"Stabat Mater" Selected For Year's Operatic Production

Coast Broadcast Planned As Marshall Directs 100 Singers

Willamette university will present the Philharmonic Choir in Rossini's "Stabat Mater" at a special vesper service at the Salem First Methodist Church next Sunday evening from 7:00 until 8:00.

Radio station KOIN will broadcast the entire program. Art Kirkham, popular announcer who handled the two fresh glee broadcasts, will be at the microphone. The first half of the program will be heard only by KOIN listeners, but between 7:30 and 8:00 12 stations of the Columbia Coast hook-up will release the broadcast.

Campus Soloists

Approximately 100 voices make up the Philharmonic Choir. Soloists for the oratorio have been chosen entirely from the voice department of the Willamette school of music.

The soloists include Willard Hallman, baritone; Kathryn Smullin, soprano; Evelyn Harding, mezzo soprano; Earl Potter, tenor; Helen Woodfin, contralto; and Ray Drakely, bass.

Cameron Marshall, head of the school of music, will direct with Prof. T. S. Roberts at the organ and Mary Virginia Nohlgren at the piano.

Famous Work

"Stabat Mater" was written sometime near the end of the 13th century. It has been set to music by many composers who have since grown famous. Among these are Palestrina, Haydn, Dvorak, and Rossini.

Rossini's setting of the "Stabat Mater" has since achieved more fame than any of the rest. Nearly every number of the operatic work is well known.

Some of the best known titles to be found in this score are the aria, "Cujus Animam," arranged for the chorus, "Inflamatus," featuring the soprano oboist, and the bass aria, "Pro Peccatis."

The work is concluded by the elaborate, "Amen."

Twenty N. W. History Students Make Trip To Champoege Mission Site

Twenty Northwest History students in company with Dr. Gatke paid a visit to several spots of historical interest Thursday, May 6, in their annual field trip. The final destination of the group was Champoege, Ore., the site of the adoption of the Provisional government of the state of Oregon.

Before leaving Salem the group visited a home in Salem which enjoys the distinction of being one of the two buildings still standing which were built by the missionaries. The other building is a farm house outside Salem built in 1840, which they also visited.

Dr. Gates' class visited the old mission site one-half mile above Wheatland Ferry, a park which is now held in trust by the Willamette trustees. Jason Lee's mission was founded upon the plot in 1834.

Journeying on to St. Paul, Ore., the class visited the Catholic church there, which Dr. Gatke reports is the oldest church structure standing in Oregon.

Arriving at Champoege, the group enjoyed a picnic lunch and social afternoon.

Gatke Holds High Ideals Necessary

"Nothing is so perfect as high ideals mixed with politics," emphasized Dr. Robert Moulton Gatke, head of the Willamette political science department, in an informal talk given to members of the Y. M. C. A. at a meeting held recently in Chresto cottage.

To show the changeableness of public opinion Dr. Gatke brought out the example of the passing of the prohibition amendment and its subsequent repeal. He further stated that political contests at various times have had an economic basis to them.

In commenting on the growing power of the labor unions, Dr. Gatke stated that he would like to see political control handled both by labor and employers, not by labor only.

After eight years of democratic rule a regrouping of political parties was forecast by Dr. Gatke for the next election. He further discussed the present democratic party by condensing the administration methods of the spoils system in the state and in the federal government. "The democrats have been out of power in the government for so long that they are now making up for past years by acquiring a large number of offices for party followers from the present administration," Dr. Gatke concluded.

Increase of "Filching" on Campus Convinces Scribe and Committee That It Is Work of Kleptomaniac

Lost, strayed or... No! Surely not that horrible word! No one steals anything on the campus, but what can all those notices be doing on bulletin board in Eaton Hall?

Let's call it "filching." "Filching" is, comparatively speaking, a recently-coined word, and it doesn't connote such a tone of culpability.

Well, filching, stealing, borrowing, hooking, swiping, lifting—whatever it is in your language—is now definitely out! The Honor Code Committee at their last meeting decided there shall be something done about it. Books, fountain pens, notebooks, pencils, coats, hats, almost anything you can mention—all have been the subject of entreaties by fond owners for the return of goods by means of bulletin board announcements in Eaton.

Old timers around and about the campus report that they remember the "Good Old Days" when one could leave books, hats, coats—even purses with ten-dollar bills in them lying around the campus or in the halls without experiencing the slightest symptoms

Public Admin. Alteration To Change Status

New Branch Department To Be Full Unit Next Year

Only Superior Student To Be Wanted For New Work Report

Word was received today from Professor Wm. C. Jones that the new Public Administration course designed to aid those who anticipate public service careers in American government will for the year 1937-38 be raised to the status of a full department.

The heretofore elective courses, lower division: Comparative Government and Fundamentals of Law and the upper division: Government Accounting, Political Parties, History of Economic Thought and History of Political Thought have been changed to required courses, thereby changing the department branch to a full department.

Professor Jones reports that unusually fine cooperation has been possible in Willamette among the Political Science, Law and Economics departments, thereby bringing about an unusually well integrated and synthesized program of study in the three branches.

Hereafter any student majoring in Public Administration must complete all lower division subjects with a grade of B by the beginning of the Junior year. The student majoring in Public Administration will be subjected to close scrutiny at the beginning of his Junior year to determine his fitness for continuing in the department. Only the superior student is to continue in the course, reports Professor Jones.

Sequence of courses is such now that in the senior year, work will be entirely straight courses in Public Administration and Law.

W. U. Graduate Talks to Y. M. C. A. Group Here

James Reddy, graduate of the Willamette class of '28, and president of the campus Y.M.C.A., while in school here, gave an informal talk before members of the Y.M.C.A. at a meeting Monday, April 19, in Chresto.

