Eaton Renovation Completed

As winter break approached, the Willamette community witnessed the completion of the renovation of Eaton Hall. The building received new furnishings and a refreshing new atmosphere. Eaton has become the center for the English, education, philosophy, religion, history, and sociology departments. Mechanical and decor improvements produced a much more functional and comfortable building. Willamette will, however, miss the resident population of swallows that inhabited Eaton's attic. Eaton's restoration will allow students to continue learning at historic Willamette.

Would you believe Lee House I.M. Basketball champs? And that was before the Betas were thrown out by Pierson "the Knife." Congrats to Doc, Ice, Gus, Dave, Mark, and Mike; what a team! It's been a year: Jay broke all he could and left, but Chris stayed and played The Dead. We lost others too. No more Wayne to yell at frat rats, or Dale and Da Boys. Darrin knowcked himself out, but Russell never was awake. Hop along Clay, next Spring you'll play. The only roommate Dean had all year was Mick Jagger. Evan and Dave, the Alaska twins, broke up. Dave moved upstairs and Evan moved up North. Which play weren't you in, bob? Where's Robert? I haven't seen him since January. Do you Sig that the Chi pledged? Dave the doorman finally pays half. Marcus jumped out the second-story window, he must be on his way to see Kendra. Prez Andy, our fearless leader. Brian went to Lausanne to hide from Barb, but she found him. Country Dan grows fast beards, but only for the weekends. Aren't speed bags supposed to be faster? Harold wanted his own room, but Pat wouldn't leave. Burnout has more food in his room than Blanche does in her kitchen. Does "Punky" Don still live here? Dave is getting married, but not until he cleans the puke off his window. Dan wanted a new roommate worse than he did a woman — almost. Bruce and Aaron, gym rats and (Brown) field mice? The women are here once a week on holidays. Who is it this week, Joe: Lisa or Erika? Rocky IV will be filmed in a Roseburg orchard. Little Joe (no sweat) roomed with our dishwasher, but left to play hoops when Alice showed up. Darrick "the Torch" learned a little Japanese this year. Eight is enough for the Machine, but what about tomorrow night? Kevin worked in the library so he could stare at stacks. Brad missed his maid and most of his showers, but the Phi Delt's took him anyway. Scott is moving to Doney next year to practice on the stairs; just pretend it's a mattress in the Mill Stream and you'll do O.K. Can you turn your music down, Banana Mike, we can't hear Dave in the basement on his electric noisemaker. Thanks to Blanche and Susan for cooking and cleaning up after us; and thanks to the girls across the street for keeping their shades up at night.

Shepard House

Shepard House . . . The year of the IM Volleyball champs, functions that flopped, like a totally new homecoming experience with the Delts and the word "wrong" became the answer to everyone's problems. "What was that?! Oh, Barbara Dee and one of her afterhour comments on the sleeping porch." "Luz, where are you?" Then Heather beats "the system" and Julie keeps "Pumpin' and Blowin' " with Kristie. The house rang of interesting noises. Mary A's belching and Kristin's obnoxious violin noises heavily competed with the opera-like renditions of Heidi P. Suzie R. is our Resident Basement Hermit. Trina and Leslie go Pi Phi and Trina makes a new movie entitled "All My Men" while Leslie swims to Arkadelphia . . . and back. After all we did for Mary R., she's still as faithful as ever, but . . . "How fast does your Dad run the 100?" Marsha and Beth invade Lee House and give commercial commentaries during soaps. Charlotte, Yong and Maria provided the delinquents of the establishment with "Happy Hours." They were usually found sneaking out for "REAL FOOD" at any of the local oriental restaurants. Dana added her creative spLrits and helpful hints and obsession of tuna noodle casserole to the character of the house. Then Lee, our resident track star, showed us that her hair can grow shorter as time goes on. Sam takes the rays away, but LaRae brings 'em back with hugs. "Yes, Emily — we DO like him!" Ah! Stacey, the one with the beautiful eyes! Yes, Shepard House had its excitements for the 82-83 school year and next year will be filled with even more.

1982 WILLAMETTE BEARCATS

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE

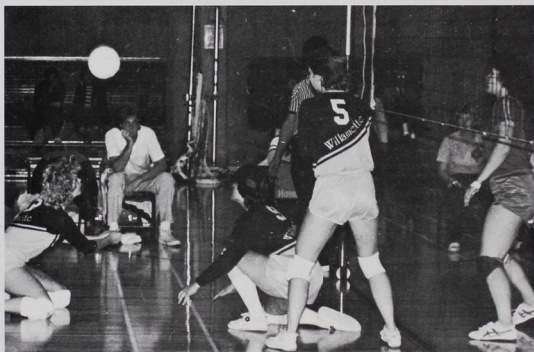

The Bearcats endured another 1 win season. Coach Broeker did bring some excitement to the grid-iron though as he got the fans cheering and growling, and displayed some new hopefuls. The 'Cats were competitive and played exciting football, but as the old cliché goes — "Better luck next year."

