

REPORT IS MADE ON BOOTH FUND

C. P. Bishop Custodian, Gives Highlights of Experiences

MANY STUDENTS AIDED

High Compliments Paid to Standards of W. U. Student Borrowers

Reporting as to the condition of the loan fund given to the university some 20 years ago by the Hon. R. A. Booth of Eugene, C. P. Bishop, member of the board of trustees and custodian of the fund, this week interviewed a Collegian reporter who has in the following brief article summed up the statement given by Mr. Bishop to Mr. Booth:

THE BOOTH STUDENT LOAN FUND

Senator R. A. Booth gave one thousand dollars to Willamette university, during the presidency of Dr. J. H. Coleman, to be loaned to students whose funds became exhausted. This fund was turned over to C. P. Bishop to make the loans and collect them and to act as custodian of the funds.

Mr. Bishop has assumed that this fund and accretions thereto did not really belong to Willamette university proper, but to the students of the university; however, this is only an assumption. The policy of the loans has been to make them in small amounts and of short durations. At the beginning of 1905, it was easy enough to take care of all the applications; but for the last fifteen years it has been necessary to change the policy, conserving the use of the funds to seniors, with the thought that where a senior had managed to get through to that year and more especially those who are practically putting themselves through would repay the loan promptly, this being the most expensive year of all, they should have the preference for assistance.

Mr. Bishop has made over 300 loans during the 26 years of his handling the fund. Every single girl borrower has repaid her loan; although one girl was 17 years in repaying hers. Eight of the boys have not paid and never will pay their notes, while eight or ten did so by forced collections. The loans out now amount to $1943.00 and are presumed to be good; also there is in cash $135.00, making a grand total $2078.00. The rate of interest is five per cent.

The showing is very creditable to the students of Willamette, exhibiting high ethical standards of character and reliability that in such a large number of loans so few have proved unfaithful to their trust.

Mr. Bishop says that many of the girl borrowers are made of pure gold and the greater portion of the boys are real red blooded "He Men."

10 MEN SIGN FOR FINALS IN CONTEST

Ten students have signed up for the Keyes oratorical contest, preliminaries of which will be held December 1. The finals will be held December 2. Orations are to be of ten minutes length and on any subject.

Those signing are: R. Knotts, Burton Bears, Wesley Roeder, Frank Haley, Charles L. Gianoli, Howard Teeple, Wm. Mosher, Geo. Seales, Maurice Dean and Daniel Moser.

Tau Kappa Alpha fraternity is sponsoring the contest.

13 Betty Co-eds on Campus Offer Variety to College Men Who Prefer Blondes and Go With Brunettes

"Betty Co-ed, whose lips are like our cardinal—Betty Co-ed, whose hair is like our gold—" which reminds us that there are thirteen Betty Co-eds in Willamette. Of course, they don't all go by the cognomen of "Betty"; but what is "Betty" after all except a variation of Elizabeth?

Independents Plan New Organization Here On Campus

Men Band Together for Social Life and Political Purposes

Tuesday evening marked the official organization of the latest addition to the clubs on the campus of Willamette university when a group of interested students adopted the constitution and elected temporary officers for the Independent Men of Willamette University.

The I. M. W. U. is an organization of men of the campus who do not belong to a social fraternity. No restrictions are made concerning scholastic ability or extracurricular activities. It is for the furtherance of school spirit among the unaffiliated men. So far about 25 students have signified their interest in its organization and any who wish to belong are invited to the next meeting at Cresto, Tuesday at 8 p. m.

Temporary officers elected were president, Frank Childs; vice president, Kenneth Oliver; secretary, Vernon Bushnell; treasurer, Al Downs.

The preamble reads as follows: "In order to promote closer relationship, better understanding, higher social development, and increased service to our Alma Mater among non-fraternity men of Willamette and to forge bonds by which the desired ends of unity and strength of such non-fraternity students may be obtained, we

(Continued on page 3)

SCHOLARSHIP CUPS AWARDED HOUSES

Sigma Tau and Delta Phi Winners in Grade Averages for Past Semester

For approximately eight years the Joseph Albert Scholarship Cup has been offered each semester to the fraternity having the highest grades' standing. This year the cup goes to the members of Sigma Tau for the highest grade average for the second semester of last year. Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity has held the cup more times than either of the other two houses.

The sorority scholarship cup went this year to Delta Phi. This is the third semester they have held the cup. The awarding this year makes the fifth time the cup has been presented. The donor of the sorority scholarship cup presented the cup with the condition that his identity remain unknown.

Both the fraternity and sorority houses have grade chairmen who compile the house grades and give them to Dr. Gattie and Dean Dahl respectively. The grades are checked and the awards made by these members of the faculty.

FROSH WIN RIGHT TO DISCARD COLORS

No longer does the freshman class blossom out in gay colors. Why? This is no mystery to anyone who attended the Homecoming football game. It was then that the freshman demonstrated their superior skill in an exciting bag rush and a chariot race.

Although the bag rush is one of the Willamette traditions the chariot race is new this year. This gives the freshmen and sophomore a chance to show their ability in running.

The bright red and yellow ribbons and caps are very much missed as they added a distinctive feature to the freshman and to the campus.

'DANGEROUS PATRIOTISM' IS DISCUSSED BY YMCA

At the "Y-M" meeting on Wednesday, the topic for discussion was "Dangerous Patriotism." Hayes Beall led the discussion and much interest was evidenced in this timely topic.

The campus Christian associations are active in counteracting the militaristic propaganda which is prevalent at this Armistice time.

"FLUNK LISTS" OUT
"Flunk-lists" have been turned in to Dean Erickson and he finds that fewer than the ordinary number are falling in more than one subject. There are at least ten boys to every girl on the list, probably because of athletics and because so many are working outside of school.

STUDENTS WILL CONVEINE IN N. Y.

Student Volunteers to Study "The Living Christ in the World Today"

FOUR WILL GO FROM W.

Personal and World Questions to Be Discussed Dec. 30 to Jan. 3

The Eleventh Quadrennial Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions will meet in Buffalo, New York, from December 30, 1931, to January 3, 1932. Delegates from all over the world will convene there to study the theme, "The Living Christ in the World Today." The convention meets every four years, drawing new students at each convention to discuss problems that arise. Willamette will send four delegates. However, they have not been definitely decided upon as yet.

The convention has four main objectives: they will seek a comprehensive view of the world today with its momentous forces; they will consider the extent to which Jesus is attracting interest in the world; they will consider how his power is finding effective expression in the world-wide enterprise of Christian Missions. Finally, they will attempt to discover what this enterprise must become in the future.

The students have some problems confronting them. One of the major ones is, "What Shall I do With My Life?" Under the leadership of such men as Paul M. Harrison, M.D., and John R. Mott, these problems will be analyzed.

The delegates from our campus will have their trips financed by the A.S.W.U. Only students planning life-time Christian service will be eligible. The names of the delegates will be announced at an early date.

The convention has three main features which will be of interest to many. The features include the platform addresses of the convention. These platform addresses will center around World Disarmament in accordance with the Disarmament Conference at Geneva which is to follow shortly.

In the afternoons of the convention a series of short plays will be presented. Also, an elaborate pageant will be forthcoming.

One of the most vital features of the convention will be the round table discussions. Each leader of the convention has been assigned a subject in which he is interested. The delegates will then be grouped under these leaders in respect to their interests. These round tables are to be conducted in an informal manner and the student delegate is entitled and expected to participate in these discussions.

A committee consisting of Isabel Childs, Eugene Smith, John Rudin, Wesley Warren, John Adlard, Paul and Nellie Ackerman, Doris Clarke, and Hayes Beall, met Monday. At least two faculty members will be added to this group; the purpose of this committee is to serve in making possible the sending of delegates from Willamette. Four years ago the delegates to the convention were Virginia Edwards, Wesley Gordon, Harold Shellhart, and Esther Lisle.

'DANGEROUS PATRIOTISM' IS DISCUSSED BY YMCA

At the "Y-M" meeting on Wednesday, the topic for discussion was "Dangerous Patriotism." Hayes Beall led the discussion and much interest was evidenced in this timely topic.

The campus Christian associations are active in counteracting the militaristic propaganda which is prevalent at this Armistice time.

"FLUNK LISTS" OUT
"Flunk-lists" have been turned in to Dean Erickson and he finds that fewer than the ordinary number are falling in more than one subject. There are at least ten boys to every girl on the list, probably because of athletics and because so many are working outside of school.

TED PARKER IMPROVES
Ted Parker is beginning to be up a little time each day. He is able to read a bit more than at first. His health is improving in every way, though slowly of course. He still has many long-some hours, however, and daily asks for more visitors.

Sale of Badges By W.A.A. Proves Very Successful

Only Fifty "W" Emblems Remain to Be Sold Before Pacific Game

Only fifty of the original two hundred and fifty "W" badges being sold by the Women's Athletic Association, remain unsold. Under the general direction of Esther Girod, assisted by Isabel Childs and Dorothy Dalk, a big sale will be held before the Pacific game.

The round Cardinal and Gold badges have proved very popular among students and faculty. Each pin sells for 25 cents; one-third of the profit realized goes into the treasury of the organization, the other two-thirds is to be added to "Spec's" athletic fund.

President White requests that all individuals selling the badges bring the returns to the book store as soon as possible.

JAPANESE LEAGUE LED BY ACKERMAN

Young People's Group Holds English Services Every Sunday Morning

The Japanese Young People's League of the Salem Japanese Community church are now holding services conducted in English each Sunday morning at eleven o'clock under the leadership of Paul Ackerman.

The Japanese Young People's League was formed a number of years ago in the interests of the second generation of Japanese since the church services were conducted in Japanese and the young people could not understand the services. The League meets each Sunday night at 7:30 for varied programs, usually consisting of a speaker, a musical number, and general discussion. At present Professor Haworth of Willamette university is giving a series of lectures on evangelism. Once each month the members of the League meet for a social evening.

The officers are: Ross Knotts, president; Hechis Watanabe, first vice-president and pianist; Frances Maeda, second and third vice-president; Jessie Fukuda, fourth vice president, and Selko Watanabe, recording secretary.

BLUE KEY PLANS TO HOLD MEETINGS

Blue Key will hold its regular luncheon meeting, Tuesday noon, November 10. At this time, plans for the proposed excursion to the football game at Whitman college will be formulated; and the date will be set for a joint meeting with the Blue Key organization of Pacific university.

Members of Blue Key have assisted in handling the crowds and keeping order at the home games. Melvin Crow has charge of this work. They will also assist in every way possible to promote an excursion to Whitman, according to Dwight Adams, president.

In agreement with Pacific university members, the two organizations have decided to have a joint meeting at McMinnville. The purpose of this meeting is to promote greater friendship and sportsmanship between the two schools, also to show Linfield college the value of this organization.

SUNSETTERS DISCUSS MOB PSYCHOLOGY

At a recent meeting of the Sunset Philosophy club, Kenneth Oliver was elected acting-president, to retain that office until the president-elect, Ted Parker, is able to resume his school work and campus activities.

Mob psychology was the subject chosen to be discussed at the next meeting, which will be this afternoon in the bell-tower.

