Samba-Lelê

Samba-lelê is sick,
He has a broken head,
Samba-lelê needed,
Some eighteen hard hits.
Samba, samba, Samba-lelê
Step on the skirt's hem, lelê

Arr. Daniel R. Afonso, Jr.

Oh beautiful brunette,
Where do you live?
I live on Formosa Beach,
And I am leaving this place.
Samba, samba, Samba-lelê
Step on the skirt's hem, lelê

Tell me, beautiful brunette,
How does one court?
Put a small handkerchief in the pocket
And leave a small point out
Step, step, step, brunette girl,
Step on the skirt's hem, brunette girl.

Rad Mitvaltsuneb

Why scorn me, why be surprised by my graying hair?
Thoughts of sadness have turned my hair gray and wrinkled my forehead.
In my mind and heart I am the same, the same boyish youth
In the same youthful heart, there deep love resides.

Lasha Kventenadze

But what delirium, why don't I know who I am today?
I seek a kindred soul to befriend.
My white hair is a sign that nature's loan is running out.
Why don't I think this is the time for the soul to depart?

Rachael Jordan, student conductor