Mr. Reddy is now active in Federal Survey work in Portland. After graduating from Willamette Reddy went to Yale University in New Haven, Conn., where he took post graduate work and held a part-time job with the Y.M.C.A. there. From Yale he went to London, England, where he studied economics, returning to the United States later.

His experiences at the Seabeck conference, held each year near Seattle for students from all of the northwest colleges, Mr. Reddy described as very interesting and educational. He closed the discussion with comments on student problems both in and out of college.

John Voss, student president of the Willamette Y.M.C.A., opened the meeting with a talk on recent current events of importance.

Those elected at the last meeting were Lucella Chapin, president; Edwin Minneman, vice-president; Loye Bogardus, secretary, and Howard Teeple, treasurer.

Plans were formulated for appointment of a committee to revise the organization's constitution. These changes will be drawn up ready to be voted upon the first meetings next fall.

Law School Starts Advisor Plan Under Lockenour

An Advisor plan is being initiated in the law school by Dean Roy M. Lockenour. Under this plan each member of the senior class is assigned at the beginning of each semester to a practicing attorney as advisor. A committee of the local bar selects lawyers who are eligible as advisors. The advisor is asked to outline such a program as he himself would wish to follow, were he now preparing for the legal profession.

The student must spend not less than twenty-five hours each semester with his advisor, and a report by both the student and the advisor is made at the end of the semester. Under this plan the student receives practical training in briefing, in preparation and criticism of pleadings, in serving and filing legal papers, in handling minor cases in justice court, in searching courthouse records, in law office management, and in innumerable other things that can only be learned in a law office. At the same time he is making valuable contacts with members of the legal profession.

Helen Purvine received a fellowship at Mills College, Margaret Doege had a choice between a scholarship at Wisconsin or a scholarship at Northwestern, and decided on the latter.

Dwight Aden received a scholarship to Northwestern and Pat Crossland also received one.

Several more students of the senior class have made application for scholarships and fellowships and word of more acceptances is expected soon.

The fellowship received by Purvine is a full teaching fellowship. The other scholarships range from full to ones equal in value to approximately $300.

U. of O. Man Talks At Co-op Meeting Of Chresto Group

Charles Paddock, president of the University of Oregon Men's Co-op House, and Betty Ann Miller, representing the Oregon Women's Co-op, spoke to a group of Willamette men interested in co-ops at a meeting held in Chresto recently. This discussion was the first of a series of meetings to be held each Thursday night for the discussion of the proposed Willamette men's co-op house.

Paddock and Miss Miller also spoke on co-ops to the assembled student body of Willamette in chapel.

Dean of Women Olive Dahl, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ellis, Gene Hill and Ted Ludden traveled to Eugene Friday afternoon, April 16, to visit the Oregon co-op houses to obtain information to be used in the local co-op.

The group had dinner with the co-op students and reported that they were well pleased with evident progress made by the two co-operatives.

With a meeting of the Willamette men interested in co-ops at Chresto last Sunday afternoon the co-op movement on this campus was formally launched. The men who indicated that they would live in the co-op next fall elected Gene Hill as their manager. It will be Hill's task to work through the summer with the men who will live in the house in the fall and to see that plans will be in readiness so that the co-op will get off to a smooth start.

Special Rush Session of Trustees Results In Purchase of Old Indian Relics For Oregon-History Study

Rapidly approaching the desired goal of making Willamette University a special rush-session May Day week-end agreed to purchase a well preserved collection of Oregon Indian artifacts for the University museum. The negotiations for the collection were completed the following Tuesday.

Major McCleary of the United States army, now residing in Portland, was the owner of relics and had announced his intentions to sell.

C. J. Hollingworth and E. E. Averill, both members of the board of trustees, notified President Baxter of the outstanding collection. Believing that the offer would remain open for some time and that the price of the collection could not be met, the trustees allowed the matter to rest until a future time.

Two outstanding friends of Willamette, whose names were not revealed, looked at the collection, and one of them agreed to contribute some money towards bringing such a collection to Willamette.

Saturday noon word was received that another purchaser had been found and that unless Willamette purchased the artifacts before Tuesday, they would be sold to the other bidder.

Immediately upon being notified of this fact, a meeting of the executive committee was called and the purchase price was agreed upon. Dr. Laughlin and Professor Clark were placed in charge of the collection. Tuesday, Professor Clark drove to Portland and brought back as many of the artifacts as his car would carry. Thursday several cars brought the rest of the collection to Salem. Altogether the antiques weigh over a ton.

"The collection is not merely a number of pick-ups but consists of wonderfully preserved articles of

Dr. White Leaving For Study Abroad

Geneva to Be Destination of W. U. History Head In August

Accompanied by his wife and two children, Barbara and Gregory, Dr. Lyman C. White, head of Willamette history department, is leaving for Europe early in August, it was learned today.

The family expect to make their headquarters at Geneva, Switzerland, where Dr. White will enter the institute of International studies for additional graduate work in International organization.

"I am planning to make an extensive study of private International organizations, especially their influence on International legislation," Dr. White said.

Dr. White is not planning to return to Willamette. He expects to make Europe his home for at least the next two years.

Annual Field Trip By Biology Group

Professor M. E. Peck took the plant biology class on an extended field trip along the coast last Friday and Saturday.

Upon arriving at Yachata about 5 o'clock the group was greeted by a driving rain storm, which prevented the planned work of that afternoon. A big dinner and a good sleep put the four boys and Professor Peck in topnotch condition for the hiking on Saturday. The day was spent in observing and collecting plants, with the exception of a side-trip to see the whale on the Florence beach.

