

EXEC. BODY O. K.'S BUDGET

The Willamette University Executive Committee held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Argo Hotel.

The Wallulah budget for 1935 was read and approved. The budget was placed at $3,750.00.

Professor Marshall read the budget for the music department, and gave a summary of what the budget included. This year the budget includes a new entry for transportation to and from Portland to sing over the radio. Prof. Marshall said that the Music department was well organized this year, and expressed his desire for co-operation from the student body.

One of the main features of the year in the music school will be the presentation of "Elijah" this spring. In the spring also, the chorus will take a trip around the Northwest to advertise Willamette, as they have done in the past.

Miss Helen Benner, vice-president of the student body, who is in charge of the plans for the Whip-Whitman banquet, said arrangements for the affair are under way, and an announcement of details will be made soon.

The tickets will be sold on the campus as well as at the living organizations, it is one of the outstanding events of the season and is attended by the entire student body.

L. T. G. PRODUCES NEW PLAY SERIES

The next play to be given will be "Marriage Proposal" by Chekhov. Those participating are: Howard Campbell, Malcolm Whitman, Betty Boylan, Betty McGann and Marian Averill. The assistant director is Betty Boylan.

Next comes the whimsical comedy, "Wurzel-Flummery." The cast includes Billy Utley, Dorothy Lipps, Flavia Downs, Lois Webb, Rosalie Goulder, Betty Lane, Jane Fisher, Bill Clemes, Art Lamka, Betty Abrams and Betty Fredricks. Assistant director is Billy Utley.

The third play, a mystery, will be "A Night In An Inn" with Herman Estes, Bill McKinney, Malcolm Whitman, Ray Drakely, George Lewis, Frank Reid and Dick Smith. Assistant director is Ray Drakely.

Each play will be given three nights with evenings for students, faculty and townspeople. Girls' parts will be doubled in; the boys' roles will be enacted by the same persons each performance.

Later in the semester there will be plays with all-female casts. The plays and their actors will be announced soon.

Make-up for Little Theater plays is in the charge of Ray Drakely.

In connection with Little Theater work are the voice and technique of acting classes, conducted for students interested in such work. Everyone is invited to either or both classes.

NOTICE!

Tuition must be paid on or before November 5!

Geology Caused This... Grand Brainstorm to Hit Collegian Club

"Geology being the most interesting and worthwhile course at W. U., undoubtedly the students are eager to hear of our activities." Thus spoke Prof. Clark, the class concurred, and here we are.

Geology is rock-ology, and we as a class come up to all the specifications. We became geologically inclined when we were very young. Our mothers always rocked us to sleep. (Ouch! not that way!) Later, our favorite playthings were rocking horses. And since we attained the age of dissipation we sometimes even feel rocky.

During class periods we sit around the stove and talk over old times. (Archeozoic era: 1,500,000,000 years ago). On Thursdays when the weather is nice we break camp, embark in the Prof's and Wayne Doughton's internal

First Y. W. Sec'y Book in Museum

A new and interesting article has very recently been added to the museum by Professor Clark. It is the first Y. W. C. A. secretary book used on the Willamette campus. Of course, being so old the activities, both social and business, are very peculiar and amusing. The book contains the purpose and aims of the organization and the written accounts of the functions. So all you Y. W. C. A. members run up to the gym to see your ancient relic and while you are there be sure to look at the other exhibits. The museum is open on Mondays from 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.

'THE MOONSHINERS' TO BE SEEN FRIDAY

Presentation of "The Moonshiners," a one act comedy by Arthur Hopkins, in chapel tomorrow morning will herald the opening of the Little Theater guild season. Six plays are now in production under the direction of Genevieve Thayer and will be presented at subsequent dates.

Mike Balkovic, as a moonshining mountaineer, and Paul Hauser as a revenue officer, make up the cast for the first play.

New Writers in Coffee House

Coffee House, Louise Anderson, president, presiding, entertained eight prospective members at their last meeting Wednesday evening, October 16. The next meeting, October 30, will be devoted to reading the manuscripts of those desiring to join, and passing votes upon them. The meetings are held at Willamette Lodge.

WILLAMETTE HEADS FOR N. W. HONORS

STANDINGS
Willamette	2	0	1,000
Linfield	1	0	1,000
C. P. S.	1	1	500
Whitman	1	1	500
Col. of Idaho	1	1	500
Pacific	0	1	2,000
Albany	0	2	1,000

Willamette's chances of doing a little cup copping this season in the Northwest conference football circles are improving with each passing game. The other teams are doing a good job of eliminating each other, with only Linfield unbeaten, and they have a tie against them with the Pacific Badgers.

If Willamette beats Pacific, that would give them a statistical advantage over their pals from McMinnville, and all will be rosy for the mighty Beareats.

Unless Willamette loses to Pacific or Whitman, it's all in the bag, and the chances of either of these teams upsetting the Beareats is rather slim. Whitman is the best bet to use Jack-the-Giant-Killer tactics and topple the Maroon and Gold wave from Salem, and should they do so, it might throw the title into a two or three way tie that might never be settled.

WALLULAH ASSUMES COLLEGIAN DEBT

The executive committee Tuesday evening, acted to have the Wallulah pay off a $200 old debt of the Collegian, out of the permanent Wallulah fund.

The permanent Wallulah fund was established to purchase office equipment and necessities for the Wallulah, and this measure will have no bearing on the 1935 year book.

Several years ago the Collegian took the responsibility of an old Wallulah debt and this action is taken to even the score.

The debt is one which has been standing for several years. The former plan was to have each Collegian manager pay, every year, a percentage of the debt. This plan has been followed, but it was found that it would take a considerable length of time to scratch the matter off the books, and when the idea was presented before the executive body, they after some discussion, decided that it would be favorable to conceive this new plan.

This new arrangement finds the publication department of the University debt-free. Although, the student body has several other debts that could also have been paid by such an action, it would have been necessary for the constitution to be changed. At present all the publications are under the one department, and in order to have funds transferred from one department to another it is necessary for student body action.

W. U. EAGLE SCOUTS INVITED TO COURT

The outstanding event of the Cascade Area Council, "The Eagle Court of Honor", in celebration of the Silver Jubilee Anniversary of Scouting in America, will be held in Salem at the Fraternal Temple, 447 Center street, on Monday evening, December 2, 1935, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Invitations have been extended to the oldest Eagles on record for this Council, thirty-four in all, which date back as far as 1924.

Fourteen Scouts will have the highest award of Scoutdom bestowed upon them at this time.

There will be an appropriate induction ceremony for these new Eagles, conducted by the Council Court of Honor, The Honorable Earl Snell will be the guest speaker.

An invitation is extended to the Eagles attending Willamette University to participate in this event of the Council's Jubilee celebration.

MARY SCHULTZ TO BE SOLOIST

Miss Mary Schultz, instructor of violin, on the campus, with Sylvia W. Margulis, will play the violin concerto with the Portland Symphony orchestra presents two Bach concertos November 24.

The symphony opens November 18, and will this year celebrate its Silver Jubilee season.

A certificate of award and a gold medal were received by the orchestra last week as a result of the 24 concerts played at the California Pacific International Exposition last summer.

