Acknowledgment

The editor and manager wish to express their appreciation for the assistance of the members of the Wallulah staff, of other students of the University, and of the advisory committee of the faculty.

Acknowledgment is also made of the courtesies shown by the Hicks-Chatten Engraving Company, of Portland, Oregon, the Dimm and Sons Printing Company, of Portland, Oregon, the Kennell-Ellis Studio, of Salem, Oregon, and the Weber-McCrea Company, of Los Angeles, California. These firms, by their unfailing co-operation, have made possible the publication of the Pat-Suk Wallulah.

*Drooping, she bends o'er pensive Fancy's urn
To trace the hours which never can return.*

—BYRON.

Herein we have recorded the events and pleasures of our college year. It is our sincere hope that we may have given lasting expression to those things which Memory holds dear.

HONORABLE ROBERT A. BOOTH

Dedication

In recognition of his interest in and devotion to Willamette University, his success in winning other influential citizens to the support of Willamette University, the universal acquaintance of the students with him and their admiration for him, the Student Body of Willamette University dedicates the Pat-Suk edition of the Wallulah to Robert A. Booth.

Nothing is more indigenous to the campus than the college year book. Athletics, oratory, Freshman clothes, even studying, are not exclusively college property, but a book like the Wallulah belongs to undergraduates. And they make the most of it.

It is an epitome of college days and college ways—not always of the lighter side, but largely a studied record of achievements. The college catalogue does not better reflect the development of the institution, for what is done by the students measures the work of the school.

The Wallulah is a chronicle, valuable and valued. The new and happy arrangement places a copy in the hands of every student. Today it will be read and chuckled over; tomorrow it will be read and sighed over. But in the sigh there will be the joy of re-living sweet and sacred college days.

Our grateful thanks to those whose labors made the book; our felicitations to those who are privileged to see themselves in it.

Carl G. Doney.

CARL GREGG DONEY, Ph. D., LL. D.
President of Willamette University

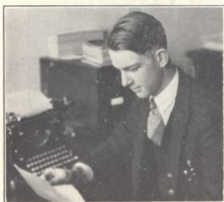

REV. G. O. OLIVER

After serving Willamette as a Field Representative, Rev. Oliver was recalled to assume the duties of Vice-President of the University. He has won many friends for the school among the citizens and the high-school students of the Northwest, and has proved his worth as a successful advertiser of the University.

MR. N. S. SAVAGE

Mr. N. S. Savage, the genial and efficient business secretary of the University, has been largely responsible for the success of the new arrangement for student tuition. His courtesy and justness are appreciated by all those who have financial connections with the University.

MR. N. E. BEAVER

Under the administration of Mr. Beaver the Registrar's Office has handled promptly and efficiently the mass of clerical detail connected with excuses and grades. He has been assisted in this work by Miss Eva Tacheron.

FRANK MORTON ERICKSON, A.B., A.M.
Dean of the College of Liberal Arts

DEAN FRANCES M. RICHARDS

Dean of Women

University students are constantly being reminded of the day when they shall walk out and face the world. That is all very well, but it behooves us to remember that the world is now tangible, and that we are now living as well as preparing for a career.

DEAN E. W. HOBSON

Dean of the College of Music

Without the parallel development of the spiritual and emotional sides of man's nature, physical and material prosperity avail nothing. The purpose of the Department of Music is to develop this natural tendency in the life of its students.

DEAN I. H. VANWINKLE

Dean of the College of Law

Willamette's College of Law is indeed fortunate in the high esteem which it enjoys, especially among the Bar of the Northwest, on account of the quality and thoroughness of its work. Its instruction, given by practical and experienced attorneys, its unsurpassed law library privileges, and the exceptional opportunities which its students have for observation of the trial work of the courts, enable it to render a maximum of service at a minimum of expense. Its increasing facilities and scholastic requirements keep it abreast of the constantly increasing educational standards for legal preparation.

May Day

The management of last year's May Day was given to Francis Ellis, who proved very efficient. At the festivities on Friday afternoon, Lucia Card was crowned Queen Lucia I. Her attendants were Elizabeth McClure and Jennelle Vandervort. In the evening the Junior play, "Mr. Pim Passes By," was presented at the Grand Theater. In the place of the usual Saturday evening carnival, "Hiawatha's Wedding Feast" was presented in Waller Hall under the direction of Professor E. W. Hobson.

Homecoming

Willamette's third annual Homecoming was held October 30-31 under the management of Charles Nunn. Many new features were introduced in the program. Instead of the usual bonfire, a serpentine through the down-town district and a rally on Sweetland field were staged. A student lunch and a play, which was presented by Theta Alpha Phi, were added to the usual program for Saturday. The week-end was well managed, and it marked one of the high points of the college year.

“Queen of the West”

Words and Music by Edith Mickey

I

The East may love old Harvard,
 The North love old Cornell;
 But the school of fame, whose noble name,
 Forever shall excell
 Stands proudly in the Westland
 Where friends are staunch and true;
 We love our dear old college,
 So here's to W. U!

CHORUS

Willamette, to thee we will be true,
 Willamette, we'll ever fight for you,
 We pledge our loyalty,
 Our homage pay to thee,
 Pride of all the West, you are the best.
 Willamette, our hearts we pledge anew,
 Willamette, our fealty to you,
 Faithful we will be
 With staunch fidelity,
 Willamette, queen of all!

II

Fling high our glorious colors
 The cardinal and the gold,
 Exalt the dream which stands supreme
 Wrought by the men of old.
 With eager hearts and voices
 And veneration true;
 Sing forth our acclamations
 Bold sons of W. U.

SENIOR FLUNK DAY

Wednesday, April 15, the Seniors, in spite of the rain, slipped away on their annual Flunk Day. The destination of the merrymakers was Taylor's Grove, and it is reported that Professor and Mrs. Williston were greatly relieved to get them all back safely.

KAPPA GAMMA RHO BANQUET

On Saturday evening, April 25, the seventh annual banquet of the Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity was held at the Hotel Marion. The long narrow table was appropriately decorated with numerous bouquets of pink and lavender tulips, and was set with places to accommodate sixty persons. Between courses of the dinner and afterward a program of toasts and musical numbers was given.

PHIL SWIMMING PARTY

Friday evening, May 15, the Phils enjoyed a swimming party on the west bank of the Willamette River. After a vigorous swim, the group played baseball and horseshoes. Singing occupied a short interval after supper, and the campfire proved to be the main attraction of the evening.

AD-WEB PICNIC

The Adelantes and Websterians held a picnic at Spong's Landing May 15. During the afternoon and evening the group went in swimming, played horseshoes, or utilized the boats and swings.

SORORITY FORMAL PARTIES

The sorority formals were held on the evening of May 16. The porches and the interior of the Beta Chi house were gay with Japanese lanterns, bright colored balloons and banks of flowers and greenery. The favors were big black spiders which the guests found by untwining the strands of a spiderweb interwoven in pastel shades upon the walls.

The desperate Delta Phi pirates frolicked at the Country Club. The affair was a pirate party and the pirate motif was carried out faithfully in the games, program, decorations and refreshments.

The Alpha Phi Alpha house was the scene of a delightful formal party. The living rooms were transformed into an old-fashioned garden, where wistaria hung from white trellises which formed dainty bowers.

JUNIOR - SENIOR BANQUET

One of the most enjoyable functions of the year was the Junior-Senior banquet, which was held Friday evening, May 22, at the Gray Belle. The great dining room was charmingly lighted and decorated. On the tables placed about the room were quaint bouquets of spring flowers. Covers were laid for more than one hundred.

FROSH - SOPH PICNIC

On May 22 the two lower classes buried the hatchet and smoked the peace pipe at a joint picnic at Riverside Dip. For the time being old feuds were forgotten, and the rival classes participated in baseball, horseshoes and other amicable demonstrations.

FRATERNITY PICNICS

Saturday, May 23, was the day given over to the annual fraternity picnics.

A merry crew gathered early in the morning for the Sigma Tau jaunt to Silver Creek Falls. The trip was made in trucks, and Fortune being with the carefree, no mishaps occurred. Delicious breakfast, hearty luncheon and appetizing dinner were served to the hungry horde who spent the day looking for the falls.

The Alpha Psi's held their picnic above Taylor's Grove. Hiking was the main feature of the morning, baseball in the afternoon, and singing and marshmallow toasting in the evening.

The Epsilon Delta Mu's journeyed to the banks of the Santiam River above Lyons. The day was spent in volley ball, hiking, fishing and eating. After an evening of songs and toasted marshmallows, the happy group returned home.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

On Monday evening, June 8, Lausanne Hall was the scene of President Doney's reception in honor of the Seniors, to which all students, faculty and friends of the University were invited. Pink and blue were the dominant tones, beautifully carried out in the dining room and the drawing rooms. About five hundred guests attended.

