LAFKY TO COMPETE AT EUGENE FRIDAY

Willamette is One of Three to Submit Manuscript on Time.

Ray Lafky will represent Willamette in the Old Line State Oratorical Contest held on Friday, March 14, at the University of Oregon in Eugene. The subject of his oration is: "Propaganda versus Education."

This is a state oratorical contest in which the participant chooses his own subject and writes his own oration. It is sponsored by the Inter-Collegiate Forensic Association of Oregon, and the ten colleges of Oregon which are members of the association are eligible to enter representatives. This year Willamette was one of three colleges out of these ten to send in the manuscript on time. If the association adheres strictly to its constitution, Willamette will have only two competitors. Perhaps the time limit will be extended, thus allowing improvements to be made in the manuscripts that are already in.

The orations are to contain not more than 15,000 words and to take not more than fifteen minutes for delivery. Quotations are limited to 200 words. The winner will receive twenty-five dollars from the Inter-Collegiate Forensic Association of Oregon.

NEW TROPHY WILL BE GIVEN AT TOURNAMENT

Most Outstanding Individual Player Will Receive Trophy for First Time.

More than a hundred reservations for season-tournament seats have been made to date. The extent of ticket sales cannot be determined until the latter part of the week when high school and college students as well as townspeople take stock of finances and time. However, indications in the offices of graduate-manager Sparks and Coach Keene are that the usual attendance may be expected.

New incentive and interest in the tournament is being offered this year in the new trophy which will be presented for the first time this season. In previous years sports writers and critics have suggested the offering of a trophy to the most outstanding individual player on the basis of sportsmanship portrayed during the tournament. Such a trophy has been obtained and will be given by the State High School Athletic Association. This makes the fourth trophy to take its place in the much coveted shelf of cups and statuettes. Each year the high school association of the state offers a trophy to the winner of the state championship, the runner-up, and the winner of the consolation series. The new trophy will probably be offered every year hereafter.

The trophies have been placed in the window of a downtown sporting goods store.

TWO AMENDMENTS TO BE CONSIDERED

May Queen Amendment to be Voted on Mar. 14; Women's Awards, March 21.

At a special meeting of the A. S. W. U., called by President Mumford for Friday, March 14, the proposed May Queen amendment will be submitted for the second and final reading. The amendment has been posted for some time on the Eaton hall bulletin board.

The amendment for women's intra-mural awards will be voted upon at the regular meeting of the Associated student body, March 21st. As this amendment involves a change in the by-laws, it can not be passed at a special meeting of the student body.

RECREATION GIVEN "LITTLE SISTERS"

Social Service Committee Quietly Gives Pleasure to Unfortunates.

The Social Service committee of the Y. W. C. A. under the chairmanship of Marjorie Nelson has been doing notable work this year. About thirty girls have been working on this committee, and all are very enthusiastic about their jobs. The group has been in charge of certain activities at the School for the Blind, the School for the Deaf and Dumb, the Old People's Home, and at the Industrial School.

Elizabeth Bishop is in charge of the committee for the School for the Blind. Each girl on her committee has a "little sister," whom she takes for walks and with whom she visits. The girls are planning a party at Lausane hall next Saturday afternoon for their "little sisters."

Elsie Allan is in charge of the committee for the School for the Deaf and Dumb. Every Saturday afternoon the girls on her committee take charge of the recreation and games at the school. At Christmas time they supervised a pageant which was presented. The girls and planning a picnic for the entire school later in the spring. The committee for the Old People's Home visit the ladies and send them Christmas greeting cards. Theresa Nannay is in charge of this work.

Another section is planning to present a pageant, "Youth Prays," on March 30 at the Industrial School. Some of the girls of the school will take part. At Christmas time the committee devoted the funds derived from a candy sale to the making of Christmas calendars for the girls at the school. Lucile Hixon was in charge of this work.

An industrial committee, with Muriel White as chairman, has been started as an experiment. The committee studies industrial problems.

LAUGHLIN SPEAKS IN CHAPEL TUESDAY

Gambling as Carried on in New York Stock Market is Subject.

"You can't get something for nothing, but if you should, you pay too much for it," said Dr. Seava B. Laughlin in a talk on gambling as carried on in the New York stock market which he gave in chapel Tuesday. The three animals prominent in the Wall street game are the bull, the bear, and the lamb; the three important terms are investment and speculation which are carried on when stock is bought outright, and pure gambling which is the real meaning of operating on margin, according to Dr. Laughlin. In margin operations the lamb puts up 20%, and the banker puts up 80%, for which the banker gets the stock as security, the broker gets his commission, and the lamb gets only hope.

Typical of the spirit which prevailed before the crash of last fall is the fact that 367 people bought stock from one broker without even inquiring about its earning power. The effects of the crash were to decrease the savings accounts of the nation by $126,000,000, to put mortgages on many homes, and to cause much life insurance to be turned in for money to pull out of the crash.

CUBS WILL ASSIST AGAIN AT TOURNNEY

NO VERDICT MADE IN LAST COURT CASE

Jury Unable to Agree on Case; Judge Inman Finally Discharges Them.