No orchestra has ever been more graciously received than the local group under its world famed conductor, Wilhelm von Hoogstraten.

Work on "Elijah" Treble Cleff Club

The activities of the Treble Cleff club will actually start next semester. They are working now in combination with the Willamette Songmen as the Philharmonic Choir, which will in the near future present the oratorio, "Elijah." The girls meet every Monday afternoon to practice their parts of the chorus. However, early next semester the club will start their work on various selections for women's voices.

Dr. Laughlin recently has been appointed as advisor to Indian students at W. U. at the request of John Collier, Commissioner of Indian Affairs at Washington, D. C., to Dr. F. M. Erickson.

Blue Key Meets; Discuss Banquet

At a meeting of Blue Key Tuesday, names of all the boys in school were divided among the members who are to contact the boys relative to the Father and Son banquet which will be held November 15 at the First Methodist church.

Further business concerning the Blue Key, Pep club rally, was discussed, and Ty Gillespie was appointed chairman of a committee consisting of George McLeod and Kenneth Peterson to be in charge of the rally business.

The matter of library discipline was discussed at the request of the library committee and John Ross was appointed as Blue Key representative to the library committee.

The matter of where to buy the Key was talked of but no action taken.

BAXTER-SINGERS WELL RECEIVED

Dr. Bruce R. Baxter and the Song Men appeared last Sunday in the second of their series of semi-monthly broadcasts released by radio station KOIN of Portland.

This week's trip revealed ample evidence, in the form of a thick pile of cards and letters addressed to Station KOIN, that this program was being enthusiastically received throughout Oregon and Washington. These were turned over to Prof. Marshall by the manager of KOIN.

John L. Gary, superintendent of schools at West Linn, Oregon says, "The timing was perfect, and the voices blended in a way that made your male chorus hour an outstanding success. . . . I want to congratulate you upon the excellent presentation of your Song Men's music hour."

In a letter addressed to Charles F. Myers, president of station KOIN, Ed. F. Averill of the Northwestern Mutual Fire Association and a member of the Willamette University Board of Trustees says, "I seldom write to a radio station regarding its programs. . . . However, I do wish to express my appreciation of myself and my family for the very fine program put on last Sunday by the Willamette University Singers and President Bruce R. Baxter."

T. W. Collins, also a member of the Board of Trustees, said in his letter, "I desire to congratulate you upon the excellent Willamette University program of last Sunday."

Other letters and cards from Portland, Salem, Pondersa, Gresham, Hillsboro, Oakridge, St. Helens and various other towns include such congratulatory messages as "certainly hope you will see fit to continue this program," "splendid program put on by the Willamette Singers and Dr. Baxter," "musical numbers were of a very high quality," "do it again!"

After the last program Dr. Baxter and Prof. Marshall were kept so busy answering the KOIN telephone on calls from enthusiastic listeners that they were finally forced to leave instructions with the station operator that they had "gone home," and beat a hasty retreat.

NOISE PARADE RULES

Friday, Nov. 8, 7:30 P. M.

"Bayonet the Badgers"

1. Any Willamette organization or society is eligible to enter the Noise Parade.
2. The type or kind of Noise Parade is left to the ingenuity of the organization entering the parade, the primary purpose being to produce noise.
3. All organizations wishing to participate in the Noise Parade must signify their intention to Bill Hansen not later than 12 noon, Wednesday, November 6th.
4. Four things shall determine the judging:
 1. Originality of float construction
 2. Volume of noise produced
 3. Kinds or types or noise machines
 4. Practical application of the slogan "Bayonet the Badgers."

A silver cup shall be awarded grand prize. In order to avoid any discrimination there shall also be a first prize awarded to the best float in the men's division and to the best float in the women's division.

DR. COLEMAN F. & S. BANQUET SPEAKER

The annual Father and Son's banquet will be held November 15 at 6:30 o'clock. Members of the Blue Key are busy with arrangements under the leadership of Del Ramsdell.

Dr. Norman Coleman, past President of Reed College, will deliver the main address of the evening, at which time he will discuss some pertinent world problem.

John Ross has been placed in charge of the program upon which the Song Men are scheduled to appear.

During the course of the evening one toast will be offered by a representative of the student body and one by a representative of the Salem Breakfast Club. This organization is assisting Blue Key with banquet arrangements just as they did last year.

The name of every man on the campus has been given to some Blue Key man. According to the present schedule it is expected that each man will be contacted by the end of this week so that it may be ascertained how many fathers of the students plan to attend this event and how many fathers must be furnished by the Breakfast Club. If some campus men are not interviewed by Blue Key representatives this week, and are desirous of coming to the banquet, they should see some member of the Blue Key as soon as possible.

The banquet price is 50 cents per plate. Tickets may be obtained from many Blue Key men.

DEBATERS SOON TO BE SELECTED

At 4:30 this afternoon there will be a men's debate society meeting in the Little Theatre. The women's debating society will meet Monday and Friday of next week in the same place at 3 o'clock.

Two men will be selected soon to represent Willamette University in a debate tournament to be held in San Francisco on November 25, 26, 27. Professor H. T. Rahe will accompany the pair, continuing from there to the convention of the Western Association of Teachers of Speech. Speakers will be chosen at debate practice.

A list of women debaters follows: Melva Belle Savage, Constance Smart, Marjorie Thome, Marnetta Jones, Lorene Tompkins, Ella May Morris, May Jones, Helen May Real, Dorothy Durkee, Ruth Davis, Margaret Howerton.

EXCHANGE STUDENT WRITES OF U. OF H.

October 8, 1935.

Dear Dr. Baxter: It's late, for I just returned from a luau—an Hawaiian feast—but I did want to write so the letter would go out tomorrow.

I received the clipping from home that certain of the chapels are being broadcast this year. I think that is splendid, and I only wish I could hear them.

It took me just 25 hours and 25 minutes to reach San Francisco by bus. One surely meets interesting people, travelling—all kinds I find. The heat left at noon the next day. There was the usual seeming confusion at the pier, and at last we drew away and started out into the bay. It seemed the most natural thing for me to go sailing out like that—I never shed a tear. My conscience pricked me a little for that, but I was too busy looking and listening to everything around me to care.

We had a splendid time coming over. The sea was quite calm all the way. The associations we made were most interesting. There were a great many English people returning home to Australia and New Zealand. Some, most delightful. There were five young men going to Australia as Mormon missionaries. Three professors from the University here were crossing, as well as five other exchange students.

We really had a royal welcome. Sang Kau Yau and a former exchange student, Calvin MacGregor, came out in the pilot boat to meet us. They not only greeted us with beautiful leis, but also with a photographer. We all had

Pep Staff and Blue Key Sponsor Pacific Rally Downtown November 8

Rally Has Double Purpose: Percentage of Sales To Be Applied by Blue Key on Free Scholarship Plan

It will be an event in Willamette history never to be forgotten when the rally before the Pacific game zooms down the main street of Salem.

The louder the noise—the better the parade, and since this is to be a stupendous outburst of noise it means that each campus group should soon gain access to steam rollers, whistles and fire sirens. Yes students, we're off for a gala pep rally.

