

Trustees
Come Through!

Willamette

Collegian

Welcome
To Hoopsters!

VOL. XLVIII.

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1937

No. 19

Martin Gives Praise to New W. U. Course

Interview Reveals That Governor Likes Pub. Ad. Course

Believes Need Present For Trained Men In Office

By JOHN VOSS

"I think that the Willamette university course in public administration is excellent," declared Governor Charles H. Martin in an interview concerning Willamette's new course to train men for public service.

The governor, an energetic, pleasant man with a brisk military manner, added: "In America young men should be trained for public office and should be given examinations to determine their fitness for such service as in England."

Although Governor Martin admitted that there is an extreme necessity for trained, intelligent men in public office, he was frankly cynical about the possibility of selection on the basis of merit because of the numerous blocks of self-seeking politicians who corrupt governmental administration. "Certain groups of citizens in this state as well as in others try to further their own block politics by appointing to office men favorable to their interests. Politicians will do anything to gain their own selfish ends."

Scores Racketeers

Taking a crack at the vicious political machines now entrenched in our state capitals Governor Martin stated, "The block racketeers and politicians do little for the public service of any state."

In spite of his gloomy outlook for the near future in the extension of the merit system the governor said that the course now offered at Willamette would help to build up a better spirit and a more intelligent understanding of the whole field of public administration. The governor felt confident that the course would aid materially in changing the emphasis from selfishness to a spirit of genuine service in the state administration.

Likes Course

"I would like to see such courses in all colleges and universities," Governor Martin said. He went on to remark that all college students should be given an understanding of the basic principles of government and economics in order to raise the level of American politics.

Governor Martin praised the policy of President Roosevelt and the present Democratic administration of appointing trained, intelligent young men just out of college to important positions in the national government. "Politicians always sneer," he said, "at the high minded, trained public officials commonly known as braintrustees who are above graft and small racketeering. Ordinary politicians just don't understand."

Tryouts Held By Little Theater

Little Theater held its bi-weekly meeting Tuesday at 7:30 in Little Theater room. Tryouts were held for those interested in joining the organization, and the following people were accepted as pledges into Little Theater: Antonette Lambert, Howard Teeple, June Aashelm.

A vote was called for as to whether or not the cast of "Twelfth Night" should be admitted as members, and the following members of the cast were asked to join: Leonard Schurr, Harlan Sheldon, Stanley Eland, Donald Green, Baine Cater, Merrill Cray, Forrest Mills, Melba Ripelle.

A financial report was given on "Twelfth Night." It was found that receipts exceeded expenditures, thus placing a fund in the hands of Little Theater to dispose of according to a previous resolution of the group; that twenty percent is to go into a social fund and that eighty percent is to go for some permanent gift for the Willamette Drama department in the way of stage equipment.

The matter of one-act plays for the month of May was discussed at this meeting.

Instructor Talks On Life Building

Prof. E. C. Richards On YM Speakers Schedule At Chresto

Inner-self, home life, the business relationship, and the universe are the four points emphasized by Professor E. C. Richards, Willamette English instructor, in a talk on the "Rational Philosophy of Life," given at Cresto Cottage last Monday evening before members of the Y. M. C. A.

Absolute integrity was emphasized as the essential quality in inner-self, while the home was brought out as the place where every member helps to build up his fellows spiritually, emotionally, and rationally.

The business relationship builds up contacts with others. The universe was defined as the place where one builds up a relation to his inner-self and where he begins to acquire a concept of vastness.

Fifth In Series

Professor Richards is one of a series of speakers including Professors Monk and Clark, and Mrs. Ellis of Willamette and Dr. James Milligan of the First Methodist church. These talks are designed as frank discussions usually of the open forum type, to help Willamette students to better understand such topics as Christianity, its aims and beliefs; love, marriage, and the family and their importance to the student and other institutions which help to build up character in the individual.

The Y. M. C. A. group is taking the lead in the raising of funds for the remodeling of Cresto Cottage when it is moved from its present position to make way for the new library building. The Y. M. C. A. boys are also looking for a prospective site with the most suitable location on the campus with the idea in mind of having a kitchen built on the building.

Gene Hill will lead next Monday's discussion at 9:00 p. m. on the "Place of Christianity in Building Life." Anyone who desires may attend and may ask any questions which they wish answered.

Campus Honorary Holds Initiation

Formal initiation of two new members, Ralph Gustafson and Leroy Casey, juniors, is reported for the last regular meeting of the Blue Key, 12 o'clock Tuesday at the Argo. After the ceremony plans were discussed for the distribution of tournament programs and the remainder of spring activity for the organization.

