Board of Trustees Moves to Hike Salaries, Tuition

Dr. Smith to Reveal New Cost To Students at Convocation

A million-dollar endowment increase campaign, a pay hike for faculty members, and an increase in tuition charges were made University policy in Portland Monday at the mid-year meeting of the Board of Trustees.

"We have a good faculty and we aim to maintain it," President Smith told The Collegian this week, in explaining the necessity for the endowment and tuition hike.

PRESIDENT SMITH went on to comment that following the million dollar building program, the faculty salary increases became number one in priority. The action of the Board this week gave official sanction to the program.

Amount of the tuition increase was left to be worked out by the administration with final approval to be given by the Board's finance committee.

Dr. Smith said this week that the tuition rise will probably be a two-step process, half of it going into effect next fall, the other half the following fall. He will appear before the student body in convocation Tuesday to explain "in dollars and cents" the amount of the tuition increase.

"WE HAVE NEVER asked that the students foot the entire bill for their education," Dr. Smith commented. "We don't presume to make them pay the full cost now, but realize the necessity of sharing the burden of faculty salary increases," he continued.

Plans for raising the money for the endowment increase were mapped out at the meeting in Portland. A start on the million-dollar goal has already been made with the $216,000 gift of the Ford Foundation.

THE BOARD plans to ask the Methodist church convention for $200,000. Another $600,000 is slated to be raised by gifts from alumni and friends of the University.

Choice Seats for 'House' Available at Box Office

Reserved seat tickets to the forthcoming production of "House of Bernarda Alba," to be presented in the Fine Arts auditorium next Friday and Saturday evening at 8:15, may be secured in the box office of the Fine Arts building next week. The box office will be open from 1 to 5 each afternoon and from 9 to 12 on Saturday morning.

Robert Putnam, drama director, reminded students that student body cards will not admit a person to the play.

Unusual in that it contains no men in the cast, the play concerns the events in a tradition-bound Spanish family upon the death of the head of the family, Antonio Maria Benevides.

Twenty women, who make up the cast, have been rehearsing the play from 7 until 10:30 each night for the past few weeks. The entire play will be given a preview-review in next week's paper.

Primaries See Larger Turnout Than Class Election Run-offs

Royal Keith, Jim Cain, Doug Houser, and Dean Benson will head the freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, respectively, for spring semester as a result of all campus elections.

With 520 students voting in the primary class elections, and 456 voting in the class run-offs, spring officers were elected. Forty-four per cent of the student body voted for Rally squad members and 120 women voted for AWS officers. The senior class and his slate of Dean Benson was elected to head officers includes vice president, Margie Knochenhauer; secretary, Jeanne Holmes; treasurer, Helen Allen; and sergeant-at-arms, June Harms and Gerry Kangas.

Doug Houser will head the junior class. Serving under him will be Paul Edwards, vice president; Barbara Anderson, secretary; Bill Neel, treasurer; and Dale DeHarpport, sergeant-at-arms. Formation leader for the junior class is Volney Sigmond. Barbara Anderson is song leader.

The sophomore class will be led by Jim Cain and his cabinet which consists of Lowell Nichols, vice president; Esther Gwilliam, secretary; Annette Carson, treasurer; and Skip Alexander, sergeant-at-arms.

Freshman have elected Royal Keith as their president. He will be assisted by George Nye, vice president; Sandi Harris, secretary; Gary Larson, treasurer; and Greg Nokes, sergeant-at-arms.

When tabulation of the final voting had been completed, Sharon Allen reigned as song queen with Skip Alexander as yell king. Also elected to the Rally Squad are Mac Baker, Bill Seawell, Mary Jo Smullin, Pat Renshaw, and Sandi Harris.

Associated Women's Students will be headed by Dollie Cummings. The slate of officers includes Marilyn Isaak, first vice president; Carole Pfaff, second vice president; Gayle York, secretary; Sally Jones, treasurer; Celeste Gibbons, freshman representative.

Smith Assures Dean Will Be Well Qualified

Numerous applications for the job of Dean of Students have been received in the President's office, Dr. Smith informed The Collegian this week. No decision has yet been made, however.

President Smith went on to assure The Collegian that the post will be filled by a candidate well-qualified in personnel administration. "You may be certain we will consider the techniques as well as the personal qualifications of the candidates," Dr. Smith said.

