DR BRUCE R. BAXTER
President of Willamette University

Each year I have the pleasant responsibility of writing this brief word of welcome to the new students. Many of you I have had the opportunity of meeting previously and feel that I already know you. I have met the parents of many members of this Freshman class and know something of the hopes that are centered in you. I am certain that you will fulfill those hopes and expectations.

You come to the campus at a most auspicious time. Those who enter in the fall of 1938 will graduate in the spring of 1942. This means that you comprise what will be known as the Centennial class, because Willamette observes her one hundredth anniversary that year. It would be a great achievement if we could have an unusually large percentage of those who now enter the University finish in 1942.

I greet, most cordially, those who have transferred to us from other colleges and universities. We hope you will be as happy with us as those who are just starting out in the college experience.

BRUCE R. BAXTER,
President

It is a familiar device of the movies to picture the feet of hurrying throngs. So one may think of student generations. Class after class they enter as Freshmen; hurry on through the activities of the college course to graduation. But to those who know, it is not merely a row of tramping feet, rather is it a line of happy faces; of eager minds. A university is after all not a group of buildings but a group of persons, faculty and students, drawn together and held by the common interest in intellectual matters. In that spirit we welcome you who for the first time join our number. We are immensely interested in you and in your latent possibilities. Let us be of every possible assistance to you but remember that your education is not the result of the faculty's effort but of your own industry.

FRANK M. ERICKSON,
Dean of the University

To be called to the Dean's office has a sound of awe to the average Freshman. However, I want you people who are coming this fall to Willamette as Freshmen to feel that a call to the Dean's office, unless your conscience is bad, comes from a true interest in you as a developing personality, as an outstanding student and as a member of the Willamette group.

One bit of advice that I have learned through the years should be given and impressed on the minds of the incoming student. No matter what it is you lack or want that someone about the University can help you get, ask some of us.

Please feel welcome to our offices.

We greet you cordially.

OLIVE M. DAHL,
Dean of Women

In welcoming you to Willamette University we do it with utmost sincerity, not as a mere matter of form. You will not need to feel alone in entering upon this venture, for with you will be a considerable group of like-minded individuals. To make this venture a success for yourself demands serious considerations on your part, for there is no magic which we can apply. To make it a success for your class and the whole student body demands cooperation, which we sincerely request of you. In return it is our desire to be of the greatest possible service to you, but even in this we must have your help. We invite you to make use of this office whenever there is a need. Whether your problems are of a scholastic or a personal nature we invite you to this office for a mutual consideration of the same.

DAN H. SCHULZE,
Dean of Men

Familiarity with A. S. W. U. finances is not complete until the student has found his way to the general manager's office. The student body of Willamette University maintains and operates a business office under the direction of a general manager. The office is located in the gymnasium. Authorization for expenditure of A. S. W. U. funds is obtained from this office. All money received by managers or collected by any of the A. S. W. U. activities is turned in to the general manager's office. Student activity tickets and handbooks may be obtained from the office. If you are a returning student, make use of the office. If you are a new student, you are invited to become acquainted with the organization and administration of A. S. W. U. money.

LESTLE J. SPARKS,
General Manager

Hello! to the Centennial class of Willamette and may a new significance be given our "Hello tradition" as you, the class of '42, settle down to break records. Let's plan to be champions scholastically, athletically. When you, the one-hundredth class to graduate, finish your college life, you will have given the proper buildup for a Centennial Exposition which you should start now to plan for. In the meantime I hope to come in contact with everyone of you through a well-developed system of student activities which you should consider to be an integral part of the educational process. If you have any complaints, pet peeves, or criticisms be sure to look me up as I'm anxious that your Willamette life be the very best possible.

NEIL E. SHAFFER,
President of A. S. W. U.

Welcome class of "42." Blue Key welcomes and congratulates you on choosing Willamette as your higher educational school. Willamette has much to offer you in development of a well-rounded personality; we have a high scholastic standing, congenial professors, and many extra-curricular activities which need your interest and whole-hearted participation. What Willamette and her traditions will mean to you will depend upon what you put into them. Members of Blue Key are interested and anxious to assist you in becoming acquainted with Willamette and her traditions. Again we welcome you, and may your college life be a pleasant and successful one.

GEORGE ABBOTT,
President of Blue Key

Our heartiest welcome to the class of '42.

You have chosen well the institution of your learning and activity. May the fact that you are beginning a career which will close with a marked privilege that is yours alone be a challenge to uphold all good traditions that have been kept through the century at Willamette.

To the girls especially we add further challenge that you become a part of that great student movement which is felt throughout the world. The Y. W. C. A. is extending a warm hand of friendship; we know that you will make this organization greater in its service and leadership by your cooperation.

This world-wide interest in the meaning and present-day significance of the student Christian movement is a fact of major importance. We hope that every one of you will respond to this need of intellectual alertness and make Willamette University your laboratory for research into the basic problems of the universe.