Nominations for membership will be requested of the deans shortly according to the plan of membership application adopted early last semester. The new men will take the places left vacant by graduation. Maximum membership has been set at 15.

Ralph Gustafson was elected to head a committee to act in cooperation with Prof. Cameron Marshall in staging Blue Key show, given each spring for the last three years.

The group voted to assist in the entertainment of forensic representatives from various northwest colleges when they come to the campus April 8-10 to take part in the northwest speech meet. This is Willamette's turn to play host for the affair.

Tournament programs, printed under the direction of Warren Fetters, senior Blue Key member, have been in the process of distribution since Wednesday noon.

Five Hundred Dollar Fund Voted By Trustees In Anticipation of Like Sum From Eastern Estate

The Willamette Board of Trustees at the March 6 meeting voted to match a fund of $500 if Willamette is chosen to receive money from the McGregor fund, a fund set aside for the purchase of rare volumes for colleges of high standing in the United States.

The McGregor fund is administered by a group of American historians headed by Dr. Randolph Adams. Five hundred dollars per year is given to one university in each geographical section of the U. S. to be matched by another $500 given by the university for the purpose of purchasing prized rare volumes which would otherwise be unavailable. Mills college

Trustees Call For Building By Next Fall

Moving of Post Office Would Cost $80,000; Voted Down

Architect Firm Submits Plan For Building; Location Set

Willamette university trustees at their meeting Saturday afternoon, March 6, authorized the immediate construction of a new library building. The building is to be ready for use next fall.

The trustees voted down the idea of moving the old postoffice to the campus and remodeling it for a library. This proposal would have cost $80,000.

The new library building will be constructed where Cresto Cottage is now and will necessitate the moving of Cresto further back. Crowded conditions in the library this year have made the need of a new library building very great.

The A. E. Doyle firm of architects of Portland, Ore., have submitted a plan which with certain modification will probably be adopted. The Doyle firm has designed the Linfield college library, Reed college library, and the Corvallis public library.

Planning Begun

Tentative plans are for a one-story rectangular building with an entrance on the northwest corner. There will be a library office and workroom on the left of the entrance. On the south side of the building will be a treasure room, newspaper and periodical room, and a recreational reading room. The main reading room will be long and narrow with approximately 160 students to study. Two levels of roofs and large windows together with modern lighting equipment will make the library a nice place to study. There will be space along the walls of the main reading room for bound periodicals and reference books.

The trustees of the university have authorized the appointment of a building committee, with all contracts subject to the approval of the executive committee. The cost of the library with equipment and minor improvements to other buildings is not to exceed $100,000. The money for the construction of the new library will be taken from funds in the hands of the endowment committee temporarily but not any of the funds held in trust for endowment purposes.

Contrary to recent rumors there will be no increase in tuition. It was not thought advisable at this time.

Co-op House Discussed

Tom Ludden reported upon the possibilities of a cooperative house for men last Monday at a business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held in Cresto Cottage.

It was decided that meetings should be held every Monday night at 8:45 p. m., 15 minutes earlier than usual.

Plans to Be Shown

Plans for the new library are to be drawn large enough for the best possible and most convenient arrangement of stacks, reserve books, study rooms, etc.

A planning group, under the direction of Dr. Gatzke, is at work arranging matters so that all buildings on the campus will harmonize with surroundings.

Songmen Begin Spring Schedule

Spring Activity Begins with KOIN Broadcast and Church Concerts

After employing the forepart of the year to a rehearsal schedule which included two or three practice sessions a week, forty-odd members of the Songmen are about to launch forth upon a spring concert series more extensive than any engaged by campus musical organization since the 1933 Philharmonic choir of Chicago fame. Appearances on the Sperry broadcast, Portland radio station KOIN Tuesday night, 7:45, and at the Albany Methodist church Thursday night complete the week's schedule. These are followed closely by the joint program presented by the Barbara Barnes dancing class and the Songmen, March 27.

During the evening service at the Montavilla Methodist church, Portland, the Songmen sang in the first concert of the spring series. The pastor, Dr. Ranton, is the father of Leonard Ranton, Songmen president.

Broadcast Postponed

The Songmen Sperry male chorus parade broadcast was originally scheduled for February 2, but was indefinitely postponed when a coast-wide storm brought down the wires of the Columbia broadcasting network.

During the Sperry broadcast of last week, featuring the male singers of Occidental college, it was announced that this week's chorus would be of the Songmen.

Transportation has proved to be the worst difficulty so far in the spring series. The music department offers to buy gasoline for anyone who takes singers to fill out of town engagements. It is anticipated by music leaders that the response to this offer will become steadily better as the weather improves.

