SMITH AUDITORIUM

The Willamette University Department of Music offers the music major intensive professional training in several music areas coupled with a balanced core of liberal arts courses. For the non-major, the department offers performance opportunities through private instruction, performing ensembles of all types and a wide selection of general music courses, many of which are designed to meet the fine arts requirements of Willamette's general education program. The music department annually serves 300-400 students. Willamette offers six different bachelor's degrees in music: music with emphasis in music education, performance, music therapy, and composition; bachelor of arts in music; and bachelor of science in music. Willamette's Master of Arts in Teaching completes the student's preparation for a career in music education. For more information about the Department of Music please contact:

Hold tight my people, don't get weary.

Don't lose your strength.

We can see they wanted to hold us back.

One by one – they will not succeed.

One by one – we will win.

They will not succeed because we know who we are.

The color of my skin is dark I'm proud of it.

The color of my skin that is dark I will die with it.