Fall

JOLLY JAUNT

The new girls of Willamette University were entertained on September 27 by the Y. W. C. A. at its annual hike to Chestnut Farm, known as the Jolly Jaunt. At the end of a street car ride and a half-mile hike, the group reached the farmhouse set in the shelter of chestnut trees. In this genial atmosphere everyone was soon at ease and becoming acquainted with everyone else. At the close of a merry afternoon the guests were served delicious refreshments and given small favors representing chestnuts.

Y. M. C. A. - Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION

Saturday evening, October 3, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. gave their annual reception to the students of the University. The library on the second floor of Waller Hall was artistically decorated with asters and ferns. The booklets in which signatures were to be recorded were distributed at the door, so that the students did not have to go through the receiving line unless they wished to do so. During the evening punch was served by the Sophomore girls.

JUNIOR TEA

The Junior Tea, which was held October 16 at the home of Mrs. W. E. Kirk, is always one of the charming events of the first semester. Flowers carefully chosen and arranged, gleaming candles, and a glowing fireplace made a lovely background for the welcoming of the new girls.

CLASS PARTIES

The first class parties of the year were held Friday evening, October 16. It is reported that the Seniors entirely lost their traditional dignity when they frolicked in the community hall in the outskirts of Salem.

The Junior party was held in Schindler's Hall, across the river. Stunts, both planned and spontaneous, featured the evening's entertainment.

The Sophomore party was truly a Hallowe'en affair, as anyone looking inside Chresto Cottage would have testified. The invitations, the games, the decorations—in fact, everything—was novel.

The freshmen gathered at the McKinley School to make merry. As this was their first party, they spent the evening in getting acquainted.

MISS RICHARDS' TEA

On Saturday afternoon, October 24, Dean Frances M. Richards was hostess at a delightful tea honoring the women of the University. Lausanne Hall was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums. Mrs. Carl G. Doney and Mrs. F. M. Erickson assisted in the receiving line.

PHILODOSIAN THANKSGIVING BANQUET

The evening of November 21 featured the annual Philodosian Thanksgiving Reunion Banquet, which was held in the Leslie Methodist Church. All the families, from the rich Van de Morgans to the boisterous Swatterbeans, were there to add their part to the general gaiety.

THANKSGIVING JOLLY-UP

The annual Thanksgiving Jolly-Up was held in the Phil halls on the evening of November 27 for the purpose of cheering up those students who were unable to go home for the vacation. About fifty of the students who had remained in Salem attended.

ADELANTE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Friday evening, December 11, the Adelantes held their customary Christmas party. Tiny books containing the programs and the names of the partners for the evening were given each couple at the door. As one of the numbers, Christmas presents were distributed to the guests. About thirty-five couples were present.

CHRESTO PARTY

The Chrestomatheans and Chrestophilians gathered on the evening of December 11 for their annual Christmas party. The Cottage was gaily decorated in red and green, and there was a tree with presents for all. Everyone was in costume, and the evening was spent in relay races and other lively forms of entertainment. The fun culminated in the distribution of refreshments and presents.

SORORITY "AT HOMES"

Saturday evening, December 12, was the date of the annual sorority "At Homes."

From 7:30 o'clock until 8:30 o'clock the Beta Chi's received their friends. The living rooms of the house were decorated in yellow and bronze, and a subdued lighting effect was obtained by the use of candles and shaded lamps.

From 8 o'clock until 9:30 o'clock the Alpha Phi Alpha's entertained the students and friends of the University. The color scheme was carried out in yellow and lavender.

The Delta Phi's were "At Home" from 9 o'clock until 10 o'clock. The house was attractively decorated with palms, ferns and baskets of flowers. Lighted candles cast a soft glow over the rooms.

LAUSANNE HALL "OPEN HOUSE"

The customary "Open House" was observed by the girls of Lausanne Hall on Saturday evening, January 16, from 7:30 o'clock until 10 o'clock. The entrance way and the halls were tastefully decorated with greenery and flowers. The visitors were served in the upstairs living room, which was elaborately adorned in a Japanese motif. A false ceiling of greenery and wistaria overhung the serving table, which had for its centerpiece a lake surrounded by Japanese huts and figures. Musical numbers were enjoyed both upstairs and downstairs throughout the evening.

POST-EXAM JUBILEE

Friday evening, February 5, the students of the University held their annual Post-Exam Jubilee at the Dreamland Skating Rink. After three or four hours of more or less strenuous acrobatics, delightful refreshments were served to the weary skaters.

SORORITY RUSH PARTIES

February 22 to 26 was named as rush week for the sororities. During this week the sororities held their formal dinner parties for the girls whom they wished to pledge.

On Tuesday evening, Alpha Phi Alpha entertained with a fairyland dinner. The room was decorated in lavender and gold, and the walls were banked with ferns, moss and foliage. The dainty waitresses were attired in fluffy dresses, and candle light lent a mellow effect to the scene. The guests were entertained between courses with musical numbers and a Pierrot and Pierette play.

Wednesday evening Beta Chi was turned into a scene from "Alice in Wonderland." The guests entered through Alice's hollow stump and found themselves in Wonderland. Moss hung from the ceiling, through which colored lights glowed and sparkled. Appropriate music and dances featured the entertainment.

On Thursday evening the Delta Phi's were hostesses at a Colonial party. The rooms were quaintly decorated in the manner of Colonial days, and misses in Colonial dresses attended the guests. Soft candle light and old-fashioned flowers formed a pleasing background for the uniquely-appointed tables. Between the courses of an attractive Southern dinner the guests were entertained with a varied program which carried them back to the days of Martha Washington.

FRESHMAN GLEE

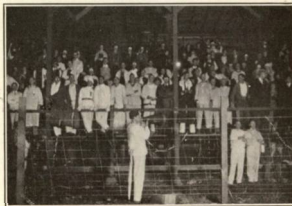

The evening of March 6 witnessed the annual struggle of the classes for supremacy in Freshman Glee. The Seniors came off victorious.

After the awarding of the pennant, the Seniors journeyed to the Phil halls, where they entertained the faculty and alumni.

The Juniors held a banquet at the Gray Belle to console themselves in their defeat, and to pep up for the millrace ordeal of Monday noon.

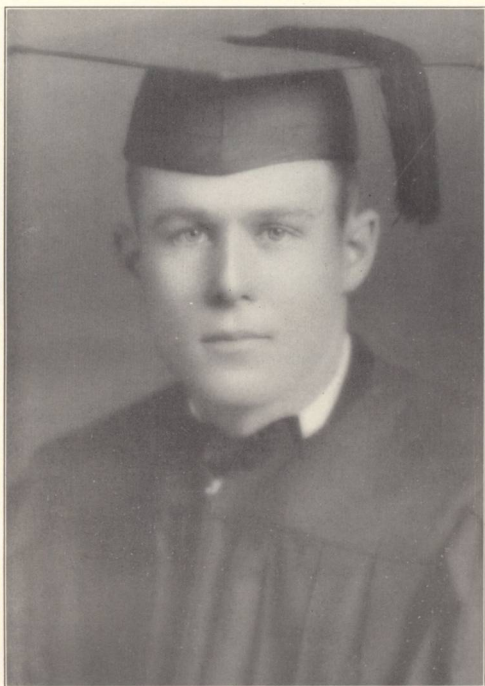

The Sophmores betook themselves to the Shanghai for further entertainment. Much amusement was afforded before the noodles had all disappeared.

The Freshmen held their after-glee party in the Armory, according to tradition, and even managed to preserve their eats and their dates from the onslaughts of the Sophomore boys.

Our Pledge

Oh Willamette, fairest name,
School we love forever more.
We shall strive to keep thy fame
Tho we win or lose the score;
Singing ever thru the fight,
"I love Willamette U."
Aiming, striving with our might
Toward a worthy purpose, true.

CHORUS

Oh, dear Willamette U,
The school we love so well,
We pledge our love to you
And e'er your praises tell.
Oh, may we always be
Most worthy sons of thine;
We pledge our loyalty,
Willamette, school of mine.

College friends will go their way
And our world will hurry on;
Our strife lasts but a day,
And our cause be lost or won.
But thru all our lives we'll sing,
"I love Willamette U."
And to the end we'll bring
Our trust kept faithful, true.

The Ladies' Glee Club has had one of the most successful years in its history. An extended tour was made to the following towns: Wendling, Roseburg, Myrtle Point, Coquille, Bandon, Marshfield, Drain, and Oakland. Early in the spring the Club made several week-end trips to neighboring towns. The Club has served well in advertising the University and in promoting a deeper interest in music.

