Geneva Russell Wright will present her senior recital in the Willamette University music hall Sunday, April 19, at 3 p.m. Mrs. Wright, who has completed three and a half years of study at Willamette, is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon and Alpha Lambda Delta.

HER PROGRAM will be opened by a Bach "Partita No. 1 in B flat." There are seven movements to the selection. She will also play "Prelude, Chorale and Fugue" by Cesar Franck.

The third part of her program will be devoted to the "Kinderszenen (Scenes of Childhood), Op. 15," by Robert Schumann. This includes thirteen pieces, all about children.

THE FINAL selection of her program will include "Three Dances in Bulgarian Rhythm," by Bela Bartok, "Sirocco - Porto Ercole" by Alexi Haieff, and "Jeux d'Eau," by Maurice Ravel.

Mrs. Wright has held Freshman Honor and Theodore Presser scholarships, and twice has been the recipient of the Ellen J. Chamberlin-Julie C. Schultz scholarship.

She is now a piano teacher in Madras, where her husband is music teacher and vice principal of the grade school.

Northwest College Librarians Plan Conference on Campus

The University Library will be host to between 30 and 40 Northwest college librarians at their annual conference Saturday, April 18, on the Willamette campus.

THE LIBRARIANS will be considering the acquisition and handling of materials on local and Northwest history in college libraries, highlighted by a talk on "Mining the Mother Lode" by Dean Kenneth L. Holmes, professor of history at Linfield College. The morning session on this topic will be at 10 a.m. in the Little Theater of the Fine Arts auditorium building.

An afternoon of "buzz sessions"

Rademaker Panelist

Professor John A. Rademaker has been invited to participate in a panel discussion of Educational Television at the annual meeting of the American Association of University Professors at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on April 24.

The meeting which calls Dr. Rademaker to Pittsburgh includes sessions of the National Council, the annual membership meeting, and the meeting of officers of state and regional councils of the AAUP. Sessions will begin on Wednesday, April 22 and end on Sunday, April 26.

Young Demos Elect Heads

Election of officers was the main business of the WU Young Democrat's meeting Tuesday evening. Heading up the group next year as president will be Lars Nelson. Barbara Balsiger and Don Kaneski were elected first and second vice-presidents, respectively. The new treasurer is Jerry Marsh with Jean Savage as secretary. Jo Gannon is the new program coordinator.

Also elected during the Young Demo convention last week, were Fred Chambers as vice-president of the state organization and Dan Marsh as vice-president of the first congressional district. Dan Marsh is also the college coordinator for this state, appointed by the national Young Democrat president.

ASB Elections Next Week To Select BMOC's, Queens

The short week of spring weather that began the month of April brought the campaign managers out of their winter hibernation, and presented Willamette with a full slate of candidates for the student body offices that will be vacated this June.

THE PRIMARIES will be held on Monday, and the two candidates receiving the most votes will appear on the final ballot Wednesday.

Chuck Foster, John Bergstrom and Wendell McLin are running for the top position, student body president. The first vice-president spot is being contested by Joanne McGilvra, Bill Graham, and Dorr Dearborn, while second VP, the "man in charge of elections," is sought by Tony Meeker and John Sweeney. SINCE THERE are only two candidates for the office, both names will appear on the final ballot in the second vice-president race.

Maureen Avery, Gail Larsen and Sonja Peterson are vying for the secretary slot. Greg Milnes, Rusty Beaton and Gary Winner are all trying to get the "rich-man" post of ASB treasurer.

BALLOTING WILL begin at 8 a.m. and end at 4:30 on both days. There will be a ballot box in Eaton, one in Collins, the library, and in the Student Body Office in the basement of Waller.

The primary election will also have 12 senior girls running for the position of May Queen. Jody Mills, Lynn Schrock, Jo Heald, Linda Berry, Carolyn Miller, Karina Miller, Joan Sherrill, Sondra Roark, Martha Eagelson, Mary Jo Smullin, Gail Boden and Sandi Harris will compete for the honorary position.

THE TOP THREE candidates in the primaries will be on the finals ballot. The winner in the final vote will be May Queen, and the two runners-up will be her princesses for the May Weekend activities.

Student body members will also vote on constitutional revisions appearing on page three.

Contest Deadline Near

Creative writing contest manuscripts are due Monday, April 20, Dr. Paul Trueblood reminds students. The manuscripts may be turned into Dr. Trueblood, Dr. O. W. Frost or Carl Hall on that date.

The $25 prize will be presented at the annual awards assembly next month to the writer of the best short story, essay, or three-poem series submitted.

May Day Play In 'Final Act'

"Out of the Frying Pan" will move onto the auditorium stage Monday for its final two weeks of rehearsals prior to its May Weekend performances.

DAVE HAUGEBOG now fills the last vacancy in the original cast, the role of the second, or so-called "dumb" policeman.

Kit Stewart has left the cast, with Langley Brooks filling in temporarily at rehearsals as Mr. Coburn, the tempestuous father.

CHIEFS OF THE various technical crews are Allan Stevens and Jim Gibson, lighting; Carol Woodbury, costumes; Carole Cartwright and Steve Hone, publicity; Ross Stephen, make-up; Laurel Tiller and Warren Walker, properties. Scenery is being constructed by the stagecraft class.

"The first act is quite well in hand, the second moving along nicely," commented Robert Putnam, director. Today's rehearsal of the third act will be the first without scripts.

