FOREWORD

With the customary reluctance of anyone to praise a thing of his own production, yet with the pride which the creation of anything gives to everyone, the staff of this seventeenth volume of the Wallulah exclaims with Touchstone:

"An ill-favored thing, sir, but mine own. . ."

And as you, the readers of this book, have been the factors in the events recorded here, we of the staff express the sincere hope that we may share with you the joys of the possession in the memories which the turning of the pages of this book brings to mind.

DEDICATION

To Robert Moulton Gatre, whose great interest in the glorious past of Willamette University, vision and faith for the future of the school, and unceasing endeavor in the present, as teacher and adviser of student activities, have won for him a permanent place in the life of Willamette University.

ROBERT MOULTON GATKE

JASON LEE

First missionary to the Pacific Northwest, coming to Oregon in 1834 in response to the Indian Macedonian cry for light.

Leader in the establishment of our first schools and churches

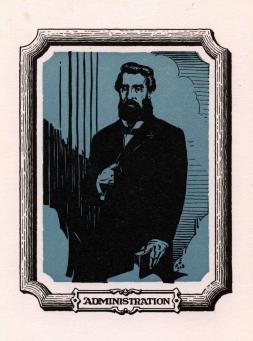

Dominating influence in the organization of our first civil government.

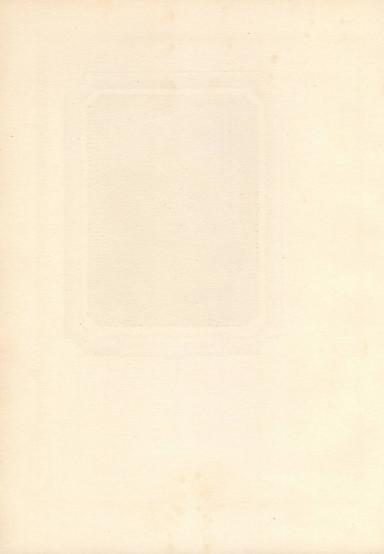

Inspirer of interest in the Oregon country, which resulted in the western trek of the pioneers, the presence of whom was a dominant factor in winning Oregon for the United States.

Founder of the Oregon Institute—the school which grew into Willamette University—and first president of the board of trustees.

Has been designated as one of the two whom Oregon will honor as her chosen sons in the Hall of Statuary in the National Capitol.

Yet greater honors are his, for as Christian father of Oregon he is enshrined in the heart of the West.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Wallulah is a moving picture of the current year in Willamette University. Against a somewhat unchanging background of campus, buildings and faculty, the students pass before the screen revealing their activities and their interpretation of the college life as they have participated in it. The film will rather fairly represent the proportions of seriousness and joyousness belonging to those who live in this goodly environment, but it will fail to indicate the vivid intensity and gripping importance of either the thoughtful hours or those of play. Destiny, the law and the prophets, have hung upon our wrestlings for the truth and upon the outcome of a game. It was all acute and keen, exciting because so momentous: we wiped hot brows and liked it. Vibrant life and we were in it.

This book will not have a large circulation, but where it does go, it will be among friends. Between its covers they will find remembrances which laugh and sigh and comfort. It will be a kind of fountain of youth, always carrying one back to a morning of vision and ideal. Therefore it is a great, true book and he is fortunate who lives and re-lives in it.

Karl G. Doney.

CARL GREGG DONEY, Ph.D., LL.D.
President of Willamette University

FRANK MORTON ERICKSON, A.M.

A.B., Wabash College; A. M., University of Chicago; Austin Scholar Harvard University; Graduate Student Stanford University.

Professor of Education 1920—

Dean of College of Liberal Arts 1925-

Dean Erickson raises prize strawberries, teaches his English classes, and performs very efficiently his duties as Dean. His ability to spot the absent ones without calling the roll is an unending source of interest to his students.

FRANCES M. RICHARDS, A.M.

A.B., A.M., University of Michigan.

Dean of Women and Assistant in English 1918-

The new assistant at Lausanne Hall manages all the routine work and leaves Miss Richards more time to give advice to the women students. She will soon be running competition to Marion Miller's column in The Oreaonian.

JAMES T. MATTHEWS, A.M.

A.B., A.M., Willamette University; Graduate Student University of California,

Professor of Mathematics 1893-

Professor Matthews also teaches College Life to the Freshmen and Astronomy to those couples who wish their star gazing to be supervised.

Page 14

WILLIAM ELWOOD KIRK, A.M.

A.B., A.M., University of Nebraska; Graduate Student Columbia University and University of Chicago.

Professor of Ancient Languages 1906-1913; 1915—

Professor Kirk belongs to that group of which Arnold Bennett was speaking when he wrote, "The reputation of a classic is made and maintained by a passionate few."

MORTON E. PECK, A.M.

A.B., A.M., Cornell College; Research work in Central America three years.

Professor of Biology 1908-

Every spring, Professor Peck does his bit to help along a young man's fancy by giving a course in ornithology, and between classes he writes poetry.

FLORIAN VON ESCHEN, Ph.M.

Ph.B., Ph.M., Simpson College: Graduate Student Lawrence University, University of Illinois, University of Chicago, and Washington University.

Professor of Chemistry 1918-

Prof. Von is an expert gardener, and he says that he can cook a better meal than his wife can. We have seen him cook eggs in liquid air, but they didn't stay cooked long.

GEORGE HENRY ALDEN, Ph.D.

B.S., Carleton College; A.B., Harvard University; Ph.D., University of Wisconsin.

Acting President 1914-1915;1924-25—

Dean of College of Liberal Arts 1914-1925— Professor of History 1921—

The French Revolution et cetera are Dr. Alden's favorite field. According to him most of the events usually mentioned in history classes, never occurred at all.

CHARLES L. SHERMAN, Ph.D., Pd.D.

Ph.B., Upper Iowa University; Pd.M., Ph.D., Pd.D., New York University; Helen Gould Fellow in Education, New York University School of Pedagogy.

Professor of Social Science and Education 1914-15—

Professor of Philosophy and Education 1915-

If you wish to know what James said, ask Dr. Sherman. He is very fond of all animals, but his special pets are Thorndike's cat and MacDougall's dog.

ALICE M. DODD

Three years research work in Egypt, India, Palestine and Italy.

Instructor in Art History.

Mrs. Dodd dispenses her services freely as sorority house mother, teacher of home life, and general authority on social etiquette.

GUSTAV EBSEN, A.M.

A.B., Flensburg College; A. M., Central University; University of Berlin; Graduate Student Universities of Parls, Madrid and Denmark State University; Research in France and Spain.

Professor of Modern Languages 1915-

Here is a man of unfailing good humor and youthful enthusiasm.

ERNEST C. RICHARDS, A.M.

Ph.B., A.M., Morningside College; Graduate Student Boston University and University of California.

Field Representative Willamette University 1916-20—

Professor of Rhetoric 1920-

Here is a man who, being shipwrecked on a desert island and allowed one book, would choose the dictionary.

FRANK GEORGE FRANKLIN, Ph.D.

B.L., Cornell University; Ph.D., University of Chicago; Thesis work, Wisconsin State Historical Library.

Professor of Social Science 1918-1921-

Librarian and Professor of Library Science 1921-

Dr. Franklin's idea of heaven is a library where one can hear a pin drop.

ROBERT MOULTON GATKE, Ph.D.

A.B., A.M., Willamette University; B.D., Kimball School of Theology; Ph.D., American University; Fellow in History, Willamette University, American University.

Associate Professor of History 1920-

Dr. Gatke is a busy man, being teacher, lecturer, gardener, minister, and thesis writer. As minister he gives special rates to Willamette couples desiring to commit matrimony.

B.S., M.S., University of Washington.

Professor of Physics 1921-

Professor Brown is an authority on real estate values in Salem—he has just built a new house.

CLAUDE A. KELLS, B.H.

B.H., Springfield Y. M. C. A. College.

Instructor in Association Science 1921-

Woe to any man who ever admits within the hearing of Secretary Kells that he is interested in Y. M. C. A. activities. Secretary Kells will keep him busy for the remainder of his life.

JOHN DALE McCORMICK, D.D.

A.B., A.M., D.D., Hamline University; D.D., Drew Theological Seminary; Graduate Student University of Chicago.

Professor of English Bible 1922-

Dr. McCormick's Bible classes are just a side line. His real specialty is chaperoning parties, picnics, and dinners,

W. W. HERMAN CLARK, A.M.

A.B., A.M., Willamette University; Graduate Student University of Washington.

Assistant Professor of Chemistry 1923-

On Sundays Professor Clark applies his knowledge of chemistry to the directing of the Leslie church choir.

ROY C. HARDING, A.B., J.D.

A.B., Hillsdale College; J.D., University of Chicago.

Professor of Law and History 1923—

Ipso Facto, presto change!

LESTLE JESSE SPARKS, A.B.

A.B., Willamette University.

Assistant Athletic Coach 1923-

The watch dog of the gym has made a hit in more ways than one in his years at W. U.

EDITH DENISE, A.M.

A.B., Lake Forest College; A.M., University of Chicago; Graduate Student in France and Germany, Bryn Mawr College, and University of Chicago.

Assistant Professor of Modern Languages 1924-

Is your jaw stiff? It must be from taking one of Miss DeNise's examinations in the pronunciation of French words.

Lois E. Latimer, A.M.

B.S., Milwaukee-Downer College; A.M., Columbia University.

Professor of Home Economics 1924-

Miss Latimer asks the same sort of questions in her examinations each year. Consequently her students have to learn just three things: all that has been said in class, all that is in their text book, and all that has been assigned for outside reading.

Page 20

WINIFRED MCGILL, A.M.

A.B., McGill University; A.M., University of Washington; Graduate Student McGill University.

The maple leaf forever! The students in Freshmen composition are rapidly acquiring a Canadian accent.

R. DARWIN BURROUGHS, A.M.

A.B., Nebraska Wesleyan University; A.M., Princeton University.

Assistant Professor of Biology 1925—

Professor Burroughs is a great disappointment to the co-eds—he got married last summer.

JOHN O. HALL, Ph.D., LL.D.

University of Denver; University of Minnesota; University of Chicago; "Garrett" of Evanston; Columbia University; Research, University of Washington, D. C.

