

DOXEE WINS LOCAL ORATORICAL TRY-OUT

Oration "Sail On" Will Be Presented by Willamette Representative at McMinnville.

The local tryout for the State Oratorical Contest was held last evening in the University chapel. Four orators aspired for the honor of representing the institution at McMinnville on March the twelfth and when the decision of the judges was announced first honors were found to have been conferred on Herold Doxee.

Professor Mathews, as presiding officer called the meeting to order. The following program was rendered:

- Oration—"Vote Right"..... Addie G. Patterson
- Oration—"A Man Without a Country"..... Arlie G. Walker
- Vocal Solo—"Carmena" (Waltz Song)..... Miss Nettie A. Snyder
- Oration—"Individual Development"..... Arnold E. Hall
- Oration—"Sail On"..... Harold M. Doxee
- Vocal Solos—

"Dawn"..... H. Somerset
 "Beauty's Eyes"..... F. Paolo Tosti
 Superintendent O. M. Elliott, Mrs. R. Cartwright and Rev. R. N. Avison served as judges on Composition and Justice L. T. Harris, Mrs. J. H. Lewis and Rev. James Elvin considered the delivery.

The oration of Miss Patterson, entitled "Vote Right" was a detailed indictment of the liquor traffic. The influence of this evil has spread, and brought both disaster to many thousands of individuals and also grave social evils in its train. The orator appealed to the consciences of the Christian voters to use their ballots to sweep this awful plague off the face of the country, as a step toward bringing in a reign of Christianity. The oration was in every way a worthy effort.

Mr. Walker's oration consisted of a review of the life of Benedict Arnold, in which he gave a masterly summary of the life of the noted character, and portrayed the traits of the man, such as pride and desire for praise, which led to his downfall. The oration was a praiseworthy interpretation of a character concerning whom many mistaken notions prevail.

Mr. Hall, in his oration, "Individual Development," emphasized the importance that each man should develop as an individual before he can attain his proper place in the world's battle. Mr. Hall was careful, however, not to discount the social side in the least.

Under the title of "Sail On," an oration was delivered by Herold Doxee, which was a worthy example of Freshman talent. Mr. Doxee recounted how in times past the motto of our country has been progress; how this spirit infused the Puritans with a lofty courage and animated the Revolutionary heroes to deeds of valor. He then urged the necessity of a continuance in the spirit of this motto, and pointed out the reign of universal peace as a worthy goal of our present strivings. Mr. Doxee will undoubtedly become one of our foremost school orators in future years.

Mr. Doxee is furthermore greatly to be congratulated in bearing off the honors in this contest. His oration was in every way worthy to represent the school. It is always a cause for thanksgiving when a Freshman ranks high in a contest of this nature, as it assures the school available material for succeeding years.

GREEN CAP PROB. LEM SETTLED

Recommendations of Upper Classmen Satisfactory to All.

After considering all evidence for and against the emerald cap and after carefully weighing values, the members of the upper classes voted unanimously to recommend to the Student Body that the Vickory motion referred to them do not pass. They further recommended that the Doane resolution, passed in the spring of 1914, referring to the wearing of the green caps be amended fixing the date of the wearing of the caps from not lat-

TROUPE IS HEADED FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Popular Students Plan to Make Their Way to Golden Gate by Foraging.

A nefarious scheme has been hatched. Last Sunday, Booth, Shisler, Doane and Bain, concocted a vile plot the like of which has never been seen. These four gentlemen plan to hoof it to the Fair at 'Frisco this summer following the Pacific Highway and living off the country. So far, so good. But the distressing part of the affair is that they plan to support themselves by giving one night stands in the towns they pass thru. The program is somewhat like this: When they strike a town, Shisler is to march through the streets tooting his cornet, while "Toots" carries a banner with "Grand Street Parade" blazoned on it. They will stop in front of the meat market or postoffice, and Bain will harangue the assembled populace on some such subject as "The Simple Life." As many as survive this attack will be invited to attend a "Refined Vaudeville and Variety Show" to be given by the four at any convenient place—admission 15c. The show will be composed of quartets, solos, acrobatic stunts and any other accomplishments which any of the four are deluded into thinking they possess. They even plan to put on a "FARCE." After the show they will immediately and unobtrusively leave the town and assault another village. We would suggest however, that the telephone wires leading to their next "stand" be cut, unless they desire a rousing egg and vegetable reception. We hope they can get away with this stunt but if they ever let the audience get hold of them we have our doubts.