Professor Peck has made an intensive study of the plants along the Oregon coast during vacation months, since 1914. On this trip Dr. Peck found the desired plants easily and kept the students busy taking notes.

Those who made the trip were: Jerry Sherman, Russell Tompkins, Joe Rothrock and Lando Hiebert.

Editor Speaks Before Wesleyans On Religion

C. A. Sprague, editor of The Oregon Statesman, spoke Monday noon, May 31, before the Willamette Wesleyans on "Religious Needs." In discussing the two forms in which religious feeling manifests itself, Mr. Sprague contrasted St. Francis of Assisi, the mystic, and Savonarola, the social reformer. In stressing the ethical, active side of religion, youth of today finds the appeal greater than in the more contemplative aspect, said Mr. Sprague.

The speaker said that what he wished to stress in speaking to college students is that all of religion is not reform, that the inspirational side of religion is what the world is seeking.

Under the direction of Janet Powell, arrangements are being made for the Wesleyan picnic to be held May 15 at Silver Creek Falls.

May Day One-Act Play Witnessed By Sizeable Audience

According to word of Mrs. Oppen, dramatic director, the Little Chinese play presented in Chapel on May Week-end after the coronation ceremony was a very colorful and delicately portrayed production.

Mrs. Oppen reports that a great deal of the success of the play was due to the fine work of Josie Acklin who produced and directed the play.

The cast included June Armstrong, Howard Teeple, Baine Carter, and Morrill Crary. Margaret Mackenzie had charge of the properties, and Betty Lane designed the set. Melba Ripelle was assistant director.

The play this year was the third May Day one-act play to be offered on the campus, and it is reported that attendance warrants continued support of them.

Wallulah Out First Week In June, Reports Editor

Editor Guy Helmsoth of the Willamette Wallulah announced early this week that his yearbook is to be off the press during the first week in June.

Helmsoth promises a book of unusually artistic makeup and reports that this year's book will depart radically in design and theme from that of previous years.

Receives Position

Word was received here this week that Kay Smullin has signed a contract to teach in the Mill City high school next year.

Smullin is now teaching at the State School for the Blind and has placed several of her students high in recent music contests.

Budget Fight Set For Next Week's Chapel

Band and Social Fund To Enjoy Sizeable Increase

Cut From Wallulah to Call Forth Protests From That Group

With the ever-recurrent problem of budget re-apportionment up for consideration, next week's student-body meeting promises some fireworks and a few bombshells for unwary victims whose pet funds are to be slashed.

Following the suggestion of the platform of Talbot Bennett when he promised increased social programs, the re-appropriation committee recommends a change from four to four and a half per cent. This, according to word of Lestle Sparks would change the fund from $516 to approximately $580.

The intention of the social chairman is to arrange then for four student-body dances to take the place of a lighter social program which the student-body tried out this year, according to the report.

Band Money

The Willamette band which has given such excellent programs, one of which is scheduled for May 21st, is at last to get its slice. The budget committee recommends a fund of three per cent, an increase of one and one half per cent for the band.

Champions of the cause of the band pointed out the fact to the committee that they started the year with only two instruments and now have a sousaphone, Tympani and Bell Lyre but have only a small library of music.

Fund Sources

As usual, each organization feels that it cannot be cut. This year the necessary two per cent is to be cut from the Wallulah. Graduate Manager Lestle Sparks points out the fact that with the increase in student body the "kitty" has been raised from $9500 to $13,000.

The Wallulah received last year a sum of $2916, 26 2/3%, and this year $2838 or 22%. The decrease to 20 per cent this year will lower the sum $260. Sparks points out the fact that percentage decrease is not so noticeable in terms of money because of increased size of the student body.

TO BE SEEN ON THE SCREEN

GRAND

It's swlegant! The show-off of shows! The hotcha-topa of them all! "Wake up and Live," now playing at the Grand with Walter Winchell, Ben Bernie, Alice Faye, Patsy Kelly, Ned Spark, Jack Haley and others. Alice Faye dances and sings lovelier and more effective than ever before, and Winchell and Bernie with their riotous conduct form the backbone of the picture which tells the story of a small-time vaudeville performer, Jack Haley, who muffs his big radio opportunity by contracting "mike fright," and quite by accident and without his knowledge becomes the sensation of the radio. In the end.

STATE

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. London, New York and the whole world acclaimed "Lloyds of London." It's the sensation of the year, starring Tyrone Power. England's most recent contribution to Hollywood, Madeline Carroll and Freddie Bartholomew. A friendship that lasts through death and a love that overcomes all obstacles; sea fighting in the days of Lord Admiral Nelson, the insurance business in its earliest stage, all go to make it the outstanding picture of the year.

HOLLYWOOD

"Three Smart Girls," they're coming to the Hollywood Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, but Deanna Durbin will walk right into your heart and you'll forget the other two when you hear her golden voice and see her on the screen in this her first picture. You've heard her but this is your opportunity to see her and love her anew.

Murmurs of the Old Millstream

We thought for sure spring was here to stay the day the quest received her crown. Guess we were wrong. It looked like it Monday anyway.

Anyone who hasn't played softball under the new "mud conditions" has surely missed a treat. Nobody kicks when the ball gets soaked from rolling into mud puddles. Sprawling in the mud at first comes to be taken as a matter of course. Too, what really delays the game is a long fly to left field. If the left fielder isn't equipped with snow-shoes he usually gets so thoroughly bogged down in the mud that it takes members of both teams to dig him out.

