P. I. P. A. AT STANFORD

Stephen Mergler and Harold Tomlinson to Discuss Newspaper Problems

Stephen Mergler, editor of the Collegian, and T. Harold Tomlinson, manager of the Collegian, left by boat Tuesday for Palo Alto where they are to attend the annual conference of the Pacific International Press association, which is being held this year at Stanford University.

At the conference there will be group meetings where the editors and managers meet to discuss the major problems connected with the college newspaper. Also there will be separate meetings in which the editors discuss the more detailed editorial problems and another meeting at the same time in which the managers talk over the major managerial affairs.

Mergler and Tomlinson left from Portland Tuesday evening on the Admiral Benson, which landed in San Francisco this morning. They were to arrive in Palo Alto in time for the opening session at nine o'clock today. While in California, they will probably see the Stanford-Oregon State football game scheduled for Saturday. They are planning to leave Sunday morning by train from San Francisco and will arrive in Salem early Monday.

Because of the absence of the editor and the manager, the associate editor, the advertising manager, and their respective staffs have edited and managed this edition of the Collegian.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY RECEIVES NEW BOOKS

Recent Editions with Variety of Material and Interests Added this Week

Several very interesting books have been received in the university library during the past week. A number of the books are 1928 and 1929 editions and cover a wide range of material.

"All Quiet on the Western Front" by Remarque, a German soldier, is a new edition. This very popular book has recently been translated into English from German.

Other interesting books include "Anthropology and Modern Life" by Boas; "Old Civilizations of the World"; a study of the development of the races; and "Politics and Criminal Prosecution", a 1929 edition. Among the music books is a biography of Schubert, translated from German; and Irving Brown's "Deep Song", a book about gypsy songs and singers.

R. BETTS AND N. BEAVER MOTOR TO SYRACUSE

Betts and Several Willamette Graduates are Attending Harvard Medical School

Professor Monk has received a letter from Reeva Betts who graduated from Willamette last spring and is now attending Harvard Medical School at Boston. Reeve and Nat Beaver drove by auto to Syracuse, New York.

They began the trip on Sept. 8, and arrived at Syracuse on Sept. 15, the trip costing them approximately $60 apiece. From Syracuse Reeve continued his journey to Boston by train. He is rooming with Henry Oberon of Willamette's class of '28, and a second year man from Montana. They have a suite of three rooms which are very nice but Reeve says he needs J. P. Morgan to back him.

The laboratories are fully equipped with the latest apparatus and the boys are very well pleased with the school in general. Reeve has only two subjects, anatomy and histology, but according to him that is plenty.

COMMITTEE TO ENFORCE HONOR CODE

Four Seniors, Two Juniors and One Sophomore Compose the Committee

Although no meeting has yet been held, a committee to enforce the traditional Honor Code of Willamette University has been appointed by the executive committee. The committee is composed of Elsie Allen, Violet Beecher, Roberta Vannice and Camilla Gates, seniors; juniors, Harriette Hageman and Norabel Pratt; and sophomore, Wilbur Engelbertsen.

The Honor Code committee plans to uphold the traditional Honor Code of Willamette University, which is as follows:

"For the purpose of perpetuating the spirit and practice which Willamette University has always cherished as her ideal, the A. S. W. U. upholds the following standard of action to be considered as its tradition of honor:

Dishonesty in examinations, unfair work on notebooks and essays, improper use of library books and materials as well as property of others, and the employment of all illegitimate methods not herein specified, shall be deemed opposed to Willamette's standard.

Students guilty of such action shall be guilty of flagrant violation of the sacred traditions of the University."

Members of the university are expected to obey this code and to cooperate with the Honor Code committee in its enforcement.

FACULTY TO PAY FOR A. S. W. U. PRIVILEGES

Faculty members must pay for student body privileges as stated in the A. S. W. U. constitution, according to a recent ruling of the executive committee.

The constitution provides that five per cent of the ten dollar student body fee shall go to the COLLEGIAN; thus, fifty cents will be the price of faculty subscriptions, and other student body activities in which they may take part will be priced according to the listed percentages. The one payment necessary for students with which faculty members are in no way concerned is the seventeen per cent for class funds.

LOANS AVAILABLE FOR W. U. WOMEN

American Association of University Women Makes Loans Possible.

A scholarship loan fund is available to the women of Willamette who are in their senior year. Through the American Association of University Women, senior women are enabled to borrow sums from $50 to $150, payable in a year at 4 per cent interest. The payment of interest makes the loan a business transaction and reimburses the association for any losses which may occur. At the present time there is about $970 in the fund. Last year every dollar in the fund was loaned and many requests had to be refused.

