WELCOME

To the New Students, to Old Students, and to faculty—the Christian Associations of Willamette bid a royal welcome; to Alumni, to Trustees, to all other Friends—sincerest good wishes.

New students, we welcome you to our every activity. Enter therein and make good!

Study hard enough to get your lessons; take an active part in at least one branch of athletics; if you sing, join a musical club; affiliate yourself with a literary society; enjoy many friendships; be one with us in the Y. M. or Y. W. C. A.!

Old Students—we are glad that you are back to help make 1914-15 the grandest year yet!

Faculty, Trustees, Alumni and Other Friends—we appreciate what you have done and what you are going to do for us. Accept our loyal co-operation for a bigger Willamette.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

College of Liberal Arts

This is the very heart of the abounding life of the University, the center of its manifold activities. Its primary aim is to furnish courses of instruction leading to liberal education in cultural lines. However, the wide range of subjects offered in realization of this aim affords opportunity to those who do not complete one of the broad cultural courses to pursue selected studies preparatory to vocational training.

Dr. Gaylord H. Patterson, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, is very largely responsible for the great advancement of Willamette's scholastic standard. His noble ideals and untiring devotion to the welfare of the Old School have won for him the love and esteem of every student.

Kimball College of Theology.

The school purposes to give to the students under her direction a scholarly familiarity with the subjects that a minister should know, a deepening of Christian character, and real efficiency for life-work.

Willamette University owes much to Dean Kimball, who has given the richest years of his life and experience to the upbuilding of this department. Much gratitude is also due to Mrs. Kimball for the beautiful Theology Building.

College of Music.

There is no one art that can be mentioned, perhaps, of such significance as music. Its language is universal, and as such, reaches and effects, to a greater or less degree, every corner of the globe. Its cultivation for the growth of the aesthetic nature of the student is the purpose of the College of Music.

The unparallelled success of this department is due to the comprehensive and efficient instruction of Dean and Mrs. Mendenhall and their assistants.

College of Law.

The School of Law offers a three-year course of instruction by efficient men. Many of the leading Oregon statesmen are graduates of this branch of the institution.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

GENERAL

ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

The biggest organization on the campus is the Associated Student Body which includes all members of all departments. There is a compulsory student fee which is payable upon registration, and upon payment of which each student is given a ticket which admits him to any contest under the supervision of the Student Body, and in addition entitles him to one copy of every week of the "Collegian."

The magnitude of the work of the Student Body is appreciated when it is remembered that all student activities, such as football, baseball, basketball, track, tennis, debate, oratory, and the "Willamette Collegian" are under its control.

'VARSITY Y. M. C. A.

"Spend less than you earn, and you will be rich; eat less than you can digest, and you will be well; attempt less than you can accomplish, and you will be strong; love much, covet little, be a member of the Young Men's Christian Association of Willamette University, and you will be happy."

Would you be a well-rounded man? Then take into cognizance these things: you must be strong in physique, in mind and in your spiritual life; food, air, and exercise are prerequisites for such strength. The Athletic Field, the Gymnasium, and common sense will help you acquire the first quality; the class-room and literary society will be means for attaining intellectual powers; and the

Y. M. C. A. will play an important part in your spiritual development.

Do you ask in what way it will build up character? You will find your answer in its achievements. During the past year the Y. M. C. A. has been active along all lines of Christian work. That it is a powerful factor in the University is shown by its roll of members. There you will find the names of the representative men of the school, leaders, those who hold high honors, managers of track, baseball, basket ball and foot ball, the captains of these teams, the editor and manager of the "Collegian," and the president of the Student Body. They are in the Association for something worth while, and they will make it count in the life of the fellow who shows his desire to be one with them.

The Association is intensely practical. It takes upon itself the task of seeing that every student is made welcome to the school, comfortably located, and acquainted with others. No event is more highly appreciated than the annual "Stag Social" during the first week of school, when new students are taken into the democratic fellowship of Willamette and introduced to her various activities. The joint Y. M.-Y. W. reception also fills a clearly felt need.