The case of Welton versus Gray, which for the past few days has excited much interest among the lawyers, was tried Tuesday night, with the honorable C. M. Inman on the bench. The plaintiff, Welton, was represented by Campbell, Mumford and Fuller, while Paul E. Geddes, Tom McIvor, and Phil Huth, appeared for defendant.

From the evidence produced in court it appeared that Welton and his family had moved their home in Kentucky and moved west to Oregon intending to locate somewhere in the vicinity of Salem. He became acquainted with the defendant, Gray, a real estate agent and a retired pseudo steamship captain, who desired to sell Welton a 30 acre farm near Turner. While on their way out to view the premises it appears that they both became intoxicated. Upon the witness stand each blamed the other for inducing the intoxication. A witness testified that at Gray's request he doped the liquor Welton drank with a mixture of ether and wood alcohol. This, Gray flatly denied claiming that the only difference between the condition of the plaintiff and defendant was that he out-drank the plaintiff.

Under the influence of the liquor the premises were viewed and shortly afterwards purchased by Welton. Upon his first subsequent inspection, however, Welton testified that he discovered the property was not as had been represented to him by Gray and thereupon brought this action against him for damages.

The jury after long deliberation could not come to an agreement, and was finally discharged by Judge Inman when all hope of reaching a verdict had been abandoned.

OLDER BOYS WILL SOON BE ENTERTAINED HERE

The Blue Key service fraternity will function at the Older Boys' conference which will be held at the city "Y" on April 4 and 5 by sponsoring an excursion for the boys around Salem, the surrounding state institutions, and Willamette University. The Blue Key plans to make use of this opportunity to interest the high school students in the university.

New officers and members will be nominated at the next meeting. This year's sophomores and juniors will be eligible to membership.

The members of Blue Key plan to go to some nearby hills next Saturday morning at 6 a. m. and log timber to build the millstream bridge.

The part of the Blue Key in repairing the broken lights in front of Eaton Hall will be to suggest the need of this repair to the university officials.

ORIENTAL ADOPTION URGED FOR WOMEN

Dean Milan Asks Willamette Students to Adopt Sister School.

Miss Ava B. Milan, dean of the home economics school at Oregon State college, recently spoke to the women of the university about the sister college movement. The object of this movement is to form a friendship between the American and the Oriental colleges.

In many of the universities in the United States this means of international friendship is becoming popular. Besides becoming friendly with the students of an Oriental college, some of the American university students are helping support an Oriental girl while she attends school.

If the Willamette women decide to join in this movement, it is likely that a college either in China or Korea will be chosen. It is hoped that every woman on the campus will become interested in having a sister college.

HEAVY DRAMA HAS SUPERB PORTRAYAL

Excellent Work Done in "The Enemy" by Enterprising Amateurs.

The most intensive drama ever staged by Willamette students, "The Enemy," by channing Pollock, was produced Monday night by Theta Alpha Phi at the Grand theater.

The original purpose of the play when produced some years ago just after the World war, was to convince the public that the real enemy is hate and not the common people who are unresponsible for the declaration of war; but even more forcibly does it show the horror of war, wrecking one family and ruining the happiness of another.

It is the entrance of Ian, a butcher of prewar times, now bloody from the battle field, who, with his half crazy ravings of the unspeakable scenes of war, overwhelms the audience with a conviction of war's horror.

While Helen Pemberton very capably took the difficult lead of "Paul" the sad young girl from whom war takes both husband and baby, every member of the cast had an opportunity for some very strong acting. Ralph McCullough outshone most any professional in his foiling characterization of the nervously "shot" returned soldier. The fat old German wheat profiteer was excellently portrayed by Paul Ackerman. In fact every member of the cast well deserves compliments for splendid acting. However, largest credit is due Professor Rahe who spent unlimited time and energy on the production which caused it to be a success and universal admiration by the audience, which was held in a state of tense emotional excitement throughout the entire drama.

Gate receipts totaled an approximate sum of $200, which was considered by those in charge as very good.

Freshman, Class of 1928, victorious in 17th place contest with right song. The juniors second, seniors third, and the sophomores fourth.

The annual co-ed carnival is scheduled for April 18, this year. The management has been changed from the O. A. A. to the Y. W. C. A.

The tuition for Willamette University students has been increased to $160 a year, this is a raise of $50 per year.

One of the most drastic changes ever made in the Willamette A. S. R. constitution was incorporated last Friday when the Student body, by an overwhelming majority, voted to assume management of the Wallula.

The sophomore team won the men's interclass basketball championship. They defeated the juniors 25 to 13, the freshmen 29 to 16, and the seniors did not enter a team.

One more conference of great significance has been held on Willamette's campus. Saturday the representatives from the Y. W. C. A. organizations of all the colleges of Oregon convened here with various officials of the national Y. W. C. A. to arrange the program.

The most important event of the social calendar for the second semester is the fact that Spring vacation begins March 29.