The scholarship loan fund is administered by the board of trustees of the American Association of University Women. There are no special requirements for the privilege of borrowing from the fund except that the note must be signed by some other person who will agree to be responsible for its payment. All senior women who wish to take advantage of this loan are asked to see one of the following persons:

Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, 1456 Court Street.
Miss Stella Johnson, Lausanne Hall.
Miss Ola Clarke, 753 Marion Street.

SCHOLARSHIP CUP GIVEN NEXT WEEK

WINNER STILL UNDECIDED

Fraternity Which Gets This Cup for Six Consecutive Terms is Owner

The Fraternity Scholarship Cup will be awarded in chapel next week to the house with the highest average grades during the past semester. The grades are in the hands of the committee in charge of the award but have not yet been audited. The committee also hopes to be able to award the scholarship cup for sorority grades at the same time.

The Fraternity Scholarship Cup was presented in 1925 by Joseph Alberts of Ladd and Bush Bank to be awarded each semester to the men's fraternal organization which has the highest scholastic average for the previous semester. In order to gain actual ownership of the cup a house must win it three successive years, six semesters. The names of the organizations winning the cup are engraved upon it. The cup has been awarded seven times in the following order as named: Alpha Psi Delta, Epsilon Delta Mu, Alpha Psi Delta, Epsilon Delta Mu, and the last three successive semesters to Kappa Gamma Rho.

MANCKER, SHELLHART ATTEND SEMINAR

C. P. S. Offers One of the Six Such Summer Courses in the U. S.

Lester Mancker and Harold Shellhart attended the Industrial Seminar at the College of Puget Sound this last summer. This seminar is one of six in the United States and has been held for the last few years.

The course was given by Dr. Topping, professor of sociology at C. P. S. and lasted for six weeks. The men received three hours college credit for the work.

According to Mr. Mancker the work was made very interesting by trips to the sawmills, McNeil Federal Prison and Rainier National Park. Speeches by the business men of Tacoma and one by ex-Congressman Davis of the labor party of Washington added much to the course.

Mos for the men taking the course found work for the summer in Tacoma. They worked in the sawmills, smelters and anything that they could find to do. One person looked for four days before he could find work.

WILLAMETTE WESLYANS TO STUDY RELIGIONS

The Willamette Wesleyans have decided for this semester to take up at their weekly meetings a study of the different religions of the world. This promises to be a very interesting series of meetings, and the work for the semester looks very promising, with a good representation and a fine interest shown.

Y. W. CABINET PLANS LARGE STAFF DINNER

Plans for a staff dinner to be given by the Y. W. C. A. are now under way. This banquet will be for all the women of the university, but especially for the purpose of getting the various committees better organized.

DOT GORDON TO LEAD REGULAR Y.W. MEETING

Dorothy Gordon will lead the regular Y.W.C.A. meeting Thursday afternoon at four fifteen in the association rooms in Eaton Hall.

SPIRIT

Where is he among us who is so indifferent that he does not want Willamette teams to win? He cannot be found; and yet in order to have a winning team, we must have more than good wishes. We must have a real spirit not only in the team but also in the student body.

The team this year certainly has the spirit if any team ever had; but the student body has not yet displayed more than an interest. What is lacking anyway? Friday when we were given the opportunity to give the team a good send-off, we were so devoid of true spirit that the faculty on the platform couldn't even hear us yell, much less hear us sing.

Is it necessary that we be told again that every member of the student body must be on fire with enthusiasm and spirit, must have the fight in them and ready to go, if we can expect anything from the team?

Willamette has the best team that it has had in years. Are we going to fail it when we are vitally needed for its success? Are we going to go out merely as onlookers to see the Bearcats get beat by College of Idaho? Or are we going to get some fight in our eyes to match the battle light which is already glowing in the team's eyes?

The student body will not fail the team. Let's find that spark of spirit in our systems and fan it vigorously until it becomes a flaming battle-brand.

Let's be true sons of Old Willamette!

CHAMPOEG TO HAVE MEMORIAL BUILDING

Proposed to Ask Federal Aid in the Construction of this Monument

A pamphlet written by Milton A. Miller, state senator from Linn county is being circulated throughout Oregon in the interest of a plan for a $125,000 memorial building to be erected at Champeog.

His proposal is to ask federal aid in the form of an appropriation of money to construct the monument. He would also have the President of the United States, when the work is completed, enow with his cabinet to join the governor in a ceremony of dedication.

It was at the Champeog meeting in 1843 that the famous decision was reached which made Oregon an American state rather than a British colony. The historical "line-up", in which 50 took one side and 53 the other, has been called a "victory no less glorious than the victory of war won by the Mother State of New England."