Great emphasis is laid upon the weekly devotional meetings and these are always among the most enjoyable and most helpful gatherings that a man is privileged to attend. The meetings are quite informal, the music is rousing, and the speakers discuss problems and present thoughts of special interest to college men.

Other points to be noted are the free employment bureau which is conducted by the Y. M. C. A. and that the Association stands upon a sound financial basis.

No student who has chosen Willamette as his college home can make a mistake by lining himself up with this thoroughly representative, practical organization, which stands unalterably for everything that is highest and best in the life of the college and the individual.

Columbia Beach

This conference, held in June, in a beautiful wood near the ocean, is essentially a training school for those who desire to make the work of the Y. M. C. A. more effective in their colleges. Too much cannot be said concerning the pleasure and profit derived from it. Some of the great leaders of the Y. M. C. A. movement are present to lecture and discuss ways and means for profitably carrying on the Association work. Moreover, friendships and acquaintances with a hundred and fifty strong college men from other schools has the effect of broadening a man's horizon so that he can see beyond the narrow confines of his own college.

Ingratitude is the basest trait of man's character.

'VARSITY Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. of Willamette is a branch of a great world movement. It aims not only to develop religious life but serves, too, as a bond of sympathy between college girls. In order to give efficient service, the Association is divided into departments with capable and representative women as chairmen of each.

On Thursday afternoons for one hour only are held devotional meetings, which are in charge of the Religious Meetings committee. The idea that religious life is intimately related to all life is brought out by these meetings.

Mission study and Bible study classes are organized for the extension of the horizon of knowledge and for a broader sympathy with all humanity.

Through the efforts of the financial committee the various activities of the Association are managed. Dues, systematic giving, and May Morning Breakfast furnish funds for the budget. A large amount of said funds are lent to girls who attend Summer Conference at Cohasset Beach, Washington. Here hundreds of girls meet and learn new methods of Association work and receive spiritual uplift as well as spend ten of the most delightful days breathing sea breezes, playing tennis and wading in the surf.

The Extension Department of Wilamette's Y. W. C. A. has organized two branches, one at Salem High School and the other at the Chemawa Indian School.

The Summer Conference and Rest Room committee encourages girls to attend at least one Summer Conference during college, and also keeps the Rest Room cheerful with flowers, etc.

The Membership Committee works with the other committees and especially with the Social Committee to make each new girl feel at home in her new surroundings, to secure positions for them who are working their way through school, etc., etc.

The social life of the 'varsity is gauged by the Y. W. C. A. The first social event of the year is the afternoon at Chestnut Farm. At this never-to-be-forgotten time new girls and old ones meet on the green, eat their fill of apple and pumpkin pies, sing college songs, and play old fashioned games.

In brief, dear new friends, this tells you about our Association, but if you have any further questions, feel free to ask them. We were new once and others helped us. May we help you?

THE GIRLS WILLAMETTE CLUB.

The Girls' Willamette Club was organized during the school year of 1911-12 and comprises the choicest names on the girls' student roll. It came into existence as a concrete expression of that finer spirit which pervades our student atmosphere and radiates from its life inspiration and strength for the maintenance of the student's best in his athletic, social and literary relations with his fellows.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND

The Student Volunteer Band is an international organization, now in its twenty-ninth year, of all people who have as a definite aim, foreign missionary service.

The local Volunteer Band was organized in 1911 with nine members. This year twenty members met regularly for a systematic study of mission fields, etc. In this work Dr. Frederick G. Henke and Miss Laura Austin, returned missionaries from China and India, respectively, were a source of inestimable inspiration.

This year occurred the seventh quadrennial International Convention of the Student Volunteer Movement at Kansas City, December 31st to January 4th at which seven hundred and fifty-five institutions of higher learning were represented. Willamette's delegates were Ruth Young, Inez Goltra, Eric Ben Bolt and Professor Matthews.