Professor of Public Speaking 1926-

"The debate squad will meet immediately after chapel in room two in Eaton Hall."

Administration

Page 21

HENRY C. KOHLER, Ph.D.

A.B., A.M., Ph.D., Ohio State University; Graduate work University of Michigan, University of Chicago, and Yale University.

Professor of English 1926-

Dr. Kohler is the only undefeated man in the University. He has never failed to find "sheer beauty, sublimity of expression, and perfection of form" in any worthy piece of literature.

ROY S. KEENE, B.S.

B.S., Oregon Agricultural College.

Director of Physical Education 1926-

Under Spec's direction, Willamette is fast making a place for itself in athletics. Spec is the idol of the athletes and the secret sorrow of $99\ 44/100\,\%$ of the co-eds.

ALIDA GALE CURRY, B.S.

B.S., New York State College for Teachers; Graduate work Cornell University; Reconstruction work Walter Reed General Hospital, Washington, D. C.

Director of Women's Physical Education 1926-

She is a pleasant little gale who blew in from the East to teach the co-eds how to be healthy that they may be wealthy and wise.

Page 22

AVOCA S. McMinis, A.B.

A.B., University of Oregon; Graduate work University of California.

Assistant Professor of Latin and English 1926-

Miss McMinis believes that there is a time for work and a time for play. During the time for play she has the happy faculty of entirely forgetting Caesar, Cicero and Ovid.

WALTER T. PHILLIPS, A.M.

A.B., University of Washington; A.M., Stanford University; Graduate Scholar in Spanish, Stanford University.

Assistant Professor of Modern Languages 1926-

During his first year here Professor Phillips has made a name for himself as a teacher requiring exactness and thoroughness.

LYRA MILES DANN, A.M.

A.B., Pacific College; A.M., Columbia University.

Instructor in Sociology 1926-

Mrs. Dann knows whereof she speaks when she discusses naturalization. By marrying an Englishman she lost her American citizenship and has had to go through a process of naturalization in order to regain it. She says that the Englishman was worth it, though.

MRS. R. D. BURROUGHS, A.B.

A.B., Nebraska Wesleyan University; Superintendent of Schools, Corning, Missouri.

Assistant Professor of Mathematics 1926-

For several months Mrs. Burroughs has been making an intensive study of Darwin.

E. W. Hobson

Graduate Cincinnati College of Music; Student four years Sig Lui Matteoli, winning Springer Gold Medal; Vocal Director fourteen years.

Director School of Music and Professor of Voice 1920—

Professor Hobson has the reputation of being the best kidder on the campus.

T. S. ROBERTS

Piano Student Dr. Adam Geibel; Organ Student Dr. D. D. Wood.

Instructor Pipe Organ, and Piano.
Professor Roberts lives for his art.

WILLIAM WALLACE GRAHAM

Royal High School of Berlin; Student of Joachim and Martian.

Professor of Violin 1921-

Professor Graham is a follower of the strict old German method of teaching. He expects a great deal from his students and gets it.

FRANCES VIRGINIE MELTON

Graduate Illinois Woman's College and Illinois College of Music; Plano Student William H. Sherwood, Chicago; Wager Swayne and Harold Bauer, Paris; Severin Elsenberger, Berlin, Theodor Leschitzky, Vienna; Theory Student Emil Schwartz, Paris.

Director Piano and Theory 1924-

In the beautiful world of music and musicians where Miss Melton dwells, only those who study hard and practice long may enter.

LUCILE ROSS

Graduate Willamette University School of Music; Student Lillian Jeffries Petri, Portland, Oregon; B.M., American Conservatory of Music.

Instructor Piano and Theory 1925-

Her smile, her kindness, and her sense of humor have endeared Miss Ross to the hearts of all who know her.

OLIVER

SAVAGE

BEAVER

REV. G. O. OLIVER, A.M., B.D.

Vice-President

Vice-President Oliver is a self-acknowledged booster for Willamette University and he goes up and down in the Oregon country selling a product in which he thoroughly believes—Willamette.

N. S. SAVAGE

Business Secretary

Mr. Savage is a practical business man in the midst of what might be commonly thought of as a group of theorists, but he seems to enjoy his company.

N. E. BEAVER

THE OLD MISSION HOUSE ON THE WILLAMETTE

Builded by Jason Lee and his fellow workers in 1834.

Here faithful men ministered to the spiritual, intellectual, and physical needs of the Indians.

Within its rough hewn walls were held the meetings which led to the establishment of the first civil government and church of Old Oregon, and the school which has grown into the Willamette University of today.

ELOIS AILOR

Elois was an innocent maid, But innocence often doth fade. Now, her long curly Now, h lashes Hide flirtatious flashes. For a school ma'am she never was made.

LAUREN BENNETT This boy is named Lauren

Bennett

He says that he envies
Mack Sennett
We doubt this indeed,
For he pays little heed
To the girls in the school of Willamette

FRANK ALFRED

There's a lad of Willamette named Frank Who's a vriter of high class rank.
He writes serenades
To charming co-eds
Till his mind is a sorrowful blank.

JOYCE BOOTHBY

Round and round in the race track he whirls, Joyce Boothby with far flying curls This boy is so fast—As he rushes past He glefully calls, "Hello, girls."

A cunning young lawyer He wins what e'er it may be.
If, when in remorse
You wish a divorce
He is the one person to

TRYGVE BRAUTI

Tryg Brauti in stature is long We hope he will never go We hope he will never go wrong Yet his smile, forsooth Displays a gold tooth But his heart—it is in Hong Hong.

Here's Maggie, the Megaphone Queen Rules the choral throng serene
Her baton did fling
When the Juniors did sing
Their serenade song that was keen.

IRENE BREITHAUPT

Irene of the class is Vice-The others must do as she says
She says it with flowers
Debates by the hours
So she makes a lovely
Vice-Pres.

CORNELIUS BATESON

Cornelius Bateson's his name In the library he likes a game ai ce he played just too long And caught it so strong Let's draw a veil o'er that same.

BERNICE CLEMANS

There's a talented maiden There's a talented maiden named Clemans Who, I've heard, is quite fond of lemons She fiddles and sings Till the whole world rings
This W. U. girl named
Clemans,

DESSIE COX

She has something which all of us crave, That causes the hairdress-er to rave. The curly locks Of Dessie Cox O, think of the wave she does save.

RUBY DAVIS

Neither blonde nor bru-nette is this one, But red—and hence full of But red—and hence full of fun,
Yet this I do know
It was eight years ago
She says it changed in the sun.

VIRGINIA MERLE CRITES

Virginia Merle Crites, she is tall
she lived last year at the Hall
You'll have to admit
That at writing she's it
By George! but that isn't all.

CHARLES DEGRAFF

Elongated and slim is De-Graff
He has a most terrible
laff
Haw, haw, haw, haw,
He is studying law
But his line is nothing but gaff.

HARRY CROUSE

A young man we call Harry Crouse Bought a clever and new little house
He did this brave thing When he had given a ring To the woman who now is his spouse.

EVERETT FABER

Sweet Everetta, called Faber Hard on the Collegian doth labor. For his library date He never is late For he always leaves with his neighbor.

RALPH CURTIS

The subject of this is well off
In his dress he is quite
"a la toff"
They say that Ralph
Curtis Curtis
With the ladies such a flirt is
That he acquired a feminine cough.

LOUISE FINDLEY

We know in stiff courses, Louise
Is accustomed to pulling down E's

But how in the whirl
Can such a small girl
Perform equally well on the keys.

PATRICK DAHLIN

When you're speaking of Patrick Dahlin You're talking of someone who's keen In school he's a peach In church he can preach Do you think he could dance on the green!

DETAIL MATERIAL DE MAINTE DE COMPONICION DE MAINTE

DOROTHY FISHER

When anything is to be You will find her always on hand Our well gracious wish-Miss Dorothy Fisher
So kindly, helpful, and bland.

GURNEE FLESHER

We have a young fellow named Gurnee, Who on the race track can Who on the race truck con-journey
The famous half-mile
In a very short while.
Last year he won at the tourney.

LOUISE GARRISON

With Louise there is little With Louise there is little in chime, But for Garrison here is a rime; His front name is John, After June he'll be gone A happy yet sorrowful time.

This gent is as wise as an owl,
And somewhat resembles that fowl. that jowl.

He possesses a wife
The joy of his life.

He's good-natured and never does growl.

CLAUDINE GERTH

Here we have a musician of worth, of worth,
Her fame has covered the earth,
Her violin sighs,
It laughs and it cries,
This artist—we mean
Claudine Gerth.

Here is a fighter known as Fox, Who is used to very hard knocks, But just the same He is quite tame Even tho he has learned how to box.

GEORGE FOX

DONALD GRANT

Searching ever for a new slant, Despising all custom and cant,

A veritable sheik,
Yet modest and meek?
This versatile man, Don
Grant.

Here's a girl who is full of vit, With droll humor she makes a hit. Her smile so sunny, Her tricks so funny, In the classroom she says her bit.

WILLIS HATHAWAY

O, Willis he just Hath-a-With Willamette girls, gallant and gay,
And when he is songful,
It hardly is wrongful, To listen and dream as we man.

Now we must hear about Now we must hear about Everett, Well, I guess we'll en-deavor it, Though a bit shy— We do not know why, His friends say he's quite a clever wit.

EVANGELINE HEINECK

We call her familiarly "Van,"
She's quite a chemistry fan,
Here's something queer
From all that we hear—
He's a dental collegiate man.

ALBERT HERRMAN

Here's a fellow who hails from Baker, Who is shaped like a pep-per shaker, He likes to pose, And sell silk hose, Do you think he will ever forsake her?

Russell Hills is an E. D. M., He seldom has dates with "les femmes." Over books he'll pore Till its high time to snore. As a student he's surely a gem.

DALE HOSKINS

There's a boy whose first name is Dale. He can beat the yell king of Yale. When he waves his when he waves his arms,
We succumb to his charms,
Till our yells sound most hearty and hale.

CLARA JASPER

Clara J. is a miss so petite, With a smile seraphicalwith a smile scraphical-ly sweet, Her strumming guitar, Lures men from afar, She's a girl you really must meet.

GENEVIEVE JUNK

Miss Junk is a person with charm,
Her blue eyes cause havoc
and harm,
When she acts in a play
The young men all say,
To the altar she'll go on my arm!