CORRUPT POLITICAL MACHINE IN HOUSE

H. Irvine Is Speaker.—Hon. A. G. Walker Denies His Connection With the Roller.

The initial session of the house of representatives of the state of Willamette was all that could be desired, from the point of view of interest, excitement, or just plain politics. The session had scarcely begun when Bain's steam roller collided with Gary's jitney bus, much to the detriment of the latter. Temporary chairman Pfaff, in order to justify his fickleness in voting for each candidate in turn, states that when he observed that he was on the steam roller he immediately got off.

Hon. A. G. Walker, defeated candidate for speaker, asserts in plaintive tones, "Now I tell you, there wasn't any steam roller on our side at all."

When the smoke had cleared away, Harry Irvine held the Speaker's chair, Vicery was Reading Clerk, and Brunk Chief clerk.

A resolution passed the House recommending the election of Prof. C. L. Sherman as Governor of the State of Willamette.

A recess of five minutes was taken after which Speaker Irvine announced his committees appointed "after due consideration."

This bids fair to be a very economical session, three bills being introduced at this meeting.

A bill to fix the boundary between Douglass (not Tommy) and Josephine counties, also one concerning the names on initiative petition, were introduced.

No new bills may be introduced after next session.

Excitement ran so high that the motion to adjourn carried only at eleven o'clock, after which the Multnomah delegation returned home for the week-end, Walker carefully concealing his unused inaugural address beneath the folds of his toga.

Clare Gillette, brother of Alpheus J., was a guest of the D. D. Club for the week-end.

Keith Chappell, who has been ill with the mumps for several weeks, is back on the campus again, receiving congratulations and studiously making up work.

SENIORS PROMISE AN ATTRACTIVE YEAR BOOK

Gertrude Eakin Will Edit and Leland Sackett Will Manage the Publication.

(Kate Barton, '15.

The Senior Year Book is well launched with Gertrude Eakin as editor and Leland Sackett as manager. Since the Junior class did not find it expedient to publish a Wallulah this year the Seniors have decided to put out a year book. It is not the purpose of the class to put out a second Wallulah. That was the work of last year and was successfully completed. The "Year Book" has been planned primarily as a trophy for the Seniors but will contain enough to interest everyone in the Student Body. It is to be a short and snappy resume of the year of nineteen fourteen-fifteen. It will be small in comparison with last year's book but it will be brimful of college life. As now planned the book will contain from eighty to one hundred pages, with an attractive binding and much more attractive interior.

GERTRUDE EAKIN

Gertrude Eakin as editor and Leland Sackett as manager will put out a classy book. Miss Eakin has had enough experience to know how to go to work at her job and will finish it with energy and cleverness. Leland Sackett is a man of experience and no one need fear for the successful outcome of the book. The Seniors are sure that the students will appreciate a record of this year and with the support of the student body they will put out something worth while.

THOMPSON AND WALKER TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Athletic Director Thompson will represent the faculty and Arlie G. Walker, the student body at a conference for the advancement of physical education which will be held in Portland next Saturday. Each of the denominational colleges of Oregon will send one faculty member and one student to this meeting.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss ways and means for securing a better system of physical training for the colleges. Co-operation will be considered largely in the discussions. Circulating libraries, inter-collegiate contests, systems of physical training are some of the subjects which have been suggested.

Mr. Walker was selected as a representative of the student body by the executive committee last Monday.

GRAVE YARD IS THROWN INTO THE MILL RACE

Historic South Boundary Swallows the Fragments of the Sign That Charmed Many California Bound Tourists

Last Thursday morning, Klosheites stole like ghosts thru the shrouding mist to their seven o'clock breakfast, what a sight met their amazed and jubilant (?) gaze! The "Willamette University" sign which has charmed for so long the tourist speeding California-ward on the "S. P.," had disappeared. But its whereabouts were not difficult to find.

From part of the sign, the word "Rats" had been constructed, and placed on the front steps of Eaton Hall. Gravestones had been placed in the beds on each side of the steps, one of which bore the legend, "Clark Is Dead." "Beware," and other anarchistic remarks were plentifully daubed about in blood.