The local branch of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association is one of the most praiseworthy organizations on the campus. It accomplishes its ends in comparative quiet, but its influence is an increasingly powerful factor in college life.

One of its most successful instruments is the system of contests, local, state, interstate and national. This year its orator, Mr. Frank Francis, won first place in composition in the national contest.

WILLAMETTE INSTITUTE OF SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

This is the newest association on the campus and was organized during the spring of 1914 to promote a more intense study of science, and to stimulate original thought and research in its various branches. An idea of the scope of this organization may be obtained from its motto, "Die Erde des Menschen Schemel Die Elemente Seine Diener."

Philodosian

The ideal of the Philodosian Society is three-fold—to give each member a practical knowledge of parliamentary rules, to keep in touch with the outside world, and to advance social life. To this end, meetings are held every Friday afternoon in the spacious and attractive halls in Waller Building. Here are read papers on topics of world-wide interest and here are discussed subjects vital to college women. Music of high class is rendered and parliamentary drill is participated in by all members. Nor, in the consideration of mental development, is the social nature neglected. Numerous and jolly are the parties in which the Philodosians and their brothers participate. Then, too, there is the annual Thanksgiving reunion which is exclusively Philodosian. Grandmother, grandfather, sons, and daughters and grandchildren gather round the festive family board to enjoy the Thanksgiving turkey.

It is in a literary society that a girl finds the opportunity to become the well-balanced woman she wishes to be, and it is there also that she will find her truest friends. Therefore choose your society early but with due deliberation.

Philodorians.

The Philodorian Literary Society of Willamette is the oldest organization of its kind, not only at Willamette, but in the Pacific Northwest. The object for which this society strives is the diffusion of knowledge among its members and the development of those latent powers which, without doubt, lie hidden under the shell of every masculine soul. The cosmopolitan spirit which pervades the Philodorian Society is especially worthy of note. Upon its roll all the affiliated colleges are represented, thus enabling the members to obtain a broader view of student life by coming into contact with men whose personal interests differ from their own.

Believing that the best way to develop literary and forensic talent is through social contact, programs are prepared and presented by the members each week during the school year, giving each individual a chance to display and develop his genius along these lines.

Adelante

The fact that the Adelante Society takes its name from the Spanish language and that its pin is a Greek Minerva shows the breadth of interest of its members. Its keynote is universal progress.

Founded in the fall of nineteen hundred and six, Adelante has all the charm and enthusiasm of youth. In addition, however, it boasts the refinement and culture of maturity.

It has in common with its Brother Websterians, very pleasant and artistic halls. Here every Friday afternoon are held the society meetings.

However, if the whole aim of the society were literary, it would scarcely fulfill its mission of making well-rounded, accomplished women. If you have never known the joys of a delicious chafing dish spread, or a moonlight launch ride with the Webs, you have yet to taste real bliss. Too, there are formal eveinings, given by the joint societies and at which every society loving girl is in her element. From them valuable training is received. So, as a society, the aim is woman developed to her best.

Websterians.

In the nine years of its existence, the Websterian Society has been a powerful factor in all student activities, with special emphasis on oratory, debate and general literary work.

Although hindered by lack of suitable quarters for the first four years, the Webs were making the general public sit up and take notice. Sufficient be it to say that if six out of seven Studentbody presidents are Websterians, the Websterian Society produces men of sterling integrity and extraordinary ability. Editors and managers of the "Collegian" and "Wallulah" and presidents of numerous student organizations show the power of Websterianism.

Meetings are held Wednesday evenings when rousing programs, consisting of literary and musical numbers, debate, etc., are rendered.

The Webs are always glad to receive new men of college rank, whose standards are high enough. Democratic simplicity in keeping with their illustrious namesake, makes all Webs meet on common ground, and when the final rites of initiation are administered the newly elected rejoice that they can say "Fellow Web" with the "understanding-feeling."