New Books

By Margaret Eddy

"The Theory of Interest" by Fisher is a new economics book which studies capitalism. "Immigration" by Abbott contains select documents and case records. The different national and state laws on the subject are explained, and the problem is briefly considered from the sociological point of view. "Main Street and Wall Street" by Ripley is a political economy book dealing with the relation of property to civilization.

An interesting 1930 book is "Bridges" "Psychology Normal and Abnormal," which considers the subject from a medical point of view. "An Introduction to Social Research" by Odum and Joeger, studies the types of approach and procedure of social research.

An honor's paper by Wendell Keek has been filed in the library. It is entitled "Style in Contemporary American Critical Writing."

286 Seniors of Salem High to Graduate, Word

Preliminary check of the number of high school seniors who will be graduated in June stands at 286, according to Fred Wolf, principal. While some names may be added and some dropped before the final list is made, it is probable that about this number will receive diplomas. Last year's graduating class numbered 277.

Keene to Address Students — "Spice" Keene, athletic director at Willamette, will talk before the high school student assembly this morning on the state basketball tournament.

COLLEGE PLANE IS LABORATORY

The meteorological and navigation class is given as a night course with laboratory work in the college plane, the Flying Bengal, this semester. A proposed project now on is to get data and tabulate atmospheric conditions in and about Stockton and vicinity. This work is done during the night time at the Oakland airport by candles being sent up in Japanese lanterns, effects of balloons, and observations being made on lighted candles contained in the balloons, and the data recorded. In this best Pacific plane to use hydrogen balloons (using apparatus from the chemistry department), and the college plane for ascension purposes, and to tabulate data for seasonal changes and for changes in the atmosphere at different heights.

Later on, if present plans are fulfilled, a meteorological station will be established at Pacific field, and engineering students will be allowed the privilege of working in this station, increasing their pocket-books and fund of knowledge.—Pacific College.

A grading system such as that now used at the University of Oregon is not sufficient ground on which to base the standing of students in large classes believes Dr. Victor P. Morris, professor of economics, adding, however that he sees little chance of improvement under modern conditions. He believes that in a large group so many superficial things come in that the present grading system does not gauge a student's knowledge and interest in the subject. Grades do not measure the amount of interest that a student may have in a subject regardless of the fact that they may measure fairly accurately the amount of work he expends on the subject. However, for the type of students or student who are not deeply interested in gaining an education or is not interested in a particular course a grading system is necessary as a check, and he states that he finds a considerable number of students who are stimulated to greater effort by grades.

The easiest way to grade, he says, would be on a pass and fail system, as such a system would cut the chances of giving a wrong grade from six to two.—U. of O., Eugene.

GRADING SYSTEM IS CRITICIZED

A special section is reserved for the Coeds and from early reports a large representation should be present.—State university of Montana, Missoula.

W. S. C. CO-ED AWARDED FOR HIGH SCHOLARSHIP

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, Wash., Mar. 5.—(P.I.P.A.)—Dorothy Mann, Harrington, state college freshman last year in the school of education, has just been announced as the winner of the Pi Lambda Theta scholarship award, given by the organization each year to the freshman woman making the highest average.

Miss Mann, whose grades rank above 93, is not attending the state college this semester. In her freshman year she took an active part in campus projects, being a member of the freshman women's debate squad and of Spuds, women's honorary organization. Her social affiliations are with Alpha Tau Alpha.

PLAN COACHING SCHOOL FOR SUMMER SESSION

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 6.—Plans for the sixth annual Oregon State college summer coaching school have been completed. The coming session will include instruction in seven sports and two branches of administrative work. Seven members of the physical education department of the college, together with Knute Rockne, coach at Notre Dame, will complete the faculty staff for this year. Training in football, boxing, wrestling, basketball and track will be given starting June 16, so that all may be included in the first two weeks without conflict.—Ore. State college.

THREE NEW ENGLISH COURSES PREPARED

Professor S. Stephenson Smith of U. of O. has prepared three new courses for correspondence study. Twentieth Century Literature, American Imaginative Literature, and Play Reviewing. The latter is a writing course and deals with the preparation of critical reviews of such modern productions as moving pictures, vaudeville, and jazz.—U. of O., Eugene.

WOMEN GRABS DEFEAT MEN IN GRADE AVERAGES

Women graduates of the University of Oregon, with the class of 1929, won over the male members of the class by a margin of only one-tenth of a point in the grade averages for their four years of college work. Data compiled by Dr. Howard R. Taylor, director of the personnel bureau, show that the co-eds made an average rating of 2.7, as against 2.8 for the men. These figures apply only to students who completed their course in four years, having entered the university in 1925.

STUDENTS SELECTED TO TAKE TEST FOR AVIATION

Nine students of the University of Oregon have been selected to take the physical examination preparatory to enrolling in the marine corps reserve aviation school at Seattle for a one month preliminary course in flying. These men will be examined by the flight surgeon at the United States army barracks. Five of those passing the test will be chosen for the training school.—U. of O., Eugene.

