WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY HISTORY

On February 1, 1842, a group of Oregon citizens met at the house of Jason Lee in order to establish a school which would meet "the wants of the children of Oregon, in which they may receive intellectual and moral training." This school, first known as the Oregon Institute, was granted a charter in 1853 as "Willamette University."

Since those first steps forward, Willamette University has seen a great deal of change, both in the campus itself and in the world around it. University Hall, later renamed Waller Hall, opened its doors in 1867, in the wake of the American Civil War and President Lincoln's assassination. A medical department opened in 1880 and merged with the University of Oregon in 1913, on the eve of the Great European War. In 1881, as French painters caused a scandal with a foolish new style called "Impressionism," the Willamette Catalog announced the opening of a women's college, acknowledging that "the plan of educating young women in the same college as young men has been subjected to much pointed and hostile criticism." Freshman Glee was first held in 1918 as a challenge set forth by the Freshman Class, and Lausanne Hall was completed in 1920, around the time Sigmund Freud was developing his theories of psychoanalysis and human behavior. In 1974, as the war in Vietnam staggered to a close and the Watergate scandal brewed, the Atkinson School of Management began classes.

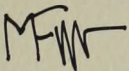

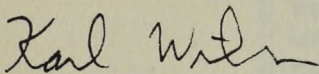

Today, as the world talks of Glasnost, the greenhouse effect, and global nuclear strike, Willamette stands with a new library, a newly renovated Waller Hall, and a growing sister campus, Tokyo International University of America. But more importantly, Willamette stands with developing minds who can use these resources to define questions and discover answers. For today, and for all its tomorrows, Willamette Is You.

Welcome to Volume 2 of Willamette Is...

In reviewing last year's volume, we found that the book was a bit scattered, and the individual sections did not quite knit into a cohesive whole. We strove to alleviate such problems this summer, working within the previous structure but solidifying the contents through logical analysis, consistently moving from broad topics to smaller subheadings to short details. Thus the book flows more evenly this year, and we hope it will serve as a useful and perhaps entertaining overview of student life at Willamette.

We'd like to thank Sallie Suby-Long, Brenda Freeman, Holli Davenport, and Angie Arregui for their patience, assistance, and good-natured support throughout the summer, and thanks to everyone else who passed along information or answered our sometimes silly questions.

Sincerely,

Karl Wilson
Matthew Ferranto

Willamette Is . . .

WHAT

Willamette is . . .
diverse. It's an actor and a chemist, a pianist and a playwright, a reader and a runner. It's a place to write and sing, to paint and dance, to kick and throw, to think and play.
It's apple pie and soy sauce,
paisleys and pinstripes, skateboards and soccer. It's worshipping and wondering and wanting just to dance. From computers to ceramics, meditation to marathons, the community represents an abundance of interests and activities.
Find one, join in, or start your own. After all, Willamette Is You.

Final recommendations and resolutions come from this group composed of representatives of all the living organizations and off-campus students. The only group which can overturn a decision of the Senate is a majority vote of the student body. All aspects of student life are discussed at weekly meetings in the Autzen Senate Chambers. Senate minutes are sent to all Senators to be posted around campus and copies are available in the mailroom. All Senate meetings are open to the Willamette community. Weekly reports from each of the Executive Officers and updates from the various committees, editors and managers are made periodically. Senator elections are handled every semester by their representative living organizations with 70 or fewer residents having one representative; those with more than 70 have two representatives. Off-campus students have five representatives.

Willamette Is . . .

WHERE

Willamette is . . .
here. It's upstairs in Eaton and watching the rain; it's under the clocktower without an umbrella; it's out by the Millstream feeding some ducks. It's the sun breaking onto the cupola on a fall afternoon, it's the frantic hum of the computer center near finals, it's the clank of iron in Sparks. It's sitting in Hudson's Bay or gazing up at the Star Trees. It's red bricks and cream trim washed by rain, warmed by sun, and obscured by clouds. It's bricks and trees and steel and grass, but most of all,
Willamette Is You.

Willamette Is . . .

WHEN

Willamette is . . .
now. It's a basketball game and a string quartet; it's some theatre and some jazz. It's convo and roundtable, concerts and recitals, classes and receptions. It's taking tea in Baxter on a Tuesday afternoon and staying awake in Smullin on the Wednesday morning after. It's sometimes a lecture and sometimes a party, and sometimes just THANK GOD IT'S FRIDAY!! One hundred forty-eight years of Willamette was then; right now, Willamette Is You.

Willamette Is . . .

WHY

	illamette is . . . forgiving. It's a time of change and development, of experiments and precedents, of searching and questioning. It's a time to acquire responsibility, to analyze our actions, and to gain respect for others' rights. It's a place to meet new people: professors and colleagues, friends and neighbors, and to discover new ideas and new perspectives. It's a step toward awareness and a preparation for the next and the next. And the next Willamette Is You.

Willamette community members are encouraged to resolve differences, conflicts and misunderstandings directly and informally. In most instances conflicts can be resolved by directly approaching the individual(s) involved. This includes any community member, such as students, residence staff, University employees, faculty members and administrators. If the discussion results in a resolution, this resolution shall be put in writing at the request of either party.

Formal Resolution:

When it is alleged that a student has violated the General Student Regulations, and the violation is one which cannot be resolved informally, the formal resolution process begins.

Academic Violations

Alleged academic violations will be governed by the Dean of the appropriate college for formal resolution.