Feeling the "Rats" was not an appropriate motto for a day of prayer, the ghost of our janitor came back from heaven (!) and removed the same. However, the letters would not stay put. Some zealous individuals, including our tallest Senior, broke the letters in convenient lengths, and laid out a faculty graveyard on the campus. The bulletin board on Friday bore the announcement that the grave-yard would be dedicated at 10:20, that family lots could be procured from the registrar, and that T. S. McDaniel would run down to preside.

The faculty seemed singularly unappreciative of their opportunities, at least so far none have consented to be buried. Instead, Dean Allen remarked in chapel that the removal of the sign, while greatly to be desired, was somewhat hasty and informal; but that all should be forgiven, if only the perpetrators would remove the monuments. Furthermore, the dean said that he would contribute to a fund for putting up an appropriate sign where it could be seen by passing trains. This led to the appointment of a committee consisting of Pfaff, Bartlett and Dean Alden to consider the matter of a new sign and the improvement of a "beauty spot" on the corner of Twelfth and State streets.

After chapel the Frosh attuned magnificently for the prank, by throwing the cemetery into the mill race. The whole affair was managed with great eclat. (We don't know the meaning of this but it will serve as a climax.)

THURSDAY IS OBSERVED AS DAY OF PRAYER

Services Are Held During the Entire Day—Evangelist Makes Chapel Address.

The Day of Prayer for Colleges opened at 9:45 with meetings of the various classes, all of which are reported to have been well attended and of a deeply spiritual nature. The Seniors were led by Mr. Sackett, the Juniors by Mr. Cooke, the Sophomores by Miss Aetna Emmel and the Freshmen by Mr. Douglass. Mr. Mickelson presided over the meeting for the Academy students.

Following the class meetings, the student body assembled for the chapel service. The Scripture reading was given by Mr. D. F. McClelland, Student Volunteer secretary. Mr. McKee, soloist for the evangelistic meetings, sang two beautiful gospel hymns, then Dr. Ostrom gave an address. At the close a very large proportion of the student body stood to witness for Christ, and many who had not taken a decided stand for Him before, gave their hearts into His care at the meeting. Dr. Ostrom dealt with the relation of religion to education. In the course of his remarks he made an eloquent statement of his belief in the truth of the Bible. As a conclusion of his address Dr. Ostrom related the sad experiences of a number of students who considered themselves too learned or too mature to need the religion of Jesus Christ in their lives.

At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. met in the chapel in joint session. Mr. Mc-

O. A. C. AND WILLAMETTE PUT UP INTERESTING MATCH

The Aggies Take the Long End of the Score.—Varsity Five Play Hard And Keep Together Well.

The surprise happened last Saturday night when the basketball quintet defending the Cardinal and Gold truned what seemed to be an overwhelming defeat into a near-victory. The aggregation of Beavers from the Oregon Agricultural College took the long end of the 23-14 score due largely to superior passing.

With Fliegel out of the entire game and Shisler in a precarious condition, Willamette stock fell way below par before the game. However, with the blowing of Dean Walker's whistle and the start of the game the market price started to rise and continued its progress thruout the entire game.

The game was fast and clean thruout—perhaps the cleanest of the season. O. A. C. started with scoring a basket by Mix which was followed soon by one from Jewett, the whirling nidget of the Willamette team. Playng continued tight throughout the half, the sensational feature being an accurate shoot into the basket by Adams from two-thirds the distance across the floor. The score at the end of the first half stood 11-6 in favor of O. A. C.

The second half marked a continuation of the hard and fast playing on both sides. On numerous occasions the O. A. C. men tried for the basket but bad luck or inaccurate shooting seemed to cling with them. Willamette failed on several occasions to make baskets where good opportunities were offered. Fouling was comparatively scarce on both sides, although O. A. C. was twice penalized for shoving under the basket.

For O. A. C. Sieberts, the left forward, excelled in basket shooting, while Blagg and King are deserving of special mention. For Willamette there was no particular starring, the whole team playing hard and keeping together well. Bagley and Crawford showed good form in guarding. Shisler scored six points on eight fouls.

The line-up:

O. A. C.	Willamette
Mix	R.F. Jewett
Sieberts	L.F. Shisler
Blagg	C. Adams
Johns	R.G. Crawford
King	L.G. Bagley

Substitutes for O. A. C.—Dewey, Ray. Baskets—Mix 1; Jewett 2; Shisler 1; Adams 1; Baskets from fouls—O.A.C. 1; W. U. 6.