Adelphian Society

The Adelphian Society was organized in June, 1911, by the girls of the Academy. The aim of the society is to promote social and literary interest among girls in the preparatory department, and thus fit them for greater usefulness when they become students, and members of the college societies.

If you are an Academy girl, a visit to this society will certainly convince you of its merit and you will cast your lot with its lively, lovely lasses.

Criterion Society

This Society, for Academy men only, aims to develop in its members readines of speech and thought in public. To this end, debates, extemporaneous speeches, and discussions of current topics are prominent on its programs.

The society was organized by Academy members of the two college societies in May, 1911, beginning with a membership of twenty-five.

The membership is limited by constitution to forty active members, so hand in your application early.

Teutonia Verein.

This organization is composed of students who desire a more appreciative knowledge of German language and customs. One year of college German or its equivalent is a prerequisite to membership. Lively programs, conversations and games strengthen the bonds of intimacy between the student of German and the adventurous Teutons.

Under the efficient leadership of Professor and Mrs. Walsh Teutonia has progressed rapidly. This year "Neffe als Onkel" was very successfully staged at the Opera House.

The French Club.

This club includes all Salem people and W. U. Students with a speaking knowledge of French but who desire a more intimate acquaintance with the language and customs of the French people. Though in its infancy, the perseverance and enthusiasm of its members assure the literary world of its success.

MUSICAL

The Ladies Club and the Glee Club.

The musical clubs form a most attractive feature of the school and are far reaching in their benefit to the institution in general. The two most important musical organizations are the Glee Club and the Ladies Club. The latter is composed of thirty-six members carefully selected at the beginning of each school year. There are twenty men in the Glee Club. Every year one or more extended concert tours are made. This year a coast trip, from Astoria to Coos Bay, was taken. Also several Willamette Valley towns were visited.

The 'Varsity Band

For several years Willamette has boasted of a band. Although its membership has not been large, it has furnished creditable music for many student activities. The members are hailed as the best boosters of Willamette spirit in the University.

The College Orchestra

This musical enterprise consists of two violins, a piano, a trombone, etc., etc. Its membership is composed of the best musical talent in the school.

Domestic

Lausanne Hall Club.

This association includes all girls who reside at Lausanne. Regular meetings are held at which time questions of feminine interest are discussed. The Dean of Women, one of the patronesses, or some other competent woman frequently gives talks on hygiene, etiquette or some other practical subject. This Club is a strong social center, many delightful parties and receptions being given.

Kloshe Klub.

The Kloshe Klub is incorporated for three hundred dollars under the laws of the state of Oregon and its manager is under bond to furnish efficient eats for the sum of three dollars per week.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Willamette Collegian

The Collegian is the official college paper. It serves as a medium of expression for the students as well as a college news sheet. It is a six-column four-page weekly. The paper is under the supervision of the English Department and credit is given to its editors in proportion to the quality and quantity of their work.

The Wallulah.

The name given to the Junior annual is that of the heroine in "The Bridge of the Gods," an Indian story of the Willamette Valley. It is an illustrated magazine in which the deeds of the various individuals and classes are told. Its literary and artistic productions have real merit. The comic section records the thoughts of the wittiest people at their most inspired moments, and will give you something to laugh over when you have long left the college halls. It is bound in leather and is a fitting climax to the college paper.

The Hand Book.

The Hand Book is published at the close of each school year by the Christian Associations. It is a pocket edition of useful information of especial interest to new students.

"The Wallulah"

A Freshman should support it because it helps him learn what college spirit is.

A Sophomore should support it because he will help publish one the next year.

A Junior does support it because his class publishes it.

A Senior supports the Wallulah because he has formed the habit.

ATHLETICS

Every branch of athletics is under the direct supervision of the Student Body, and an athletic council consisting of the Athletic Director, one faculty member, two alumni, the president of the Student Body and two "W" men.

Each branch of athletics, track, tennis, baseball, basketball, football, etc., is managed by a manager and his assistant, elected by the Athletic Council.