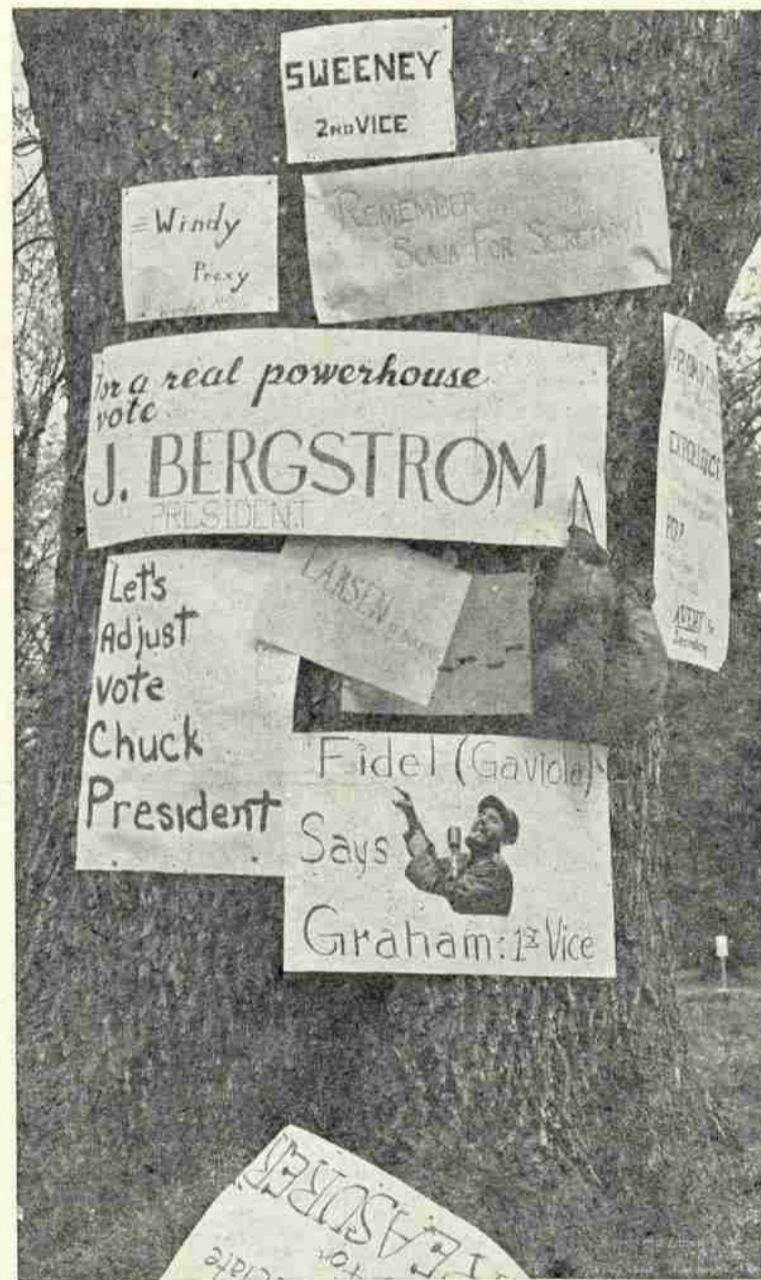

Three Win Graduate Aid

More seniors have been awarded substantial scholarships for post-graduate work, the president's office announced this week.

James H. Smith earlier qualified for the Woodrow Wilson scholarship and will use the grant while attending Harvard University next year.

Dick Audley also received a scholarship which he will use to further his education by applying it to the Stanford Law School.

Dean Bishoprick has been granted a scholarship to Columbia University.

PITY THE SAP: Spring sap is running and so are the squirrels, according to campaigners who find signs torn apart. One candidate, in order to comply with university rules protecting Willamette trees, tied campaign posters around the trunks with ribbon.

Slated Sunday-

Deans, Organ Play Footsies

By MICHELLE MONTE

Shades of Waller! Dean Geist and Professor Dobbs playing footsies with an organ!

As a part of the opening of the Salem Art Museum-Bush House, Sunday, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist and Professor and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs of the Willamette University School of Music have been engaged to do the footwork on an old player piano owned by the museum.

AN OLD Salem pioneer, the piano and its music rolls came around the Horn when the Bush family first built the house now used as a museum.

An early American version of automation, all one has to do is insert a special "roll" of music and pedal like mad!

The Geists and the Dobbs will be pedaling selections from the many player rolls in the Bush House collection. Everything from classical and opera to the "Oceania Roll" will be featured in the musical repertoire.

THIS WILL BE the season's first "after church" opening for the museum which is not far south of the campus.

In the upstairs art galleries, the Creative Art Group Show will be featured this month. The seventy-one works included in the exhibit are done by twenty-two local persons in the Creative Art Group.

THIS GROUP IS composed of semi-professional artists in Salem.

The majority of the members are retired persons.

The exhibit features a little bit of everything from the art media spectrum. Examples of the latter include oil paintings, watercolors, and plaster sculpture.

COSTUMES from 1860 to 1920 will be on display in the special exhibit room. The apparel comes from Salem homes, each bearing its own history.

Upstairs is a remodelled art museum. Here, each month, the works of a different artist will be displayed.

BUSH HOUSE will be open at 12 next Sunday and the organ program will begin at 12:30 p. m. No admission is charged.

The following Friday, the museum will be open from one to ten p. m. This practice will continue until next fall.

a dubious entry

The proposed constitutional revision is theoretically nice to think about but not very practical. The so-called equality of Greek and Independent votes on the proposed council plan as presented by the revisions committee and two of the student body officers in particular, is not in any way consistent with the theory of the new plan itself. There may be a greater number of Independents on campus but the people who are independent are independent by choice and their representatives consistently and forever do and will represent individuals rather than the largely non-active independent group as a whole. The separate representation of the women's dorms is admitted to be a flaw in the new change—a concession by the committee to the feuding women as a means of gaining support for the plan. The new change has not been publicized, both sides have not been aired, and in addition the proposed change is poorly phrased and poorly written. This last seems to be the result of an inconsistency of the revisions committee which has done a magnificent job in analyzing the problem but which now is in such a hurry to do something about it that its recommendation is neither lucid or workable.