At present, Dr. Smith plans to leave for the East after the middle of March to interview the candidates.

Glee Publicity To Include TV

Radio, television and possible national magazine coverage have been secured for Freshman Glee, March 24, reports publicity chairman Pete Leveton. Stations KGW of Portland and KOCO of Salem will broadcast Glee, both live and taped, and KLOR-TV of Portland will present a 15-minute Glee preview-review five days before the event.

In addition, radio time on the program "Monitor" may be secured, and picture coverage in Life magazine is hoped for, with details to be worked out soon, Leveton added.

"Most of the details are being worked out," says Manager Del Cummings, adding that the committees are functioning efficiently: tickets, Royal Keith; lighting, Norm Dyer; backdrop, June Lytle; souvenir, Dean Bishoprick; entertainment, Harriet Hooper Reed; publicity, Leveton; programs, Nancy Lee; ushers, Nancy Russell; chairs and floor, Bob Gilchrist; decorations, Sybil Campbell; records, Dick Audley; stage crew, Walt Hubbard; assistant Glee manager, Jim Anderson.

Glee Words, Music Due

Words, music and formations for Freshman Glee are due in Dave Lewis's office on Monday, March 5, according to Del Cummings, Glee manager.

Each class must turn in six copies of their song and formation in order to qualify for participation in Glee. The copies should be in full detail.

Deadline is 4 p. m.

Picture Deadline

Picture deadlines for the Wallulah have been extended to Wednesday, February 29. Students may go down to Kennell-Ellis Studio between 9:30 and 5:30 any day next week Sally Jones, Wallulah editor, announced.

Miss Jones also reminded students of the 50 cent mailing fee that is payable in the Wallulah office.

Council Downs Student Use of Waller Office

The motion that would have moved The Collegian office to Chresto Cottage to make room for student use of the room now occupied in the basement of Waller Hall was substantially defeated in Student Council action Wednesday.

Brought onto the floor after having been tabled for one week, representatives from the various living organizations and the town students were asked to report the feelings of their groups.

Eight representatives reported to be in favor of the motion, with three voicing disapproval. Both The Collegian and the Independent Town Students joined in approving the plan.

After a short discussion in which it was pointed out that improvements to the proposed student room in the Waller basement would have to come out of the "student union fund" which has been contributed to for several years and should be considered "very carefully" before being undertaken, the motion was voted upon. The motion failed.

The major portion of the Council meeting was taken up with discussion and analysis of freshman rules and the Letterman's club. Both reports as introduced in Council last week were approved with the addition that sophomore class be extended the right to help enforce freshman rules and traditions.

Lengyel Due To Speak Here

"An unusual gift of expressing himself in a pleasing way even though speaking on difficult subjects," was the description of Dr. Emil Lengyel by Dr. Vojtech Andic, professor of economics.

Dr. Lengyel will speak in chapel Thursday and give a lecture at the YWCA on Friday at 8 p. m. Lengyel's topic will be the foreign policy of the United States.

According to Dr. Andic, Dr. Lengyel is one of the foremost experts on current events and keeps a very close daily contact with world affairs.

His speech delivery is said to be down to earth and very understandable even though dealing with concepts. Lengyel's two most famous books, according to Dr. Andic are "The Danube" and "The Middle East."

Why Not Here? Young Democrats

By JEAN MARTIN
Feature Editor

A good system, U. S. politics. It has two active parties. A Democratic party and a Republican party.

But a strange thing, WU politics. It has but one active party. A Young Republicans Club.

And the Young Democrats?

"Willamette is turning out Democrats who are poorly prepared for their political responsibilities." Quote Prof. A. Freeman Holmer of the political science department. And "the main reason is their limited chance to actively practice politics. The Young Republicans have this chance . . ."

But the Young Democrats?

Political propaganda, no. (re The Collegian staff: some Democrats, some Republicans.) A political, bipartisan suggestion, yes. Willamette should form a Young Democratic Club. The University has an active political science department . . . on campus are both Republicans and Democrats . . . but only one active party is known.

WHY A Young Democratic Club? Quote, Paul M. Butler, chairman, Democratic national committee: "It is our hope that Democratic Campus clubs will help strengthen our two-party system by contributing political experiences which will better fit college student to make more intelligent choices as to issues and to want to become more active in the political party, which, to the individual seems to represent best the principles in which he believes . . ."

