

THREE COURSES WILL BE NEW

50 Second Semester Subjects Are Given in Various Departments.

REGISTER JAN. 26-30

Profs. Alden, Winn and Balderree Will Offer Additional Instruction

Three entirely new courses are being offered next semester. Professor Winn will have a class in Elements of Aesthetics that promises to be very worthwhile.

Medieval Foundations is a new subject in the history department. This class will be under the instruction of Professor Alden.

The women's physical education department will present a course in Technique of Teaching Physical Education, taught by Miss Balderree.

There will be many courses next semester that are given only during the second term. They are as follows: vertebrate zoology, ornithology, general botany, systematic botany, genetics, economic history, statistics, public utilities, high school teaching, observation, federal and state school administration, essay writing, recent British literature, nineteenth century English poetry, main currents in English literature since 1850, nineteenth century English prose, methods in teaching French, Plato, Herodotus and Thucydides, the Napoleonic era, contemporary European history, Latin America and the United States, child care, interior design, advanced clothing, solid geometry, analytic geometry and calculus, plane surveying, advanced analytic geometry, differential equations, methods in mathematics, human motives, elementary ethics, abnormal psychology, personal hygiene, physical ability and achievement tests, athletic training and treatment of injuries, organization and administration of physical education, kinesiology, electricity and magnetism, modern physics theories, problems of government, comparative governments, international law, American foreign service, municipal government, history of political theory, constitutional law, social pathology, history of social thought, persuasive speaking, and speech seminar.

Registration will begin on Monday, the 26th, and continue through examination week.

PLAYERS PRACTICE ART OF MAKE-UP

Members of the play production class are learning the art of make-up by practicing on each other. Whiskers are applied, and people of all types and characters are imitated.

Sleepy Students Struggle To Counteract Late Hours

Reviewing and Semester Themes Keep Mid-night Oil Burning

I would hate to be a professor just before exam-week—trying to teach my stumbling classes. But I think it is much more painful to be one of the drowsy multitude. If I were a professor, I'd demote my classes and thereby win the undying gratitude of my pupils, whose mighty efforts to keep their eyes open and be polite are truly touching.

There are two periods in the day that are the worst—7:45 and 1:15. How the hearts of the professors can withstand the sad spectacle that meets their eyes during these two periods is a marvel. By a mighty struggle, the students manage to get up in the morning a whole fifteen minutes before class—no matter how late they studied the night before. Very seldom are they more than ten minutes late—and a professor should be grateful for such punctuality at this time of the year. He might use his imagination, and remember how it feels when the alarm clock goes off early on a frosty morning and he's been up late the night before. He might go farther, and remember what he says—but we wouldn't advise that. And after lunch, when the effects of the few hours of sleep

Gianoli Elected Frosh President

Juniors Break Vice-President Tie in Favor of Nellie Badley

Freshman officers for the second semester were chosen at their class meeting, Wednesday, January 21. The returns were as follows: Charles Gianoli, president; Mildred Kester, vice president; Pauline Lockhart, secretary; Fred Harris, treasurer; Louis Hershberger, inter-class rivalry committee; Arthur Erickson, sergeant-at-arms; and Kenneth Oliver, parliamentarian.

The tie between Nellie Badley and Faye Cornutt for the office of junior vice-president was voted off in favor of Miss Badley at the junior class meeting on Wednesday.

Officers previously elected by the juniors to serve during the spring term are: Cecil Harmon, president; Estel Chaney, secretary; Claire Miller, treasurer; and Don Faber, athletic manager.

DRAMA LEAGUE CHOOSES PLAY

"Belinda," a Clever Comedy, is Chosen by Salem Group

The Salem Drama League has chosen for its next play "Belinda," one of A. A. Milne's most clever comedies.

The League has been fortunate in obtaining the following cast: Mr. Treymann—Mr. Frank Alder. Mr. Baxter—Mr. James Beard. Mr. Claude Devenish—Mr. Wesley Dexter Gordon. Belinda—Miss Genevieve Thayer.

Della—Miss Eleanor Henderson. Betty—Mrs. Mariott. Mr. Beard comes from Portland. He successfully played the part of Baxter, the starchy statistician, several years ago.

Each member of the cast has had considerable experience in local dramas. Mr. Alfred and Miss Thayer will be remembered especially for their fine work in several plays under Dr. Hall and Dr. Gatte.

The chief interest of the play revolves around the finding of Mr. Jack Treymann. Belinda, played very ably by Miss Thayer, skillfully, and a little wickedly, uses the two intense rivals for her hand. Mr. Claude Devenish, egotistical poet, Wesley Gordon, and Mr. Baxter, the statistician, Mr. Beard, fall to find her husband. Jack Treymann, Devenish discovers that he was in love, but not with Belinda and Baxter delighted to discover that Belinda has a "Library."

Miss Margaret Burroughs is directing the play in a very efficient manner.

The time chosen for presentation is next Wednesday night at the Elsinore theatre, at 8 o'clock.

RUCH PLEDGES

Delta Theta Phi announces the pledging of Willard Ruch, junior in law school.

PROGRAM GIVEN BY BEETHOVENS

Four Pledges of Beethoven Society Give Interesting Program in Chapel

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Society Pledging Requirements High; Prof. Must Recommend

Seven students were Friday night pledged to the Beethoven society, campus music honorary. Eileen Cochrane, who plans not to return to the university next semester, was Tuesday initiated into membership.

Others, besides Miss Cochrane, who were pledged Friday are: Elizabeth Clement, Frances Laws, Marjory O'Dell, Gustavo Klompel, Verne Wilson, and Margaret Warnke.

Membership in the organization is elective but before the name of a prospective member may be proposed that student must have achieved certain recognition, be recommended by a member of the faculty of the school of music, and have fulfilled certain requirements as to courses in theory of music.

The society also elected new officers at its Friday night meeting. Josephine Albert was elected to the presidency, Helen Pemberton is vice president, and Margaret Schreiber is secretary-treasurer.

Wednesday the Beethovens presented four of their pledges in a chapel-hour concert with the following program: Crescendo—Lasson—Piano. Marjory O'Dell. An Arrangement from Rubenstein—Cornet, Gustavo Klompel. Tarantello—MacDowell. Waltz in E Minor—Chopin—Piano, Eileen Cochrane. Nocturne—Stoughton—Organ. Margaret Warnke.