ROYAL KEEFER

There entered this student There entered this student of toil,
A boy by the name of Royal.
His temperament
From heaven was sent.
When he's mad he never does boil.

HOBART KELLY

H. Kelly's a marvelous singer, At heart he's surely a ringer.
So tall and dashing.
So noble and crashing,
O, yes, a ten carat humdinger!

ELMA KIMBRELL

DORIS KLINDT

Elma Kimbrell is faithful Elma Kimbrell is faithful and steady. To help she's always quite ready. A sweet friendly smile, She has all the while. O, dear, nothing rhymes here but Teddy.

Klindt once had a bird, not a swallow, That she tried to call Phoebus Apollo, But he was Ambrose, Once when she arose, She found that his cage was all hollow.

HERMAN LANKE

A popular man is H. Lanke, Subtle, swarthy, and swanky.
Can you conceive?
Will you believe?
He weeps dainty tears in his hanky.

KENNETH LAVIOLETTE

A prominent student is Kenny, Beloved by one and by many He manages ball, Doesn't mind it at all, For he delights in saving a penny.

KENNETH LITCHFIELD

Kenneth Litchfield, so we have heard, At managing is not ab-surd, For in this school, ah, He bossed the Wallulah.

He's a basketter, fleet as

KENNETH LAWSON

Our class prexy we never could spare, This lad with blue eyes and blonde hair. He's an impersonator. Did you say girl hater? O, no, he admires the fair.

MARY MARTIN

A puer once said to Miss Martin. Martin
When at the door they were partin'
"I love you, I do."
She said, "Me, too,
But just for tonight, that's sartin."

PAUL MILLER

Paul Miller is taking no Paul Miller is taking no chances
He's the pole when it comes to May dances.
But he surely means biz In a history quiz
He can always tell you where France's.

MILDRED MILLS

When the whole world is down on you, There is really but one thing to do: Find Mildred Mills, When she smiles, your ills ills
Will vanish and skies become blue.

LURA MORGAN Lura Morgan we like her high size Indeed we think she's a

To tree To this please hark, She's a History shark, Do you think she'd ever tell lies?

Marguerite is of late a Marguerite is 6, and a nurse, Her patients she keeps from the hearse. Without L. G. She is lonelee, Isn't this a pathetic xerse?

BERNICE MILLYEY

In French she is very In French she is very beacoup, And Bernice knows her algebra, too. She's really a treat, So quiet and sweet, But, oh Boy, that Fashion Revue!

HAROLD MUMFORD

Of Mumfords the second is And Prof.'s helper in chemistry. chemistry.
We think his profile
Has Bill's beat a mile,
But Bill dances better than he!

ROYAL NAKANO

There is nothing in Afternoon Tea To appeal to a person like There is little to eat, There is little to eat,
What there is isn't
sweet,
And I'm bored most miserably.

BERNICE NEWHOUSE

Bernice is a faithful lass, The smallest of girls in the class, The reason why Her grades are high, Exams she always does pass.

EARL PEMBERTON

Earl Pem. so the Kappas all say, Is headed down Bank-ruptcy Way; It's trapic, not funny, How he spends all his money, Calling Monmouth ten times every day.

And then there is Louise Nunn, Her name is so easy to pun.
Our Glee formation
Was a clever creation,
She did it, and that it was fun!

DORTHA PETERS

Dortha does many things well;
She can sew, she can cook, and can spell.
In spite of her name,
We love her the same,
Her spirits no one would dare quell.

"O, the roads of the state must be made." Says this man as he learn-ed his great trade. So he labors away By night and by day, At State Highway experi-ment shed.

RUBY PETERSON

There's nothing that Ruby can't do. can't do,
She sings and she plays,
and makes stew.
Yet that isn't all—
She sends up the call,
That your boy friend is waiting for you.

A handsome young chap keeps a store, He caters to bookworms galore,
galore,
He's protected by moats
We almost need boats,
Waller regions below to explore.

She's on the Collegian

She's on the Collegian board, And Society news she does hoard. She took a long way, In choosing the play, In chapel she always is bored.

ELLA PFEIFFER

A modest young fellow is Patton, That doesn't mean his lap is never sat in, Doesn't fuss every night But they say he's a fright When he actually does get to battin!

CYNTHIA PIER

There is a young lady named Pier Who likes other people to cheer, She cooks and she sews, Helps wherever she goes There's nothing that he'll have to fear.

MADGE REID

There once was a lady named Reid, Who the promenade always did lead. One nite at a dance She cast a soft glance At a youth, but he was a hayseed!

SEVILLA RICKS

Sevilla's last name is just Ricks, With a crowd she knows how to mix, She smiles all the while, Being glad is her style, There's nothing Sevilla can't fix.

JAMES RETTIE

Mr. Rettie is known as just Jim.
Everyone says fine things about him.
You surely know why?
He's a leader in "Y."
His joy-cup is filled to the brim.

IRENE RITCHIE

There came one day to this city, A lady so brilliant and weitty, brilliant and weitty, She shone in her class, Prof. Kirk let her pass. Miss Ritchie who came to this city.

A shy, quiet girl is our Mary,
But never could she be contrary.
She's as fine as can be,
As you soon will see.
And is she quite friendly?
Yes, very.

NEVA ROOT

Neva Root is a quaint little maid, Who in physiology played, With frogs and with cats, With sharks and with bats, Until she prayed they would fade.

Rosa Ricco

Rosa Ricco is faithful and true To any task set her to do. She plays basketball, But that isn't all, She's a whiz in French— Latin too.

HARVEY ROSER

Harvey Roser wears glasses round,
n classes he is most profound,
With joy and a tear,
He reads Shakespeare,
Next year to be capped
and gowned.

BESSIE RICE

Bessic Rice is a damsel "chic,"
She can make a dress at one lick.
And here's a surprise,
She has melting brown eyes,
That make you feel dizzy and sick.

HELEN SANDE

We musn't forget Helen Sande, Sande, She has captivated a dandy, In fair or foul weather, They're ever together, They smile, flirt, talk, and eat candy.

EUGENIA SAVAGE

There's a musical Savage in Salem, Who has never been known to fail 'em, When they ask her to play, They just name the day, And she gladly entertains Salem.

WILMA SPENCE

At college a girl Wilma Was a tomboy and jumped Was a tomboy and jumped a high fence; The Dean saw it all And gave a bawl, And diminished her dates with the gents.

THERESA SCHOTTHOEFER

Here's a girl who's never a loafer. Her name is There's a Schotthoefer. It is a delight And also a right, To see her chasing a go-pher.

ALICE TAYLOR

If anyone calls Alice clever, friendly relation she'll sever.
Their friendly relation she'll sever.
Tho she is so, indeed,
You must pay little heed
And refer to her cleverness never.

LAURENCE SCHREIBER

A good natured boy is Laurie, His line, it never is boreey, Since he was born, it is said, He has sworn he'll not wed.
Now don't you think he'll be sorry?

VERNON TAYLOR

There's a silly tale in these lines, Of one who for solitude pines. pines.
One day in gloom,
He went to his room,
And hung up "No Parking" signs.

PHOEBE SMITH

Phoebe Smith likes to have a good time, In the library she pulls quite a line, Which the Seniors don't like, And they ask her to And the strike, Or else pay a big, heavy fine.

ORMAL TRICK

And there is this person Trick, After Gloom was doomed to the creek, He jumped in with a grin, With a grin did begin To swim, but he swam like a brick.

MELVA SPENCE

Here is a girl we call
"Spenders,"
Who always gets mixed
with her genders.
Prof. said, "What am
I?" "Neuter" was the reply. She rides in a Ford with four fenders.

PAUL TRUEBLOOD

Here's a talented man known as Paul, Who recites at each beck and call. The Glee Club is fine Because of his line, For the yirls at Coquille he did fall.

WILLIAM TWEEDIE

A charming young man is Bill Tweedie, For keen dates he never is needy. When he fiddles a tune, By the light of the moon, The girls tear their curls and grow giddy.

EVERETT VAN WERT

Everett Van Wert is his name, He's known to be wild, yet He's known to be wud, yet tame.
Once for a date
He most sealed his fate
By taking two girls to one game.

ROBERT WITTY

There's a boy on the cam-pus who's Witty, He travels from city to He travels from city to city,
To debate other schools And make them seem fools,
By winning all medals so pretty.

MARGARET WOOD

Here's a girl whom we call M. Wood Who said, "She thought she could." She started, and stuck, With will, and sheer pluck. She won as we knew she should.

MEREDITH WOODWORTH

A very slim lad is M.
Woody,
Who tries to be not a bit
goody.
He works with a vim
To get thin in the gym
And then eats three carloads of foodie!

WILLIAM WRIGHT

When this man is wrong he's still Wright, His bark far surpasses his bite, bite,

His cheeks are rosy,
His eyes—like a posy,
He's married—but that's his own plight.

CLIVE ZELLER

From Salem there comes
Ted Zeller
A remarkable football
"feller,"
He's won a red sweater,
And also a letter,
But about it he never does
"beller."

JUNIORS

NADIE HARDING

Her husband is a professor wise, Of a rather miniature size, We like this lady, We call her Nadie, He says she can bake swell pies.

SIEGMUND HUTH

A new boy in school is Sig Huth, He is better yet than Babe Ruth, For when he's begun To make a home run He'll finish, or lose a front tooth.

LYMAN LAYCOCK

Mr. Laycock, of hair and eyes brown, In German gets all settled down To take a nice nap. Till Prof. Ebsen will rap On his desk, and wake the whole town.

ALBERT RIEDEL

In school there's a player of fame He's a shark at the basketball game, Whenever he plays The score he does raise, We call him "Shadder," but Albert's his name.

THE COVERED WAGON

It is for all generations hereafter the symbol of the heroic yet peaceful conquest of the American wilderness.

To Oregon it brought the pioneers, and because they came Oregon was won for the United States.

For Willamette it is the symbol of the tireless activity and high purpose of the pioneer parents who gave her being.

ALBERT PRIZE

Each year, a prize of twenty-five dollars is offered by Mr. Joseph H. Albert of Salem, Oregon, to that student who has been the most faithful in study and scholarship, and has made the greatest progress in character, ideals, and wholesome influence. Three students are nominated by the faculty and voted upon by the student body two weeks before commencement. Mr. James Rettie was voted this honor by his fellow students for the year 1926.