To equalize politics on campus. To turn out both well prepared Republicans and Democrats. Help students make up their minds as to which party is for them. Assist the regular party organization. Sponsor speakers. Engage in debates with Young Republicans.

AGAIN, WILLAMETTE needs a YD organization. Oregon has one, so does Reed. And like YR, these groups are affiliated with the state group, which is tied in with a national concern. Of course it would take work: get students, faculty interested; elect officers; draft a constitution; discuss objectives. And there would be responsibilities. To the individuals: know what their party is and what it stands for. To the campus: inform others about their party. And to the Party: help the Party do its jobs more effectively.

Death of an Issue?

"The Chresto Cottage issue is dead!"

These were the words of ASWU President Dave Finlay in Student Council Wednesday following the resounding defeat of a motion to move The Collegian from its office in Waller hall to Chresto Cottage so that the present room occupied by The Collegian could be fixed up for a student meeting place and a locker room for town students.

The issue has had a long history. Particularly has its history this year been interesting. It began with a suggestion that Chresto Cottage be fixed up for better use as a student union. A committee, headed very ably by George Hoyt, was set up to study the feasibility of such a plan. This committee reported back that Chresto was unsuitable for the purposes of the student body and suggested that the student body either inquire into the use of the old art building or move The Collegian out of its office and employ this room for student union use.

Last week the Student Council heard from President Smith that use of the old art building would be temporary and economically unfeasible. A motion was made at that time by Hoyt to move The Collegian office to Chresto Cottage so that facilities could be developed in the basement of Waller. The motion was seconded, discussed, and tabled until this week's meeting.

When the motion was brought on the floor Wednesday a roll call report was taken. Eight representatives reported that their organizations favored the move, with only three reporting disfavor with the motion! The Collegian, too, reported that it favored the move. After a short and hurried discussion the vote was taken. Wonder of wonders, the motion was resoundingly defeated with not more than three "yes" votes recorded.

After several months of work and several hours of talk in Student Council the issue is now said to be "dead." Accomplished? No. Solved? No. Explained? No. Dead? Perhaps the present issue, but not the problem.

The Collegian had faith in the need expressed overwhelmingly in Council earlier this year. We had faith in the eight to three report favoring the move in Council Wednesday. We had faith in the Chresto Cottage report submitted to the Council.

With these facts in mind it is hard to conceive that the action of the Council Wednesday was representative of the student body.

European Jaunt, Memories Recalled by Transfer Coed

Memories of Portugal and Rome, of New York and Paris, these belong to Diane Rosen, transfer student here. Diane has toured Europe, and she attended the University of Miami and University of Washington before entering Willamette.

THE TRIP to Europe was the highlight of Diane's graduation from Ballard high school in Seattle. That summer, from May to September, 1954, she and her mother travelled through western Europe, starting in Portugal and ending up in Ireland. Diane feels that she "found something" overseas. The people live "in unbelievable conditions, they are poverty-stricken, yet they're happy. I can't explain it."

SHE HOPES that "anyone going to Europe will go as a student going to learn—not as a tourist going to look." Trying to compare our way of life with theirs is useless. Since Europeans see such a narrow cross-section of Americans, "everyone needs to be a diplomat."

She commented that Portugal, and Italy, were but two features of her trip. Lisbon (Portugal) is not "tourified"; the people live naturally in their original surroundings. The people of Rome also left a lasting impression on Diane. "They were a beaten people, but they were smiling and happy."

Diane knows some German and her mother speaks French fluently so they got along very well. However, once Diane was mistakenly taken to the Russian zone of Germany. In the end it turned out for the best when Diane wrote up the experience and won a travel story contest in the Paris Herald-Tribune.

ON A DIFFERENT level—she and her mother heard speakers in the Geneva peace talks which made Diane realize that "there can never be peace until people can integrate their economic and social differences."

In addition to her travels, Diane is a horse-lover and has ridden since she was six. A participant in shows all over the West Coast, she has won many ribbons including an international ribbon in jumping.

Diane is a pre-med student with plans for psychiatric work.