Referee, Dean Walker of Independence. Timekeepers, May, Sackett, H. Irvine. Scorer, Proctor.

PHILODORIAN PROGRAM COMMITTEE PROMISES

Big Variety of Entertainment and Enlightenment.

The Philodorian Halls are at present being occupied by the Senate of the State of Willamette. The Senate will convene here for two more meetings after which the regular literary work will be resumed. The chairman of the program committee reports concerning the prospective work of the quarter as follows:

"The program committee plans to develop all sides of the literary activity during the next quarter. The mock legislature will awaken the members to the fact that they can think quickly while on their feet. Extemporaneous debating will be a regular feature of the program. Music will be a more important factor than ever before; we have a first class quartet that will dispense harmony at needed intervals. Through the kindness of Mr. Little we have two new sets of scenery so that we will be enabled to give a number of dramatic sketches written by members of the society. The committee promises that there will be absolutely no dull spots in any program."

The new officers of the society will be installed at the next regular meeting.

The Collegian has places for three more reporters. If you wish to try out for a position on the staff, notify the editor.

A YEAR BOOK AFTER ALL

Now that the Seniors have decided to publish a year book, they have commanded a renewed respect for the loyalty and industry that has characterized the progress of the class during the entire course of four years. No wonder the Senior men are already looking forward to the day when they will be so situated that they will pay for a Y. M. C. A. building on the campus at a cost of fifty thousand or so! No wonder they are looking forward already to the day when they will give Willamette a gymnasium worthy of the metal which she has produced during the seventy years or more she has spent in the enrichment of human life! No wonder the Senior men have visions of a great dormitory for men and the Willamette Commons.

I tell you that when all the members of a class will declare that they will pay five dollars, ten dollars, twenty dollars, anything per member, to publish a year book, I must take off my hat to those people. If such loyalty is exhibited now before they have reaped the benefits of the university, am I overestimating the coming generosity when I see Willamette's well equipped and beautiful campus of tomorrow?

Don't tell me they are putting out the book to feed their vanity. They're putting out the book to supply the need of every college student for an illustrated story of the year's events, all bound together in morocco with gold lettering. What do we care about motives, anyway? The year book will be ours. Its gentle reminders of friends we have met and gained this year will make us all sing the praises of the class of '15 for years to come.

GO TO "LIT" NIGHTS

The men's literary societies have organized a mock legislature. The organization of both Senate and House of Representatives has been perfected and the rules of the Oregon State Legislature with but few changes to regulate the procedure of the mock session. There are some students, in either the preparatory school or in a college on our campus, who do not know the great benefits—literary, social and political, of a live literary society. This season of legislative session is an opportune time to catch the literary society atmosphere, when the Multnomah steam roller has refused to budge, and when the political bosses of the rosy metropolis are sweating blood because they have been thwarted in their design to enact some truly economical legislation for the good people.

Visit the whole legislature. Senators, Representatives, stenographers, doorkeepers and pages, all are there for your amusement and your instruction. Come tonight to the session of the Legislature of the State of Willamette.

While visitors are desired to fill the galleries, those distinguished gentlemen who represent their constituents so loyally should consider the training in citizenship and in statesmanship which the mock legislature offers to every member.

When a corporation chooses its president, a man who knows the business from beginning to end is selected. He is chosen because the board of directors is confident that he has not only complete knowledge of the workings of the firm, but that he has also the necessary executive ability coupled with that homely fundamental virtue called common honesty.

When we elect a man as mayor of a city we are giving him a position that has problems far more intricate than those with which the president of the largest corporation has to deal. The ordinary voter seldom considers what a responsibility is coupled with the privilege of citizenship.

Senators and representatives of the mock legislature, study statecraft now! When your day comes (and it will come not many years hence!) you will be ready to be an intelligent and valuable representative of the people.

Student Editorials

This column is for frank, open, discussion of all student affairs. NO communication will go unpublished because the opinions expressed differ from those of the editor. The Collegian wants you to write.