PROEBSTEL WILLAMETTE ALUMNUS

Lester Proebstel, who spoke in chapel Tuesday, received his A. B. degree at Willamette in 1914 and last year was granted the D. D. honorary degree. He is a missionary at the Anglo-Saxon school at Ipoh, Malaya, Straits, and is now on furlough. He will soon return to the Straits.

During his visit to Willamette, a great many students took advantage of his offer to confer with them.

To Canvass Salem For Disarmament Petition Signers

Students to Help Obtain Signatures in Interest of World Peace

Sunday afternoon, November 8, all of Salem will be canvassed in an effort to secure signatures to a petition, addressed to the president of the United States, advocating world disarmament.

The canvass is sponsored by the Salem Council for the Prevention of War, of which Mr. Joseph Albert is president. The Reverend Hugh B. Fouke is in charge of the services of several members of the churches. Several Willamette students will aid in the canvass. Those who have promised to do so are: Forrest Mills, Marvella Edwards, Hayes Beall, Glen Huston, Grant Bidley, and Elizabeth Smith.

M'DOWELL CLUB TO GIVE XMAS CONTEST

Jean Kantner Baritone and Well-known Soloist to Be Presented

An event of interest to all those who love music is the Christmas concert of the Salem MacDowell club, which will be held in the Grand theater, December 1. Jean Kantner, the baritone soloist, will be featured at that time. He is a northwest man, having his B.A. from the University of Washington. Kantner is only 25 years of age, but he has achieved national distinction through his remarkable voice.

The Christmas concert of the Salem MacDowell club is always a beautiful event, carrying out the spirit of the season in music and in decoration. The concert is an inspiration to those who attend it. The student admission is 50c.

STUDENT-FACULTY CONFERENCE MEETS

A conference, at which some twelve northwestern colleges including Willamette were represented, met at Government Camp on Mt. Hood, October 30, 31, and November 1, to discuss problems and situations of common interest to both students and faculty members.

The delegation from Willamette was composed of Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Schulze, Hayes Beall, Wesley Warren and Doris Clarke.

One of the more important problems discussed was: "How to bring about a closer cooperation between students and faculty members in order to make possible a richer and more full education." Questions concerning curriculum were also touched upon. The growing demand for methods in teaching and administration which will personalize rather than systematize the educational process was discussed. The delegates reported the conference very successful and valuable.

MOOT COURT CONVENES FOR FIRST TIME WED.

Moot court met for the first time on Wednesday evening of this week. The meeting was taken up with matters of the court procedure; and as this was not of interest to other than law students, visitors were not invited.

Prof. Roy M. Lockenour, who was appointed for the purpose by a resolution of the University Trustees, is engaged in going over the minutes of the meetings of the trustees. He is to "revise, codify and print the university by-laws" so as to make them more readily accessible. He reports that he expects to have the work done in a short time.

PROFESSOR PECK FINDS SLIME MOULDS, PLANTS

Three new slime moulds and 12 flowering plants, hitherto unclassified, have been found by Professor Morton E. Peck. These he will include in his book about Oregon flora, which he expects to have published in about two years.

There are 500 known slime moulds in the United States; and 250 of them are common to Oregon.

THOMAS EDISON TO BE HONORED

Science Club Sponsors Lecture on Edison, Illustrated by Film Slide

PROGRAM MON., NOV. 9

Much Interest is Aroused by Mummy Exhibits; Large Crowd is Expected

Monday evening, November 9, at 7:30 o'clock, in chapel the Science Club will sponsor a program honoring the late Thomas A. Edison. The program will consist of an illustrated lecture to be read by Charles Campbell. The general public is invited and students urged to attend.

The lecture and the accompanying film were obtained from the General Electric Company. The lecture is a brief biography of Thomas A. Edison, and the film slide illustrates it quite completely, as it shows some of his inventions, scenes from his laboratory, and other pictures concerning his life and work.

The Science Club has created much interest among the alumni. Many of the latter have requested the Science Club to notify them of all their programs so that they could attend. Mr. Noel's display of mummies, and relics of America's vanished race of pilgrims, created so much interest among the members and guests of the Science Club that the display was given again by the Science Club at the Homecoming carnival.

Much has been done to bring both students and the citizens of Salem into contact with scientific matters this year. The large number of townspeople who crowded the chemistry room in Science Hall to see the first exhibit of the Utah mummies showed real interest in the work of the Science Club, and, as a result, the organization is expecting the chapel to be crowded Monday evening.

FAME OF POLICE SCHOOL GOES FAR

Very favorable comment has been received from many sources upon the fine work done by the Police School conducted by the College of Law last summer.

A short time ago Dean Hewitt received a letter from the Deputy Chief Inspector of the police department of New York City. The inspector enclosed a money order, and requested that a mimeographed copy of the lectures given in the course be sent him.

An edition of mimeographed copies of these lectures was prepared this summer and all those who have been sent out as orders for them have come in, but an effort is being made to collect a copy for the New York inspector.

As yet, university officials have made no announcement in regard to continuing this work this coming summer, but it is to be hoped that an undertaking which brings such well deserved attention to our school will be looked upon with favor. Another article on this subject will appear in a later issue.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CALLS MANY MEETINGS

The executive committee elected Joseph Felton as the new member on the honor code committee at their meeting last week.

A meeting will be held this week to discuss a number of important problems, including a special football excursion to Walla Walla on November 26, when Willamette meets Whitman in the last football game of the season.

Y. W. C. A. TO HOLD A BOX-LUNCH SUPPER

Staff members of the Y. W. C. A. will hold a box-lunch supper in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church at 5:30 Thursday, November 5. The purpose of the meeting is to give the committees opportunity to organize their work for the year. After the supper the group will attend the vesper services in Cresto cottage.

MRS. W. E. KIRK SPEAKS
At the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. last week Mrs. W. E. Kirk spoke to the girls about her trip to Europe.

Jamboree After W. U. Rally In the Gymnasium

Coach "Spec" Keene Will Speak, Football Team Will Appear, Band Will Play

A gay jamboree will be held in the Gym immediately following the rally Thursday night, which will form in front of Waller Hall at 7 p. m.

The W. U. band will play a medley of numbers, Coach "Spec" Keene will talk, the football team will make an appearance and several members will say a few words, and, lastly, coffee and doughnuts will be served.

The Pep Staff is conducting the affair under the personal supervision of Lois Wilkes, song queen. Tickets are ten cents and may be secured from any pep staff member.

The Jamboree will be over by 8 o'clock, in order to allow plenty of time to study.

TRY-OUTS HELD FOR ONE ACT PLAYS

Members of Play Production Class to Direct Casts for Presentation

Tryouts for five of the seven one-act plays to be produced by member of the play production class were held Monday, November 2. Approximately 60 students tried out. The lists of the casts have not yet been completed, but they will be finished soon and announced at a later date.

"The Stepmother," a comedy by Arnold Bennett, which describes the difficulties of an eccentric lady novelist, her stepson, her secretary, and her doctor, an ardent admirer, is under the direction of Fay Cornutt.

The second play, "For All Time," a drama by Rita Wellman, portrays the influence of a boy's death in the war on the lives of the three persons who loved him most, his mother, his sweetheart and his nurse. This play will be coached by Helen Styles.

Eloise White will coach "Londonderry Air," a merry comedy by Rachael Field.

Anton Tchekoff's "The Boor," a comedy of Russia, will be directed by Virginia Durkin.

The fifth play, "The Confidant," a light tragedy by Charles Vallette McCauley is under the direction of Nellie Ackerman.

The remaining plays are "Cured" by Margaret Strickland Hurley, and "Sance for the Goslings," Lulu Allen will coach the first, and Lulu Walton the latter.

First play practices will be held soon. The plays are to be produced consecutively in the Little Theater at stated intervals during the months of November and December.

OLD ROMAN LAMP GIVEN TO MUSEUM

An interesting old Roman lamp has been presented to the Willamette museum by Mrs. Margaret Mitchell of Salem. The lamp was a gift to Mrs. Mitchell from a friend, who brought it from the catacombs in Rome, years ago.

The lamp is of very fine, light clay and has a face of Caesar moulded on it. It is only one inch high and two and three-fourths inches in diameter, with a round neck hole so small it will not admit a lead pencil.

According to Professor Kirk, who has seen similar Roman lamps, this specimen is at least 1500 years old. It was customary to burn olive oil in such lamps.

Game and Excursion Are Theme Of Worthy Literary Exposition By Happy Chattering Co-ed

By LULU ALLEN
Burr—Burr—and so on far into the morning until at last some sweet-gentle voice piped out "Why don't you shut off that alarm clock?" After which one heard the owner of the offending clock trudge frantically under a pillow and extract the howling instrument of torture. After every one on the whole porch was awake, they heard voices—people falling over chairs and other early morning prostration but at last the voices faded into the distance with someone exclaiming "The train would be 15 minutes late."

All bedecked with "mums" the would-be-excursionists mounted the train, to a car which the conductor repeatedly referred to as "for that high school bunch"—the indignity of it!

At last Portland, and the buses. We were all nicely packed in after seeing hours of delay, when one of the big noises who had been vociferous loud and long because of the delay, suddenly remembered a brief case left on the train, and the happy groups waiting and waited while the train was chased down as the brief case recovered.

FACULTY RAISE MONEY TO LOAN

Students Offered $500.00 Without Interest Charge By Professors

PAY CHECKS ARE DIVIDED

Self Supporting Students Found in Need of Financial Aid

Last Saturday, October 31, was pay day for the professors, but it was also the natal day for a new student loan fund. Immediately after receiving their salary checks the faculty made donations to a special fund for the purpose of aiding self-supporting students. The contributions were generous for a total of $500 was turned over to the business secretary, Mr. Savage.

The decision for the raising of this loan fund was prompted at the last faculty meeting on October 27. As it was wished to employ the money to the best advantage, other uses were discussed. Among these were unemployment relief, charity, and sundry student needs. However, it was decided that the financial aid for students in the form of loans was the best.

The money will be loaned on short terms, as it is expected that it will be a revolving fund, that it will be used every year. It is hoped that the students borrowing now will be able to repay next summer. Thus, the fund will reach and help many more students than if it were given for longer terms.

President Doney and Dean Erickson are in charge. Applications will be made to them and they will administer the loans as they see fit. Considerations will be made upon the following points, scholarship, financial need and general college record.

PHYSICAL ED CLUB HEARS HEALTH TALK

The newly formed Physical Education club held its second meeting of the year Monday evening, October 26, at the home of Coach and Mrs. Spec Keene. About 20 members were present.

The main address of the evening was given by Dr. Dator of the Marion County Health Clinic on the subject of Health and its Relation to Physical Education. Professor Sparks then outlined the requirements of a physical education major.

Mildred Miller and Walter Erickson were appointed a committee to select the place of the next meeting which will be held sometime in the latter part of the month.

Y. W. C. A. Cabinet to Attend Conference Nov. 7, at Linfield

Saturday, November 7, the cabinet members of the Y. W. C. A. are going to attend a conference of all the Y.W.C.A.'s of Oregon's smaller colleges. The retreat will be held at Linfield. Ruth Warner, chairman of the worship committee of Willamette Y. W. C. A., will have charge of the devotions at the conference. The colleges to be represented are Pacific College, Monmouth Normal, Albany College, Pacific University, Linfield, and Willamette.