The Men's Glee Club itinerary this year included the following towns: Portland, Hood River, The Dalles, Arlington, Athena, Pendleton, Walla Walla, Colfax, Cheney, Spokane, Wenatchee, Seattle, Mt. Vernon, Everett, Olympia, Centralia and Washougal. The Club sang to enthusiastic crowds in every town and has had a very successful season. The Willamette Men's Glee Club has made a name for itself in Oregon and Washington, and each year its concert tour is looked forward to with much interest by students and friends of the Club.

Dream On

The stars are softly gleaming
In the shadows of the night,
The moon like glowing silver
Covers all with mellow light.
The world is resting peaceful
From the hurry of the day,
So now beneath your window
Do I sing to you and say—

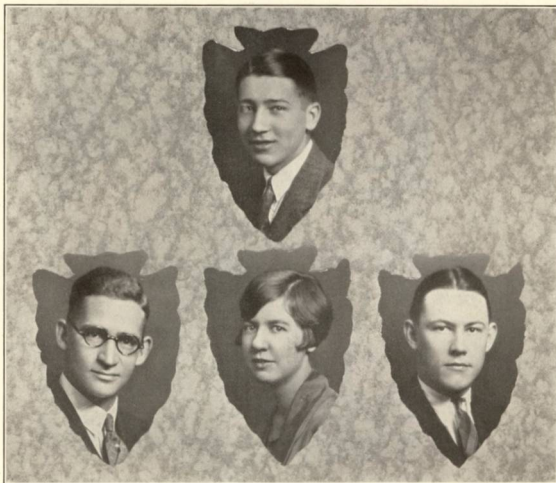

CHORUS

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
Till the golden heart of you
Thrills with night-time's silver beauty,
And your fairest dreams come true.

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
May the youthful heart of you
Thrill with life and love and glory,
And your fairest dreams come true.

The mill stream ripples onward
Through the mottled shade of trees,
The moon is wafted gently
By the golden evening breeze,
And making light the shadows
Dance the moonlight fairy beams
And they mingle with our music
And they harmonize your dreams.

The Forensic Council

The Forensic Council has ably supervised the debating and oratorical activities of Willamette this year and has kept them on the high plane where they have been in previous years. Robert Witty was chosen general manager of all forensic activities. With the other members of the Council he has made an effort to cooperate with the public speaking department in promoting a deeper interest in platform and stage activities on the campus.

The Council successfully sponsored a unique debate between the Willamette Men's Debating team and the University of Utah in the form of a split team debate. This is the first time such a debate has been held at Willamette. The Men's team debated the University of Redlands again this year for the third season.

Women's Debate

Under competent leadership Women's Debate on the campus this year has had a full program. On March 2 a dual debate was held with Linfield College on the subject of Child Labor. On April 14 the affirmative team traveled to Albany College and held a debate with that school. The third debate was held on April 16 with the Bellingham Normal School at Bellingham and the last debate at Salem with the College of the Pacific. The Freshmen Women's debate team met the Freshmen Women's team of Reed College in the Chapel on February 26 and held an enthusiastic non-decision debate on the Child Labor question. Jean White, Reva McLaughlin, and Beatrice Lockhart upheld the affirmative for Willamette.

Oratory

INTERSTATE CONTEST

On February 27 Robert Witty represented the University in the Interstate Oratorical Contest held in Willamette Chapel. His subject was "The Hope of Peace." He won second place and was awarded a prize of twenty-five dollars.

OLD LINE CONTEST

Merwin Stolzheise represented the University on March 11, winning second place in the Old Line Contest. His subject was "Breaking the Curse." Stolzheise has taken an active interest in oratory during his four years at Willamette and we regret that this was his last opportunity to represent Willamette.

PEACE ORATORICAL CONTEST

The State Peace Contest was held at Eugene on April 19 with Ross Anderson as Willamette's representative. This is Anderson's last year in the University and Willamette has the right to be proud of his record.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING CONTEST

Willamette was represented at the third annual conference of the Pacific Forensic League by Joel Berreman. The conference was held this year at W. S. C. in Pullman, Wash. Berreman has made an outstanding record in the Men's Debating squad and has proved himself to be a conscientious and able speaker.

PROFESSOR RAHSKOPF

The success of Willamette's Forensic department has been due largely to the efforts of Professor Horace G. Rahskopf, who has been head of the Public Speaking Department for the last two years. Under such competent leadership Willamette has very successfully tried the Open Forum style of debating and more students have been placed on the squads. This year the schedule of the Women's Debate team has been more extensive than ever before, and more attention has been given to Women's Debates. Funds for the debate schedule were raised by the Dramatic Department, which produced the following plays: "You and I," "Trifles," "Wurzel-Flummery," and "Suppressed Desires."

Coaching Staff

This year will mark the end of another coaching regime, for Coach Guy L. Rathbun has resigned in order to go into business.

During his administration of athletic affairs several noticeable advances and permanent improvements of a definite nature have been made. Due largely to the efforts of Coach Rathbun, on Sweetland Field we have the new grandstand seating fifteen hundred people. The State High School Basketball Tournament has increased in size and importance under his supervision. Willamette is a member of the new Northwest Conference because of the work of Coach Rathbun.

In his coaching activities Coach Rathbun has been assisted by two alumni. Robey Ratcliffe has assisted in handling the football team, and Lestle Sparks has trained the track and Freshman basketball teams with good success.

Football

Francis Ellis brought to the position of football manager much experience obtained in managing other school activities and was able to use his previously obtained knowledge to good advantage.

As Varsity Basketball manager "Chuck" added another managerial title to his rather long list. The State Tournament was his biggest task. Assisted by Reeve Betts, he had much to do in making the tournament a success.

Roy "Spec" Keene

"Spec" Keene has an enviable record as a high school and college coach, and the Willamette students feel that they have in him a man well qualified to direct the athletic activities of the University. Without making any extravagant predictions, it seems the most fitting thing to say that Willamette sincerely welcomes "Spec" Keene and pledges to him its loyal support.

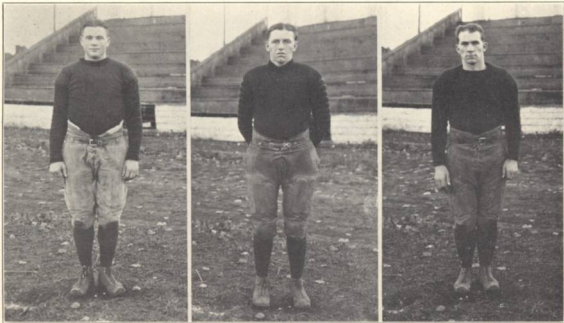

1925 Squad

Football

Only a rabid partisan would try to paint the 1925 football season in glowing colors, yet there is no necessity to apologize for or criticize the work of the team; it was one well deserving to wear the colors of the fighting Bearcats.

The material that turned out at the beginning of the season was of good quality, but limited in quantity and experience. The positions from tackle to tackle were the easiest to fill, since it was possible to put experienced men in these positions and still have enough good men left to make the competition interesting. The ends and backfield were the problem from the beginning. It was necessary to build an entirely new backfield combination from inexperienced material. Experimentation during the whole season failed to find the proper working combination which would make a co-ordinated driving team, although at times various parts of the team played well.

At the end of the season each of the following men was given his "W" sweater or given the privilege of wearing another bar on his arm: Huston, Woodworth, Schweining, Stolzheise, Riedel, T. Zeller, C. Zeller, K. Rhodes, Herrman, and Scott. Freshmen who earned a letter but will not receive the official award until they are in Sophomore standing were A. Collinsworth, Evans, Mort, Waddill and McMullin.

WILLAMETTE 0 UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON 108

To start the season against the University of Washington was indeed a discouraging beginning. Willamette took seventeen men to Seattle. Washington had seventy-five men on the bench who were all eager to get into the game and make a good showing in order to make sure a place on the team. Willamette was simply so much cannon fodder. It is well that the formation of the new Northwest Conference eliminates the possibility of such unequal contests in the future.

WILLAMETTE 0 OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE 51

In the second game of the season the team displayed a surprising amount of fight against overwhelming odds. The Aggies used three full teams. When Willamette had been worn out by one style of play, a team playing a different style was substituted. First Schulmerich and his teammates battered away and wore out the Bearcats, and then a fast tricky backfield combination was sent in. Willamette was simply outclassed.

MONMOUTH 0

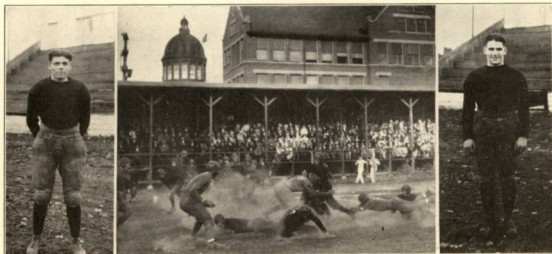

Against probably the best team that Monmouth has had in recent years the Willamette team piled up the first victory of the season. The teachers had a heavy line and a few good men in the backfield who were able to throw a scare into the Willamette aggregation several times with their passes. Willamette won the game by virtue of the superior charging of its line.