Students Doubt Ike Attempt

Minneapolis (ACP)—Ike won't run again. This is the collegiate answer to the top political question of the day. Republicans, generally, are hoping Ike will run for another term in office, while Democrats desire his retirement. The importance of this political question was increased, of course, by Ike's recent heart attack. To obtain the views of college students on this "question of the day," Associated Collegiate Press asked the following question of a representative cross-section of college students across the nation:

"In view of his recent heart attack, do you think President Eisenhower will run for a second term in 1956?"

The results:

	Men	Women	Total
Yes	26%	24%	26%
No	62%	64%	63%
Undecided	12%	12%	11%

MOST STUDENTS have clearly defined opinions on this question. A few are still undecided, like the "politically-oriented" sophomore at the University of Nebraska (Lincoln) who says, "It's still too early to tell."

Students believing Ike will try for a second term have a variety of reasons why he will do so. One point of view is echoed by a senior coed at the University of Nebraska who believes that "He'll run again unless the doctors say he can't or there are some new developments."

Tour Film to Be Shown

Movies on Hawaii will be shown for all students interested in a summer tour Wednesday, February 29, at 6:30 in Doney Hall.

Pan American Air Lines are showing the movies taken on the J. D. Howard tour last summer.

Collegian Editorial Praised in Abiqua

In the February 3 issue of The Abiqua, Mt. Angel Women's College newspaper, editorial commendation was given to The Collegian's editorial of January 13. The Collegian editorial attacked the deluge of anti-Catholic literature to which Willamette students were submitted over Christmas vacation.

The Abiqua answer praised The Collegian for its "awareness of journalistic principles" and saluted it for "the ethical standards your paper upholds."

Cat's Tail

SAYS DUANE

For the past week students have been panicking over every little ailment and irregularity befalling them. This diphtheria scare has caused students to go dashing to the infirmary with everything from bruised elbows to styes in the eyes for culture analysis.

I WAS SOMEWHAT alarmed myself when I passed in front of Baxter hall earlier this week and noticed a large curiously green pool of water. The depth of the color could well have rivaled Crater Lake! I guess it all goes to prove what Oregonians have been boasting for years: "It's the rain that keeps Oregon green."

Speaking of the medical profession I am reminded of the profound statement issued by the University physician, Dr. Ralph Purvine, who also served as physician for the late Governor Paul Patterson. Speaking of Patterson's death, Purvine told the press that the heart attack suffered by Patterson was similar to the one suffered by President Eisenhower—"only a little more severe."

Enough from the medical world. A MOST EMBARRASSING incident occurred to a Willamette sophomore earlier this year. The gentleman in question was in front of his living organization, football in hand, waiting for one of his fraternity brothers to come out and join him. After a long wait the student ran to what he thought was the window of his fraternity brother's room, opened it wide, and shouted at the top of his lungs, "Get the 9/11+ out here, I've been waiting for half an hour!"

A quick look at the surroundings of the room, and the student discovered that he had shouted into the wrong room. Instead he stood peering dumbfoundedly into the housemother's bedroom.

ONLY NOW can this be told. The poor fellow was so embarrassed that he missed meals for one week in order not to face the housemother.

Definition from the Omega, Georgia, News: The difference between a housemother and a game warden is that the game warden protects wildlife, and the housemother prevents it.

One student's curiosity got the better of him at the University of Illinois. An employee of the student union, he became fascinated by a new-fangled dishwasher recently installed . . . a conveyor belt affair that sends dishes through 24 feet of soaping and rinsing.

HE FIGURED, quite astutely, that if dishes could be washed in it, why not humans?

Since the water was turned off, he began a dry test run, climbing up and stretching out on one end of the conveyor belt.

He roared along the belt through the various compartments and as he sailed out the other end, he was "greeted" by a supervisor who happened to be passing by. Result of his curiosity—he's no longer an employee of the student union.

ALL THOSE STORIES about college athletes who can't spell their own names fall to pieces as a result of this story. It's about Kent State University and comes via the College Crossroads column in the Ohio State Lantern.

It seems Kent State has a varsity dormitory filled only with athletes, each of whom participates in a varsity sport and also holds down an outside job. That dorm ranked above both the all-fraternity and all-men's grade averages for the past quarter. And then there is the true story about the Texas coed who had to resort to a moving van to transfer her wardrobe from one college residence to another. It only cost her six dollars, too.