Sincerely,

MARTHA OKUDA,
President of Y. W. C. A.

To the Centennial class of 1942—and in particular to the boys—we extend our welcome.

You are indeed to be congratulated on choosing Willamette as your school of higher learning. Those of us who have already enjoyed its traditions and friendliness want to impart to you that same spirit. It is therefore our wish as the Campus Y to be of service and helpfulness to you throughout the year. We want you to become a member of our organization and enjoy its wholesome and religious fellowship.

In our organization there are many ex-Hi-Y members, and thus those of you who have been affiliated with such clubs need not be told of the fun and fellowship that exists at a good old potluck dinner, or of the inspiration received from the program following it.

Therefore, need we say any more?—except perhaps to repeat that we know you have chosen the right school and that with your help we can make this another successful year for Willamette University.

DAYTON ROBERTSON,
President of Y. M. C. A.

TRADITIONS

Homecoming

Homecoming is the important social function on the campus which honors the alumni of the University. The week-end, this year to be held on October 28 and 29, is devoted to the entertainment of returning graduates. The customary activities include an alumni banquet; a football game, this year to be held on Friday night with the College of Puget Sound; and the Homecoming Play at Leslie Junior High School. Active competition centers around the Homecoming Sign Contest which is entered by the seven living organizations.

Freshman Glee

Freshman Glee, a thirty-year-old tradition, is perhaps the most popular of all the customs. It is for this occasion, held the first Saturday night of March, that the Freshman class challenges the other three classes to a tournament of song. The Freshman class have charge of the arrangements and the decorations of the gym. Prior to this time the members of each class compose the words and the music of a song in consideration of the theme chosen annually, and work for a novel presentation. For the past two years radio station KOIN has broadcast the program.

May Week End

May Week End primarily honors high school students. The busy week-end begins with a student body party on Friday night. On Saturday it is customary for the Y. W. C. A. to sponsor the May Morning Breakfast. Later in the morning the annual Freshman-Sophomore Tug-of-War is held, and there are various other athletic contests. The coronation of the May Queen on Saturday afternoon is followed by a May Pole Dance and other celebrations in honor of the royal court. Saturday evening's May Week End Play is the formal conclusion of the festivities.

More Traditions

Regular CHAPEL ASSEMBLIES are held on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 11:30 to 12:00 o'clock. The programs consist of talks by Dr. Baxter or various outside speakers, and attendance at the meetings is compulsory for all students. On Friday, Chapel time is devoted to student body meetings, during which period student matters are discussed or programs are presented by different campus organizations.

The VICTORY BELL in the tower of Waller Hall is rung after all Willamette athletic victories. The number of tolls proclaims the University's score.

FRESHMAN GLEE BETS are paid during Chapel time the Monday following the Glee. Strange costumes are worn by losing class members, and the compulsory swim of the men of the unsuccessful class is held in the Mill Stream.

Junior and Senior FLUNK DAYS are held during the latter part of the school year. The Juniors and Seniors plan the respective days for their beach trips without the knowledge of the Freshmen and Sophomores. On Junior Flunk Day, all Juniors are excused from classes and on Senior Flunk Day, all Seniors are dismissed from class attendance.

VARSAITY SONGS

Old Historic Temple

There's an old Historic Temple
Rising grandly through the years;
Where the oaken-hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers.
Down the years its portals open,
Gather wise ones to its fold;
Breathes the spirit of the Westland,
Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.
Spirit of the Golden Westland,
Breathing through our father's tears;
Tells the story of the Temple,
Bids us hope adown the years.
Sing, ch sing, of old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true;
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old school, our W. U.

I Love Willamette U

I love Willamette U,
I love her campus too;
I love her Profs. so good and true,
I love her spirit real true blue.
I love the old mill stream,
I love to sit and dream;
I see it all in shadows cool,
I love our dear old school.

Senior Serenade Song — 1936

Silver clouds are rifted by the starlight,
The scented blossoms lowly bend with dew;
Magic pools of mist that come with midnight
Echo back my song of love to you.

Chorus—

Soft music lifting,
Through shadows drifting,
Into your dreamland,
There to live anew.
Pale moon descending,
My love song ending—
Sweetheart of W. U.

Dream On

The stars are softly gleaming
In the shadows of the night.
The moon like glowing silver
Covers all with mellow light.
The world is resting peaceful
From the hurry of the day,
So now beneath your window
Do I sing to you and say—

Chorus—(Boys sing)

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
Till the golden heart of you
Thrills with the night-time's tender beauty,
And your fairest dreams come true.

(Girls sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette
Till the youthful heart of you
Thrills with life and love and glory
And your fairest dreams come true.

Senior Song — 1937

Oh, the Indians known to Jason Lee,
Went out one night on a little spree
They organized a rythm band
That soon was known throughout the land
Then they went off to college
And they took their band along,
With sharps and flats and feathers in their hats
They beat their big tom-toms.
The big chief smiled
The squaws went wild
As they sang their college song.
Woo-oo Woo-oooo Wo-ooo-ooo
At Willamette U each gal and lad
Has the same kind of rythm that the Indians had.
The red man's ghost is with us still
And if we don't whoop we're sure they will.