WILLIS PRIZE

Colonel Percy Willis of Portland, Oregon, offers a prize each year of twenty-five dollars to the student who through devotion to high ideals of character has done the most real good to fellow students and the University. In 1926 Miss Hollis Vick was awarded the honor.

STEEVES PRIZE

Dr. B. L. Steeves of Salem, Oregon, offers a prize of ten dollars to the student excelling in Latin. Miss Edrie Housley won the distinction in 1926.

BURGHARDT PRIZE

William Mumford won the Burghardt prize of twenty-five dollars for the year 1925, awarded to the best scholar in Calculus.

MAY DAY

In 1926 Myrtle Jensen was chosen to be Queen of the May Day festivities. Her Maids were Jessie Pybus and Hazel Malmsten. At the Queen's court the suggestion of Pandora's box was carried out in the different dances of Brownies, Dragon Flies, and Plagues. The Queen and her attendants were honored by the presentation of the Junior play, "The Goose Hangs High," on Friday evening, and a campus breakfast followed by various athletic contests on the second day. Much of the success of the festival was due to the management of Kenneth McCormick who organized the program for the week end.

FRESHMAN GLEE

The nineteenth annual Freshman Glee of Willamette University was held March 5, in the gymnasium. Freshman Glee, Willamette's most original tradition, is sponsored by the Freshman class under an advisory committee from the student body and the faculty. Each class presented an original serenade song. First place was given to the Seniors, second to the Juniors, third to the Sophomores, and fourth to the Freshmen.

DRIFTING

Words and Music by Malcolm Meddler.

The night's cool breezes, whispering, Disturb the silent air; The stars in splendor gleaming, Reveals their beauty rare. The mists are slyly stealing Along Willamette stream, Come drift with me, my loved one, While night reigns here supreme.

Chorus

Down on the still Willamette, Into the starry light
That beams through the shadowy treetops— Into the quiet night;
Borne on the dancing ripples, Lulled in our frail canoe, Losing my life in happiness— I love to drift with vou!

Our bark is smoothly swaying
On soft waves tipped with blue.
Sweet echoes round us are playing,
"May your fairest dreams come true."
We drift along the stream, love,
Amid the soft monobeams
That fill the night with radiance,
And blend our lives in dreams.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming each year means a greater returning to W. U. Since the first one in 1923, it has established itself as one of the three yearly major events. The efficient management of Francis Ellis made the 1926 Homecoming a marked success.

WALLULAH

The 1927 Wallulah is the second annual to have been published under the new type of Student Body control. The experiment of last year of putting out the annual as a Student Body publication proved very satisfactory both from the greater financial stability realized and the larger possibilities for staff selection, and it is hoped that this annual will be but another step forward in the progress of the Wallulah.

The Wallulah, like the other features of Willamette University, has an interesting history. In 1903, one of the first manifestations of Willamette's growth after it had passed through a rather dark and discouraging period, was the publication of the first Wallulah by the Student Body. The next Wallulah, which was published two years later by the Student Body, proved less successful financially than the first, and for this reason no further publication was attempted until in 1911, when the class of 1912 published a strictly "Junior" Annual. The following year, the Junior class, feeling that they could not put out another regular annual, collaborated with the Collegian management in putting out the "Junior Annual Edition of the Collegian," which was essentially the same as a Wallulah, although not quite as large. The Junior class in the following year published a regular Wallulah. In 1915 "The Comet" was published by the Senior class because the Juniors were not publishing the Wallulah. They said, "It does not purport to be a Wallulah, but comes like a flash, as its name implies, and nothing of its sort will probably ever again be seen at Willamette." It was a clever edition, a good deal like a regular annual, although smaller. From that time until 1926, the Juniors published the Wallulah, each one improving in some way on the preceding one.

COLLEGIAN

The Collegian has a history as interesting as any other of Willamette's projects. In 1889 the Collegian was first established with B. L. Steeves as editor, James F. Ailaher as associate editor, and Fred Legge as business manager. At first it was published as a monthly literary magazine and retained this form until 1902. It was then felt that the growth of the school made a weekly paper a necessity; consequently in that year it was changed into a four page, four column weekly newspaper. With the exception of one year, when it was published bi-weekly, the Collegian has since continued as a weekly publication, chronicling events of the school. About 1913 its size was increased by one column. In 1915 Marwell Ball and Rollin Jefferies again increased its size, this time to the standard seven-column form which it still retains.

This year the editor and manager of the Collegian attended the Pacific Intercollegiate Press Conference which was held at Reno, Nevada.

The Collegian of this year is one of the best ever published at the University and indicates one of the high water marks of Willamette journalism.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY HANDBOOK

The Handbook is published annually by the two Christian Associations to acquaint the new student with Willamette's organizations, songs, traditions, and rules. It offers an opportunity to become informed about the student government and activities. A comparison of the last issue, which is the thirty-third volume, with the few that have been preserved from early years, shows the increase that has come about in the number of student activities and the shifting from the Literary Societies to honorary and departmental, or specialized, organizations.

WILLAMETTE SONGBOOK

This year marks the first Willamette University Songbook published by the Student Body. Formerly, the now defunct Websterian Literary Society during its years of active interest in school life had charge of the book. The Songbook, published about May 1, contains all the winning songs of Freshman Glee together with other selections of importance, bound so that it can be placed on a piano. This book promises not only to be useful, but to truly perpetuate the songs for which Willamette has become famous.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

DR. JOHN O. HALL

Dr. Hall, head of the department of forensics and public speaking, came to Willamette University this year from Columbia University, where he did teaching and tutoring. Willamette's forensics have been unusually extensive, and the ascendant success is a tribute to Dr. Hall's coaching. The termination of each season in debate and oratory has given the University higher prestige among other schools and confidence to attempt greater projects.

MEN'S DEBATE

The question for debate this year was: "Resolved: That all Nations Should Immediately Relinquish all Governmental Control in China, Except that Usually Exercised by Consulates and Legations." The negative team, composed of Charles Redding and Robert Witty, and the affirmative team, composed of Lars Bergsvick and Thomas Potwin, have won much honor for Willamette and their debate work has been of excellent quality. The affirmative team has had but one debate, that one with University of Southern California.

Charles Redding and Robert Witty, of the negative team, after three debates at home, participated in eleven debates with coast colleges on a three-thousand mile tour, losing but three decisions.

WOMEN'S DEBATE

The women's varsity debate teams completed their 1927 season undefeated. The question debated was "Resolved: That congress establish a national board of censorship to control the release and exhibition of all motion pictures." Williamette won from O. A. C. in a dual debate 5-1, and W. S. C. in a single debate 2-1. The affirmative team was composed of Elaine Chapin, Senior, and Margaret Pro, Freshman, and the negative team of Hazel Newhouse, Senior, and Irene Breithaupt, Junior. There were eleven on the debate squad, Gaynelle Beckett, Marjorie Nelson, Barbara Gallaher, Jean White, Bernice Mulvey, Elizabeth Atkinson, Lydia Childs, Margaret Pro, Elaine Chapin, Irene Breithaupt, and Hazel Newhouse. Adelia Gates was manager.

The history of the participation of women in debate at Willamette University is but a repetition of the entrance of women into all forms of activity. Women occasionally represented Willamette on mixed debate teams in the early days; however, from 1911 to 1917 there was a faculty ruling which prevented women from participating in intercollegiate debate.

In 1920, the first all-women's debate schedule was adopted. The teams were Ina Moore and Helen Hoover, affirmative, and Lorlei Blatchford and Myrtle Mason, negative. McMinnville, P. U., C. P. S., and O. A. C., were defeated, while only one debate was lost to C. P. S. In 1922, Williamette won a dual debate from W. S. C., and C. P. S. Debates were also won from McMinnville and P. U. The same year Willamette won from the University of British Columbia, the first W. U. debate ever held with a University of another country.

During the seven years in which the Willamette women have participated in intercollegiate debate, they have met fifteen different schools, winning a large majority of their contests.

ORATORY

OLD LINE ORATORICAL CONTEST

Charles Redding, Willamette, was awarded second place in the Old Line Oratorical Contest which was held in Waller Hall, Friday, March 11. His oration was entitled, "Portentious Symbols." Rebert Griffin, O. A. C., won first place with the oration, "The Strange Drane"

Willamette has always made a very creditable record in this contest since its inauguration among the Oregon Colleges about 1887.

STATE PEACE ORATORICAL CONTEST

Robert Witty, second year varsity orator, represented Willamette at the State Peace Oratorical Contest held at Pacific College, Newberg, April 8. This contest, as well as the Old Line and State Extemporaneous Speaking Contest, is sponsored by the Intercollegiate Oratorical Association of Oregon of which Victor Carlson, Willamette, is President. Willamette has not been annually represented in this contest, but has made a good record when an orator has entered. Leland Chapin won first place in 1925.

STATE EXTEMPORANEOUS CONTEST

Walter Iliff represented Willamette at the State Extemporaneous Speaking Contest held at Pacific College, Newberg, April 8. The general subject was the Central American Situation. This is the first time such a contest has been held by the I. O. A. O.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE ORATORICAL CONTEST

Robert Witty, who won second place last year, represented Willamette in the Pacific Coast League Ornatorical Contest held in Waller Hall. Willamette became a member of this league, which includes W. S. C., Whitman, O. A. C., U. of O., U. of S. C., Stanford, and Willamette, in 1924. Last year was the first time Willamette entered an orator.

PACIFIC COAST EXTEMPORANEOUS CONTEST

Walter Iliff represented Willamette in the Pacific Coast League Extemporaneous Contest held at the Orgon Agricultural College. Willamette took first place in this contest both in 1924 and 1926.

THIRD INTERCOLLEGIATE ORATORICAL CONTEST

Charles Redding, veteran debater and orator, spoke for Willamette in the Third Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest on the Constitution.

THE FORENSIC COUNCIL

The Forensic Council organizes and promotes the forensic activities on the campus. The council endeavors to maintain the forensic activities of Willamette University up to the standard which becomes a school belonging to the Pacific Coast Forensic League. Willamette University has long ranked high in forensic work, and it is the purpose of the council to uphold the standard of previous years and to advance to higher goals.