Game and Excursion Are Theme Of Worthy Literary Exposition By Happy Chattering Co-ed

By LULU ALLEN
Burr—Burr—and so on far into the morning until at last some sweet-gentle voice piped out "Why don't you shut off that alarm clock?" After which one heard the owner of the offending clock trudge frantically under a pillow and extract the howling instrument of torture. After every one on the whole porch was awake, they heard voices—people falling over chairs and other early morning prostration but at last the voices faded into the distance with someone exclaiming "The train would be 15 minutes late."

All bedecked with "mums" the would-be-excursionists mounted the train, to a car which the conductor repeatedly referred to as "for that high school bunch"—the indignity of it!

At last Portland, and the buses. We were all nicely packed in after seeing hours of delay, when one of the big noises who had been vociferous loud and long because of the delay, suddenly remembered a brief case left on the train, and the happy groups waiting and waited while the train was chased down as the brief case recovered.

"We're off" with a stop at (Continued on page 3)

Willamette Collegian

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

Official Publication A. S. W. U.

Member of National Intercollegiate Press Service

Subscription rate $1.00 per year

Entered at the Postoffice at Salem, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

ISABEL CHILDS, Editor

EVANS HAMILTON, Manager

Associate Editor: MURIEL WHITE
 Assistant Editor: LOIS WILKES
 Sports Editor: TED PARKER
 Sports Editor Pro Tem: DONNELL SANDERS
 Assistant: CHARLES GIANOLI
 Society Editor: BEITHA BABCOCK
 Assistants: DOROTHY DALK, MAXINE GLIBERT
 Managing Editor: HAROLD KROTON
 Head News Editor: LILA CATTON
 Assistants: AMELIA SCHIRACK, ROSCOE WEST, DEENA HART
 Alumni Editor: FAYE SPARKS, '25
 Press Correspondent: JEAN PETERSON
 Contributing Editor: ERNEST DENKING
 Columnist: HELEN CHILDS, MADALINE SCHMITZ
 Hack Writer: ROBERT CULBERSON
 Reporters: P. Albee, S. Bruns, E. Baker, D. Beaman, W. Brainard, V. Bushnell, F. Childs, R. Chapman, E. Cole, J. Dusch, D. Duffel, M. Easton, R. Fick, J. Forrest, E. Glavey, B. Hyde, K. Horton, B. Hawkins, O. Jones, B. Lanning, M. Lane, B. Moffatt, E. McMillen, K. Oliver, N. Parling, Rev. R. Sheldon, H. Skinner, E. Sisson, S. Watanabe, D. West, R. Weber, A. Weiss, R. Young, G. Hunt, M. Bowers, E. Barth.

BUSINESS STAFF

Advertising Manager: TOM GOYNE
 Circulation Manager: FRED HARRIS
 Assistants: Dorothy Shepherd, June Spores, Helen Larson, Iwita Clark, Thoburn Hutton, Louis Magin, Wesley Jenko, Bud Frot, Reginald Rees.

Editorial and Business offices, Basement Waller Hall, Phone 3088.

THE ALUMNUS

With Willamette Alumni

Officers for 1931

President: DR. Carl J. Hollingsworth, '13
 First vice-president: CHARLES W. Redding, '28
 Second vice-president: DR. Guy A. Woods, '11
 Third vice-president: METTA Walker, '19
 Secretary-treasurer: LESTIE J. Sparks, '19
 Members of Executive Committee: Gertrude Reeves Smith, '13
 Lella Johnson, '19
 Alumni elected to Board of Trustees: Merton DeLong, '12
 Robert Notson, '24

WHO'S WHO

Have you ever wondered who was responsible for the birth of the "Collegian," or who planted the shade trees between Lanes and

Dr. B. L. Steeves

and Waller Halls? The answer is Dr. B. L. Steeves, a gentleman who is as distinguished as he looks.

It has occurred to us that many of our association members would like to know about eminent graduates of Willamette, so we have chosen for our first "Who's Who" the former president of the board of trustees, a man who for fifteen years served his Alma Mater in this capacity.

Dr. Steeves, a native of Canada, was graduated in 1881 from the liberal arts school, and in 1894 received his degree in medicine from Willamette. At that time the university had a fine medical school, from which a great many of our prominent doctors were graduated. This school was later moved to Portland, where it was taken over by the University of Oregon.

In 1893 Dr. Steeves married Sarah Hunt, daughter of a prominent pioneer family of Oregon. Mrs. Steeves, who is gifted as an author, also attended Willamette. Proving their faith in the school, they sent their son and daughter to Willamette, where they were graduated in 1917 and 1921, respectively. Lelan, the father of two prospective W. C. athletes, is a successful physician in Salem, and Muriel, who is Mrs. Paul Morse, lives at Oswego where she is busily engaged with three future W. C. cowboys.

You wonder how the "Collegian" started. In those days college papers were rare. Dr. Steeves discussed the publication of a newspaper with the Philodorian society, which agreed to sponsor it. This society, by the way, was the oldest literary society west of the Mississippi, but it has been discontinued in recent years, as have the other literary societies. Dr. Steeves gave the paper its name, and as first editor of the "Collegian," wrote the Salutatory, the first article on the first page. The first manager was N. M. Newhart, '90, who is a lawyer at Lebanon. The paper was published in 1899 in pamphlet form by the printing office of Ross Moores, a brother of A. N. Moores, '78.

Music has always held an important place at Willamette. As a member of the first varsity quartet to give concerts for reimbursement, Dr. Steeves had some interesting experiences. The other members of the quartet were F. A. Legge, now a resident of Salem, Mr. Ginn (deceased), and Dr. H. C. Epley, who is a dentist in Salem. A horse street-car had just started to operate in Salem, and the street-car company hired the four young men to sing twice a week. This they did at the corner of State and Liberty streets; they would board the car and travel to the end of the line where they would sing again. Concerts were also given in nearby towns. Mary (Steiner) Denton, '90, was accompanist for the quartet.

Dr. Steeves was also a member of the first instrumental quartet, in which he played the clarinet. Dr. Epley and Mr. Ginn played guitars, and Levi Magee, '90, played the violin. Mr. Magee passed away several years ago. Dr. Steeves was one of the organizers of the university band, and played the clarinet in this also. There were fifteen members, and one of these was Dr. Epley who played the tuba. The first leader was Dave Rosebrook who was induced to attend Willamette because of his ability not only as a conductor, but also as a cornet and violin player. He is now a nationally famous bandmaster in California.

Can you imagine the graduates of today having to give a Commencement address? Years ago that is just what they had to do, so Dr. Steeves, with the other five members of his class, gave an address. Later when Dr. Steeves was graduated from the school of medicine, he delivered the Valedictory.

There was no athletic activity during the time that Dr. Steeves was in the school of liberal arts; however, the medical school organized a football team to play the State Medical school, and on this team Dr. Steeves played right tackle. After graduation from Willamette, the doctor practiced at Silverton for three years. From there he went to Huntington, a town of which he was mayor. Then, the Steeves family moved to Weiser, Idaho, where they lived for eight years. Dr. Steeves was lieutenant-governor of Idaho, and was said to be the youngest person to hold such an office at that time in the United States.

In 1909 Dr. Steeves came to Salem, where he later became mayor. He has held numerous other offices of importance, among which were the presidency of the State Medical association, of the Bank of Commerce, and of the board of trustees of the Methodist Episcopal church. Furthermore, he has been a delegate for Oregon on several occasions to the national conference of Methodist churches.

Dr. Steeves, who believes in seeing America first, has travelled extensively in the United States. Dr. and Mrs. Steeves have also visited Cuba, Canada, Mexico, and the Hawaiian Islands. Moreover, the doctor hopes to see a great deal of the Orient and of Europe.

Dr. Steeves is now associated with Drs. Findley, Clement, and Baum in the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Clinic of Salem.

Dr. Steeves, who believes in seeing America first, has travelled extensively in the United States. Dr. and Mrs. Steeves have also visited Cuba, Canada, Mexico, and the Hawaiian Islands. Moreover, the doctor hopes to see a great deal of the Orient and of Europe.

Dr. Steeves is now associated with Drs. Findley, Clement, and Baum in the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Clinic of Salem.

Dr. Steeves, who believes in seeing America first, has travelled extensively in the United States. Dr. and Mrs. Steeves have also visited Cuba, Canada, Mexico, and the Hawaiian Islands. Moreover, the doctor hopes to see a great deal of the Orient and of Europe.

Dr. Steeves is now associated with Drs. Findley, Clement, and Baum in the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat Clinic of Salem.

HOMECOMING BANQUET WELL ATTENDED

About ninety were present at the alumni banquet which was held in the Masonic Temple, Saturday, October 24. Dr. Hollingsworth, president of the association, conducted a short business meeting. He requested the committee on the revision of the constitution to be ready for a report at the June meeting. A report of the executive committee was given, and Dr. Hollingsworth reminded members that dues were payable.

Judge James W. Crawford, toastmaster, was introduced by Dr. Hollingsworth. The main speaker was Congressman W. C. Hawley, a former president of Willamette and an alumnus, who spoke of the early origin of the school and traced its influence on history from the older to the present generation. He congratulated Dr. Doney on the excellent work and high standard of the university, adding that in his contacts in Washington, D. C., he frequently hears praise for Willamette University. Congressman Hawley also mentioned that many judges of the supreme court and prominent professional men are graduates of Willamette.

Dr. Doney spoke of the urgent need of new buildings, especially a library and a science building. He was impressed by the significance of Willamette University as spoken by Mr. Proebstel and Dr. Hollingsworth. Dr. Doney stated that Willamette students stand out as exponents of higher culture and urged that everyone in unique.

Other speakers called upon by Judge Crawford were: Charles Redding, Portland; U. S. Attorney George Neuner, Portland; Roy S. Keene, Salem; Dean Frank M. Erickson, Salem; Clarence E. Emmons, Salem; Lester Praebstel, New York City and India; Dr. Neal L. Zimmerman, Portland; Sheldon Sackett, Salem; Mrs. Helen Wastell Winters, Taft, Oregon; Howard Maple, Salem.

Ronald Craven, accompanied by Mrs. A. A. Schramm, sang "I Hear a Thrush at Eve" and "Morning". Lois Wilkes, song queen, accompanied by Marjorie O'Dell at the piano, led the group in singing Willamette songs, and the meeting adjourned with the singing of "The Old Historic Temple."

WHO'S WHERE

A. Ann Silver, '26, is associate secretary of the Y.W.C.A. Metropolitan Student Headquarters, Boston, Mass. Miss Silver informs us that her brother Joseph, '30, is studying at the London School of Economics and "writes very glowingly of his experiences."

Mrs. V. D. Bain (Pauline McClintock, '23) was elected corresponding secretary and Mrs. Rodney Aidsa (Margaret Johnson, '27) treasurer of the Woodburn Woman's Club.

Mrs. Emery Johnston (Rosa Frodenberg, ex-'24) was a recent visitor in Salem, having come up to attend the wedding of Carol Rabkopf in Portland, Mrs. Johnston, whose home is at Gold Beach, Oregon, has a young son three years of age.

Donald Matthews, ex-'18, is connected with the Experiment Station of the United States Forest Service in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews (Goldie Everett, ex-'20) are the parents of a boy and a girl, whom, of course, Professor Matthews thinks are the finest grandchildren in the world.