These Monday evening potlucks of Lillian Graham's aren't so bad at all, at all. You ought to go sometime—that is, if you can wangle yourself an invite.

To all of you who like a clean shave, and all of you who like people who like clean shaves (of you don't get the significance of that last phrase refer to the ultimatum recently issued by residents of Lausanne Hall)—all ye thus designated, come away with me. I propose a crusade against the latest modern social evil, the electric razor.

One struggle with this new fangled contraption and all you can say is "Hurray for Gillette!"

We hear that Kappa formal was nothing to be sneezed at—unless you wanted to mess up a borrowed shirt front. Not content with a mere dance some of the brethren took their dates to a preview and thence to the Quille to refuel. "Get the Kappa habit," say the coeds.

The Songmen are still hitting it up. They sang before a capacity audience last Sunday in Portland at the Centenary Wilbur Methodist church. This is reported to be their thirty something-or-other concert for the year.

Our praises go to Orville Whitman for the good job he did on a brand new type of publication at Willamette, the Willamette Bulletin. Football is not the only way we're going big time around this campus.—V. P.

Will Contest Scheduled For Law School By Ladd & Bush Trust Company

"The Ladd & Bush Trust company is offering annual prizes of $20 and $10 for the first and second best will drawn by members of the junior or senior classes of the law school. These wills shall be based on a statement of facts to be supplied by the donor and will involve the creation of a trust or trusts. If there are less than four contestants only the first prize will be awarded. No student shall be eligible to compete more than one."

All wills to be submitted in this contest must be left at the dean's office not later than Monday, June 24. A statement of facts may be obtained from the dean's office.

Student Editorials

Because of a shortage of space the Collegian is forced to omit part of this student letter. The thought content remains unimpaired, however. It is probable that the writer does not know about the woman who work at lunch time at Lausanne Hall when he mentions the "one row of young ladies."—The Editor.

Editor of the Collegian, Dear Editor:

I have been noticing for some time the great number of people who leave the chapel immediately after the roll has been taken, or later during the address of the speaker. This has been occurring throughout the year, but of late it has been becoming steadily worse.

This shows up especially bad for the school when ten or a dozen or so students rush out while a visiting speaker is giving an address. It makes no difference whether it is an excellent or a mediocre address, some students, it seems, have to leave. During the fine address of Maurice Ballinger May 5, 20 people left the service. This shows very much a lack of both intelligence and good breeding on the part of the students, as well as being very discourteous and disheartening to the speaker.

Although it is perhaps necessary to get to work before the program is over, there is no excuse for this to happen throughout the school year. One row of young ladies near one of the doors invariably has from two to five leave the chapel every time. . . . If it is necessary to leave every day to work, there would be no trouble in getting a permanent chapel excuse.

Lack of appreciation of our noble band's excellent musical presentation on last Friday was expressed by every one of the 48 students who left. There seemed to be a steady parade to the exits, as soon as roll was checked. . . . FORTY-EIGHT STUDENTS! When they left, the chapel looked like the wide open spaces, because of so many empty seats. Why can't we show more appreciation and courtesy to our chapel programs and to guest speakers?

Special Rush Session

(Continued from Page 1) the genuine thing," said Professor Clark when interviewed. "It contains artifacts of the Columbia river, Fort Rock and Klamath districts and is made up of arrows, arrow heads, spear heads, carved animals, mortar bowls, paint bowls, dough boards, and many other things."

An issue of the "London Illustrated News" carried pictures of the artifacts along with a page write-up. Outstanding among the articles are five polished hammer-heads only seven of which are known to be in existence, a snow bow that is fashioned identically after the old Klamath Indian bow, and a Klamath Indian drum.

Major McCleary, world traveler and former owner of the collection, gave to Willamette, along with the Indian antiquities, artifacts from King Tut's tomb in Egypt and a number of relics from the Pyramid of the Sun in Mexico and a collection of Oregon minerals.

At present the entire collection is stored in the basement of Eaton Hall.

With the building of the new library and the moving of the law library to the room of the present library, the basement of Walter hall will be turned into the new museum. A Geology room will be established along with the museum.

Professor Clark mentioned that a fire-proof building is really needed for the museum and that many other collections could be had by donation if Willamette could provide for their safety from fire.

Professor Clark, Dr. Laughlin and Dr. Gatzke are primarily interested in the making of Willamette into an Oregon historical center which would be of great benefit and interest on account of Willamette's historical background and civic location.

Announcement Told At Supper

Coming as a climax to May weekend festivities was the buffet supper given at Delta Phi Sunday evening, May 2, by Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent for Queen Gwen, at which Miss Gallaher formally announced her engagement to Mr. Ralph McCullough of Portland. The announcement was made with the dessert of the supper and was carried on miniature law books of purple cardboard and termed in court procedure. With the announcement Mr. McCullough placed her diamond on Queen Gwen's hand. Accompanied by Miss Sargent, Burtis Preston sang "Where'er you walk," by Handel.

Guests at dinner were: Miss Gwen Gallaher, Mr. Ralph McCullough, Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, Mr. George McLeod, Miss Wanda Landon, Mr. Ridge Miller, Miss Rosemary Huffman, Mr. Joe Felton, Miss Lorene Tompkins, Mr. Verne Rierston, Miss Barbara Crookham, Mr. Willard Petre, Miss Anna May Unrath, Mr. Burtis Preston, Miss Dorothy Dingle and Mr. Randall Kester.

Today Is Your Ice Cream Day

The first official function of the new Cap and Gown year will take place today, with the semi-annual Ice Cream Social, which will be given at Cresto, from 11:45 a. m. to 10 p. m. The menu, however, will include much more than only ice cream. There will be hot dogs, priced with a discount for two or more; sundaes of various flavors; cake and pie; soda pop and ginger ale; coffee and milk; and almost anything else that happens to occur to the membership.