W. U. DEBATE PROSPECTS GOOD

Successful Season is Expected By Both Men and Women

Women's debate prospects are very bright. Professor Rahe states that in his five years of experience the squad has never shown better promise. There is fine new material, as well as good experience in the squad. The squad includes Virginia Durkee, Florence Long, Pauline Paul, Barbara Elliott, Lulu Allen, Loretta Varley, Kathleen Skinner, Lillian Beecher, Lida Hanna, Alyce Hummel, Faye Cornutt, Doris Corbin.

There is still opportunity for others to turn out.

Professor Rahe wishes to urge more upperclassmen to turn out for debate. There is a good turnout of freshmen men, but since the Pacific Coast Forensic League demands that the representative from Willamette be an upperclassman, there is a real need for more material from which to choose. This conference will be held at the U. of W. on the 6th, 7th, and 8th of April. Sophomores are also urged to come out.

The men's squad is composed of Willis Schuler, Ross Knotts, Kenneth Hershberger, Fred Blatchford, Charles Gianoli, Ray Lafko, Ralph McCullough, Harold Rhoten, Ronald Hewitt.

WILLAMETTE ALUMNAE

Miss Fanny H. Phillips, chairman of the membership committee of the American Association of University Women recently corresponded with the Willamette Alumni secretary, L. J. Sparks, concerning women alumnae living in or near New York.

MOOT COURT HAS CASE

Moot court had their first case last Wednesday. It was an indemnity case—with the jury returning a verdict in favor of the defendant.

COFFEE HOUSE TO MEET

Coffee House will hold its regular fortnightly meeting tonight. Another chapel program will be given by this organization the week after exams.

Sackett to Lead Reportorial Talk

Series of Three Lectures to Be Held for Collegian News Staff

February 4, in the first week of the new semester, the first of a series of three weekly lectures will be conducted for the benefit of the reportorial staff of the Collegian. The elements of news writing and the new trends in the field of journalism will be the topics for discussion.

Mr. Sheldon F. Sackett, publisher of the Oregon Statesman, will lead the first discussion group but the leaders of the two other groups have not yet been definitely chosen.

These classes are being conducted to not only raise the standard of the reportorial work in the Collegian, but also to give those reporters who have shown enough interest in the Collegian to continue writing for the second semester, an opportunity to become more acquainted with the professional aspect of news-writing.

The active members of the reportorial staff include, Amelia Sirack, Florence Albee, Pauline Lockhart, Helen Childs, Edith Clement, Dorothy Dalk, Lucille Flanary, Frances Flint, Arlene Keys, Marjorie Law, Florence Marshall, Esther McMinnis, Mary Louise Morley, Ted Parker, Pauline Paul, Jean Peterson, Margaret Purvine, Madeline Schmidt, Ruth Schreiber, Helen Skinner, Mary White, and Alice Weins.

ONE MORE WOMAN THAN MEN IN W. U.

Freshman Class Leads List in Total of Enrollment; Sophs Next

At the close of this semester there are 557 students taking work at Willamette university. 275 of these are women students while the other 278 are men students.

Mr. Tennant accounted for the extra woman by the fact that there are two Helen Pembertons on the campus.

The Law School has an enrollment of 33. In the freshman class there are nine men. The junior class has fourteen men and one woman. There are nine seniors and one special student in the Law School.

As usual, the freshman class in the school of liberal arts leads in enrollment. There are 83 women and 111 men, making a total of 194 freshmen.

In the freshman class last year there were 79 men and 88 women, a total of 167. In the sophomore class there are 37 men and 59 women which makes the sophomore 96 members. Last year there were 122 in the sophomore class.

This same group lost 26 members and so the juniors have 101 members. There are 56 women and 45 men. The junior class last year had a total of 105 members—42 men and 63 women.

The graduating class is larger this year than last year. Last year there were 74 members; this year the senior class has 84 members. Almost a third of the class is composed of women, of whom there are 52. There are 32 men.

Thirteen students are taking music only and there are 21 special students.

Applications for entrance have been received from 25 people. Of these 15 want to enter as freshmen, the other ten want to be upper classmen.

CHATS WITH BUSINESS GIRLS ON ASPECTS OF PROFESSIONAL LIFE ARE FEATURES OF NEW VOLUME

A very interesting new book has just arrived in the Willamette university library. Its title is "The Business Girl Chooses," by Marion Lulu Norris. It is cleverly written in story form and composed entirely of dialogue. Many up-to-the-minute topics are discussed in this chummy way. Some of them are the girl's position, her health, her personality, her friends, her recreation, her church, her finances, her Christian citizenship, her husband, her home and children, her vocation, and her ideals. The book is not in the least bit "preachy" but contains conversations which one might hear in the dorm, on the bus, in a store downtown, or before the fireplace. It will prove very beneficial to every girl who spares a few minutes for its reading.

Other new books are "Holland's Modern Renaissance" by A. C. J.

Willamette Was Founded By Immigrant Lee

Seventy-eight institutions of higher learning in America were established by immigrants, according to a study dealing with the influence of immigrants on higher education in America recently completed by Ruth Barnes, senior economics major. Of these seventy-eight ten are members of the Association of American Universities. Willamette is one of the institutions so honored.

Three of the colleges and universities in Oregon are of this group established by immigrants. Willamette, Methodist, was established by Jason Lee, Canadian born. St. Mary's College, Portland Catholic institution, was founded by Swiss people. Mt. Angel College, Catholic, was founded by Canadians.

Miss Barnes' study shows that the Germans have had the greatest influence in higher education in this country. They established 35 colleges and universities. The French follow with 11; Swedish next with 10; while the Danish and Norwegian immigrants have established five each. Others who founded institutions claim nationalities as follows: Dutch, Canadian, English, Finnish, Scotch, Jewish, Polish, Irish and Swiss.

The study was in the nature of original research done for the class in immigration. It contains some thirty-five type written pages.