AGE SURVEY TAKEN AT OREGON STATE COLLEGE

A survey made on the Oregon State college campus shows that the average age of the men is more than that of the women. The average for freshmen is 20; sophomores, 21; juniors, 22, and seniors, 23. The range in the first year class is 17 to 31; sophomores, 17 to 33; juniors, 19 to 38, while the youngest of those to graduate is 20 and the oldest 36.

ACTIVITY AT RANGE ENDS FOR TERM

The rifle range at the R. O. T. C. barracks of the U. of O. has been closed for the duration of this term. The reason for this action is that the present issue of ammunition has been found defective and dangerous to use. Although no serious accidents have occurred so far, some of the men who have been firing have met with minor injuries.

The range will not be opened until the present ammunition can be officially condemned and new supplies are issued by the government.—U. of O., Eugene.

INVITE CO-EDS TO WATCH M. LOURNEY

Feeling that the Coeds of the university are missing out on an evening of fun and entertainment, the members of the "M" club have made special requests and arrangements for presence of the girls at a boxing tournament to be held soon.

Furthermore, the lettermen are so anxious to have the Coeds attend the affair that fusing will not be discouraged that night. Last evening two "M" club members invited themselves to each sorority house and dormitory in an effort to convince the campus girls that the "M" club tournament was for them as well as the male element.

MAINE STUDENTS VOTE FOR CHAPEL

Compulsory Attendance Held Only Means of Uniting Groups.

Compulsory chapel is to be tried as a new institution during this semester at Colby College of Waterville, Maine. The move, although suggested by the president of the college, has been worked out in detail and put into effect by the student council of the college.

The reason advanced for the move is, chiefly, that there is a lack of any common interest to bind the various small groups of the campus together into a common unit. Making chapel compulsory is the remedy which will be tried for the devistive influence on the campus. Programs will be directed by a committee composed of an equal number of faculty and students. An extremely liberal number of cuts will be allowed, ranging from 5 cuts a semester for freshmen to 15 a semester for seniors. Five cuts over the allotted number will cause the deduction of one semester hour credit from the student's scholastic standing. Checking on chapel attendance will be in the hands of the students who will submit an attendance sheet to the Dean once a week. It was suggested by the president of the college that the name of the meeting should be changed from "chapel" to "assembly." The word "assembly" is suggested as more accurately describing the varied type of program which is in use instead of the formal daily religious exercise.

LOCAL THEATER TO STAR MINA HAGER

Mezzo-Soprano of National Music League Will Appear March 31.

Salem is fortunate in having Miss Mina Hager, mezzo-soprano of the National music league billed at the Fox Elsinore, March 31. Miss Hager is appearing in spite of a tour with the famous composer, Piazetti, as his soloist, a privilege which she feels is one of the highest ever paid to her, and everything was done to rearrange her western tour in order that she might accept, but, rather than cancel any dates she is appearing as formerly planned.

Another great honor was offered Miss Hager which she could not accept. Mr. George Whiting, the famous composer of popular songs, had invited her to be a guest in the new Folker piano on his cross-country tour. Radio and telephone connections were to have been established with the earth, by which Miss Hager was to have tried singing at an altitude of 1,000 feet.

Mina Hager, born in Madison, South Dakota, attended Dakota Wesleyan college and Huron college, during which she gave recitals in civic, academic, and church circles. Her college, she continued her study at Chicago, where she sang with the Chicago Apollo club and at the North Shore Lyceum. This was followed by an American tour with the Chicago Symphony orchestra and a visit to Europe. She sang in London eight times, and gave recitals in Paris, Switzerland, and Berlin, where she was soloist for the Berlin Philharmonic orchestra. Returning to the United States, Miss Hager has since 1925 been an artist of the National Music League. Her 1929 return to Los Angeles, where she opens her tour by singing with the Los Angeles her fourth transcontinental tour in two years. During her concert tours, Miss Hager has gained the highest praise of music critics in the United States, Europe and Mexico. The following criticism by Emanuel Cesaere of Mexico City, is typical of those every where received:

"Miss Hager is a singer who is also a musician with style and intensity of expression such as we have seldom heard—exquisite tone superb, very rare among singers. When interpreting the musical works, she bestows upon them their true meaning and interpretation, with a musicality and rhythmic perfection which is very rare among singers."

All seats for her concert in Salem are reserved, and tickets will be exchanged for reserved seat tickets beginning Thursday morning, March 27, at 10:00 a. m. Since many Willamette students will be away that week on spring vacation, tickets may be left at Will's Music store, 432 State street. Students are to state their preferences.

Student seats may be had for 50 and 75 cents.

'Y' GIVES CHANCE FOR JOB TRAINING

Willamette university men have an unique privilege in the opportunity offered the my the Salem Y. M. C. A. Every year, the association offers a non-credit training course preparing Willamette men especially to be leaders of groups of boys. This class varies from 15 to 35 in number. Often as many as 20 men have been used at one time to direct Boy's clubs. There are few opportunities in the West for men to get association training along with their college work and the Y. M. C. A. could easily use several times more men each year if they were available.