Gove, Mrs. Schnelker to Give Second of Faculty Recitals

Allen Gove and Katherine Schnelker will appear in a Beethoven sonata recital for cello and piano Wednesday evening at 8:15 in the Fine Arts auditorium, as part of the current faculty recital series.

Major works to be presented are "Sonata in G Minor, Op. 5, No. 2," "Seven Variations on a Theme from Mozart's Opera 'The Magic Flute'" and "Sonata in D Major, Op. 102, No. 2."

Gove studied a year and a half at San Jose State, then transferred to the University of Illinois where he received his Bachelor and Master's degrees in music. He was appointed graduate fellow in music at Illinois in 1952.

As a member of the United States Army Gove spent most of his enlistment in Europe. He was a member and first cellist of both the 7th Army Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Ensemble. Under the auspices of the State Department the orchestra played goodwill concerts in principal cities of Germany, Austria, France, Italy, England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Gove joined the Willamette music school faculty last September.

Mrs. Schnelker graduated from Overland Conservatory of Music where she also received her Bachelors and Masters degrees. She studied piano with Joseph Hungate and organ with Leo Holden. She is the wife of Josef Schnelker, professor of organ and theory at the music school.

Jory Releases Spring Figures

Final figures released by Registrar Harold B. Jory this week set the total spring semester enrollment at 1058. This figure represents a drop of only 66 from the total fall enrollment. It is a gain of approximately 138 students over last year's spring enrollment.

Complete totals show 340 freshmen, 217 sophomores, 191 juniors, and 151 seniors. There are nine graduate and 50 special students enrolled.

The men outnumber the women 679 to 379. In other words, there are 1.8 men for every woman on campus. These figures include, however, all law, graduate, and special students.

Enrollment in the various colleges of the University is as follows: College of Liberal Arts, 868 with 548 men and 320 women; College of Law, 102 with 99 men and 3 women; College of Music, 88, with 32 men and 56 women.

Dr. Bender Named To CR Team

Dr. Richard Bender is a member of the CR Week consultation team whose job enables him to give his primary attention to the strengthening of the religious life of Methodist-related colleges and universities. He has served as secretary of religion in higher education, Division of Educational Institutions of the Methodist Church since 1953.

Prior to joining the Board of Education staff, Dr. Bender was director of religious life and professor of philosophy at Baker University, Baldwin, Kansas. He is a member of the New England Southern Conference of the Methodist Church, and served pastorates in Indiana and Massachusetts before joining the Baker faculty.

Educated at Earlham College, and Harvard and Boston Universities, Dr. Bender holds the B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees. His published works include "A Philosophy of Life," a college textbook, and several articles in philosophical and religious journals.

The Christian educator served two years as Protestant chaplain in three hospitals at New Bedford, Massachusetts. He is also a member of the American Association of University Professors, the American Philosophical Association, and the Mount-Plains Philosophical Association.

Owens, Byler, Thompson Win Law School Officer Elections

Belden Owens, second year law student, was selected president of the College of Law student body in their election last Monday. Other officers, all of whom are first year law students, are Alex Byler, vice-president; Robert Thompson, secretary-treasurer, and Douglas White, student council representative of the law school.

They take the place of last semester's officers, who were Dick Lee, president; Dick Courtright, vice-president; Jack LaLonde, secretary-treasurer; and Tom Owens, student council representative.

The Legal Handbook, a publication containing many of the Oregon criminal court cases and including the judge's instructions to the jury in each case, written by the law student body, will be edited by George Juba, and Bill Gooding will be the publication's business manager.

Tom Redding was appointed Director of the College's Legal Research Department. This department makes use of the Law college's large library and the nearby Oregon State Supreme court library to find information requested by lawyers in the state of Oregon who can't find the information in their own private libraries.

The committee, which selected Redding, Juba, and Gooding, consisted of Professor Paulus, Dick Lee, Bill Carey, last year's Research Director, and Walter Stauffacher, last semester's handbook business manager.

The formal installation will take place at the Law school Monday.

Seven of Faculty Earn Promotions

Seven faculty members were promoted, Samuel Keeton was made University librarian for the remainder of the year, and James Fonseca was given a one-year leave of absence in action by the Board of Trustees Monday in Portland.