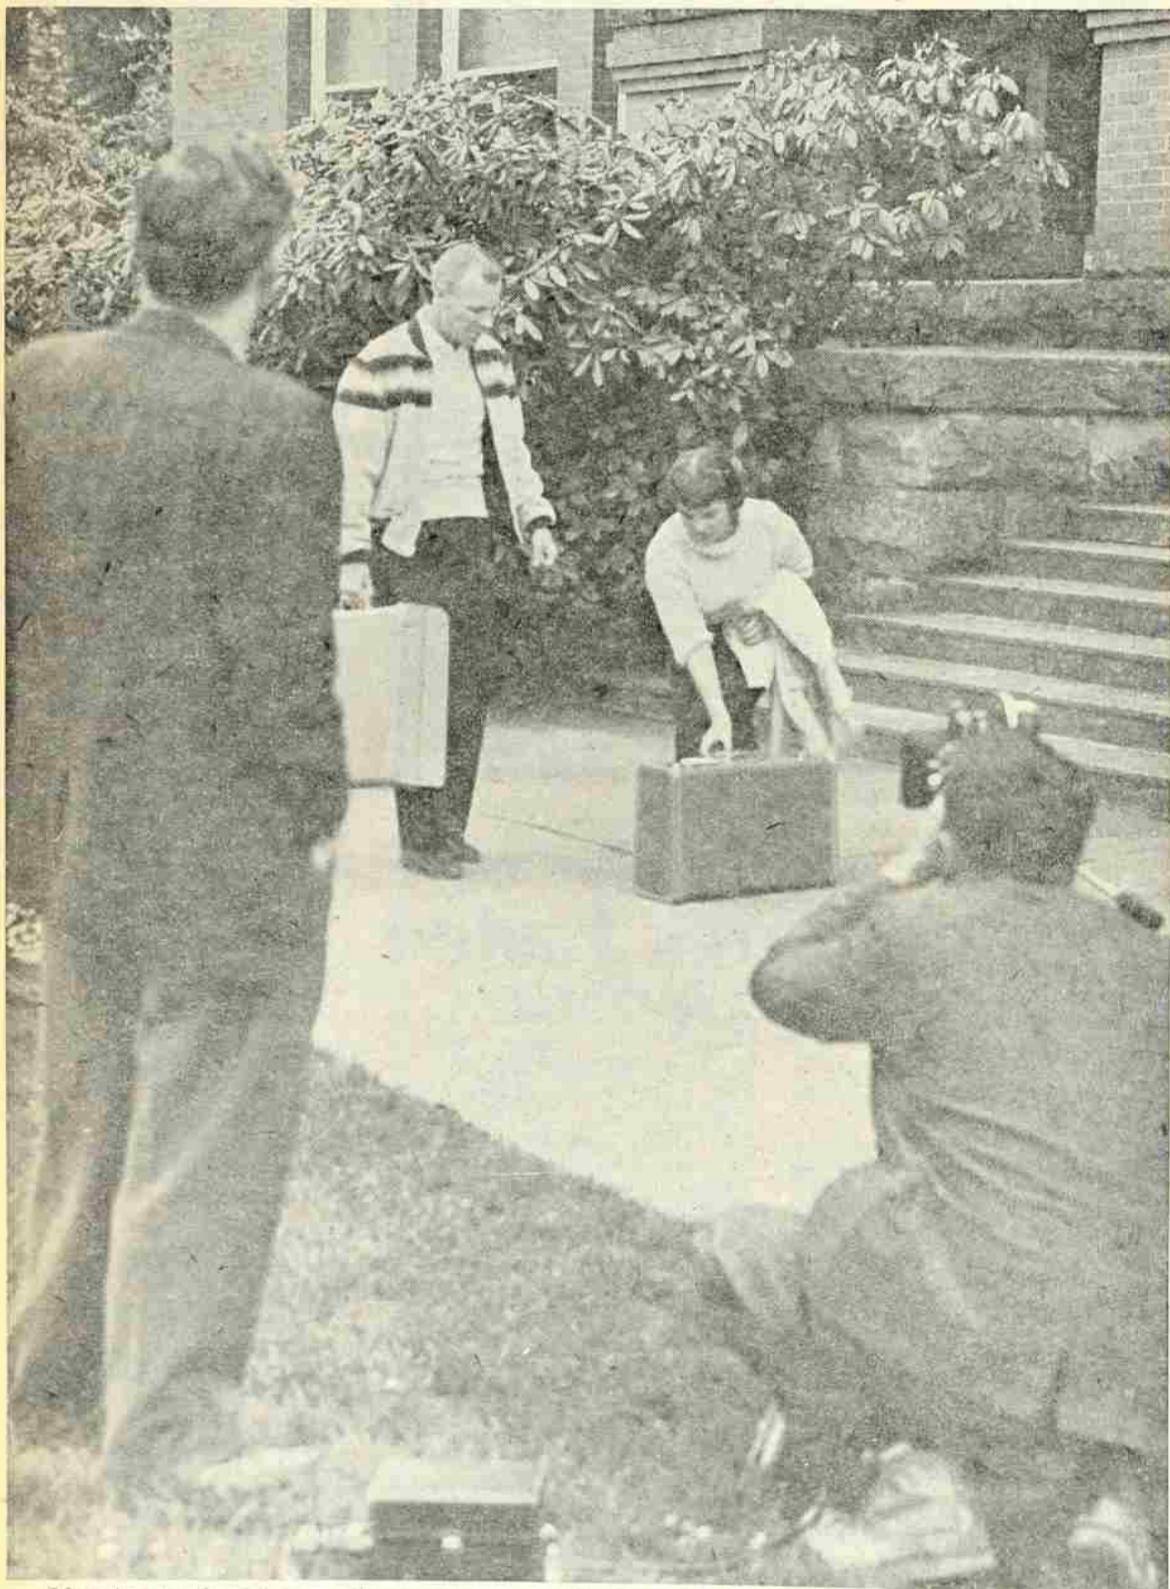

THE COLLEGIAN in its non-support of the bill would like to make it clear, however, that the basic idea behind the proposal is sound. It does require an educational presentation and many revisions before its passage and workability seem possible. The fast pace of student life does not require the quick passage of anything. Clear thinking takes time.

Secretary Hopfuls 'Try-out' for Job

Ah, and for these candidates 'tis a life of pleasure! But it's hard to tell who's enjoying it more—the grinning presidential candidates or the busy gals on their knees applying for the secretary position. Left to right are Gail Larsen, Chuck Foster, Maureen Avery, Wendell McLinn, John Bergstrom, and Sonja Peterson.