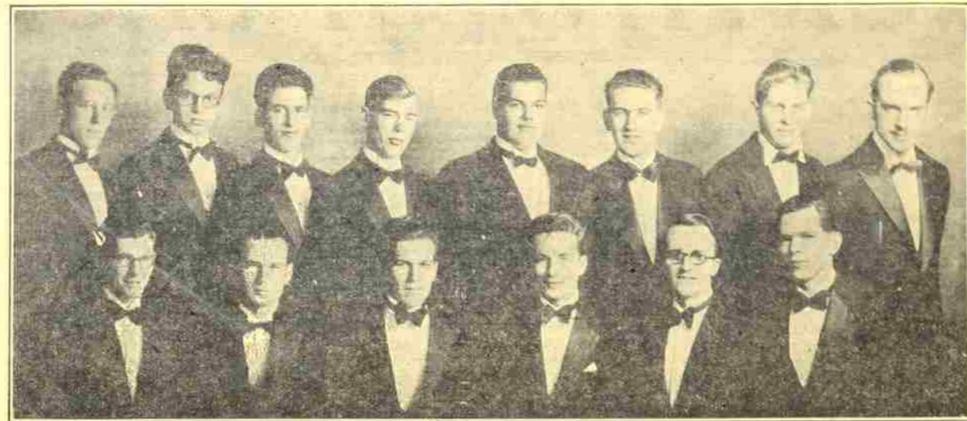

During the past eight years, thirteen Willamette graduates have taken up full time "Y" work. All have served one year and the first four of the following list have served for nearly eight years. The list is as follows:

Paul Flegel, Berkeley; Edwin Soeolofsky, Marian Co., New Hampshire, Seattle; Lester Day, San Francisco; Ben Rickli, Portland; Salem; Everett Craven, Portland; Melvin Vincent, Berkeley; Ellsworth Anslow, Seattle; Kenneth Lawson, Spokane, New Haven; James Rattie, Sheffield Scientific School; Everett Lisle, New Westminster, Spokane; Loyd Warner, Salem; Ivan White, Salem; Earl Douglas, Eugene.

In addition to the men doing full time "Y" service, a considerable number of alumni have worked for a time in the Salem association. There are always several Willamette men employed for a few hours per day. Those now working are: Eugene Myers, Dwight Adams, Enoch Dumas, Robert Wilson, Leslie Markler, Louis Johnson, and Fred Smith—Willamette next year.

Many other men have gotten the "Y" spirit at Willamette and while they have chosen other lines of work, they are more effectively serving men and boys because of these contacts.

NEWEST THRILLER AT FOX ELSINORE

S. S. Van Dine's Play to be Here. Philo Vance Makes Debut in Mystery Film

New falls, new kicks and new ways of poking fun at the stage strong man will help to make up the novelty elements heralded by the coming of Terrell and Hanley in Fanchon and Marco's Trees Idea Saturday at the Fox Elsinore theater.

Satirically described as the "world's best dress athlete," this pair of good natured lads are expected to border on the suicidal in their great comedy offering. At times, it is said, they almost knock each other unconscious by their own rough treatment.

Their seemingly fatal dives to the hard boards of the stage and their collisions with each other, however, will come to a sudden halt. Just when it seems it will be necessary to remove them on stretchers, they perform a splendid gymnastic feat, which proves they really can be serious in their stage work.

Also on the bill for this week-end is "The Bishop Murder Case," Philo Vance, well known literary character in S. S. Van Dine's exciting tales, will make his appearance on the screen in this talkie. "The Bishop Murder Case" is the latest cinema hair-raiser and has been called the biggest "thriller" in mystery pictures.

Basil Rathbone, Lella Hyams, Roland Young, Alec B. Francis, George Marion and Zola Sears, all of whom are noted cinema and stage performers, are included in this Fox Elsinore thriller.

Coming next Tuesday is "Lord Byron of Broadway," a screen musical comedy of the Great White Way. Cliff Edwards (Ukelele Ike) writes his biggest song hits out of broken hearts.

MENTAL HEALTH IS FACTOR OF SUCCESS

Bulletin of the State Health Board Says Healthy Mind Necessary.

"Mental health is characterized by a sense of well-being, keenness of observation, clearness of thought, soundness of judgment, accuracy of memory, control of emotions, stability of will, continuity of purpose, friendliness of attitude and freedom of expression," says a recent bulletin of the Oregon state Board of Health.

"Mental disorder, on the other hand, is manifested by lack of contentment, confusion of thought, flight of ideas, outbreaks of emotion, delusions of pretension, distrust of associates, withdrawal from reality, and other distressing symptoms.