The spring tour, scheduled from April 4 to April 14, is not a cause for worry as far as transportation is concerned. On this tour, a stage from the Greyhound lines will carry the entertainers throughout southern Oregon.

"Twelfth Night" Called Success

One of the world's greatest comedies, Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," was presented in Waller hall Friday and Saturday nights by Little Theater Guild.

It was pronounced the best legitimate stage performance ever witnessed in Salem by Mrs. Gustav Ebsen, recognized dramatic critic of Salem.

Salem newspapers were loud in their acclaim of the production. In the Oregon Statesman of March 13, Lloyd Riehl, who played the part of Sir Toby Belch, and Mary Elizabeth Kells, who was Maria, were declared to have "won honors for the best performance."

The Statesman further reported that "Josie Acklin as Viola held the interest of the audience and played her role with finesse," that Melba Ripelle carried "her part with much poise and dignity," that "Forrest Mills as Malvolio, steward to Olivia was fine in his characterizations."

Good Portrayals

The Capital Journal of March 13 reported that "the play was unusually well done with all characters giving marvelous portrayals of their parts. Lloyd Riehl, playing the part of Sir Toby, and Merrill Cray as Sir Andrew added much merriment to the play throughout with Sir Toby's frolicsome ways and Sir Andrew's simple-wittedness. Josie Acklin in the role of Viola did outstanding work in the portrayal of her part. Melba Ripelle, in the part of Olivia, added a quiet richness to the play by her stately bearing and calm loveliness."

"Twelfth Night" has brought to Salem the revival of the Shakespearean dramas and is one of the most beautiful plays ever presented by the Little Theater group."

The management of the play reports that it was also a financial success.

BULLETIN

Wallajah Editor Guy Helmsmith announces that ten cents apiece will be paid for any and all interesting snapshots of the campus and campus activities. He reports that he can use a large number.

Faculty Featured By Social Calendar Out For Second Semester

The new social calendar, called the "W Date Book," was issued this week by the managing staff of the Wallajah.

The new book has one small pinoleum cut on each page. These cuts are portraits of members of the faculty. A number of students change their addresses and phone numbers within the space of a school year, making the publication of a second semester book necessary.

Besides being a student directory the "date book" contains a list of social functions for the remainder of the year.

Riehl Announces Golf Tournament

The handicap golf tournament for men and women of Willamette university will be held April 15, according to an announcement made by Lloyd Riehl, who is in charge of the contest. Prizes will be awarded, either cup or trophy, to the winners.

Anyone on the campus is eligible for this tournament and those who intend to enter the handicap should contact Mr. Riehl immediately. According to arrangements being made, this tourney will give dubs equal chances with the par-shooters.

The necessary qualifications required for participation will be five acknowledged full 18-hole score cards. These cards are required to ascertain the handicap and to maintain attendance records for the gym classes. Results of the matches will be reported to Lloyd Riehl.

Forty students have signed up for golf instructions. Lessons are given during class periods on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 1:15 p. m. or by special appointment through Mr. Riehl.

Self Education Most Important Declares Oliver

"The individual needs to be well-rounded through his own initiative and extra serious reading outside the college curriculum," declared Professor Egbert S. Oliver, Willamette teacher of English, in an informal talk before members of the campus Y. M. C. A. in Cresto cottage last Monday evening, speaking on the "Cultural Values of a College Education in Relation to Building a Christian Philosophy of Life."

"Study seriously the lives of great men, for example, the Greek Plato, a man who lived in a small state, but who experienced the same difficulties in life that the ordinary individual faces. Plato's 'Republic' is an excellent book which will cause one to think."

Aristotle and Montaigne were also mentioned as among the great men whose lives were worthwhile for study. Professor Oliver stated that the study of almost any great man is worthwhile, for "the pattern of greatness is much the same in all great men."

Lampka Chosen

Art Lampka, junior, was elected 1937 May weekend manager by the executive committee at the last regular meeting Friday, March 12th at the Quella.

NOTICE TO JUNIORS

With the wadup of "Twelfth Night" practices, Mrs. Chester Oppen, dramatics head, reports that play tryouts for the Junior May week-end will be held soon.

Memory of Icy Dive In Old Mill Stream Lingers After Two Weeks As Sophomores Nurse Hurt Pride

The sky was merry blue above, spring was here, 'twas time for Freshman Glee. Only too vivid in the memory of the sophomores class is the crushing humbling, icy defeat that followed in its wake.

Twice, the unfortunate class of '37 has been compelled, not only to endure the sarcastic taunts of the victors, but to parade, baited, naked over a muddy field to the banks of the shallow mill stream to submerge their tender, fly-white bodies in the icy waters.