This year Adelia Gates was chosen manager, and with the cooperation of the Forensic Council, arranged a debate tour of three thousand miles through Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana, and Washington.

WALTER WELBON Coach

"YOU NEVER CAN TELL"

The Theta Alpha Phi and guest players presented, as a fitting climax to Homecoming, Bernard Shaw's play, "You Never Can Tell."

From the point of view of individual adaptability for rendition of widely differing characters, the cast was finely chosen, and the performance was in itself conclusive evidence of the concerted efforts of the cast and the efficient coaching of Walter Welbon.

For many years the Women's Glee Club has made successful trips both in Oregon and Washington. This year under the leadership of Professor Hobson they presented a program of classical, semi-classical, and college songs. Miss Esther Palmer, harpist, and Miss Genevieve Junk, reader, assisted the club in its concerts.

Previous to the organization of a Ladies' Glee Club in 1908 a mixed quartet had been the construction of the club in the construction of the club in the assumed a prominent position on the campus, which it not only has maintained but has continually made stronger by virtue of its untiring efforts to produce the best in music.

This year the Men's Glee Club made two concert tours—one to Eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho, and the other to Southern Oregon. The first trip included the following towns: Portland, Nampa, LaGrande, Baker, North Powder, Beaverton, Caldwell, Mountain Home, Enterprise, Elgin, Pendleton, and Hood River. On the Southern Oregon trip the Club sang in Roseburg, Coquille, Marshfield, Grants Pass, Medford, Klamath Falls, and Ashland.

In addition to these extensive tours, the Club gave notably successful concerts in many valley towns: Jefferson, Woodburn, Silverton, Monmouth, and McMinnville.

The Willamette University Glee Club was organized in 1900 by Professor Francesco Seeley, then Dean of the School of Music. Within two or three years the Club began making annual concert tours, and since that time has appeared in practically every city and town in the Pacific Northwest. In 1924 the Club participated in the first Northwest Glee Club Contest at Portland, and placed second. No contest has been held since that time, but friends of the Club feel that at the next contest Willamette will place second to none.

WALLER HALL

The Historic Temple of college song and memory since its doors first opened to students on October 21, 1867.

Builded by pioneers, who gave sacrificially of their meager means, it stands a memorial to the faith of the Old Northwest in its first university.

In spite of sixty years of use and two fires which destroyed its interior, the Historic Temple still stands to honor Alvan F. Waller, who spent years securing the funds for its erection.

1926 SQUAD

If the 1926 football season had been a thoroughly normal one with an old coach who knew his men and had the usual number of experienced players returned from the previous year to fill the gaps in the line-up, the season would still be called successful, but in view of the fact that this year was Coach Keene's first year at Willamette and that he was working with men who were entirely new to him, the season goes on record as being a good one and giving a basis for higher hopes for the future.

The number of men turning out for football was larger than it has been for several years, and the men were all good enough to furnish a more than usual amount of competition for positions. The competition was so keen that not a single player had any basis for believing that he had his position securely won. By reason of this fact every football candidate was out working all the time, whether in actual play or in practice.

The team was supported more faithfully and enthusiastically by both townspeople and students than it has been for many years. A real foundation was laid for building up a Willamette spirit, a fact which also augurs well for the future.

At the end of the season the following men had fulfilled the requirements which gave them the right to wear the official "W" or to add another bar on their arm: Bican, Cranor, Ferguson, Hartley, Jungblom, Lang, McKenzie, McMullen, Mort, Mumford, Rhodes, Ruch, Versteeg, Waddill, Winslow, Woodworth, and Zeller.

By graduation the team will lose only two men, Captain Rhodes, tackle, and Hartley, tackle. Both these men have a long record of participation in athletics behind them and will be missed greatly although there is a group of aspiring underclassmen eager to fill their places.

Three Willamette men were placed on the Northwest Conference all star team by Mike Moran, official conference referee. Bican, playing his first year of college football was placed on this mythical eleven as center, with McKenzie, another first year man, as a running mate at guard. Hartley was given the tackle berth on the second team.

Although not all the experienced football men will return to school next semester, the outlook for the coming season is far from gloomy.

In a typical first game of the season encounter, fraught with many costly fumbles and innumerable penalties, but indicating little as to the real strength of either eleven, Willamette University lost to the University of Oregon.

The Bearcats revealed a woefully weak offense, making yardage but once in the game, but on the defense, the line held, time after time forcing Oregon to resort to wide end runs and forward passes to gain yardage. Also at various times during the game the Willamette line displayed unusual ability at breaking through and spilling the opposing backs before they were well under way.

Displaying an improved type of playing over that shown in the Oregon game, the Willamette University Bearcats held the Washington Huskies to a 28 to 0 score.

Until about the last minute of play in the first half, the score stood even with neither side having a point, but just before the end of the first half Washington successfully got away with a pass which netted a touchdown.

The Bearcat defense, except in breaking up passes, showed up well. At one time during the first part of the game, Washington had about one yard to go in four downs and was unable to make it. However, during the second half the Bearcats weakened and the final score of 28 to 0 was the result.

In this game the Bearcats showed consistent defensive work on the line, Multnomah not being permitted to make a single first down through the line. Nevertheless, Multnomah was able to take advantage of Willamette's inability to break up passes.

The lone touchdown of Multnomah came early in the contest when Micklewait intercepted a pass and ran for a touchdown. Although there seemed to be rather a general doubt as to the correctness of the referee's decision, the score was allowed to stand.

Rhodes and Cloniger were the outstanding players for Willamette, while Carpentier was the outstanding player for the Clubmen.

The Bearcats, supported by an excursion of several hundred Willamette rooters, journeyed to Forest Grove and brought home a victory for the first time in six years.

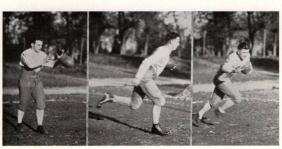

In the fourth period a Pacific half intercepted a Bearcat pass and raced fifty yards for a touchdown, but unfortunately for the final outcome the referee refused to count the score because the player had received assistance when he was about to fall.

Before a home-coming crowd of approximately three thousand people, the Bearcats outplayed and outcharged the C. P. S. team, but failed to deliver at the crucial time and as a result were vanquished.

The Loggers scored their points on a safety, after a punt by Hartley had been blocked. A clewsty executed double pass which sailed over the heads of the Bearcat backs into the arms of a waiting Logger end netted the other score.

Willamette scored in the third quarter when Zeller, after catching Cloniger's short pass over the center of the line, ran fifty yards to the eight yard line of C. P. S. before being downed. From this point the Bearcats went over for a touchdown on three bucks through center.

In the final game of the Northwest Conference Willamette was unable to overcome the proverbial Whitman jinx, and lost by a score of 10 to 0.

The Willamette eleven failed to work as a machine and fumbled at the most important moments. Whitman got within Willamette's forty yard line only twice during the course of the game, once when the Missionaries intercepted a pass and ran fifty yards for a touchdown, and once again when they kicked a field goal from the thirty-five yard line.

By dropping this game the Bearcats made their conference record to include one victory and two defeats.

BASKETBALL

THE SQUAD

By losing two conference games and winning eight, Willamette went into a tie with Whitman for first place. All attempts to obtain a play-off from Whitman proved unsuccessful, and the Bearcats had to remain content with an even break with the Missionaries.

The work of the team this year was characterized by excellent team work and the lack of a style of play which featured any particular individual player. A five man defense style of play modified to meet the peculiarities of the team was the type of play used.

The outlook for next year is probably the brightest outlook on the Willamette athletic horizon. By graduation only Hartley will be lost. His place at center will be a hard position to fill as "Hank" ended his collegiate basketball career by being placed on the Northwest Conference first team by "Nig" Borleske, and by being given a position on the second team by Coleman, official conference referee. However, among those returning will be Ashby and Ledbetter, guards, who were placed on the conference all star teams, Hauk, Litchfield, and Riedel, regular forwards, and Flesher, Minto, Zeller, and Tweedie, substitutes.

LEDBETTER, Guard

The conference season began with a tangle with Linfield, which was easily taken into camp by a score of 28 to 21. This game, which was played at McMinnville, was followed by a 41 to 19 victory in the Willamette gymnasium on the next evening.

Following a short interim in which the team gained experience by playing O. A. C., U. of O., and Albany, the Bearcats resumed their conference schedule by playing a game against Pacific at Forest Grove. It was in this game that Riedel first showed his ability at taking the ball from the tip-off. Both teams scored freely, and the game ended with a score of 59 to 45 in favor of Willamette.

Whitman was the next team to meet Willamette. The games which were played on the local floor were contests to decide leadership in the Conference. Willamette played a wonderful game on the Thursday evening of the first encounter with Whitman and went home to sleep soundly over a 32 to 22 victory. However, Whitman came back the next evening and was able to pack its baggage including in its impedimenta a one point victory.

At Tacoma Willamette did not fare as well as it might have, returning home with the short end of a 23 to 18 score. This game was marked by cautious playing by both teams; the failure of the Bearcats to convert fouls was chiefly responsible for the loss of the game.

HARTLEY, Center

HAUK, Forward

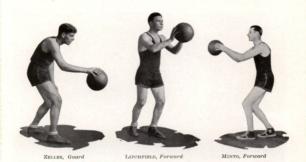

The College of Idaho proved to be an easy victim for the Willamette quintet in the two games played on the home floor, although the overconfidence of the local team made it appear for a while as if the result of the second game would be disastrous.

Pitted against the College of Puget Sound on the home floor, Willamette was able to win a savagely contested game. The Loggers fought with a possible title at stake. Gillihan, star for the Tacoma team, was not in suit because of a broken jaw, and it was only the fighting spirit inspired in the second half by Ashby, who played although handicapped by a plaster cast, that enabled Willamette to ring the victory bell.

FLESHER, Guard

The final game of the Conference schedule was played on the home floor against Pacific. With a new lineup, Pacific gave much more competition than in the previous game, but was not powerful enough to keep Willamette out of the win column.

EUGENE HIGH TEAM

STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Each year in March, during the State High School Basketball Tournament, the offineste Gymnasium is the center of attention of all the high school basketball fans of the state. Beginning in 1917 under the leadership of Coach R. L. Matthews, as a more or less district tournament, the tournament has grown until it is recognized as the great final climax of the high school basketball season in Oregon.