The veterans of the Alumni team proved to be too much for the younger and greener varsity team. Fat Zeller was the main explanation for the alumni's victory, although he was ably supported by Isham and Post in the backfield. The varsity's weakness was in breaking up passes.

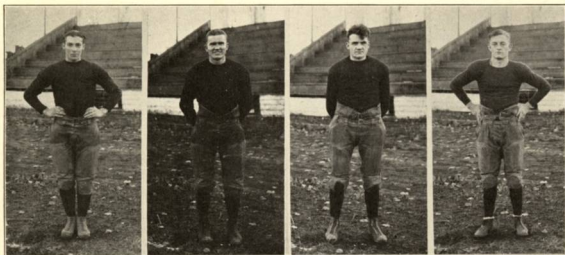

An interesting feature of the game was the return of the 1895 team to the campus. The old-timers played two downs against the varsity, and then retired for the regular alumni team.

COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND 7

Willamette showed more drive and punch against C. P. S. than in any other game of the season. Willamette outcharged, outfought, and outpassed the Loggers until the last few minutes when poor head work on Willamette's part and two lucky passes by C. P. S. gave the Tacoma school the winning score. Three times Willamette carried the ball to the one-yard line, but because of a lack of co-ordination between the line and the backfield the Bearcats were unable to shove the pigskin across. As the whistle blew ending the first half, Winslow received a pass and ran to the one-foot line before being downed. The outstanding players of the game were Rhodes, C. Zeller, Mort, and Collinsworth.

Willamette lost its Homecoming game to Whitman by a score of 20 to 13. The first half ended 0 to 0, with Whitman having a slight edge in yardage gained. The second half opened with Rhodes scoring for W. U. from the 35-yard line on a Whitman fumble. After this touchdown the team grew careless and quit fighting.

Whitman scored next on a 75-yard end run. Again in the fourth quarter Whitman outfought Willamette and scored from the ten-yard line on a cut-back play. Whitman completed her passes and advanced to the one-yard line from which she took the ball over the goal line after continuous smashes. The score then stood 20 to 6. Willamette opened an aerial attack which netted seven points. With forty seconds to go and Willamette in possession of the ball Borleske noticed a man hidden on the sidelines and was able in the delay to send in a substitute and wreck all possible hopes of Willamette's scoring.

LINFIELD 3

Willamette, lacking the punch of a winning team until the last quarter, lost to Linfield by a 3 to 0 score. The first half ended 0 to 0 with Linfield having a slight advantage in the offensive. In the third quarter Linfield scored a field goal. Although in the last quarter Willamette made three trials for a field goal, the Bearcats failed to convert because of the darkness.

ALBANY 0

Taking advantage of the breaks offered on a slippery, wet field the Bearcats were able to put over a decisive win. Throughout the game the Bearcats were on the alert for breaks and were able to make two touchdowns from Albany fumbles. During the entire game Willamette fumbled only once.

PACIFIC 23

Playing defensive football the entire game, the Willamette team took a 23 to 0 defeat at the hands of Pacific. During the first half practically no line plunges nor passes were attempted, the Bearcats punting on the first down whenever they had possession of the ball. The Willamette line held consistently during most of the game, but the Pacific backs, with their excellent interference, were able to get around the Willamette ends. Three field goals and two touchdowns accounted for the Badger's score.

The Team

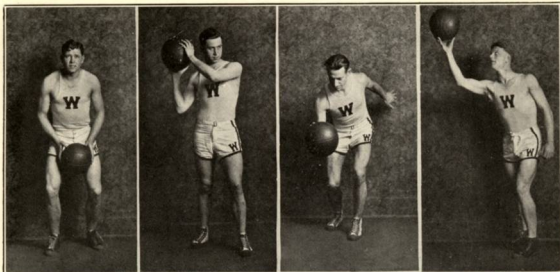

Basketball

With four regulars from the squad of the preceding year returning to school there was good reason to anticipate a successful season. Although all the hoped-for victories did not materialize, the team did win nearly all their games in a long schedule and placed second in the newly-formed Northwest Conference. Whitman alone proved to be the stumbling block in the way to a conference championship.

The preliminary season opened against Monmouth with a game which W. U. won by a 43 to 13 score. In spite of the fact that the game was slow and poorly played, it did give some idea of the possibilities of the team.

The team then journeyed to Portland and took on the crack team of the Coliseum Checkerboards. Playing in extraordinary form for so early in the season, the Bearcats were able to get a 32 to 28 win in a nip-and-tuck game. Although the slippery floor slowed down the speed of the team to some extent, they nevertheless were up and coming throughout the entire game, and the superior fighting spirit they displayed well merited the win. Fasnacht, Robertson, Hartley, Erickson and Flesher started for Willamette.

The Dallas Athletic Club, the Seventh Infantry Team of Vancouver, and the Falls City Athletic Club were the next teams to yield to the Bearcats in other games played during the Christmas holidays

In the first college game of the season, the Willamette five, on their home floor, decisively defeated the team from Albany College by a score of 61 to 4. The contest was one-sided and Willamette was never in danger. When the score stood 45 to 4, the second team was substituted for Willamette. Linfield College was the next team to lose to Willamette. The score was 57 to 10.

Willamette lost her first conference game to Whitman at Walla Walla. The result of the game hung in the balance until the last few minutes of play. During the course of the game Willamette was in the lead five times to Whitman's seven, and seven times the two teams were tied. However, the final score stood 33 to 27 in favor of Whitman.

In the interim between Whitman games, the Bearcats went to Forest Grove, where they defeated the Pacific University quintet by a 48 to 31 score.

The second game with Whitman, which was played on the Willamette floor, was an equally close and exciting game. Up to the last four minutes of play the game was just as much Willamette's as Whitman's. During the whole game the final outcome see-sawed back and forth, the score being tied nine times during the course of the game. In the final few minutes of play Willamette made some rather inexplicable substitutions and before the team got to going together, the Whitman team had dropped in enough baskets to cinch the game and the championship.

Flesher, Guard

The team then went on a trip North where they met the College of Seattle and the College of Pudget Sound. The Seattle team defeated the Bearcats, but the Loggers dropped their game by a close score.

From the standpoint of the spectator the second game with C. P. S. deserves to be remembered long. The final outcome of the game was in doubt until the last minute of play, with the doubt favoring C. P. S. during most of the game. With three minutes' time remaining and a one-point lead, the Loggers began to stall in Willamette's territory. Attempting to break down the floor, Willamette got the ball on an out-of-bounds. Robertson got the ball and shooting his only field basket of the evening won the game for Willamette by a score of 29 to 28.

The three remaining games in the schedule, with the College of Seattle, Pacific University and Linfield College, were all won by a safe margin.

As has already been indicated, the team this year was largely composed of veterans. Fasnacht, probably the most consistent and finished player on the team, was playing his last year of college basketball. Robertson, also a senior, proved his versatility by playing equally well in either the guard or forward position. Erickson, a dependable guard, is the third member of the team whose place will be left vacant by graduation.

Hartley, although he has had three years of experience on the team, has one more year to go. Flesher and Litchfield, the other regulars, are products of the Freshman team, and both have two more promising years of basketball before them.

Salem High Team

State Basketball Tournament

Ten teams representing the highest achievement in basketball in their respective districts met on the floor of the Willamette gymnasium to decide the state championship. This year in order that third and fourth places might be determined, a consolation tournament was added, which made it necessary for a team to be defeated twice before it was completely eliminated.

Salem went through the tournament and to the state championship without extending itself to the limit. Eugene, by virtue of the fact that it had progressed to the finals without a defeat, took second place, while Medford placed third.

The all-star team selected by R. O. Coleman and D. Strichmater, officials of the tournament, was as follows:

Freshman Squad

Freshman Basketball

Considering the decrease in the size of the Freshman class and the consequent decrease in the number of candidates for the Freshman team, the squad as a means of developing varsity material was not as fortunate as some first year squads have been in the past. Viewing from the standpoint of games won and lost, the squad won over half their games. The team was composed of I. White, E. Collinsworth, Hagemann, forwards; G. Ledbetter, center; and McCully, Winslow, C. Gaines, Minto, V. Rhodes, and F. Emmons, guards.

Alpha Psi Delta Team

Inter-Fraternity Basketball

In the second year of inter-fraternity basketball competition the Alpha Psi Delta team again came through the tournament victorious and without any stiff competition.