Why the swim? Because the fortunate classes' appetites for medieval torture must be sated. Of course, because of better bath-

SEMI-FINALS FEATURE ROSE CITY'S BEST AND PAIR OF DARK HORSES

Clemes Second In Oratory Contest

Bill Clemes of Willamette university received second place and a prize of seven dollars and a half in the men's division of the State Old Line Oratorical contest held on the campus March 10, at 7:30 p. m. The title of Clemes' oration was "Equality."

Glen Faxon of Oregon State college was awarded first place in the men's division and a prize of $15 for his oration, "A Spiritual Quest." James Shick of Pacific university was given honorable mention for the oration entitled "In the Name of Education."

In the women's division which was held at 4:30 p. m., Margaret Schoeler of Oregon State college was awarded first and Chrystine Hunter of Linfield college was given second.

Profs Are Judges

Judges for the contest were forensic directors of their respective institutions.

Dr. Helen Pearce and Dean F. M. Erickson, both of the Willamette faculty, were chairmen respectively for the women's and men's divisions.

The Old Line contest is an annual contest and is sponsored by the Intercollegiate Forensic Association of Oregon whose purpose is "to promote the art of public speaking by providing intercollegiate competition in oratory and extempore speaking." Members of the association are Pacific college, Linfield college, Oregon State college, Willamette university, University of Portland, Pacific university.

Anderson to Talk On Spanish War

Gus Anderson, world traveler and lecturer and graduate of Willamette university, will present one hour of moving pictures, accompanied by lectures in the high school auditorium March 22 at 8 o'clock. The pictures are an eyewitness story by Mr. Anderson of events in Spain happening during the present Civil war there. His lecture is entitled, "The Uncivil War in Spain."

Mr. Anderson's appearance is sponsored by the Latin-German club of Salem high school. Admission for the appearance is 10 and 15 cents.

Gus Anderson is remembered by many Willamette students for the interesting and humorous chapel talks which he has given at different times in the past. He has returned many times to give accounts of his travels.

When Mr. Anderson last appeared at the university he was in the employ of a large English steamship company in the capacity of leader of world tours and excursions.

Dean-Dahl In East

According to a telegram received last week Mrs. H. E. South of Minneapolis, Minn., sister of Dean Dahl, had died suddenly from a heart attack.

After receipt of the telegram, Dean Dahl left immediately for her sister's home to attend the funeral services.

Faculty Changes Made By Trustees Group To Take Effect In Fall

At the mid-year meeting of the Willamette university trustees recently, a few faculty changes, to take effect next fall, were made. Miss Edith Dehse, assistant professor of modern languages, resigned, as did Mrs. J. A. Mills who has been manager of Lausanne Hall for many years, and Mrs. Etta Westenhousen Judd, assistant librarian now on leave.

W. C. Jones was promoted from associate professor to professor of business administration and C. F. Luther was promoted from associate professor to professor of mathematics. William Mosher, a graduate of Willamette in '34 and who is now taking graduate work at Oregon State college, was elected assistant in chemistry.

Bellfountain and Mac-hi Quintets Threats for Championship

Out of a maze of flying arms and legs and a mailstrom of bouncing, swishing casabas, four basketball teams, the best the state can produce, have made their way into the semi-final of the eighteenth annual hoop tournament now in progress in the Willamette gymnasium.

The four teams, Franklin and Lincoln, Portland's representatives, McLoughlin high from Milton-Freewater, and tiny Bellfountain from the hills of Benton county, will swing into the semi-final games tonight to determine who will draw spots in the Titanic championship struggle slated for tomorrow evening.

Quakers vs. Bellfountain

Portland prep league champions, and conqueror of the pre-tournament favorite, Eugene, Franklin Quakers take on the Bellfountain Giant Killers, champions of the state's "B" schools in the first game tonight.

Immediately following McLoughlin, the surprise team of the meet, tackles Lincoln's rugged Cardinals.

Betting odds favor slightly the Portland quintet, indicating a possible all-Portland final. However, with dope being spilled on every side, no one of the four outfits would be a sure bet for a victory tonight.

Hardest Driver

The Quaker-Bellfountain mix brings together the tournament's hardest driving team, Franklin, which seems to play no set style of offense but hits a high average of shots, and the slow, methodical lads from the tiny Benton county school.

Both teams boast players with all-state potentialities. For Bellfountain, Dick Kessler and Harry Wallace stand out in every game. Though he yields some ground in height to most of his opponents, Kessler has proved himself capable of competing on better than even terms with any center in the meet.

Wallace Feeder

Wallace is the feeder of the team and is an exceptional shot himself.

Franklin's best are Oliver and Kremer, two high scoring, close checking forwards.