Dr. Thomas Bennett was promoted from associate to full professor of philosophy. Dr. Orcutt Frost, Arthur Gravatt, and Don Glecker were promoted from instructors to assistant professors in their departments. Professors Charles Jens, John Paulus, and Edwin Butler were promoted from associate to full professorship in the Law school.

Mr. Fonseca was granted a year's leave of absence to complete his doctorate requirements at UCLA.

Grad School Dean To Visit Campus

Dean William C. Bradford of Northwestern University's graduate school of commerce will be on the campus Thursday to counsel students as to possible graduate work in economics and business administration.

He will be available for conference with students majoring in those fields. Conferences will be held in room 230-W of the Fine Arts building at the following hours: 11 a. m. to 12 noon and 2 to 4 p. m.

Jasons to Play NWC Finale

The Willamette Bearcats take on a man size job when they tackle the Linfield Wildcats and the Pacific Badgers in the last two games of the season.

Friday night the Cats take on the Badgers in Salem and then move over to McMinnville to meet the Wildcats next Monday night. Pacific and Willamette already met in a single game Wednesday at Forest Grove.

Both Linfield and Pacific are in strong contention for first place, while the Jasons who haven't fared the basketball season in the Northwest Conference. Pacific who wasn't even figured as a strong title contender, has turned out to be one of the top offensive clubs in the league.

Meanwhile the Bearcats have been working hard on their ball handling and rebounding this week. These two factors were the big reasons why the Jasons lost to L-C last weekend, according to coach John Lewis.

Lewis will probably stick with the same lineup he used in the Pioneer games; with Reed and Vic Backlund going at the forward spots and Neil Causbie at the center post. Jerry McCallister and Don Hoy will round out the lineup at the guard spots.

John Lewis and the Willamette Bearcats will finish up their ninth season together, when the Bearcats take on the Linfield Wildcats in the last game of the basketball season.

Betas and Sigs Reach Final Contest of Mural Tournament

In the championships of the Intramural Basketball League the Beta's undefeated five face a once beaten Sigma Chi C team.

The Sigs entered the finals via a 40-39 thriller win over the Phi Delt A team. A last second basket by little Gordy Domogalla gave the Sigs the victory after the contest had gone into an overtime.

The same Beta team that meets the Sigs in the championships is the one that handed the Sigs their only loss in the double elimination tournament.

This single loss puts the Sigs in a hole. The Beta A's need only one victory to clinch the pennant. But, the Sigs will have to beat the Betas twice in order to cop the flag.

In the first round of tournament play the Phi Delt A team trounced the Beta C's 48-22. The Betas found the sharp shooting Phi Delt too hot to handle and quickly fell behind in the tourney opener.

The Sigma Chis also found an easy time of it as their C team got even for the Betas by dumping the Phis 37-21 in the second game of the tournament.

The second night of play opened with the undefeated Beta A team dumping the previously undefeated Sig B team 31-21 in a hard fought contest. The Betas won the game with their proficiency from the foul line. The final game of the evening saw the undefeated Sig C team sink a last second basket to defeat the Phi A team 32-30.

In the third round of action two teams dropped out of the tournament. The Phi Delt A team put up a good defense to stop the Sigs B's 22-12 and drop them from tourney play. The second game of the evening was another close one as the Phi B team dropped the Betas C team out of play with a 34-33 count.

RO Committee Cadet of Month

To build and improve the morale of the basic cadets now taking part in the Willamette ROTC courses, a committee of advanced cadets will choose an outstanding basic cadet each month for the rest of the year.

The cadet-of-the-month will be selected on the basis of his performance on the drill field, his grades in Leadership Laboratory and in Air Science Courses, his personal appearance, military courtesy, participation, and the recommendation of his classroom instructor.

The prizes are still in the tentative stages, but the cadet will positively receive a distinctive ribbon and a letter of commendation from the Professor of Air Science. If present plans are successful, the cadet will also be given a ride in a T-33 jet training plane or a two-hour flight in a C-45 cargo plane. The committee is also asking Salem merchants to contribute some of their merchandise in exchange for the publicity they will receive for their contribution.