"The morning after the night before" was the day of prayer for Willamette. And there is at least one respect in which that great day was of a different atmosphere than the tone of the previous evening. Of course, I refer to the inter-society legislature. For the day of prayer the slogan was "Forget everything else and get into the spirit of the day," for the legislature it seems to have been, "Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

Now I can foresee, in spite of this, that we are to have a more successful session than in previous years. Still we have not entirely "got into the spirit of the thing." Which is more important, fellows, the point of order or the legislature? We all know that you are well versed in Robert's rules of Order, therefore don't exhibit your skill unless it is necessary. To be a good parliamentarian is a splendid thing—if you use your knowledge for the untangling of trouble; but we cannot see what use there is in exposing your wisdom or ignorance, when otherwise business would progress more rapidly. Imagine the captain of a football team calling to his men when they were charging with the ball, "Hey, come back here; you got your signals mixed!" The play's the thing; not the signals. Let's get the one main purpose idea that made the day of prayer successful. Then, if our legislative sessions do not run so smoothly as did the upper class men's meeting of Thursday afternoon, it will be because we haven't the proper spirit. Fellows, just because you have guns, please don't shoot up the meeting!

THURSDAY OBSERVED

(Continued from Page One.) Clelland was the speaker of the afternoon, presenting in a forceful way the need of foreign lands for missionaries. He gave statistics showing the overcrowded condition of workers in our own country as compared with those in other lands.

Immediately following this meeting the two associations met in separate sessions. Miss Mary Findley led the girls' meeting, asking each to think along the line of "If I should see Jesus, what would I do?" Mrs. Morton rendered a beautiful vocal number.

The meeting of the Men's association was led by Mr. Eric Bolt. The spirit of prayer which was so marked throughout the day, was present.

The evening service was held in the tabernacle with Dr. Ostrom in charge. The day was one of spiritual benefit to the whole university and Willamette should be bigger and stronged as a result of the day set apart each year as a special day of prayer in unison with the many other colleges of our land.

AN OLD FASHIONED CONVENTION

Oregon and Idaho Boys Will Get Together.

An old fashioned convention in which everybody takes part, of the Young Men's Christian Association of Oregon and Idaho will be held at Newberg, Oregon, March 12-14, 1915.

The following men have been invited as speakers:

W. D. Weatherford, Student Secretary International Committee.

Dr. Jno. H. Boyd, Pastor First Presbyterian Church, Portland.

Bishop R. J. Cooke, Methodist Episcopal Church.

C. C. Michener, President Food Products Co., Portland.

A. S. Allen, General Secretary Seattle Association.

Gale Seaman, Pacific Coast Student Secretary.

Jno. A. Goodell, Northwest Industrial Secretary.

Reduced railroad rates will be granted from Oregon-Idaho points.

Manager Lyon, when interviewed concerning the approaching Frosh Glee, was at the time munching a Hershey, bestowed on him by the charming Miss W. (Duck especially desired the insertion of "charming"); so he was unable to furnish detailed information concerning the Glee. However, arrangements are progressing nicely.

The decoration committee, under the leadership of Haight, is hard at work on a novel scheme for "dolling up" the chapel; and other phases of the work have been entrusted to some six other committees. Among these is the pennant committee which promises to produce a thoroughly classy pennant. Indications are that the contest on March 19, will be up to the traditional standard in every respect.

'BROWN OF HARVARD' MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE

The United Artisans are to be highly commended for the excellent production of the famous college play, "Brown of Harvard." The initial appearance of the cast, which is composed wholly of local talent, was welcomed by a large and truly appreciative audience. The acting was of the highest order and the college songs made the students feel as if they were in the old chapel just before a big game.

The play will be repeated this evening, for those who were unable to attend the first staging. If the students want to see real college life reflected, be there. It is a perfect representation of the genuine article.

Last Friday afternoon the Philodossians had an unusually interesting program which attracted many guests. Gluck and Zimbalist, the two artists who appeared in concert in the evening, were made the theme of the afternoon's entertainment. Different aspects of the musician's art were treated as well as their lives, of which many interesting incidents were revealed.

Between the various talks a Victrola loaned to the Philodossians by the courtesy of the Peters Music House, gave Gluck and Zimbalist selections. The records selected were made to coincide as nearly as possible with the numbers given in the evening. Some of the most familiar ones thus enjoyed were the "Land of the Sky Blue Water," "Laddie," "The Elegy" and "Red, Red Rose."

Miss Marie Campbell, a graduate of the Sacred Heart Academy, prefaced the afternoon's program with "The Weathercock." Miss Campbell is a charming young singer and her rendition of the song was very pleasing.