Half of the proceeds will go, as usual, to the Cresto general fund. The other half will go into service work carried on by Cap and Gown. Tacks will assist in the serving, and Dean Dahl will preside at the coffee kettle.

Members of Cap and Gown who will serve include the Misses Constance Smart, Julia Johnson, Gwen Gallaher, Helen Purvine, Lucile Brainard, Irma Oehler, Ina Bennett, Lillian Hart, Barbara Crookham and Betty Taylor.

Cap and Gown Members Chosen

Five of the most outstanding junior girls on the campus were pledged to Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary, at last Thursday's chapel hour, in an impressive ceremony conducted by members of this year's group. The new group includes Miss Irma Oehler, Miss Ina Bennett, Miss Betty Taylor, Miss Lillian Hart and Miss Barbara Crookham.

Following an organ prelude, Miss Mary Mahoney, personnel director of Meier and Frank Co., gave the chapel speech, as a representative of a woman college graduate in the business world. Miss Evelyn Harding sang "My Task." Special guests for the chapel ceremony were the members of the Oregon State chapter of Mortar Board, with which Cap and Gown is affiliated.

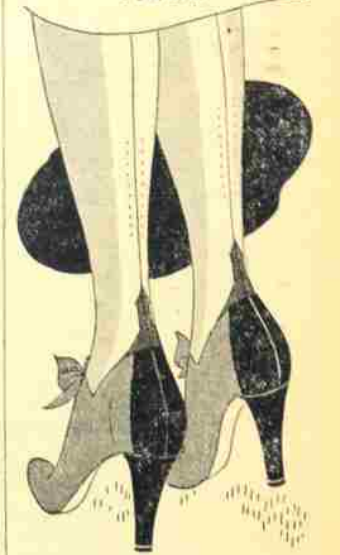

After the chapel service, this year's Cap and Gown members were hostesses to the group at a lunch at the Golden Pheasant. The hostesses included Dean Olive Dahl and the Misses Lucile Brainard, Gwen Gallaher, Julia Johnson, Helen Purvine and Constance Smart.

The qualifications by which the new membership was chosen included character, service, leadership and scholarship.

Title at Stake in W.U.-C.P.S. Series

Defending Champs Invade Salem For Pair of Double-bills

With the western division title and a series with Whitman for the Northwest conference title hanging in the balance, Joey Mack's College of Puget Sound baseball nine invades Salem tomorrow for a pair of double-bills with the Willamette Bearcats. The Loggers won the league crown last year by defeating Whitman but will enter the series here as underdogs to the unbeaten Bearcat outfit.

The Timbermen must sweep the four games to gain a clear-out title for the end of the loop, while the Bearcats need only an even break to gain the trip to Walla Walla.

Probably the thing that will go hardest against the Tacomans is the fact that they face the four contests with just two pitchers, Frank Pavalunas and Larry Raglan are the chokers Coach Mack expects to throw against the Keenemen. Against Pacific each turned to iron-man tactics and hurled two games. It is expected the same procedure will be used this week-end with Pavalunas, star ruck slabster from Raymond High, talling in both tilts tomorrow and Raglan working Saturday.

Jerry Gastineau, Walter Weaver, Larry Nunnenkamp, and lefty Jack Criswell have turned in consistent performances all season and probably will receive the Willamette mound assignments. Tom Hagar and Hill Anton will also be on hand.

The remainder of the lineup will be picked from Beard and Weisgerber, catchers; Pierce, Sutton, Shinn, Orren, Williamson, infielders; Ragsdale, Aden, Southard, Hagedorn, Catherwood, outfielders.

Needing only a pair of victories apiece to insure their respective divisional championships and the right to play for the league title, Willamette university's slugging Bearcats and Whitman's powerful Missionary nine loom as the contestants for the 1937 baseball pennant of the Northwest Conference.

Willamette swept a four game series with Pacific last week end and need only an even break with the defending league champion Loggers this week to earn the right to meet the perennial eastern division winners, Nig Borleske's Whitman nine, in the conference playoff at Walla Walla, May 20, 21, 22.

The Missionaries have six contests on slate with College of Idaho for this week, but are expected to have little trouble with the Coyotes. Pat Page's outfit won their first game in three years from the Missions in last week's series.

Albany college, loser of eight straight games against Pacific and Willamette, have decided not to count their games in the conference standings this year.

Powerful Mission Tracksters Meet Locals Saturday

Defending Champs Invade Salem For Pair of Double-bills

Salem track fans will have an opportunity Saturday morning to see the Northwest conference's best under team in action when Whitman's Missionaries invade the capital city for a dual meet with Willamette.

The Missions are favorites for the conference title and are expected to down the Bearcats with a great deal of trouble. Last week the Walla Wallans downed C. P. S., early season victor over Spark's men, 67 to 64.

Willamette's hopes for points rest on three performers — John Kelly, sophomore sprint star, and a pair of rooks, Justin Weakly, javelin tosser, and Chet Varnes, husky discus thrower. Kelly has improved rapidly this year and last week stayed right on the heels of George Sweet, Portland university's crack sprinter. Varnes in the same meet, set a new record for the discus with a toss of almost 130 feet. Weakly, though bothered by a sore shoulder, consistently tosses the spear better than 175 feet.