Y.M.C.A. FIELD COUNCIL CONVENES IN PORTLAND

Representatives from Four States in the Northwest Attend the Meeting.

The North West Field Council of Y. M. C. A. met this last week in Portland. This council is composed of representatives from the four states, Washington, Montana, Idaho and Oregon. All the work of student Y. M. is controlled through this body.

During the business session leadership, finance, and World Student Christian Federation were discussed. Plans for Seabeck were made. Also the reports of the two representatives that attended the National Council were given. Dr. Raymond Culver, executive secretary by unanimous vote was asked to continue in that capacity.

Saturday afternoon and evening the Y. W. and Y. M. met in joint council at Rockcreek. In the evening John Maxwell Adams, student secretary at the U. of O. addressed them on "World Peace". This was followed by an open discussion. During this discussion of students, faculty, and secretaries a vote was taken to determine the opinions toward war. It was found that one would support his country in any war; ten would support it if the war was to them justifiable; and eighteen would not fight in any war.

INTEREST IN SIGNS ALREADY EVIDENCED

DEFINITE RULES STATED

Signs to be Judged on Originality, Appropriateness, and Cleverness

Interest in the sign contest has already begun. Lausanne Hall and each fraternity and sorority will compete in making Homecoming signs. For the last two years this feature has added much to the interest of the week-end. The Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity carried off the honors the first year and the Delta Phi sorority last year.

The signs are to be judged on originality, appropriateness, and cleverness. The cup will be awarded to the winning house on the evening of the play.

Rules governing the contest are as follows:

- 1. The sign must be a day and night sign, and must be located on the house or grounds.
2. All the expenses for making the sign must total less than ten dollars.
3. The sign must be ready to be judged by five-thirty Friday evening.
4. An itemized statement of all expenses must be presented to the manager of Homecoming by five o'clock Friday.

MOTHER NATURE CAUSES FALL OF SENIOR BENCH

Plans for Replacement Substantially Under Way; Delay Caused by Injury.

Because of the potential forces of "mother nature" the old senior bench stands now in a crumbling state. Plans for replacing the old bench are substantially under way at the direction of the last year's senior class. Funds have been collected from its various members, and the contract let. Owing to the fact that the contractor met with an accident, which resulted in the breaking of his arm, the building of the bench has been delayed. The work on the new senior bench will begin in the near future.

W. U. WOMEN TO MEET WITH N. S. C.

About Thirty Women from Seabeck Division Attend Rock Creek Conference

Marie Messersmith, world fellowship chairman of the Seabeck division of the Y. W. C. A. and Dorothy Taylor, president of our local Y. W., represented Willamette at the week-end conference held at Rock Creek camp October 11 to 13. About thirty women from the Seabeck division attended this meeting of the National Student Council.

The majority of the time was given over to commission work on various projects of the college Y. W. C. A. in Idaho, Washington, Montana, and Oregon. The conclusions reached by these groups were then presented for the consideration of the entire council. The interests that provoked the most thought this year were those pertaining to fraternity relationships, the industrial experiments, and religious education.

W.A.A. SPONSORS HIKE FOR UNIVERSITY WOMEN

Feeble-minded School Destination for Saturday Morning Hike from Waller Hall.

A daybreak hike to the Feeble-minded School was sponsored by W.A.A. Saturday morning for all women of the university. From Waller Hall the girls hiked out Twelfth street six miles in all for which they earned twelve points according to the W.A.A. point system.

Many more hikes of this nature for Freshman as well as for members of the association will be held in the future.

Several awards are being offered by W.A.A. this year to stimulate interest in women's athletics. Among these are pins for members, W. U. emblems, and a silver loving-cup for the best all-around athlete of the Senior class.

Points for these awards can be earned in the following ways: 100 points for playing on any class team, basketball, baseball, or volleyball; 100 points for membership in the Red Cross, Life Saving Corps, and 2 points per mile for hiking.

Four hundred points are necessary for a W.A.A. pin and four hundred points in two different activities are necessary for a W. U. emblem. The best all-around athlete of the Senior class is elected by members of the association at the end of the school year.

PETITIONS FOR DEGREE WITH REGISTRAR FRIDAY

Will Enable Seniors to Petition Faculty in Case of Unforeseen Difficulties

Seniors must hand in their petitions for degree by Friday, October 18, 1929. Then in case of an error in courses or requirements seniors will have time to petition the faculty about the matter. Therefore, it would be extremely wise to get that petition in to the registrar immediately. This includes summer school graduates also.