"To the unhealthy mind, life seems insecure and exposed to many dangers; the world appears chaotic and filled with destructive elements; people seem selfish and controlled by selfish impulses; altruistic effort seems useless and social progress, impossible. Mental health becomes, therefore, the first essential to well-ordered and complete life. With a healthy mind the individual may reach a goal commensurate with his ability; with a disordered mind he is doomed to low grade achievement or to failure, dependency or degradation. The mentally healthy individual meets the varying situations of life with confidence and courage and using his reason as his guide, determines the line of action to be pursued. He may be misinformed; he may make mistakes; he may suffer misfortune; but his equanimity will not be seriously disturbed. He accepts full responsibility for his conduct and acknowledges error freely. He rises above adverse circumstances and gains wisdom from his failure as well as his successes.

"Instead of being haunted by impending disaster, instead of being troubled by petty annoyances, instead of being worried by trifling difficulties, he will fulfill the duties and responsibilities of life with calmness and composure, feeling certain that the present as it moves on into the future carries with it adequate guarantees of continued security."

versity and the University of California.

Bell laboratories are maintained by the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the largest corporation in the world. Their purpose is extensive research in all of the scientific fields which are in any way connected with the transmission of human thought by voice or in code. The products of their research are used both by the Western Electric company, which is the manufacturing department of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, and by its service department. Their research is not limited to telephones and radio alone; talking pictures and television are two developments which have arisen almost as by-products of their work.

The exact nature of their work is not known by either Professor Leamer or Mr. Mumford. It was stated in the offer that the work would be research work, the exact nature of which would be determined later, and added that "every effort will be made to see that the work is in that in which you are most interested."

STATE TOURNEY TO BE NEXT WEEK

District Champs to Be Decided this Week—Dallas Wins.

With the state tournament only a week off the high schools of the state are trying desperately to gain their division championship that they may be present at the opening game of the tournament the 19th.

It is hard to say who will finally take home the cup but it is likely that there are six or eight teams from the nine entered which have about an equal chance.

Roseburg will probably be one of the entrants but their strength is comparatively unknown as they have played none of the northern teams. Eugene high has about clinched a place on the lineup of the tournament and judging by reports they have a wonderful team.

Pendleton is coming by virtue of their win over McLoughlin by a 22-18 score. Many of the sports writers had picked McLoughlin as a possible winner of the state tournament but Pendleton threw the damp blanket on McLoughlin's hopes and came out the representative of that district.

La Grande and Baker are fighting about which is to represent the eastern part of the state and it is just about a toss up as far as any information received around the local campus goes.

Astoria and Tillamook are both sure of a place on the roster next week and as far as can be told now there is considerable difference of opinion who will be the regular entry from Marion-Folk county district. Dallas easily beat the fast Silverton squad the other night and now must play either Molalla or Columbia university high school to determine the entry from that district.

The dope seems to favor Molalla as the probable winner of the local district title and the Willamette university rook squad can testify as to the ability of these boys since they dropped a game to them in the first part of the season.

At present publication it is impossible to say just who will play each game but by next week the Collegian will have the complete schedule of the tournament and by that time ought to know something about the probable winner of the tournament.

KEENE GOING TO JUNIOR CONFERENCE THIS WEEK

In the morning he will discuss with the conference on the subject "Life Values from Athletics"; and, in the evening, on "Junior Baseball."

D. PHENICIE ACHIEVES CREDITABLE COACHING

Last Year's Graduate Turns Out Champion Girl's Team at Rickreall, Oregon

RICKREALL, Ore., Mar. 12.—In her first year of coaching, Miss Doris Phenicie, who graduated from Willamette last June, has developed a phenomenal basketball team at Rickreall high school. This team has won fifteen out of sixteen games played, and has scored a total of 618 points to 181 for their opponents, holding their opponents to about eleven points per game and scoring an average of thirty-nine points per game. Such high scoring would be exceptional for any high school boys' team. This fine record is the more exceptional when we consider that the Rickreall girls have never had a basketball team. Miss Phenicie's team has won the championship of three counties, and negotiations for games to determine the best team in the state are being made.

The scores of the individual games are as follows:

LAW SCHOOL NOSES OUT LOWER CLASSMEN 14-13

Last Thursday the Law school quintet defeated the Lower classmen 14 to 13. Although one man on the losing team had never played basketball until a few days ago, they played a fast game. The Law five had four points given to them by scoring twice when the timekeeper failed to call time. The lawyers tried to stall during the last quarter, but the classmen took the ball and nearly overcame the five point lead. Jack Trachsel found it necessary to call a large number of fouls, but neither team converted many.

Lineups: Law School: Huth (5) ... F ... (5) DePoe Emmons (2) ... F ... (3) Wilson Ruch ... C ... (4) Haldane Braly (4) ... G ... (3) French Mundorf (3) ... G ... Orr Campbell ... S Referee—Trachsel.

GIRLS IN CHORUS UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 12.—(Special)—Among the 48 women who successfully passed the first tryout, and will compete in the finals for the junior vaudivelle chorus are two Salem girls, Julia Creech and Maxine Myers, both freshmen majoring in English.

SPARKS HIGH MAN IN DO-NUT LEAGUE

Les Shoots Two Field Goals in Last Game to Win Honors by 3 Points.

