The Class of 1969

Proudly Proclaims

The 58th ANNUAL

Freshman Glee

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

This twelfth night of March nineteen hundred and sixty-six

Salem, Oregon

Ye Dedication

In recognition of countless years of service to the students and faculty of Willamette University, we dedicate this 58th annual Freshman Glee to Dr. Robert D. Gregg, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

Introduction

The 127th graduating class of Willamette University welcomes you to the 58th annual Freshman Glee Competition. Glee has continually generated a sense of inner-class rivalry that has provided spirit, enthusiasm, and a challenge to the 58 graduating classes since its conception in 1908. As in the past, this year's theme FIGHT has left its mark in lack of sleep, frustrations, set-backs, and disappointments. Yet, the satisfaction of knowing that a job well done is exemplified in the four performances you witness this evening. One class will win, one will lose. Thus it is with any competitive event. The winners hope that you share excitement in their victory. The losers hope that you share in their sense of competitive zeal. However, win or lose, all emotions will be either enlarged or bearable if you find the evening of March 12, 1966 enjoyable.

Sincerely,

Jon Roberson

Freshman Glee Manager 1966

"The Victory Bell"

The vict'ry bell will ring for old Willamette;
Give them the one, two, three, for
We're the bearcats having strength and courage;
Fight them, blight them, even dynamite them.

Ring the bell again for old Willamette;
Give them the five, four, three, to
Push them back into the Old Mill Stream;
Surround them, drown them, pound them into the mud.

Yell: Spirits high, Bearcats fight!
Ring the victory bell tonight!

Chorus:
Take a trophy for our Alma Mater,
Hail Willamette U.
The bell will ring, we'll win, you'll see,
As we go fight for our victory.

"Fight On, Willamette"

Fight on, Willamette, as we soar to victory.
Proudly we stand to shout our warcry out to thee.
Willamette, heritage of old, we laud thy glorious
name on high.
Mighty Bearcats, light the torch and never let it die.

Gold is the flame burning deeply and bright,
Cardinal forever, the torch in the night,
Blazing before us courageous and true,
Our undying valor will burst forth anew.    So—

Fight on, Willamette, as we soar to victory.
Proudly we stand to shout our warcry out to thee.
Willamette, heritage of old, we laud thy glorious
name on high.
Might Bearcats, light the torch and never let it die.
Light the torch of victory and raise it to the sky.

"Victory Bell March"

There's a bell that rings of Victory
May her sound through the air ring true.
Spirit surging in our hearts,
Raising voices loud and strong, we'll sing our song of: (refrain)

The team listens for our praises
As they forge ahead with all their might.
Confidence in our success will win the game, so ring the bell, we're going on to: (refrain)

Chorus:

Vic - vic - vic - vic Victory
Fame for Willamette U.
Go! Fight! Score! Win! Willamette;
Our song of vic'try to the end !!

"Fight, Willamette, Fight"

Fight, Willamette, Fight.
We have a spirit strong tonight.
We're gonna win, there is no doubt.
And then, it's victory we'll shout,
Fight, Fight, Fight!

Fight, Willamette, Fight.
The bearcats cry with all their might.
"A vict'ry will come our way."
And we will shout hurray.

Bearcats are the best and we will back them
all the way.

On you Bearcats,
On you Bearcats,
On to win again.

You're the best team and our cry comes out again to you.

Come on you Bearcats,
Come on you Bearcats,
Come on to victory.

Fight, Willamette, Fight.
Our banner leads our spirit bright,
With colors gold and cardinal red,
It flies victorious overhead.

Fight, Willamette, Fight.
For now your courage you must show.
So onward to victory,
As we shout, "Go, Bearcats, Go!"