Other Willamette entrants will be Dex Russell, sprints; Norm Hogensen, quarter; Francis Schmidt, half; Bob Keuscher, mile; Bob Brown, two mile; Bill McAdams, hurdles; Don Buxton, broad jump; Weakly, pole vault; Wayne Brainard, quarter; Henry Franz, mile; Hogensen, Schmidt, Brainard, Max Ross, relay.

Whitman's stars are Kilby and Zier, a pair of 4:35 milers; B. Fairbank and Norris, 53 second quarter-milers; Dusenburg, crack sprinter; Essary and Stecher, high jumpers; Plinnegar, in the discus; Merriam, Zier, and H. Fairbanks, half miler; Hoyer and Adamson, who run the two miles in 10:36; and the mile relay team of Norris, Kilby, B. Fairbank, and Merriam.

Base Hit Barrage Smothers Pacific

Willamette's slugging baseballers continued at their terrific pace over the period of the past two weeks as they walked away with eight straight triumphs, to bring their season's record to 15 wins and two losses. Included in the victories were four over the Pacific Badgers which sufficed to put the Bearcats far out ahead in the Northwest Conference's western division race.

The locals met the Badgers in the initial contests at Forest Grove, and when it was all over decisive 13-4 and 9-2 victories had been rung up.

Gastineau had all the say in the initial tilt as he held the home-town to eight hits and whiffed 13.

Weaver was even more stingy than Gastineau in the second game, allowing only four bingles. Freshman Catherwood connected for four safe blows out of five (trips to the plate, including a homer and triple, to lead hitters for the afternoon. Beard smacked out five safeties in eight tries.

Summary: Willamette 13 14 2 Pacific 4 8 2 Gastineau and Weisgerber; Seshorn and Guerin. Willamette 9 9 1 Pacific 2 4 5 Weaver and Weisgerber; Dierck, McCurdy and Petrasso.

The Badgers journeyed to Salem April 8th and took a couple of Hickings by 17-3 and 4-1 scores. Local hitters enjoyed a field day in the opener, clouting two Pacific hurlers for 18 bingles, while Nunnenkamp, on the mound, was holding the visitors well in hand, giving up but seven hits.

The night-cap was a pitching duel all the way with Criswell, Bearcat freshman, finally edging out a win over Lieuelan. Criswell allowed only four safeties but was somewhat wild, walking five men.

Gordy Williamson banged out five hits in nine trips, including four doubles, and Dwight Aden cracked a triple and three singles, to lead the hit parade. Syster of Pacific clouted a homer in the first tilt.

Summary: Pacific 3 7 3 Willamette 17 18 2 Dierck, McCurdy and Guerin; Nunnenkamp and Weisgerber. Pacific 4 4 3 Willamette 7 1 Lieuelan, Relas and Petrasso; Criswell and Weisgerber.

Eleven In a Row Captured By Nine

Baseball Team Victorious In 16 of 18 Starts This Season

Willamette's baseball nine ran their current winning streak to eleven straight games last week end.

Bearcats Gain Sweet Revenge

Spec Kenie's tossers met Mt. Angel here April 30th and gained ample revenge for a previous licking from the hands of the Angels by walloping them 15-4. Hits were about evenly divided between the teams but a majority of the Bearcats were extra-base blows which piled up the score.

Aden and Orren belted home runs for the Methodists and Hagedorn was credited with a triple. Summary: Mt. Angel 5 10 3 Willamette 15 11 2 Moore and Plennette; Nunnenkamp, Hagar and Beard, Moe.

Gastineau Trims Carlin

Cardinal and Goldsters clashed with University of Portland on the local grounds May 1st and managed to nose out a 7-4 win.

Gastineau went the route for Willamette and pitched creditable ball, though in several instances only phenomenal support aided by his mates saved the situation. Bearcat batsmen nicked Carlin, Portland fast-ball chucker for ten hits including a home run by Pierce to give Gastineau the runs he needed.

Portland	4	8	2
Willamette	7	10	4

Pilots Go Down Again

The Bearcats went to Portland May 4th for another tilt with the Pilots and came home with an easy 11-4 victory. Walt Weaver twirled nice ball throughout the game, limiting the home-town to seven hits, while Bearcat bats were lambasting Carlin for 13 base raps.

Some staunch base-running on the part of the Methodists enlivened the contest, three successful steals of home being made. Summary: Carlin and Hawkins; Gastineau and Weisgerber. Willamette 11 13 3 Portland 4 7 6 Weaver and Weisgerber; Carlin and Hawkins.

Anton Handcuffs Pirates

The Keenemen journeyed to Albany May 5 and ran rough-shod over the Pirates for a pair of victories, 20-1 and 23-0.

Again outclassing the Hub city players all the way, Willamette hitters belted Buccaneer twirlers for 32 hits in the two tilts and piled up the huge total of 43 runs. The Albany team erred atrociously, committing 22 misplays altogether, to add materially in the scoring.

Tom Hagar, amid the booming bats of his mates, held the Pirates to four safeties in the first game, which went six innings by agreement.

In the night-cap, called after five frames, Bill Anton, making his pitching debut, celebrated by holding the Bucs to a single blow. Summary: Willamette 20 15 4 Albany 1 4 10 Hagar and Weisgerber; Manning, Miller and Prideoaux. Willamette 23 17 12 Albany 0 1 12 Anton and Moe; Prideoaux.

Badgers Nose Out Win

Coach Roger Folgate's Pacific tracksters barely nosed out Willamette's undermen in a dual meet April 30 at Forest Grove. The final score favored the Badgers 66 to 64. With only the relay left to run the Bearcats led 64-61, but the Badgers walked off with the final event and the meet to hand the Methodists their second defeat of the season.

