. Originally, Freshman Glee was a simple presentation of songs on a bare stage. Over the years, elaborate sets, marching and complex formations have also become essential parts of this special event. Freshman Glee is Willamette's own tradition of the past, which will continue in the future.

DEDICATION

The 1992 Freshman Glee is proudly dedicated to the alumni of the Class of 1942 in appreciation of their diligent efforts to preserve and enrich the tradition of Glee. The Class of 1942 has undertaken the endeavor to create a permanent Glee archive for Willamette University, which will fill a gap within the Glee tradition which has previously been ignored. This generous class will also be donating a trophy. Joining the banner as a sign of victory, the trophy will be presented each year to the winning class. In addition, the winning classes will be inscribed on the trophy, immortalizing them within the Glee tradition itself. For their admirable support of the Glee's of the past, present, and future, the students of Willamette University wish to express their deepest gratitude to the Class of 1942.

FIGHT FOR THEIR HOPE AND FAITH

by Lila Anne Brown, Class of 1992

We are all forced in the morning to rise and shine, and the lack of motivation blinds our eyes.

They say that in this wide world there's so much to live for But I guess as I'm getting older I don't see it anymore.

All the dreams that we made as children have faded away.
All the goals and expectations were saved for other days.
So now we look to the children to fulfill our dreams When we know that the "great" world ain't what it seems (No it ain't what it seems).

But we have the hope that the fight will remain
and we have the hope that our dreams will sustain for all those who came before us
they still implore us
to retain their hope and faith
Yes we must fight for their hope and faith.

All the trials and tribulations of our times help us to fight the self-limitations in our lives And we should all stand with each other strong and tall so that we can meet the challenge of hope for all (Yes we can have hope for all).

And we have the hope
that the fight will remain yes we have the hope that our dreams will sustain for all who came before us
they still implore us
to retain their hope and faith yes we must fight for their hope and keep the hope and faith

keep the hope and faith
keep the hope and faith

And we have the hope that the fight will remain yes we have the hope that our dreams will sustain
for all those who came before us
they still implore us
to retain their hope and faith
Yes we must fight for their hope and faith
(Amen)

FRINDS IN ARMS

by Aaron Andre Miller, Class of 1993

Turn back the pages to an ancient land and the blood-stained field where it all began Senseless is the age-old game of war, we catch our breath and wonder why, what for.

Look at us now, upon the winds of change we fly the wall has fallen and the hammer has crushed the scythe
But across the sea contempt breeds disorder while the dying fight over invisible borders

Chorus:

Lay down your arms tonight and march into tomorrow
righting our wrongs, erasing our sorrows
and keeping the children safe from harm.
Together, we must meet the challenge to be,
To be Brothers in Arms.

Conceived in liberty, for harmony we must fight, while King's dream lives on, crosses still burn in the night.
In the streets our homeless starve and children kill for colors we must stop this now and learn to love each other.

Chorus:

Lay down your arms tonight and march into tomorrow
righting our wrongs, erasing our sorrows
and keeping the children safe from harm.
Together, we must meet the challenge to be,
To be Sisters in Arms.

Peace on earth, goodwill to men...
All we are saying is give peace a chance...

We wrote down our dreams and capped them in a bottle and threw it out to sea.
We hear the cry (hear the cry).
So can't we try (can't we try) to keep this dream alive?
So when the waves leave the shore we do hope and pray you'll find our SOS (SOS), in the sand (in the sand).
Open it and realize our words are true, what's done is done.
So shine hope's light across the sea.
Together we hold the key.

Through history Willamette has led the way, but a new challenge brings us here today.
We must start a revolution to mend what's wrong
The time for change is with us, let the world hear our song.

Chorus:

Lay down your arms tonight and march into tomorrow
righting our wrongs and erasing the sorrows
and keeping the children safe from harm.
Together we must meet this challenge to be,
To be Friends in Arms

THE SPIRIT OF WILLAMETTE

By Kim Evered, Class of 1994

Willamette Bearcats push to get ahead,
Reaching onward, past the common thread.

Fight for our alumnae, Fight for our school pride.
Fight our way to victory's day, Strength is on our side.

Willamette Bearcats push to get ahead,
Reaching onward, past the common thread.

We have come together now, Challenge us today.
We've got spirit in our hearts,
We won't waste this day.

We will carry on traditions passed to us from old, Let us sing our alma mater, let it be told,
All the cultures come together here at W.U.

Willamette Bearcats push to get ahead,
Reaching onward, past the common thread,

Working together for our school we'll fight!

FIGHT, WIN, TOGETHER WE MEET THE CHALLENGE

Words and music by Dan Ryker and Kaley Scott, Class of 95

Fight, Win, Together we meet the challenge
Fight, Win, Together we meet the challenge

We are Willamette, and we're proud to be at that

Carry on traditions of the old Bearcat

So don't mess with us
'Cuz we are so cool Called the Freshman class And together we will rule

We are Willamette, and proud at that Carry on the tradition of the old Bearcat

So don't mess with us together we unite
And the Bearcat roar you'll hear tonight

There's Volleyball and Quadball too Run through the sprinklers at a quarter 'til two Hangin' at the Bistro to get your kicks Boredom got you down, count the bricks!
Together we stand, women and men To challenge ourselves time and again We may cross that stream one day But Willamette bridges steer our way

We are Willamette, and proud at that Carry on tradition of the old Bearcat

So don't mess with us
Do what you're told We carry a banner of Cardinal and Gold

Become a greek member if you like Spend the afternoons riding a bike Meet us on the field or on the street
The Bearcats are the ones to beat

As freshmen at Willamette we're on our way With each sunrise there grows a new day
The sun goes down, the stars grow bright Remember the star trees in the bright moon light

We are Willamette, and we're proud to be that Carry on traditions of the old Bearcat

So don't mess with us together we will stand We'll make it through together Hand in hand

Fight, Win, Together we meet the challenge
Fight, Win, Together we meet the challenge

ROAR!!!

ALUMNI GLEE: SONG TO WILLAMETTE

Words and music by Marion Hermanek

Ours is a song of history Ours is a school with a destiny Plain men started it, kept it alive, Prayed and fought that it might survive.
Hail to our father, Jason Lee, Who built our school of a century.
Golden tradition, glorious fame Echo afar Willamette's name.

Chorus:
We love her historic temple,
To hear the victory bell;
To sing the praise of college days
That in our mem'ries dwell.
We love her mighty spirit Within our hearts aglow-
The school that has lived a hundred years, Willamette, may it grow!

JUDGING AND RULES

Freshman Glee is judged in four major categories: music and lyrics, song presentation, formations, and marching performance. Judging of music and lyrics is based on quality of music, adaption of lyrics to music, and adherence to the Glee theme. Song presentation is judged on rendition, expression, diction, and tone quality. Formations are judged on the basis of difficulty, visual impact, and adherence to theme. The marching performance is based on accuracy, precision, and technicalities. Using an established system, the judges award points for each of the four areas. The class accumulating the most points will be the winner of Freshman Glee.