RELIGIOUS LIFE DISCUSSED BY FACULTY

Topic Based Upon Inaugural Address of the President of Ohio Wesleyan

There was a faculty meeting Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of discussing the religious life of the faculty with relations and bearing on the life of the student. The discussion was based on the inaugural address of President Shoper of Ohio Wesleyan University, in which he spoke of faculty freedom in teaching the religious life to students in Christian colleges. The problem was how the faculty could improve their Christian living and thereby develop a finer spiritual life among the students. Suggestions were made stressing conference, personal contacts, and interest in student problems and activities. The whole meeting was interesting and worthwhile because of the united broadness of attitude and sincere desire to encourage Christian living in the fullest extent.

EXCURSION TO WHITMAN CANNOT BE ARRANGED

Excursion to Whitman Cannot Be Arranged

The purpose of this committee is to keep order in the library. The plans for the year are not known because the committee has not had a meeting as yet.

Excursion to Whitman Cannot Be Arranged

An excursion to Whitman is out of the question according to Leslie Sparks, graduate manager. The trip would cost each person about twenty-five dollars, and it is extremely doubtful whether the faculty would give its approval.

So unless a game with College of Puget Sound can be arranged, there will be no excursion this year.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM OVER HOMECOMING

MANAGER HAS FINE PLANS

"Root and Boot the Badgers" is Slogan Chosen for the Present Year

Homecoming week-end this year promises to excel in enthusiasm all such former events. Manager Lawrence Winalow has been meeting with his committees during the week and definite plans have been drawn up by each group.

Roy Harland is the winner of the slogan contest with the catchy phrase, "Root and Boot the Badgers". Already the houses are getting ready for some stiff competition in the sign contest. The two major events of the program will be the Theta Alpha Phi play and the game with Pacific University.

The program is varied and well founded. After a few changes and additions that are being planned, it will lack nothing in interest for students and graduates. The main happenings of the week-end begin Friday evening with the "W" club banquet. Following this will be the pajama parade and the fireworks. A full evening of pep doings in the gymnasium will be in charge of Ball and Chain. Saturday morning the alumni and students will gather in a special chapel for inspiration and pep. That noon will perhaps be used for house get-togethers. The big game will come in the afternoon, and the events will be brought to a fitting close that evening with the play, "It Pays to Advertise".

Committees for hospitality, alumni correspondence, and invitations are all working for a larger number of alumni for Homecoming. They are interested that each student advertise the occasion in every way possible. Printed invitations will be sent to all those who have attended here formerly whether graduates or not. Two or three of the Homecoming committee may accompany the Blue Key delegation that is to attend the alumni banquet in Portland on the twenty-first. They hope to work up enthusiasm for Willamette Homecoming.

HOMECOMING PLAY TO BE PRESENTED NOV. 1

Committee Decides that Attendance Will not be Affected by Morning Olson Play.

The Theta Alpha Phi play, "It Pays to Advertise", will be given the Friday evening of Homecoming in spite of the fact that the Moroni Olson players will be in town Thursday evening previous, was the decision handed down by a committee appointed by the executive committee to look into the matter when his managers of the play asked to have the date transferred. It was the opinion of this committee that the Moroni Olson would affect little if any the gate receipts of the Theta Alpha Phi play, then, too, that it was too late to secure other entertainment for the festive week-end.

SOPHOMORE SWEATERS ARRIVE IN TWO WEEKS

The members of the committee who chose the jacket are Al King, Nellie Badley, Lois German, Bessie Brown, Bertha Babcock and Oiven Bowe.

In complement to the new girls on the campus the members of Daleth Teth Gimel were hostesses at a charming Garden Tea held in the attic at Lausanne Hall on the afternoon of October 12. Branches, tiny trees and a carpet of autumn leaves made the large attic room a delightfully woodsy garden. The tea was served by dainty little shepherdesses.

One of the shepherdesses, Miss Josephine Olsson, sang "Old Fashioned Garden" and "In the Garden of Tomorrow", with a violin obligato accompaniment played by Miss Mildred Wilkins. A playlet, "Hearts for Sale", was presented with Miss Beulah Graham as Daphne, Miss Leah Fanning as Cupid, Miss Violet Beecher as the Dove, Miss Esther Girod and Miss Irma Sawyer as Shepherds, and Miss Lucille Millhollin and Miss Elsie Allen as Loves.

OLD DIARIES GIVEN TO UNIVERSITY

Former Registrar of the Santiam Academy Kept Accounts of Interest

Willamette University has recently been presented with two very interesting old diaries, compiled in the early 1860's. The author, the Rev. Mr. W. B. Blaine, was a minister and also acted as lecturer and registrar of the Santiam academy.

One book, which is a diary for the year 1862, is a very complete account of his own life and especially his expenditures. Many of the old settlers' names and the ministers of the circuit are mentioned.