Y. W. TO SPONSOR ART EXHIBIT HERE

Observing National Art Week, November 2-11, the Willamette YW and Paint Spots will sponsor an exhibit of arts and crafts of Salem people in the YW rooms of Eaton Hall next week.

This exhibit will be one of four which will be held in Salem during the next week. The local YWCA will exhibit the art works of the high school while the Salem Women's club and the Art League will display a group of paintings. The Gilbert Art Studios will portray the history of art through a series of prints in their exhibition.

The purpose of these displays is to bring local art activities before the public and to create a general interest in art.

The Paint Spots committee which will be in charge of arranging the Willamette display is: Lillian Potter, Margaret McGhee, Betty Crane, and Catherine Faxon.

Cornelia Hulet will be chairman of the YW committee which will have charge of the rooms during the display and will work with Esther Callison, Beth DeLapp, and Kaye Alley. Miss Fowler, art instructor, is general supervisor for the exhibit.

The YW rooms will be open from 7:45 a. m. until 4 p. m. every day next week to allow the public to view the display.

Independents Become Active

The Independent Men's organization, begun for the first time last year, has made plans for a more unified group and an enlarged scope of activity for this year.

The first step towards this goal will be the printing of membership cards, which will tend to make the body more closely organized, the group leaders believe.

Burton C. Lemen, president, says that the Independents plan to have representation in every possible campus activity during the year.

The other officers are Frank Thomas, vice-president; Walter Bach, secretary-treasurer, and George Self, dictator.

Band to Parade Armistice Day; Pep Club to Help Get Uniforms

"I have great hopes for a great band!" exclaimed Wes Roeder in interview concerning the Willamette University Band. Mr. Roeder, the new director, plans to develop the best band that ever tooted on this campus. Starting off with thirty-five members and a twenty-five dollar supply of new music, this organization has already played for every home football game. The student executive council authorized the purchase of a new baritone horn and two new drums in addition to the new music.

Plans are now in operation to help clothe the band. The Pep club is utilizing all its influence and co-operation in the hope that some plan can be found to buy new uniforms. Mr. Roeder expressed a hope that new military outfits with Sam Brown belts and other army attachments would be bought by the students. These proposed suits would be of cardinal cloth trimmed in gold. The band director also said: "Our only difficulty is that we have no money. The band is hoping that some means will be found to raise the needed funds. The Pep club is doing everything they can, and the band members are straining every effort."

Mr. Roeder announced the coming programs for the band. They will be one of the outstanding musical organizations in the Armistice Day parade in Salem. If there is a student excursion to Whitman, they plan to create a little pep in Walla Walla. They will continue to play for every home football game. In the second semester they will play for the basketball contests and also present a number of annual concerts.

A new tradition will be established Friday evening, November 8, when the Pacific rally—noise parade—toots down State street. Bill Hansen, yell king, and his staff are making the arrangements.

The parade will be made up of floats from organizations, houses, clubs and classes.

The floats will be judged by Salem citizens and the prizes will be from Salem stores. The prizes will be awarded at the Grand theatre where the noise rally will disband and an indoor pep entertainment gotten under way.

Several vaudeville acts supporting an all-Willamette cast along with pep talks, yells, songs and a "clever show, "Welcome Home" will be the evening's entertainment.

The rally has double purpose, besides being an outstanding pep rally it will have part in making a possible a free scholarship to some Willamette student next year.

The Blue Key organization plans to award a free scholarship to some worthy student and a percentage of the ticket sales for this rally will be applied to this fund. Only the tickets bought in Eaton Hall will be applied, so buy your tickets there. Sale will start Tuesday, November 5th.

Party at First M. E. Friday by Vespers

To Willamette students will be given the first opportunity to enjoy a party in the new Temple at First church. Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock, the walls of First church will resound with laughs, screams, chilling and spine tingling noises, and scared whispers. The University Group, which is the combined University Class and University Vespers, will be host to the ghosts and witches who roam the wintry skies around Hallow'en time, and have asked university students to come as invited guests. The fun and fellowship will be under the planned guidance of Marjorie Thorne, Bill McKinney, and Chester Oppen.

NOTICE!
The Sociology department is sponsoring a survey concerning all Indian relics in Oregon. If any Willamette student knows of anyone at all who owns or knows someone who owns Indian relics it would be greatly appreciated if they would see Agnes Corthell immediately.

HOME-COMING BANQUET WELL ATTENDED

One hundred fifty attended the annual Homecoming alumni banquet, which was held in the First M. E. church of Salem, Saturday, October 19, at 5:30 p. m. Dr. Guy A. Woods, '11, president of the Willamette Alumni association, presided. Speakers for the banquet were Coach Roy Keene, Loren Bassler, '21, College of Idaho coach; Dr. Bruce Baxter; "Pat" Emmons, '31, Salem attorney; and "Bob" Notson, '24, member of the Oregonian staff and of the Willamette University trustees, who gave a fine resume of facts concerning the location of the new state house and the possible purchase of the campus for such. Excellent musical numbers were rendered by Prof. Cameron Marshall, Director of the School of Music at Willamette; Miss Mary Schultz, head of the violin department; and Mrs. Gladys McIntyre Thomas, '26, Miss Clara Eness, head of the piano department at Willamette, served as accompanist.

Plans for a map showing location of Willamette alumni throughout the world were presented by George Selt, Willamette University student. The map is to be placed in Eaton Hall in a conspicuous place. Anyone who is interested may send a contribution toward the expense of this map to Fay Sparks, alumni secretary, c/o Willamette University.

NECROLOGY

Mrs. Helen Mae Rice Van Zytveld, ex-'31, died in a Chicago hospital on September 6. She had undergone a major operation after which she lived only eight days. She leaves a son, Harry J., two years of age; her husband, C. J. Van Zytveld, who is connected with the Testing Laboratories of the Peoples Gas, Light and Coke company in Chicago; and a sister, Mrs. L. G. Woodruff (Margaret Rice, '29) of Lansing, Michigan.

Mrs. Van Zytveld was always deeply interested in Willamette University and had been trying to instigate a reunion this past summer of Willamette graduates in and around Chicago; however, her health did not permit her to see it through. From time to time Mrs. Van Zytveld had contributed to the alumni news column interesting news concerning activities of Willamette alumni in the eastern states. Her interest has been very much appreciated and will be greatly missed.

"IKEY" WHITE GETS DIPLOMATIC POST IN MEXICO

Ivan B. White, '29, has left for Mexico City where he will take up his duties as American vice-consul, to which post he was recently assigned as vice-consul of career, secretary in the diplomatic service and as foreign service officer.

For the past two years "Ikey" has been field administrator for the state relief committee of Oregon.

Following graduation from Willamette in '29, he served as boys' secretary at the Salem Y. M. C. A. for a year, after which he accepted a teaching fellowship in political science at the University of Washington where he prepared himself for the foreign service examination. He was one of eight that succeeded in passing the test which was given to 177. Because of limited appropriations, the state has been unable to make promotions or appointments for the past three years.

White was accompanied to Mexico City by his wife.

