VOL. XV.

SALEM, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, DEC. 2, 1903.

NO. 9

SHINING LIGHTS.

Golden beams of sunshine splendor,
Our lives should ever render.
Kindly deeds our pathway mark,
Like a light within the dark;
Ever friendly to the right,
And for truth ever fight.

Ever out upon the watch tower,
Awaiting for the goodly power.
Brightest rays point out the way,
Where the tyrants hold their sway.
Beacon lights our lives should be,
Out upon life's great sea.

Many are the sailors, sailing
Upon the waters swelling,
Mounting upward to the sky;
Then descending with a sigh.
Many dashed upon the rocks:
While grim death stands and knocks.

Wildly toss the heaving billows;
Around the death-like pillows,
Stalks the gleaming sword of death,
Toward the form where hails the breath:

Cutting through the angry tide,
Death soon stands by its side.

Wave your banner on the breezes,
Above the peaks and steeples.
Light thy lamp and let it shine
Through the storm, 'o'er the sands of time;"

Purity our motto be,
While we sail life's grand sea.

—1903.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL.

Much Interest Displayed In Coming Game.

Never in the history of girls' basket ball at Willamette has there been among the girls so much interest in basket ball shown by there being at least sixteen out for practice at every regular practice hour.

Practice, which has been had with more or less regularity twice a week, will now begin in earnest, three times a week, and no effort will be spared in preparing for the first O. A. C. game, which will be played in January. The milkmaids are no inferior antagonists, and our girls realize that good, hard practice will be necessary in order to beat them.

Interest at present is centered in the game with McMinnville college, to be played here next Friday night. Though the illness of the Captain, Gussie Randall, will probably prevent her from playing, and thereby weaken the team. Our girls will go into the game confident of winning. Last year we won over McMinnville with a score of 31 to 13 under "girls" rules. This year they insist that the game be played "boys" rules, a change that will better our chances.

Of our last year's team three of the best players are gone. Captain Koschmieder—center—through graduation; Nellie Parsons, who goes with her father to Alaska, and Mary Warfield, who is a sophomore at Eugene. But of the old team and "subs" there are still enough left to make a winning team, as a glance at the players will show.

Candidates for Forwards, Violet West, Ruby Coryell, Belle Crouse, Gertrude Gray, Jennie Coyle. For center, Laurella Homstrom. For Guards, Alice Shepard, Lottie Randall, Alma Hales, Grace McConnell, Lila Swafford.

The new girls are showing up well, and later in the season will stand a good chance of making the first team.

Among them are Emily Moyer, Marie Huntley, Bertha Hewitt, Ryth Gatch, Mary Solomon, Barbara Etkin, Lena Phillips, Elith Randall and Miss Balknap. Manager Averill and Assistant Manager Mabel Robertson are busy arranging a schedule of games, which is to include, if possible, besides McMinnville and Corvallis, Albany, Monmouth, Roseburg, Drain and Eugene.

GLEE CLUB.

At a regular meeting of the Glee Club officers were elected as follows: President, Winslow; Vice-President, Markell; Secretary, Judd; Manager, Van Winkle; Librarian, Chapler; Treasurer, Hornschuch.

The club anticipates a trip into Eastern Oregon in the spring, and we hope to be well prepared and able to advertise the university in a creditable manner.

Prof. Seeley says the club has good material, and there is no reason why it should not be the best we have ever had.

First quartette is made up of the following members: Van Winkle, first tenor; Chapler, second tenor; Markell, first bass; Hornschuch, second bass. Other members of the club are: First tenor, Wolf and Miller; Second tenors, Zimmerman, Martin and Judson; First basses, Winslow, Randall and Kautner; Second basses, Judd, Trill and White-man.

When you have your picture taken, you want a nice, neat job. The Cronise Photo Studio is better prepared than ever to do you just such a job at prices that will please you.

A swell new line of neckwear, etc., just in, at the G. W. Johnson & Co's store.

TIE SCORE.

Chemawa and Varsity Eleven Play to a Standstill.

On a fast field, before about 600 people, the Chemawa Indians struggled in vain to score over our sturdy eleven. The teams were pretty evenly matched as to strength, although our team was much weaker than it has been any time this season. Going into the game with a weak ankle, Capt. Pollard, the Gibraltar of the team, was forced to retire to the side line before the second half had fairly begun.

The game began with Willamette kicking off to Chemawa's ten-yard line. The ball was advanced ten yards, and then the Indians carried it down the field with a series of fierce rushes. Willamette braced on its 30-yard line, took the ball, and after half a dozen short gains was forced to punt. Chemawa took the ball, but lost it again on downs, and Willamette punted again.

These were the tactics of the first half, neither side being able to win, and the ball died in Willamette's possession in the center of the field. In the second half Chemawa kicked to Willamette after a few small gains. Captain Pollard went out, and Chemawa got the ball. Most of the playing was done in Willamette's territory, the Indians slowly working the ball toward the goal line.