The eighth annual tournament this year was conducted under the joint supervision of the Oregon State High School Athletic Association and the Physical Education Department of Willamette University. The numerous details of the tournament were taken care of so well that all doubt which might have existed as to the advisability of holding the tournament at Willamette were removed.

The Eugene High School team fought its way successfully to the championship taking the coveted honor from Salem, which had been the winner on the two previous years.

The all-star team, selected by the officials of the tournament were as follows:

The Freshman basketball season this year was in most respects a very usual season, featured by no upsets or startling revelations of varsity material. However, this does not detract from the work of the team, which played a hard schedule and put up a good fight in every game. The team was composed of Hageman, McGregor, Braly, and Van Dyke, forwards; Steelhammer, center; and Yarnes, Ruch, Gaines, McCrow, Shellhart, and Mort, guards.

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE SQUAD

COACH SPARKS

A stirring chapel talk by Captain Stolzheise constituted Coach Sparks' official call for track and field aspirants. March first was the day, but several of the men had already been out for over a week, impatient for the call and unwilling to miss the advantage of the good weather.

The first day revealed the customary vacancies left by the departure of old men and the usual crop of Freshmen eager and willing to make the most of their opportunities.

The first chance to display their possibilities that was given the would-be track men in the inter-class meet on May Day. Competition was keen, especially between the Sophomores and Seniors. The final score gave the Sophomores first place, the Seniors second, the Freshmen third, and Juniors fourth. The finish of the mile run provided a real thrill, Winslow, representing the Sophomores, just managing to break the tape two or three yards ahead of Maynard, a Freshman, with Hathaway, a Sophomore, within four feet of second place.

GURNEE LENGTHENS HIS STRIDE

The first conference meet of the season was held at McMinnville against Linfield College on May twentieth. Rain had made the track muddy and nothing unusual in the way of records was realized. Although a Willamette man unintentionally fouled his opponent in the relay and lost the event, the Bearcat squad was able to bring home the glad tidings of a victory, 66 to 65 points. Stolzheise was high point man of the meet, taking three firsts, a second, and a third—totaling in all 19 points. Herb Deal was second, taking two firsts, two seconds, and a third—a total of 17 points, which more than earned him the right to wear a letter. Also Hathaway, by virtue of his work in the pole vault and the two mile, made another letterman as the result of the Linfield meet.

The following Tuesday, May 25, 1926, the Badgers from Pacific University met the Bearcats on Sweetland Field. The Pacific aggregation lost by the same narrow margin that Linfield had dropped the previous meet. Stolzheise again took individual scoring honors.

On May 29, 1926, Willamette University was the host to the other schools of the Northwest Conference in the first conference track meet. By reason of the fact that this meet was the first track competition under the new conference every first place meant a conference record.

Although the Bearcat team took only fourth place that does not minimize the excellent work done by "Stolz," who made exactly half of the points for Willamette. Stolzheise took first place in the discus with a throw of 119 feet 10 inches, second in the shot put, and third in the broad jump. Also Hathaway by taking in the two mile in 10:27 set what now stands as the conference record.

The prospects for the 1927 track season are not particularly promising. Flesher, Boothby, Zeller, and Hathaway, all members of the eight-man team which represented Willamette in the Northwest Conference meet are again enrolled in school. Maynard, who showed up well last year in the distance events, ought to do better this year. However, the greatest difficulty is in filling the vacancy left by the graduation of Stolzheise. In competition with any school he was always to be counted on to win his share of the points. As yet no point winner in the weight events has been developed.

MEN'S TENNIS

With the return of only one veteran, William Walsh, the tennis prospects at the beginning of the 1926 season on the face of things did not look overly promising, but as is the case in many Willamette activities the Freshmen came in to save the day.

In the first tournament held under the sponsorship of the Northwest Conference at Walla Walla, the Willamette team came out victorious in both the singles and doubles. Considering the fact that Ivan White and John Minto, the Willamette team, were both Freshmen, the victory spoke well for the two men and augurs well for the future of Willamette in tennis.

William Walsh, the regular leader of the Willamette team, made the trip to Whitman, but was unable to play because of an injured foot. In the singles White was able to win the Northwest title by winning over Johnson of C. P. S. and Penrose of Whitman. In the doubles, White and Minto were also able to win the conference doubles championship by eliminating first the C. P. S. representatives, and finally the Whitman team. These two victories brought the first Northwest Conference Tennis Trophy to Willamette.

During the 1926 season a new system of using a five man team instead of the usual three man team was inaugurated and proved so successful that the five man team will be used in the future. The men on the Willamette team were William Walsh, Ivan White, John Minto, Kenneth Litchfield, and Charles Nunn.

In the first match of the season against Linfield, the Willamette team won all six matches without extending itself to the limit.

Matched against the O. A. C. team, the Bearcats furnished formidable competition for the state school, but was unable to win more than two out of five matches.

With the return of all the men to school this year, the tennis prospects are good and Willamette ought to be represented by an improved team this year.

CONFERENCE TENNIS TROPHY

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Women's tennis team for 1926 was composed of Louise Findley, Margaret Raught, Louise Nunn, and Irene Clark.

On the same day that the men were matched against the men's team of Linfield, the Willamette women representatives met the Linfield women. Although the men won all their matches, the women were able to win only one match out of three.

In a tennis tournament with Pacific on May Day the women as well as the men were able to win all their matches.

All of last year's team are now in school and are out for tennis. For the first time in a number of years the women are having the benefit of the services of a coach, Lestle Sparks having taken the responsibility of giving them some pointers on the game. Although the effort to change their style of play may handicap some members of the team temporarily, a better type of playing may be expected for the future.

WOMEN'S ATHLETICS

Women's ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association of Willamette is composed of those girls who have participated in the various inter-class sports. The club sponsors all such contests, having for its purpose the promotion of physical development among the women on the campus.

This year, under the presidency of Anne Zimmerman, the organization has made a forward step by applying for membership in the National Women's Athletic Association. It is to be hoped that in the future this group will be able to introduce tennis and swimming as inter-class sports.

The W. A. A. hikes are becoming more and more popular, and are a distinctly new feature at Willamette. The Association, organized two years ago, is developing a spirit of sportsmanship among its members, and has now taken an established place among the campus organizations.

WOMEN'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Under the supervision of Miss Alida Curry, the women's physical education department has had an unusually successful year. Classes in clogging and tumbling have been offered in addition to the usual gym classes.

Miss Curry has taken an active interest in inter-class sports. She coached all class basketball teams which participated in the series of games played in February. The inter-class championship went to the Seniors. Members of the winning team were: Leavenworth and Erickson, centers; Raught and Flesher, forwards; Gates, Newhouse, Walker, Zimmerman, and Chapin, guards.

SOCIETY

September 18-

Arrived in Salem today. Lausanne Hall seems rather confused, but my helpful room-mate assures me all will soon be calm. I doubt it, but I'd hate to tell her so. It seems a bit lonely; I wonder what the folks at home are doing?

September 20-

Took an awful English exam today. Some strange girl, informing me she's my big sister, has tried her best to register me; I MAY be registered, but I think not. It's hard to tell, in all this bustle.

September 25-

Well, at last our room looks half way in order. Today I went out to the fair with an interesting Sophomore. We rode on the merry-go-round, which, of course, is most undignified. I enjoyed it a lot!

October 1-

Much rushing by an eminent sorority last nite; a slumber party—why so called, I can't imagine, for I didn't get a wink of sleep, and had to skip two classes this morning to get some much needed rest.

October 2-

The Y. M.-Y. W. reception was tonite. The gym looked very pretty, and the programs were darling. But oh—I lived through the receiving line—just! My date was a fellow-frosh. Pretty nice kid.

October 6-

Horrors! Roomy and I left the light on after hours tonite, and the proctor sneaked up on us before we had a chance to defend ourselves. Two whole demerits—ahem! It's really exciting. "Her first demerit!" No, I won't do it again—I have a better plan!

October 8-

Well, you couldn't guess who took me to the student body party at the Y tonite! A tall, most undignified Senior! He fed me rather a wicked line; he thinks I don't know it—but I'll fool him. The party was fun, especially the volley ball games and swimming contests. Ho, Hum! My candle (the afore-mentioned "better plan") is burning low.

October 15-

Before writing this, I have tied the doornob securely. No restive proctor must disturb me; you see, I got two more demerits last nite, just because I brought a stray dog up to my room. And if I get one more demerit—plunk go my week-end dates! Hence my unusual good behavior. Tonite I had my first "blind date." Roomy said he was clever; I'm not so sure. If he's clever, he concealed the fact from me pretty artfully!

October 16-

Kappa Gamma Rho gave a most lovely dinner tonite, honoring new members. I heard dire hints of the intense initiation just endured. I tried to learn facts, with unusual bad luck. Anyway, the dinner was great!

October 22-

Was at a perfectly thrilling sorority for dinner tonite. I ate very little, trying to decide whether I like these girls best. Absolutely, I'm undecided. I'd like to be a mouse in the corner some time, and see all the sorority girls when they're not trying to be nice—sort of a kitchen perspective, you know.

October 23-

This afternoon our football team beat Multnomah club, 29 to 6. It was

Oct. 25 - Foot Ball-Williamste 29 PRINTNOMA 6

SO exciting. Then our Frosh party was at the Y. tonite. This scratch list of dates is dumb, as a rule, but I drew a really thrilling man; dark, mysterious eyes, and raven hair.

October 29-

I attended society teas today. Now I've been to all four, and am most undecided as to which is my first choice. Guess I'll flip a coin.

October 30-

Big day! We played Pacific, and had an excific parade, and "The Prisoner's Song" was much in style. And the best is yet to come—we won! Were we excited? Oh, no, nothing like that. Excursions are the mostest fun.

November 2-

Some interested Sorors dashed me to dinner tonite. I'm so bewildered, and I know I shan't get a wink of sleep tonite. Roomy has her mind made up; not so me.

November 4-

More rushing—I'm most dead. The momentous question still remains unanswered—yet I have a hint of light on the subject!