PERSONALS

A charivari was given Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Girod at Gates, Oregon, where both teach in the grades. Mrs. Girod was formerly Elsie Rose of Salem. They were married in June. Mr. Girod is a graduate of Willamette with the class of '32.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eakin are living in Portland. Mr. Eakin, graduate of Willamette with the class of '18, and secretary of the Willamette University Board of Trustees, is a trustee of the Guaranty Trust Co. in Portland.

Clarence J. Gillette, '22, and Hugh McGilvra, '28, are the new owners of the Lake County Examiner, weekly newspaper at Lakeview, Oregon. Gillette, who has been with the Portland offices of the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York the past year, will edit the paper. He was formerly editor of the Coos Bay Times at Marshfield. McGilvra, editor of the Forest Grove News-Times, in which Gillette also has an interest, will remain in Forest Grove.

Miss Mildred Bartholomew, '15, is director of college and high school student activities for the First M. E. church of Salem. During the past 12 years she has been connected with the Wesley foundation at Oregon State college, Corvallis. She secured her master's degree at Columbia University in 1923. She spent a year in settlement house work in New York City and served on the staff of Centenary-Wilbur church, Portland, before going to Corvallis.

Miss Bartholomew succeeded Rev. Floyd B. Bailey, '27, director of religious activities for the past two years, who is now pastor of two Methodist churches in Washington—Simpson church, Aberdeen, and Cosmopolis.

Mrs. Earl Pearey (Eugenia McInturff, '17), is the new president of the MacDowell club of Salem.

Mrs. Claire Price (Helen Pemberton, '21, is employed at Moran and Washburn's at Eugene. Her husband is taking work toward his master's degree at the University of Oregon. Both taught at Paisley, Oregon last year.

Lowell Eddy, '35, is taking work toward an M.D. degree at Columbia University, N. Y. C. Dave Moser, '35, is also attending Columbia.

ENGAGEMENTS

The engagement of Miss Gladys Hanson of Salem to Arthur B. Smith, '35, of Jennings Lodge, has been announced. No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect attended Willamette also, where she was a member of Delta Phi. Mr. Smith was affiliated with Sigma Tau.

To Be Seen On the Screen

GRAND

Saturday brings to the Grand theatre a sparkling show, "The Gay Deceiver." It is the story of a prince touring the country who meets a girl, an American, who has just had a small fortune thrown in her lap and is enjoying a first and last merry fling with it. The prince disguises himself as a bell-boy and many mythical situations are produced. Frances Lederer, the handsome Zech star, plays the lead with Frances Dee as the reasons for the situations.

An interesting sidelight on Lederer's life will be found in this following newspaper article which tells of Lederer's sole hobby.

"With the support of World Peaceways and their gigantic advertising campaign, Francis Lederer's plan for ending all war will soon be familiar to innumerable people besides the 100,000 already enrolled in the star's World Peace Federation.

Ever since his arrival in Hollywood, less than two years ago, Lederer has been devoting all his energies and the larger part of his earnings to his ingenious plan for bringing world peace. Over 100,000 people responded by enrolling in his World Peace Federation, and now World Peaceways is adopting Lederer's proposals in their campaign, following the return of Emil Berberich, secretary of Lederer's organization, from a trip to New York, where he arranged the final details with World Peaceways.

"The directors of World Peaceways consider my idea for ending wars as the most practical yet proposed," declared Lederer. "This new support to our crusade should hasten the time when we can martial world sentiment and compel all governments to outlaw war by constitutional amendments."

Under this arrangement, the pamphlets and pledge cards used by Lederer in his international crusade to outlaw war will be included in all outgoing correspondence of World Peaceways."

night to State theatre, is sweeping stakes at the box offices about the country for two reasons: its background and plot, and its several famous stars. It boasts as its leads no less personalities than Charles Boyer, Loretta Young, Warner Oland, Allison Skipworth, and Fred Kating. The picture is authentic as well as dramatic for the producers kept a marine officer, Captain Moody, who was stationed many years in Shanghai, to see that it is authentic.

HOLLYWOOD

"China Seas" is the title of the stirring drama which opens Sunday at the Hollywood theatre with Clark Gable, Jean Harlow and Wallace Beery in the principal parts. As its title implies, the story deals with the adventures of a group of white people on a storm-wracked ship off the southeastern coast of Asia. Peril by typhoons and pirate raids, they work out a strange destiny in the "last frontier" of the sea. With the stars in this Irving G. Thalberg production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is a notable cast that includes Lewis Stone, Rosalind Russell, Dudley Digges, C. Aubrey Smith, Robert Benchley, William Henry, Lillian Bond and many others. Tay Garnett directed.

Tomorrow and Saturday

Jack Holt, stalwart Columbia star, is seen as a burly construction boss in his latest picture, "Awakening of Jim Burke."

lost all of his luggage. Yeah, the cork came out.

It chanced that a fly floated in every one of the three milkshakes: Brandon, the Englishman, blew his fly off the surface.

Kelly, the Irishman, flipped his off with a spoon.
But McAllister, the Scotchman, picked his up and wrung it thoroughly over the glass before casting it aside.

Speaking of milkshakes here is the granddaddy of them all:
"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"

"I'm going a-milking, sir," she said.
"Then give us a kiss to remember you by."

But on she went with a freezing eye.

Like a wolf on the fold;
With their cohorts all gleaming
With purple and gold.

And they kicked, passed and ran
Through the Coyotes with elan,
Thus proving their right the

RAMBLING SHOPPER

By UNCLE WILLE

Hi-de-ho, croaks—er, folks. Pardon, but Uncle just heard "Cousin Elmer" Aden draw out one of his penny puns, and he was just thinking—yowser, just thinking.

FLASH! After besting other contestants in the Symphony Orchestra concerto try-outs, Flavia Downs retreated to Woolpert & Legg's Drug Store to dunk her victory in a glass of Coca-Cola. Not only is she versatile at the ivory, but also when she orders a "coke," Flavia is not satisfied with just one flavia. O-mi-no! She Downs what she calls a Rainbow Special, and folks, to see her guzzle it and ask for more would Gladden your heart. Drop around at W. & L.'s fountain sometime soon and let Jessie fizz you a Rainbow Special.

What with the different dances, teas, parties, and general love affairs which are now beginning to come in swift order, why not look your best? Flowers do make a difference, and who could make a better corsage than "Frosty" Olson? Ahm askin' yuh!

Here's a hot tip to stockholders of the Hanzen & Armprist Root-toot Co. Sally's has just received a shipment of burnished-gold colored skirts, and the female members of your organization can obtain them at 1.49 per. Visualize, gentlemen, the added zip and color in your organization if the females appeared robed in these skirts and cardinal sweaters. And, gals, you'll be pleasantly surprised to see other articles of wear in Sally's stock.

In class our researches are productive of some rather original results. For instance listen in on the following dialogue:
"Say Prof, is this gneiss (nice) a good rock to make statuary out of?"
"No, my boy; marble is what statues are made of."

"Well then, there's no such thing as a gneiss chiseler, and Venus wasn't a gneiss girl, was she, Prof?"

manent wave that will stap out, just trot up State St. one block to the Vanity Beauty Box.

NOTE: Uncle solemnly swears (%?;?;?~?~?~) that he is not the author of Mouldy Tales. Uncle may be all wet, but he ain't mouldy.