Willamette Field is one of the best athletic grounds in the Northwest. It contains a football field, two baseball diamonds, a quarter-mile track, a grandstand, bleachers, four tennis courts and a gymnasium. This summer two asphalt courts are being built.

The University "W," the highest honor in the gift of the Associated Body, is awarded to students who have played a certain number of games on the 'Varsity team. Sweaters or sweater-coats with letters attached are presented to men who have met the requirements.

Football.

Football training begins at the opening of the fall term. Suits may be obtained from the manager, Harry Irvine. Come out and if you fail to make the first team, you will probably secure a position on the second squad.

Scores for last season:

Willamette	9	Alumni	0
Willamette	62	Pacific	6
Willamette	33	Chemawa	6
Willamette	6	Oregon	3
Willamette	60	U. of O. Laws	0

Basketball.

The Basketball season for 1914 was short but interesting. The 'Varsity five showed up well against the strong Multnomah team. Though the loss of Paul Homan, '14 will be keenly felt, Ex-Manager Bolt assures us of a strong team for the '15 season.

Baseball.

Baseball work begins in February, the first practices being held in the Stadium. Here the material is tried out and the best selected for the first nine. This year there were some exceptionally strong games with very gratifying results to the cardinal and gold supporters.

Tennis.

Tennis is under control of the Student Body, therefore, the courts are for the use of every Willamette student. Both inter-class and inter-collegiate tournaments are held.

Track and Field.

While field and track have always been strong at W. U., the great capability of Coach De Bra bids fair for a greater future. Also, many point winners will return for the 1915 season.

Soccer and Boxing.

Both Boxing and Soccer are infants and it remains to be seen whether they will stand the vicissitudes of growth and become strong members of the Willamette sporting family. Here's hoping!

ATHLETIC "W" MEN.

Football

Bolt, Doane, Farris, Flegel, Homan, Neustel, Pfaff, Rowland, Small, Torkelson and Van de Vert.

Basket Ball

Flegel, Homan, Pfaff, Rowland and Tallman.

Easeball

Booth, Gates, Homan and Lund.

Track

Mills and Small.

FORENSICS

Oratory.

Forensics are very progressive at Willamette, and especially so is oratory. This year the Peace Contest was tried for the first time and was successful. Other contests of special importance are the Prohibition Oratorical and State Oratorical.. The Inter-Society Contest is very interesting to the public and highly attractive to the ambitious, for the winner's name is engraved on the famous cup.

Debate

Debate is also well supported and by such men as "Zip" Savage, Seth Axley, Ohling, J. R. Bain, MacCaddam, Paul Smith and Ivan McDaniels.

The Forensic "W" Club is composed of men who have won awards in oratory and debate.

Following are its members:

Oratory—Bolt, Francis, MacCaddam, Stocker.

Debate—Axley, MacCaddam, McDaniels, I., Ohling, Savage, Smith.

STUDENT FESTIVITIES

The first all-college event of the school year is the Y. M. and Y. W. joint reception in Eaton Hall, at the close of the second school week. Here everybody meets everybody else and everybody is supposed to speak to everybody else he meets thereafter on the campus, whether he remembers his face or not.

The next important affair is the big Thanksgiving football party in the gymnasium where lads and lassies eat pumpkin pie, drink sweet apple cider and dance the Virginia Reel.

After the cruel "exams" of the first semester are o'er, the sick and afflicted sent to the sanitarium and the dead laid to rest, the "survivals of the fittest" hold sway in a grand "post-exam jubilee." If you would know what transpires in this secret assembly, then "struggle hard for existence."

Hurrah for George Washington's Birthday! 'Tis a legal holiday called Benefactor's Day, when Willamette students hold forth in honor of the loyal supporters of the University. At noon one of those indescribable student feeds is served at the gym. Athletic awards are bestowed in the afternoon the exciting inter-class basketball games are pulled off. In the evening there is a big party in the Society Halls.