Mr. Blaine was treasurer of the Albany-Lebanon circuit, and the other book contains the "quarterly receipts of the Albany-Lebanon circuit" for 1860.

In this book there is also given a roll of the students of the Portland academy with their tuition fees. The latter average about seven dollars per quarter.

The books were presented by Mr. E. L. Blaine, son of the author, to the university, and are being kept in the vault in Mr. Savage's office until a proper place can be found in which to keep them.

STRANGE FEATURES IN 1913 HANDBOOK

Students Asked Not to Loiter on Campus Bridge but to Patronize Ads

"Don't go down by the old mill stream. Go down buy something from our advertisers." Such is the plea of the editors of the 1913-14 "Freshman Bible".

In those days a student did not always take his date to the theater or such; he took her to the bridge across the mill stream or walked along its banks. A boating or canoeing party was the favorite pastime. Two boat companies advertised special rates and attention to the Willamette students.

Unlike recent editions of the handbook, the 1913-14 one is bound in real leather. The paper is buff color with brown printing. It contains one hundred and twelve pages, each of which has a gilt edge.

The old handbook was published by the Christian associations of the campus. Beryl Holt, now a teacher in Salem High, was on the staff.

The old handbook has a social calendar and the welcomes extended by both Y. M. and Y. W. The literary societies were the social organizations. Among the other flourishing clubs were the Student Volunteer Band, the Eaton Club, the Girls Willamette club, the Teutonia German club, and the Lausanne Hall club.

In those days Willamette played the coast conference teams. According to the scores, her showing was pretty good. Of the collection of songs in that handbook, we sing only two now, "There's an Old Historic Temple" and the "Cannibal King". Two of the old yells are still used although they have been rearranged.

In 1913 there were a College of Liberal Arts, the College of Law, the School of Music, the Willamette Art School, and the Academy. The academy and the art school were discontinued in a few years.

During that year there was an opera "The Chimes of Normandy", the program of which was printed in the handbook. One of the parts was taken by Herman Clark, who is now Professor W. W. Herman Clark.

Many campus scenes adorn the book. At that time there was a long row of maples on the campus along State street.

HEADACHE IS INDICATION OF OVERWORK, TROUBLE

SAN FRANCISCO. — Chronic headache, when not traceable to organic disease, is frequently just a sign that people are living beyond their physical means and attempting too much work and worry for their strength.

This fact was emphasized recently by Dr. LeRoy H. Briggs, clinical professor of medicine at the University of California Medical School in a discussion of this common human ailment written for the journal of the California Medical Association, California and Western Medicine. Dr. William Dock of San Francisco, and F. F. Abbott of Ontario, also contributed to the discussion.

Dr. Briggs pointed out that headache caused by a finite organic disease is relatively infrequent, as is also that particular type of headache known as migraine headache, for which cause and cure are unknown. On the other hand, functional or as they are sometimes called, nervous headaches, constitute the great bulk of cases.

He says: "True functional headaches constitute the great bulk of our problem, and for want of a better word might be called 'neurasthenic headaches.' How else are we going to class the great number of headaches seen in the asthenic and hypertonic individuals, true, often partly due to errors in bodily hygiene, worry, emotional strain, etc.? The fact remains that in persons of a different nervous status, similar errors and strain do not produce the headache. Eyestrain, autointoxication, constipation, 'indurative headache,' how often have we used these terms to the patient simply because we lacked the fortitude or tact properly to tell him the truth about himself? One hates to hear that by birth or training he is not stout enough to bear up under the buffetings of this complicated existence without some show of weakening, and he seeks out that advisor who holds forth the often vain hope of a tangible short-cut and cure, rather than the one who would show him that the sought-for relief lies in a slackening of speed, a better mode of living, or a different philosophy of life. He should be taught the words of Trudeau, that 'the conquest of Fate is not by struggling against, nor by trying to escape from it, but by acquiescence.'"

SPECIAL ATTRACTION AT FOX ELSINORE THEATRE

"Why Bring That Up" Now Playing; "Smiling Irish Eyes" to Start Saturday.

Today and tomorrow will be the last times to see those screeching funny black face comedians, Moran and Mack in their first Paramount picture "Why Bring That Up". Although the price paid by the theatre for this attraction is double the ordinary picture rental, the management is showing it at the regular house prices.

Coming Saturday for three days is the first talking-singing picture of Colleen Moore, in "Smiling Irish Eyes", and added to the picture program on Saturday and Sunday will be the newest of the Fanchon & Marco ideas, "Hollywood Studio Girls".