Non-Academic Violations

All alleged non-academic violations will be governed by the following process:

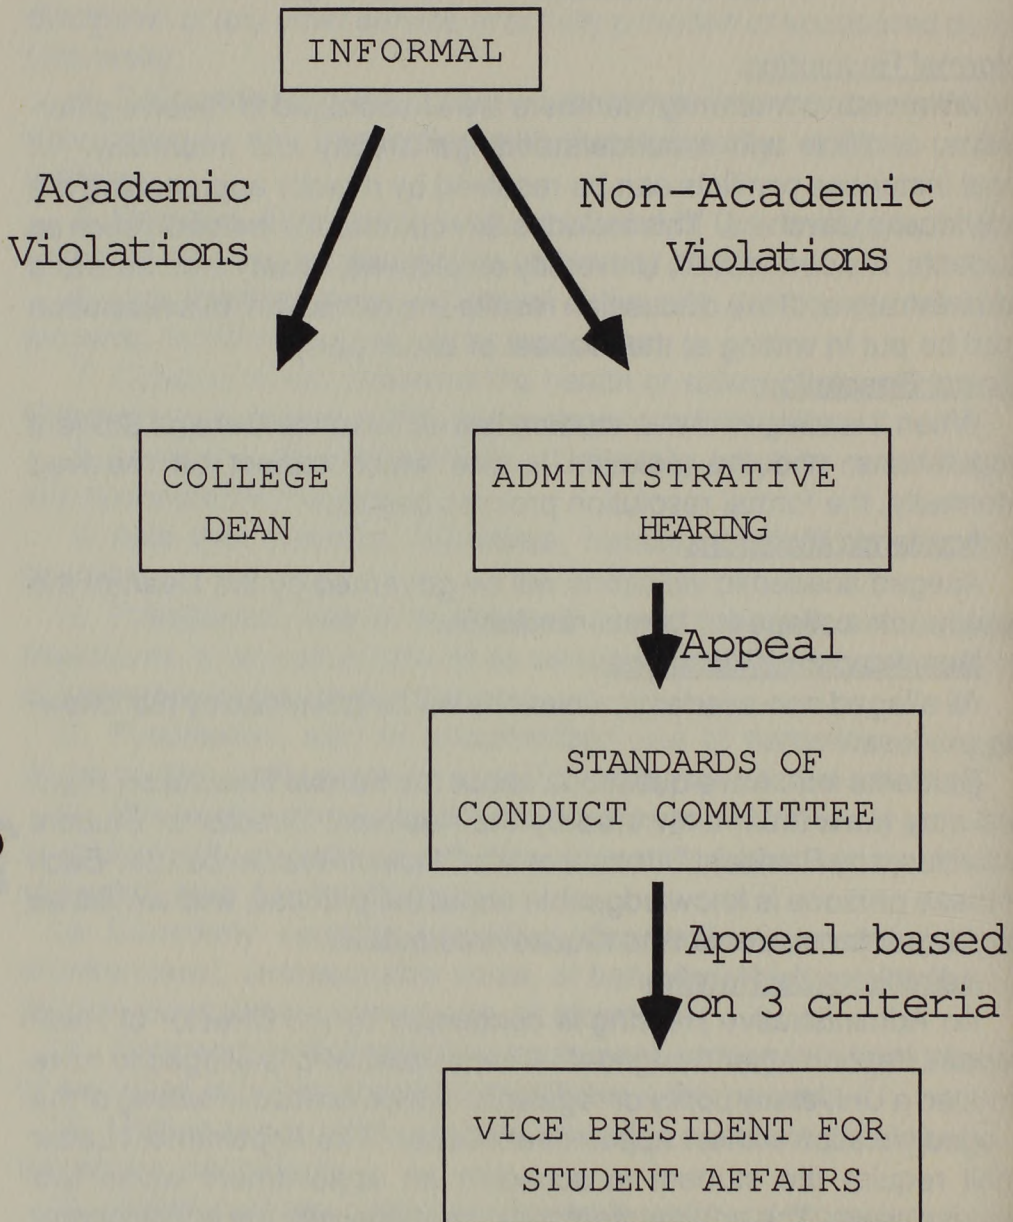

Students who have questions about the Formal Resolution Process may have them answered by the Assistant Director of Student Activities, any Resident Director, or the Office of Residence Life. Each of these persons is knowledgeable about the process, and will act as an advisor for students who request information.

Administrative Hearing

An Administrative Hearing is conducted by the Director of Residence Life, or his/her designee*. The student who is alleged to have violated a University policy or regulation will be notified in writing of the alleged violation with an Appointment Letter. The Appointment Letter shall require the student to schedule an appointment within two working days. The appointment must be made with the administrator designated on the Appointment Letter. The scheduled appointment must be held within five working days from the date of the Appointment Letter. Should a student or representative fail to schedule an appointment, or fail to appear at the scheduled appointment, the hearing will be held in his/her absence.

The hearing will be conducted by the administrator. During this hearing the following will occur:

1. The administrator will explain the process, and ask the accused student(s) if s/he has any questions about the process.
2. The administrator will review the information received about the incident.
3. The student(s) will then have an opportunity to present information in defense.
4. When all of the information has been presented, the administrator will render a decision.
5. If a violation of University policy or regulations is found, the administrator will make a decision about the appropriate sanction.
6. The sanction(s) will be discussed with the student(s), and a follow-up letter will be sent to confirm the decision.
7. The process for appeal will be explained and the student(s) will be asked if there are any questions about the process.

Appeal Procedure

Students have the right to appeal an Administrative Hearing decision to the Standards of Conduct Committee (Standards Committee). Appeals must be filed with the Vice President for Student Affairs within three working days from the date of the follow-up letter.

The Standards Committee will determine the appropriateness of the administrative decision based on a preponderance of the evidence available through testimony and exhibits.

*The Greek Ethics Board may hear cases involving Greek-related issues when deemed appropriate by the Director of Residence Life.