The annual Frosh Glee is distinctly a Willamette institution and was originated by the famous class of 1912. The Freshman Class have entire charge of the Glee. Each class composes and renders a college song. The walls of Waller Hall for a time vibrate with the excitement of the occasion, then for a moment, there is breathless silence, the judges write their decisions, the committee in charge collects them. After a few teasing remarks the chairman discloses the verdict and the winning class goes wild with joy while the rest look enviously on. This year the class of '17 succeeded in presenting the pentant to itself.

Junior Week End includes the May Day events and is celebrated the Friday and Saturday nearest May first. The festivities for Friday are—the May Morning Breakfast served by the Y. W. Girls, a soccer game, a baseball game, the crowning of the May Queen, Maypole winding and other fancy dances and the Junior play at the Opera House. This year the class of 1915 excelled every previous Junior class when they staged MacKaye's "Canterbury Pilgrims." Saturday begins with campus work, after which a tennis tournament is held. At noon a student lunch is served and in the afternoon is pulled a baseball game and the annual tug-of-war between the Sophs and Frosh across the mill race. The Junior Prom in the evening is a fitting close to a most enjoyable week-end.

Commencement Week is the grandest and yet the saddest of all the year. It is then that the Societies vie with each other in Oratory; it is then that the Christian Associations give their farewell reception for the honor of the Seniors; it is then that the President entertains everybody; it is then that the Y. M. and Y. W. meet together for the last time in the year; it is then that the Seniors present their gifts and the Juniors, Sophs and Frosh as such for the last time, demonstrate their ability at "stunts;" and it is then that our Seniors pass out from our halls forever.

SONGS AND YELLS

In the Land of the Golden Sunsets.
(Winner of the Glee Contest, 1914.)

Words by Esthei Emmel, '17.

Music by Ruth Schuldt, '17.

In the land of golden sunsets
Where Willamette's waters glide,
'Neath the cooling shade of maples
Stands our school, the western pride.
Founded by true-hearted fathers
In the days of pioneers;
She shall strengthen youth and maiden
Through the coming countless years.

Chorus:—

Rah! for our dear Alma Mater;
Rah! or our football score;
Rah! for the men who defend her,
On gym or debating floor.
Ever to thee we'll be loyal,
True to the cardinal and gold;
Oh! Willamette, Willamette we love
thee,
Our school we'll forever uphold.

In our memories scenes will linger,
Familiar places we'll recall,
Mill-stream, bell-tower, hall and classroom,
Dear to Senior, Freshman, all.
High ideals to us imparted
By thy standards tried and true,
We are grateful, old Willamette,
Dear old school we love but you.

Here's to the Gold and Cardinal.
(Winner of the Glee Contest, 1913.)
Words by Kate Barton, '15
Music by Bruce McDaniel, '15.

In the westland stands a college
That in the by-gone years
Near a river's course was founded
By the sturdy pioneers,
Whose visions for the future
Of their beloved land
Led them through trials and hardships
With a firm and steady hand.

Chorus:

So here's to thy Gold and Cardinal,
And here's to thine ancient lore,
And here's to the hearts that beat for
thee,
Loyal forevermore!

Now the same old dauntless spirit
Still burns in every breast,
Urging on to new achievements,
Calling us to do our best;
And so within her portals,
While hearts are light and free,
Let's fill our cups to o'erflowing
For our dear old 'Varsity.

In the Golden future gleaming,
The mystic hand we see
Of success, bright and alluring,
Beck'ning to our 'Varsity;
We vow we'll heed her message
With hearts inspired anew,
And win the offered laurels
For our old Willamette U.

ring

Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
And every night when the moon shone bright

Across the canal he'd wade,
To hug and kiss that dusk miss
Right under a big bay tree,
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:

Hip, heck tra boom!

Qui bisum yah zoom!

Hulla Baloo, baloo balee!

Far out in the Golden Westland.

Music by Ava McMahon

Words by Edith Sherwood

Far out in the "Golden Westland,"

Where the calm Willamette flows,
Where the air is sweet with fragrance

And the giant fir trees grow,
There's a school we call Willamette

For which our fathers fought,
Center of Oregon's learning

Where true ideals are taught.