Camera! Action! Here's something new! You are going to have a glimpse of Hollywood, not on the screen, as you have before... but this time on the stage. It's Fanchon & Marco's 1930 edition of "Hollywood Studio Girls" which presents the Hollywood Studio Beauties and a big cast of single, dance, talkie entertainment makers.

It's a stage jamboree of screen-land girls, and capers, and gags, and everything, with the alluring Hollywood Studio Girls, direct from many famous screen productions in the cinema capital.

Pep Staff Interviewed by Frosh Who Finds Non-Break Mirror Used According to Song Queen's Story

Dear Source-of-Income:

Sure—I understand—They give us Freshwomen all the Hard, Brief Things to tackle—and, by Hard, Brief Things to tackle I don't mean the water boy on the Enemy's Team!! How would I know what Mary Allen thought the school needed in Spirit (un-bottled kind) when she didn't know herself hardly? Of course, she DID revise the old favorite by deciding "It All Depends on Studes," but how could I write that when it sounds like "It All Depends on Stews"—That isn't even Modest, and you know it!!! But then what is one to do? Of course you and I both know that Freshmen are always better reporters and interviewers than regular classmen and all that, but just the same this sort of thing just won't help to reveal the talent of the Freshman class and I don't think that they are very considerate of us young Saplings!

But Miss Allen did say something sort of SNAZZY—(There I go—I'd erase SNAZZY only that eraser I had developed the home-sick curse and has wandered back to its former slave-driver). Well, Anyway, Mary Allen told me and I'm telling you and you can tell everybody that the Yell King and Crown Prince practice every day before the MIRROR—(an un-breakable one). Imagine that!!!! While if they'd only be their own Sweet Selves I'm positive the yell-ers would find them much more simple and amusing. But you just can't tell these men a THING!! But a girl like MARY ALLEN—well, just the mere fact that she's a human factory of Smiles with Blue Windows would get her by. Anyway, what it's all about is that I'm supposed to tell mine fellow sufferers that they must give every SPARE TIRE, LOOSE TOOTH & HANG NAIL, toward getting the Pip out of W. U. Pep!!!! And you know, yourselves, I wanted to offer up that yell that we composed last year, but I'm sorta timid for fear they'll ask me for too much in the future—You know, the one about the Homecoming game on November second, four candidates from the freshman class have been in constant training since the first announcement of the race. They are Phil Armstrong, Wesley Gregg, Tyrus Hillway and Frederick Edmundson. None of these has ever run in a long meet before.

The upper classes also have their men in the field. Hayes Bell, Donald Earle, Michael Fitzpatrick, Alfred French, Bert Gilchrist, Glenn Houston, Frank Lockhart and Perry Spellbrink represent the sophomores; Edwin Rounds and Francis DeHarport are running for the juniors; and Lewis Van Winkle, Harry Stone and Frank Van Dyke intend to win for the seniors.

Twenty days of training are required before entrance into the race. Each class may enter five men. Every man student is urged to support his class by joining the ranks of those who are now in practice.

BEARCATS BATTLE OREGON'S MACHINE

SCORING PUNCH LACKED

Lemon-Yellow Men Take Advantage of Breaks to Win Annual Contest

Although failing to score, it was no unmerciful beating, that the Bearcats took from the hands of Coach McEwan's men. Early in the first period, on an intercepted pass by Cardinal, Willamette carried the ball deep into Oregon's territory. At the twenty yard line they were held for downs. Oregon punted. The punt was fumbled and Willamette lost the ball. After bucking the line for a time the Webfooters resorted to the aerial attack. A pass from Robinson to Mason put the ball in scoring position. Browne bucked it over for the first counter. Oregon's second score came when Donohue carried the ball from the six yard line for a touchdown.

Willamette Begins March
On the next kickoff Willamette began a drive for the Oregon goal. Lang carried the ball through tackled for several yards. Erickson and Faber each skirted the ends for gains. The Bearcats were piling up some first downs.

Scoring Punch Lacking
But the scoring play failed to come. Lang was carried off the field and Willamette was forced to punt. Bobby Robinson returned the punt to midfield. After several passes and line plunges, Mason took the ball for Oregon's third touchdown.

Third Quarter Scoreless
In this canto the Bearcats more than held their own. After holding the Lemon-Yellow for two downs on the Willamette five yard line, French intercepted a pass. He dashed for 35 yards down the field before an Oregon man took him out. Even with French disabled the Bearcats continued the drive.

Fumble Spoils Scoring Chance
A pass from Erickson to Cardinal put the ball on Oregon's 30 yard line. Again a fumble, this time a pass from center to the ball carrier, ruined Willamette's chance. Oregon fell on the ball, the quarter ended.