Film Stars Take 'The Step'

It's going to take this crew all year to prepare a 29-minute film about Willamette. While producer Karl Ritchie watches, University of Oregon professor Dave Foster, a former Willamette student, films Dick Audley and Alice Eastman in front of Eaton Hall. Laurel Tiller is the third star of this production which will be completed in mid-July and will be shown to high school students. Alice, who had to leave Willamette last semester because of health, makes a special trip here from Portland each weekend for the film, which is entitled "The Step."

No Quiet Breakfast in Bed For Hurrying Head of House

By STEWART BUTLER

On Monday it's breakfast with the governor.

On Tuesday it's breakfast with Republican legislators.

THIS IS THE way Rep. R. L. Elfstrom starts out his week as the Republican minority leader in the Oregon state senate.

This isn't all he does. As a member of Willamette's Board of Trustees he is an important part of the "Willamette Family" at the State House.

REP. ELFSTROM is one of the busiest men at the capitol. He is one of two Republicans who is chairman of a House of Representatives committee. Besides attending House sessions and committee meetings he is continually in touch with the governor's office or discussing Republican strategy with legislators.

Because of the small Democratic majority in the House this session the Republican strategy must be carefully planned, according to Rep.

Rescuing Coed Rescued In Short Shorts

It pays to be a gentleman. Especially on a hot spring day. President G. Herbert Smith will agree to that!

On his way home one day last week President Smith discovered a frantic coed struggling to climb from the roof of the Lausanne cafeteria entry-way up to her second-floor window right above.

The shapely blonde freshman sported short green shorts and a thin sleeveless blouse.

With obvious enjoyment the president gave her a hand and helping her retrieve the book she had climbed down to rescue, brought her back down to earth.

Wendy Caulk and Bonnie Scott also had their opportunities this week when by accident they spent 15 minutes locked up in the Lausanne kitchen.

There was one hitch, though: no food!

Elfstrom.

"OFTENTIMES there is a split among the Republicans," he added. "But when the chips are down there is good party discipline."

THIS IS Representative Elfstrom's fifth session in the legislature. "After ten years in the house one becomes familiar with a lot of trash bills introduced in the house every year. There has been a greater number of these bills in the house this session. This is why so many bills have been tabled," Elfstrom said.

Estimating that it costs $600 to print every bill introduced, the representative backed up his claim that these trash bills are wasting the taxpayers' money.

THE BIGGEST ISSUE in the legislature this session is the tax program. President of the Senate Walter Pearson's suggested sales tax split Republican members of the legislature. Though they realize that Hatfield is against a sales tax several of them have always supported a sales tax, Elfstrom said.

Willamette grad Doug Heider is one of the first term Republicans in the House of Representatives labeled as outstanding by Elfstrom.

ELFSTROM, LIKE most legislators, finds its increasingly difficult to live on a $600 salary. He is supporting a bill that would increase salaries to $2100, arguing that "increased salaries would keep men in the legislature."

Rep. Elfstrom has long been active in Oregon politics and served two terms as Salem's mayor. He was also chairman of the Oregon Liquor Control Commission.

Mantovani Appears

Tonight, Annunio Mantovani and his orchestra will be appearing in Salem as part of the Community Concert series.

Scores from classical, semi-classical, and popular works will be played by the English musicians now on tour of the United States.

The concert will begin at 8:15 in the Fine Arts Auditorium. Concert series tickets are necessary to gain admission to the performance. Admissions will also be on sale at the door.

Inconsistencies Noticed By Constitutional Study Group

By BOB CLARK

The Constitutional Revisions Committee has made a study of the Student Constitution and has found certain inconsistencies within it. The following are changes proposed by this committee.

Article V. Funds; Sec. 4, c. . . . Substitute the word "withdrawal" for the word "appropriations" in both places and in line 1 substitute the word "surplus" for "balance."

The purpose of this change is purely for clarification of the clause.

Article IV. Elections; Sec. 1, a. . . . ASWU elections, "ASWU elections and rally squad elections shall be held simultaneously at least one month before the close of the second semester, the date to be set by Student Council. All candidates for the elective offices of the Association shall be nominated by petitions of 25 members of the student body. The petitions must be presented to the Student Council at least one week before election; whenever possible, at least two candidates for each office shall be named."

Article VII. Student Council; Sec. 1, Membership, part a, Student Members with vote: "The ASWU officers, two representatives of inter-fraternity council, two representatives of panhellenic council, one representative of the independent men of Baxter, one representative of the independent women of Lausanne, one representative of the independent women of Donsay, the Publications Board manager, one representative of the Willamette independent town students, and one representative of the Law School.

Part b. Student members without vote: One representative from each living organization, the Editor of the Collegian, the Willamette Editor, Student Body Office Manager, and managers of various campus events.

Law School Allocations. A proposed change in the amount of student body fees retained by ASWU liberal arts college from fees payable by members of the College of Law; in particular the allocation of 28% to Publications Board. The reason for the change is to eliminate confusion that has occurred between these two organizations in the past concerning fees paid to this fund.

The following are By-Law changes recommended by the Constitutional Revisions Committee:

The purpose of this change is to place the by-law councils, boards, committees, managers, and other articles in their proper order.

The following is the suggested order:

- I. Executive Council
- II. Activities Board
- III. Publications Board
- IV. Finance Board
- V. Constitutional Revision Committee
- VI. Elections Committee
- VII. Conventions Committee
- VIII. Student Insurance Committee
- IX. Awards Committee
- X. May Weekend Committee
- XI. Freshman Glee Committee
- XII. Homecoming Committee
- XIII. Parents Weekend Committee
- XIV. Orientation Week Committee
- XV. Student Body Office Manager
- XVI. Drama, Forensic, and Music Mgr.
- XVII. Rally Commission
- XVIII. Procedure for Chartering ASWU Organizations

XIX. Amendments to the by-laws
XX. Rules of order.

It is hereby proposed to add the word "committee" to the heading of Article III of the By-Laws in order to make it read "Freshman Glee Committee."