Preponderance of Evidence - Evidence which is of greater weight or more convincing than the evidence which is offered in opposition to it; that is, evidence which as a whole shows that the fact sought to be proved is more probable than not. Black's Law Dictionary, 1983.

Standards Committee:

The Standards Committee shall be governed by a commitment to fair process, education and prevention.

The Standards Committee shall meet at a regular time designated prior to committee appointments. People unable to meet at this time should not be nominated to the Committee.

Membership

The Standards Committee shall be comprised of three faculty, two staff/administrators, and five students. Student members shall be nominated by their respective student governing associations: three students nominated by A.S.W.U.; one student nominated by the Student Bar Association; and one student nominated by the Associated Students of the Graduate School of Management. Staff and administrators shall be nominated by the Vice President for Student Affairs. Faculty will be nominated by the Academic Council. Committee members will then be appointed annually by the President of the University.

Standards Committee members may serve for a maximum of three consecutive years. A faculty or staff/administrator member shall be selected by the Committee to serve as chairperson and conduct the hearings according to Standards Committee procedures.

Alternate membership

When the student government, Academic Council, and the Vice President for Student Affairs nominate persons to serve on the Committee, alternate members will also be nominated. One alternate from each category will be nominated and appointed. In the event of absence, unavailability, or disqualification of any member, alternate members will serve to assure full Committee membership. Alternate members will be selected from the same group, i.e., students replace students, staff replace staff, etc. Alternate members may participate in Committee meetings, but will not be present at actual hearings, unless they are serving as alternates.

Temporary Disqualification

The Committee shall consider, upon request of the accused student or any Committee member, the temporary disqualification of a Committee member. Disqualification will be on any grounds that will serve the interest of fairness.

Quorum

A quorum shall consist of the Chairperson and six members. The six members shall consist of a minimum of three students and three faculty/staff. A quorum is required for any official business of the Standards Committee.

Standards Committee Procedures

1. At least three days prior to a hearing, the student(s) will receive a written notice of the alleged violation. The notice will also contain the time, date and place of the hearing. Requests for postponement will be considered, if extraordinary circumstances exist.

2. Either party may review all information to be submitted at the hearing, including a list of witnesses. Parties shall not discuss the substance of the case with Committee members prior to the hearing.

3. The student may elect not to appear at the hearing; however, the hearing will then be conducted in the student's absence.

4. During the hearing, either party may be assisted by an advisor of his or her choice. The parties, and/or their advisors, may appear in person, hear all testimony, present any relevant information, call witnesses, and ask questions of any person present at the hearing. A decision to appear does not obligate either party to testify. Failure to testify will not be held against either party.

5. Hearings will be conducted in an informal manner with appropriate regard for the conduct of a fair, sensitive, and respectful process.

6. The Chair of the Committee is responsible for scheduling the hearing and notifying the participants. The secretary to the Vice President for Student Affairs will be available to assist the Chair with these responsibilities.

7. The Chair of the Committee shall make a tape recording of the hearing. The student may listen to the tape recording in the presence of the Chair.

8. The Chair may only vote either to create or break a tie.

9. After all information has been presented, the Committee will meet in private to discuss the case and reach a decision. Finding of violation of a University policy or regulation shall be based upon a preponderance of evidence.

10. The Committee will first determine the guilt or innocence of the accused party(s). If the accused party is found guilty, the Committee may affirm the Administrative sanction or substitute the appropriate sanction.

11. All statements, information, or comments given during the hearing will be held in strictest confidence by Standards Committee members.

12. After the hearing, the Chair of the Committee shall notify both parties in writing of the Committee's findings.

13. If immediate removal from campus is warranted, such removal will take effect immediately upon actual notice to the student. This notice shall be accompanied by notice of a hearing before the Standards Committee as provided for in paragraph #1 above.

Appeals to the Vice President for Student Affairs

Students may appeal the decision of the Standards Committee to the Vice President for Students Affairs based on one of the following criteria:

1. Procedural error which was significant and prejudicial;
2. Significant new evidence which was not part of the Administrative Hearing;
3. The penalty imposed is clearly excessive.

The Vice President will review the information from the Standards Committee hearing and determine if one of the criteria for appeal exists. If so, the Vice President will then either affirm, or alter the decision of the Committee.

IMMEDIATE REMOVAL FROM CAMPUS

If the presence of a student poses a potential threat to the physical safety or emotional well-being of a member or members of the Willamette community, the Vice President for Student Affairs may remove the student from campus pending decision by the Standards Committee. The procedure for such removal is specified in Standards Committee Procedure #13.

SANCTIONS

1. Warning: The student is given written notice, which becomes part of the University record, that future violations of the Standards of Conduct may result in the imposition of more serious sanctions.

2. Community Service: The student is required to render a designated number of hours of labor in the service of the academic or off-campus community.

3. Restitution: The student is required to reimburse for personal injury costs or replace or restore damaged, stolen, or misappropriated property.

4. Fine: The student is required to pay a designated amount of money to the University as penalty for a violation.

5. Disciplinary Probation: The student's participation in University life is placed on provisional status, with or without loss of designated privileges.

6. Suspension: The student's participation in University life is severed including denial of enrollment, attendance and other University privileges, loss of all fees and academic credit for the semester in which the suspension takes place. As applied to student organizations, this sanction is equivalent to loss of University recognition and all privileges associated with such recognition.

7. Expulsion: The student's participation in University life is severed indefinitely, including denial of enrollment, attendance and other University privileges, loss of all fees and academic credit for the semester in which the expulsion takes place.

8. Other: In consultation with the student involved, the Standards Committee may impose other sanctions as deemed appropriate and reasonable.