College Hours

Page 157

November 5-

Big rally tonite. This is Home Coming week-end, and alumni are strewn around everywhere. There's just mobs of people here in the hall. I'm all awhirl. The boys had a pajama parade tonite.

serpentined through town, and then we brilliant Frosh put off fireworks on the athletic field.

November 6-

Sad, but true; C. P. S. beat us this afternoon, 9 to 6. Anyhow, we played better than they did! Tonite I attended the Theta Alpha Phi play, "You Never Can Tell." It was clever, but it didn't end right. My date was the interesting Sophomore who took me to the fair. Need I say more?

November 11-

Well, at last I've made up my mind. I've decided that my choice of sororities will be the one I've liked best all along. Oh, how I hope they send me a bid. I'll just die if they don't.

November 12-

Oh, what a party the Ball and Chain had tonite! Out in an old barn by Spong's landing. We got lost on the way out, but finally got there. We played games, and ate the best food. And ohpayer games, and are the oest 700a. And on—when I got back to the Hall, I found waiting for me a bid from the most wonderful sorority in the world! Γ m so happy I could just bust.

November 13-

This afternoon I was pledged, amid a great deal of weeping and kissing. I was never so thrilled in all my life. And then tonite I was at the Sigma Tau masquerade—my, it was great! Colored lights, great "woodsy" effect, clever programs of silver and green, interesting stunts, and delicious food. I dressed as an aviator; yes, my thoughts ran in high channels! almost didn't recognize Roomy; as a convict, she was a scream.

November 20-

The worst has happened! The Dean herself discovered my feeble little candle, and puff! Just like that go my dates this week-end. I am sitting here in my room quite dismally. Oh! I hear a sound; yes, my interesting Sophomore came to my rescue. He brought me a whole mince pie, and some ice cream, which I acquired through the hitchen door. The world is not so worse, after all. I guess this is more fun than the society party, any day!

November 30-

Well, Thanksgiving vacation is over, and I find myself back at Lousy Anne. We are busy getting ready for Open House on Saturday. Methinks that Roomy and I will have our room looking cleaner than ever before when the eventful night arrives. December 4-

It's all over; I gaze with relief at our clean, cozy room. Some of those people just stood around and stared, as if they'd never been in a girls' dorm before. One old lady assured me that she hadn't known the younger generation were such good housekeepers. "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." 'Nuf sed!

December 9-

The Beethovens have been raving about the Salem Artist Series for weeks. And tonite the Ukranian Chorus opened the series. My, their voices were beautiful. They sounded just like a pipe organ. Never have I heard such singing before. Their costumes were so bright and quaint.

When they sang "Oh Susanna," I nearly split. And the antics of the director were decidedly diverting. The undignified Senior and I enjoyed it muchly.

December 10-

The Style Show proved to be great tonite, and I had a keen date, which involved matters lots. We had a big feed afterward in our room; for a wonder, we didn't get caught. Oh, that angel-food cake!

December 11-

The frats held "Open House" tonite. The Seniors were all strangely dignified. How cleverly the boys had their rooms fized up! I'll bet they worked just as hard as we did to impress the visitors.

DEC.4 -

LAUSANNE

OPEN

December 17-

The Student Body party was very clever. My date had a bad cold, and we left early, much to my disgust. You see, I'd just sighted my latest secret sorrow over by the Christmas tree.

December 18-

Sorority Open House was tonite. Pledges needs must serve; it was fun, though. The public has gotten quite a look at the inside life of Willamette in these last three weeks, I fancy. I hope they've enjoyed it as much as we have.

December 21-

House parties tonite—Christmas trees—fun. Tomorrow our vacation starts, and home, sweet home. It seems ages since Thanksgiving vacation—I can hardly wait till time to start.

January 3-

Vacation is over; it was just too short. This vening I was at a marvelous concert—heard Ernst Von Dohnanyi. He was perfectly wonderful. If I could make my hands fly over the keys like that. Fd mit school right away.

January 7-

Large Frosh party tonite. Once more we journeyed to the barn. More fun, of course. One tragic detail I must not omit: breathlessly I dashed into the hall, one whole minute late. My punishment is pending.

January 8-

More fun again! The Kappas had a party; first, we went to the game, and saw ourselves beat Linfield. Then, on with the party. Over to the house we dashed. When refreshments were served—big announcement in walnut!

January 14-

Big time at the Alpha Psi line party tonite. We saw "Sunny Side Up"—and last but not least, we sang Willamette songs in the theater: "Dream On," and "I Love Willamette U." I sincerely trust that the audience was as completely charmed with our voices as we ourselves were!

January 15-

Society parties! After putting names of possible entries into a hat, I closed my eyes firmly and drew—the Frosh with the fascinating eyes! So him I took to said party. Not being well versed in the gentle art of asking for dates, I'm afraid I made rather a mess of it. He didn't seem to mind, though, and we had a great time.

January 22-

Tonite I was at a perfectly thrilling formal banquet, given by the Ball and Chain. The exact social position of this organization troubles me; first they give a most informal party in a barn, and then a formal banquet! Wiser heads than mine must settle this question!

January 25-

The Salem Artist Series is over, and Reginald Werrenrath proved to be the most marvelous artist of them all. I can still hear him singing "Danny Dever"—it was wonderful. I wish he had sung much longer; but artists are temperamental, they say.

JAN. 27 WHITMAN
VANGUISHED DASKET-BALL

January 27-

Whee! We beat Whitman! A perfectly glorious game; the victory bell never sounded so good to me. After the game, I saw a marvelous play—"Outward Bound." It was quite dramatic. The only difficulty was that I thought the girl went back to earth, and my stubborn date insisted that she did not—that she had to stay on the boat forever. Debates are interesting, don't you think?

January 28—

Utterly crushed! Whitman beat us; and we tried so hard to win. It doesn't seem right. Well, brace up—the championship may come dashing our vay at any second!

January 29-

More basketball—more fun! I saw the famous Salem Hi team play—they beat the O. A. C. Rooks. Then the O. A. C. varsity beat the Bearcats.

College Hours

These games were a bit one-sided, and we left before the last one was over. I hear we missed the best part of it.

February 4-

Yes, I survived exams, and was able to wobble around the trusty rink at the Jubilee! I decided to stay in Salem this week-end, because we have such big plans for tomorrow nite at the hall!

February 5-

Sh! Burn faintly, small candle, so that I may not be discovered. What a feed we have had! Chocolate cake, with perfectly gooey frosting—and cheese sandwiches, not to mention pickles, olives, cream puffs, and grape-fruit. Don't think I'll bother to go down to breakfast in the morning.

February 8-

Once more we're victorious in basketball. Albany college is the present vanquished foe. Hip, hip, hooray!

February 11-

The championship has bobbed! We've beaten C. P. S. Now for Pacific. Then we tie for first place.

February 25-

We've done it! Absolutely a thrilling game. I haven't been so excited in ages. I guess our team's as good as any!

February 26-

More Kappas have been initiated. More dinner to honor them, and such fun! This week it's been amusing to note the initiation stunts. Alpha Psis were boxing their pledges around this week, too, and they put on a clever "hoola hoola" dance between halves of the game last nite. And their efforts at pathetic love-making were ridiculous. I wonder if some of them weren't a little bit scared?

March 5-

Glee is over, and the best class won. I feel a strange drovsiness, perahps due to too much seven o'clock practicing. Our party was interesting; all were tired and silly. And I had a date with the new Frosh that entered this semester a regular sheik. He proved to be quite entertaining.

March 12-

The basket ball tournament is over, and I am so sick of games! Just one right after the other; and two days of it. Hovever, I was compensated somewhat by rating a date with the star player of the winning team. He wasn't very loquacious, but what of that?

March 18-

What a bustle; this weather is so lovely. I'm glad we're going home. I could never study, no, not even ornithology would win me, when the days are so warm and drowsy. Guess I'll go home and rest all spring vacation.

College Hours

March 28-

Did I say rest? Well, I canoed, played tennis, swam, and hiked, about twenty-five hours a day. My family saw me on rare occasions when I dropped in at home for a meal. Yes, I feel rested! Anyway, it's great to be back at school, and to see the gang. My worries are pressing, however;

March 29-

I still cannot decide which fraternity party to attend. Roomy is now preparing three slips of paper; which shall it be? I close my eyes, and draw Alpha Psi.

April 1-

What a party it was! I'm tired to tears, but I've enjoyed every minute of the evening. The talent of the brethren was fully illustrated, and I'm proud of my escort's part in the evening's entertainment. I haven't had so much fun in ages.

April 8-

Society parties; and I asked a man whose name was pretty, but whom I didn't know. I shart regret my choice, either; he was perfectly marvelous. The partu was clever, too.

April 15-

The Cub party was frantically exciting. Those boys are so lively, and they do think of the most interesting things to do! Springtime at Willamette is living up to its reputation, and fun and frolic reign supreme. I really catch a glimpse of my textbooks once in a while, as they repose in a neat row on my desk! But I have great worries again; I hear a step on the stair; out, trusty candle.

April 16-

Class parties were tonite. I had a good time, despite the fact that I was on the "eats" committee, and had one great time dashing around with food to my beloved classmates. I'll confide my troubles: I have eleven demerits. The house council scorns me with a stare; yet I look haughtly indifferent. I'm honestly scared to death. What WILL my punishment be?

April 22-

My week-end dates taken away; and on this of all week-ends; I'm heartbroken. Roomy will tell me about the Ball and Chain party tonite. But I'm utterly crushed. I did have the best date for this party. And I'm to miss the Kappa formal banquet tomorrow, which is simply ghastly. The house council was stonier than bricks. It's awful. After this I'll get in on time, datways.

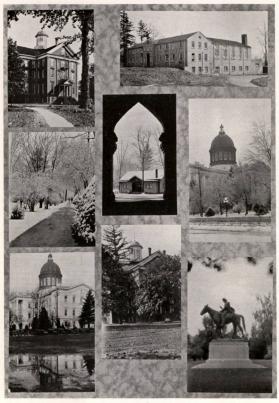

April 30-

The W Club picnic was fascinating. I never saw so many athletes all together before; and they're the jolliest crowd! Picnics are the best of fun, anyway. And I have perfectly thrilling dates for the fraternity picnics, which aren't so very far off now. • It's such a marvelous spring, that I'm just thrilled to tears. And Willamette is just the dearest school!