Proposed Student Insurance Committee
Sec. 1. The committee shall consist of the student body treasurer, who shall act as chairman of the group, the student body president, the general manager of the student body, two members appointed by the student body treasurer with the approval of student council, and a qualified member of the faculty, to be chosen in the same manner as are the student members.

Sec. 2. Duties of the Student Insurance Committee.

a. Each member shall have a complete knowledge of the policy in order to explain it to anyone desiring information as to its operation.

b. The Committee shall review the policy each year to determine whether it meets the student's needs. If it is determined that the policy does not meet the student need, the Committee shall issue requests for bids to various companies, these companies to be chosen at the committee's discretion. Only the committee will issue requests for bids from insurance companies. From the bids received, the committee shall recommend its choice to the Student Council who shall make the final choice. If the present policy is deemed adequate the committee shall recommend its retention to Student Council who shall make the final choice.

c. The committee shall make a complete review of the policy every two years at a minimum. This will constitute a complete review of the set standards and an issuance of bids, if necessary, to competing insurance companies.

It has also been moved, seconded, and carried by the committee that Article VII, Section 1, of the bylaws be amended as follows: strike out the words "from other than its own membership" and substitute the words "who may not serve on the board and as members of the student council simultaneously."

The above amendment refers to the Publications Board and has been changed as a matter of clarity in wording.

Howie Visits NYC

Nelson Fascinated by 'Big City'

By HOWARD NELSON
Washington Semester Student

New York City's Rockefeller Center is referred to as a city in itself. Total population of the center is figured at some 350,000 on working days with over 300,000 visitors every day and employees numbering the remaining. One can just about do anything there except get buried, it was stated.

Beginning on the subway anywhere in the city, one can conduct his business in the center and return without even a breath of fresh air!

AMONG THE confines of the center are beautiful gardens (some on roof tops), an international building, the Life, Time and Fortune building, the largest inside theatre in the country which seats well over 6,000 people, the CBS television studios, many offices and stores and an ice skating rink. Now rented out by Columbia University, the property was donated to the school by Rockefeller.

THE STATUE of Liberty, standing over 300 feet high in the New York harbor, is an inspiring site. The French donated $250,000 for the cost of the statue proper, the people of the United States contributed about the same amount for the pedestal, half the total height. The full amount was contributed through popular subscription in the two countries.

DURING MY visit of the United Nations building, the Economic and Social Council was in session. A choice among the five "working" languages could be made on headphones with a flip of a knob.

The large building, symbolic of the great organization, actually isn't the location of the big meetings. It houses the Secretariat, the Executive of the organization, besides the offices of member nations. The 3,000 employees of the Secretariat are in a sense people without a country. As international civil servants they have relinquished citizenship in their native countries and have taken an oath not to seek or receive instructions from any outside authority.

I EXPERIENCED the suburban side of New York life one evening at the home of a friend some 40 minutes on the commuter train out of Penn Station. Those who ride the trains seem to make the most of that "terrible" waste of time. Most read.

Angel Flight Shows in Eugene

Willamette's AFROTC auxiliary, the Angel Flight, performed at a regional drill competition at the University of Oregon yesterday along with the University of Portland Angel Flight as a special feature of the program.

The non-competitive special fancy drill exhibition was led by drill captain Marilyn Wright.

Accompanying the Angel Flighters to Eugene as observers were new members of the Air Force honorary Chris Schurr, Bonnie Dugdale, Sue Colomb, and Judy Conley. Dean Bishoprick, drill instructor, also made the trip.

Discussion on the student insurance committee resulted in an amendment to the by-laws which changed the wordage from "broker system" to agent system and also added an advisor from the faculty. The student committee will issue bids in order to keep the control in the students' hands.

The proposed amendments to the constitution as handed out in Tuesday's convocation were read. Gordy MacPherson and Larry Willingham will go to the living organizations and houses on Monday and Tuesday of next week to clarify this amendment.

A pretty Southern neighbor, Manuelita Nunez of Panama was the turtle trainer who psyched out her amphibian so well that he was motivated to carry the DG's to victory in a thrilling, if spasmodic turtle race Friday night. Waddling in to second place was Pi Phi Marilyn Wright's lumbering little pet. Sherri Jenkin's frenzied encouragement did no good on the Alpha Chi turtle. He stopped just inches from the goal and took a long, long rest. Manuelita is shown above receiving her award from Pete Leveton. (Collegian Photo)

With high hopes of earning $200 for the redecoration of their basement, the men of Sigma Chi are holding a paper drive Saturday. Campus organizations are asked to put their paper in a convenient spot for Saturday pick ups. Faculty members or town students who'd like free transport of the space-consuming piles of paper, which are also fire hazards, are urged to telephone EMpire 2-9470 for friendly Sigma Chi pick-up service. (Just paper - not girls, this time).

Twelve Are May Queen Nominees

A group of 12 senior girls have been named to compete for the most coveted beauty-personality titles of them all. The coeds, all nominated by the senior class for May Queen, will be named on the April 20 primary election.

All of the girls have long lists of scholarly and activity honors since their 1955 arrival at Willamette. They include pretty blonde Jody Mills of Seattle; dark-haired Lynn Schrock of Bend; stately Jo Heald of Milton-Freewater; petite Linda Berry of Burlingame, Calif.; Carolyn Miller, a dark-tressed lass from Forest Grove; smiling Karina Miller of Milton-Freewater; lithe Joan Sherrill of Portland; brownette Sondra Roark of Portland; dimpled Martha Eagleson of Tigard; vivacious Mary Jo Smullin of Parkdale; dark-haired Gail Boden of San Matea; attractive Sandi Harris of Redwood City, Calif.

Five Coeds Vie Tomorrow At 8 P.M. for 1959 Miss Salem

A quintet of attractive and talented Willamette women will display their beauty, brains and talents to judges of the Miss Salem contest tomorrow night at 8 in the Fine Arts building.