Cats Bounced by Lewis & Clark As Reed Hits Hemp for 31

Willamette's Bearcats are going places in the Northwest Conference standings, but it's not always up. They were dumped from fourth place to fifth in Northwest Conference standings by the Lewis and Clark Pioneers last weekend by scores of 80-73 and 70-64.

The local Jasons had moved from the cellar position to fourth place prior to the home series with the Pioneers. But, with last minute drive and sudden found scoring accuracy, the Portlanders stopped the Bearcat hopes of moving further up the ladder.

Both games were similar to the last encounter between the two NWC squads. The Pioneers used an effective weave to stall out the last few minutes of the Saturday night contest.

The Pioneers opened with a 6-1 lead but the Bearcats erased this to go ahead 7-6 with seven minutes gone in the first half. Then Lewis and Clark came back to jump into a 10-point lead at 20-10 and again at 30-20. They increased this lead to hold a 38-21 halftime advantage.

Both squads exchanged baskets to open the second period of play with the score standing at 56-41 at the six minute mark. The Bearcats cut the difference to 59-49 and with five minutes remaining it 70-66. It was then that the Pioneers went into their stall and on to win the game 80-73.

Saturday's scoring honors went to Pete Reed who hit for a total of

31 points, followed by Vic Backlund with 15. Joe Boutin of the Pioneers had 19, Loren Michelsen

In Friday night's action, the game got off to a fast pace as both the Bearcats and Pioneers hit on their first three shots, and after four and one-half minutes of play the score was tied 10-10. The Willamette's then took a six-point lead as both Pete Reed and Neil Causbie hit on a fair of field goals, plus a couple of gift shots by Don Hoy. This gave them a 16-10 lead.

The Pioneers then caught on and tied up the game again at 20-all and went on to a 34-33 halftime lead.

As the second period started, the Lewis and Clark five increased their lead to a 42-35 advantage on a pair of field goals by Hal Adrian and goals by Cliff Shelton and Larry Ward.

The Bearcats came right back with Reed and Ron Fitzgerald leading the way and tie up the game at 43-all. The game was tied seven more times from this point until the remaining minutes when the Pioneers took the lead and stayed there until the game ended.

Attention all baseballers! Candidates for varsity baseball are requested by coach John Lewis to meet upstairs in the gym Thursday, March 1, at 4:00.

Bearkittens Split Twin Bill

The Willamette Bearkittens split a double bill with the Lewis and Clark frosh Friday and Saturday night. Willamette won the first game 65-51 and dropped the second contest 71-64.

In Friday night's game, played on the Willamette floor, the Bearkittens jumped into an early lead and held a 15-point spread throughout most of the contest. Big guns for the frosh were Lorry Clark with 18, Connie Moore who nabbed 14 and Rex Domaschofsky with 12.

Saturday night the two clubs followed the varsity up to Portland and here the L-C frosh found the scoring range as they ran up point after point in a close game.

Dollie Cummings Heads AWS

Dollie Cummings is the newly elected president of AWS, the women's organization now in its sixth year on campus. From a small group established through the efforts of Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary, AWS has grown to include projects of yearly occurrence including the dance, scholarship, and co-ed of the month.

The AWS scholarship is presented in awards assembly to a girl who is selected by the AWS executive council and approved by the University scholarship board. Money-making projects such as the auction, "mum" sale for Homecoming and membership dues raise the funds for this scholarship.

THE CO-ED of the month honors a woman student monthly for her outstanding contribution to campus affairs. A gold cup is awarded to this woman in convocation.

Joe College and Betty Co-ed are elected at an AWS dance which will be held March 10, this year. All women's organizations that are coordinated by AWS function as separate committees for the dance. Clarification and revision of women's rules and a more coordinated friendship between women's groups are also done by AWS.

THE ORGANIZATION is active nationally as well as on campus. Delegates are sent from the cabinet to regional and state conferences. The national meeting was held at the University of Kansas last April.

Carole Pfaff will attend this year's regional meeting of AWS from April 12-15 at Colorado Agricultural and Mechanical college in Fort Collins, Colorado. Dean Ewalt will accompany her.

Beta Theta Pi became the first of the fraternities to hold initiation ceremonies this spring when 19 new members were added last Sunday. The new members are Bob Cotner, Dick Farrell, Bob Gilchrist, Dick Hazlett, Carlyle Johnson, Royal Keith, Gary Larson, Clyde MacIver, Conrad Moore, Tom Moore, Ted Neff, Dave Peterson, Jim Sitzman, Joe Stewart, Fred Wade, Don Williams, Larry Willingham, Jim Persson, and Dave Landis.