PUBLICATION AND REVISION OF THE STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The Standards of Conduct will be published in the annual Student Handbook. Additional copies will be available in the Office of Student Activities.

Proposed revisions to the Standards of Conduct may be submitted by any member of the University community to the Vice President for Student Affairs who will refer the proposed revision to the University Student Affairs Committee for action.

Recommended revisions of the Standards of Conduct by the University Student Affairs Committee will be forwarded to the Vice President for Student Affairs for approval, publication and implementation.

STUDENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES 2

1. Students who believe that a faculty or staff member has violated their rights have the responsibility to discuss thoroughly their complaint with that faculty or staff member. Students in the College of Law shall be governed by the College of Law Student Complaint Procedure.

2. In the case that students and the faculty or staff member involved are unable to resolve their differences, students should then discuss the complaint with the immediate supervisor of the faculty or staff member. After the initial meeting, the faculty or staff member, the superior and the student may meet if all parties agree.

3. If students are not satisfied by steps one and two, they should submit a written complaint to the Director of Residence Life, if the matter is non-academic, or the Dean of the College if the matter is academic. In cases involving rights or a matter which is not readily categorized as either academic or nonacademic, the Director of Residence Life and the Dean of the College will review the situation together and decide which classification is most appropriate. The Director of Residence Life will appoint someone other than a member of the teaching faculty upon request of the student to assist in drafting the complaint. Upon receipt of the written complaint, the Grievance Board will be composed of five members—one student and one faculty member from the Student Affairs Committee, one student from the Student Senate, one faculty member from the Faculty Council, and the appropriate Dean who serves as Chairperson. The student and faculty or staff member are each entitled to four preemptory challenges. Copies of the complaint will be sent by the appropriate Dean, to the faculty or staff member involved, the superior, the student, and the members of the Grievance Board.

4. Within ten class days of receiving a copy of the student's complaint, the faculty or staff member involved shall submit a written response to the Grievance Board Chairperson. Copies of the response shall be given to all persons who received copies of the student's complaint.

5. The Grievance Board will convene within fifteen class days of receiving the response. After reading and discussing the complaint and the response, the Grievance Board may request personal interviews with the faculty or staff member and student involved and third parties who are knowledgeable about the matter. Request for a personal interview with the committee may also be made by the faculty or staff member, or the student, or by the above-mentioned third parties. In the event that these interviews are conducted so that the parties appear separately before the committee, taped transcripts of such interviews will be available to the faculty or staff member and student involved. If such interviews are not deemed necessary, the Grievance Board shall write a recommendation and rationale upon reading and discussing the initial written complaint and response. Copies will be sent to the student, the faculty or staff member, and the superior.

6. If after ten days, the Grievance Board is aware that no action has been taken on its recommendation, it may forward its recommendation to other levels for further action (e.g., President, appropriate Vice President).

7. A written appeal to the Chairperson of the Grievance Board may be filed within five class days after the receipt of the recommendation. Upon receipt of the written appeal, the Chairperson of the Grievance Board shall submit a copy of the original complaint, response, all testimony, Grievance Board recommendations and rationale, and the appeal to the President of the University.

8. All proceedings of a Grievance Board shall be kept confidential and not noted in the student's permanent record.

9. The student who desires to use the procedures must file a written complaint by the end of the next semester after the time s/he believes his/her rights were violated.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act 3

PURPOSE

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, Public Law 93-380, effective November 19, 1974, is intended to ensure a student's right to inspect and review his/her educational records maintained by an educational institution or agency, or by an individual acting for such an institution or agency.

Willamette University institutional policy is consistent with the intent, guarantees and safeguards embodied in the legislation. Departmental policies may vary procedurally but are to be in alignment with institutional guidelines.

3. Access:

a. A student is entitled to review educational records with a member of the faculty of the department maintaining the file.

3. Confidential Materials:

Access is permitted to information placed in educational records after the effective date of the legislation, November 19, 1974 (except for the psychiatric and financial records noted in B,2a and b and C,2, and confidential letters and statements of recommendation placed in files prior to January 1, 1975). A student will be permitted to waive access to future confidential recommendations pertaining to admission, application for employment or receipt of honorary recognition.

Students will be permitted access to confidential letters of recommendation placed in files prior to the effective date only if the student arranges for the writer of the letter to inform the Departmental Custodian of Student Records in writing of consent to the review.

Unless the student waives access to letters of recommendation filed after January 1, 1975 which were solicited with a guarantee of confidentiality prior to the effective date of the legislation, or letters in which the writer claims confidentiality, such letters will be returned to the writer with an explanation that compliance with Public Law 93-380 requires that such correspondence be open to student review. The writer will be encouraged to resubmit the letter in accordance with University policy.

University application instructions and evaluation forms will apprise students and writers of the access rights of students to letters of recommendation. Letters received after the effective date of the legislation may be reviewed by students except where conditions described in the previous paragraph exist.

4. Psychiatric, Medical and Psychological Records:

Students may designate a physician or other licensed medical and/or psychiatrist, medical or psychological counselor to examine files to ensure correct interpretation of data.

5. Access to Records Procedure:

Students requesting access to educational records must establish their identity to the satisfaction of the University Custodian of Student Records by furnishing a student identification card and a current semester registration receipt. A University form specifying the information requested must also be completed. Forms are available in the Office of the Registrar and from other departments maintaining educational records.

A separate file of completed forms is to be maintained. Departments will be asked for statistical information indicating the types of data requested to enable the University to recommend modification in the law based upon experience on the Willamette University campus.