THE CONTEST, sponsored by the Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be the scene of the selection of the girl who will be sent to the Seaside Miss Oregon pageant this summer to vie for the Miss Oregon crown.

A very talented ballerina, Diana Kay Hrubitz, will be displaying her dancing, well known in the Salem area. A poised lovely, Diana is a graduate of South Salem high school, now attends Willamette and lives at her home.

DELTA GAMMA Laura Butchare, is another of the candidates. A petite blonde, Laura is an English major from Portland. Laura is a devotee of skiing, music and tennis. She will give a dramatic presentation for her talent offering.

Sparkling Joanna Lester, fondly called Jody by her Pi Beta Phi sisters, is a 19 year old sophomore from Grants Pass. Joanna, a music major, has studied voice for nine years. No dud in the scholarship department, Joanna is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary.

A DARK haired Californian, Thelma Masserdotti has a long record of beauty and charm titles. The latest of these was bestowed upon her by the men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, who named her their Queen of Violets. Thelma, a freshman from Atherton, California, plays several instruments and writes her own music.

Barbara Smith, a 21 year old junior, well known to Willamette students for her contemporary and creative dancing. Barbara teaches dancing, loves to sew and play the piano. Her talent number will be an interpretive dance. Barbara plans to be a physical education teacher.

OTHER candidates in the contest include Ladell Anders, Susan Boring, Gracie Grove, Loleta Wyatt, and Eloise Corey.

Each of the girls will appear in evening gown, bathing suit and then in a talent number. The finalists will also be called upon for a short extemporaneous talk.

A former Miss Oregon is ex-Willamette student Judith Hansen, who won the title in 1957. Miss Hansen was a finalist for the Miss America title.

M & F to Offer Advice

Two representatives from Meier and Frank will be on the Willamette campus Monday, April 20, to talk to interested seniors on the merits of the executive training program advantages offered by their store.

Mr. Dick Fidler and Mr. Chet Duncan, who will confer with students, have information on the field of retailing with opportunities for work in merchandising, operations, sales promotions, personnel, and control.

House Dance Plans Rolling; Big Weekend Starts Tonight

By ROSEMARY STEPHENSON

The second round of spring house dances will begin tonight, with the Alpha Chis and Pi Phis beginning the social whirl. "On the Beach" will be the dancing environment at the Alpha Chi Domain. The collegiate beachcombers will be positive they are on the shores of the Pacific, for sand, beach umbrellas and the favorite Japanese floats will be all the realism that is needed.

GENTLEMEN guests and hostesses will eat at the hot dog stand which will serve root beer and the American traditional weiner and bun.

General chairman for the affair is Jane Eagleson who has announced that the dress will be the usual beach wear with sunglasses included, of course. The dance will be held at the Four Corners Grange Hall.

THE PI PHIS will spend the evening in Sherwood Forest, the decor for their "Beau and Arrow Ball." Robin Hood's men will be throughout the house, complete with all the artistic characteristics that can be attained with the paint brush. Nottingham jail will be the scene for pictures; the men will be in stocks and the ladies will hold the key.

Betty Toy, as chairman, has explained that the attire is semi-formal and that Marty Wolf and his orchestra will provide the music for tonight.

THE DELTA Gammas and Alpha Phis head the bill for the two dancing events tomorrow evening. Another vacation land will be in the vicinity when the Alpha Phis travel to the South Sea Islands and their "Bali High Ball."

Sue Rovelli heads the decoration committee which will see that guests appear as if they are under water. A false ceiling of blue and silver will give the wave affect and murals of tropical fish on the walls will complete the surroundings.

SOUTH SEA costumes on the couples will add to the scenery down near the Willamette river before the dance. A picnic dinner is in store for the Alpha Phi's dates, according to Nancy Collins, general chairman.

The DGs are going downtown on Saturday night. The place for their festivities is the Valley Ford Motor showroom, where a goldfish bowl atmosphere will be evident to all. Realizing this, the title for this affair is "Life is Just a Bowl of Fishes." Favors given to male friends will be the esteemed goldfish.

THE GARY Green Combo will be in the window supply music and the Plaidmen will provide the intermission entertainment.

Joyce Brown announces that the dance is formal and will take place from 8:30 until 11:30 p.m.

Two big reasons for the success of Coach Ted Ogdahl's track squad this season are Don Neu, pole vaulter, and Bob Roy, discus thrower. Both sat out last year because of eligibility problems and were sorely missed by Ogdahl and crew. Neu, a strong prospect at the University of California two years ago, set a new Willamette pole vault record Tuesday with a creditable 12-8½ leap. With this season just under way and another full year of competition ahead of him, Neu is expected to better that record before he closes his WU track career. Roy is strong in several field events but the discus is his specialty. Bob set a new WU record in his first appearance this season. A fine javelin tosser and pole vaulter, Roy also fills the anchor-man slot on the Bearcats' "fat-man relay" (see story). —Photos courtesy of Chuck Ruud

Jasons Set 4 Marks In Early Meetings

Skip Spence led the Bearcat thin-clads to a 77½-53 win over Pacific's Badgers in a dual meet at Forest Grove last Saturday.

Spence scored 16½ points, taking high point honors for the meet, and setting a Willamette and meet record in the high jump.

A winning jump of 6-3½ brought the new record to him, along with wins in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and an anchor lap on the winning relay team.

Bob Roy surpassed the old Willamette discus record for the second competitive time this year, heaving the discus 150-5, for a win in that event.

Don Neu rounded out the Willamette record breakers with a 12-8 pole vault. Ted Foxley tossed the javelin 194-11, and joined with Roy and Jack Berkey to sweep the event, the only sweep of the meet.

Spence and Neu Pace 'Cat Pack

Skip Spence and Don Neu were the big men for Willamette last Tuesday, as the Bearcat spikesters won their first home meet from a small OCE squad, 106-23.

Don Neu set the only record in the meet, soaring 12-8½ in the pole vault to break Ray Freitham's seven year old WU record of 12-6½.

The Fat Men's Relay provided the comedy relief for the meet. The runners took their marks, got set, —and the OCE man was found to be crouched in front of his mark, instead of behind.