VICTORY SONGS TO BE WRITTEN

Music composers and poets are on their toes in hopes of bringing fame to their respective classes on the night of March 7, the date set aside for the Freshman Glee. The song this year will be a Victory March, of one stanza, to be written in march time. Class practice will probably start in the second week of the new semester. Other work is well under way, according to members of the Freshman Glee committee.

SCIENCE CLUB WILL ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Leslie Frewing and Jennie Lilly are nominees for the presidency of Science club. Lila Carlton was nominated for vice president at the Monday night meeting where the other names were proposed. Lola Beach, Esther Glrod, and Marjorie Moser were nominated for secretary-treasurer. Elections will be held at the next meeting of the organization. Sophomores may now be pledged to Science club, long an honorary open only to members of the two upper classes, as the result of the adoption of a constitutional amendment.

The amendment was passed at the regular meeting of the club held Monday night.

ALUMNUS OUT

The Alumnus came off the press early this week and is being issued from the registrar's office now.

Many Delegates To Legislature Are W. U. Alums

Careful Check-up Reveals 8 Willamette Men in House and 3 in Senate

Eleven out of 89 members of the 1931 legislature, at some time in their lives have attended Willamette.

Fourteen claim records at University of Oregon while six have from O. S. C.

Valparaiso U. in Indiana, is represented by four former students, the largest number coming from any out-of-state college or university.

Senator Colon R. Eberhard of La Grande, once attended Willamette as did also Senator W. E. Burke of Sherwood.

Senator James W. Crawford of Portland graduated from Willamette College of Law in 1911.

Representative George P. Winslow of Tillamook is a Willamette grad of 1913.

In 1891, I. U. Temple, now Dr. I. U. Temple, representative from Ponderosa, graduated from Willamette.

James W. Mott, Salem, John B. McCourt, Portland, and John H. Lewis, Portland, are all graduates of the Willamette Law school and are representatives.

Representative Arthur W. Schuapp, Klamath Falls, graduated from W. U. in 1911.

Lee McAllister, Salem representative, once attended Willamette, as did also Representative Allen A. Bynon of Portland.

SERVICE IS HELD FOR GIRL RESERVES

Willamette girls have been taking an active part in Girl Reserve activities during the past week. The Presbyterian church was the scene of an impressive recognition service at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when the Girl Reserve triangles of West Salem, Leslie and Parrish junior high schools welcomed new members into their groups.

An interesting program was presented under the direction of Girl Reserve advisors. Miss Doris Clark led the singing of "Hymn of Lights", the Young Women's Christian association hymn, which was sung by the Reserves as a professional, and Miss Helen Brethaupt directed scriptural reading and numbers. Talks concerning the meaning of Girl Reserve work and activities were given by Miss Louise Brown, Miss Elizabeth Atkinson and Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Y.M.C.A. secretary.

This ceremonial is the beginning of work on the part of the Girl Reserves for the new project which is being developed in connection with the spring conference in Astoria, February 13, 14, and 15. The project by name is the "Modern Pioneer."

Miss Florence Marshall announces that as she will be engaged in extraneous activities next semester, she will be unable to continue her work as advisor to the Englewood Girl Reserves. Miss Esther McMinnis will take her place as the new advisor.

Shakespeare Club Presents Parts of "As You Like It"

Amateur Thespians Give Clever Portrayals of Roles

Keen interest has been shown again this year in the meetings of the Willamette Shakespeare Club, a group that has for its purpose the appreciative oral reading and congenial investigation of Shakespeare's plays. In its Wednesday bi-weekly meetings the group this semester has already read "The Two Gentlemen of Verona," and are well started with the reading of "As You Like It."

Mary Allen Miller, who is leading the group for the second year, assigns the character parts among the members, directs the progress of the reading, and comments in a delightful manner on the backgrounds, situations, and other points of special interest in each play read.

The group meets at Willamette Lodge, the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer, and there, after the reading is completed, refreshments and informal comment fill out the remainder of the evening.

Last Wednesday evening, January 14, there were twenty-six members and guests present.

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL PLEDGE SIX

Theta Alpha Phi Gives Recognition of Work in Recent Plays

RAMAGE NEW PRESIDENT

Helen Stiles, Eric Anderson and Dr. R. M. Gatte to Hold Other Offices

Formal pledging of six students to Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity, will take place soon after the opening of the second semester. It has been announced.

Margaret Warnke, Wesley Gordon, Faye Cornutt, Benna Brown, Ralph McCullough, and Alfred King have been invited to pledge as the result of their work in recent dramatic productions on the campus.

Miss Warnke, a senior, played a leading part in Lady Windemere's Fan and had previously taken minor parts in other plays.

Wesley Gordon, who played the extremely different parts of the king in "The Queen's Husband" and of Lord Darlington in "Lady Windemere's Fan," has also taken part in several of the one-act plays sponsored by the speech department. Mr. Gordon is a senior.

Miss Cornutt, junior, played the part of the queen in "The Queen's Husband."

Miss Brown, junior, took the part of the princess in "The Queen's Husband," and has taken part in one-act plays of the speech department and Theta Alpha Phi.

Ralph McCullough, the only sophomore pledged, was member of the casts of both "Lady Windemere's Fan" and "The Queen's Husband."

Alfred King, junior, managed "Lady Windemere's Fan," and was stage manager for "The Queen's Husband."

At a recent meeting of Theta Alpha Phi Willamette Chapter, Jack Ramage was elected president for the coming semester; Helen Stiles was re-elected vice president; Eric Anderson was elected secretary. Dr. R. M. Gatte is treasurer.

COLLEGE ELEVEN HAS TWELVE MEN

Collego Station, Texas—(IP)—A situation amusing to spectators, despite the embarrassment it no doubt caused those officiating, developed in a game to determine the intramural speedball championship of A & M college here when at the close of the game it developed that one of the teams had played the entire game with 12 men. As in football, after which the game is closely patterned, teams in speedball are composed of 11 men, but since in speedball the players seldom are grouped as closely as in football the error was not noticed until a check-up of the lineups was made at the close of the game.

Amateur Thespians Give Clever Portrayals of Roles

Marked interest was shown in the portrayal of the leading characters of "As You Like It." The group was entertained by some really fine interpretative reading. Josephine Albert as Rosalind, Margaret Eddy as Celia, and Nellie Badley as the clever Touchstone received deserved praise for their work in these parts.