6. Third Party Access to Information:

Third parties may gain access to information contained in educational records provided that a) written authorization is obtained from the student, and b) other individuals will not be permitted access to the information. All information given a third party must be accompanied by a statement that "In accordance with Public Law 93-380, access to information, without written student permission, is prohibited."

Information will also be released at the discretion of the University in certain emergency situations. A student will be notified when information is released in compliance with a judicial order or pursuant to a lawfully issued subpoena.

HEARINGS AND APPEALS

1. Hearing to Challenge Content of Student Record:

- a. A student is entitled to a hearing to challenge the content of an educational record or to request modification of the information contained therein.
- b. The department custodian of the record in question may agree to the requested change in matters of fact^s after review of the file with the student. An administrative hearing may be requested by the student if the departmental custodian of the record disagrees with the contention of the student. Hearing requests should be directed to the Registrar as the University Custodian of Student Records.

c. Hearings will be conducted by a University faculty member appointed by the Vice President for Student Affairs. A hearing will allow written and/or oral argument from the student in support of the request for modification. Other oral or written testimony supporting or contesting modification will also be admissible.

2. Appeal of Hearing Decision:

Notice of an intention to appeal the decision of the University Custodian of Student Records should be filed with the Vice President for Student Affairs who will review the report of the hearing officer and render a decision. Willamette University Alcohol Policy

Willamette University neither encourages nor discourages the use of alcoholic beverages, but it does condemn the abuse of alcoholic beverages. Whether or not a person drinks alcoholic beverages is a personal decision, but individuals are held accountable for making decisions about their behavior within the context of Oregon State Law and University rules and regulations. In addition, it is understood that individuals are held responsible for the effects of their decisions on others within the University community. The alcohol policy and the procedures for its implementation have both an educational and a regulatory emphasis. They are intended to serve the following objectives:

- 1) to promote responsible behavior and attitudes among all members of the University community;
- 2) to educate students concerning the use and effects of alcoholic beverages in order to encourage responsible decision-making;
- 3) to help individuals experiencing difficulties associated with the use of alcohol.

EDUCATION

The University acknowledges a responsibility to educate the campus community regarding responsible alcohol use by creating programs and services to meet specific needs. In addition, efforts will be undertaken to ensure that Oregon State Law and University regulations are understood by all who are affiliated with Willamette. Individuals must recognize, however, that we must all assume responsibility for educating ourselves, since ignorance of laws and regulations is no excuse for irresponsible or illegal behavior.

REGULATION

A. General Policies

1. Alcohol may not be served or consumed in any outdoor areas of the campus.
2. Direct or indirect sale of alcohol is prohibited.
3. Alcoholic beverages will not be served or consumed at events where attendance is open to those other than invited members of the Willamette community and their guests.

4. Alcoholic beverages will not be mentioned or implied in publicity for an event.

5. Alcohol will not be the main focus of an activity.

6. Appealing, non-alcoholic beverages and food must be served at all activities while alcohol is being consumed or served. Food and non-alcoholic beverages (excluding mixers) must constitute at least one-third of the total refreshment budget for a particular activity. Food and non-alcoholic drinks must be displayed prominently with alcoholic beverages.

7. The area used for an activity at which alcohol is served or consumed will be cleaned by users immediately following the activity (or clear and specific arrangements must be made to have it done).

8. For a summary of Oregon State Law regarding the sale and consumption of alcohol, see appendix A "Excerpts from Criminal Code of Oregon, 1985," and the published document University Standards of Conduct, available from the Director of Residence Life or the Director of Student Activities.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY ALCOHOL POLICY IMPLEMENTATION PROCEDURES

A. Policies Governing the Use of Alcohol in University Residences

As student homes, University residence halls are in a unique position to offer students the opportunity to learn responsible ways of relating to one another. University residence halls include fraternity houses, sorority houses and independent residences. Among the serious educational and social issues facing students today is the intelligent and responsible use of alcohol by both the person who chooses to drink and the person who chooses not to drink. Students will be held directly responsible for the destruction of personal or public property, the violation of the safety or rights of other persons, the violation of any state or federal law, or the violation of any other campus regulations which may occur while they are under the influence of alcohol. Such behavior will result in disciplinary action by the University or by local, state or federal law enforcement.

All incoming students shall participate in an alcohol education program sponsored by Alcohol Consumption Education (A.C.E.) and offered each fall during Opening Days. All living organizations shall sponsor one alcohol education program each semester. By the third week of classes Fall Semester, all living organizations must have scheduled their alcohol education program with A.C.E. Fall Semester education programs must be completed by Thanksgiving vacation.

1. All sections of the "Regulations and Policies Governing Student Behavior" as outlined in the University Standards of Conduct shall apply to the alcohol policy.

2. In addition to the above, failure to observe any of the following shall constitute a violation of the University policy and may subject the individual(s) or group(s) to disciplinary action.

a. Consistent with Oregon State Law, private gatherings in individual rooms will not be considered social functions and need not be registered, but occupants and participants are responsible for abiding by all University policies. Any gathering in an individual student room where alcohol is present may not exceed a safe and manageable occupancy for that room.

b. Any consumption of alcohol in residence hall common areas (i.e., any area other than a student's private room) must be registered and confined to the approved space.

c. To register a common area event, the following conditions must be satisfied:

1) University events are planned for University students, therefore, non-university-age individuals (e.g., high school students) may not attend University social events where alcohol is served.

2) The event must be open only to those who are members of the sponsoring living organization(s) and their invited guests while alcohol is provided.

3) Willamette participants in the event must produce identification (i.e., Willamette University I.D.) that proves they are a currently enrolled Willamette University student. Any Willamette University student's guest must produce identification (e.g., driver's license, University I.D.) verifying University-age status.

4) Students are responsible for their guests.