After hearing Dr. Baxter talk in chapel on the balmy air, Uncle couldn't help but think of the "balmy heir" who ran all over town looking for a box of candy for his girl, when all he had to do was go down to the Spa and let Maxine tip him to the kind girls like.

Ross Gladden isn't much of a sailor boy, but Wednesday he had one swell feed at the Porthole. Dining upon a generous portion of Fillet of Halibut, "Veep" soon became "fille with halibut." Uncle asked "Veep" how he felt, and "Veep" replied that he had eaten so much that he felt uncomfortable. Now, Uncle asks you, ain't that the halibut?

That last one not only broke our back, but wrecked our typewriter, so we'll conclude with the theme song of the guy whose girl religiously chewed garlic, "I'm dancing with tears in my eyes."

Freshmen Hosts For Party This Saturday

The freshmen on the campus are eagerly anticipating the dance for which they will be hosts this coming Saturday evening. This will be their first big function and will be held at the Salem high school gymnasium. The affair will be from eight to eleven and Kent Thompson and his orchestra will furnish the music. Patrons and patronesses for the dance will be Prof. and Mrs. Herbert Rabe, Prof. and Mrs. Leslie Sparks, Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Jones, and Dr. James T. Matthews.

Miss Betty Lane, vice-president of the class, is in general charge. Autumn leaves and flowers and pumpkins will decorate the hall. At intermission a style show is being planned under the direction of Miss Joyce Harwood. Sport clothes, dinner and formal gowns will be modeled by the Misses Marguerite Smith, Marian Steigerwald, Harriet Childs, June Johnson, Marian Wakefield, and Rosalie Goulder. Other entertainment is being planned between dance numbers.

Betrothal Announced

An interesting engagement made known last week was that of Miss Gladys Hanson, daughter of Mrs. Harry Hanson, and Arthur B. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith of Jennings Lodge. Miss Hanson revealed the news at a party for which she was hostess last Thursday evening at her home.

Both are well known on the Willamette campus. Miss Hanson attended school here and was a member of Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Smith graduated from the university last June and was a member of Sigma Tau fraternity, being manager his senior year. He is now engaged in business at White Salmon, Washington.

Friends bidden to hear the news were Miss Gwendolyn Hunt, Miss Daisy Varley, Miss Pauline Rauth, Miss Frances Stewart, Miss Elva Schon, Miss Alice Speck, Miss Margaret Nunn, Miss Carolyn Hunt, Miss Jeanne Cladek, Mrs. Harold Dunsmoor, Mrs. Neil Fleming and Mrs. Warren Keeney.

Beta Chis Hold Initiation

Miss Beryl Holt, who has been acting as housemother for the past six weeks for Beta Chi sorority, was formally initiated as an honorary member of Beta Chi Monday evening. At the same time Miss Jean Hollingworth, Miss Helen Olds, Miss Ruth Bunzow, and Miss Florence DuFette were initiated as members at a candlelight service. Following initiation a buffet dinner was served honoring the new initiates.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott is returning this week from the east and will again resume her duties as housemother at the Beta Chi house.

Kappa Gamma Rho Dinner Hosts

Some of the members of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity were hosts last Sunday for an informal dinner at the chapter house. Prof. and Mrs. Jones were the patrons; Mr. Jack Simpson presided over the table.

The guests were the Misses Winifred Gardner, Helen Bener, Marjorie Thorne, Irma Gehler, LaVerne Norton, and Ruth Tschanner.

Hosts were Galen Dean, Mervin Brink, Randall Kester, Bob Vagt, Verdell Ragsdale, and Don Marcy.

The Cap and Gown society is undertaking at this time several activities, which are decidedly beneficial to the university. On November 12 it is sponsoring a social as a benefit for Chresto Cottage. All profits made will go toward its upkeep. The society will presently assume the responsibility of seeing that better reading material such as good books and magazine articles is obtainable in the sorority houses.

Miss June Dahlgren visited her home this last week-end in Warren.

Sororities Open Rushing With Formal Teas On Monday

MONDAY afternoon formally opened the rush season for the co-eds on the campus. For the next two weeks one will see girls hurrying and bustling to and from dinners, teas, and informal parties, without a minute to stop. Personal rushing started Tuesday at Alpha Phi Alpha, Beta Chi Wednesday, and Thursday Delta Phi. The buffet dinners will begin Friday evening with Beta Chi as hostess, Saturday and Monday Delta Phi and Alpha Phi Alpha will entertain with their suppers. The formal rush season will be opened next Tuesday, November 5th, with formal dinners given by the respective houses. Delta Phi Tuesday, Alpha Phi Alpha Wednesday, and Beta Chi Thursday.

All three houses were at home Monday afternoon from three until six for all freshmen and new girls.

Miss Rachael Yocom greeted the guests at the door of the Alpha Phi Alpha house, and Miss Ruth Johnson introduced the guests to the line. Receiving were Miss Helen Knight, Mrs. Breck, Miss Dahl, Mrs. Pearce, and Mrs. Kirk. The rooms were modestly decorated in the house colors of lavender and yellow, with bouquets of yellow roses and lavender and yellow chrysanthemums. The dining room was lighted with lavender candles.

Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. Yocom, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Kelly alternated in pouring. Those who served were the Misses Lunelle Chapin, Josephine Hull, Louise Tontz, Margaret Bieder, Ruth Reaser and Norma Fuller.

The Misses Ruth Yocom, Hilda Crawford, Beth DeLapp, Constance Smart, June Dahlgren, Helen Peterson, Betty Galloway and Olivia DeVries acted as hostesses.

Miss Barbara Barnham played several selections on the piano, and Mr. Ervin Potter sang.

Guests at Beta Chi were greeted at the door by Miss Ina Bennett. Miss Hortense Taylor introduced to the line consisting of Miss Esther Gibbard, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. Bruce Baxter and Mrs. E. C. Richards.

The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and tapers. A large bouquet of mixed autumn flowers centered the attractive tea table with golden oak and rust colored tapers guarding them. Mrs. Carl Gabrielson and Mrs. T. A. Livesley poured during the afternoon. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Charlotte Schneller, Rosamund Weston, Helen Olds, Charlotte Litchfield, Jean Hollingworth and Melva Belle Savage.

Miss Hortense Taylor accompanied by Miss Ina Bennett gave several violin selections.

At the Delta Phi sorority Miss Barbara Crookham greeted the guests. Miss Doris Unruh introduced to the line, which included Mrs. F. A. Weil, Mrs. Roy Keene, Mrs. D. H. Schulze.

The lavender and yellow colors were used in the decorative scheme about the rooms and in the centerpiece of the serving table. Alternating at the urns were Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. T. Jenks, and Miss Lois Latimer.

Assisting in serving were the Misses Virginia Pugh, Roberta McGilchrist, Margaret Faxon, Joan Phillips, Carol Gardner, Naida Carroll, and Francis Faber.

During the afternoon musical selections were given by Miss Helen Bener, Miss Elizabeth Boylan, Miss Lois Burton, and the Delta Phi trio.