Membership and participation in the activities of this group are allowed upon invitation. The membership list comprises: Honorary Membership: Mrs. Claudius Thayer, Miss Genevieve Thayer, Mrs. Cecil Monk, Dr. H. C. Kohler.

Regular Membership: Mary Miller, Marian Morange, Josephine Albert, Buelah Graham, Lulu Allen, Marjorie Moser, Nellie Badley, Helen Cochran, Faye Cornutt, Sylvia DuBois, Charles Campbell, Esther Ross, Clarence Poor, Anabel Tooz, Eric Anderson, Frances Wesley, Eugene Smith, Virginia Edwards, Hugh Curran, Margaret Eddy, Pauline Livezey, Alys Love.

I Cannot Laugh—When Kids Play I can not laugh when kids play war— They shout, and youthlike have their fun, but yet,

Despite the harmless aspect of their play, I see The years roll by a score and these same kids, now men, Sweating under reeking packs and rolling,

I see this little chap, so curly-topped and fair, Drenched in the blood of his own heart, but living still.

Yes, when I see kids playing soldier, Laughing and joking in the yard, I cannot laugh—

The smoke and the smell get in to my nostrils— I cannot laugh—when kids play.

Fraternity and Sorority Houses Elect Officers

Sorority and fraternity elections of the past week have placed the following officers in the leadership of their respective houses. The officers elected for the Delta Phi house are: president, Elizabeth Atkinson; vice president, Edith Findley; recording secretary, Mildred Wampler; corresponding secretary, Frances Laws; telephone secretary, Marie Ledbetter; Collegian reporter, Bertha Babcock. Newly elected officers for the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority are: Margaret Warnke, president; Helen Stiles, vice president; Elizabeth Ogden, financial manager; Estel Chaney, house manager; Benetta Edwards, secretary; Elvira Sawyer, treasurer; Lulu Allen, editor of the house annual; and Lucille Flanary, reporter. The new officers for Alpha Psi Delta are: president, Lars Nelson; first vice president, James Allison; second vice president, Melvin Crow; secretary, Clark Wood; member-at-large, Lawrence Gibson. They were installed last Sunday by the retiring president, Mr. Frank Van Dyke.

Club Meetings

The Beethoven society met at the Delta Phi sorority house Friday afternoon. Officers for the coming semester were elected. They are: president, Josephine Albert; vice president, Helen Pomberton; and secretary, Margaret Schreiber. Pledge service was read for the following: Miss Eileen Cochran, Miss Margaret Warnke, Miss Elizabeth Clement, Miss Frances Laws, Miss Marjorie O'Dell, Mr. Gustave Klempel, and Mr. Verne Wilson. A program furnished by the pledges made an interesting closing feature. Mrs. Roy R. Hewitt was hostess to the Delta Phi Mothers' club Monday, for their January meeting. Pussy willows and early spring flowers decorated the rooms. Following the business tea was served. Mrs. Paul Edwards and Mrs. John H. Lewis poured. The club presented the Delta Phi house with a lovely arm chair. The Faculty Women's club met at the home of Mrs. C. H. Johnson last Thursday. Mrs. E. S. Oliver, Miss Leila Johnson, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, and Mrs. R. M. Gatzke assisted Mrs. Johnson.

Engagement Made Known To Campus

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Brant to Mr. Laurence Deacon was announced at a dinner party at the Sigma Tau fraternity house Sunday, January 18. A beautiful floral centerpiece decorated the table. Futuristic place cards marked the places. "Dorothy and Laurence" were written across dainty heart shaped cakes laid in silver and green, the fraternity colors. Ices were served with the cakes. The guests at the dinner were Professor and Mrs. Lestle J. Sparks, Miss Dorothy Brant, Miss Helen Stiles, Miss Josephine Albert, Miss Audrey Tillman, Miss Nellie Badley, Miss Frances Bajer, Miss Cynthia DeLano, Miss Edna Vannice, Miss Marjorie Law, Miss Betty Ogden, and Miss Grace Henderson. Miss Brant graduated from Willamette university in the class of 1930. Mr. Deacon is a member of the sigma Tau fraternity and of the class of 1931.

Coach and Mrs. Sparks Hosts At Breakfast

At an attractive breakfast last Sunday, Coach and Mrs. Lestle Sparks entertained. The basketball idea was carried out. Guests were Miss Evelyn High, Miss Grace Henderson, Miss Marjorie Moser, Miss Doris Clarke, Mr. Donald Grant, Mr. Francis De Harpport, Mr. John Gilhouse, and Mr. Evans Hamilton.

Dinner guests at the Delta Phi house Thursday evening were: Professor and Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hanke drove down from Portland Sunday to visit Helen Hanke.

Miss Margaret Warnke and Miss Edith Findley were dinner guests at Beta Chi Friday, January 16.

Miss Esther McMilline and Miss Eileen Cochran, were the house guests of Miss Margaret Baird and Miss Marie Ledbetter at the Delta Phi house last Saturday night.

Sunday dinner guests at Delta Phi were Mr. Hugh Curran, Mr. Leslie Frewing, Mr. Arthur Fisher, Mr. Carl Marcy, Mr. Charles Campbell, and Mr. Jack Ramage.

Miss Dossadean Shackelford of Monmouth, was a week-end guest of Miss Dorothy Rose at Alpha Phi Alpha.

Mr. J. S. Sawyer was the dinner guest of Miss Irma Sawyer at Alpha Phi Alpha Saturday evening.

Miss Bosshard Honored With Surprise Party

Miss Dorothy Bosshard was the inspiration for a surprise party, Friday evening, on her birthday. The guest list included: the honor guest, Miss Bosshard, Miss Gertrude Oehler, Miss Jean Middleton, Miss Pauline Findley, Miss Edith Findley, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Henrietta Bishop, Miss Dorothy Eastridge, Miss Benetta Edwards, Miss Cynthia DeLano, Miss Mildred Miller, and Miss Marion Bretz.