5) An event in a residence hall will not be an open invitation, all-campus event.

6) A residence facility social event where alcohol is present may not exceed a safe and manageable number of people (i.e., 200) at any one time.

7) All entrances and exits of University residences are monitored (i.e., organizers arrange to have students at the doors to control traffic flow) for the duration of the event.

d. Student Body Activity Fees may not be used for purchase of alcoholic beverages.

e. The planning group must fill out an Alcohol Use Request Form for approval by the residence governing body.

f. The residence hall governing body must, by majority vote, approve any activity at which alcohol is to be served.

g. Following approval of the governing body, the plans for the event along with the request form must be reviewed and signed by the Resident Director prior to submitting the form to the Director of Residence Life.

h. The Director of Residence Life, or designee, in consultation with the Head Resident and the sponsors of the event, will approve or reject the proposed use of alcohol at the activity within two working days of receiving the request form at the Office of Residence Life. If denied, the reasons for the rejection will be provided in writing and include their relevance to the Alcohol Policy and regulations of that policy.

B. Policies Governing the Use of Alcohol in Other University Facilities

1. Consistent with the above guidelines, alcohol may be served or consumed in the following buildings on campus (at planned group activities only) as long as the occupants and managers of that building have agreed it is appropriate.

- a. University Center
- b. Playhouse
- c. Art Building
- d. Smith Fine Arts Building
- e. Law School
- f. Graduate School of Management

2. Any activity at which alcohol is served or consumed must first be approved with the appropriate building manager (e.g., the University Center) or other person administratively responsible for the building. The Alcohol Use Request Form will be completed and submitted to the Director of Student Activities.

3. The activity will be confined to the registered or designated area only.

4. The activity must be cleared on the University Master Calendar.

5. Activities at which alcohol is served or consumed in non-residence hall facilities will be held primarily for and by members of the Willamette community. Others wishing to serve alcohol in University facilities must receive specific clearance from the Director of Student Activities.

C. Procedures for Enforcement (To be included in the University Standards of Conduct under "Policies," Section IV, B, 1.)

In addition to violations of the specific provisions of the policy governing the use of alcoholic beverages, the use or misuse of alcoholic beverages which results in violations of the General Student Regulations will result in disciplinary action.

1. The Director of Residence Life or respective building managers shall be responsible for the enforcement of the policy governing the use of alcoholic beverages. In addition, any other member of the University community may refer violations of that policy to the Director of Residence Life or respective building managers for possible action.

2. The following steps will be implemented in the enforcement of the policy. However, the steps need not be followed sequentially since certain violations may require stronger action.

a. A verbal warning may be issued by the appropriate staff person. After two (2) verbal warnings in any given semester, a formal written warning shall be issued by the staff person involved.

b. A formal written warning may be issued. A written warning shall detail the specifics of the violation, expectations for future behavior, and the consequences of further violations of the policy. Any violations subsequent to the first written warning in a given semester will result in referral to the Director of Residence Life.

c. Referral to the Director of Residence Life for further action may be made for any violation of the alcohol policy. As outlined in the University Standards of Conduct, either a hearing with the Director of Residence Life or the University Standards of Conduct Committee will be held. When a referral for action is made, it would either be made after other avenues had been pursued or in response to a very serious violation. Therefore, the expectation would be that a penalty other than a warning would be in order.

d. A member of the residence life staff may stop an activity at which alcohol is served or consumed if there is any problem which cannot be corrected immediately.

D. Corrective Measures and Penalties

Alcohol Policy Violations: Violations of this policy will result in the imposition of one or more of the penalties listed below. Also, if deemed necessary, the University Standards of Conduct Committee or the Director of Residence Life may request an assessment by a professional counselor or appropriate agency prior to the imposition of the penalty. The result of the assessment will be taken into consideration in the imposition of corrective measures.

1. Warning not to repeat the violation of the alcohol policy.
2. Participation in an alcohol education course.
3. Participation in on-going treatment by a counselor or appropriate agency.
4. In the case of a group violation, requiring the leaders to participate in an alcohol education course.
5. In the case of a group violation, requiring a minimum of 75% of all members of the living group to participate in an alcohol education program.
6. Suspension of the group's option to serve or consume alcohol. This may vary in length or time and could exclude the group from having social functions of any kind.
7. Other: the University Standards of Conduct Committee or Director of Residence Life may impose other penalties deemed appropriate and necessary including those outlined in the University Code of Conduct.

End notes:

·Passed by the Willamette University Board of Trustees October 16, 1982, as part of the official University Standards of Conduct.

PROCEDURE FOR SPONSORING AN EVENT WHERE ALCOHOL IS SERVED

INTRODUCTION

According to the Willamette University policy on Alcohol Consumption, any event where alcohol is served must be registered and confined to the approved space (i.e., any area other than a student's private room). For any event that is to be held in a living organization (i.e., residence hall, fraternity, sorority), the procedures outlined below must be followed. Any event not held in a living organization must be reviewed by the Student Activities Office in the UC.

PROCEDURES

1. Please familiarize yourself with the University Policy on Alcohol in the Student Handbook.
2. In accordance with the policy, each living organization must have an alcohol education program given Fall Semester. To schedule an alcohol education program, you need to call the Alcohol Consumption Education (ACE) Office (ext. 6212). Again, please consult the Alcohol Policy for specific details.
3. The sponsor(s), social chair and house president must meet with the Resident Director to discuss the event being planned and review the Check List for Planning Alcohol Related Events on Campus.
4. If, after discussion, the plans for the event meet the guidelines of the policy, the Resident Director will approve the forwarding of the Alcohol Use Request form to the Office of Residence Life. The Resident Director may determine the plans to be inadequate or inappropriate. In such case, the sponsor(s) may re-submit their request after appropriate changes have been made.
5. Advanced planning increases the success of an event. To properly discuss plans for an event with your Resident Director, you must meet with him/her before Wednesday noon for an event planned that weekend. Any events scheduled during the week must be submitted for review the week before the event is to occur (by Wednesday noon). All forms must be submitted to the Office of Residence Life by 5 PM on Wednesday.
6. Final approval of such plans will be determined by the Director or Associate Director of Residence Life. Resident Directors will be notified by 5 PM Friday regarding the status of the event.