Delta Theta Phi Banquet Held

The freshmen law school men were honored by Delta Theta Phi, national law fraternity, at a banquet last Friday night at the Quella. Justice Harry Belt of the Supreme Court was the speaker of the evening. Prof. Ray Smith and Dean Roy Lockenour were special guests.

Guests honored were the Messrs Malcolm Jones, Harry Mohr, George McLeod, Lynn Moore, John Larsen, Warner Crow, George McAllister, Elver Rhode, Thome Hammond, Courtney Johns, Charles Heltzel, Sam Harrison, Herman Estes, Clarence Conn, Dewey Palmer, and Morris Saffron.

Hosts were Ray Lafky, Ray Rhoten, Chris Schneider, Ray McKay, Max Taggart, Arlo Cornell, C. F. Addison, Miles McKay, John Minton, Ed Studter, Howard Connor and Jack Simpson.

Daleth Teth Gimel Initiates Girls

Daleth Teth Gimel girls held an impressive initiation ceremony last Wednesday afternoon at Lausanne Hall. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fall flowers. The candlelight service was conducted by the officers of the sorority. The initiated girls were Miss Laura Belle Williams, Miss Alice Midwood, Miss Louise Patterson, Miss Margaret Bieder, Miss Marian Chase, Miss Beatrice Gillette, Miss Dolly Dingle, Miss Helen Mae Thompson, and Miss Margaret Wagner.

Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers Club Meet

The Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers' club met on Tuesday, October 22, at the home of Mrs. Galloway, to formulate plans for this semester and to elect new officers. The new officers are Mrs. Crawford, president, Mrs. Yocom, vice-president, Mrs. Chapin, treasurer, and Mrs. A. A. Taylor, secretary. Other plans are not definite as yet.

Ray Bowman was a guest of the Kappa Gamma Rho Fraternity for this last week-end.

Miss Helen Peterson spent the week-end visiting friends in Eugene.

Junior Tea Event of Last Friday

All freshmen and new girls on the campus were honored with a lovely formal tea at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kirk last Friday afternoon, when the junior girls were hostesses for their annual tea. The rooms were arranged with fall flowers in the red and bronze shades with matching tapers.

Miss Jane Fisher and Miss Helen Purvine greeted the freshmen. Miss Marguerite Clarke introduced to the line, which was composed of Miss Rachael Yocom, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Bruce Baxter, Miss Olive M. Dahl, and Mrs. Daniel Schultze.

Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Anna Mae Unrath and Miss Helen Peterson invited to the dining room. Large golden chrysanthemums adorned the tea table which was covered with a lace cloth. Mrs. M. E. Peck and Mrs. E. C. Richards poured the first hour while Miss Lois Latimer and Mrs. R. M. Gatke presided at the tea table the second hour. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Dorothy McGee, Frances Ellis, Thelma Davis, Betty Galloway, Margaret Doege, Eleanor Trindle, Charlotte Eyre, Margaret Howerton, Marian Minthorn, Lillian Graham, Marjorie Jones and Naida Carroll.

Helping receive the guests were the Misses Lillian Potter, Helen Carlson, Marian Averill, Chikson Chol, and Dorothy Fink-biner.

worth, Helen Olds, Hortense Taylor, Ha Mills, Frances Ellis, Hilda Crawford, LaVerne Norton, Dorothy McGee, Ruth Bunzow, Charlotte LaDue, Dorothy Dalk, Grace Holman, Cynthia DeLano, Dorothy Ghormley, and Victoria Schneider.

Escorts were Winthrop Henderson, Kenneth Manning, David Johnson, Bill Miller, Ervin Potter, Joe Harvey, Louis Stutt, Talbot Bennett, Howard Campbell, Wayne Doughton, Bud Flint, Forrest Robinson, Harrison Elgin, John Kelly, Basil Anton, Kenneth Daly, Charles Versteeg, Dwight Aden, Malcolm Waltman, John Robison, Kenneth Hanson, Kenneth Peterson, Bill Schermerhorn, Otto Wilson, Everett Gary and Ross Gladden.

The Mothers' club of Delta Phi sorority entertained with a bridge benefit Friday afternoon and evening at the chapter house. Large bouquets of chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were arranged about the rooms.

During the afternoon high scores went to Mrs. Bussard, Mrs. Frank Brown, and Mrs. Ralph Wirth.

In the evening Mrs. C. Gabriel, Mrs. D. X. Beechler, and Mrs. David Wright received high scores for contract, while Mrs. Arthur Green and Miss Bertha Babeck won at auction.

Assisting in the serving were the Misses Rosemary Hoffman, Roberta McGilchrist, Frances Faber, Joan Phillips, Wanda Landon, and Winifred Gardner.

Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mrs. Speck, and Mrs. Pugh were in general charge of the affair.

The Misses Rosalie Goulder, Joyce Harwood, and Grace Bailey motored to Portland for the week-end. Miss Bailey was the guest of Miss Marian Johnston during her stay.

Bridge Benefit At Delta Phi

Assisting in the serving were the Misses Virginia Pugh, Roberta McGilchrist, Margaret Faxon, Joan Phillips, Carol Gardner, Naida Carroll, and Francis Faber.

During the afternoon musical selections were given by Miss Helen Bener, Miss Elizabeth Boylan, Miss Lois Burton, and the Delta Phi trio.

The Willamette-C. P. S. game at Tacoma this last week-end drew many Willamette students. A few left Friday and stayed the week-end while others left Saturday morning. A number of the students attended the Washington-California game in Seattle Saturday afternoon, motoring back to Tacoma for the game in the evening. Following the victorious game a dance was given by the C. P. S. student body in honor of the Willamette students.

Among those who went were Jane Bellinger, Miss Kauel Emoto and Clement Temple who were the guests of Jane Bellinger at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lola Bellinger in Tacoma. Others making the trip were Anna Mae Unrath, Esther Black, Lois Underwood, Margaret Haag, Wanda Landon, Alice Speck, Margaret Nunn, Lillian Graham, John Ross, Earle Carlin, Bill Hansen, Bill Miller, Bob Utter, Herman Estes, Paul Hauser, Paul Sturges, Brant Guard, Ray Burby and Frank Genran.

Delightful Party Friday Evening

Miss Jeryme Upston was honored with a gay dancing party at St. Paul's Episcopal parish hall last Friday evening when her mother, Mrs. Arthur Upston, was hostess. The Halloween motif was used in the decorations about the hall. The serving table which was covered with a lace cloth was centered with a bowl of fruit guarded by orange and black tapers.

Guests were the honor guest, Miss Upston, and the Misses Esther Gibbard, Margaret Savage, Edna Savage, Margaret Nunn, Josephine Cornoyer, Jane Fisher, Marguerite Clarke, Dorothy Dingle, Charlotte Litchfield, Melva Belle Savage, Rosamund Weston, Eleanor Trindle, Julia Johnson, Lucile Bruinard, Irma Gehler, Helen Purvine, Lillian Graham, Esther Black, Ina Bennett, Jean Holling-

Birthday Dinner At Lausanne

Girls who celebrated their birthdays in September or October at Lausanne Hall were honored at a charming dinner last Wednesday evening. A clever Halloween decorative scheme was used about the room and on the tables. Orange candles and black and orange appointments decorated the tables.