Miss Melton Hostess For Golf Affair

Miss Virginia Melton was hostess at an indoor golf party Saturday afternoon at the Evergreen Indoor Golf Course. After the round of golf the party was served refreshments at the Gray Belle. The party included Miss Melton, the hostess, Miss Olive M. Dahl, Miss Echo Malderree, Miss Lois Latimer, Mrs. Dorothy Fleisher, and Miss Helene Price.

Mr. Bill McAllister and Mr. Donald Grant, both of Portland, spent the week-end at the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity.

'GRID PANTS' ARE ALABAMA MASCOT

University, Ala. (IP)—To the grid fan who sits in the stadium on a Saturday afternoon and watches the Tide roll, the rusty, threadbare trousers that Mike Stencil, Alabama trainer, wears are "just another pair of pants." But to the Alabama football players they are "touch-down pants." Mike no sooner would leave for a game without these pants than he would leave behind his iodine and adhesive tape. And the players feel the same way about it. When Mike has his touch-down pants on the Tidemen just can't go wrong. Once the trainer forgot his pants, and the team couldn't get going until the final period. Thereafter he never forgot them.

ELECTRICAL TRACK TIMER INVENTED

New York (IP)—A new automatic electrical track timer has been invented by E. A. Speakman, senior at Haverford college. During a meet the instrument functioned with a great degree of accuracy and several improvements have been added which make it accurate to 1-120th of a second. The apparatus is prepared for a race by throwing a switch. The sound of the starter's gun is picked up at the starting line by a microphone and the impulse from this starts an accurate clock. As the runner breaks the tape a light stream is interrupted which stops the clock. The University of Missouri has arranged for establishment of fitting professorships with the University of Mexico, effective next fall.

Atmosphere of Informal Tea Japanese

Miss Helen Breithaupt entertained on Sunday with an informal Japanese tea. The table was centered with a large basket of heather, and Japanese tea and place cards created an oriental atmosphere. Miss Margaret Warnke, Miss Jeanne Forrest, Miss Geneva Breithaupt, and the hostess, Miss Breithaupt, were present.

Presbyterians Skate in Hall

The social hall of the Presbyterian church was the scene last Friday evening of a jolly skating party. Thirty-three, including a large number of Willamette students, were present. Members of the young people's department were hosts.

LIBERAL STUDES TO PUBLISH MAGAZINE

Columbus, O.—(IP)—In order to avoid censorship which they feel has ruled the Ohio State Lantern and Sun Dial, student publications of Ohio State university, a group of students will publish "The Free Voice" it has been announced. The magazine is to be published anonymously and sold off the campus. The advertisement printed in the Ohio State Lantern explains that the magazine is intended for the "thinking students and published by the liberal student element."

Contributions are solicited from students and the faculty in the form of articles on campus controversies, verse or short stories. They will be published anonymously and are to be addressed to Campus Post Office box 977, the only address of the publishers. The magazine is to appear bi-weekly beginning with the issue of January 14, 1931.

DRESS SIMPLE AND BE IN GOOD STYLE

Washington State College, Pullman—"The keynote of good dressing is simplicity and appropriateness. Garments that are simple in style and really beautiful in color and texture will suit a good many occasions," states Helen G. Robson State College clothing specialist. "Extremes in fashion lead to extravagance, and are often in bad taste, while chasing fashion is like running a will-o-the-wisp. There is a difference of opinion as to what constitutes economy in dress. Some people prefer a few things, really good, while others like many changes and are not so particular about quality. Really cheap things, however, are rarely an economy. It is a grave mistake to go about unsuitably dressed. Clothes that are obviously meant for another occasion are out of place. A tweed suit at a formal reception, tussy clothes in a business office, worn-out finery in the kitchen are examples of this practice. The sense of being appropriately dressed is vital in that it reacts on the mental attitude and gives poise and dignity."

LINFIELD COLLEGE PRESIDENT QUILTS

Dr. L. W. Riley, president of Linfield college, will at his own request, terminate his career as president of the institution at the close of his 25th year of service, which will be March 1, 1931.

In a statement to the board of trustees of Linfield at its semi-annual meeting Tuesday, Dr. Riley expressed the opinion that 25 years was long enough to serve as administrator of the college and that his health and that of his wife made rest necessary.

In speaking of President Riley, Dr. Toney, president of the board of trustees for Linfield, has nothing but the highest praise for his 25 years of service to Linfield and Christian education. Dr. Toney makes the following statement concerning the president: "As an administrator of the affairs of Linfield college he has brought the institution to its present position, whose board of trustees 25 years ago, voted to close its doors unless a leader should be found that could carry on the work successfully. Dr. Riley was the man chosen for this position and has so faithfully performed this work that today Linfield has an endowment of practically one million dollars and tangible assets of over five hundred thousand dollars. During this 25 years he has increased the assets of Linfield college in an amount equal to 12 hundred dollars for each week of his service, a most remarkable record and a credit to his integrity and love for work."

CO-EDS DON'T WISH TO BE HOME-MAKERS

Lawrence, Kans.—(IP)—But seven of 1,705 women students at the University of Kansas are studying to be home-makers, according to a recent survey of the university undergraduate body. Teaching school is the aim of 879 of them.

Eighty-four intend to take up journalism, 50 are planning to be nurses, 60 hope to be business women, 16 will take up the practice of medicine, and 15 will practice law.

Another 123 are undecided and 136 did not answer the questions of the registrar.

Washington State College, Pullman—Maybe the oft discussed "financial depression" is back of this incident. Two State college boys, twins, were to have their photos taken for the Chinook, college annual. One of the men went to the photographer and was "shot."

"Take another pose," the boy directed the photographer. "And put my brother's name under it when you send it in. That'll save us time and trouble."

The old saying "boys will be boys" seems to have been supplanted by "a boy will be boys" at Washington State.

EINSTEIN CHARGES $3 FOR AUTOGRAPH

Pasadena, Calif.—(IP)—Were he to grant all the requests for autographs which he receives daily, Prof. Albert Einstein, great philosophical scientist, would find no time even to read the morning paper, let alone accomplish whatever it is he came here to accomplish.

But Mrs. Einstein revealed recently that if folks are anxious enough to have his autograph to be willing to pay, say $3 a piece for them, he will be glad to sign.