Barbara Goodier succeeds Jean Snow as president of Doney Hall. Other officers are Margaret Magone, vice-president; Jane Brader, secretary; Judy Ingram, treasurer; Shirley Witters, Inter-Faith Council representative; Dena Lampropoulos, Student Council social chairman; and Frieda Kirk, representative; Muriel Miettunen, historian.

Myra Friesen was elected president of Lausanne Hall and Barbara Roach will assist her as vice-president. Kay Sanford will serve as secretary; Sondra Roark, treasurer; Joan Sherrill, Activities Board representative; Linda Berry, social chairman; Marge Stout, Student Council representative; and Dorothy Rohlfing, Inter-Faith Council representative.

It's kind of interesting to note that three of Willamette's four new Rally squad members are distantly related. Sharon Allen, Mary Jo Smullin, and Pat Renshaw are all cousins!

Seven Chi Omega pledges received bids to membership at Monday house meeting and will be initiated later this week. They are Priscilla Fax, Jeannette Delano, Judy Ingram, Joan Roberts, Nancy Fisher, Gail Ostrum, and Ivone Shdo.

Chi Omega will hold its awards banquet in honor of the new initiates Sunday, at the China City restaurant. The banquet will also be a payoff for the scholarship contest won by the sophomore class. Early in the semester the sophomores challenged the other classes to compete for the highest GPA average. Final grades revealed the sophomores the winners, and they will be treated to the China City banquet.

Alpha Chi Omega has announced its new pledge class officers. Margaret Morton will wield the gavel, Sybil Campbell is vice-president, Pat Renshaw is secretary; Mary Lou Hastings, treasurer; Gail Boden, song leader; and Louisa Bookwalter, Student Council representative.

Sixteen Pledged to Four Sororities

Sixteen women were added to the rosters of Willamette's four sororities at the close of rush week last Saturday.

Mary Lou Hastings, Margaret Cooper, Sybil Campbell, and Ruth Mainwaring, all of Salem; and Arlene Pohl and Margaret Morton of Portland were formally pledged to Alpha Chi Omega Sunday morning.

PLEGGED TO Chi Omega Sunday morning were Joan Thronson of Dayton, Wash., and Ivonete Shdo of Seattle. After the pledging ceremonies the Chi Omegas attended St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Six women were pledged to Delta Gamma Monday night after which they attended their first meeting. Jane Brader of Chemult, Melinda Hillman of Menlo Park, Calif., Karma Miller of Milton-Freewater, and Laura Butchart, Jody Mills, and Joan Sherrill, all of Portland, are Delta Gamma's new pledges.

Ceremonies held Wednesday afternoon marked the formal pledging of Joanne Lindstrom and Angela Cesario to Pi Beta Phi.

The Road

Or what paved the way for sixty-one million cars?

WHEN you drive anywhere in America today it isn't an adventure.

You no longer jolt down unmarked and uncharted roads in uncertain cars. Roads that are bottomless mudholes or rock-ribbed ruts.

But your father did. For a mere forty years ago there were hardly 4,000 miles of paved roads in this country, and not quite 2,500,000 automobiles to go anywhere on them.

What changed the picture so quickly to 300,000 miles of smooth highways and over 61,000,000 vehicles? For one thing, the simple need for American business to make a profit.

Example: the automobile manufacturers. Trying to sell more cars and make a profit, they made constantly better cars. The better the cars became, the more people bought them. The more people bought cars, the greater the need for safe roads. And we built them.

Example: the oil companies. We had to make a profit, too. So after we refined the gasoline we scraped the bottom of the barrel of crude oil and made asphalt. At first it was a primitive black-top that was poured right on the road. But to sell it in competition with costlier materials, we kept improving it.

Result: today heavy-duty asphalt covers eight out of every ten miles of American roads. Today, too, our expanding economy calls for a third more miles of new and wider highways.

Your taxes will pay for these new roads, so we hope they're built of asphalt. It does everything any costlier material does. It can save you as much as $78,848 per mile. It's proved itself in paving the way for sixty-one million cars.