Whether McLoughlin can penetrate the Lincoln zone defense to outpoint the low scoring Railsplitters is the big question of the second contest. In their first two encounters the Cardinals allowed but seventeen and fifteen points, respectively, but in McLoughlin they are meeting one of the smoothest working outfits on the floor.

Fisk vs. Sitton

Paced by slippery "Jiggs" Fisk, a good bet for all-state honors, McLoughlin should cause Coach Wright's aggregation plenty of trouble. The game should bring out an interesting duel between Lincoln's star forward, Leo Sitton, and the illustrious Fisk.

As that battle goes, so probably will go the game. Friday afternoon's games lined Chiloquin and Eugene, Ashland and Salem. Those four teams remain in the battle for fourth place.

McMinnville and Astoria appear the best teams in the consolation bracket.

Willamette Collegian

Official Publication A. S. W. U.
Subscription rate $1.00 per year

Entered at the Postoffice at Salem, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

Editor.....ROSS GLADDEN
Managing Editor.....EDWIN MINNEMAN
Manager.....WARREN PETERS
Assistant Manager.....MARGARET MAGEE

Associate Editor.....JAMES FOWLER
Sports Editor.....BOB KEUSCHER
Assistant.....DAN MOSSES, JERRY STONE
Girls' Sports.....ANTOINETTE IRISH
Society Editor.....HELEN PURVINE
Assistant.....BETTY TAYLOR, BARBARA CROOKHAM
Exchange Editor.....EUGENE HILL
Club News Editor.....MARGARET TAYLOR
Alumni Editor.....FAYE SPARKS
Proof Reader.....BILL BURGERT
Reporters.....MARGARET GILLETTE, BILL CLEMES, JOHN VOSS, BETTY DOTSON, MARY FRONK, ROGER MILLER, BILL DE SOUSA, MORRELL CRARY, CORA DAVIS, FRANCES SMITH, PAULINE WINSLOW, GEORGE LAVATTA, ALDUS SMITH, JOHN MINNEMAN, ABE HAGIWARA, LAWRENCE GUDERIAN.

Editorial and Business offices, Basement Waller Hall. Phone 3088.

Alumni News

OFFICERS FOR 1936-37
President.....Hugh McGilvra, '28
First Vice-President.....Pat Emmons, '31
Second Vice-President.....John L. Gary, '16
Third Vice-President.....Harold Hauk, '30
Secretary-Treasurer.....Fay Sparks, '25
Executive Committee Members-at-Large
Mrs. Ellen Fisher, '09, Mary Parounagian, '19, Walter Erickson, '33

NECROLOGY
Services were held at Marshfield, March 2, for Mrs. Charles T. Nunn, 34, who died in a Coos Bay hospital February 28. Mrs. Nunn, who was Ruth Hewitt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jasper L. Hewitt of Estacada, was graduated from Willamette in 1926. She was a member of Beta Chi Sorority of Adelante, Theta Alpha Phi, and of Beta Chi Alpha, in addition to being active in other campus activities.

In 1929 she was married to Charles Nunn, Willamette graduate with the class of 1926. They have lived in Marshfield the past seven years, where Mr. Nunn is publisher of the Southwestern Daily News. Mrs. Nunn was active in civic affairs in Marshfield and was recently chosen president of the local unit of the American Association of University Women. She was a past president of the Coos Bay Business and Professional Women's club.

Final rites were held at the Hopewell community church and interment was made in the family plot there. Rev. Fred C. Taylor, formerly of Salem and now of Portland, officiated.

Mrs. Myrtle Hannon Hollingsworth, wife of J. B. Hollingsworth, well-known Corvallis mortician, died February 26 at the family home after an extended illness. She was born in 1888. She attended school in Goldendale, Wash., and later entered Willamette university, where she was graduated in 1909.

Mrs. Hollingsworth was a member of the W. C. T. U.; St. Mary's chapter, O. E. S.; First Methodist church; American Association of University Women; Corvallis Mothers' club; Winema chapter, D. A. R.; and the Alpha Rebekah lodge.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Beven and Robert; her father, David Hannon of Vancouver, Wash., and a sister, Mrs. Leo B. Kyes of Seattle.

Services were held in Corvallis, and interment was made in the family plot at Newberg.

David Cameron, three months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barber (Margaret Faxon) died in Portland. A twin sister survives.

Dr. William W. Allen, a practitioner in Mill City for 21 years, died there February 20. Dr. Allen was born in Porterville, Calif., in 1876. He spent two years at the University of California before coming to Oregon in 1899. He was graduated from Willamette university medical school in 1905. He practiced at Jefferson, Oregon, seven years before moving to Mill City.