But don't get the idea that this is a sudden commercial inspiration on the part of the famous German. The money all will go to the poor in Berlin, Mrs. Einstein explained, a hobby of the scientists.

INCREASE SEEN IN BOOKS' USE

Library has Fewer Cards Out but More Volumes Borrowed

The Salem city library circulated 120,038 books, or 4.5 books per capita during 1930, according to the annual report of Miss Maud Corvinton, city librarian, submitted to the city council Monday night. The total circulation represented an increase of 4742 over 1928 and a per capita circulation of 8.9 books. The largest daily circulation was 840.

The city library now has on its shelves 25,331 volumes, of which 2513 were added in 1930. Books withdrawn numbered 1333 and those borrowed from the state library totaled 2015. The library gets 18 newspapers, 13 by gift; and 188 periodicals, 87 of which are gifts.

Last year, 2675 new borrowers registered, however, 2879 cards were withdrawn, making a decrease of 204 over a year ago, or a total of 13,416 borrowers, which is 31 per cent of the population. There were 122 non-local borrowers.

Fiction Remains Leading Demand

Of the 99,173 books loaned to adults, 25,639 were fiction; and of the 29,866 loaned to children, 15,397, or 51 per cent, were fiction. It is estimated 103,232 persons used the reading rooms. The report shows 932 books were worn out in the year, 632 volumes rebound and 387 lost and cancelled, while 14 were lost and paid for.

The financial report shows total receipts of $14,075.48, of which $12,970 was from city tax; $1105.48 from petty cash; $983.59 from fines, $41.74 from lost books, $85.90 from rentals and $128 from non-residents' cards.

The total income per capita was .53 cents, which is short of the $1 per capita support recommended as standard by the American Library association, when five books per capita are circulated.

Salem's circulation is 4.5 books on about half the standard figure. Members of the library board are: R. J. Hendricks, president; Mrs. Curtis Cross, vice-president; W. H. Burghardt, secretary; E. T. Barnes, D. W. Eyre, Mrs. J. H. Harbison, A. Lee, Dr. H. H. Ollinger and Mrs. F. H. Spears.

RUBIO'S SONS FROSH AT KANSAS COLLEGE

Atchison, Kans.—(IP)—After two months contact with Fernando and Guillermo Ortiz Rubio, sons of the president of Mexico, students at St. Benedict's college here have voted the boys "good fellows."

The two young Mexicans, 17 and 19 years of age respectively, are known as "Freddie" and "Bill" by their fellow undergraduates.

Both are taking their freshman course here, having spent a year at an academy at Gettysburg, Pa., to learn the English language after having been graduated from private schools in Mexico City.

They are good students and are active in campus life, where they have dates and mix with the students freely.

The Rubio brothers came to this college mainly because their cousin, Salvadore Reyes Cortez, is a senior this year.

Cortez is acting as their guide and advisor while they are freshmen.

Tough Schedule for Week is Lined up for Varsity With Three Games on Tap

The Willamette Bearcats have a tough schedule lined up for them this next week, after a week of inaction and steady practice on the big hardwood floor. The Portland Y. M. C. A., St. Martin's, B'nai B'rith, and Vancouver Barracks will be played in regular games, while the Oregon varsity will be scrimmaged down at Eugene. The last contest will be played in secret and no score will be kept.

WRESTLING TEAM SLATES MATCHES FOR COMPETITION

The Bearcat wrestling team is rapidly working into shape for their schedule of intercollegiate matches, slated to begin soon. The first match will be staged with Monmouth Normal school, February 14, and the team will probably wrestle there before that time.

Matches both here and in Portland have been arranged with the Multnomah club, but these will not be held until the latter part of the season for the club men are clever mat artists.

At present none of the Northwest conference schools have wrestling teams, but Willamette hopes to lead the way and interest other schools in that sport.

Already some of the seeds of effort have struck fertile soil as Pacific has declared its intention of matching Willamette's action. Reports come from there that several of the Badgers are experienced wrestlers and although no team has been organized in the past, it is very likely that wrestling will be started at once and matches between the two schools be arranged for this season.

Practice matches with several high schools have been arranged for the near future. Chemawa, Benson Polytechnic and Sandy high schools have already been scheduled and several more will be added to the list.

The lineup for the games is undetermined as the three teams are playing consistently, but Cardinal at center and Scales and Adams at forward, are going great guns and are assured starting positions as long as they work as hard and play as steadily as they have done recently.

The guard positions are being closely contested. Gibson is a fine defensive guard, but rarely connects with the basket. Carpenter is also a fine floor man, and scores in almost every game, while Andy Peterson shows better form as the season progresses.

Faber and Moore are good players who will probably substitute for Adams and Scales at forward. Both are good point and floor men, and fight for the ball harder than the regulars, but are not as clever. They will see plenty of action though. Kloostera and Wilson are substitutes at center and are showing well.

Kloostera especially, playing remarkably well for a freshman. In order to improve the Bearcat defense which has not been on a par with the fast-breaking offensive, Coach Keene is endeavoring to perfect a man-to-man defense, and will probably experiment with it in the games this week.

Speck's handicaps in the use of bucket-clanking guards to present the opposition a five-man threat instead of the limited three-man wedge now formed of Scales, Adams, and Cardinal.

The Willamette Bearcats hit a winning stride again Wednesday night and defeated the Portland "Y" basketball team 48 to 16 at Portland.

"Spec" Keene used all of his subs in the game and they showed up well. Scales played a good game, proving too clever for the Portland guards. Some excellent offensive work was done by the Bearcats at times and the defense also functioned well, allowing only 10 points in the first half and cut that down to six in the second half.

Carpenter did not go with the team and Andy Peterson played in his place, helping Gibson with the guarding. Cardinal, Adams and Scales were the others who started the game. The second team played some in the first half and again in the fourth quarter, with 14 men playing for Willamette.

"An International Symposium" is the title of the program at the Y. M. C. A. to be given Friday night at 8 o'clock in the lobby. Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour is in charge of the affair. In addition to talks and addresses on various phases of the international problem, some songs and verses will be presented.

An introductory skit heads the program. It will be "America for Americans" and the players are the members of an intermediate group of young people.

A reading, "The Inevitable Leader" will be presented by Miss Margaret Ann Kells.