The tournament was in reality two tournaments within a tournament. The Alpha Psi Delta and the Sigma Tau, the fraternities with the larger memberships, fought for the first place, while the Epsilon Delta Mu and the Kappa Gamma Rho, the two fraternities with smaller memberships, struggled for supremacy in the second division. The final result was that the Alpha Psi Delta team took first place, the Sigma Tau second, the Kappa Gamma Rho third, and the Epsilon Delta Mu forth.

The all-star team named by the "Collegian" after consulting the managers of the respective teams was as follows: Givens, Sigma Tau, forward; Herrman, Alpha Psi Delta, forward; Riedel, Alpha Psi Delta, center; Blatchford, Sigma Tau, guard; and Zeller, Alpha Psi Delta, guard.

The Squad

Captain Stolzheise

Track

The track season opened officially on March 1st with a good showing of both experienced and new men. Among the most outstanding of the old men from the squad of the preceding year were Stolzheise, a two-year letter man who was always a faithful point maker in the weight events and in the broad jump, and Jack Vinson, a three-year man who never failed to gather in some points in the pole vault and hurdles.

The outstanding find of the season was Flesher, a half miler. Although he showed more than usual ability in many other events, Coach Sparks spent more of his efforts in developing him into an exceptional half-miler. Robert Kutch, also a first-year man, made his varsity letter by virtue of his efficient work in the mile run.

Mile Relay Team

The first meet of the season against Chemawa was held on May Day. The Indians, although they made the competition interesting, were not able to overcome the consistent work of every man on the Willamette Squad. Stoltzheise was high point man, as he was throughout the season.

The second meet was with Pacific University at Forest Grove. A steady down-pouring of rain and an extremely muddy track made all events slow and difficult. Pacific won by a score of 91 to 48.

The last meet of the season was with Linfield on the home track. The Willamette athletes, by working hard, were able to win the meet by the narrow margin of a third of a point, the points standing 60 2-3 to 60 1-3.

Real fight and determination to win accounted for the victories in the meets which were won. As Jack Vinson was the only member of the squad graduating, there were left a number of good men for the track team of the next year.

The Team

Baseball

The 1925 season on the diamond, viewed from the standpoint of games lost and won, could be called a fairly successful season. The Willamette nine won seven games and lost five.

Rainy weather held up practice until a late date, but the season finally got under way in a game against the Monmouth Normal School, which the Bearcat nine won by a score of 14 to 1.

One of the most interesting games of the season was played against the convicts at the State Prison, during which Poling knocked the ball over the stone wall, but was given only two bases, because the convicts were not allowed to go after the ball. Ellis pitched the entire game, which lasted for twelve innings. An error and a hit in the twelfth gave the game to the prisoners by a 5 to 6 score.

O. A. C. took the next game by a score of 13 to 2. The heavy hitting of "Red" Ridings, the Aggie shortstop, was the feature of the game. Herrman, first baseman, was the batting star for Willamette, gathering three hits out of four trips to the plate. The game against Pacific College of Newberg ended in the equally one-sided score of 11 to 1, except that in this contest the Bearcats were on the heavy end of the scoring.

Linfield and Pacific University were the next victims of the improving Bearcat squad. The Linfield game ended 9 to 4 in favor of Willamette. Before a large May Day crowd, Willamette played the best game of the season against Pacific. Kalahan, the Willamette Freshman pitcher, held the Badgers as no Bearcat had done for several seasons. The game ended 5 to 3 for the Bearcats. Pacific a week later was able to even up matters by a 5 to 2 win.

Ellis, Pitcher

Robertson, Second

Fasnacht, Short

Oregon won the next contest from Willamette. The Lemon Yellow batsmen got away for six runs in their half of the first inning, and although the rest of the game was hard fought, Willamette was unable to hit effectively, with the result that the game ended 13 to 3 in favor of the Eugene school.

Later in the season Linfield and Monmouth were again defeated by scores of 5 to 2 and 6 to 2 respectively.

C. P. S. proved too much for Willamette in a late season game and took the only contest between the two schools by a 7 to 5 score. Willamette held the Loggers in check until the ninth inning, when three runs were scored.

Willamette ended the season against the College of Seattle, non-conference champion of Washington. In a hard fought, almost errorless game, the Bearcats showed the results of a season's training by defeating the Seattle players by a score of 8 to 4.

Isham, the Bearcat third baseman, was perhaps the most valuable player for the Bearcats. His efficient work with the willow and his consistent playing around the third sack entitle him to a place in Willamette baseball history.

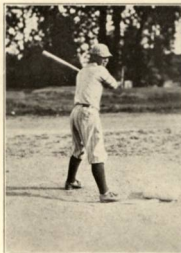

Isham, Third

Townner, Catcher

Kalahan, Pitcher

Nakano, Field

Herrman, Field

Poling, First

Kalahan, a freshman from Centralia, was the surest hitter on the squad. Besides being a sure hitter he was dependable in the field and could be counted on to deliver the goods from the mound.

Poling, who played first base most of the season, was a dependable infielder and a heavy hitter. Herrman, first baseman and fielder, proved very effective at bat.

The work of Fasnacht at shortstop was a surprise and a relief to Coach Rathbun, for in the turn out at the beginning of the season there was not an experienced shortstop. Robertson at second base worked with Fasnacht in a very effective fashion.

"Buck" Towner once more demonstrated his ability to handle the team from behind the bat. His experience and head work were a great asset to the Willamette team. Ellis, the other member of the battery, showed ability as a pitcher and fielder.

Nakano played right field most of the year. Hansen and McAllister were both good utility men. McAllister usually played in the outfield, while Hansen held down some infield position.

Tennis

With the team of the preceding year, consisting of Emmel, Mickey, and Walsh, all returning to school, the 1925 season was assured of going down in tennis history as a successful year. The Bearcats won four tournaments and lost two. In addition, they took second place in the Northwest tournament, placing above O. A. C., which had previously beaten them.

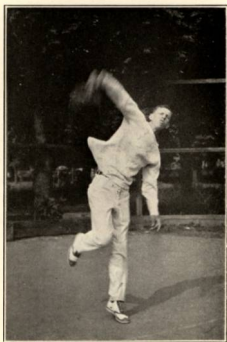

The season opened with a meet with Linfield, in which the Cardinal and Gold team took six out of eight matches, the men's team winning every match while the women's team dropped two. Later in the season Linfield was again defeated by Willamette by an equally decisive score.

The Willamette University tennis squad defeated the College of Puget Sound by winning two singles and one doubles contest and leaving one singles and one doubles match for the Tacoma school.

Pacific University, the ancient rival of the Bearcats, also was decisively beaten by the Cardinal and Gold racquet men.

Willamette lost two meets with the larger schools. The University of Washington made a clean sweep by winning five straight matches, while O. A. C. managed to win three matches out of five. The O. A. C. tournament was one of the main features of the May Day festivities and provided much interest for the spectators, as each contest with the exception of one doubles match went to three sets. Emmel was the outstanding member of the Willamette team, for he was the most consistent player in every department of the game.

Considering the fact that Willamette came out victor in every contest with schools of equal size and pressed closely some larger schools, the 1925 season merits an honorable place in the history of the achievements of Bearcat tennis teams. It is through the efforts of such a team as this one that the pages of Willamette tennis history are kept bright.

Start of the Cross Country Run

Interclass Rivalry

The Interclass Rivalry competition this year has so far been very even, for no class has walked away with the honors without close competition.

In the cross country run through Bush's Pasture the Sophomores took first place in the number of points won by virtue of the number of their entrants placing, although Berreman, a Junior, took first place, and Weed, a Freshman, was second.

In Freshman Glee and basketball the Seniors succeeded in taking two first places. Carter, White, and Haines were the mainstays of the Senior basketball team, although they were well supported by Nunn, Schreiber, Mudra, and Pearson.

In the girls' basketball competition the Junior team was able to win five points for their class, making the first place credited to the class of '27 thus far.

Five events yet remain in the Interclass Rivalry schedule, so it is not possible to predict the final result.

The standings in Interclass Rivalry are as follows:

	Seniors	Juniors	Sophomores	Freshmen

Miss Pauline Gabriel

Women's Athletics

Under the supervision of Miss Pauline Gabriel the work of the women's physical education department has progressed greatly during the past year. The variety of the work offered and the number of sports taken part in have been increased.

The work of the gym classes included naturalistic training as well as type exercises and folk dances. Miss Gabriel also offered practical classes in soccer, basketball, hockey, baseball, tennis, and clogging.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association was formally organized this year. The object of the Association is to develop interest in athletic sports and to instill in its members the spirit of true sportsmanship.

The organization is based on the point system, which limits the membership and the awards presented. The Association as soon as possible will apply for membership in the Athletic Conference of American College Women.