Miss Marjorie Thorne extended greeting to those celebrating their birthdays and Miss Echo Johnson gave the response.

The honored guests were the Miss Joan Phillips and Miss Marian Stewart of Portland, Miss Billy Smith of Sidney, Montana, Miss Mable Wittrock of Kirby, Miss Jean Rasey of Glasgow, Montana, Miss Belle Brown of Canby, Miss Dorothy King of Burley, Idaho, Miss Phyllis Phythian of Medford, Miss Glenn Bauersfeld of Oregon City, Miss Echo Johnson of Great Falls, Montana, Miss Harriet Childs of Bend, Miss Roberta Smith of Sandy, and Miss Louise Patterson of Burley, Idaho.

An organization is being organized for the sophomore girls. This is to be a service club in which the girls will be asked to serve on various committees throughout the year. Thus the poor sophomore girls will not feel so left out.

Miss Helen Olds spent the week-end at her home in Camas, Washington, and she also attended the Oregon-Washington game in Portland, Saturday.

Don Burch spent the week-end at his home in Silverton.

Verne Rierson and Kenneth Beauchamp also spent the week-end at their respective homes in Camas, Washington.

The Misses Marguerite Clarke, Charlotte Schneller, and Dorothy McGee spent this last week-end at their respective homes in Portland.

Miss Martha Warren spent the week-end in Portland visiting friends.

Miss Barbara Crookham was at her home in Portland this last week-end.

Mr. Bob Anderson, John Kelly, George McAllister, Earnest Mosler, Bill Anton and Delmar Ramsdell all attended the Washington-Oregon game in Portland last Saturday.

Mr. David Johnson, and Mr. Don Hagg spent the week-end at their homes in Roseburg.

Mr. Everett Gary visited friends on the Oregon Campus at Eugene last Saturday and Sunday.

Assisting in the serving were the Misses Rosemary Hoffman, Roberta McGilchrist, Frances Faber, Joan Phillips, Wanda Landon, and Winifred Gardner.

Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. L. L. Laws, Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mrs. Speck, and Mrs. Pugh were in general charge of the affair.

The Misses Rosalie Goulder, Joyce Harwood, and Grace Bailey motored to Portland for the week-end. Miss Bailey was the guest of Miss Marian Johnston during her stay.

HOME CONTEST WITH PACIFIC ON ARMISTICE

Night Game on Sweetland if the Field Isn't Buried; Willamette Favored

PACIFIC RECORD IS BAD

Bearcats To Be at Full Strength First Time; Crown in Offing

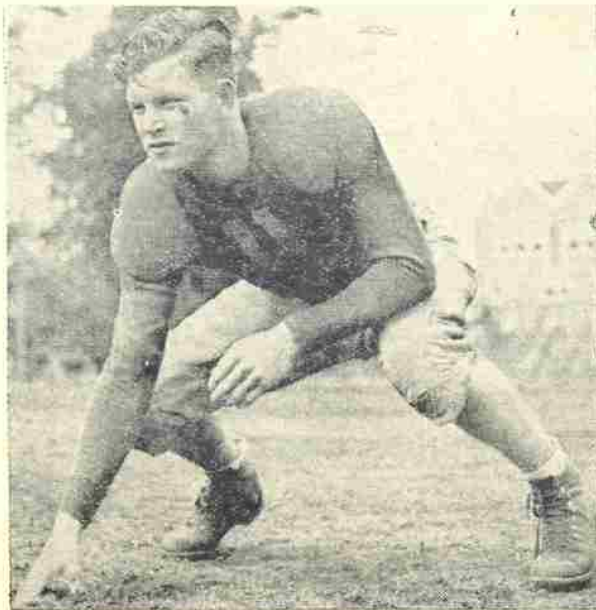

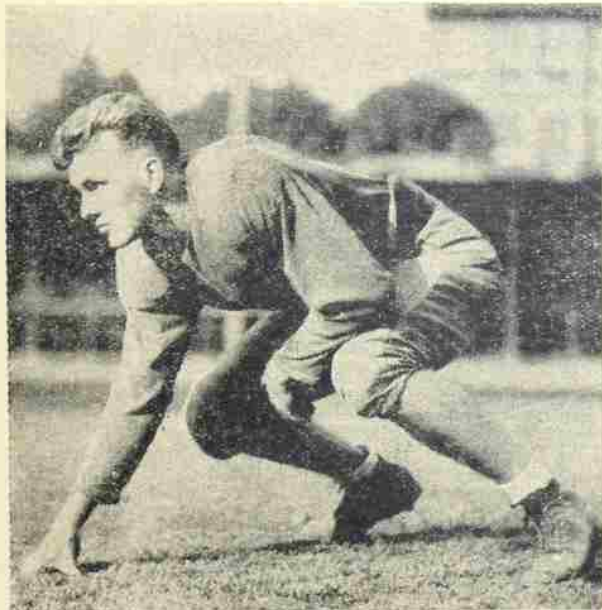

If they can find the football field under the snow, the Willamette Bearcats will tangle with Pacific's Badgers on Sweetland field next Saturday night, and should Willamette win, it will leave them only one jump from the conference championship.

To date Anse Cornell and his Badgers have not piled up a very imposing record, having suffered two defeats, and a tie at the hands of the nation losing champs, Albany.

The Bearcats will be out in full strength for the first time since the first game of the season, with the exception of Bill Beard who is still taking it easy with his busted ankle. Olson, who has been favoring his weak ankle for the past couple of weeks will be ready to go, and it is likely that both he and Carl Rhoda, who has been playing quarterback will see plenty of action.

With a full bevy of backfield men and a wealth of linemen, the Willamette squad will be fully prepared to turn back any Pacific hopes of a David and Goliath act.

A Couple of Ex-Portland Georges Who'll Make Gridiron History

George Billings and George Abbott, who have seen plenty of action in Bearcat games this year. Both are plenty tough frosh from the Rose City. Last year they gave opponents plenty of trouble in Portland prep circles, and before they finish their college careers, they should make things miserable for opposing linesmen.

"On the Bearcat Front" ROY FERRIS

After reading all about the big employment program of Ohio State football team I can't see why we shouldn't have something like that at Willamette. Yes sir, the governor of Ohio thinks it's a great idea to give the players a break by letting them work part time on a state payroll. His idea is not meeting with much opposed criticism either because nearly everyone agrees with him, inasmuch as the players are willing to work for what they get and not only this but they spend from two to four hours on the football field every day in an endeavor to bring glory to their school and state.

There is no better publicity for Salem and the state of Oregon than a good football team. A victory for the home team over some highly recognized collegiate team would mean more publicity for this territory than all the scenic pamphlets and booklets the state of Oregon could distribute in the next ten years. Yet in order to get a victory for the home club we must have a super-attraction to get the good players. Certainly, putting football players on the many part time state jobs, would be the answer. Salem has a wonderful reputation of employing the players but it is obvious too heavy a load to take care of all of them.