"The Contribution Indian Youth Makes to American Civilization" is the subject of an address by Miss Gertrude Eakin, who is the Y. M. C. A. representative at the Chemawa school.

Edward Schunke of the Model food market will give an address on a hobby of his, "World Marketing." This talk will show listeners the dependence of each country on the others for its existence.

The program will be concluded by an appeal address, "At National Cross Roads," by the chairman, Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour.

NORTHWEST TEAMS GET INTO ACTION AFTER IDLE START

Puget Sound, Linfield and Bearcats Have Played First Games

The Northwest conference basketball season opened with a bang when the Willamette Bearcats trimmed the Willamette Linfield, 47 to 24 on January 12. The Loggers of Puget Sound, repeated the feat on the 17th, with a close 37 to 33 score. In the latter game, Linfield held the lead until the last minute of play, only to succumb to the powerful offensive of the Puget Sounders. These two conference games put Willamette and Puget Sound in the front of the race, with Linfield hopefully in the cellar. Other conference teams will come into action soon, and the ratings are expected to be different within the next two weeks.

In non-conference games, the Northwest teams broke even against their outside opponents. Whitman lost a close game to the Gonzaga Bulldogs, 35 to 34, an overtime period being necessary to decide the game, and Pacific was swamped by Vancouver Barracks, 68 to 48. Puget Sound trimmed Columbia university of Portland, 30 to 15, and turned Albany under with a 56 to 38 score.

That's a pretty good start and we hope it will lead to the establishment of wrestling as a minor sport among the colleges of the conference. "All in all" it should rate with tennis in that category.

Basketball will soon be with us. We haven't had much chance to see what the boys can do yet, but the way they ran over Albany college, things look good. By the time the Missionaries come down from out of the north at the end of the season the Bearcats should be able to average that 12 to 0 wallop we took in football.

Permit us to digress for a moment.

There's another column in this paper that has aroused considerable indignation in a certain group of men on the campus. The meat at the Alpha Psi house, be it fresh or otherwise, seems to be particularly adapted to athletes and class presidents. Perhaps if we ate fish we'd be the owners of several scholarship cups, in addition.

In all fairness to the Alpha Psi and for the information of such students who know nothing about the house except the meat story and the one about the Beta Chi girls we'll tell you a couple of amusing stories we heard about the other two houses.

It is said the Kappas have one big thing in their favor, a brand new set of silverware. Over at the Sig house (from the same source) the silverware isn't so hot, having undoubtedly been used for every day as well as for guests. Incidentally, the Alpha Psi have changed brands of rash bread since rushing season, and now the count for each slice averages 16.5 instead of three.

Now those whose indignation has been aroused over our hints will ask us what has this got to do with sports. A few sentences back you'll find the answer: the diet must be conducive to the making of athletes, etc. Perhaps we can say the same about the BX's, who took refuge on the Alpha Psi porch instead of some other fraternity.

Any questions will be answered by the Editor, who is responsible for everything that goes into the Collegian.

Sportorials

Through a slip-up last week we missed the columns of the Collegian. Sorry.

A new sport has entered the program of the university, and will eventually enable the school to lead the way in making that sport a minor one on the northwest conference program. We're referring to wrestling, if you haven't already guessed it.

Largely through the efforts of Roy Mink, student and coach, a group of fellows has taken an interest in the sport and this year several matches have been lined up. Last year the wrestlers worked under the tutelage of Des Anderson, Salem's "own" bonerusher, and this year Mink has taken over the coaching duties.

We notice that the squad will meet the Oregon Normal school matmen February 14. In the meantime, and afterwards too, practice matches with the Chemawa Indians, Benson Polytechnic of Portland, and other high schools have been arranged.

That's a pretty good start and we hope it will lead to the establishment of wrestling as a minor sport among the colleges of the conference. "All in all" it should rate with tennis in that category.

Basketball will soon be with us. We haven't had much chance to see what the boys can do yet, but the way they ran over Albany college, things look good. Jan. 27—Sophomores vs. Freshmen.
Jan. 28—..... vs.

In a basketball game which was featured by the playing of Campbell, the Sigma Tau quintet defeated the boys representing Kappa Gamma Rho last Wednesday noon by a score of 13 to 10. The game was very close with Goynne playing a fine game for the losers.

Thursday, the freshman aggregation led by Girod and Williams, defeated the upper class 32 to 14. The upper class was handicapped inasmuch as they had only four men on the floor throughout the entire game. Each member of the freshman team connected for at least one basket.

The Law school defeated the Wesleyan quintet in a game featured by very close guarding on the part of both teams. Huth and Ferguson were the scoring combination for the Law school while Finkbner and Ackerman led the Wesleyan attack. The score is the smallest one yet recorded in the Do-Nut league race.

The Alpha Psi and sophomore basketball teams, both playing their second game this year, engaged in a close contest last Monday, the sophomores winning 16 to 14. Nutter and Blanchard did the scoring for the Alpha Psi team, while Mochel, scoring 12 points, played an outstanding game for the sophomores.

Led by Leslie Sparks, the faculty defeated the freshmen Tuesday 22 to 16. The freshman team displayed good team work with each man entering the scoring column, but were unable to overcome the lead of the faculty.

Mail Order Tournament is Scheduled

A mail-order tournament with the University of Oregon is making archery a very popular woman's sport.

Four women archers will compete with four others from the University of Oregon. The girls of the respective schools will shoot 30 arrows daily at a target 50 feet away. The results will be sent to the opposing team each week for probably two months, when weather conditions may permit an outdoor tournament to be played either at Eugene or Willamette.

Rev. Daley of Dallas, who won the national championship in archery last year, is instructing the class at Oregon.

Four girls to represent Willamette will be chosen from the following: Brenda Savage, Esther Girod, Louisa Sidwell, Verne Miles and Rosetta Smith.

FRESHMAN MATMEN WIN OVER OTHERS

Rook Wrestlers with Three Firsts and One Second to Win Contest

The freshman mat squad took first place in the interclass wrestling match held in the Willamette gym last week, by winning first place in three divisions and second in a fourth.

The seniors nabbed two firsts to walk off with second honors, while the juniors won first place in the 125-pound division to hold down third. The sophomore barefoots failed to come out on top in any division, although Keith Jones made a good bid in the heavyweight class.