Lucas was breaking through Willamette's line for a touchdown, when he fumbled on the one-yard line. Long got the ball and was pushed back over the line, making a touchback, which gave the ball to Willamette on her 25-yard line.

During the remaining few minutes the Indians were unable to gain, and failed in an attempted drop kick just as time was called.

CHAPEL RHETORICALS

The first of the chapel rhetorical have put in their appearance. On Tuesday Belle Crouse gave a speech, and Edgar Averill recited. The subject of Miss Crouse's speech was, "The Book Beautiful." "The Book Beautiful" is the book that means the most to each individual. It gives one higher ideals. One should, however, care more for people than for this book." Altogether it was a charming little production, and entirely original. Mr. Averill recited "Toussaint L' Overture," by Wendell Phillips, in a way that made everyone appreciate the great character of that hero.

On Thursday Julia Field recited "Das Madchen aus der Fremde," by Schiller. To use the words of the professor of elocution, "she recited it so well that one could almost understand it if he did not know the language." Ronald Glover gave a forcible speech on "The future of the American Negro." It was decidedly rhetorical in style, and the contrast between the negro's condition at the time of his capture, and at the end of the civil war was well drawn.

On Thursday of the second week of chapel rhetorical Ruth Field recited, "Crossing the Bar," by Tennyson. Her gestures were well chosen, and these with the excellent rendering brought out all the beauty of the little poem. Ray Chapler gave a speech on Aaron Burr. Mr. Chapler emphasized Burr's natural ability as a leader of men, his failure in life, and the reason for that failure as the result of selfish ambition. The speech was well delivered.

Tom Cronise, the "old standby" photographer, can still be found at the Elite studio, and would be glad to quote special prices on photos.

Fresh, pure, home-made candy, always on hand at the Spa; also a nice fresh line of bread, pies and cakes.

Members of the alumni, old students, new students, and all others interested in the prosperity and success of the paper and "Old Willamette" are invited to contribute. Address all communications to the Editor-in-Chief.

Entered at the postoffice at Salem as second class matter.

Patronize our advertisers. They not only patronize us and enable us to put out this paper but they are the most up-to-date business men in the city. If you want anything in the line of university supplies they can be had of them. One of them, Mr. Burkhardt, the obliging bookman, has just laid in a supply of University Calendars, which are very neat and which will make a good addition to the decorations of any typical college room.

Through the effort of Prof. Dawson we are this winter to have the privilege of attending one of the best lecture courses ever offered on the coast, and this, too, at a very small expense to us. We are glad that so many of the students were so quick to realize and take advantage of the opportunity offered them. If fifty more course tickets could be sold, the committee would be able to add still another number to the course without any additional cost to the purchasers of tickets. Anyone who desires to secure tickets and have not yet done so should see Prof. Dawson at once. If you are striving to secure an education, remember it is not all to be had from books, and do not neglect to get it from every available source.

The football season is over. Although our team did not win the coast championship, or even the state championship, yet they made a record of which we are justly proud. A winning football season, like many other things, is not made in a year. It comes only as the result of years of constant training. When we take into consideration the fact that only one member of the team ever played under a coach before, the fact that several members played their first game this year, and the fact that they met some of the best teams in the state, including the inter-collegiate champions, and yet finished the season with a total of 85 to 37 points in their favor, we feel like taking off our hats to the boys of the cardinal jerseys and to Coach Deitz. Nor yet do we wish to ascribe all the glory to the coach or to the members of the team. The scrub, the fellow who was willing to come out night after night, knowing that he could not make the team, yet willing to be knocked about by his more fortunate brothers, in order that the team would be benefited thereby, is as fully deserving of praise as any member on the first team.

Already plans are being made for next season. The captain and manager will soon be elected, and from present indications we feel confident in predicting that Willamette will have a "look in at the championship" next year.

Basket Ball.

First game of the season.

Pay your Student Body tax.

McMinnville Girls vs. Willamette Girls.

Fred Pobrman, a student of the O. A. C. was a chapel visitor Monday.

Miss Sayde Ford, of Eugene, spent Thanksgiving at the hall with her sister, Miss Ivy.

The College of Oratory is planning to give a recital just before the Xmas holidays.

Every member of the '03 class in Oratory attended chapel exercises Monday morning.

Miss Mildred Rizer, a former student, was a chapel visitor Tuesday.

The basket-ball girls have a surprise in store for you Friday night. Come out and see what it is.

The girls will open the basket ball season Friday night, by giving the Baptist maidens the game of their lives.

Rev. Dr Tufts, State Superintendent of the Anti-saloon League, made a short speech in chapel Monday morning.

Prof. Edna Parrish, of Dallas College, witnessed the Chemawa-Willamette game in this city Thanksgiving day.

The basket-ball has taken the place of football, and the gymnasium floor the place of the gridiron.