Dr. Allen was president of the Mill City State bank, past president of the Marion-Polk Medical society; a member of the Mill City school board for 20 years, and a member of Al Kader temple, Mill City Masons, and Salem Elks and L. O. O. F.

His wife, Mildred Looney, whom he married in 1907, survives, together with three children, Marian and Robert of Mill City, and Jack, a student at the University of Oregon.

PERSONALS

Word has been received by Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Utter (Alma Pohle, '12), of Salem, that their son Robert has been placed on the faculty of the University of Southern California for two classes in Principles of Government Administration.

Robert, who was graduated from Willamette in '36, was the first Willamette graduate to receive a scholarship from U. of S. C. In June he will receive the degree of Master of Science in Public Administration. This June will also be the 25th reunion of his mother's class of 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan Broek (Ruth Helneck, '26), and daughter are now living in Berkeley, California, where Mr. Broek has been teaching in the university. They returned early last summer from Holland where they spent several years in Utrecht and Bithoven. Last summer they were in Iowa where Mr. Broek was a member of the state university teaching staff. They expect to return there next fall.

Dr. C. Gilbert Wrenn, '26, faculty member of University of Minnesota, has been designated by that institution to begin soon a speaking tour of the states as far south as Florida. While in that state he will visit his parents.

Dr. W. B. Morse, '31, prominent Salem physician and surgeon, showed his motion picture films of Death Valley and adjacent California points as the special program feature for the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club session recently. He told of his visit through the famous castle of "Death Valley Scotty."

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Price (Roberta Mills, '34), were recent Salem visitors at the home of Mrs. Price's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills. The Prices live in Camas, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schreiber, '26, and '35, left for a two weeks' vacation in California.

Frank B. Bennett, '21, superintendent of Tillamook schools and president of the Oregon State School Superintendents, spoke at the last local Marion county teachers' institute which was held at Stayton.

Howard W. George, '23, Stayton superintendent, led the high school department session.

J. Fred McGrew, '22, head of speech and debate at Fresno State Teachers' college, spoke before the Salem Twenty-Third club last week, outlining the United States supreme court issue. McGrew's debate team appeared earlier in the day at the Ad club meeting.

Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, (Josephine Albert), '31, placed second in the contralto division of the state-wide concert sponsored by the National Federated Music clubs in Portland.

She was contralto soloist with the full Portland symphony orchestra under the direction of Dr. Willem van Hoogstraten in the final concert of the winter series. April 5, she will be guest artist for the Salem philharmonic symphony orchestra.

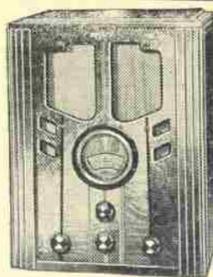

ALUMNI MEET AFTER GLEE

About 100 alumni met informally in the Carrier Room of the First Methodist church after the "Glee," March 6. In the unavoidable absence of Hugh McGilvra, '28, association president, Dr. Guy A. Woods, '11, former president, presided, calling upon faculty trustees, and alumni for brief messages.

Refreshments were served by the Salem Raptistarians, a group of Salem Willamette alumni.

PROFESSOR KIRK

It is with deep regret that the alumni learn of the passing of Professor William E. Kirk. He was indeed a "scholar, gentleman, and teacher," and a friend, who, in his quiet way, devoted the best years of his life to us who sincerely appreciate his tireless efforts, keen personal interest, and kind patience.

PHILCO

It's the value sensation of the year... this new American and Foreign Philco 61B! A powerful, fine-tuned Baby Grand, with Philco Foreign Tuning System, Color Dial, Tone Control, Electro-Dynamic Speaker and many other big features. Beautiful new cabinet. Come in—see and hear it—and get our EASY TERMS!

*Sold only with Philco High-Efficiency Aerial to insure greatest foreign reception.

Easy Terms Phone 5560

Watches - Diamonds
THE JEWEL BOX
443 State St.
Between High and Liberty
Salem, Oregon

CAPITOL THEATRE
BARBER SHOP
"EARL" & "BUCK" Barbers
550 State Street

Murmurs of the Old Millstream

"Orals are nothing to worry about," says the typical senior. "Why get myself in a lather about something almost as far off as graduation itself?" Now we find that we have not been efficient. Dates and committees are set and posted. Catastrophe has overtaken us.

Which reminds us that Talbot Bennett, junior law student, has evaded the exacting oral committee for two years, and with boundless optimism for the third escape. Bennett majored in political science in his liberal arts days. The first year, his third in liberal arts, he was too busy playing tennis and forgot to study for his oral. The second year he was too busy studying law and this year he's decided to wait until next year when, he hopes, the day of orals will be no more.