Leslie Sparks won the individual scoring honors in the Do-Nut league scoring race when he looped in two field goals Monday. Al Haworth led the league by one point the last of last week and he has undisputed hold on second place, John Trachsel and Charles Gill are tied for third with 45 points each. Charles Campbell might have been in third place if the Alpha Psi team had not defaulted. Although the faculty quintet won the championship, only three pros are in the high scores. The list of highest scorers in the final standing in the individual race:

FRESHMEN WALLOP M'MINNVILLE FIVE

Deadly Shooting of Yearlings Rolls up Commanding Lead. Reserves Used.

Monday, March 5, Willamette Bearkittens won by a score of 50-28 from the McMinnville high school's basketball team. The freshmen displayed accurate shooting and showed good class after they were well warmed up to the game. The men from Mac led during the first quarter and tried hard throughout the game. Five consecutive baskets were made by the same number of W. U. rooks, during the second half. The players and respective scores are as follows:

MEN BEWAIL THE DISAPPEARANCE OF MIRROR FROM GYM

Those who have heard the grumblings which of late have crept up the stairway from the men's dressing room in the gymnasium know what is the matter. There is a sigh of sympathy and pain from every passer-by who hears the angry war-whoop of someone's urgent anguish, for the passer-by knows that catastrophe has invited that cry and what dilemma has stirred that anguish.

In a few words, the mirror which once hung upon one of the posts in the men's dressing room has disappeared. It is hard to imagine the extent of the damage and sorrow which this disappearance has caused. Those on whom the mirror wrought a cunning influence—and upon whom among us did it not?—are frantic in their appeal to their friends, to the elements, to Mr. Sparks. Their friends weep with them, the elements console them, Mr. Sparks wears a face of stone.

Something must be done. Are Willamette men to enter class with hair uncombed, looking like atavisms to the primitive? Is the masculine beauty of the campus to be marred by someone's negligence or malice? Are hay-stack bobs to come into fashion among the athletic men?

No, students of Willamette, it must not be! A little mirror was the author of this conundrum. A little mirror will solve it.

FROSH COACH NAMED EUGENE, Ore., March 12.—(AP)—Bill Baker, for three years first string pitcher on the University of Oregon varsity baseball team, tonight was appointed freshman coach by the Associated Students. He succeeds Prink Callison, who will assist with spring football practice. Fletcher Udall, Berkeley, Calif., will manage the Oregon baseball team during the 1930 season. It was announced.

Women's Volleyball Seniors Team Best

Feminity Screams

Screaming, shouting, along with some flashy playing, added to the interest of the Women's Volleyball Tournament which was held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. It seemed from the very first that the Seniors had the best team, although the Sophomores played a rather close second. As the games were played off, however, the Seniors revealed the superiority due to their class and won the championship. Mildred Wilkins was captain of the Senior team. The Sophomores received second place following a hard struggle with the Seniors which ended with a tie at the close of the game and which, on playing three more minutes, gave the Seniors the lead of five points. The Freshmen also had a good team and it came in fourth place, or what they deem to call honorable mention.

This is the first year in Willamette University that such a tournament had been held and it seems that it has added to the promotion of class spirit especially among the women of the University. In the first place, each girl who played two full games out of the three is entitled to 100 points. These points are recorded in the Women's Athletic Association file and will add to her score for the Women's Athletic Association award. Those who earned their letter in volleyball this season are as follows: Marian Morange, Dorothy Whipple, Sarah Poor, Elsie Allen, Violet Bescher, Leah Fanning, Mildred Wilkins, Emily Brown, Marion Bretz, Margaret Morehouse, Edith Morange, Roberta Archibald, LaVada Maxwell, Margaret Ghormley, Nora Pratt, Mildred Pugh, Myrna Bonney, Lois Jean Rasch, Esther Girod, Mariel White, Sarah Dark and Rosetta Smith.

TALK ABOUT MUSIC FOUND INSTRUCTIVE

Miss Helen MacHirron of the department of music of Willamette university gave an inspiring talk on "musical figures" at the residence studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts Wednesday night before a large number of the members of the Salem Drama League and interested guests.

Taking the well known folk song classic, "Three Blind Mice," written in 1609, Miss MacHirron showed the foundation of music—a short group of characteristic notes called a figure. After developing this idea of a "figure," in the minds of her listeners, Prof. Roberts played the "Andante Cantabile" of Tschalkowsky, to illustrate the point that this splendid piece of music is built around three notes. The first movement contains 500 measures and three fourths of these measures are repetitions of the foundation "figure." This was followed by a similar illustration in the first movement of Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony," a duo piano number played by Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, Miss Grace Henderson, Miss Evelyn Hill and Miss Helen McPherson. Miss Eleanor Moore accompanied by Miss Mildred Gehle sang two illustrations of Indian music, which according to Miss MacHirron illustrated the elements of savage music.

FROSH TAKE PAIR FROM ASHLAND HI

Andy Peterson is High Point Man in Ashland Games Last Week End.