Once more they took their marks, got set, and — the starter's gun wouldn't fire. The race finally got under way, with Don Neu grabbing an early lead on the other two runners. As the time came for the third pass of the baton, both Kevin Nagel and Gary Raid struggled to pass the stick to the same runner!

Long's Dubbers Lose, Win; Schedule PU

The Portland State golfers scored their third straight victory last Thursday as they dropped the Bearcat divotmen, 16½-1½.

Bob Smith, returning to the Viking line-up following a year of ineligibility, toured the Colwood course with a blazing three-under-par 69 to grab medalist honors.

Tuesday afternoon the Willamette golfers earned their first win of the season as they downed Lewis & Clark, 11½-6½.

Undefeated in Northwest Conference match play for several years, the Bearcat squad swept four of the six matches at the Oswego Country Club.

Jan Aaseth, NWC medalist last year, shot the day's best round with a 73.

This afternoon, the Bearcat golfers will meet a consistently powerful University of Portland squad at the Columbia Edgewater Club in Portland.

Portland State: Tom Liljeholm (PS) def. Jan Aaseth 3-0; Bob Smith (PS) def. Rusty Beaton, 3-0; Mac Wisbe (PS) def. Dick Renn, 3-0; Bruce Weaver (PS) def. Joe Karaos, 3-0; Dick Hayes (PS) def. John Holmes, 2-1; Dick Mallon (PS) def. Roger Mundorf, 2½-½.

Lewis & Clark: Roger Fleck (LC) def. Joe Karmos, 3-0; Rusty Beaton (W) def. Ron Kenagy, 3-0; Jan Aaseth (W) def. Ken McLeon, 3-0; John Holmes (W) def. Al Parelius, 3-0; Roger Mundorf (W) def. Bob Blair, 2½-½; Ron Langlos (LC) def. Dic Renn, 3-0.

'Cat Nine Drops Pair

Willamette's Northwest Conference baseball season got off to a miserable start last week. The Jasons opened the season Friday against the Lewis and Clark Pioneers. Going into the ninth frame, the 'Cats were resting on a 4-2 cushion and most fans thought they had a winner. Unfortunately the Pioneers came on like Joshua in the ninth and nearly blew the 'Cats from the park. When the dust settled the L-C crew had the lead at 6-4. The Bearcats could come back for only one counter in their half of the inning and that wasn't enough.

Saturday afternoon the Jasons fared even worse as they received a 17-4 shellacking at the hands of Roy Helser's Linfield Wildcats, at McMinnville. This loss set the Cats' record at 1-4 for the season and 0-2 in conference play.

L-C Victorious

A ninth inning rally of four runs gave the Lewis and Clark Pioneers their first baseball win of the season and also their first conference victory. The victory spelled the demise of a shaggy red beard owned by Pioneer first sacker, Ed Davison. Davison, looking like a fugitive from the House of David barnstormers, promised his teammates that he would shave the facial foliage when L-C won a game.

Righthander Jerry Pflug drew the starting bid from Lewis and was holding his own against the Pioneers with the help of some fine fielding support, including three double plays. Pflug had held the L-C nine to five hits and his teammates had thwarted numerous threats from the Portland school.

Bob Klindworth came on to relieve Pflug after Pioneer pinch-hitter Ed Kandler and Bill Adams had singled. But it was too late, the gate was open and the cows got out.

Klindworth was greeted by a single from the bat of Bill Acker which loaded the bases. Helping his own cause, Klindworth picked Adams off at the plate on an attempted squeeze play for the first out of the inning.

Bearcats Beat Duck Netters

Willamette's netters scored a big upset last Saturday when they defeated the University of Oregon's tennis team, 5-2. Last year's Web-foot squad bounced the Bearcats twice, and was expected to repeat again this year.

THE BEARCATS were victorious in three of the five singles matches, and sewed up the tussle with wins on both doubles contests.

Highlite of the match occurred when Tim Campbell defeated Bruce Dingler, 6-2, 4-6, 10-8 in a marathon which lasted two hours and forty-five minutes. Main reason for the great length was the fact that most of the volleys were long.

IN OTHER singles matches Dale Daniel trounced Larry Cowen, 6-3, 6-1, and Dave Dobrinen beat Dick Uren, 6-3, 6-3. Bob Bennett was defeated by Larry Ottis, 6-1, 6-2, and Garry Winner was dropped by Phil Northgate 1-6, 6-3, 6-1.

In the doubles competition, Bennett and Daniel beat Dingler and Ottis, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2, and Glen Durham and Bill Richter turned back Jim Knight and Cowen, 6-2, 6-3.

Linfield Wins

Four Willamette hurlers passed under withering fire from the bombarding bats of the Linfield Wildcats as Roy Helser's diamond men picked up 15 base hits on the way to a 17-4 victory over the Jasons in the second NWC game of the season.

Two of Helser's men, Bill Bauer and Gene Manley, banged out two home runs each, as they led the Linfield hitting attack.

Bauer got Linfield off to a flying start by putting one out of the park in the first frame. At the end of that inning the score read 2-0 for the Wildcats.

Linfield piled it on by adding four more in the second, two in the fifth and three each in the sixth, seventh and eighth. Manley picked his first circuit clout in the seventh with two men on. In the eighth, Bauer and Manley hit homers back to back.

The Bearcats scored once in the second, twice in the sixth and once more in the eighth for their four run total.

Dave Brock, currently the hottest hitter on the Jason club, was the one bright spot of the day as he picked up three hits in four trips.

WU 'Bushmen' Exit Tuesday For Sunny South, MUN Meet

By DICK WHITE
Delegate, Model UN

Next Wednesday, the ninth annual Model United Nations will begin its general session on the University of Southern California campus.

A GREAT DEAL of time, effort, study and fun is involved in the preparations for the MUN, and the experiences of the ten Willamette delegates have been supplied with

Phone Facilities Being Inspected

"They are not looking for anything. They are merely checking the phone facilities on campus," said Richard Petrie, financial vice president of Willamette, about the phone service-evaluation by the telephone company.

