WELCOME.

To students, old and new, we extend most cordial greetings, and welcome you to the historic halls of old Willamette and her rich associations. If you would know the thrill of inspiration, read the history of her sixty seven years of struggles and triumphs; then place yourself under the old Oregon pine on her campus and view her buildings of broad foundations and monumental peering, emblematic of the characters she has moulded, and you will say with the poet: "My heart did bend like barley bending," and go away a larger man or woman.

To the old students we would say: let us forget the things that are behind and "press toward the mark for the prize." Let us make this our BEST year, best in our study and class room; in definite service for our fellow students, and above all in the fine art of character building.

To the new student: be sure you start right. It is bad to undertake too many things, but it is worse to allow too much of one thing to take you. Study hard, but take time to be sociable and religious; ally yourself at once with one of the Christian Associations. You have a threefold nature—body, mind and soul, and you can not neglect any one of these without becoming in that much a weakling. And while you are planning your college course and life work, remember the Creator planned you, and with you he planned a plan for you. Seek to know His will. For if we would win in "the race that is set before us," we must work in harmony with the plan of Him who planned all.

Finally, and most vitally important to you now, ally yourself with the Faculty, make them your friends, and get what is rightfully yours, their best service. Remember, Emerson said: "It matters not so much what you study as with whom you study." There is much truth in this, and you will often confess it when college days are past.

Again we bid you welcome, and ask you to allow us to be of service to you.

[Extract from the Constitution.]

Article II—Object.

The object of this Association shall be to promote growth in grace and Christian fellowship among its members, and aggressive Christian work, especially by and for students, to train them to devote their lives to Jesus Christ, not only in distinctively religious callings, but also in secular pursuits.

Article III—Membership.

Sec. 1. The active membership of the Association shall consist of men, either students or members of the faculty, of this institution, who are members in good standing of some evangelical church, and have been elected by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting. Only active members shall vote and hold office.

Sec. 2. Any man of good moral character, either student or member of the faculty of this institution, may become an associate member by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting.

The membership fee shall be $1 per year, payable at the opening of the college year.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of each member to co-operate heartily in carrying out the objects of the Association in Article II, according to the policy determined by the Association or Executive Committee.

Statement.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Willamette University stands for the best there is in college life. It is the strongest organization in college, including among its members the strongest men, both in athletics and scholarship. A cordial invitation is extended to every man in the University to ally himself with the Association, either as an active or associate member.

DEVOTIONAL.

J. B. C. OAKES '12, CHAIRMAN.

The Religious Meetings Department desires to pursue the following policy this year: To change last year's policy of securing outside speakers for Sunday Meetings, more to that of relying upon College Y. M. C. A. men themselves; and, if possible, to bring about more joint meetings with Y. W. C. A. Something of the following plan will likely be carried out for each month: One Sunday with an outside speaker; two with local men; and one jointly with the Y. W. C. A.

BIBLE STUDY.

ALFRED SCHRAMM '12, CHAIRMAN.

We consider this the most important department of Y. M. C. A. work, and a verry essential branch in the career of every college student, and with professors and competent ministers of the town to lead in several of the best and most practical courses anywhere offered, we congratulate every Bible Study enthusiast upon his excellent opportunity, and not only bid him welcome, but urge him to join us in this most INTERESTING AND PROFITABLE of college work.

MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

WM. T. BEATTY '13, CHAIRMAN.

Willamette University has in its past history turned out a large number of missionaries, and since these frequently return home for a rest, we often have the great privilege of hearing missionary lectures that are full of life and instruction. In conjunction with this we offer several good, up-to-date courses, led by competent leaders. Our plan for this year is to conduct classes, both at college and in other parts of the city.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE.

WILFORD BOOTH '12, CHAIRMAN.

The Y. M. C. A. is deeply interested in all students. For the benefit of new students a big Stag Social is held in the gym at the beginning of each year. This gives the fellows a fine chance to get acquainted. Shortly following this is the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. joint reception to new students. This is one of the main events of the year, and the old students look forward to it for a jolly good time. In the Spring the fellows take a "hike" into the country, to search the wilds and bask in the sunshine. Various other social events are put forth by the Bible and Mission Study classes during the year.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE.

CHESTER A. DIAMOND '14, CHAIRMAN.

It is our policy that every man in school shall have an invitation to become a member of the Y. M. C. A. during the first month of the school year.

CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

WM. SCHREIBER '14, CHAIRMAN.

In the room to the right of the main entrance to Eaton Hall the Y. M. C. A. has an Employment and Information Bureau, with lists of rooms and boarding places, also places to work. This list is for the benefit of those needing such aid, and the Association wishes to help you get well located.

FINANCE.