7. Within two days after the event occurs, the sponsor(s), Resident Director and the Chapter or Hall President are to review the event. Problems, concerns, successes and changes for the next event should be discussed.

A successful campus alcohol policy demands a sincere effort from its student leaders and staff. Our implementation of these procedures will require a high level of cooperation, communication and trust from everyone. By working together, the policy will work for all of us.

Sexual Harassment Policy

This institution reaffirms the principle that its students, faculty, and staff have a right to be free from sex discrimination in the form of sexual harassment by any member of the academic community.

Sexual harassment is defined as an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship, or to subject a person to unwanted sexual attention, or to punish a refusal to comply or to create a sexually intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment. Sexual harassment is understood to include a wide range of behaviors, from the actual coercing of sexual relations to the unwelcomed emphasizing of sexual identity. This definition will be interpreted and applied consistent with accepted standards of mature behavior, academic freedom, and freedom of expression.

Sexual harassment in any situation is reprehensible; it is particularly damaging when it exploits the educational dependence and trust between students and faculty. When the authority and power inherent in faculty relationships to students, whether overtly, implicitly, or through misinterpretation, is abused in this way, there is potentially great damage to individual students, to the persons complained of, and to the educational climate of the institution. While a particular interaction must be offensive and unconsented to be defined as harassment, faculty members and other individuals in positions of authority should be sensitive to the questions about mutuality of consent that may be raised and to the conflicts of interest that are inherent in personal relationships where professional and educational relationships are also involved.

Individuals who believe they have been sexually harassed may obtain redress through the established informal and formal procedures of the institution. To complain of inappropriate actions students should first contact Frank Meyer, Vice President for Student Affairs. Complaints about sexual harassment will be responded to promptly and equitably. The right to confidentiality of all members of the academic community will be respected in both informal and formal procedures, insofar as possible. This policy explicitly prohibits retaliation against individuals for bringing complaints without a written, signed complaint. An individual found to be guilty of sexual harassment is subject to disciplinary action for violations of this policy, consistent with existing procedures.

Only students of Willamette University or others authorized by the University may reside in campus residences. Change from full-time status to part-time does not constitute cancellation of the contract. All freshmen and sophomores are required to live on campus unless they are married, over the age of 21 or living with parent(s). Exceptions to this policy are considered only in circumstances beyond the individual's control.

B. Occupancy

The term of the Residence Life Contract is for the full academic year or, if entered into after the start of the academic year, to the balance of the academic year. The University agrees to assign space and provide board only after the applicant has properly signed and returned the contract. By moving into a residence hall without a signed contract, the student obliges him/herself to all of the terms and conditions of the contract.

The period of occupancy for students who have made prior reservations begins for new undergraduate students with new student orientation and for returning students at 10 a.m. the day prior to the first full day of classes. Occupancy ends 24 hours after the last final unless otherwise specified. The period of occupancy for graduate students begins the day prior to orientation and ends 24 hours after the last final unless otherwise specified. This 24 hour time allowance may vary at semester break. The period of occupancy excludes semester break. Students will not be allowed to occupy a room prior to these official opening dates and after these official closing dates except under the following circumstances:

1. Graduating students, and other authorized persons remain on campus to participate in Commencement activities.
2. Student employees or volunteers brought to the campus prior to the beginning of classes to assist orientation of new students or to participate in the residence staff workshop.
3. By special written authorization from the Director of Residence Life or an authorized designee of the Office of Residence Life.

The period of occupancy for students who contract for room and board after the first day of each semester will begin on the effective date of their contract. There will be no reduction in cost for late arrival or early departure.

Rooms will be held for the first four class days of each semester unless prior arrangements have been made with the Office of Residence Life. After the fourth class day, the students who have not arrived in their assigned spaces will be classified as "no-shows". Contracts for "no-shows" may be cancelled and the spaces reassigned at the option of the Office of Residence Life.

Note: Actual physical occupancy of the room by the student and/or the student's possessions is not necessary to constitute occupancy. Your enrollment at the University and confirmation of your assignment by the Office of Residence Life is considered binding.

C. Interruption of Services

The University shall not be responsible for disruption or nonperformance of services due to circumstances beyond its control.

D. Room Assignments, Consolidation and Removal

Room assignments to campus residences will be made in the Office of Residence Life. Priority for residential assignments for new students is based on the date the enrollment deposit is received by the Admission Office. This date establishes the order in which preferences are granted and spaces are assigned. Types of accommodations and requested roommate preferences are honored whenever possible.

If a vacancy occurs in a multiple occupancy room, the remaining student(s) will be given 5 options in the following order:

1. Select a roommate of his/her choice within three days of the vacancy.
2. Accept a roommate referred by the Office of Residence Life.
3. Agree to move to another open space in a double or larger room.
4. Continue to occupy the room as a single at the single rate.
5. Continue to occupy the room as a double and be willing to accept a roommate at any time during the semester.

Rooms larger than doubles cannot be secured as singles unless options 1 and 2 are not available.