Kitsmiller Oregon's Big Gun
In the final period the "Flying Dutchman" took a lateral pass to the five yard line. On the next play Browne bucked it across. The final score came when Kitsmiller ran the kickoff to midfield. He then took a pretty lateral pass over for the count.

Willamette Line Stiffens
With seven minutes to go the Lemon-Yellow uncorked another drive. This time the advance was not moving so rapidly. The Bearcat line held. Jones was breaking through to get the Oregon backs before they would get up steam. With 30 seconds to play and two yards to go, the Webfooters tried two successive plunges at center but the hole was not there. The game ended with the Willamette line preparing for another shock.

PRESBYTERIANS WILL NOT ENGAGE BEARCATS

Due to some unforeseen incident, the Albany College eleven has declined to play the Bearcat squad there Friday the 18th. A future date has not been made. Apparently the Willamette team will again be forced to rest or scrimmage among themselves.

Sportorials

One of the football aspects of the Saturday's game was the fact that Albany college held Pacific to a 14 to 12 victory. In addition the Albany players out-charged and out-fought the heavier Badger team and demonstrated that they will be no easy opponent for the Bearcat squad next Saturday. Last year Willamette was able to run up a good score on the Albany players, but this season the dope seems to indicate that Willamette will have to play hard football to overcome the Albany eleven.

Comparing the two teams, Oregon and O. S. C., it was the general opinion of the Bearcat players that Oregon state will win the annual contest between the two schools. The Orange and Black players seem to have more spirit and are faster charging, although they will be out-weighted by the Oregon team.

Pete Rasmussen, tackle of last year's Bearcat team, is playing for Monmouth Normal school this year, and according to reports is one of the team's outstanding linemen. Bob Hillis, another man of last year's team, is also turning out for football, but this year at Oregon. If Bob can learn to use his knees he ought to make McEwan's team with no other qualifications.

It seems impossible that a team can run fast enough to score 71 points against another team in sixty minutes of play. This, however, seems to be the situation in the Whitman-Linfield game and just about blackens the idea that Linfield is the dark horse of the conference.

"Spec" Keene will need to hold his football managers to the same training rules as those of the players, if he is to eliminate the possibility of the managers again forgetting the football helmets. The situation was not serious last Saturday, however, for the Oregon managers were kind enough to help the Bearcats out.

MEET THE TEAM

Jesse Deetz
"Mutt" came to Willamette three years ago from Woodburn, where he had played halfback for three years. Last year he did not turn out but now he is back on the squad working hard as a reserve. "Mutt" is another of our many married men.

Fred Paul
Paul is from McMinnville, with three years playing experience. Fred is one of the lightest men on the squad; also on one of the shiftiest. During the Oregon game he saved the Bearcats from a bigger defeat by snaring an Oregon pass on the Willamette goal line.

Walter Erickson
Wait is one of the most promising halfbacks that the Willamette ball club has annexed in several years. Wait makes up in speed what he lacks in weight. He comes from Washougal, Washington, with three years experience at quarter behind him. Wait also plays basketball and baseball.

Eugene Ferguson
"Fergy" played one year on the Washington Hi team of Portland as halfback and was captain and half at Oregon Normal for two years. He is now enrolled in Law school, after two years as physical director of education in the city schools of St. Helens.

WILLAMETTE GIVES WEBFEET TROUBLE

BEARCAT THREAT AVERT

Newspaper Reporters Give Wrong Slant in Sport Write-ups

In spite of the 24 to 6 defeat chalked against them, the showing made by the Bearcats against the University of Oregon eleven was impressive. The Willamette men played creditable ball, and at times actually looked better than the Webfeet.

On the face of it, that looks like a foolhardy statement. However it is justified in this way; breaks had an important hand to play in the five touchdowns scored against Coach Keene's men. Two Oregon scores came as direct results of breaks. During the first quarter Willamette advanced deep into the Webfooters' territory only to lose all that was gained on a tumbled Oregon punt. After gaining possession, Oregon managed to pull out of danger.

Once again, with backfield clicking and line holding, Willamette started a drive down the field. That threat, too, was checked when Oregon again fell on a Bearcat fumble.

Even with these fumbles against them, the Jason Lee backfield gave some pretty exhibitions in carrying the ball and in snaring passes. In the second period, when in the shadow of her own goal posts, the Willamette line dumped two successive Oregon tries for losses. Failing to gain on line backs the Lemon-Yellow resorted to a pass.

Hi French intercepted it and dashed to midfield where he was downed. Another time an Oregon pass that meant a score was intercepted. This time by Paul, Willamette reserve quarter, on the Bearcat goal line.