The Salem branch of the American Association of University Women has two state officers who are graduates of Willamette, Miss Beryl Holt, '16, is state educational chairman, and Dr. Helen Pearce, '15, is a member of the state fellowship committee.

Dr. I. N. Sanders, '06, Salem physician, has returned after a vacation trip of several days motoring in various parts of Oregon.

John H. Carson, '15, district attorney for Marion county for nearly 11 years, has announced that he will not be a candidate for that office again and plans to retire to devote his entire time to private law practice on December 31, 1932.

Recent guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gatke were Mrs. Edward J. Warren (Helen Gatke, ex-'25) and son and daughter of Santa Cruz, California. Mrs. Warren had been visiting her parents in Tacoma, Wash., and stopped over for a few days' visit with her brother and sister-in-law on her way to California. Mr. Warren, '25, teaches in the junior high school at Santa Cruz.

Elaine Clower, '25, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Silverton Teachers' Association.

Word comes that Josephine Albert, '21, who is studying voice in New York City, obtained an audition with the assistant director of the Choral Society of the Friends of Music, and has been made a member of the society. This choral organization has 180 trained voices and sings in the Metropolitan opera house one Sunday each month accompanied by the Metropolitan orchestra. Noted artists sing with the society occasionally and Arthur Bodansky is director.

Mrs. Vernon Day (Esther Palmer, ex-'30) of Silverton was a soloist at the Salem MacDowell club concert which was given at the Roberts studio, Monday evening, October 26. Mrs. Day is a student of Lorraine Close, harpist with the Portland symphony orchestra.

Miss Beryl Holt had as her guests for Homecoming week-end Mr. and Mrs. William Winter of Taft, Oregon. Mrs. Winters (Helen Wastell) is a member of the class of 1916.

Mrs. James Bohle (Dorothy Thompson, ex-'23) who underwent a serious mastoid operation at the Salem General hospital is recovering satisfactorily, but will not be able to receive company for several days yet. Mrs. Bohle's home is in Olympia, Washington, where Mr. Bohle, '22, is vice-principal of the senior high school.

Dean Roy Hewitt, '09, has been much in demand as a speaker for various organizations in Salem and other towns. On October 24, he addressed delegates attending the Northwest Oregon Officers Association at Astoria, discussing the general relationship between peace officers and courts. Recently he spoke on world economic conditions before members of the Albany Kiwanis club. He also has given numerous talks concerning his recent trip to the Orient.

Dean Hewitt has the honor of being the only nominee for the office of president of the Salem Kiwanis club.

The home economics course put out by the state for local communities will be given at Turner, Mrs. Mae Mickey Hadley, '19, who is the home economics teacher in the high school, will be the leader. The course covers one lesson a week for ten weeks.

The revised and enlarged edition of "Oregon History and Early Literature" by Professor John B. Horner has recently been published by the J. K. Gill Co. Critics regard the book as exceptionally interesting and informative. The volume, which is subtitled "A Pictorial Narrative of the Pacific Northwest," is illustrated photographically and by sketches and maps. The concise chapters include divisions on "Pre-historic Oregon," "Discovery of Oregon," "Fur Traders and Missionaries," and so on down with a division devoted to Recent History. The volume concludes with a section of Indian folk lore and a division for "Early Oregon Literature," including Simpson, Markham and others of distinction.

Dr. Horner, who received his A.B. degree from Willamette in 1885 and has since obtained other degrees, is head of the department of historical research, Oregon State College, and has written many interesting books upon Oregon.

VITAL STATISTICS

The wedding of Miss Carol Rabkopf and Louis G. Petree was solemnized Wednesday evening, October 14, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Rabkopf of Portland. Rev. J. C. Harrison of the Centenary Wilbur church read the service in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the bridal couple.

The bride wore a gown of ivory chiffon and carried Ophelia roses. She was unattended. Miss Carolyn Wilson, '24, played the wedding march.

Other Willamette alumni present at the ceremony were Mrs. Paul Ellis (Edna Jennison) and Mrs. E. E. Johnston (Rosa Frodenberg).

Mrs. Petree was a member of the graduating class of 1923. Since that time she has been teaching, and last year taught at Walla Walla, Wash.

Mr. Petree is a graduate of William Jewell College in Missouri, and took post graduate work at Stanford University. He is now employed as research chemist with a large California company.

After a short wedding trip by motor, Mr. and Mrs. Petree will be at home in Alameda, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Thakham Gilbert are receiving felicitations on the birth of a daughter Tuesday, October 13, in Salem. The child, named Alceita Catherine, is their first. Mr. Gilbert, '21, is assistant superintendent of banks in the state banking department.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes of this city received a cablegram Tuesday, October 13, announcing the birth of an eight pound granddaughter, born in Paris, France on October 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Barnes. The first child in the Ralph Barnes family is a daughter, Joan, who was born in Rome, Italy.

Mr. Barnes is a graduate with the class of '22, and Mrs. Barnes (Esther Paroungian) is a member of the class of '23. Ralph will be remembered as president of the student body and Esther as May Queen. Mr. Barnes is in Moscow, Russia, where he is in charge of the New York Herald-Tribune bureau. He will spend the month of December with his family in Paris and will then have his first opportunity to see the new daughter.

Mrs. M. B. Paroungian, mother of Mrs. Barnes, is spending the winter with her daughter in Paris.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Robert C. Storey, '21, and to his sister Helene, ex-W. U., who have been bereaved through the death of their mother, Mrs. Edward F. Storey, who died at her home on route six, Salem, Friday, October 15.

Funeral services were held Monday, October 19, at the Presbyterian church at Oregon City. Dr. Carl G. Doney spoke at the services.

Robert, who is with the Canada Dry Ginger Ale Inc., in New York City, visited in Salem the latter part of the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley received word of the death of the three weeks' old son of Dr. and Mrs. Dwight Findley of San Diego, California. The child had been pronounced a perfect baby just a few days before it died suddenly without apparent illness.

Word was received by Dr. Doney of the death of Daniel Taylor, '25, June 16, 1931.

Edward F. Begg, ex-'33, met his death in an accident near Santa Barbara, Calif., Thursday night, October 29. The car in which he and several of his companions were riding collided with a truck. One other member of the party was killed instantly and two were seriously injured. They were all members of the Corpenaria Athletic club football team.

Eddie Begg was a tennis star at Willamette and also played and made his numeral on the freshman basketball team with the class of '33. He was a member of the Sigma Tau fraternity.

Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Liening, Jr., have received word from Madison, Wis., of the arrival of a nephew, born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Allen, October 28. Mrs. Allen was formerly Esther Liening, sister of Mr. Liening, and is an ex-student of W. U.

Dial 5005 Our Hardware Wears RAY L. FARMER HDW. CO. Everything in Hardware Electrical Specialties, Paints, Builders' Hardware, Crockery and Glassware, Sporting Goods Cor. Court and Commercial Sts. Salem, Oregon

The Store With the Reputation for Good Values BUY HERE AND SAVE!! Cant Bust Em Brand College Corduroys, irregulars of the $5.00 and $6.00 Grades $2.95 College Moleskins Reg. $5.00 Value... $3.95 Fresh Pants Heavy Quality $2.25 ARMY & NAVY STORE 279 N. Commercial St. Look for the Large Neon Sign

Have Your Eyes Examined Each Year Morris Optical Co. 444 State St. Phone 5528

Campus Litterae

Its possible you won't get what you want if you ask for it, but its almost a certainty that you won't get it if you don't ask for it.

The Dying Philosopher Now that the perfect day is almost done, On this fantastic mountain top he stands; His head is glided by the setting sun, But hoar-frost gathers on his freezing hands. 'Tis strange to view the valley dim below, And seeing there the fires of war rage on, He rests content to lie upon the snow And brood until his life is gone. Ted Parker.

From the Prince to Cinderella Having once seen your smile, could I ever forget The sunshine that brightens the glad summer skies? I must always remember the sparkling stars, Having once seen the light of your eyes. Having once heard the sound of your musical laugh, I could never forget how the meadowlarks sing. Just to look at the beauty that dwells in your face Calls to mind all the blossoms of spring. Yes, there's night in the twinkling stars of your eyes, And there's music and dawn in the light of your face, But there's nothing on earth to compare with your soul, So there must be a heaven, someplace. Becky.

To a Cricket Check not your tones, wee cricket, while I pass, Nor rob the night one instant of your song; I love to hear your music from the grass, And in my ears its pulse will echo long. Your hearing is more kingly than a king's, For through your evens notes so sweet and terse, You tell us, and no thought of doubt there rings, You've found your place within the universe. How many times in deep despair I've yearned To throw myself beside thee, little friend, And feel with thy assurance that I've earned A place in life where I might somehow blend And call myself, at least to one, a friend.

(The following is a reincarnation of Chaucerian verse). Ye Blessed Rain When in a hurry the earth to meet, The rain pours down in solid sheets, I love to don my long coat and go Out where the tiny streams flow.

Everyone out to the rally Thursday night and to the gym afterwards. The pep staff will sell coffee and doughnuts, so don't forget to bring at least a dime or a ticket which will entitle holder to refreshments.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

Wallace Campbell and Rolla Reedy, U. of O. students who worked with J. Sitt' Wilson last summer, will lead the discussion at the University Epworth League of the First Methodist church, Sunday night at 6:30. Discussion will center around sociological problems and an interesting meeting is promised. It will be preceded by a Fellowship Hour at 5:30 under the direction of Edith Findley.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of forgotten souls, To be mocked, enlaved, and enfolded; Rain ye a day, a day, and forevermore. Dick Dentel.

To let the warm drops bathe my face, As I know it did in long times past, On this spot where I now stand fast, Bathe the faces of a forgotten race. Oh, ye soothing rain! do ye ordain That ye shall pass into my very blood To swell my veins and then flood My soul in thy cleansing wake. Drive before thee my vile sins, And then upon my soul to pin Thy stamp of redemption newly born— To live until Gabriel's horn Shall call me to that land Where on every hand I see Father things than on earth I knew, To live in the thoughts that these are true, Throught by the the carpenter of Galilee. Oh rain, ye on a day, ever more That my soul shall not wither and will, Tetter to oblivion's brink to be split Into the sea of

CAMPUS SOCIETY

Bertha Babeck, Editor

Sororities Entertain Informally

The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority entertained on Friday, October 30 with a gala Halloween party at the women's club house.

The rooms were very cleverly decorated to carry out the Halloween motif. Many interesting games were played during the evening.

The guests were Dean and Mrs. Roy Hewitt, Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Jones, and the Messrs. Floyd Aldrin, Hal Bollinger, Stanley Boggs, Archie Bunn, Vernon Bushnell, Myron Butler, Earl Carlin, Jettold Carpenter, Paul Carpenter, Luther Chapin, Walter Commons, Claude Cook, Robert Culbertson, Stearns Cushing, Carol Cushman, Enoch Dumas, Sam Eichner, George Erickson, Alfred French, Ray Griffith, Roy Harland, Cecil Harmon, Fred Harris, Wesley Janko, Ervin Lange, Frank Mason, Clarence Poor, Harold Rose, Glenn Savage, Arthur Smith, Eugene Smith, Gene Smith, Norman Speck, William Tull, Stanley Walker, Wilmer Wells, Francis Welsh, Lawrence Yarnes, Paul Rowley, and Wallace McCrae.