Placing for Willamette were: 100—Kelly, first; Russell, second; Hank, third. 220—Russell, second; 440—Hogenson, second; 880—Schmidt, second; mile—Keuscher, third; 2-mile—Brown, third; shot—McAdam, first; Kelly, second; discus—Varnes, first; Kelly, second; McAdam, third; javelin—Weakly, first; high hurdles—McAdam, first; Burton, second; Jones, third; low hurdles—Jones, first; McAdam, second; pole vault—Weakly, second; high jump—Schmidt, third; broad jump—Hogenson, third.

Bill McAdam with 14 points proved to be the outstanding man of the meet.

Good news to tennis followers is that starting next Monday, a program of intramural men's tennis will be launched, according to Leslie Sparks, Willamette graduate manager. Prizes will be awarded to winners in both singles and doubles, so men, get out your racquets and enjoy the fun.

KOLUMN KOMMENT

By BOB KEUSCHER (Collegian Sports Editor)

It's the season now for playoffs and beginning next week the Northwest Conference championship series will get under way. May 20, 21, and 22 the baseball title games will be played at Walla Walla. On May 22 the tennis championships will be awarded in a tournament at Reed College in Portland or at Willamette. A definite site has not been chosen. A week later, Friday night, May 23, the conference track and field meet will be run off at Walla Walla.

The baseball series is sure to be a thriller, with Whitman and Willamette apparently to be the contestants. C. P. S. is defending titleholder. The track crown undoubtedly will go to Whitman's powerful aggregation with Puget Sound next best. Linfield won the title a year ago. The tennis championships are a tossup with Whitman, Willamette, and C. P. S. in the race.

Taking exception to a recent Oregonian dispatch which visioned Willamette as unbeaten champion of the three major sports—football, baseball, and basketball—the Whitman Pioneer sports department asks the rest of the conference to recall that the clean sweep, if it is made, will not be new to the conference. Whitman, it is pointed, not only made a clean sweep, unbeaten, in the three major sports in 1928, but also walked off with the league track and tennis titles. In the spring of '28 the Whitman basketball team had an unbeaten record, the track team walked off with the track crown scoring 59 2-3 points, the tennis team finished first in both singles and doubles, and the baseball nine polished off all rivals, winning the title with 12-3, 14-1, and 19-6 wins over Pacific. The following autumn the grid eleven was unbeaten and untied, beating Willamette 45-0 to wind up the clean sweep.

ODDS AND ENDS—The Alpha Psi Delta softball team remains unbeaten in city league competition at this writing. The Psi's have beaten the Y.M.C.A., Pades, and the Oregonian. The University Vespers are sponsors every Saturday afternoon on Sweetland field of a round of softball games. Everyone is invited and a good time is assured. L. H. Gregory, sports editor of the Oregonian, occasionally mentions the fight that Stan Andersen, Portland's latest contribution to Stanford's grid eleven, has to get sports scribes to spell his name Andersen instead of Anderson. We have the same kind of case here with Norman Hogensen. Writers invariably spell his name with an "son" ending. Bill Beard has long claimed the title for having the most nicknames on the campus, but lately two new candidates for the crown have appeared. They are Bob Jones, Les Sparks' star hurler, and Durward Southard, outfielder on the baseball team.

Discussing Co-ed Sports

The eighth annual women's inter-collegiate Geographic archery tournament which is sponsored by the National Archery Association is to be held between May 13 and May 20 with Willamette taking part by entering two teams. Those making scores over 425 will be given a class "A" rating; those making scores between 350 and 424 will be given class "B" rating; those making scores between 200 and 349 will receive a class "C" rating. A certificate giving the score and class rating will be awarded to each competitor who makes any of the three classes.

Each competitor shoots from 30, 40 and 50 feet, 24 arrows (or four ends) from each distance. This is termed as a "round." The rules this year permit a competitor to shoot several complete rounds during the prescribed period and then to report as the "official" round the one having the highest score.

Nominations for next year's W. A. A. officers have been made. Those running are: president, Frances Faber; vice president, June Johnson; Kay Thompson; secretary, Margaret Gillette; Jean Annunson; basketball, Marjorie Herr; soccer, Jean Bartlett; Jeanette Brown; volleyball, Mabel Lenz; Ruth Tscherner; tennis, Barbara Kurtz; archery, Margaret Engdahl; swimming, June Breasted; baseball, Jimmy Tompkins; Dorothy Moore. Further nomination will be made from the floor at a meeting held sometime this week.

Tennis for the W.A.A. softball play have been chosen. There are three teams, Red, Blue and White. The teams: Red—June Braested, Marjorie Herr, June Johnson, Barbara Chapler, Erma Oehler, Margaret Gillette, Kay Thompson, Margaret Kella, Geneyra Selander, Marguerite Du Rette, Marian Steigerwald and Anoska Coates. The White team including Rachel Yocum, Margaret Engdahl, Frances Faber, Ruth Ramsden, Rose Ann Gibson, Myrl Martin, Eileen Van Eaton, Ruth Yocum, Jean Bartlett, Cornelia Hulst, and Margaret Mages, and the Blue team including Barbara Kurtz, Dorothy Moore, Jean Annunson, Mabel Lenz, Margaret Mary, Betty Williams, Ruth Tscherner, Lorna Barham, Jean Lauderback and Anna Mae Unruh.

The first game was played between the White and Red squads, with the Whites winning 6 to 4. Ruth and Rae Yocum pitched for the winners. Barbara Chapler hit a home run.

