INSPIRE ENTHUSIASM.

A Rally Should Be Held in the Interests of Forensics and Oratory.

The indifference shown by the students in the coming intercollegiate debates is a matter of regret to those who are particularly interested in this line of college endeavor. The forensic timber is just as strong as in former years, for many of the men who have formerly represented Willamette are still with us. Among these men of experience are Siewert, Swafford, Wilkins and W. Keyes. It is too much, however to say that these men would have a walk over in the try-outs if every one who has the spirit of the debates would enter and do his best to make the team. Leaving aside all questions of possible victory or presumable glory, it is a high honor to gain a place on the debating team than it is to play on the first eleven.

The Philodorian and Philodorian societies ought to be centers of forensic strength; there our debating talent should be developed and fostered. The qualities of the argumentative speaker, however, manifest themselves more strongly in the sterner sex and there is our strength. We know there are exceptions to the rule and we make full allowance for them but it would be a thing worthy of note if a woman would win a position on our debating team this year. We hope this may be the case. But we insist that all the available talent be brought into fierce competition in the preliminaries. Among the young women Miss Sophia Townsend and Miss Nellie Clark are logical thinkers while among the men Winslow, Gale, Oliver, Miller, Morris and Averill would rub our stars off first magnitude very closely. Let us hold a debating and oratorical rally and arouse genuine enthusiasm for this most important feature of college activity.

Philodorian.

The Philodorian Society boys held their regular meeting last Friday, Nov. 7th, and although it was an off night, there was a good attendance and the program was well responded to.

The society is gradually settling down to honest work. The first meetings of the year were discouraging, but now the new members are getting into the harness and showing fine qualities for the wheelers, while the older men are accustoming themselves to their new place as leaders. Last Friday there were four new names on the table. We extend a hearty invitation, but especially to the new ones, to visit the society, and we hope that when they have come once, they will come again, not as visitors, but as loyal Philodorians, taking an active part in the Society meetings. There are many new students with whom we are not acquainted, and we hope they will not be bashful about indicating their desire to enter the society work. Certain it is, that every student in school should be a member of some society.

THE ANNUAL board is elected. It is a fine selection and the Student Body is to be congratulated upon its wisdom in the choice. Now let the various organizations of the University begin to prepare for their share of the work. Everything should be represented in this Annual. It will be one of the best means that could be contrived for advertising the University. It will be a souvenir for every student of the University no matter in which of the correlated Colleges he may be. Here is an opportunity for each to endeavor to outdo the other.

The Collegian has been doing a great deal of "knocking" this year. It does not want to obtain a reputation for such work but it has one more kick to make.

When a young man is old enough to enter a College or University he is supposed to have reached an age when those boyish pranks and practices with which he was wont to amuse himself in the public school are put aside and some sort of indication of manly dignity is taken on instead. Many of our students have this manliness and dignity innate but from sheer exuberance of life and spirit can not keep the boyishness under control at all times. More of them are thoughtless. They do not think how some of their actions may appear to others. Those who are associated with them are often embarrassed and chagrined by such thoughtlessness.

For instance, all civilized peoples have an inborn feeling of respect for religious belief and exercises of whatever nature. It is the right of every man to worship according to the dictates of his own conscience. When in the presence of religious worship, the truest and fullest respect should be shown even if not in accord with personal belief. It is a mark of great disrespect to those worshipping and an indication of either a shameful degree of thoughtlessness or of ill breeding during a prayer whether by whispering, laughing, or other noise. A blush of shame is brought to the face of many a man by the thoughtless act of a friend. Many a man is misjudged and reflections are cast upon his parents and associates by his actions in such a place or under such conditions. Let us remember these things: Chapel is a place for devotion and after religious exercises are begun nothing should be done to mar the sacredness. Song books should not be noisily placed in the seats and conversation might be reserved till after chapel.

Remember we are men and women, not children. We do not expect to be treated as children and when treated so we have a righteous resentment for such treatment, but if we act like children we will be treated so.

VICTORY FOR WILLAMETTE SECOND TEAM.

The Second W. U. Team Took the Reform School by Storm Last Saturday. The Boys Made the Trip in a Wagon Which the R. S. Sent Over.

The game was played in the flat west of the main building.

The entire population were marched down double file and did some tail cheering during the game.

W. U. kicked off to the R. S. and soon had the ball in their possession. By a few bucks and end runs brought it to the 10 yd. line and Averill made the first touch down five minutes after the kick off.

In the second kick off after a 40 yd. quarterback run by Winslow, Averill carried it over again.

It was the captain's turn to make the third touch-down by a long end buck. Time was called with the ball in W's possession on their 15-yard line.