The Willamette University Freshmen basketball team returned from their trip to Ashland with a double victory over the Ashland high school, winning the first game Friday night 33 to 16, and the second game Saturday night 24 to 23. The high school boys played good basketball, and neither game was a set-up for the Frosh.

The first game was slow with both teams playing carefully. The score at the end of the first half was 12 to 10, and at the end of the third quarter 16 to 16. In the last quarter the Frosh speeded up for a brief period and scored 17 points.

The second game was rough though both teams still played good basketball. The Ashland boys made a determined effort to win, and the outcome of the game was uncertain until the end. At one time Ashland was in the lead five points. In the last three minutes of the game the Frosh again flashed into action and made their winning score just before the whistle blew.

COLUMBIA HOOPERS REACH HERE EARLY

On fighting edge and ready for the hoop contest which will decide the district No. 7 basketball championship and the district entry in the state tournament, the hoopers of Columbia university high school of Portland arrived in Salem Wednesday night.

The game isn't slated to be played until Friday night, but somehow the Columbia coach and players got the dates mixed and were here Wednesday night expecting to settle the matter. The game Friday night will be played on the Willamette university floor.

Regulars on the Columbia team are Warren and Stone, forwards; Shea, center; Casey and Dwyer, guards. Shea was the outstanding player in the game at Milwaukie Monday night in the Columbia defeated Molalla high 20 to 19.

ANDERSON DISPLAYS SKILL TO NEW MEN

Desmond Anderson, ex-national amateur lightweight wrestling champion, worked out with the Willamette wrestling class several times this week and showed the men some extraordinary science.

Last week Mervin Barrackman, a first class middleweight, came over to the gym and helped train the aspirants.

Roy Mink is on the shelf temporarily because of a badly inflamed ear. Frank Lockhart is out of training because of a sprained back. Lee Tate, Lloyd Girod, Shorty Black and John Ross have been working pretty steadily. All the fellows are improving.

O. S. C. STUDENT HOLDS RECORD FOR ECONOMY

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, March 12.—(PIPA)—A lesson in economy might well be learned from one Oregon State College student in the forestry department. This man has gone through four years at the state college with his entire expense account totaling only $1498. Out of this sum, only $468 was not earned during that four year period.

ALPHA PSI MEN FORFEIT CONTEST TO SIGMA TAU

The Sigma Tau team took a 1 to 0 forfeit game from the Alpha Psi Friday noon and then played an All-star quintet. The Sigs won the game 16 to 15 although the losers scored eight points in the final quarter. Early in the opening period Alfred French was injured when he fouled Fred Paul, Ed Beggs of the Sigs played for the All-stars the remainder of the tilt.

Lineups: Sigma Tau: Paul (1) ... F ... DePoe Campbell (5) ... F ... Haldane Silke (4) ... C ... (2) C. French Satchwell (4) ... G ... Girod Waddel ... G ... A. French Cushing (2) ... S ... Beggs Referee—Trachsel.

FACULTY COPS DO-NUT LEAGUE TITLE MONDAY

Monday the faculty squad defeated the Sigma Tau to win the Do-Nut league championship. The Sig team seemed tired from the loss of sleep last week, and the faculty played rougher than any time previous. The pros were all on, and Trachsel seemed unable to miss the basket. Leamer began the scoring by shooting a foul. Sparks, Keene, and Leamer did most of the scoring during the first half, and Trachsel looped them in during the second period.

BASEBALL OUTLOOK BRIGHT THIS YEAR

Veterans Available for Most Positions, but Pitchers are Unknown Quantity.

The Bearcats will open the baseball season with a two game series against Oregon State college April 4 and 5, with probably the first game here. Tentative dates with the university of Oregon are April 11 and 12. The proposed game with the Portland Beaver-Ducks is still uncertain, though it may still be scheduled. If so, it will be played here the 21st of April.

If the pitching staff turns out as well as is promised, Willamette will have one of the best teams produced here in recent years. All the positions on the squad will be occupied by last years men, except for the box and such places as the rook players are able to win. Trachsel, Adams, Gibson, and Hank in the infield and Gill, Seales and Deitz in the outfield will all be playing again for the Bearcats. Cardinal will be behind the bat. Pitching candidates are Peterson, DePoe, Gamble, Wilson, and Grant. Those who will be trying to break into the field are Braly, a last years reserve, and Nutter, Moore, and Erickson, freshmen.

The fielding being about equal, attention will be centered on batting, the best hitter being preferred.

Entertain Hoopers — The Rotary club will entertain players and coaches of the basketball teams attending the state tournament here, at its luncheon next Wednesday noon.

Would Use Sea Water for Irrigation

Sea water, chemically treated, in sufficient quantity to solve southern California's irrigation problems is the ambitious vision of Thomas W. Hicks, Los Angeles agronomist. His process for neutralizing the offset of salt water upon plants is now ready for experiment on a large scale—ready for converting huge reservoirs of heretofore useless sea water into a nutritious, fertilizing fluid for plants. And this is done, he says, by the simple expedient of running high frequency current through the water and at the same time treating it with ultraviolet and cathode rays.