The program was as follows: "The Weathercock," Marie Campbell; "How to Listen to Music," Lucile Kuntz; "Zimbalist," Keith VanWinkle; "Alma Gluck, the Woman," Irma Botsford;

The Commercial League, who are playing a series of basketball games every Wednesday evening, have postponed their games scheduled for Wednesday evening, February 24th in order to make way for the big U. of Washington-Willamette game to be played in the gym on that date.

The faculty is endeavoring to organize a basketball team to play some of the class teams in the near future. Of whom the team will consist is problematical, but the following line-up has been suggested: McMurray and Alden, forwards; Sherman, center; Von Eschen and Peck, guards.

Don't forget the big Washington-Willamette game a week from Wednesday, Feb. 24th. Washington lost only two games last year and with practically the same line-up this year another championship team is probable. You'll not often have the opportunity to see such a team in action. Remember, February 24th.

GALLERY GOSSIP

Arnold Hall is taking Ornithology, and he has discovered a new bird, which has a plaintive little song, to wit, "Bing, bing, bing." Anyone seeing such a bird, please put salt on its tail, and deliver it to Arnold.

P. S. Vickory was out walking last Sunday with six little birds. He doesn't know their names either.

Jory—"Fred, do you think that women should be at the polls on election day?"

McMillin—"Yes, I think that they should be at both poles, the north and the south."

We hope the "Rats" sign of last Thursday was not a reflection on the "French biscuit" style of hair dressing prevalent among the girls now.

Many bitter tears were shed at the interment of our beloved faculty. Yet of late it has seemed that several of the faculty have been getting restless in their graves.

Francis said that as he walked along the O. E. track last Sunday, he thought he was walking on marbles and rolling pins. And this is a prohibition!

Some of the members are picking up pieces of the steam roller here and there. They are planning restrictive legislation on the subject of jitneys.

The Senate has before the ways and means committee a resolution for stenographers. Phils and Adelantes, get busy!

OPENING SESSION OF STATE SENATE QUIET

Gleiser Wields the Gavel in Upper House—Committees Are Appointed.

Senate Chambers of the State of Willamette, Feb. 10, 1915—(Special)—The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p. m. by Mr. Hickerson.

Senator Bartlett was elected temporary chairman. The Committee on Credentials was dismissed and the Senate proceeded to the election of minor officers, with the result that Mr. Albright received the chief clerkship and Mr. Hickerson was elected reading and calendar clerk.

Mr. Irvine secured the position of sergeant-at-arms, and Mr. Findley, door keeper.

The Committee on Credentials reported all credentials were O. K. As a result of the election for president Mr. Gleiser took the chair. The Committee on Rules and Regulations recommended the adoption of "Rules of the Senate of the State of Oregon," which were adopted with two minor revisions.

Senator Cook moved that the president appoint a committee of two to confer with a similar committee from the House on conflicting measures. The motion carried. Other minor details were brought before the Senate after which Senator Gilbert moved adjournment, which was carried.

Senators McCaddam and Paget were warmed up to eloquence in a manner foretelling some oratorical displays in the sessions to come. The Senators are:

Bowers—Sherman, Gilliam and Morrow.

Cook—Crok and Jefferson.

Dawe—Klamath and Lake.

Flint—Douglas, Josephine, and Jackson.

Gilbert—Wheeler and Grant.

Gleiser (President)—Baker and Union.

Grallapp—Wasco and Hood River.

Lyon—Malheur and Harney.

McCaddam—Umatilla and Wallowa.

Miller—Polk, Benton and Lincoln.

Paget—Multnomah.

Randall—Columbia and Tillamook.

Steeves—Linn and Lane.

Smith—Marion.

Schroeder—Coos and Curry.

Steeves—Linn and Lane.

Spies—Washington and Clackamas.

The committees appointed are as follows:

Ways and Means—Paget, Gilbert, Grallapp, Steeves, Bartlett.

Commerce and Navigation—Bowers, Smith, Spies.

Sundry Affairs—Dawe, Lyon, Miller, Schroeder, Cook.

Public Morals—McCaddam, Paget, Cook.

Agriculture—Grallapp, Randall, Flint.

Education—Steeves, Flint, Smith.

Revision of Laws—Proctor, Lyon, Cook.

Public Institutions—Schroeder, Randall, Spies.