Interclass Sports

Interclass games among the women created keen rivalry. In basketball the Juniors, by defeating the Freshmen and the Sophomores, won the class championship. The win for the Juniors might be called in sporting parlance an "upset of the dope," as the Sophomores were the winners of the tournaments of the preceding year and had the majority of the members of the championship team in their lineup. In spite of these facts the Juniors managed to put over a 15-to-13 win on the Sophomores.

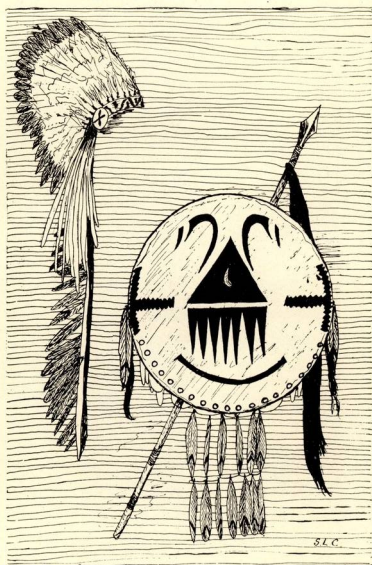

Interclass games in other sports were yet to be played off at this writing.

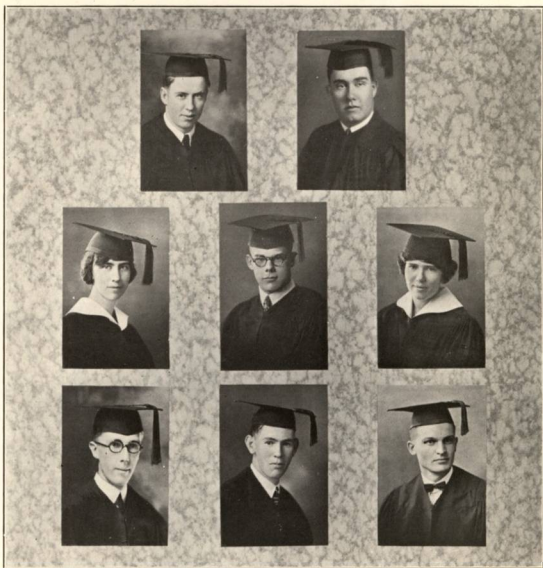

In the 1925 tennis season Willamette was represented in two matches played with Linfield College by Marie Rostein, Margaret Mades, Irene Clark and Margaret Raught.

FOUNDED 1924

The Alpha Oregon Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu was founded at Willamette in 1924 by Professor S. B. Laughlin, a national chancellor of the society.

Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social science fraternity, has for its specific aim the development of interest on the part of young college men and women in the scientific study of society and co-operation in the scientific solution of human problems.

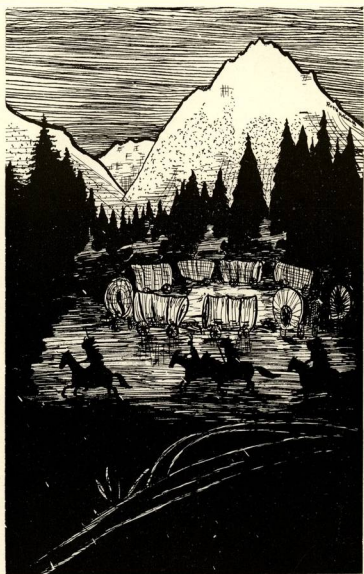

Tau Kappa Alpha

In recognition of forensic excellence at Willamette University, a local charter of Tau Kappa Alpha, National Honorary Forensic Fraternity, was granted this year to the Bar-W Club. The installation of the Willamette chapter was made on April 14th by Professor L. M. Ross, of the Oregon Agricultural College. Joel V. Berreman was elected first president.

Membership in this prominent national organization came as the result of the outstanding record made by debate teams, orators, and extemporaneous speakers at Willamette during the past few years. Two successful debate trips into the Middle West were sponsored, and valuable debate relationships established.

The Blackstone Club is the only active legal fraternity on the campus. Organized in the first instance for the purpose of creating a spirit of closer unity among the members of the three law classes, and to provide a medium for the discussion of legal topics, this club, through its monthly banquets at "The Spa," has steadily endeavored to promote the interest of the Law School as a whole.

The Classical Club was organized to promote an active interest in the life of the Greeks and Romans and to stimulate a desire to understand and to appreciate their rich and varied history and literature. In the study of the different phases of the contribution of ancient Greece and Rome to the modern world, opportunity is afforded for an intelligent study of their civilization and of the various problems which they had to solve.

Willamette Writers' Club

In the fall of 1922 Professor and Mrs. H. G. Williston encouraged a group of talented Willamette students to meet at regular intervals for the purpose of stimulating each other to better creative writing by mutual criticism and suggestion. This was the beginning of the Writers' Club, which since then has continued to hold its meetings twice a month throughout the school year. Students who show literary ability and inclination are eligible to become members of the club.

The Christian Council is the coordinating agency of the campus for all religious organizations. It is composed of representatives from all campus Christian organizations and from all church societies in which there is a large representation of students. The Christian Council has a two-fold function: to prevent duplication of effort among campus organizations, and to provide an agency for campus-wide efforts.

YOUAREINFORITNOW!

SOAREWE!

HEREGOES!

This—the work of long hours and midnight oil—on which we have labored long and zealously, fired by that great desire to give to all persons and things their just places and by the knowledge that everything comes to those who wait—

We pass this on to you.

Treat it Gently and be especially kind to us—for the risk we have taken in compiling these authoritative statistics.

May Heaven protect us—the innocent—from the ire of those about whom we have herein told the truth, or part of it.

The Faculty

We really don't mean to make this page exclusive nor yet again make those whose pictures appear in the Pat's-Sake Edition feel up-to-date.

College Hours

More time is spent in College Hours than any other study in the University curriculum. Under this department are included some of these subjects: Practice Fussing, Blind Dating, and Poultry Management.

Society

Among the Society Events of the first Semester the Sororities each held an "At Home." Each house was decorated in a very artistic and appropriate manner, with such harmonizing colors as purple, red, and blue streamers. The latest hobby of the Social Group is Davenport Wrestling.

Glee Club

The Boy's Glee Club covered itself with glory—and various napkins and spoons—eventually returned home. Its accompanist made an excellent showing. Many of the boys are now quite accomplished in Chime Tuning.

Freshman Glee

Freshman Glee has come and gone. We have two new songs—and the Juniors have again come into intimate contact with the millstream.

Athletics

Athletics at Willamette consist largely of Foot-racing (for porch swings), Neck Exercise, and Horsing and Stalling.

"Yes, Simple!"

"This cut is too small."

"Where is that whirl-i-gig that runs around?"

"Hey! Pinhead! When is that paper going to be here?"

"What do you mean? Whirl-i-gig?"

"That thing that tells you how big to make things."

"Oh, I thought you meant Walter."

"This is too wide."

"It is not!"

"So's your Aunt Emma!"

"Where's that proof?"

"How's that for effect?"

"That picture looks like a cancelled two-cent stamp."

Foreword

The publishing of a Wallulah is a big undertaking, an expensive undertaking, requiring a goodly sum of capital. With each of the five hundred copies distributed this year, entailing a net cost of eight dollars, it is very essential that there be some means of bridging the gap between this amount and the sum received from students of the university.

This is exactly where the advertisers play their role; in exchange for space in our book they are providing the additional capital required to pay for an annual of this nature. And they have responded well; the contacts formed with them have been most enjoyable and worth while; we owe much to them and are truly thankful to each of them for their support.

But verbal thanks is not what these firms are looking for; they have a right to expect more—the deal is a reciprocal one. We are asked to support them by our patronage, and what could be more fair? We must buy some place, and each of these firms represents and offers the best possible in goods and services; then what could be more natural than for us to trade with them? They are interested in us and will treat us square.

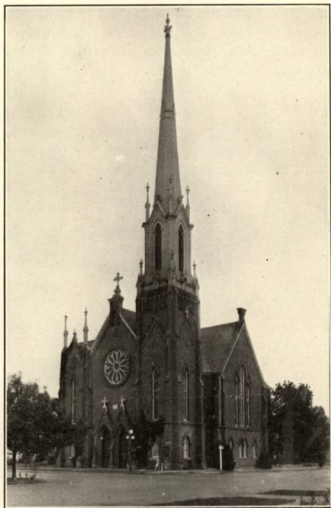

Have you been playing the game square? Read the following advertisements carefully and remember that these are the places where your money will serve you best.