According to Roy Mink, student coach at Willamette, much good material was revealed by the matches, some pleasant surprises coming in the work of Saunders in the 125-pound class; McKenzie in the 145-pound; Eugene Smith in the 175-pound, and Drager in the heavyweight.

The largest entry list came in the 155-pound class, where stiff competition was offered by eight men. On the other end of the scale, only two men wrestled in the light-heavyweight division.

However, there was good competition in all divisions, and no man came off without a battle.

In the 125-pound division, three men were entered, Saunders, a junior; Martin, a soph, and Hulbert, senior. Hulbert drew a bye and lost to Saunders, winner in the other bracket.

Four men entered the 135-pound division, two for the freshmen, King and Blanchard; Hawthorn for the seniors, and Warner, a junior. Hawthorn and Blanchard pulled out of the preliminaries, and Hawthorn won the decision over Blanchard.

In the 145-pound division, three men were entered; Hillway for the sophomores, McKenzie for the freshmen, and Foster for the sophs. Foster was the lucky man in this division, and wrestled McKenzie only to lose.

In the 155-pound division, eight ambitious candidates entered the arena: Mills, Curtis French, Armstrong, Hershby, Zueke, Chipley, West and Yablokoff, paired in that order. French, Hershby, Chipley and Yablokoff won in the preliminaries and Curt French came out on top for the seniors.

Eugene Smith, freshman, and E. Philpott, also a freshman, were matched in the 175-pound class, Eugene Smith winning.

In the heavyweight division, Kelley, a soph, paired with Drager, a freshman, lost, and Drager threw Keith Jones, who drew the bye.

Bearkittens Make Start in Season's Games in Portland

Wednesday, January 14, the rooks played three games in Portland. The Washington game in the afternoon was a slow ragged game for both teams, ending with the score 18 to 21 for Washington. Had the W. U. men shown any of the class which they did playing Linfield the evening before, the result would no doubt have been different.

In the evening the rook second team opened the program with a preliminary game with the Lincoln high school team. The game was slow, yet the score remained close throughout. A timely basket by Sweet followed a moment later with one by Cook in the last few minutes put Willamette in the lead and gave her the game by one point, 17 to 18.

The first string line-up took the floor against the Lincoln stars and for a short time succumbed to them. Lincoln rolled up a lead of six points before the rooks connected with the basket; this did not last long however, as the score at the half stood 5 to 10 for the kittens. Both teams played about the same during the second half and at the end the score was 19 to 29 in favor of the babes.

The other classes finished closely behind the freshmen, the seniors trailing the babes, and the sophomores and juniors trailing third and fourth. Lowell Gribble, of the freshman team, was high point man, totalling 17 points, with Curtis French on his heels with 15 points. All the scoring was done by six men, several twisting to place in three events.

This meet marks the first swimming contest ever staged for Willamette men. Swimming is one of the most popular sports in the world, having devotees on every continent, and this meet starts another branch of athletics at Willamette. More men are urged to try their hand at the sport, as it is really worth while.

The results of the meet follow:
40 yd. free style. 1st, Gribble (f), 2nd, French (s), 3rd, John Ross (soph).

Under water for distance. 1st, Ray Lafty (j), 95 feet, 2nd, Gribble (f) 87 feet, 3rd, French (s) 60 feet.

40 yd. side stroke. 1st, Gribble (f), 2nd, Phil Armstrong (soph), 3rd, French (s).

Plunge for distance. 1st, Gribble (f) 31 ft., 2nd, Armstrong (soph) 30 ft., 3rd, Hulbert (j) 26 ft.

20 yd. back stroke. 1st, French (s), 2nd, Armstrong (soph), 3rd, French (s).

Fancy diving. French and Ross. An exhibition of fancy diving and strokes was given by Canningham, Barton, Uron Gilmore and Chuck Gill.

Good Material for Track Men Seen this Year

If present plans materialize, track will come into its own as a sport at Willamette. For the past several years, the Willamette track teams have not come up to the mark set by the other college teams.

However, with plenty of good material looming up for the spring season, there is no reason why Willamette should not come out on top of the majority of her meets this spring, and make a good showing in the Northwest conference track and field meet. Leslie Sparks will be coaching.

Bearkittens Win 18 to 17 Battle From Peninsula

"Les" Sparks took his Willamette freshmen hoopsters to Portland Wednesday night and defeated the Peninsula Park Aces 18 to 17.

The game was close throughout with the score tied 9 to 9 at half time. Birdette and Messenger each scored six points for the freshmen. Staylor scored five and Baldwin made one. The floor was a bit small and the Aces put up a stiff battle. The freshmen will play the O. S. C. Rooks here Friday night.

Relief Raised For Porto Rico

The amount collected in Salem and forwarded for the relief of children in Porto Rico amounted to $130 last Dec. E. S. Hammond, who acted as local chairman for the Golden Rule foundation collection here. Of this amount $20 was raised among Willamette students and teachers.

MANY COUNTRIES IN Y PROGRAM FRIDAY

"An International Symposium" is the title of the program at the Y. M. C. A. to be given Friday night at 8 o'clock in the lobby.

Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour is in charge of the affair. In addition to talks and addresses on various phases of the international problem, some songs and verses will be presented.

An introductory skit heads the program. It will be "America for Americans" and the players are the members of an intermediate group of young people.

A reading, "The Inevitable Leader" will be presented by Miss Margaret Ann Kells.

"The Contribution Indian Youth Makes to American Civilization" is the subject of an address by Miss Gertrude Eakin, who is the Y. M. C. A. representative at the Chemawa school.

Edward Schunke of the Model food market will give an address on a hobby of his, "World Marketing." This talk will show listeners the dependence of each country on the others for its existence.

The program will be concluded by an appeal address, "At National Cross Roads," by the chairman, Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour.

EPIC FLIGHT

Maurice Collins, during young pilot, seated in his craft just after completing the first flight by glider from a mountain range summit to a licensed city airport. Piloting the world's largest glider on its maiden voyage, Collins flew from the top of the Verdugo Mountains to the Grand Central Air Terminal in Glendale, Cal.