Ghosts and black cats and other Halloween characters played a unique part in the Beta Chi informal party Friday evening. The guests were greeted and cleverly entertained during the early part of the evening by ghosts and witches. One of the interesting features of the program was a clever radio entertainment broadcast for the occasion. Games were played at small tables and the winners at each table received prizes from a witch's pot in the fireplace.

Cobwebs and ghosts and skeletons created a delightfully "spooky" atmosphere in the guest rooms of the Beta Chi home. The basement rooms were turned into an interesting Halloween den for the occasion. A motif in keeping with the day was carried out in the supper served later in the evening. Horns and caps were given as favors.

Guests were: Mrs. Roy Koenig, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Prof. and Mrs. H. E. Rahe, and Messrs. Jim Allison, Eric Anderson, Philip Armstrong, Joe Blanchard, Jim Brawley, Ben Briggs, Marvin Crawford, Melvin Crow, Bob Cutch, Galen Dean, Terry Edwards, Ralph Foster, Bud Flint, Lawrence Gibson, Charles Gianoli, Frank Grover, Herbert Hardy, Thaburn Hatten, Tyrus Hillway, Phil Huth, Earl Henry, Ross Knotts, Darlow Johnson, Bliss Leslie, George Lloyd, Max Lindholm, Ralph Muzey, Claire Miller, Robert Magin, John Nelson, Bernard Newby, Carroll Shank, Menalika Selander, Jack Simpson, Wayne Wiley, Harold Rhoten, and Mr. Morehouse.

The Delta Phi sorority entertained with a line party at the Elsinore theater. After the theater the guests went to the Silver Grille room of the Grayhelle for refreshments. The room was very attractively decorated with witches, cats, pumpkins and all the characteristic Halloween decorations.

The guests of the sorority were: Mrs. Cella Gamble, Miss Virginia Melton and Sam Boos, Marshall Hartley, Verne Wilson, Forrest Rieck, William Loman, James Burdett, Paul Ackerman, Louis Megan, Forrest Mills, Carl Marcy, Dave Moser, Evans Hamilton, Donald Erickson, Charles Campbell, Frank Bashor, Richard Sherwin, Max Biggen, Percy Sweet, Garfield Barnett, Louis Hershberger, Donald Clarke, Lowell Eddy, Ralph Barber, Gus Moore, Verne Shay, Byron Stodden, Jerome Thomas, John McClunon, John Varley, Ernest Knapp, Ralph McCullough, Joe Felton, Dwight Adams, and Tom Goyne.

An informal program was presented by Miss Mary Jane Lau, Miss Pauline Moore, Miss Edith Findley, and the Delta Phi Trio.

Daleth Teth Gimel Pledges

Daleth Teth Gimel announces the pledging of the following women: Josephine Anderson, Alice Bennett, Elizabeth Booth, Marlon Bowers, Helen Branchflower, Violet Burns, Shilla Delsell, Laurine Findley, Kathryn Ford, Margaret Freeman, Kathryn Horton, Helen Johnson, Dorothy Kloopping, Frances Malda, La Forest McDonald, Percie Miles, Rose Naef, Frances Poor, May Ringo, Gertrude Roemike, Claudine Rowland, Harriet Sanders, Edith Sidwell, Virginia Sprague, Lucille Sumerlin, Helen Swiger, Elaine Shurtz, Esther Wohlhab, Erna Ford, and Verita Van Fleet.

Pledge services for those who have not been pledged will be held Thursday, November 5, at 7:15 p. m. in the second floor living room of Lausanne hall.

Beta Chi announces the formal initiation of Miss Alice Bartholomew, Miss Alice Welles and Miss Barbara Elliott.

Lausanne Hall Entertains Dinner Guests

The faculty was entertained at dinner at Lausanne hall, Tuesday evening. The dining room was beautifully decorated with candles, flowers and candy baskets.

After dinner a short program of several numbers by the hall orchestra, a short skit by Miss Fleming and Miss Sanders, and a song by Miss Singer, was given.

The faculty members and wives present were: Dr. and Mrs. Dooney, Mr. and Mrs. Savage, Deau and Mrs. Erickson, Dr. and Mrs. Alden, Mr. and Mrs. Tennant, Dr. and Mrs. Laughlin, Dr. and Mrs. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Shuman, Miss DeNise, Prof. and Mrs. Matthews, Prof. and Mrs. Haworth, Dr. and Mrs. Vazakas, Prof. Marshall, Prof. and Mrs. Peck, Prof. and Mrs. Richards, Prof. and Mrs. Roberts, Prof. and Mrs. Clark, Prof. and Mrs. Kirk, and Eugenia Savage.

Another dinner for the rest of the faculty will be given in the near future.

International House Enjoys Halloween Party

A very enjoyable Halloween party was held at the International House Friday evening, October 30. The first part of the evening was given over to an international musical program presented by various members of the international club. Seichi Yamaguchi played several Oriental selections on the harmonica, Nicholas Yablukoff and his "Russian Chorus" sang "The Volga Boatman" in the native tongue, Joe White in his colorful Indian costume sang a native song, and Marianno Rodriguez and Augustine Balmoja played several serenades of the Philippine Islands on the guitar and the violin.

Games, stunts, and mysterious tours of the house afforded much amusement and entertainment for the guests for the rest of the evening.

Guests for the evening included Dr. and Mrs. Carl G. Doney, Dr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. Clark, Miss Pierce, Kiyosa Ariyama, George Cannady, Augustine Balmoja, Yungcho Chin, Ronald Leask, the Reverend Naji, Seichi Niwa, Marianno Rodriguez, Perry Smith, Wallace Turner, Kenneth Mackenzie, Seichi Yamaguchi, Nicholas Yablukoff, Joe White, Jessie Fandaka, Esther Girard, Marjorie Hannah, Betty Moffatt, Rose Neff, Selko Watanabe, Alma Watanabe, Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kloepping, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warner.

Japanese Dinner at International House

Gaily-colored Japanese lanterns hung about the room, and the large red and white Japanese flag draped across one end of the dining room helped to create a true Japanese atmosphere at the enjoyable dinner given at the International House Friday evening, October 30. Unusual Japanese dishes composed the main part of the menu.

Special guests of honor at the dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Carl G. Doney and Miss Pierce; additional guests included Kiyosa Ariyama, George Cannady, Yungcho Chin, Ronald Leask, the Reverend Naji, Seichi Niwa, Marianno Rodriguez, Perry Smith, Seichi Yamaguchi, Betty Moffatt, Selko Watanabe, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rounds, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Warner.

Miss Clement Hostess At Dinner

Miss Ruth Clement was hostess for a dinner at the Clement home on North 17th street, in honor of her sister, Miss Janet Clement.

A large bouquet of autumn colored flowers centered the table. Places were set for the honor guest, Miss Janet Clement and Miss Gwendolyn Hunt, Miss Gladys Hanson, Miss Mildred Kester, Miss Faith Sherburne, Miss Ruth Chapman, and the hostess Miss Ruth Clement.

Beta Chi sorority announces the formal pledging of Miss Gertrude Beard of Oregon City. Pledge services were held Wednesday evening followed by a dinner.

Members of the senior class will hold an informal party this Friday evening, November 5, at Cresta Cottage, according to Lilla Cation, class vice president, who has charge of the affair. The party will begin immediately after the Willamette-Pacific football game and will last until 11 p. m. Miriam Armitage, Gertrude Oehler, Elaine Gehrke, and Wesley Warren head committees on arrangements for the party. Several interesting features have been planned for the hour's entertainment.

Faculty guests of the seniors will be Miss Olive Dahl and Prof. and Mrs. Lawrence Zillman.

Dean Hewitt was a dinner guest at the Alpha Psi Delta house last week.

Alpha Phi Alpha Honors Patronesses

The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority honored its new patronesses on Tuesday afternoon, October 28, from 3:30 to 5:30.

The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Maxine Ulrich, Miss Dorothy Rose introduced to the receiving which included Miss Helen Stiles, president, Mrs. W. Johnson, house mother, Mrs. D. B. Jarmine, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. G. J. Pearce, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, and Mrs. Russell Catlin.

Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney and Mrs. George Alden presided at the tea urns during the first hour. Mrs. F. A. Elliott and Mrs. Robert M. Carke poured during the second hour. Assisting in serving were the Misses Esther McMinnie, Carolyn Schneider, Lucille Summerlin, Elaine West, Sydney Hananford, Margaret Lange, Eleanor Yarnes, Mildred Drager, and Dorothy McDonald.

Miss Elizabeth Oaden, Miss Bernice Rickman, and Miss Lulu Allen gave entertaining numbers. The rooms were decorated with lovely baskets of chrysanthemums and a lovely floral centerpiece was used attractively upon the tea table.

A meeting of the Home Economics club was held Tuesday at the home of Miss Elizabeth Clement. There was a pot-luck dinner at six o'clock and a short business meeting followed.

The club members present were: Miss Lois Latimer, adviser, and Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Dorothy Estridge, Miss Benetta Edwards, Miss Margaret Notson, Miss Claudia Bunfin, Miss Jean Peterson, Miss Naomi Hewitt, Miss Bertha Babeck, Miss Dorothy Boshard, Miss Irma Sawyer, Miss Ruth Clement, Miss Marie Ledbetter, Miss Pauline Livesey, and Miss Elizabeth Clement.

The Sigma Tau fraternity entertained after the Homecoming play with a party at the Silver Grill. Covers were laid for sixty guests. This event celebrated the winning of the Homecoming cup.

Mrs. Doney held an informal tea at her home for girls of the university, Monday, November 2. This tea was one of the several she gives during the year in order to become better acquainted with the girls. Miss Deena Hart, Miss Frances Maeda, and Miss Dorothy Kloepping assisted Mrs. Doney during the tea hour.

Game and Excursion (Continued from page 1)

Janke's Candy Co.—and candy. Breakfast at Vancouver, lunch at Centralia but we really didn't eat all the time despite the cookies, doughnuts and fudge which foresighted cooks had provided.

As we roared through each little village Elizabeth Ogden, with her usual zest, held aloft to the breeze a Willamette banner. Everyone would have thought us crazy if she hadn't.

We dashed through Olympia at some after one, determined to make the first quarter—but it was impossible so finally the glad rosters made their dramatic entrance at about the middle of the second quarter, and the noise began.

We'd like to say that, inspired by our pep the team then made the big drive for the first touchdown—but they didn't. They made drives and drives, but met at all sides a stone wall. Oh, how exciting—down near the goal line but not across.

The third quarter was even better from the standpoint of excitement. And our rooting section began slipping on the high notes, so the pep squad abandoned singing and with Don functioning as cheer leader proceeded to do a good job rousing their voices.

After five minutes of play in the fourth, that FIRST big touchdown was pushed over—the stands went wild.

The rest of the quarter was an exchange of punts with Willamette getting nearer and nearer the goal, then C. P. S. with two punts to play tried a pass which was intercepted—down the field.

Another play ran the ball within inches of that double line and then it was over!

Then the victory song, pitched much too high for anyone, and offers of cars to take us around town.

Plans have been made to enter a club do-not league team for basketball and other participation in school activities.

The fourth highest peak in the Great Smoky mountains has been named in honor of Col. David C. Chapman of Knoxville, Tenn.

Patronize Collegian advertisers.