Prof McCall and Miss Erma Clarke spent Thanksgiving at the home of Miss May Spencer, in Tangent.

The local Y. M. C. A. is planning to send a large delegation to the Oregon-Idaho convention at Forest Grove.

The University Band will contribute to the evening's entertainment Friday evening at the game.

Everybody about the Hall wears a pleasant smile these days. A cook has been secured and the parlors have been furnished. A hall tree is needed by those who call, however.

The Misses Una and Hallie Baker, who have been teaching school in Tillamook county since June, have returned home, and will soon be registered as students of Willamette.

Remember the basket ball game between the McMinnville and Willamette girls Friday evening in the Varsity Gym. The game will be called at 7:30.

Sophomore and Freshmen boys are scheduled to play a game of basket ball on Saturday Dec. 12. Enthusiasm is waxing warm, and a hotly contested game is promised.

Among those who have recently subscribed for the COLLEGIAN is Prof. D. Ross White, a former student, who is at present principal of the Thornton, Wn., public schools.

Miss Gustena Randall, Capt. of the girls' basket ball team, is confined to her room on account of illness, and will not be able to play in Friday's game.

It is not often that a man has any trouble in finding an officer, but Mr. Rebhan found it to be a rather hard task last Monday evening. It is reported that he met two trains, and even went as far as Woodburn to meet one, but all in vain.

Societies.

PHILODORIAN.

The Philodorians met at the usual time last Friday evening, but on account of the evangelistic meeting held in the chapel, took a recess until 8:30, when they reassembled and rendered the following program:

Music, "Society and Visitors."
Character sketch, R. C. Glover.
Recitation J. G. Updike.
Current Events, Murray Shanks.

Discussion: Resolved, That the Union is older than the States.
Affirmative: Ray Andrews, E. K. Miller.

Negative: G. O. Oliver, R. R. Mathews.

Much more interest was manifested than usual in the argument, and the substance advanced by each side bespeaks a familiar acquaintance of the subject, which could have been acquired in no other manner than by careful reading and thought. The affirmative finally won out, but only after a very hotly contested struggle.

The society was well pleased, and felt themselves especially honored by the presence of many visitors, among whom were Prof. Mathews, Prof. Reynolds, and Pres. Grace McConnell, of the Philodorian, who all very pleasantly responded to the invitation of the Philodorian president with a few most entertaining and well-chosen remarks. The Philodorians say, "come again, professors, ladies and gentlemen; you will be welcomed at any time."

'T WAS THE HAND UPON THE WALL.

The seniors and juniors were invited to attend a social gathering which was composed chiefly of members of the medical faculty.

The occasion was for the purpose of investigating "The writing upon the wall," which had been construed as a rank insinuation upon two of the senior members. The case was dismissed upon the ground of there being no offense intended.

Dr. Byrd gave us a good lecture upon ethics, and advised us to "cut it out."

Umbrellas! Well, I guess any kind you want at G. W. Johnson & Co's dry goods store; also a full line of gents' rain coats, just in.

The Seattle school has not played the Tacoma institution, though she must admit they are in the same class, and that a date has been requested. Puget Sound is a small school, hitherto unheard of, yet from her material she has developed a marvelously fast eleven. What shall be said of her claim for championship if Washington refuses to play?

The Dalles Boys' Club won from Hill Military Academy 6 to 0.

Columbia University, of Portland, defeated Tacoma High School 10 to 0.

In a bitterly contested struggle W. A. C. gained 18 points over Whitman's 6.

The University of Washington by superior team work defeated Idaho 5 to 0.

Michigan is decisively defeating Chicago 28 to 0, claims the Western championship.

Albany showed herself too strong for Pacific on Thanksgiving, 17 to 0.

Stanford proved a puzzle to the previously undefeated Sherman Indians, winning easily, 18 to 0.

Multnomah, in her annual game with Oregon, proved complete superiority to the extent of 12 to 0.

Nevada's crippled team bowed to the Oregon farmers on Turkey Day, 15 to 0.

The University of Michigan expects to come to the coast in holidays, to meet California. A game with Multnomah is a probability.

The Carlisle Indians reach the slope late in December, for a game with an all-California team players from Stanford, Reliance and California.

Reliance plays Multnomah on New Year's Day.

A game with the Seattle A. C. is partly arranged for.

The University of Puget Sound has offered the Columbia University team, of New York, their expenses from Frisco to Tacoma, for a game on the Christmas holidays.

Multnomah's Gym. with the U. of Washington, on Dec 5, is important because it will give another needed comparison between the strength of the Seattle school and that of Berkeley and Stanford.

Did Nevada's defeat by U. of W. decide the Pacific slope championship, Puget Sound defeated the same sagebrush team by 10 to 0, U. of W. defeated Idaho 5 to 0, Puget Sound 11 to 0.

The editor of the College Ramometer is worrying over the fact that while Oregon has half as many people as Arkansas, she has twice as many lunatics—Ev.