First Methodist Episcopal Church

State and Church Streets

Salem, Oregon

OLD FIRST CHURCH

"Old First Church," which serves the student body of Willamette University, is a church with a glad hand, a glowing heart, and a glorious history. The fine edifice of red brick with its imposing columns and inspiring spire in full view of the campus was built in 1872, but the organization of the society dates back to 1834 when Rev. Jason Lee and his co-laborers came on their mission to the Indians and established a place of worship on this site. The first church was built in 1851 and was replaced by the present building in 1872. The church has had an honorable roster of leading ministers for its pastors and has always been the standby and supporter of the University in Christian Education. It is well organized and equipped for a full program of Christian work and provides opportunities for service for all ages and classes of people. Its broad portals swing open to the public and its dignified order of worship attracts and inspires all who come. Its large pipe organ and chorus choir lead in the music and its Student Forum Bible Class and Epworth League afford special privileges for the social and religious life of young people.

Willamette University

Willamette University was founded on State Street many years before State Street became an institution. Now see how State Street has grown, and see what a beautiful park the State has provided for Willamette students (as yet we are not prohibited from roaming there during some hours of the day).

REGULATIONS

This is rather a touching subject (better called touchy) just now. However, we make the best of our afflictions and pass on worse ones. The motto of our faculty is a worthy one—"Thou shalt not pass." This motto changed many things during its time, not all in the last war.

Next year a new grading system will be installed. Grades will be given such as, A, B, C, D, E, etc. Those students failing to pass get H.

There will be no probation system next year. The green carpet will be raffled off.

Written invitations for Chapel will be issued to the most popular students on the campus. Don't feel hurt if you get your lowest grade raised one point for attending Chapel at least five times during the week.

Any time students feel indisposed they may take a trip to the Capitol Dome or to Bush's Pasture. They need not turn in an excuse or seek the guidance of a chaperone.

Excuses for absence are very essential.

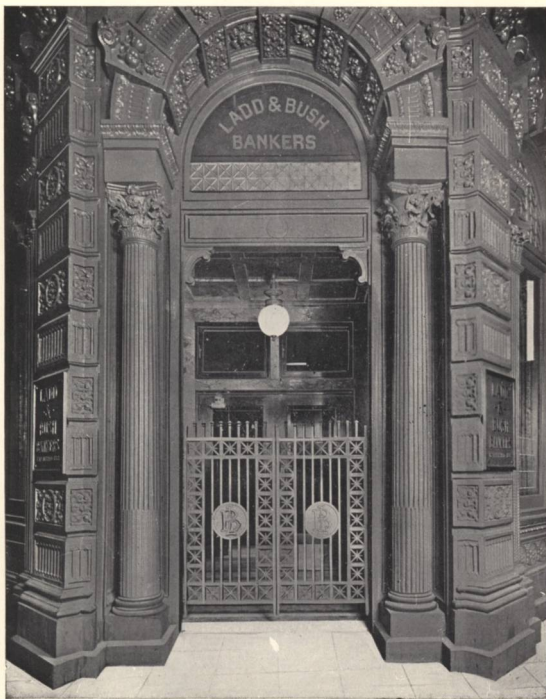

These are they—

1. A student must be absent.
2. He must be on good terms with the County School Superintendent.
3. His right hand must not know what his left hand does.
4. He must be darn lucky.

Students are advised and urged to mind other peoples' business, even to the complete loss of their own.

DAN X. SCHREIBER, Manager

We can furnish on demand a complete line of one-night stands, red-hot mamas, or domestic pals. Our motto is "Your money back if you can prove that you are not satisfied." Established since 1844. We have never failed to satisfy our clients.

Also we offer for sale, trade, or rent seventeen more or less worn-out buggies, with horses to match. If you make the horses navigate, the treat is on us. After the first of the year we hope to have in our stables four fifty-dollar Fords, and one or two automobiles.

With this aggregation of home talent, we are assured that we can offer to Willamette students a service which is unequalled west of the Mississippi.

Do not forget to write, telegraph, or phone us at least two weeks before you want your date. Otherwise we cannot be held responsible for what you get. All new applicants for dates are required to furnish affidavits of good character from two deans and at least one attorney.

DOES IT PAY?

To the Student Body of Willamette University:

We, the undersigned Studios of Salem, offer greetings and congratulations to the Students and Faculty of Willamette University; and to those who have achieved the great honor of Graduation we wish the full realization of their dreams and hopes.

We also have been honored this year, having been awarded the right to practice and display a Certificate as an "ACCREDITED AND CERTIFIED PHOTOGRAPHER" by the Pacific International Photographers' Association; and in acceptance of this great distinction we are bound in honor to observe the high ethics and business standards of the great body of splendid gentlemen. We have nine items to our Code of Ethics and on this occasion we deem it apropos to call attention to item Six; and a criticism of same by Pirie MacDonald, World War veteran and one of America's greatest photographic artists.

Sixth.—Advertising in its many forms is essential in these days of commercialism, but the claiming of false or ungained honors, untrue statements of any nature, boastfulness of work better done than others can do, depreciation of work of other studios, are unworthy of the professional photographer, and its consistent repetition should be severely and publicly condemned.

We quote from Mr. Pirie MacDonald's address on the Code of Ethics in part as follows:

"But now here in the sixth item is one of those fool obvious things so wrong that they do not need discussion. Why we should have it in a code of ethics I swear I don't know. Unclean advertising and making untruthful statements—it pays or it doesn't. "Does it pay" to make untruthful statements about anything? Does it pay to be boastful in the statement that you put in a newspaper that another man can disprove? Where the person that reads laughs about it? I will tell you that it does not pay. The very minute that you make an untrue statement or claim, it gets into your soul and makes you feel like a cootie when you look at yourself in the mirror. That is exactly what it does to you. It brings about a quality of moral decrepitude that leaves its stain. I never really swear except when I remember something I have done that wasn't the square thing to do. It makes me cringe, and a man who gets accustomed to doing crooked things is going to find out after a while his soul gets numb and the d—n thing WON'T cringe."

Moral: It pays to have your photographic wants attended to by an "ACCREDITED AND CERTIFIED PHOTOGRAPHER." Membership is open to any photographer who will observe its honorable standards of practice and accept in full the Business Ethics of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Very respectfully,

Organizations

Beta Chi: The Loving Rooms of this House have caused many a downfall.

Delta Phi: What matters it if the seniors leave? Sorority Song—"O Promise Me."

Alpha Phi Alpha: That's a House with seniors, juniors, sophomores and general nuisances.

Tau Kappa Alpha: New here, but one of the ranking organizations of the country. In fact, some people consider it the rankest.

Home Economics Club: This is an organization of young women who are preparing for culinary murder.

Alpha Psi Delta: "Let's get some Salem Hi women." "All right." Wouldn't be the first time—er—that they had been out."

Epsilon Delta Mu: Intense, but impartial fussers.

Sigma Tau: "Got a date for their picnic yet?" That's no pass-word either.

Kappa Gamma Rho: They are more formal. They believe in banquets. As yet they have not the proper etiquette for the rougher sports.

Beta Chi Alpha: "What makes you think you can work on a newspaper?" "I can type with two fingers and use slang."

Phi Gamma Mu: Ask Ann; maybe she knows who, what, and why.

Alpha Kappa Nu: Put the names in a hat and draw.

Theta Alpha Phi: Almost too dramatic for words.

"W" Club: Gets letters this year for Roller Skating, Typewriting, Book-keeping, Buggy Riding, and Street Cleaning.

All modern equipment and labor-saving conveniences, including Winchesters and Bowie knives,—or what have you?

Many prominent men have taken advantage of this offer, and see where they are today. Where will you be ten years from now? Start the summer term now! Do not delay; we may be overcrowded later. We are willing to vary our terms to suit the individual.

We point with pride to the fact that our graduates are located in Federal institutions throughout the country.

Courses offered in wall-scaling, saucer-heaving, and safe-cracking. We will offer any special course if there seems to be sufficient demand. Advanced work for a B.S. degree is available in crap-shooting and thumb-saluting.

REGULATIONS

I. No one will be admitted until he has completed the preparatory course in our Academy.

II. Any person who fails to escape after three trials will be placed on probation until the end of the spring term.

III. In order to be excused for absence the prisoner must have the following qualifications:

- a. He must have been absent.
- b. He must be a good friend of at least one guard.
- c. He must be darn lucky.

IV. Prohibition: No drinking of any beverages other than water and Coco-Cola is permitted on Sundays or week-days.

The Tale of An Old Coat

"Oh boy! What I could tell you about yonder co-ed! She just got through brushing and pressing me—but not even a professional cleaner could take from me the wrinkles that last night's 'time' made."

"It was sure a hot date. That boy! He knows his stuff—his line is anything but the berries. He must have learned how to press the wrinkles all right."

"Hello! What's this? Who are you?"

"I'm the new coat."

"Oh! Say, you've sure got to hump yourself to get all the dope on our fair owner that I've got. Still, I don't know, she might reform."

"I just go to church and such places with her. She's a very nice girl."