Petrie further stated that Willamette was in no way obligated to increase the present number of telephones because of the survey and that the company was providing this service free of charge.

He asks that all students and faculty co-operate with the telephone company officials during the week.

Hatfield Honors Gatke

Dr. Robert M. Gatke was recently honored at the spring meeting of the Central Willamette Valley Association of Phi Beta Kappa. Governor Mark O. Hatfield said that Dr. Gatke is "a triple-thread man in the fabric of his University. Through his excellent classroom instruction, his landscape legacy, and his gift of the historical 'Chronicles of Willamette,' he deserves much credit and recognition from both the public and school."

plenty of each.

Willamette represents Australia this year so after the usual comments on adopting a koala bear or kangaroo for a mascot and selling boomerangs for fund-raising, the group settled down to the problem of finding information on Australia and her attitudes in the UN.

THE MUNer's have searched throughout the year for information which would fall into one of the three following categories: (1) recent news on Australia; (2) recent material on the United Nations, with particular emphasis on the work of the Australian representatives in the various UN committees and agencies; and (3) recent material which is especially pertinent to the problems on the agenda for the five functioning committees on each of which two of our delegates will sit.

ABOUT TWO weeks ago, the delegation presented to the Secretariat in Los Angeles, resolutions for each of the committees they will represent.

Although transportation plans were made with the idea of using two cars to travel in, last minute reprieves were given by schools in the Portland area—a chartered bus will take several delegations from Oregon to the meeting.

THREE OF THE members of the Willamette delegation were on last year's MUN group at the University of Washington session, and have aided in guiding and gathering the necessary information to make Australia-UM—a forceful and competent member of the MUN.

Bill Richter, chairman of the group; Karen Kettinger, secretary, and Jane Dedrick, assistant chairman, joined in "clueing in" the junior members of the delegation as to what to expect and be prepared for.

Concert to Honor Noted Conductor

The Portland Symphony is presenting a special "Farewell Concert" in honor of Conductor Theodore Bloomfield on Monday, April 20, as their final presentation of the season in Portland.

Bloomfield, who has had four successful years with the Symphony, will leave for Rochester, New York, next year, and will be replaced by Piero Bellugi, a protege of Toscanini.

Students who are interested in attending the concert should avail themselves of the "Ride Bureau" in the student body office, reminded Siebie Quiring, ASWU secretary. Persons wishing rides or riders to the concert can register their names in the ASB office, and check back to arrange transportation to the event.

Magazine Seeks Legs

Request has been made from Mademoiselle magazine for Willamette to add to the bevy of college co-eds who will fill the pages of their August college issue.

Specific requirements have been sent to the Dean of Women which state that the women have to have "slim legs and stand between 5 feet 6 inches and 5 feet 9 inches."

Living organizations will submit the names of eligible women and from this, about 15 will be selected to appear before the photographer from the magazine during the first week of May.

Three Talented Music Students Join Salem Junior Symphony

Three Willamette University students will be joining the Salem Junior Symphony in their next concert, April 24. Participating in the orchestra's fifth season are David Crane, who will be in the French horn section, and Norman Walters and Bob Oakes, trombonists.

UNDER THE direction of Dr. William Swetland, the Junior

Symphony will play a variety of selections ranging from classical to modern musicals.

"Jesu—Bond of Joy Abiding," a chorale by Bach, will open the program. Following will be Haydn's "London Symphony;" "Buckaroo Holiday" from Copland's Rodeo Suite; and "Ase's Death," from Peer Gynt, composed by Grieg. The closing numbers will be selections from South Pacific.

UNLIKE THE previous concert, no solos will be featured in this program.

Members of the orchestra were chosen by audition from students in the secondary schools of Salem, Lebanon, Gervais, Albany, Woodburn, and Silverton.

"WHEN WE are selecting the new members of the symphony group, we keep the various sections balanced with each other," said Dr. Swetland. "This means that only a limited number of trombonists, clarinetists, violinists, and other instruments can be taken."

There are about fifty-four strings and thirty woodwind and brass instruments in the orchestra, according to Dr. Swetland.

THE APRIL 24TH concert will be presented in the North Salem high school auditorium. Tickets are now on sale at Stevens and Son, jewelers, and Meier and Frank's department store. Tickets will also be available at the door. Prices are one dollar for adults and fifty cents for students.

Magazine Contest Opens

Mademoiselle's 1959 College Publications Contest is now in full swing. Awards will be made for the best student-written article, the best alumni-written article, and the best faculty-written article. Entries will be judged on originality of thought and skill in writing. Send entries to Publications Contest, c/o Street and Smith Publications, Inc., College and Career Department, Mademoiselle, 575 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York.

Lausanne Hall Gains Repairs

Spread that paint, wield that hammer, hang those curtains, pour that cement! To this staccato beat, Lausanne and Baxter yielded to the persuasive hand of improvement.

Finally the noise died down; the workmen left; students returned and the changes were evident.

THE CAFETERIA of Lausanne emerged with the beneficial addition of a semi-secluded dining area. Two stud walls and attaching folding curtains form a reasonably large room for eating.

The addition provides a room for guests and special dinners so the girls won't have to be evicted from the dining room for these occasions.

THE REC ROOM, which has been previously used for guests and special meals, can be set aside exclusively for recreation purposes.

Lausanne's rec room has been brightened by a coat of pale yellow paint trimmed with brown.

Panhellenic Sets Confab

Jane Dedrick, Willamette University Panhellenic president, will define and discuss the purpose of college Panhellenics tomorrow at the "College Prevue."

THE "COLLEGE Prevue" party is sponsored by the Willamette Valley Panhellenic Association for senior girls in Salem area interested in attending college.

Miss Dedrick's talk will be one of three planned to acquaint the girls with college life. The panhellenic presidents from the University of Oregon and Oregon State College will discuss scholarship and activities.

BESIDES THE panhellenic presidents, the deans of women and representatives from each sorority on the respective campuses will attend the party.

Willamette University will be the informal hostess for the function to be held in Doney Hall from two to four.
