A WEEK OF GLORY FOR W. U.

CO-EDS WIN.

Defeat Roseburg High In a Close Game.

By a score of 4-3 the Willamette co-eds last Friday night defeated the young ladies from the Roseburg High School in as pretty a game of ladies basketball as was ever played in our gymnasium. The close score indicates the closeness of the game. From start to finish it was a clean, spirited contest. The game was not distinguished by particularly brilliant playing on either side or by any particular player, but by good consistent playing on the part of each member of each team. The only weak point of the game was the failure of either team to throw baskets from the foul line. Roseburg scoring one out of a possible six, and Willamette making four failures.

The two teams were very evenly matched in size and strength, and at no time during the game did any one forget that she was a lady playing with ladies. The best of feeling prevailed during the game, and a jolly time was afterward had at the reception given in honor of the visitors by Miss McDouald, of the Ladies Hall. Pit, Panic, Flinch, Consequences and music were the principal features of the entertainment, although the exchanging of colors, etc., formed no small part. The visitors departed for home on the morning overland Saturday, carrying with them the best wishes of all and the caps of a few.

Following is the line-up of the two teams:

Exams—An epidemic prevalent at the close of each term. The only positive cure is a compound of pony, bluff and crib taken in large doses at every opportunity.

Flunk—A little mark of esteem bestowed upon the pupil by the fond professor, the result being a reduction of monthly allowance and a strengthening of home ties.

VICTORY!

U. of O. Defeated by Men's Basketball Team.

Our men's basketball team played one of its most successful games of the season Friday night against the University of Oregon men at Eugene. The game was fast throughout, and intensely interesting, even if most of the points were made by the Willamettians.

The two teams presented a husky appearance as they faced each other in the first half. After a few seconds of swift play the ball was neatly tossed in the Willamette basket. From this on the superior team work of the visitors earned the coveted throw for the basket and the accuracy of the throws was something remarkable.

The clever guarding of Captain Matthews, the playing of "Big" Pollard, who was always in the game, and the neat work of Latourette, who scored 7 out of U. of O.'s 9 points were the features of the game.

The latter part of the game was a little rough, but this was on account of the swiftness of the game and not intentional. The best of feeling prevailed, and our men were pleased with the gentlemanly spirit manifested by their opponents.

A GENEROUS OFFER.

As a stimulus for original literary composition W. H. Burghardt, Jr., the popular bookstore man of Salem, has very generously proposed to give the Riverside Edition of Shakespeare's works to any student from the department of Liberal Arts who produces the best original thesis on some of literary history or criticism. The article must contain in the neighborhood of 3500 words and be strictly original.

This is a very liberal advance by Mr. Burghardt, and one that is greatly appreciated by the students, and undoubtedly will be immediately taken advantage of by several of them. It is a splendid opportunity to secure a handsome edition of the works of the greatest dramatist the world has ever known.

The prize is to be awarded at the close of the school year, and Mr. Burghardt says that if there is sufficient interest manifested at that time in the contest he will make the offer an annual event.

Went to see the football game
Thought that I could play the same,
So in haste I joined the eleven—
I am writing this from heaven.

ANOTHER VICTORY.

Dallas Goes Down Before the Stalwarts.

About 400 people gathered in the Willamette gymnasium last night and saw the crack team from Dallas college to go down to defeat before the Willamette basketball tossers to the tune of 20 to 9. The fact that the timekeepers had no whistle kept the score from being 20 to 6, Teats scooping the last basket for Dallas after time was up, but before the referee's attention could be called to it.

Notwithstanding the large score perhaps it was the fastest and most interesting game ever played in Salem. The first half ended with a score of 2 to 1, in favor of Willamette, and up to the middle of the last half, the two scores were crawling up neck and neck.

At one time the score board stood 7 to 6 in favor of Dallas. Soon after this, however, Judd opened up the fireworks for Willamette, scoring a neat goal from near the center of the field, and from that time on they came thick and fast. Even the guards came up and took their turn at it, Matthews scoring 2 and Whipple 1.

If there was any especial feature of the game it was the magnificent work of Willamette guards. Time and time again the ball would be worked down towards the Dallas goal by the excellent team work of the boys in red, only to be sent back like as if by a catapult, by the strong arm of Matthews or Whipple. The playing of Pollard and Polling, the rival centers, was also a feature of the game. Pollard had a little the best of it throughout and succeeded in bagging one goal and holding Polling down to none. Judd scored the most points of any single player, Teats of Dallas came second.

The Willamette men were much larger than their opponents. The Dallas men put up the best team work ever seen in Salem.

The Glee Club gave their first concert of the season at Halsey, Saturday, the 20th, to a full house and a very appreciative audience. Some said the seats should have been sold at a higher price, and others wished to know when we were coming again.

"The big fat man" on one end and the "little man" on the other made a very pleasing contrast.

Chapler and Zimmerman were as tired as ever, and Zercher's reading, soon "got the audience a going". Many of the maidens gave their opinion as to the best looker in the club.

In spite of the very bad weather the manager is pleased to announce that the receipts were equal to the expenses of the club.

We hope to know this week whether or not we can make our trips into Eastern Oregon and Idaho.

The club rendered its program before the faculty, last week and the members who were present gave a very glowing report, saying in school terms, that we got 100 per cent.

Prof. Tutthill said we far exceeded his expectations, and of course he expected a great deal.

The Mississippi state legislature has taken a stand against fraternities. The house committees on universities and colleges recently visited the University of Mississippi and in the course of their investigation made a strict search into fraternal affairs. The legislature professes to be severely shocked at some of the discoveries made. They declare especially that the Greek letter men "do not observe the proprieties" in their initiative functions, and that the form of oath used is very naive. A bill abolishing the fraternities will soon be introduced.—The Daily Student.

PHILODORIAN.

Last Saturday evening the Philodorians once more assembled in their accustomed haunt and delivered a very interesting program. Pres. Judd being absent, Ray Marquam acted in the capacity of chairman, and called in the society to order the following program was rendered:

Essay on Italian Literature, Roy Hewitt.

Lecture, Ideals in Society Work, E. J. Winaus.

Digest of the Russo-Japanese Problem, R. C. Glover.

Discussion.
Resolved, That the signs of the times indicate the downfall of the Philodorian Society.

Affirmative—Ray Marquam, Wm. Gardner.

Negative—Frank Grannis and Ralph Mathews.

The discussion was very spirited from start to finish, and many seeming arguments were produced by the affirmative, but finally the logic of the true condition of affairs prevailed and the decision was rendered in favor of the negative.

It being the first regular meeting of the society in the semester, the following members were

The officers are probably the most capable and efficient lot of men that have ever occupied the positions to which they have been elected, and now that the basketball season is almost over the prospect for a profitable term's work is very brilliant. Mr. Burgess Ford's name came before the society for election to membership, and all others who wish to enter will be warmly welcomed.

PHILODORIAN ELECTION.

Much interest was taken in the election of officers at last Friday's meeting. According to a long standing custom of the society, a senior was elected as president for the last term. Miss Julia Field being the only senior in the society has the honor of also being president. Mabel Robertson was elected vice president, June Patty, secretary, and Mabel Glover assistant secretary.