Alpha Psi and P. E. Staff Outfits Rated Best In League

Softball League
Alpha Psi	5	1 .888
P. E. Staff	5	1 .888
Law School	4	5 .444
Sigma Tau	3	6 .333
Kappa Gamma Rho	3	6 .333
Independents	1	8 .111

Bringing to a climax what has been probably the most successful intramural softball league in years, the four top teams in the regular season's play will stage a playoff for the championship next week.

The four teams will be the Alpha Psi Deltas, the Physical Ed. staff, the Law School and either the Sigma Taus or Kappas.

The playoff will be in the form of a double elimination tournament with two games on Monday and Tuesday and the finals on Wednesday and Thursday.

Favorites for the title are the P.E.'s and Psi's, leaders during the regular schedule. Any game between the two will be a thriller. This fact was proven Tuesday noon when the pair staged a spectacular 1-0 duel which the P.E.'s won. The A.P.D.'s took the other contest between the two, 10-1, early in the year.

Bearcat Racqueteurs Point For Title Meet

With a record of five victories against three defeats this season, the Willamette men's tennis team winds up its pre-conference season today against Pacific U. on the Willamette tennis courts, according to Leslie Sparks, coach. The conference meet will be held in Portland on the Reed college courts, Saturday, May 22.

Since each team is allowed only one singles player and only one doubles team in the conference meet, the Willamette squad now composed of Joe Harvey, Bill Clomes, Herman Estes, Aris and Francis Sherwood and Donnell Saunders will have an inter-squad meet to decide which men will represent the Bearcats.

The tennis squad has defeated Oregon Normal school at Monmouth twice, and Reed, Pacific and College of Puget Sound, each once, and twice to Oregon and once to Oregon State.

Three Matches Listed

Unbeaten in three matches to date, Willamette's women's tennis team takes on three opponents this week end. This afternoon they take on Oregon Normal at Monmouth, Friday they play Pacific, and Saturday they journey to Portland for a return meet with Marylhurst.

The Willamette girls defeated Marylhurst 4 matches to 2, O.N.S. 5 to 2, and tied Pacific 3 to 3 in their first matches.

Results of the Pacific match: Ann Ferguson, Pacific, beat Rachel Yocum, 7-5, 7-5; Lora Belle Craven, Pacific, beat Ruth Yocum, 6-1, 6-2; Frances Faber, W. U., beat Jean Huston, 6-2, 10-8; Barbara Kurtz, W.U., beat Rose Mary Hess, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3; Ferguson and Craven beat Yocum and Yocum, 6-2, 6-0; Kurtz and Faber beat Hess and Huston, 6-2, 6-0.

Entrants for the conference meet to be held May 22 have not been made. Competition for places on the team is very keen, and Willamette's entrants probably will not be selected until late next week. Rae Yocum now stands first on the ladder, Rose Mary Huffman second, Ruth Yocum third, Frances Faber fourth, and Gertrude Kurtz, fifth.

Barbara Kurtz; archery, Margaret Engdahl; swimming, June Breasted; baseball, Jimmy Tompkins; Dorothy Moore. Further nomination will be made from the floor at a meeting held sometime this week.

Tennis for the W.A.A. softball play have been chosen. There are three teams, Red, Blue and White. The teams: Red—June Braested, Marjorie Herr, June Johnson, Barbara Chapler, Erma Oehler, Margaret Gillette, Kay Thompson, Margaret Kella, Geneyra Selander, Marguerite Du Rette, Marian Steigerwald and Anoska Coates. The White team including Rachel Yocum, Margaret Engdahl, Frances Faber, Ruth Ramsden, Rose Ann Gibson, Myrl Martin, Eileen Van Eaton, Ruth Yocum, Jean Bartlett, Cornelia Hulst, and Margaret Mages, and the Blue team including Barbara Kurtz, Dorothy Moore, Jean Annunson, Mabel Lenz, Margaret Mary, Betty Williams, Ruth Tscherner, Lorna Barham, Jean Lauderback and Anna Mae Unruh.

The first game was played between the White and Red squads, with the Whites winning 6 to 4. Ruth and Rae Yocum pitched for the winners. Barbara Chapler hit a home run.

Behind the stellar two-hit, shutout pitching of Don Stockwell, who turned in the outstanding performance of the season, the P. E. Staff yesterday defeated the previously undefeated Alpha Psi Delta nine, scoring in the last inning for a thrilling 1 to 0 victory on Sweetland field. As a result the P. E. Staff and Alpha Psi are in a deadlock for first place, each team having lost one game.

By slugging out a 14 to 12 victory over the Independents the Law School assured itself of a place in the playoffs next week by taking over undisputed possession of third place in the standings. A coincidence of the game was that Don Clark started pitching with Bronk Williams catching and later switching positions. Sigma Tau will be the fourth team in the playoffs if they defeat the Independents today.

Varnes Only Winner In Pilot Relay Meet

Chet Varnes, discus thrower, who tossed the platter 129 feet 7 inches for a new meet record, garnered most of Willamette university's points as the Bearcat tracksters wound up fourth in the Portland university invitational relays last Saturday. Schools competing were Portland, Linfield, Willamette and Oregon Normal.

The host team, Portland, gathered in 71 points for first place, with Linfield, last year's champs second with 61. Normal third with 14 1/2, and Willamette fourth with 12 1/2.

The Bearcat points were made by Varnes (5), Kelley, second in the century (3), Weakly, third in the pole vault and javelin throw (3 1/2), and the two mile relay team of Hogenson, Brown, Keuscher, and Schmidt, fourth in that event (1). Willamette's novice mile relay team of Brainard, Moses, Ross and Franz finished a close second in that race but no points were awarded for the event.

Justin Weakly, favored to capture the javelin throw was bothered by an extremely sore arm and was unable to garner better than third.
