Dedication

Freshman Glee 1986 is dedicated with pride and enthusiasm to the Kaneko family on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the founding of Willamette University's first sister college, International College of Commerce and Economics (Kokusai Shoka Daigaku). Dr. Taizo Kaneko founded ICC in 1965 and thus fulfilled his long-cherished vision of establishing a unique institution of higher learning emphasizing international education. Today the supervision of the school is in the hands of his son, Dr. Yasuo Kaneko.

Dr. Taizo Kaneko

The students and faculty of Willamette University are indebted to the Kaneko family and to ICC for enabling us to expand our horizons beyond the provincial atmosphere of the Pacific Northwest. We are delighted that Dr. Kaneko had the foresight to initiate a sister-college relationship and are especially pleased that he selected Willamette University. This relationship has flourished to the betterment of both institutions.

An integral part of this relationship is the student exchange program and this evening our honored guests are members of the ICC student body. The name of our sister institution will be changed to Tokyo International University (Tokyo Kokusai Daigaku) effective April 1, 1986.

Judges and Judging

Lyrics/Composition: Dr. Melvin Geist, Mr. K. C. Humphrey, Ms. Cathy Wade

Vocal Rendition/Presentation: Sen. L. B. Day, Dr. Richard Litchfield, Ms. Elizabeth Steinberg, Mrs. Rebecca Warren

Marching/Formation: Colonel Gary Lockwood, Ms. Ann Nathan, Ms. Ann Pederson, Dr. Daniel Schultze

Freshman Glee is judged in three major categories: musical composition and lyrics, vocal rendition, and marching and formation. Musical composition and lyric scoring is based on originality, coordination and adaptability to the Glee theme and overall impact of the song. Vocal rendition is judged on expression, tone quality and musicality. Marching and formation is judged on precision, originality and total effect. Using an established point system, the judges award points for each of the three areas. The class accumulating the most points will be the winner of Freshman Glee, and the losing class will walk the millstream for more marching practice on Blue Monday.

I See Grey

By the Class of 1986

Reflections of Willamette
Oh how I yearn for thee!
How will I remember
I will always remember Glee.

What is a loser?
One who comes in last.
What is a loser?
One who cannot pass.

We know in our hearts from our first Freshman Frost
Though we have not won we're alive with ev'ry loss.

Alma Mater
Hudson's Bay
U.C. Desk and
I see grey.

Bearcats, Bearcats, Bearcats!

Lookin' down the road
Undergrads no more.
Willamette has giv'n us
Few open doors;
With our degrees in hand
pounding the paved streets,
Trying to survive
while we keep our beat.

Ode to Willamette

Words by Perry Reigleman, '12

Music by F. S. Mendenhall

Dean of the School of Music

There's an old historic temple
 rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken hearted fathers
 drew their strength for strong careers;
Down the years, its portals open,
 Gathered wise ones to its fold.
Breathed the spirit of the Westland,
 Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Dear old School! How strong we love thee!
 'Round thy mem'ries how we cling!
Glad some hearts beneath thy shadow, loyal hearts to thee we bring.
Old Willamette how we cherish
 all thy legends and thy lore,
Born upon the calm Pacific,
 Guides us onward ever more.

Spirit of the Golden Westland,
 breathing through the father's tears,
Tells the story of the temple,
 bids us hope a down the years,
Sing, oh, sing of dear Willamette,
 Sing while hearts are young and true,
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
 Dear Old School of our W.U.

Syncopated Time

By Amy Cannon, Melissa Gunter,
Sue Lundy & Linda Miyake
Class of 1987

When we were younger
Time seemed never ending,
And as we grew
We found this to be true.
The pulse of life is passing by too soon.

So now we're older and we see the future.
It lies before us
In a mystery.
Willamette's guidance helps us grow
And succeed.

Pride in our success;
A wider range of thought;
A sense of prestige
Colors our lives.
Willamette gives us a reason to cry,
"Camp Willamette,
Oldest School in the West!
Founding fathers
Helped to make it the best!"

Non Nobis Solum Nati Sumus

Strength, knowledge, and pride
Are what we learn from our
Alma Mater,

Strength, knowledge, and pride
Are what we learn from our University!

Time keeps passing;
Time!

Celebration in Pride

By Vijay Singh & Jon Radmacher

Class of 1988

Alma Mater

Non Nobis Solum Natis Sumus

Let's make a toast to the pride that carries on,
doo dat dat dat da...Celebrate!

Celebrate our pride in a song!

doo dat dat dat da ooh-wah...

If you're a sophomore you can't go wrong,

Ba bop bop bop bop ba ba bah...

We're the ones that are coming on strong!

Chorus:

Don't you know that we're happy inside?

It's coming from our pride!

You can tell we've got nothing to hide,

It's coming from our pride!

We'll dress up fine, in our top hat, tails and cane;

doo dat dat dat da...Celebrate!

Bearcats struttin' on down the lane.

doo dat dat dat da ooh-wah...

Grab a girl and a case of champagne,

no! no! no! no! no! no! ba ba bah...

Having a good time and feeling no pain!

Chorus

Hey! Listen to us, we're talkin' 'bout...W.U.,

It's been around for many a year,

and now we want to make it perfectly clear...

We're the "Best, small, private, comprehensive university west of the Mississippi!"

We're shining bright in our celebration,

We won't surrender to intimidation,

When we blow up they'll be devastation.

Smile with determination,

You'll get much further with your education,

We're standing proud it's a great sensation!

Alma Mater

Willamette U.

Alma Mater

By Robin Betts & Jennifer Sasser
Class of 1989

Each of us fulfills a special role,
Remembering we're one, to better the whole.
Learning and dreaming, always looking up,
Sharing and giving, but never giving up.

Chorus:

Willamette U.
Willamette U.
What you have given us,
We will give back to you.

Willamette U.
Willamette U.
To your spirit we will be true.

The four short years are only just the start -
What our future holds,
is locked inside our hearts.
From a darkness deep inside,
a dream has come alive.
Knowledge through the years,
now for wisdom we will strive.

Chorus

Although one day we may be far apart,
The love we share lasts inside our hearts.
To the friends we've made,
forever will be true.
After we leave our home Willamette U.

Chorus