The Whispering Campaign When Two Women Get Together

"United we stand, divided we part," says Little Oswald, the office clam.

Which reminds us of the sold-on locks of the Peoritates.

"Eugene Smith Speaks," says a Collegian headline. Huh, that isn't news, that's perpetual motion.

The Salem Kiltie band could have found any number of their countrymen had they gone beyond the fence at the last game.

Prof. Brosman said the other night that Jason Lee persuaded many inhabitants of Peoria to come to the Willamette Valley. Howard Maple seems to have inherited the tendency.

We understand that the sophomores had to pay two-bits extra to get belts on the classy new jackets. All we could have afforded were the Misses Esther McMinnie, Carolyn Schneider, Lucille Summerlin, Elaine West, Sydney Hananford, Margaret Lange, Eleanor Yarnes, Mildred Drager, and Dorothy McDonald.

We heard a couple of girls go into ecstasies when the sophs marched into chapel the other day. "O, how beautiful!" they sighed, just as Vernon Bushnell went by. Now we wonder whether they were referring to the jacket or the occupant.

The big contest is over! The winning last line was submitted by Harold Rhoten: There once was a fellow named Si

Who was quite a remarkable guy. But he got in the way Of a freight train one day, Now he's wearing a halo on high.

The winner refused the Rolls Royce as he already has a limousine.

We've achieved our life-long ambition. We rang the Victory Bell after the C. P. S. game. Now there's nothing left to live for. Bring on the chemistry exam!

We notice that some literary light writing to Brickbats and Bouquets proclaimed to the world, "Your columnist must be either a man or a woman." It takes a real perspicacious mental genius to figure that out.

What a whale of a difference a few sense make!

Ted Parker remarked the other day that after having talked with such persons as Lois Wilkes and Kenneth Oliver, that he'd enjoyed having some intelligent conversation.

"Teddy-bear" Denning congratulates Prof. Schulze upon the excellence of his recent chapel talk. We'll bet a personal congratulation by Mr. Denning was appreciated.

The most noticeable feature about the class of '35 is that they won't do as they're told. What's the use of having a freshman class if they won't work?

The lights at the game are very bright. Upon the gridiron pan. Now every little girl can sport A brilliant coat of tan.

The Mudslingers.

every so often by another and another, only bothered when someone would pipe up—"Where are we now?"—then finally the glad news—Portland, and each to his own way—mainly to bed.

Independents (Continued from page 1)

a caucus of students interested in the democratic spirit at Willamette do, by the grace of God, hereby form and adopt the organization known as the Independent Men of Willamette University.

The purpose of the club is to discuss problems of unaffiliated students of the campus, to make recommendations relative to the problems, to bring the students closer together socially and politically, to stimulate their interest in all campus activities and to work together for greater unity in all ways.

Membership is open to all unaffiliated men of Willamette university upon formal written application to the council of the club. No restrictions are made except the approval of 80 per cent of the members present at the meeting considering the applications.

Meetings are to be held twice a month and membership dues are set at one dollar per member per semester. The money collected will be used for publicity, organization, and general expenses.

Plans have been made to enter a club do-not league team for basketball and other participation in school activities.

The fourth highest peak in the Great Smoky mountains has been named in honor of Col. David C. Chapman of Knoxville, Tenn.

Patronize Collegian advertisers.

LOAN FUND IS PLANNED AT WU

C. J. Duncan, University Field Representative Working on Plan

PROMINENT MEN SOLICIT Money to be Loaned Without Interest to Students Working for Tuition

Willamette's North-West field representative, Mr. Duncan has for the past few months been working on a plan to get a scholarship for those students who are either working all the time outside of class hours for their tuition or those who are working a part of the time.

Through interviews with the different prominent men in the larger cities of the Northwest, Mr. Duncan has asked them to contribute to a fund which will form a sum to be loaned to students on the non-interest plan. The paying of the loan will fall on some time after his graduation. During this loaning period no interest will be charged.

Our representative informs us that he could easily use fifty thousand dollars for such a scholarship. If the sum were available now statistics prove that all of it might be put in use.

The duty of Mr. Duncan as representative for Willamette is to spread knowledge concerning it and interesting those people, who are financially able, to contribute something for the endowment fund. It is Mr. Duncan who calls on those who have already given such a gift and collects the stated sum to be paid at regular intervals.

He has his main headquarters in Portland although his work takes him in the Northwest states of Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

Dear Editor: "Dangerous Patriotisms" is more than a topic for a student Y.M.C.A. meeting. It is something that should seriously concern the college student, particularly where he has so much open space in which to think as at Willamette. The prospects are ominous for anything but going insane again and entering the asylum of war. To have to participate is no thing to hope for. To make such a calamity impossible ought to be a more alluring pastime than all college sports combined. A sense of the impending disaster war is

W. U. REPRESENTED AT YMCA COUNCIL

Willamette was represented at the Northwest Field council of the student Y. M. C. A. held in Portland October 30, by Wesley Warren, president of the local student association and Hayes Beall, chairman of the Field council.

The council set the dates for the following conferences: Christian Way of Life conference to be held at Newport in February; Christian Life Vocation at Linfield in April; Annual Industrial Seminar at Seattle next summer, and the International Relations conference at Reed college during the Thanksgiving vacation. The date was set for the Seabeck Student conference to be June 11 to 18, 1932.

An endeavor will be made to establish new chapters at the various colleges, especially at Whitman.

A report of his experiences at the National Student meeting in New York was read by Hayes Beall, the Oregon representative.

APPOINTMENT BUREAU AT WORK

The Appointment Bureau, of which Dean Erickson is the chairman, is preparing papers to be sent to various schools which may employ Willamette graduates. These papers include the recommendations, credentials, and picture of the student. Vacancies are reported to the bureau, and many seniors are placed in this manner each year.

VESPER SERVICES HELD

Vesper services in charge of Mrs. Mills of Lausanne Hall were held conducted every evening from 6:45-7:15 by the Y. W. in Cresta Cottage for the benefit of all the girls in school. Services will continue until Christmas.

"Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush"

That's a sweet story, and an old one.

Here is another old, sweet story:

For SUPERIOR PRINTING go to the Statesman Publishing Company. Printers in Oregon since 1851.

Dial 9101

Brickbats and Bouquets

Students of W. U.

Willamette university Homecoming is over and from all the comments we have heard, each event was a success. We, as alumni, are glad that the Bearcats won the football game and that the play was well produced.

However, each year and, indeed several times each year, we are requested to subscribe to funds for our Alma Mater and to pledge money for "our dear old school." We do this insofar as we feel that we are able.

Then the students of Willamette, in a moment of thoughtfulness for "the old grads" decide to do the entertainment of the alumni. We receive invitations but when we arrive on the campus we find that for each of the entertainments provided, we must pay a certain sum of money. Even the seats in the grandstand which we ourselves helped to build are reserved and unless we pay an extra price we must sit in the bleachers. Even the carnival, where "the old grads" could get together, has an admission fee.

Not just one alumnus, but several, have said to me "I can not go to Willamette Homecoming because it will cost me too much money." It seems to many of us that the students of Willamette university instead of saying to us "Come back and get acquainted again" were saying "Come back and empty your pocket-books for us."

We, as alumni, are interested in Willamette and we are watching her and wishing her success, but isn't there some way to make Homecoming less expensive and at the same time as full of pleasure for both students and alumni of Willamette university?

Yours sincerely,
An alumnus of the class of '27.

NATIONAL WRITERS INTERESTED IN CLUB

Coffee House, a campus organization for those interested in creative writing, has been invited to affiliate with the National Writers club. This invitation coming from the president of the national group, is a recognition of the outstanding work of the Coffee House on the campus. The only other chapter on the west coast is at the University of Washington.

Beside considering whether or not to join the national club, members of coffee house criticized the work of prospective pledges at the regular meeting held Wednesday evening at Willamette Lodge.

PRESIDENT DONEY TO SPEAK

On Monday, November 8, President Doney will drive to Oregon City to address a group at the high school on an educational topic. His address will be a part of the Educational Week program of that city.

Court St. Dairy Store

365 Court St.
Home of 10c Toasted Sandwich
Home-made Ice Cream/
Dairy Products

Weller Hardware and Paint Co.

428 Court St. Phone 539
Paints, Oils and Glass
Tools and Housewares

Red Cross Pharmacy

The Best in Drugs
499 State St.

When You Think of DRUGS Think Schaefer's Drug Store

135 N. Commercial

Oregon Barber Shop

185 N. High St.

THE BEST Fountain Pen Repair Man in Town is Bliss, W. U. Student at

Patton's Book Store

Shoes Repaired, Shined, Dyed Hats Cleaned and Blocked

SHYNN SHOPPE
Call and Deliver
147 N. High Phone 7000

GRAND A Home Owned Theatre

Friday - Saturday
"AFRICA SPEAKS"
Sun. - Mon. - Tues.
"Hush Money"
with Joan Bennett

ASSISTANTS MAKE LIBRARY EFFICIENT

New Volumes Called "The Library of Choice Literature" Given

With the aid of eleven library assistants, who are following a new schedule this year in which each assistant works an average of two hours a day, the library department of Willamette university is serving the students and faculty very efficiently.

Eight of the eleven assistants working under Dr. Franklin and Miss Etta Westinghouse have had previous experience in library work. Bertha Babeck, Lucille Flanary, Amelia Mae Schrack, Evelyn Odell, and Enoch Dumas worked in the Willamette library last year. Ruth Warner was an assistant at the Oregon State Normal library at Monmouth for two years, and Dorothy McDonald, and Harriet Sanders have both had experience in Portland libraries. Other assistants are Mary White, Margaret Wells, and Marie Fair.

The library has gained many new books, both through gifts and by purchasing them. Margaret E. Mitchell of the Old Folks' Home in Salem recently presented the department five volumes of a set of books called "The Library of Choice Literature."

The State Street Barber Shop

We Please Others Why Not You?
1256 State St.

Gray Belle Silver Grille

For Luncheons - Dinners
Line Parties
Patronize Collegian advertisers.

Real Shoes for Real College Men $5 to $10

FLORSHEIM SHOE SHOP
426 State St. (With Emmons)

Try us for Breakfast - Lunch - Dinner

THE BLUEBIRD
ON FOUNDATION GARMENTS

Brassiers Corsettes Girdles
Shipley's
Garter Belts

KENNEL-ELLIS

Official Willamette Photographers
WELCOME YOU

Willamette University

Founded February 1, 1842
SALEM, OREGON
A Christian institution of higher learning. Located at the Capital of the State of Oregon. A beautiful campus opposite the Capitol building. Buildings and equipment attractive and adequate. Faculty of highest character, preparation and teaching. Student body clean, able and wholesome. Scholarship high and credited everywhere. Very inexpensive. Rich in tradition; large and honored list of alumni. Students wishing for work in the Course of Liberal Arts, in Law, in Theology, in Music, or in Fine Arts are highly advantaged at Willamette. Close investigation invited. Bulletins on request.

BURNETT BROS.

Jewelers—Silversmiths
Diamond Merchants
Fine watch and jewelry repairing
457 State St.

BEARCATS CLAW C. P. S. LOGGERS

Soundmen Present Stubborn Goal-line Defense for Three Quarters

GRIBBLE STARS AT END

Final Score Made in Sixty Seconds After Pass Is Intercepted

Held for three quarters by a stubborn Puget Sound defense, Willamette's fighting Bearcats in the last ten minutes of play clawed their way to a well earned victory—13 to 0.