First builded by Jason Lee in 1840 to house the Indian Mission Manual Labor School.

On July 13, 1844, opened its doors for white children as the Oregon Institute, oldest school of the Pacific Northwest and the parent school of Willamette University.

Until Waller Hall was completed in 1867, it housed all the activities of both Institute and University.

Near the present Willamette gymnasium, a massive boulder bearing a suitable inscription has been placed to mark the site of this historic building.

DEDICATION

To the spirit of American youth which gives to its historic fathers its highest honors when, instead of paying idolatrous homage, it renders to them the critical and at the same time sympathetic respect merited by fellow human beings.

FOREWORD

This section of the Wallulah is, like Gaul, divided into three parts—this classical beginning ought to mitigate the evils of this part of the book, to some extent, in the judgment of that stern old Greek, Professor Kirk, namely:

- I. Antique history: Beginning with the Alpha and Omega of any Methodist institution, the passing of the collection plate on the good old ship, Lausanne.
- II. Modern history: Illustrated by the pen sketches of a futuristic artist—futuristic in the sense that he will some day be an artist.
- III. Contemptible history: Comprising the verbal vivisection and relentless expose of a few good natured campus figures and institutions.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The editor wishes to acknowledge the services of the following individuals: Charles Kaufman, who, with customary efficiency, neglected to read the proof; Adelia Gates, who was too busy telling Dr. Hall how to coach the debate squad to contribute any of her favorite alcoholic humor; Professor Richards, the high censor and defender of the faithful, whose occasional mental lapse permitted this section to contain something other than advertisements; Louise Garrison, who contributed several original jokes clipped from the latest copies of COLUMNS and the LAMPOON.

FINIS

Signing off—for the Statesman editorial of this morning exhausted all the other dashes available in type.

DEDICATION

The members of the satire department desire to dedicate this section to their major professors, with the earnest hope that this dedication may be as productive of good will and excellent grades as the formal dedication at the beginning of this book has been to its author.

Hirst Methodist Episcopal Church

Church and State Streets, Salem, Oregon

OLD FIRST CHURCH

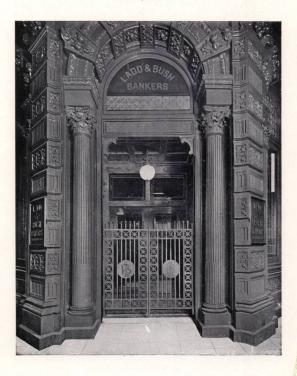

"Old First Church," which serves the student body of Willamette University, is a church with a glad hand, a glowing heart, and a glorious history. The fine edifice of red brick with its imposing columns and inspiring spire in full view of the campus was built in 1872, but the organization of the society dates back to 1834 when Rev. Jason Lee and his co-laborers came on their mission to the Indians and established a place of worship on this site. The first church was built in 1851 and was replaced by the present building in 1872. The church has had an honorable roster of leading ministers for its pastors and has always been the standby and supporter of the University in Christian Education. It is well organized and equipped for a full program of Chritsian work and provides opportunities for service for all ages and classes of people. Its broad portals swing open to the public and its dignified order of worship attracts and inspires all who come. Its large pipe organ and chorus choir lead in the music and its Student Forum Bible Class and Epworth League afford special privileges for the social and religious life of young people.

Meeting of the Bored

Remember how carefully we used to have to watch over the Board of Trustees to see that they didn't get us into any scraps? Well, one year it got noised around that the boys' shack on the mill stream wasn't "conducive to study, reflection, and thought," which meant that an occasional game of cards was played and that a bit of sweet cider might have soured there.

One evening while we were enjoying a little game during study hours, we heard footsteps outside the door—footsteps like those of a trustee on a desperate mission.

Action was what we needed most. Jerry threw the contents of a pitcher, that had been sitting on the table, into the fire. It blazed up cheerfully, lighting the room and proving without a doubt that we were'nt doing things in the dark. Al grabbed the leather case for holding his cards and tumbled them into it. Holding the card case so that it looked like a Testament he read, from the ace of spades and the jack of diamonds, Bible verses about the creation—things which he had learned when he was a kid. Chuck dropped to his knees beside a chair, concealing all of the chips on the chair bottom as he prayed devoutly for assistance in this great undertaking—we needed it, no fooling. And Harry, whose voice was especially suited to the "Warm, Warm, Mama Blues" type of music, rendered extemporaneously a highly original medley arrangement of "Nearer My God to Thee," "Holy, Holy, Holy," and "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder."

It worked too well, however. The Trustee was so delighted with our meeting that he stayed to speak twenty minutes on "The Millenium," and then offered to come and join us every night in our services.

Respects to Our Forensic Department

CHARLES REDDING

We of the Liberal Arts School feel greatly flattered by the attention which this noble follower of the law has seen fit to bestow upon us this year, although we would appreciate his very evident presence much more if he had continued to pay his respects to the ladies of the town and not beat our time with one of our own fair daughters. Yet, although we marvel at his eloquence and logic, we somewhat doubt the subtlety of his tactics. Nevertheless, we wish him luck and endorse him as our official candidate.

You, gentle reader, can now perhaps see our point clearly, while we, at this writing, for fear of attempting to play the role of prophets, hesitate to make our point more obvious.

ROBERT WITTY

Along with Patrick Henry's immortal words, "Give me liberty, or give me death," will go the utterance of this boy orator, "Mr. President, I move you that we have a tradition that the Freshmen keep off the grass," and the defense which this impassioned bit of declamation brought forth from a member of the down-trodden class when he arose and said, "Mr. President, I wonder if the upperclassmen have any smaller feet than the Freshmen."

Compliments to the Dead-Last Year's Editor

Walt wears a nice wholesome expression on his face and is what you might call inoffensive in his manners, but nevertheless he is always looking for trouble.

First, he allows himself to be elected Editor of the Wallulah. This fact alone ought to be ample proof of our premise that Walt is always looking for trouble (Ask dad; we know); but to make our contention the more true, he takes another Student Body office in the form of manager of the Glee Club and departs with his charges on a jack rabbit hunt into Idaho. Then, as a grand finale to our case we wish to say that if we are to interpret some of his actions in a prophetic spirit, we would venture the prediction that he is courting still more trouble.

A Case of Paradise Lost, or the Eternal Woman Asserts Itself

"Dee" is the product of our modern age with its woman's suffrage. As a positive proof of her emancipated womanhood are her connections with nearly every committee and organization on the campus. In fact, she is able to wear, or her dresser drawer to hold, a larger collection of tin gods than the most enterprising collegian usually gathers together in five or six college years. However, she has rather a contempt for all such things, as well as everything else. About the only article of faith to which she subscribes consistently, is that of seeing every new show which comes to town. However, it might be said in justice to her that of late she has shown a weakness for another hobby about as useful and as diverting as viewing the latest release of John Gilbert.

Willamette University College of Law

The College of Law was established, as a department of the University, in 1883. Its purpose is to provide a thorough legal education for students who are fitted by their maturity and previous academic training to pursue professional study under university methods of instruction. The curriculum covers three academic years, and is calculated to afford an adequate preparation for the practice of law in any jurisdiction of the United States. Special attention is paid to problems of local law in the State of Oregon.

This school is fully accredited by the State and Federal authorities for the payment of benefits to those entitled to them under the returned soldiers, sailors and marines educational aid and vocational training acts.

The College of Law of Willamette University stands high in the estimation of the Supreme Court of Oregon as evidenced by the following extract from a letter written by the Supreme court to the President of the University:

"In our examination of applicants to practice law in Oregon, we have always found the graduates of the Willamette Law School as fully and well prepared as the graduates from any of the law schools, including the leading colleges of the United States, and graduates of the Willamette Law School have repeatedly taken first honors in such examinations. We have also observed that many of the alumni of the Willamette Law School have taken high rank in the practice of their profession, and are among the prominent and useful citizens of the Pacific Northwest, thus reflecting credit not only on the law school, but on the Willamette University, which they regard as their alm mater."

The College of Law has several special advantages. It is located in the capital city where the Supreme Court is almost constantly in session. The Law Department has exceptional facilities in its nearness to the State Library which contains more than 40,000 volumes, to which the law students have free access.

The law classes are held in Eaton Hall which is centrally located upon the college campus, directly across from the State Capitol. Law students are members of the Student Body of the University and have the opportunity of engaging in the various student enterprises and activities.

Requirements for Admission

Applicants for admission to the Freshman year must be at least 18 years of age and of good moral character. Each applicant must have satisfactorily completed a four years' high school course or its equivalent and one year's work amounting to 30 hours credit in the College of Arts and Science of Willamette University or its equivalent.

HOW ABOUT A FRATERNITY HOUSE WHEN THE COOK IS GONE?

Two old settlers sat smoking in a cabin far away in the back woods. No feminine presence ever graced that settlement, and domestic arrangements were primitive and crude.

The conversation drifted from politics to cooking, and one of the confirmed bachelors said: "I got one of them there cookery books once, but I never could do nothin' with it."

"Too much fancy work about it?" asked the other.

"You've said it. Every one o' them recipes begun in the same way: "Take a clean dish,' and that settled me at once."

William Walsh

"Bill" is the most accomplished politician on the campus. Although he has crowned his career by permitting his friends to elect him President of the Senior Class, he is chiefly known about the school as a maker of student body officers, "Bill" was once an earnest student of the law over in the State Library, but of late he seems to have been thoroughly convinced of the need of a liberal education such as can be obtained in the northeast corner of the school library. Nevertheless, we wish him luck and trust that he will continue to tower above his fellows in at least one way.

HIS DUTY DONE

"Fellow citizens," said the candidate, "I have fought against the Indians. I have often had no bed but the battle-field and no canopy but the sky. I have marched over the frozen ground till every step had been marked with blood."

His story took well till a driedup looking voter came to the front.

"I'll say you've done enough for your country. Go home and rest. I'll vote for the other fellow."

I know that I shall never see A grade more lovable than E.

Atop the page its form is traced Across from where my name is placed:

A grade whose curves wreathe smiles all day

And drive my grayest mood away:

A grade which nobly has expressed

Prof.'s thought that I have done my best:

A grade I've striv'n so hard to

My brain has ached with growing-pain. Themes are writ by fools like

But only Prof. can write the E.