The Pledge of Loyalty — Freshmen, 1938

We're loyal to our alma mater, old Willamette U;
Proud and strong each son and daughter,
sings her praises true.
Through the years we'll shout the story of her grand old name,
Let the nation glory in her fame.
We'll always love her cheerful campus, her traditions old;
We'll rally 'round her flying colors, Cardinal and gold.
We'll long remember all the joys and all the sadness, too;
We're loyal to the name of old Willamette
U.

Fight, Sons of Old Willamette

Fight, sons of old Willamette,
Fight, 'til the battle's done:
With a valor ever bold
For the Card'nal and the Gold
Fight 'til the vict'ry's won!
Many hearts are standing by you
With a spirit ever true;
Fight with courage never dying
Fight! Willamette U.

Fight, Bearcats

Fight, Bearcats, fight!
A victory for W. U.
Cardinal and Gold, victorious of old
Will give us a spirit ever true.
Fight, fight, fight!
Cardinal courage show
And Gold is our faith so true
We shout our war cry out to you
Come on and fight, fight, Fight!

Wa Hoo

Wa hoo, wa hoo
Rip zip ba-zoo
I yell, I yell for W. U.
Wa hoo, wa hoo, wa hoo,
Well, well, well,
Well, well, well, well,
Well, well, well, well,
Wa hoo, etc.

Cannibal King

A cannibal king with a big nose ring
Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
And every night when the moon shone bright
Across the canal he'd wade
To hug and kiss this dusky miss
Out under the big bay tree,
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:
Oh, Jason Lee, socretty boo-ya
Oh Poppa Waller, chenickety umba
Umpa-Umpa-Um.

Fight, Fight, Fight — Junior, 1935

Fight, fight, fight, you fearless men of might
Who face the foe for W. U.
Fight, fight, fight, with victory in sight
Your strength and courage will renew.
Fight, fight, fight, you dauntless Bearcats,
fight,
And as you fall upon the foe
Let your hearts and strength unite
To Fight, Fight, Fight.
The enemy will fear you,
And the multitude will cheer you
As you Fight, Fight, Fight. (repeat song)

Victory Song

Vict'ry for W. U.
The bell in the tower rings.
The battle's done;
The victory's won:
Card'nal and Gold are flaming
Proudly o'er us.
Here's to the Bearcat Team
Who carried our colors through!
Our song shall go
Till the world will know
There's a vict'ry for W. U.!

Freshman Song — 1933

Come let our laughter mingle
With silvery sounds of night,
But list, my sweetheart of Willamette
While I tell my plight.

Chorus—

Waken, loved one, heed that bright moon-beam

Straight as a gleaming dart;

Waken, dear one, cease your dreaming,

To you, the delight of my heart,

I'm calling. Here beneath your window singing

A song that is ever new;

Though 'tis the old, old song I'm singing

It means, sweetheart, I love you!

Around the Campus

Around the campus of old Willamette
We'll shuffle the cards and roll the bones
along, along, along.

Around the campus of old Willamette,
We'll shuffle the cards and roll the bones
along.

Slinga da ink and push the pen along, along,
along,

Around the campus of old Willamette,
We'll slinga da ink and push the pen along.

Worry the Profs, worry the Profs,
Worry the Profs and kid them right along,
along, along,—

Boys sing:

Fuss the girls, fuss the girls,
Fuss the girls and kid them right along,
along, along,—

Girls sing:

Vamp the boys, vamp the boys,
Vamp the boys and kid them right along,
along, along,—

W. U., W. U.,
W. U. will help you right along, along, along.

Each class insert its own number:

'42, '42,

'42 will help you right along, along, along,—

Sophomore Loyalty Song — 1934

Hail to our Alma Mater,
To the Card'nal and to the Gold,
Honor as true as card'nal,
Loyalty true as gold.
Hail to the friends we cherish,
We pledge loyalty to you;
We'll always share the fellowship
At our Willamette U.
Hail to the teams whose valor
Will bring victory to you;
Hail to the campus spirit,
With loyalty made more true.
Hail to the dauntless courage,
As bright as the card'nal hue;
We see it all in college days,
At our Willamette U.

Fly the Colors — Sophomore, 1938

Raise the colors of Willamette,
Fly the cardinal and gold;
High above our Alma-mater
Victorious as of old.
She is our empire builder
Pledge our hearts so true;
Here's where our songs will ever
Ring glory for W. U.

Chorus—

So we'll fight, fight, fight, and with strength unite
To keep our colors true.
We'll give praise, praise, praise, to our college days
That we spend at W. U.
It is here we'll be with our loyalty,
And in our spirits ever true,
On mount or sea we'll send loyalty
Back to our Willamette U.