Although the game was in Logger territory during the contest, not until two long passes from Paul Erickson did Willamette get a score. From the three yard line Johnson bucked the pigskin over. Erickson's try for point was wide.

In the first five minutes of play Willamette marched to the three yard marker, but a fumble spoiled scoring chances. Puget Sound kicked out of danger.

Throughout the first half Willamette knocked at Puget Sound's goal line, only to be turned back—twice by incomplete passes into the end zone.

Contrary to advance statements Spec Keene started his first string backfield. With three minutes to go, and the ball on the 20 yard marker, Keene rushed in Paul, Cannady, Ross, and Olson. Yardage was made around end but on an attempted lateral pass Willamette lost ground. The Loggers punted.

Score in Sixty Seconds

Faber, Cannady, Olson and Paul started in the backfield after the half time period, but failed to produce the scoring punch after a spectacular catch by Gribble from Paul. Each placed the Bearcats within the 20 yard marker. A line back failed and a pass was grounded over the goal line by three Loggers who swarmed all over Gribble.

During the fourth period the starting backfield, with the exception of Mahan entered the game.

Willamette lost the ball on downs. A trick play by the Loggers failed, but Willamette gained the ball on a fumble. Two passes and Johnson made his scoring plunge.

After receiving the Loggers in desperation three passes. Frantz intercepted one intended for a Puget Sound back. With 60 seconds to play, Edickson scampered 20 yards for a touchdown. His try for point was good.

Puget Sound received just as the gun barked the game's end.

Although Willamette's line did not function as it was capable three men were outstanding, Grannis, Jones and Gribble. Young Boyd, a substitute guard, showed well in spite of his lack of weight.

Puget Sound is to be credited with a fighting team. Although outclassed, Coach Sandburg's men will be heard from next year.

Lineups:

Willamette	Puget Sound
Benjamin.....LE	Brusch
Lorenze.....LT	Mura
Carpenter.....LG	Sprenger
Grannis.....C	Gagnon
Smith.....RG	Harworth
Jones.....RT	Yenter
Connors.....RE	Pettibone
Mahan.....Q	Sterling
Williams.....LH	Newell
Erickson.....RH	Ennis
Johnson.....F	O. Johnson

Score by periods:
 Willamette.....0 0 0 13-13
 Puget Sound.....0 0 0 0-0
 Willamette scoring: Touchdowns, Johnson, Erickson. Point after touchdown, Erickson (place kick.)

SOPHOMORES MAKE JACKETS PUBLIC

Much Discussion on Samples From Local Stores Precedes Final Selection

After two weeks of weighing and balancing the merits and demerits of various and sundry jackets, the sophomores finally decided what they wanted. The jackets were purchased from Bishops' but goods and styles from other Salem merchants were also considered. The men's and the women's jackets are different only in buttons and belts, and there will be another slight variation in that some will have numerals—a chenille "34" four inches high—and others will not. About sixty jackets were ordered, and only twenty numerals, although more may yet be ordered. Bishop's also ordered a supply of extra jackets of various sizes in case some more sophomores may want them.

An impressive parade in chapel a week ago today made public the choice of the garment and displayed it to the school.

Bare Cat Gossip

- Can You Imagine—
1. A new cinder track around the gridiron.
 2. A defog fog settling down on Sweetland Field next Friday evening.
 3. Fullback Sparks come crashing through the line.
 4. A football practice not attracting longing glances from Lausanne Hall.
 5. A pep rally without "Swede" Erickson's cracks about the little boy who.....
 6. "Weenies" Kaiser dogless.

We hope the Beaveritus isn't catching but for a while it looked as tho it were. Willamette played around Puget Sound's 10 yard line for the better part of three periods before crashing thru.

Not being qualified to judge the value of Professors Jones and Oliver vs. instructors, being in neither's classes, it can at least be said they are football conscious. Willamette will need about 125 football conscious people if an excursion is to go to Walla Walla.

One man Eldon Jenne will miss (he's lucky) and so will the Bearcats. It was Dave who made the Pacific rattle dazzle system famous.

Dave is away on a jaunt. When last heard of he was in Miles City, Montana. His grades were not low. He wasn't in debt, but he wanted expansion. Fellows of his type were Daniel Boone and George Roger Clark. It's a pretty tough year for a little educational tour, but a man like Dave enjoys a hardship. When he gets ready to come back to Willamette he will be welcome.

And then there was the Co-ed who thought a Bearcat was in the nude.

Rattle Dazzle!

MAP FROM PARIS GOODWILL TOKEN

Berkeley, Cal.—Sent to the students residing in International House as a token of goodwill and cosmopolitan friendship, a beautifully colored map of the world, engraved in 1760, has been received on the University of California Campus, from the Cite Universitaire of Paris, according to announcement made recently by Albin C. Blaisdell, director of International House.

The gift sent to Director Blaisdell by Senator Andre Honorat, president of Cite Universitaire, has at its base an inscription, which translated reads, "In order that the International House, with which the University of California has just so happily been endowed, may keep near her a lasting token of the good wishes for her youth which her friends of the Cite Universitaire of Paris have for them."

Now on Display

The map, encased in a modern French frame, has been hung for display in room 3, the "main interest" room of International House. It is of considerable historical interest since it illustrates the lack of knowledge of the physical features of the world by the 18th century geographer. The outline of North America, in particular, presents a striking comparison with a modern map of that region. The geographer for the map was Monsieur Janvier while the engraving was the work of Monsieur Latre, "by the privilege of the King, 1760."

In speaking of the close association of the two houses, Mrs. Blaisdell states, "International House at Berkeley is not an isolated enterprise. Although locally governed and autonomous it is but one of several houses founded through the generosity of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., for the furtherance of international understanding and peace. The International House in New York City has been in operation for six years and has attained a marked degree of success and influence. International House in Berkeley is the second of these International student centers. Similar Houses are in operation in Chicago and at the Cite Universitaire in Paris.

The hope is that these houses, widely separated geographically, all provided by the same donor and inspired by the same purpose, will promote even further and more effectively the cosmopolitan spirit of each house."

PASSBALL MAKES GYM FUN INSTEAD OF GRIND

A larger number of boys than ever before are taking an active part in passball either in the gym classes or in the Do-Nut league. Passball offers an opportunity for boys to enjoy football with tackling and all its roughness. There are four gym classes this fall through which about 200 boys are given an opportunity to enjoy passball. Those who are unable to attend gym have their opportunity in the Do-Nut league which includes about 75 boys.

Passball has resulted in boys taking gym not because it is required, but because they enjoy the sport and the game.

Editor
TED PARKER
 Assistant Editor
CHAS. GIANOLI

Northwest Conference SPORTS

STAFF
 Mary White
 Joe Blanchard
 Kenneth Oliver
 Carl Marcy
 Roy Mink

COYOTE'S HIDE NAILED TO WALL

Willamette Takes First Conference Game Before Large Homecoming Crowd

The Willamette Bearcats opened their Northwest Conference Friday night by defeating The College of Idaho eleven 20 to 0. Playing before a large Homecoming crowd, the Bearcats outscored the Coyotes by three touchdowns and two conversions.

Gloom settled over the local camp during the first quarter when the Idaho boys took one of "Swede" Erickson's punts on the 50 yard line and did not stop until the pigskin rested on the Willamette 11 yard line. This drive was marked by a series of passes, spinners, and fake passes—all of which found the Willamette boys off-guard. The drive was stopped by Willamette only after a five-man backfield defense was used.

Willamette's first opportunity to score came when Benjamin blocked and recovered an Idaho punt on their 20 yard line. The first quarter ended with Willamette trying to punch the ball across. After Fred Smith recovered an Idaho fumble on the 29 yard line, Erickson and Williams alternated carrying the ball with the latter scoring on an off-tackle smash. Erickson failed to convert—the score standing 6 to 0.

After another blocked punt, Erickson scored and converted the kick which made the score 13 to 0 at the end of the half. Willamette's final score came as a result of Erickson's run for 30 yards. A perfect conversion made the score 20 to 0.

During the final period Idaho opened with another aerial attack but the Bearcat defense tightened to prevent any scoring.

Outstanding for College of Idaho were Maxwell, Barney, and McCullough. All the Willamette boys played fine ball—with Grannis, Williams, Erickson and Cannady doing exceptionally fine work.

The lineup:
 Willamette.....Idaho
 Benjamin.....LE.....Wood
 Allen.....LT.....Davis
 Smith.....LG.....Troxel
 Grannis.....C.....Kreiselback
 Carpenter.....RG.....Jennings
 Jones.....RT.....Hudgens
 Connors.....RE.....Carlson
 Mahan.....Q.....McCullough
 Erickson.....LH.....Smith
 Williams.....RH.....Maxwell
 Johnson.....F.....Barney

Score by periods:
 Willamette.....0 13 7 0-20
 Idaho.....0 0 0 0-0

Referee—Ralph Coleman.

MARRIED WOMEN'S CLUB HAS MEETING

Married Women's Club of Willamette campus held their second meeting at the home of Mrs. Nellie Ackerman Saturday afternoon, October 31.

Social plans for the year were discussed the first of which is to be a party for the husbands at Chresto Cottage. Mrs. Paulis and Mrs. Schultze were elected as patronesses. The objectives of the club were formed and agreed upon.

There will be a special meeting of the club held Thursday night, November 5. This meeting will be given to deciding what must be done in opposition to the complaints against such a club by a committee of prominent Salem women.

HOME COMING CUPS GIVEN TWO HOUSES

Two silver loving cups were presented during homecoming week, one for the winner of the football sign competition, and the other for the house being represented by the best booth at the carnival.

Sigma Tau fraternity was successful for the second successive year, in bringing home the football sign trophy. The prize winner portrayed a model Bearcat player in the act of overthrowing his Idaho opponent. The Sig had a real electrically lighted miniature gridiron with familiar Willamette scenes forming a background. All the other signs were well constructed and striking in appearance so the judging was rather close.

The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority also duplicated their feat of last year by winning the carnival trophy. Their booth was very clever and original—a three passenger merry-go-round! The Internationals were close seconds with a Japanese tea garden and a number of the other booths showed plenty of class.

CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Congressman Hawley spoke to Willamette students Wednesday and gave them interesting and useful information about U. S. government. Mr. Hawley is a true alumnus of Willamette, for he has been a student, a professor, and the president of this university.

Next Tuesday, November 10, Professor J. Tryon from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will speak.

That O. S. C. has a broadcasting station (KOAC) which features lectures, devotional services, musical numbers, etc.

DISARMAMENT PROBLEM OBJECT OF PETITIONS

Petitions, exchange of campus speakers, meetings and educational programs are being used to create sentiment on the various northwest campuses regarding the World Disarmament conference to be held at Geneva in February.

This movement is being sponsored at Willamette by the Y. M. and Y. W. independent of the Salem Council for the Prevention of War which is also circulating a petition.

Since this is such an important question at present, it is quite possible that it will be a subject for debate.

A number of local young men have already signed a pledge that they will never go to war and will do all in their power to prevent war.

BEETHOVEN GROUP PRESENT PROGRAM

Members of the Beethoven Society favored the Willamette students with a musical program in chapel Thursday, October 29.