C. J. HOLLINGWORTH, '13, CHAIRMAN.

It is desired to establish in the Y. M. C. A. a high business standard, as well as a high spiritual standard. In order to do this we must always have money in the treasury to make all payments as soon as they become due. The expenses of our local organization each year are not large, as compared with many of the schools of the Northwest; but this does not relieve anyone of his responsibilities. The money necessary for the year's expenses will approximate two hundred dollars. This amount will be raised, as much as possible, by membership dues, and the balance by voluntary subscription. Let each one contribute his share of this sum, and not leave the burden to be carried by just a few who have already given largely of their time and means toward the support of the Association work.

Don't forget how vast is the number of subjects on which you are highly qualified to keep silent.

HOMEMADE BRIEFLETS.

Simple honesty is still good.

Cleanliness, too, is a high quality.

Promptness betrayeth a tidy character, while tardiness marketh the slug-gard.

Wear not the sickly grin; MAN is made of a sounder quality.

Are you traveling the way of Patience? Then speed away, for it leadeth to success.

Be yourself, lest you offend him whom you would imitate.

Perseverance is the quality that accomplishes the seemingly impossible things.

It Will be Well

For you to write home every Sunday.

To attend the Association meetings.

To seek friends, and seek to have friends seek you.

For girls to visit the Rest Room.

For you to stay in nights.

State Y. M. C. A. Convention,

The State Committee of the Association provides for an annual convention, which is held at the different college towns—last year at Corvallis. To this convention thirty Willamette men went last year, and brought back new life to the local organization.

The Northwest Student Conference.

At Columbia Beach, on the Oregon Coast, just south of the mouth of the Columbia River, is held one of the most inspiring, definite and, in every way the most practical of conferences that a student is privileged to attend. Many a young man has had his vision of the meaning of life and his relation to it at this conference. Ask some of the old students about it, and be one to go this year.

If one is asked to define a gentleman, he finds it hard to make an answer. If one is not asked, he knows perfectly well.

BIBLE STUDY COMMITTEE.

MARIE SCHMIDT '11, CHAIRMAN.

The importance of systematic devotional Bible study for spiritual growth and efficiency in leadership, is becoming more and more recognized and emphasized, especially in institutions of learning. In fact, it is considered an essential part of a student's education. The Christian Associations promote Bible study by offering courses, and securing leaders and enrollment for the classes. The Y. W. C. A. hopes to enroll every young woman student in this institution into one or the other of the three courses chosen for the ensuing year: "The Life of Christ," "Teachings of Jesus and His Apostles," by E. T. Bucworth; and "Leaders of Israel," by Robinson. Come girls, put Bible study at the head of your course of study. The pleasure and profit will be all yours.

DEVOTIONAL COMMITTEE.

CLARA A. DIMOND '13, CHAIRMAN.

Our aim is to strengthen the spiritual life of the members of the Association through the religious meetings, to lead non-Christian girls to Christ, and to develop Christian workers in the Association. We hope to make the meetings simple, but helpful to the girls. Our rule is to have student leaders, but occasionally to have outside speakers to lead the meetings. Besides the weekly devotional meetings we will provide for all the special meetings that are under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE.

MARGARET GRAHAM '12, CHAIRMAN.

All young women of Willamette University are eligible to membership; those who are members of evangelical churches become active members, others are sssociate. Our aim is to help new students in every way, so don't be afraid to ask questions, for every Y. W. C. A. girl is your friend.

MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

JESSIE YOUNG '13, CHAIRMAN.

The aim of the Missionary Committee is to create and strengthen among the students of Willamette University an intelligent and sympathetic interest in the less favored classes and nations of the world. To this end monthly missionary meetings will be held in the Association, efforts made to acquire a library of information along the line of missionary activities and mission study classes organized. The latter ought to prove of great value, especially if the students give their hearty cooperation.

Take One.

Industry is a cardinal virtue.

True culture makes play subordinate to work.

Reading maketh a full man, conference a ready man, and writing an exact man.—Sir Francis Bacon.

The nearer you come into relation with a person the more necessary do tact and courtesy become.

Seek to know thyself.

Adversity and disappointment are the purifiers of ambition and the propagators of a true motive.

Be thy master.

The gentleman in his conduct and bearing gives happiness.

We first make our friends and then our friends make us.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE STUDENT BODY

Is the organization of all the students of the University. This organization, under the supervision of the President and Faculty, has control of general student affairs, such as athletics, the business management of the Collegian, inter-collegiate debates, and oratorical contests.

The Girls' Student Association is composed of members of the Colleges and Academy. Its purpose is to foster social life.

The Young Men's and Young Womens' Christian Associations are organizations for promoting the religious welfare of the students and aiming at the development of noble Christian character.

ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION

Is an organization of all college students aiming at the development of oratory in the University. The local association sends a representative, chosen in a local contest, to the Annual State Contest, which is held the second Friday of March of each year, the place alternating among the different colleges represented. The successful contestant receives a beautiful gold medal for the material reward of his labors. A year ago last Spring Clark Russel Belknap won the honors for old Willamette.

DEBATES.