Speaking of exams, those for the six weeks period are practically over. Some instructors become kind hearted this time of year and forget about second six weeks tests. So bear up, fellow oppressed. If the problem is considered from the right angle all it amounts to is hanging "tough" until the second week in June.

Last week's student body party was our idea of a social success. Decorations, floor, music—all met with our distinct approval and we feel we aren't alone. If the committee is looking for glory, they should please take note. This is probably the closest they'll come to it. We're saying nothing about the green ties and punch, which we couldn't even get near.

There is a rumor about that the pretty green fence with which the committee tried, most ineffectually, to keep the members of the orchestra, in their places, now graces a fraternity house. The theory is that it will be used to keep recalcitrant first year men inside at their books for a change. All we can say is that if it doesn't work in its new capacity any better than it served to keep the orchestra from tooting their horns all over the floor, it won't do much more good than we expected.

The thing that surprised us was that the hall was not more crowded. It was estimated before the party that not more than half of the student body would attend. There didn't appear to be more than a third or a fourth of it that put in an appearance.

It appears that student body parties have reached the doubtful level which affords them the opportunity of being crashed by representatives of Salem High. The situation is, indeed, a dubious compliment and the next representatives in similar capacity will probably get slung out on their necks. Thus saith the sage.

If late comment can be pardoned this once, it seems generally accepted that the pre-competition singing at the recent glee was "not too good." We don't know just whose fault it was. Either the seniors did not lead strongly enough or the other classes forgot their humble positions. Anyway, the lack of vocal unity was obvious.

Another class has been initiated into the wearing of caps and gowns. The first time is probably more of a collective shock for the seniors than any they receive during the year. Steve Anderson is graduating all right. The book store just didn't have enough mortar boards to go around and Anderson did not feel that his dignified position warranted marching down the aisle garbed in a gown without a top piece. He might have been able to swipe Swisher's when it fell off on the way back toward the exit.

The location of the new library seems pretty well fixed, just about over the present site of Cresto. Cresto goes over between Lausanne Hall and Science Hall. That will be quite a job in itself. But we wonder what's going to become of the May week and Grecian theater. The movement of some of those pillars required the expert service of the capitol building wrecking crew with tractors, hoists, and cranes. Yet, after being used only twice, it'll probably all have to be done again.

Law students report lessons lighter this week. Dean Roy Lockenour was too busy and forgot to come to a class this week. In liberal arts the occurrence would probably not be worthy of comment. But in law school, say law students, things are different. No one we know "talks" as

WEIDER'S SALEM LAUNDRY CO.

Dry Cleaning

Phone 9125 263 South High

Drs. Morse, Robertson, Power, Buren and Robertson
Physicians and Surgeons
Phone 3123 Guardian Bldg.

JAQUETH MUSIC CO.
COMPLETE MUSICAL NEEDS
260 North High Street

SHOE REPAIRING
SHINING — DYING
HAT CLEANING and BLOCKING

THE SHYNE SHOP
147 N. High Ph. 7000

HARTMAN BROS. Jewelers
Gifts for All Occasions
Corner State and Liberty

Ask for...
MEADOW GROVE DAIRY
FARM FRESH PRODUCTS
Reick Bros. 116 Call 85F11

LADD & BUSH BANKERS
SALEM, OREGON
Established in 1868
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

WHEN ORDERING PRINTING CALL—
KRAPPS AND LONG PRINTERS
370 1/2 State Street
TELEPHONE 8594

POMEROY & KEENE Jewelers
379 State St.

A Quart of Milk Tastes Better when found in a PAR VAY MILKSHAKE at PARKER'S

Whether it's SCHOOL SUPPLIES or MILKSHAKES
WOOLPERT & LEGG
Corner Court and Liberty

Willett's
CAPITAL DRUG STORE
QUALITY ALWAYS WINS
Corner of State and Liberty

Hussey's RED CROSS PHARMACY
— DRUGS —
Phone 4804

FOR ENERGY AND VITALITY EAT

Master Bread

"The Toast of the Town"

Baked by Master Bakers in a CLEAN Bakery

Cap and Gown Entertains at Formal Dinner

Members of Cap and Gown entertained last Thursday evening at Godfrey's with their annual formal dinner honoring the seven freshman girls whose first semester grades were the highest in their class. The guests this year were Miss Dorothy Wright, Miss Verna Vosper, Miss Olive Clemes, Miss Beverly Brown, Miss Margaret Uphohn, Miss Cora Davis and Miss Dorothea Kletzing.

The decorative scheme was worked out in green and white, and the centerpiece of the two tables were of daffodils.