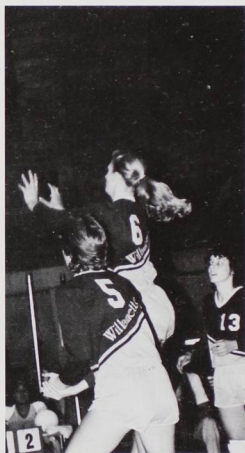

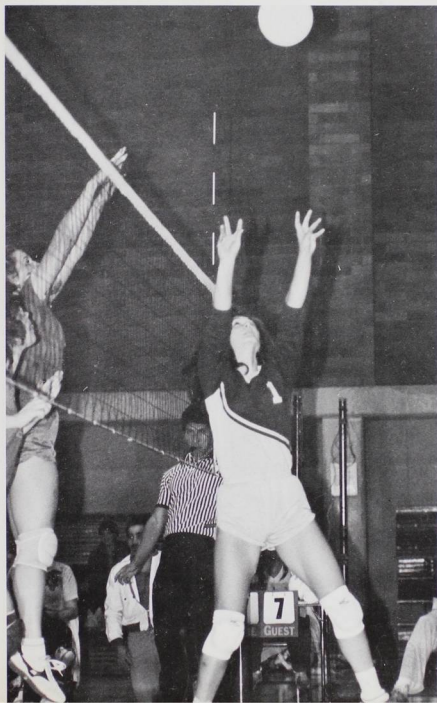

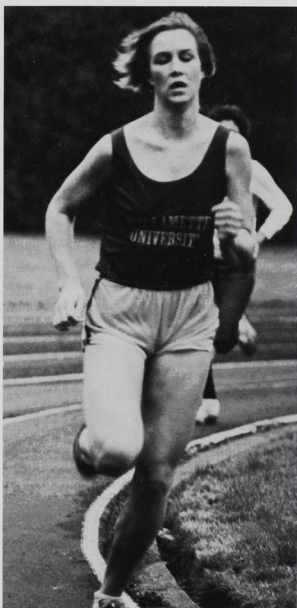

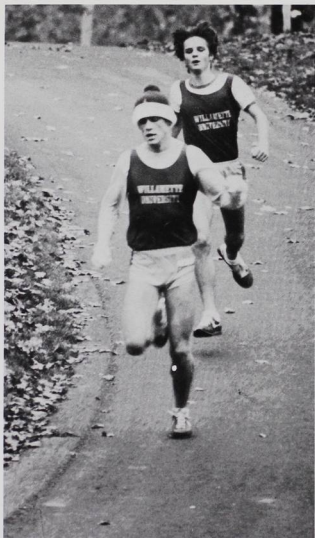

Spikers too young.

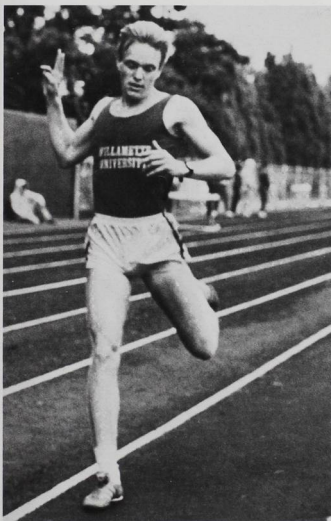

The Bearcat Spikers suffered growing pains throughout the season. At times they exhibited their potential, but inexperience seemed to always overcome talent. The young team has room to grow, potential, and youth, all the ingredients for a hopeful future.

Bearcat men and women runners again ran themselves to a fabulous season. The women paced themselves to second place finishes in both North west Conference and N.A.I.A. District II. The men's team blistered opponents and won their seventh straight Northwest Conference title for Coach Bowles. They also won their respective District II crown. The women's team sent two runners to the National Championships, while the entire men's team participated in their respective Championships.

N.A.I.A. District 2
Champions

The Men's Soccer team had its most successful season ever, going 11 straight till its first defeat, and finishing 15-4-0. They took the District Championship and placed second in North West Conference play. The offense averaged nearly 4 goals a game, while the defense allowed barely 1. Coach Victor's enthusiastic recruits and well seasoned veterans excited fans with their aggressive and physical play. Speed and skill were the offensive threats, backed up by quick acting and powerful defense.

The men's basketball team flew high all season with an almost completely new team from a year ago. We saw slam dunks, fast breaks, blocked shots, and heart stopping victories. Some of the more exciting games were wins over Whitworth (55-54) and Linfield (99-95). Outstanding seasons were completed by Reggie Guyton, Rick Holms, Bill Phipps, Carlos Gilyard, Quentin Reynolds, and Coach Glas. The team's keys to victory were "determination and hustle."

Coach Doug Ziebart and his wrestlers again proved the strength of Willamette's wrestling program. The team boasted its abundance of youth (Todd Weltner, Mike Spurr, Phil Kodachi, Joe La Coste, Darrick Smalley) and experience (Kelyy Hughes, Don Backman, Tim Martin, Bill Bishop, Dan McCue, Chuck Lentwyler, Mitch Taylor). The team was visibly improved. Though the team had its ups and downs, they mauled rival Linfield and gave nationally ranked Simon-Frazer a real scare winning four matches. The Bearcats ended up second in the Northwest Conference and watched three "mat-cats" go to the National Tourney.

Dr. Howard Runkel: Retiring after 33 years

Howard Runkel, Professor of Speech at Willamette, retired this year after devoting 33 years of his life to the University. A renowned authority on Abraham Lincoln, he donated some of his collection of Lincoln's works to the University. Runkel, a warm and generous man, will be sorely missed at Willamette.

To the purchaser:

We hope some of your memories have been captured by this publication. The Wallulah attempts to cover as much as possible but are all too often limited by circumstance and powers above and beyond. Please accept our apologies in sympathizing with the problems we were presented during the production of the 82-83 Wallulah. Your support and patience have been most appreciated.

Sincerely,
Bruce Clemetsen
Co-editor