Debating at Willamette is under the supervision of a Debate Council, which arranges for the intercollegiate debates. Last year Willamette University Law School debated with, and won the debate from University of Oregon Law School.

THE ANNUAL INTER-LITERARY SOCIETY CONTEST

Is held at the end of each college year, at which time representatives from each society compete for the silver cup.

THE STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND.

This is an organization of such students who have declared their purpose to become foreign missionaries. The first Annual State Convention of student volunteers, which was held here last Spring, was a source of great inspiration to the Band. Five new members have been enrolled since that time, making a total of twelve members. During the past year the Band held reviews in the local churches and at Chemawa. The policy for this year is to concentrate efforts on Bible study at the Chemawa Indian School.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION.

At the beginning of last year athletic prospects were very low, but with the coming of the new coach, Dr. J. G.

Sweetland, the old order of things was overturned and things have been on the up-grade ever since. Out of a green squad, largely Freshmen, Dr. Sweetland formed a football team which was doubtless the best non-conference team in the Northwest. The basket ball was second only to O. A. C., and as every man will be back in school, we should have the fastest team in Oregon this year. In base ball a good foundation was laid for a winning team in 1911.

If athletics at Willamette are given the hearty support which they deserve from the whole student body, with the aid of an experienced and hard working coach, her teams are going to be able to rank well up among the colleges of the Northwest.

TENNIS ASSOCIATION.

Willamette has a beautiful tennis court in a very attractive spot of the campus. We also have some good players, and expect to have inter-collegiate meets this year.

The Prohibition Association is an active body of students who meet twice each month, for the study of various phases of the liquor problem. The annual inter-collegiate contest gives an ideal opportunity for any one interested in oratorical work to obtain the best training, as well as a twenty or forty dollar cash prize.

Choral Society.

One of the most important organizations in the University is the Choral Society. Its object is to form an acquaintance with the best choral numbers, to develop the æsthetic nature and a love for good music, as well as the valuable training which is to be gained. No student who has any musical talent can afford to miss this rare opportunity of development. The Society is under the able and efficient direction of Dean Mendenhall, of the College of Music. During the May Festival of 1910 the Society, composed of 100 voices, rendered a most successful program at the Grand Opera House.

The University Glee Club.

This organization, under the direction of Dean F. S. Mendenhall, of the C. M. is doing a very high grade of work. Last year the Club made a tour through Eastern Washington and Idaho, and was reported everywhere to have made a hit with the people. This report was confirmed when they appeared in the May Festival in connection with the Ladies' Glee and the Choral Society at the home opera.

The Ladies' Glee Club.

This organization too, is but in its infancy, and under the direction of Dean Mendenhall has made remarkable progress. Last year it appeared before the public several times with marked success, also playing an important part in the May Festival, as mentioned above. It is composed of young ladies from all departments of the University, so let every girl who sings try out for membership in this organization.

Beta chi Lambda.

A medical fraternity.

Chess Club.

An organization for students of the Ben Franklinian inclination.

Rooters' Club.

Organized for aiding systematic yelling and cheering at athletic and other contests, and for creating college spirit in general.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are four Student Literary Societies—two for men and two for women. Each brother society and its sister society has a nicely furnished room in the old Liberal Arts building. Each of these societies is doing very effective work in debating and other literary lines. Your first year at the University is the time to make your choice of a society, and then seek to make your society greater because you belong to it.

THE WILLAMETTE COLLEGIAN

is our weekly newspaper, informing us of our own students' doings, of the welfare of the alumni, and of the happenings of the colleges of the world. Editor, Alma V. Haskin; Business Manager, John McNees.

THE HANDBOOK.

This little memorandum book is given by the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A., with a view of giving some useful information concerning college life.

If education reveals to a man, other men, in friendship, or in literature, or in history, it more emphatically reveals himself to himself.

The best working formula to success is "concentrated energy."

You can improve your own business by keeping out of other people's.

An ounce of directed enthusiasm is worth a ton of constrained energy.

There is nothing great in the world but man, and nothing great in man but mind.

A college education helps one to be least alone when most alone.

Hail Willamette, My Willamette.

Tune—Tramp, Tramp.

Hail Willamette, first and best,
Day Spring of the golden West!
Sound her praises, youths and maidens
in her song;
Tell her glorious works afar,
Tell how great her triumphs are.
Tell the world that all our hearts to her belong.

CHORUS.

Hail Willamette, my Willamette!
Alma Mater, audi me.
Oh, I sing thy praise today
With true heart and true for aye, Ever singing, dear Willamette, hail to thee.

Happy students are we here,
Bound in ties of friendship dear,
And we owe our hopes of high attainment all
To the blessings we enjoy,
Sheltered from the world away
In the pleasant shades of old Willamette halls.

Hail Willamette, hail to thee!
Sing we still thy jubilee;
And when other fifty years away have rolled,
Would we might again unite
In a chorus of delight,
Singing with our children then thine age of gold.