Why shouldn't we give this some serious consideration? Let's appoint a committee! The Bearcat front suggest we put some of the Willamette stars who know what it is to work through school and play football, on it. Why not have the big Chief of Police, Darrel Newhouse, as chairman and Charles Versteeg, the touchdown twins, Bill Stone and the rest in order, to form an organization to sweep down on the present legislature? Surely the legislature would conform to the Chief's commands and if they didn't, then he could motion for the rest of the gang to present themselves. They might form a third addition to the house and senate and call themselves "lobbyists." They say this isn't at all foreign to the boys who read the dailies over in the armory. And to help the cause along the student body of Willamette might throw a party (including a box of Havana Sweets) for the bill aggressors. We might be able to inject some of that good old Willamette spirit into them and after getting them to sing our favorite song, maybe we could turn to our real objective and have them sing our theme song, "Our Bill."

It must have been a tough evening for the boys in Tacoma last Saturday night. Even the tough, Harold Hoyt, who usually goes through the hard games without a scratch, came home with a few. Hoyt says C. P. S. doesn't approve of their enemies coming up and then leaving them to hold the sack. In fact one of the C. P. S. players decided when there wasn't much chance for a victory that a Bearcat nose stuck too far out over the line of scrimmage, thus he hauled off and let him have it. Injury number one. Just the same it wasn't the Loggers that booted the Bearcats, it was the Bearcats tramping them to a tune of 15-0.

Pass-Snatcher

Chuck Versteeg, all-conference end last year, and well on his way to double honors. He's down under every punt, and snags more than his share of passes.

Extra! Extra! Albany ties Pacific for a great moral victory. Albany's tie with Pacific is one of the highlights of the grid news. More power to them. Anse Cornell, Pacific coach, said after the game that Albany should have won. It was a great thrill to pick up the Sunday paper to see how the Pirates came out. Now if Skunk-Hallow can turn the tables on the club swinging Dog-Patchers in next week's comic section it will be a great grid season for all concerned.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Worries and more worries are confronting the new chief Billy Sutton as the passball teams remain idle during the last few days. The new director of intra-mural sports began to feel uneasy when the freshmen failed to put a team on the field. This leaves Sigma Tau, Alpha Psi, Kappas, Independents and the P. E. staff to fight it out among themselves. The Kappas jumped into the lead by scoring a lone touchdown over the strong Alpha Psi team. Harry Mohr intercepted one of the loser's passes to give his team a 7 to 0 win.

Twenty basketball aspirants are now working out on the fundamentals and technique in handling the ball under the guiding hand of the former star forward, Bill Lemmon. Coach Lemmon is highly pleased over the coming season's prospects. Among them includes two Portland high school stars who are showing wonderful possibility of being the vets a run for their positions. Several of last year's freshman team are turning out and at least one or two are almost sure to get a call for the varsity. Harry Mosher, clever and

GUESSIN' with GARY

The fact that it takes a winning team to draw a crowd is clearly from the size of the crowds at Willamette's home games this year. For the first time in history football is breaking even from the financial angle. According to Les Sparks, graduate manager, the money problem has not been a problem this year at all, and a few more seasons like the present one might clear up some of the old debts which have been hanging over for several years.

Both home games have been exceptionally good drawing cards, the San Jose game, since it was an inter-sectional contest, and the Idaho game because it pitted last year's co-champions against each other. The next and final game in Salem is with the Bearcat's arch rival, the Pacific Badgers. This is always a close game regardless of dope and comparative scores.

Basketball usually ends the season without dipping into the red ink bottle, but the spring sports have to be supported in main by student body funds. Such sports as tennis, baseball and track have no way of bringing in sizeable revenues.

A home and home basketball with the University of Oregon has speedy forward, is the only letterman now working out. Many other promising candidates are expected to report to Lemmon within the next few days to try their skill on the Maple court.

C. P. S. FALLS BEFORE BEARCATS

C. P. S. met its Waterloo last Saturday night at the hands of the W. U. Bearcats to the tune of 15 to 0.

For the first period, the Loggers held the Bearcats even, but in the second quarter, Vagt came through with two points on a safety that came as the result of a blocked kick.

In the second half, the Maroon and Gold machine started to really perk, and the result was two touchdowns from elusive Johnny Oravec. Weisgerber missed one of the point conversions to make the final count 15 to 0.

been tentatively arranged for the middle of December, just before Christmas vacation, and just before the Oregon Ducks head for sunny California to tackle some of the southern state's college hoop squads.

What to do? That's what's worrying Spec Keene as he looks forward to another whole week of inactivity before the Pacific contest. Lately he has had to resort to pass ball for his players as a form of diversion. Too much scrimmage might injure valuable players, so the milder game is being played this week and the first part of next week.

Friday night will find Keene on his way to Oregon City and the rodeo grounds in that city. It is there that the College of Idaho and the Pacific University squads tangle under the floodlights. A few ideas as to what Pacific is liable to do, and how they intend to do it is the purpose of the trip.

Harold Hoyt, Guard

Hoyt has played his guard position with such a vengeance that he has the reputation of getting his man no matter how big. His special talent is that of breaking through the opposing line, and stopping ball carriers in their tracks.

"Cookie Jar" Open Today to Students

Beginning this afternoon (Thursday) from 3:30 to 5:30 the "Cookie Jar" will be open to university students who care to take the time to drop in for a bite to eat and drink of tea. The charge is your presence.

The "Cookie Jar" is an idea evolved by Miss Bartholomew, who thought some students would like to meet informally. This is no definite meeting, the program being what those attending care to talk about. In the words of James Pyke, it is a tea party, although there may be hot chocolate also.

Any student so desiring may come when he or she can, and leave when he or she must. The "Cookie Jar" is to be a permanent feature on Thursday afternoons of each week.

Exchange Student

our pictures taken on board ship and at the pier.

Dr. Crawford and Mr. Killam were both there together with a group of students. We were given more and more leis and then were whisked out to the campus and the dormitory. The acting dean, Miss Horning, took us to lunch at the Pan Pacific club meeting, where we saw Hawaiian, Portuguese, and Filipino dancing and singing. It was most interesting.

This next Thursday there is another Convocation at which the exchange students will be introduced and will be expected to give a brief talk. Paging Professor Rahe!

A Charlie Kem, an Hawaiian-Chinese, and one of the original 17 exchange students was at this meeting. He met Ellen Nasburg, who attended Willamette, and who came over here last summer. He was responsible for my having the opportunity to attend this luau tonight. It was sponsored by an Hawaiian Club, and was honoring the congressmen here to study the pros and cons of Hawaii being made a state.

The tables were fairly banging under it all. The table cloths were great tea leaves. There were no knives or forks, only a cardboard spoon for the poi. It really was a lot of fun, and very good. Sun Yet Sen's daughter Sally was just across the table, and she ate with her fingers, too. There followed a varied program of Hawaiian music and dancing.

The campus as a whole is most attractive. I am enjoying every bit of it and wish you could send a dozen exchange students next year. They'd love it here. I do appreciate my getting to come, and shall do my best to make the most of it.

Aloha,
MARTHA JANE

Imagine the football game Armistice Day being called off after the first forward pass caught by a player. . . imagine just seeing the ball in the hands of the receiver.

If a man were as cheap as a woman sometimes wishes to make him feel, she couldn't resist him for a bargain.