Chorus:

Then Rah! Rah! Rah! for Willamette

And Rah! Rah! Rah! for the nine;

Rah! Rah! Rah! for the football team

Who fought in sturdy line.

Then Rah Rah! Rah! for Willamette,

For the charm of her shadows cool,

For the glory of her sunshine,

Wilamette! Dear old school.

Her stately historic buildings,

The millstream sparkling near,

The aisle of whispering maples

Are filled with memories dear.

We view with delight the campus,

The seats and the ancient bell.

Come join with us and ever

Echoes of praise we'll swell.

Be proud of thy past, Oh, Willamette,

Of heroes who've won thee fame,

Then look on thy future, Willamette,

For greater shall be thy name.

In the past thy sons have labored

Thy sacred walls to raise—

And for aye shall they sons endeavor

To spread abroad thy praise.

Willamette! Grand Old U.!

Words by J. R. Bain, '16

Music by Lucile Kuntz, 16

On the margin of the river
Touched with parting rays of gold,
Where the dying sunbeams quiver
In th sky and on the wold;
Where the morning sun, with gildings,
On the towers in glory falls,
Stands Wilamette's statelv buildings,
Oregon's oldest halls.

Chorus:

Oh, come and let us loudly sing!
Sing Old Willamette's praise!
The mem'ries dear that 'round us
cling,
The joys of colege days!
The days of toil, the nights of fun,
Our athletes tried and true,
Sing al her glories, one by one—
Wilamette! Grand old U.!

Born in faith and reared in striving
In the dim days of the past,
By that stron^o faith surviving
Shall our Willamette last.
High ideals and grand traditions
Of this magic western clime
Have marked thy slow transitions
From the Past to Present time.
But while thy past is glorious,
Shaped by men and women true,
May thy future be victorious,
Alma Mater! W. U.!
May thy heroes' olden story
Ever thrill us thru and thru,
Make us heroes for thy glory,
Dear old Willamette U.!

To Willamette University.

By Jessie Young.

Music by Ray Smith.

In the sunniest Oregon Valley,
Where dwell men long famed for their zest,

Stands Willamette U., the dear old school,

The "Queen of all the Golden West."
Her towers pierce the heavens high

While rivals her beauty enhance,
And her Cardinal and Gold float to
the sky,

Upheld by loyalty's lance.

Chorus:

For our dear old Wilamette U.,

The 'Varsity loved so well,

The College leading all others,

As our conquests nobly tell,

We shall live and die for W. U.,

And do it with a will,

So here's to the best in all the West,

The greatest College still.

We traverse again those ancient halls,
Eagerly trace out hard learning's ways,

Note the carved lines on seats and walls,

Soft in the waning light of day;

Her pedestals by Time brushed past

Are but endeared by pangs of woe,

While smiles of memory illumine at last

Students' faces yearning to know.

Once more we see the baseball team

And our lips frame rah! rah! rah!

Our football team with warlike mien

Tread before us o'erwhelmed in awe.

Our praises shall ascend on high
While our heroes fight and win
renown,
And naught we know can e'er restore
The debt to them we owe.

To Willamette.

By Perry Reigleman
Music by Mendenhall

There's an old historic temple
Rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers;
Down the years its portal open,
Gathered wise ones to its fold,
Breathed the spirit of the Westland,
Cardinal emblem 'bossed with Gold.

Dear Old School! How strong we love
thee!

Round thy mem'ries how we cling!
Gladsome hearts beneath thy shadow,
Loyal hearts to thee we bring.
Old Willamette! How we cherish
All thy legends and thy lore;
Born upon the calm Pacific,
Guides onward evermore.

Spirit of the Golden Westland,
Breathing through the fathers'
tears.
Tells the story of the temple,
Bids us hope adown the years.
Sing, oh sing of Old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true,
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old School, our W. U.