Score at end of first half 18 to 0. The last touchdown was made by Winslow by a 40-yard quarter-back run. Final score 34 to 5 in favor of W. U.

ANNUAL STARTED.

Board Elected and Plans Are Made.

Friday afternoon at 3:30 a meeting of the Student Body was held to complete arrangements for an Annual. It is decided at last that an Annual is to be published. This year the work will be under the supervision of the Student Body. At the meeting Friday, Edgar Meresse '03 was elected Editor in Chief and Miss Sophia Townsend '03 Associate Editor. Charles E. Skidmore '06 was elected Business Manager. These persons are the best that could have been chosen. Meresse has put much thought into such work and has ideas and plans which, if carried out will give us a splendid Annual. If any one in the University could bring these plans to a ripe fruition, Meresse is the man. For an associate no better person could have been chosen than Miss Townsend. She has considerable literary ability and with the experience she had as Editor in Chief of the Collegian she will be a most able Associate. Skidmore has shown his business ability in several ways since he has been in the University. He is a hustler of the first order and a man who has the confidence of the entire student body. He has a large task before him and he is the man who can do it. This is a strong board and with the co-operation of the Students we should be able to get out an Annual as good as any in the Northwest.

How little do some people realize that the spirit of their lives will reach out to help and uplift humanity for all time! Little do they dream that, like the exquisite perfume distilled from dead rose leaves the fragrance of their unselfish deeds will sweeten and beautify the world long after they have passed away. On a higher plane they will realize that what they deplored as failure was, in truth, the noblest success. It is one of the saddest commentaries on our national ethics that those who have tried with all their might to live up to the best they know are looked upon as failures if they have not accumulated money, written a notable book, achieved distinction in science, art, music, or some other field, or done some high, heroic deed that attracts the world's attention.—"Success."

FRESHMEN ORGANIZE.

Green and White Will Try to "Do" Things.

The freshmen have organized and from now on, their chosen colors, green and white will add life to the campus. In adopting their class rules they have specifically stated that the object of their union is for mutual benefit and the furtherance of true college spirit. Surely this is a laudable ambition. The classes have been heard but little in Willamette in the past. We hope in the future they will show more life—will not let the Freshmen get too far ahead of them. The class of '06 has twenty five members. They have elected the following officers.
CHALLENGE THE SOPHS.
 The class of '06 has challenged the sophomores to a debate to be held at the convenience of the challenged class. The '05s have not accepted as yet. The Freshmen feel confident as to their ability to win. They leave all arrangements to the desire of the Sophs except the number on a side. The '06s want sides of three members each. Sophs its up to you.

ANOTHER CHANGE.

Tradition is Disturbed by Bell Changes.

Last week the faculty made new regulations concerning the ringing of the bells. The bell which has rung at 8:30 A. M. each school day for so many years will be heard no more. Beginning yesterday the large bell in the University will ring at 8:45 a. m. instead of 8:30, again at 8:55 and at 11:55. It will also be rung at five minutes before the close of each recitation period, at 12:50 and at 1:00. The office gong will ring at 9:00 and at 1:00. These changes are for the better, unless it be the first in the morning which tradition says should ring at 8:30. It may prove to be more satisfactory than the old hour. The ringing of the large bell at each recitation period is a step forward. It must be a great convenience to those who live near or who study at home. We are glad to note these improvements. We need a lot more.

BASKET BALL NEXT.

Managers Elected and Teams Soon to Begin Work.

Last week a Student Body meeting was held for the purpose of choosing managers for the two basket ball teams. Robert Morris was unanimously chosen Business manager for the second football team. The team has already played two games and has several others in view. The work so far has shown up some good material. No doubt several of the men on the scrub team this year will make the first team next. The interest in basket-ball was also augmented by the election of two Business Managers. Averil '05 was elected Manager for the boy's team and Prof. McCull for the girl's team. We should have some good teams this year. The girls are already at work under the able direction of Prof. Warfield who has had considerable experience at basket-ball. The boys will not begin regular practice till near the end of the football season. We have apparently better material this year for a good team than last, although last year's team was good. When work has begun we can tell more about the real value of the material.

CAPS!!!

Have the Students Been Painting the Town Red?

Last Tuesday about noon, Holverson & Co., received our new caps, and from the time they were displayed in the window, the second floor of their store was thronged with students of both sexes looking for new sky-pieces. The committee which chose the caps did well both in the matter of shape and color. Every student should have one of those caps. They are both useful and ornamental. They will help greatly to advertise the school. They show the existence of some college spirit. They will be valuable as souvenirs after we leave the college halls. Hurrah for the caps!

Girls and everyone else should see that elegant line of Cosmos Pictures at Patton's Book Store.