In the event of unforeseen emergencies or other situations, a residence or portion thereof may be closed and residents may be required to move from their originally assigned rooms. The University also reserves the right to immediately assign or reassign space and/or students for the benefit of the individual students and/or the living unit. In addition, any resident who violates the contract and/or rules and regulations covered by the Terms and Conditions For Room and Board may be required to withdraw from housing accommodations by the Office of Residence Life.

Failure to comply with the instructions from the Director of Residence Life to change rooms or withdraw from University housing accommodations after three days may result in the removal and storage of the student's possessions by the University at the student's expense.

E. Payment

The student agrees to pay room and board fees and properly billed charges (e.g., for damage, guests, etc.) at the time(s) scheduled by the University. Room and board charges are to be paid each semester in advance unless a deferred payment plan is arranged with the Business Office. Failure to complete financial arrangements with the Business Office may result in the cancellation of the Residence Life Contract For Room and Board by the University.

F. Cancellation After Occupancy

Except as specifically provided below, the Room and Board Contract may be terminated only for the following reasons: graduation, withdrawal for at least one semester, leave of absence, ineligibility to continue enrollment due to a failure to meet academic requirements, failure to enroll second semester, or marriage (no more than four (4) weeks prior to the wedding date). Residents who are still enrolled and leave the halls during the school year without a release from the contract continue to be liable for room and board charges which accrue against their accounts.

Residents who experience significant changes in circumstances beyond their control which would prevent them from fulfilling the terms of the contract and which cannot be resolved within the residence halls system may request a contract release application from the Office of Residence Life.

Application for a contract release does not imply automatic termination of the contract. The application will be reviewed and the resident will be notified as soon as possible. Residents are advised not to sign outside contracts or leases until they have been formally notified of their release.

The room and board contract is for the academic year or portion thereof if entered after the beginning of the academic year. However, a junior, senior, or other student who is 21 years old or older can be released from his/her contract if written notification is provided to the Director of Residence Life thirty (30) days prior to the proposed cancellation date. In the event of cancellation to move off campus, the student involved shall forfeit $150 due under the Terms and Conditions For Room and Board. The $150 forfeit fee will not be assessed to a junior or senior moving off campus if the contract is cancelled by June 15, 1989.

The contract cannot be cancelled at the end of the first semester unless the student qualifies under the conditions outlined above.

G. Responsibility for Damage or Loss

Student rooms and the furnishings provided therein are to be used in the manner for which they are designed. No University property, including room and lounge area furnishings, may be moved within the building or taken from the residences without the written authorization of the Resident Director.

The University acknowledges that depreciation may occur to the building, room, furniture and equipment due to reasonable wear and tear caused by normal usage. However, the student specifically agrees that he or she will be liable for damage or other loss incurred to the building, room, furniture and equipment which is in excess of ordinary wear and tear. This will include 50% of the responsibility for unassigned glass breakage in a student room. At the discretion of the University, an entire living group or portion thereof may be charged for damages or loss to public areas of the building (including bathrooms) when the person(s) responsible are unknown, or if known, they refuse to pay for damages assessed. Damage or loss within student rooms is the joint responsibility of the students assigned.

H. Loss of or Damage to Personal Property

The University is not liable for the loss of money or valuables, damage to any resident's property, or personal injury sustained on the premises.

I?

I. Keys

Students are responsible for picking up their room and outside door keys from the Office of Residence Life. During the year, students losing their room key will be charged $25 to recore the lock and $5 for the replacement of the key. Students are also responsible for returning their room and outside door keys to the Office of Residence Life. Failure to return a room key will result in a $25 charge to recore the lock for security of the next resident. Replacement cost for a room key and an outside door key is an additional $5 each.

J. Assignment of Contract

This contract is not assignable nor can space be subleased.

K. Guests

Students will be responsible for payment of all charges related to the presence of guests in their rooms, and for insuring that their guests comply with housing policies and general campus rules and regulations. Guests are limited to no more than three consecutive nights on campus. Consent to host a guest in an individual student room must be obtained by the roommate(s). The guest policy is in no way intended to provide the opportunity for or encouragement of cohabitation. Separate guest rooms can be rented through the Office of Residence Life.

L. Room Entry

It is the University's policy to respect each resident's right to maximum privacy in his/her room. In most cases, 24 hour notice will be given prior to entering a student room.

However, Student Affairs Staff and their authorized designee(s) may enter a resident's room with less than 24 hours notice for purposes of maintenance, loft inspections, emergencies, fire drills, to insure compliance with health standards or if there is reasonable cause to believe there have been violations of University policy or state or federal law.

M. Vacation Periods

Some residents wish to remain on campus during Thanksgiving and Spring vacations, although meals are not provided when classes are not in session. Only Willamette University resident students may reside in campus living organizations during these vacation periods. All residences must be vacated during semester break. This break will vary for TIUA students. Unauthorized individuals found within secured residences during these vacation periods will be considered trespassers.

N. Safety and Security

As part of the residential program, the University has taken steps to provide a safe and secure environment through the work of the Campus Safety Office and the residence staff. Appropriate room locks and outside door locks are also provided.

Willamette University is an open campus in the middle of an urban area. Students are urged to be cognizant of their own safety and security needs while on and off campus. An escort service is available by contacting campus safety.

Ultimately the responsibility for personal safety and the security of personal belongings rests with the individual student. Storage of belongings outside the academic year will be only at the individual's risk.

Miscellaneous

The following are prohibited in campus residences and/or on University property:

1. The use of electrical equipment such as electric fry pans, sunlamps, hot plates, or any type of exposed burners or open flame devices.
2. The sale of alcoholic beverages, and the use, sale or possession of narcotics and other illicit drugs. The use or possession of alcoholic beverages is permitted only as outlined in the University's Standards of Conduct.