The program consisted of the following numbers:

1. Piano solo: "Dance in the Patio", by Repper, Edith Findley.
2. Vocal solo: "One Fine Day", (from Madame Butterfly) by Puccini, Elizabeth Clement, accompanied by Edith Findley.
3. Piano solo: "Arabesque", by Debussy, Frances Laws.
4. Vocal solo: "Sing, Smile, Slumber", by Chas. Gounod, Helen Cochran Kutch, accompanied by Miriam Armitage.
5. Trumpet solo: "Triplets of the Forest", by Hennenburg, played by Wesley Roeder, Gustave Klempel, Percy Sweet, accompanied by Robert Magin.

As it was a national music program each of the numbers presented represented the music of a certain nation.

The Beethoven Society is a musical organization. It restricts its members to those who are talented in music.

Besides presenting a monthly program in chapel, the members sponsor and participate in many programs in Salem. This was the first of the monthly programs to be presented in chapel.

THEY SAY...

That U. S. C. sorority pledges are lunching at the other sororities in exchange luncheons. Upper-class women are staying at home while lower-class women travel to the guest house.

Attention Inter-sorority Council.

That 1000 persons gained admittance to the California-Santa Clara and California-Olympic club games on false cardboard tickets whose falseness can be picked out only with the aid of a magnifying glass.

That Don Miguel Gonzales and family of Santa Town, Argentina, were delightfully serenaded recently by a quartet of young men whose strumming and singing was so loud that the squawks of the chickens in Don Gonzales' hen house could not be heard as they were meanwhile stolen.

That there are five possible "daters" for every co-ed on the Stanford campus but that week-ends are getting to be more dateless because of the depression.

That the Stanford condition might be remedied by adopting the University of Arizona custom and tradition that femmes pay half the cost of dates.

That a co-ed special writer for the University of Washington "Daily" was presented with a picture of himself by Lawrence Tibbets as compensation for a kiss during an interview on the campus.

That the editor of the Oregon State Daily Barometer complains, "Is there anything in the world more disheartening than to wait three weeks for a date, get it, and then to have the girl decide to go home for the weekend?"

That the atlas of the Great Elector of Brandenburg, Germany is the largest book in the world, being 66 inches high, 39 inches wide and weighing 275 pounds.

That selling teaching appointments and giving them to relatives exists on a large scale in Kentucky.

That University of California at Los Angeles students are taking seriously traffic problems about the campus which involve danger for student pedestrians and drivers.

That colleges and universities throughout the country having greater enrollments than ever before in spite of the depression. Lack of full-time jobs are probably the cause.

That the third largest telescope in the world with a 69-inch mirror is being installed at Ohio Wesleyan university.

That C. P. S. has received $150,000 endowment in a lump sum from a wealthy Tacoma lumberman. The college is 41 years old.

That C. P. S. has a collapsible boxing ring for the gym. The lumber was donated by a Tacoma lumber company.

That sophomores of the U. of Idaho have adopted a special trouser to start a new tradition and get away from having to wear the same sort of garments the rooks must wear. In other words, frosh—one thing, sophs—another, juniors—another, seniors—any old thing.

HOME COMING HAPPY DESPITE CLOUDS

Rainy weather failed to dampen the spirits of Willamette students as they put on the big three day homecoming program. Although many grads, evidently a little fearful of cloudy skies, remained home, those who did make the yearly pilgrimage back to Alma Mater found a rousing welcome, and a boisterous good time awaiting them.

Manager Ralph McCullough expressed great satisfaction as to the successful way in which the whole week end's events "went over." The football contest was pronounced a real credit to the Bearcat squad with the 20 to 0 victory boosting the cardinal team on up another notch toward the conference championship. The skies were clear and starry all during the game and a moderate sized, enthusiastic crowd witnessed the snappy fray. Both teams furnished plenty of spectacular football—thrills, chills, and plenty of action.

Immediately after the game the fans stormed into the gymnasium where they whooped and skipped through the gay carnival maze for a couple of hours. The gym was colorfully decked in Cardinal and Gold trimmings, drapes, and streamers with "oodles" of multi-colored balloons floating aloft amid clouds of flying confetti. On all sides of the large room were brightly decorated booths holding forth many attractions to the fun-seekers. Above the crowd, in the balcony, the Bearcat pep band burst into melody at intervals thus adding to the general gaiety. Then a couple of frisky clowns contributed more fun to the frolic. Muriel White praised all the committee chairmen and members for their splendid cooperation in making the carnival such a big hit. She stated, however, that the cleanup fellows failed to give Eugene Smith the assistance he should have had and she especially thanks Eugene for showing up for work even if his "brothers" were not on deck. The carnival was a financial success, too, with the gross receipts of $85.68 offsetting the $24 expenses.

Finances Same as Usual

Mr. Sparks, financial manager of the homecoming program, reports that the expense account stands this year practically the same as it has in past years. He reports that the Alumni banquet was well attended and all present experienced a jolly old reunion.

The homecoming play, given by Theta Alpha Phi Saturday evening, was acclaimed one of the best ever presented by Willamette students. The players in "Skidding" are all to be congratulated for their splendid characterization of parts. The interest of the audience was entirely captured by the intensely human comedy involving the age-old question of whether a girl can follow a career and married life at the same time.

Sue Pringle, as Marlon Hardy, demonstrated that a woman can play the politics game even better than the man when it comes to a showdown. Appealing, indeed as the manner in which young Miss Hardy secured political advancement for her father, Judge Hardy, played by Carl Marcy. And no doubt every mother in the auditorium deeply sympathized with the long-suffering Mrs. Hardy, excellently portrayed by Elizabeth Oden. Clarence Poor, as Wayne Trenton III, lived through the interesting experiences of a young engineer, who was very much in love with Marlon Hardy, the girl who didn't know whether she wanted a husband or a position on the state legislature. She got both—what a girl! Beuna Brown, as Aunt Milly, was extremely realistic in her representation of a kind old maid who had chosen unmarried freedom in preference to nuptial bondage. The two married Hardy sisters, played by Pauline Moore and Margaret Freeman, presented an all too life-like interpretation of the woes of modern housewives. Perhaps the most difficult portrayal of the play was that of old Grandpa Hardy. This part was unusually well-characterized by Rex Rhoten, who seemed to fit right into the being of the old man himself. Lowell Eddy, acting as Andy Hardy, high school youth and general family disturbance, put his part straight across to the audience, especially to the men and boys. His hilarious depiction of youth in the "pin-feather" whiskers—first-sweetheart stage was nothing short of a "knock-out." Stanley King, as Judge Hardy's campaign manager also did his share in putting over the appealing story.

Alfred King, play manager was very pleased with the work of his staff although he would likely to have seen a bigger crowd in attendance.

Much credit for the success of this play is due Professor Rahe, who directed the production. According to popular opinion, the presentation was certainly a compliment to Professor Rahe as well as to the members of the cast.

FEW ALUMNI RETURN TO FIND CELEBRATION RUN OFF LIKE CLOCKWORK

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

Alumni return to find celebration run off like clockwork.

BEETHOVEN GROUP PRESENT PROGRAM

Members of the Beethoven Society favored the Willamette students with a musical program in chapel Thursday, October 29.

The program consisted of the following numbers:

1. Piano solo: "Dance in the Patio", by Repper, Edith Findley.
2. Vocal solo: "One Fine Day", (from Madame Butterfly) by Puccini, Elizabeth Clement, accompanied by Edith Findley.
3. Piano solo: "Arabesque", by Debussy, Frances Laws.
4. Vocal solo: "Sing, Smile, Slumber", by Chas. Gounod, Helen Cochran Kutch, accompanied by Miriam Armitage.
5. Trumpet solo: "Triplets of the Forest", by Hennenburg, played by Wesley Roeder, Gustave Klempel, Percy Sweet, accompanied by Robert Magin.

As it was a national music program each of the numbers presented represented the music of a certain nation.

The Beethoven Society is a musical organization. It restricts its members to those who are talented in music.

Besides presenting a monthly program in chapel, the members sponsor and participate in many programs in Salem. This was the first of the monthly programs to be presented in chapel.

MARRIED WOMEN'S CLUB HAS MEETING

Married Women's Club of Willamette campus held their second meeting at the home of Mrs. Nellie Ackerman Saturday afternoon, October 31.

Social plans for the year were discussed the first of which is to be a party for the husbands at Chresto Cottage. Mrs. Paulis and Mrs. Schultze were elected as patronesses. The objectives of the club were formed and agreed upon.

There will be a special meeting of the club held Thursday night, November 5. This meeting will be given to deciding what must be done in opposition to the complaints against such a club by a committee of prominent Salem women.

HOME COMING CUPS GIVEN TWO HOUSES

Two silver loving cups were presented during homecoming week, one for the winner of the football sign competition, and the other for the house being represented by the best booth at the carnival.

Sigma Tau fraternity was successful for the second successive year, in bringing home the football sign trophy. The prize winner portrayed a model Bearcat player in the act of overthrowing his Idaho opponent. The Sig had a real electrically lighted miniature gridiron with familiar Willamette scenes forming a background. All the other signs were well constructed and striking in appearance so the judging was rather close.

The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority also duplicated their feat of last year by winning the carnival trophy. Their booth was very clever and original—a three passenger merry-go-round! The Internationals were close seconds with a Japanese tea garden and a number of the other booths showed plenty of class.

CHAPEL SPEAKERS

Congressman Hawley spoke to Willamette students Wednesday and gave them interesting and useful information about U. S. government. Mr. Hawley is a true alumnus of Willamette, for he has been a student, a professor, and the president of this university.

Next Tuesday, November 10, Professor J. Tryon from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology will speak.

That O. S. C. has a broadcasting station (KOAC) which features lectures, devotional services, musical numbers, etc.

THEY SAY...

That U. S. C. sorority pledges are lunching at the other sororities in exchange luncheons. Upper-class women are staying at home while lower-class women travel to the guest house.

Attention Inter-sorority Council.

That 1000 persons gained admittance to the California-Santa Clara and California-Olympic club games on false cardboard tickets whose falseness can be picked out only with the aid of a magnifying glass.

That Don Miguel Gonzales and family of Santa Town, Argentina, were delightfully serenaded recently by a quartet of young men whose strumming and singing was so loud that the squawks of the chickens in Don Gonzales' hen house could not be heard as they were meanwhile stolen.

That there are five possible "daters" for every co-ed on the Stanford campus but that week-ends are getting to be more dateless because of the depression.

That the Stanford condition might be remedied by adopting the University of Arizona custom and tradition that femmes pay half the cost of dates.

That a co-ed special writer for the University of Washington "Daily" was presented with a picture of himself by Lawrence Tibbets as compensation for a kiss during an interview on the campus.

That the editor of the Oregon State Daily Barometer complains, "Is there anything in the world more disheartening than to wait three weeks for a date, get it, and then to have the girl decide to go home for the weekend?"

That the atlas of the Great Elector of Brandenburg, Germany is the largest book in the world, being 66 inches high, 39 inches wide and weighing 275 pounds.

BEARCATS MEET HUSKY BADGERS

Jenne's "Pop Warner" Rattle Dazzle System to Be Seen on Gridiron

NEITHER TEAM FAVORED

Large Crowd Expected; Game Promises to Make Or Break Bearcats