VOLUNTEER SECRETARY VISITS WILLAMETTE

Makes Appeal for More Missionaries in Nearly Every Vocation.—
Students Pronounce Him
a Live One.

Mr. D. F. McClelland, Secretary of the Student Volunteer movement, visited the university Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The students felt his influence deeply and pronounced him to be a live one. On Wednesday at 3:30 he addressed a meeting of the Student Volunteer Band and the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. cabinets in a joint session. The kernel of his talk was "Do not be satisfied to do less for God than the best you are capable of doing." Mr. McClelland, by his forceful manner and by his earnest presentation of his subject made a deep impression upon the minds of those who heard him.

On Thursday he met with the classes in prayer and lead the devotions at the morning chapel service. He held private conferences with the students during both the morning and afternoon of the day. At 3:30 he gave another address at the joint Y. M. and Y. W. service. This was an inspiring talk dealing briefly with the subject of the call to the highest work in the Christian field. "The call to any work," says he, "may be defined as follows: 'Realization of the need, plus the adaptability of the person, plus the open door.'"

GREEN CAP PROBLEM

er than the third Monday after the opening of the University year to the beginning of the Thanksgiving recess and from February 22nd to the date fixed by the original resolution. It was also suggested that where exceptions do not govern, the caps be worn between sunrise and 7:00 p. m. and to all athletic affairs and student rallies. It was also recommended that the two upper classes be made the final court of appeals since it is composed of those less concerned.

It was further recommended that a permanent committee be established, consisting of the Student Body president and a representative from each of the upper classes to regulate the wearing of the caps. It is understood that said committee will take notice of and report to the upper classes any persistent violation of the rules. Also power is to be given the committee to grant exceptions in individual cases for hours of the day where the wearing of the cap seriously interferes with the professional duties of the individual; also any other exemptions that may be deemed just and equitable.

The committee which met for the special consideration of the green caps question and which made the approved suggestions was:
Glenn J. MacCaddam, '15, Chairman
Harry S. Irvine, '15.
Mildred McBride, '15.
C. B. VanSlyke, '16.
Walter Gleiser, '16.
Great credit is due the above mentioned committee for their unbiased judgment and efficient service.

CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE

Statement of Peace Association Concerning European War.

The undersigned have been associated for some years in the execution of a trust to promote international peace and our duties have involved a continual survey of the efforts to that end throughout the world.

We wish to say to all friends of peace that the dreadful war now raging affords no just cause for discouragement, no discredit to past efforts, and no reason to doubt that still greater efforts in the future may be effective and useful.

The war itself is teaching the gospel of peace through a lesson so shocking and so terrible that the most indifferent can not fail to attend and understand it.

Not only have the destruction of life, the devastation and suffering in the warring countries passed all experience, but the cessation of production, the closing of markets, the blockading of trade routes, the interruption of exchanges, have affected industry and caused ruin and poverty in all the peaceful countries of the world.

The universal interdependence of nations has been demonstrated and the truth forced upon every mind that the peace of all nations is the vital concern of every nation.

To cast our weak protest among the tremendous forces that are urging on the great conflict would be futile; but the end of this war will come before long and then the great question will stand for answer:

Shall the lesson be forgotten; the sacrifice lost?

That question the belligerent nations only will have the power to answer; but every one in the world will be entitled to be heard upon it, for it will be a question of civilization, the most momentous of our era.

It seems incredible that after this the stricken people will set their feet in the same old paths of policy and suspicion which must lead them again to the same result. Finding expression through a great multitude of voices everywhere the general public opinion of mankind should influence the minds of the negotiators who settle the peace terms and inspire them to a new departure in the establishment of justice as the rule of international relations.

While we must not be overconfident of our individual qualifications to point out the detailed methods through which the result may be accomplished, we may still advocate measures which seem practicable and appropriate to the purpose.

We can see that definite rules of national conduct should be agreed upon; that a court of competent jurisdiction should be established to judge of national conformity to those rules; and that new sanctions should be provided to compel respect for the judgments rendered.

Above all the motive and spirit of the new institutions should be clearly and full, not the promotion of ambition or the extension of power, but the safe-guarding of human rights and the perfection of individual liberty.

Toward this high end the courage and hope and conviction of the humblest citizen of the most distant land may contribute.

(Signed.)
COMMITTEE.