From the spectators' viewpoint it is almost agreed that the Bearcat gridriders furnished more thrills than did the big Lemon-Yellow players.

Erickson gave the stands a big treat when he reversed the whole Oregon team for a 15 yard gain. To execute that play Walt carried the ball 50 yards; 15 to the right, back 30, and around Oregon's right end for a 15 yard gain. Ferguson, Willamette reserve half, brought Oregon rooters and Bearcat backers alike to their feet when he waded through the entire Oregon team on a kickoff. He was clear of every man when a speedy Oregon boy clipped him from behind. Again it was a Bearcat who added the third big punch to the game. Don Faber grabbed a fumbled ball and made a beautiful 60 yrd run before he was downed. Due to the new ruling on fumbles the play was not allowed.

Jones and Carpenter scintillated in the line. During the last few minutes of play, Jones repeatedly rushed through the line and got the ball later before he could start. Red Lang played his usual bang-up game at full. The heavy Oregon wall had trouble stopping him. Not once did he fail to gain when packing the ball.

To the reader it may appear that Oregon has no team and that Willamette played into a lot of hard luck. Such is not the case. McEwan has a smooth-working combination in his backfield, but the big Oregon line did not come up to expectations. Oregon's secondary defense stopped most of Willamette's plays. It may have been an off day for the Lemon-Yellow, but for all that Portland newspapers talk about the Webfooters having little difficulty in blanking the Bearcats is a bit misleading. Nearly every Oregon regular saw plenty of action, and here are a few Willamette reserves who played good ball for the Bearcats: Basher, center; Ferguson, half; Deetz, full; Grant and Flock, tackles; Gill, guard; Benjamin, quarter; and Paul, quarter.

According to these figures Oregon did have trouble with the Willamette squad.

Whitman, Linfield and Idaho Get off at Poor Start, Improvement Expected

Linfield lost their opening bout last Saturday to Centralia Junior college in a game which seemed to feature penalties. Centralia is not a member of the conference and a much different story was expected. Warren at Fallback and Hosteler at end bore the brunt for the Wildcats. Toward the end of the game a second string was entered by Centralia, but still managed to advance the ball against the worn out Linfield boys.

East Oregon Normal school at La Grande lost 19-7.

Cornell figuring that he had little more than a practice game with the normalites, started the game with second string men and paid a high forfeit for his mistake. After allowing the East Oregon men to put over two counters in the first half, Cornell started his first string in an effort to bring victory out of defeat. They did better than the second string but failed to cross the line more than once, and that on a blocked kick near the goal line of the Normal. They also failed to hold the La Grande boys from their goal, and it was crossed once during the second half.

This game is unusually significant since the Normal has its first class of students and its first football team.

Whitman Prey for Vandals
Whitman fell before University of Idaho 41-7 in a game which fell below the standard set by them last week against Bagshaw's Huskies.

Applegate, quarterback played an outstanding game for the Missionaries and with the assistance of Holmgren, also an old veteran, they may be able to hold up the team to a par with teams of more reasonable size.

Whitman's team seems to be peculiarly weak on punting having an average of about fifteen yards in Saturday's game.

Pacific Looms As Contender
Pacific won their first victory of the season over Columbia at Multnomah Field, Saturday.

After playing a quarter of desperate ball the "Fighting Irishmen" of Columbia broke loose in the second quarter with a long pass to Brennen to Cosgrove which easily netted them a touchdown. Another pass quickly netted the extra point leaving a 7-0 score to the credit of the Irish.

During the intermission between the halves Coach Frank of Pacific apparently used some of those magic words so common to coaches and his Badgers came on the field for a second period with renewed vigor. Cross at quarter opened the attack and after a few minutes of brilliant playing, consisting mainly of line plunging, managed to push the ball over for a counter. The attempt for point failed but in the fourth period Hickey and Garry, tackles were forced out of play by injuries and the Columbia line immediately began to leak. The Badgers, realizing the weakened forward wall of their opponents started another series of line plunges ending in a second touchdown by Cross.

In the final quarter the Portland school tried desperately to score by an aerial attack until Tour, Badger center, intercepted one of the passes and ran twenty yards for a touchdown. The try for point by Charlton, finished the game.

This game showed several things. One of which is that Willamette will have a good chance to use their strong line in the Pacific game for Homecoming. It also showed that Columbia is making a strong bid for conference recognition and a few more games like this and they are likely to be full fledged members of the Pacific Northwest Conference.

According to a study recently made of the Los Angeles playgrounds the highest percentage of accidents are had in baseball games. Next in order of injuries are playground balls, volleyball and football. Of play on apparatus the most dangerous are regulation swings, flying rings and sliding poles.