"Nice! Ha! Ha! That isn't her line at all. She's a real hot kid—let me tell you! She's got a line—with a hook on the end that'll catch any fish swimming."

"I think you must be dreaming."

"Aw, cut it! I guess those wrinkles that were squeezed into my very tissues are no dream—they don't need much interpretation, anyway. Here she comes now. She's going to wear you—it must be Sunday. Good luck."

"Say, you look like a hard winter! Did the church cave in on you?"

"I guess you were right. He told her tonight she sure was a hot mama."

Moral: If we must part, let us go together.

WE ANNOUNCE

A Nation-Wide Prize Contest

Can you read Sanskrit?

Can you talk entertainingly on the life habits of the oyster?

Can you excuse yourself in a cultured manner when you find that you left the theatre tickets in the other suit?

If not, why not?

Unless you can answer all of these questions in the affirmative, you have no right to call yourself educated. We want a man who has courage and initiative. He must be blond, handsome, and at least six feet tall. Ability to read English or any other language will not be counted against any candidate.

Any person who can suggest the name of a man capable of controlling The Student Body Elections and Open Meetings (between the hours of 6 A. M. and 10:30 P. M.) is automatically awarded the first prize.

The duties of this position consist of sharpening pencils for stray co-eds, censoring "College Humor" before the magazine is placed on the library shelves, and chaperoning class Flunk Days and the annual Commun Peepul's Ball.

For the first prize we offer a nine-volume, leather-bound set of Bud Fisher's works. For second prize we have selected a collapsible crowbar, set in an ornately engraved handle. Third prize will not be considered unless some of our friends enter the contest.

All entries must bear the name of the man suggested, the name of the person doing the dirty work, and the initials of any cop whom you may care to give as a reference. Entries will be judged for neatness only. Entries must be in by 7:15 A. M. of March 17, 1926. Address your communications to anybody that you think of.

IN THE HEART OF THE OREGON COUNTRY

Located as it is, only a little more than 300 miles from Klamath Falls, and less than that from Vancouver, the city of Salem, Oregon, offers unparalleled advantages to the earnest home-seeker. Can you think of any good reason why you should not accept this marvelous opportunity? If you can, enter our county-wide subscription contest and win the combination lawn mower and can opener.

The town has several new industries, and is growing all the time (including Sundays.) No less than 17 families moved into this thriving metropolis in the last three years. Besides being one of the most beautiful spots in the Northwest, having the treacherous Willamette flowing through its back yard, Salem has several very lovely millstreams, where various classes frolic and many canoe fetes are endured.

We invite, entreat, and beg you—one and all—to come and visit this marvelous metropolis before the earwigs wreck the vegetation and the Class of '27 splashes all the water out of the millstreams.

AS THEY REALLY SAID IT

Lochinvar: I'm going back to the west. These eastern girls paint too much.

Venus de Milo: I can't help it if my clothes slip. I haven't any arms.

Lady Godiva: This horseback riding is cold. Wish I hadn't bobbed my hair.

Hamlet: This ghost business is getting to be a strain. I'll have to cut out boozing.

Miles Standish: Sour grapes! I didn't want Priscilla anyway.

Beethoven: I wonder if this ragtime will get by.

Shakespeare: I'll sign Bacon's name to this tommyrot, so he'll get the blame for it.

Franklin: Personally, I'd rather fly kites in dry weather.

Hercules: Son, hand me a stone. Mother wants some face powder.

Paul Revere: This is the boniest horse this side of Hoboken.

Ponce de Leon: The only water that ever made me feel young was fire water.

Nero: Why don't they build up that fire? I can hardly see the music.

Willamette University College of Law

The College of Law was established, as a department of the University, in 1883. Its purpose is to provide a thorough legal education for students who are fitted by their maturity and previous academic training to pursue professional study under university methods of instruction. The curriculum covers three academic years and is calculated to afford an adequate preparation for the practice of law in any jurisdiction of the United States. Special attention is paid to problems of local law in the State of Oregon.

This school is fully accredited by the State and Federal authorities for the payment of benefits to those entitled to them under the returned soldiers, sailors and marines educational aid and vocational training acts.

The College of Law of Willamette University stands high in the estimation of the Supreme Court of Oregon as evidenced by the following extract from a letter written by the Supreme Court to the President of the University:

"In our examination of applicants to practice law in Oregon, we have always found the graduates of the Willamette Law School as fully and well prepared as the graduates from any of the law schools, including the leading colleges of the United States, and graduates of the Willamette Law School have repeatedly taken first honors in such examinations. We have also observed that many of the alumni of the Willamette Law School have taken high rank in the practice of their profession, and are among the prominent and useful citizens of the Pacific Northwest, thus reflecting credit not only on the law school, but on the Willamette University, which they regard as their alma mater."

The College of Law has several special advantages. It is located in the capital city where the Supreme Court is almost constantly in session. The Law Department has exceptional facilities in its nearness to the State Library which contains more than 40,000 volumes, to which the law students have free access.

The law classes are held in Eaton Hall which is centrally located upon the college campus, directly across from the State Capitol. Law students are member of the Student Body of the University and have the opportunity of engaging in the various student enterprises and activities.

Requirements for Admission

Applicants for admission to the Freshman year must be at least 18 years of age and of good moral character. Each applicant must have satisfactorily completed a four years' high school course or its equivalent and one year's work amounting to 30 hours credit in the College of Arts and Science of Willamette University or its equivalent.

THE GREEN COLOR

To the Senior is a mark of the lowest class; to the Junior the hope of the school; to the Sophomore a new expenditure of energy; but to a Freshman, a new field for the displaying of art. The most popular seems to be cut work, reminding one of the systematic efforts of the cut worm on a green leaf. A few venture pen and ink designs. Monogram initials are also most popular.

FORDS

Have come to be a rather plentiful quantity around this campus lately. Art work could also hold sway here. Wouldn't Kenny McCormick be delighted to have the "Ark" written on his Ford? It's a cinch not more than two by two could come out of it while it was still together. Elmer might be pleased to see the following inscription written across his "Mayflower" — "Two-four-six-eight, who do we hate, twenty-eight!" Go ahead—that Ford and Elmer couldn't do much against the loyal Soph Fords. Kenny Lawson sports a four-lunged pet with "Dis-Squeals."

A Business Tonic That Won Success

Everything has a beginning; a child is born and has to be carefully nourished. If left alone it could not live.

The beginning of the business of the J. C. Penney Company was a precarious one. It passed through many moments of uncertainties. But it was never left alone.

Its greatest nourishment was derived from the brand of service its founder gave to the public. It served best by giving only worthy goods for the least possible money.

Fed upon this tonic it eventually grew into a live, rapidly-expanding business. The same service governs its operations today as then, but the strength of this service has been notably increased.

SLICKERS

Here also is a wide field for artistic natures. A pen and India ink, or a box of paints can make the back of the plainest slicker bloom like a flower garden. Big sprawly Bearcats, blocked W. U.'s, various monograms, and even redimps are placed thereon. A little ingenuity is all that is necessary to make the slicker a thing of beauty and an index to its owner's originality.

There was a cute little thing
In my history class,
With a keen line,
And keener eyes,
And the keenest part
Was that we started out
To study history
In a conoe.
We would go out
In the afternoon and
Come in late at Night. And we kept
This up. And she
Was cuter and keener
Every time I took
Her out. And the
Funny part of it is,
That both of us
Will take history,
The same history,
Over again.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Sweetheart, do you remember
That troubled day we met?
The smell of the rain-wet pine trees
Comes back when I think of it yet;
The crumbling roar of the thunder,
The sound of the rain-drops hiss
All swirled away into nothing,
In the magic of your kiss.

Sweetheart, do you remember
How you wrote, when you went away
Such eager love-letters,
Often two or three a day?
You spoke of a little cottage
With gay pansies and a lawn,
Where I'd wait in a doorway each evening
In a dress of yellow cretonne.
My love, you'll remember these matters
And some things you've forgotten,
to boot,
When the court meets next week to consider
My breach of promise suit.

Ode To Willamette

There's an old historic temple rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken-hearted fathers drew their strength for strong careers;

Down the years, its portals open
Gathered wise ones to its fold,

Breathed the spirit of the Westland—Cardinal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Dear old school, how strong we love thee! 'Round thy mem'ries how we cling!
Gladsome hearts beneath thy shadow, loyal hearts to thee we bring.

Old Willamette, how we cherish
All thy legends and thy lore,

Born upon the calm Pacific, guides us onward evermore.

Spirit of the Golden Westland, breathing through our fathers' tears,
Tells the story of the temple, bids us hope adown the years.

Sing, oh sing of old Willamette
Sing while hearts are young and true,

Sea to sea the chorus swelling, Dear Old School, our W. U.