Miss Constance Smart, president of Cap and Gown, presided as toastmistress, or Keeper of the Winda. Toasts were made by Mrs. Paul Ellis, on the north wind; Miss Beverly Brown, on whirlwinds; and Dr. Pearce, on the Chinook wind.

Faculty guests included Mrs. Oppen, Mrs. Ellis, Miss Fowler, Miss Eness, Miss Lattimer, Miss Orwig, Miss Morange and Dr. Pearce. Miss Harriett Adams, a former member of Cap and Gown, was an additional guest.

Members of Cap and Gown who acted as hostesses were the Misses Constance Smart, Miss Gwen Galbraith, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Julia Johnson, and Miss Lucile Brainard.

Y. W. C. A. Gives Chresto Tea

Members of the faculty and student body were guests at an informal tea given by the Y. W. in Chresto last Wednesday afternoon from three to five. The affair was one of a number given in the joint social schedule of the Y. W. and student body, with Miss Julia Philip in charge.

Chresto was colorfully decorated for the event with daffodils and other spring flowers.

Miss Lucile Brainard and Miss Lillian Graham presided during the two hours, and freshman and sophomore members of the Y. W. served.

Miss Charlotte Litchfield was in charge of the tea. Her committees included: Decorations, Miss Marguerite Smith; music, Miss La Verne Homyer and Miss Belle Brown; kitchen, Miss Jean Laud-erback, Miss Betty Dotson and Miss Margaret Gillette.

Miss Esther Nelson, who has been recuperating from typhoid fever at her home in Myrtle Point, was a visitor at the Delta Phi house last Sunday and Monday.

ANABEL'S BEAUTY SHOPPE
SPECIALTIES IN ALL LINES OF BEAUTY WORK
Phone 5859 428 Court St.

for SUITS - COATS and Dresses
KAY'S DRESS SHOP
460 State Street Salem

Easter Flowers

A Choice Selection at

"FROSTY" OLSON

Salem's Bearcat Florist

Court and High Streets

KENNEL - ELLIS

Artistic Photographers

Official Photographers
1937 Wallulah

420 Oregon Bldg.

Phone 7830

BRENNAN BEAUTY SALON

MARY BRENNAN

Individual Hair Styling

228 Oregon Building

Phone 3925

SOCIETY

Helen Purvine, Editor

Assistants
Betty Taylor and Barbara Crookham

Shakespeare and Saint Patrick Dinner Themes

The advent of Shakespeare on the campus and the proximity of spring vacation brought on renewed social life during the last week.

Members of Sigma Tau fraternity entertained with a novel dinner preceding the presentation of "Twelfth Night" Friday evening. George LaVatta, in charge of arrangements, carried out a Shakespearean motif.

The table was centered with a bouquet of pink carnations and daffodils beneath an arch of three crossed swords. The guests' placecards, bearing a scarlet ribbon addressed each co-ed in chivalric terms; the placecards of the hosts were declarations of knighthood bearing miniature swords. Several volumes of Shakespeare lay open on the table. After dinner the group attended the play.

Honored guests included Dean and Mrs. Daniel Schulze, the Misses Helene Trulsen, Annette Jordan, Kay Ringe, Wanda Landon, Betty Savage, Marian Averill, Alene Fairclough, Barbara Chapler, June Charboneau and Dorothy Wright.

Hosts were Bill Miller, Talbot Bennett, Bob Farmer, Ridgeley Miller, LeRoy Casey, Winthrop Henderson, Oren McDowell, Otto Wilson, Buzzy Hagedorn, and Frank Shephard.

Sunday afternoon freshman

Y. W. Elections Held Soon

The nominations for next year's officers of the campus Y.W.C.A. were announced Tuesday by the nominating committee, which consists annually of the senior member on the retiring Y. W. cabinet. Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, who has served as vice-president during the last year, is the unopposed nominee for president. Other nominations include: Vice-president, Miss Suzanne Curtis and Miss Patience Priesting; secretary, Miss Leone Burdick, Miss June Brasted, and Miss Betty Williams; and treasurer, Miss Barbara Chapler, Miss Olive Clemes and Miss Belle Brown.

Senior members of the Y. W. cabinet included Miss Helen Burdick, Miss Julia Johnson, Miss Helen Purvine, Miss Marian Wakefield, and Miss Julia Philip.

The election of officers will take place early in the first week after spring vacation. The annual Y. W. retreat to the beach (Neskowin) will take place the week end of April 9, at which time the new officers will assume their duties.

members and pledges of Alpha Psi Delta entertained at dinner. A Saint Patrick's Day motif was carried out in the decorations, with a centerpiece of daffodils with green candles on either side. Shamrock leaves were scattered about the table, there were Shamrocks on the placecards, and even the napkins were green. A green color scheme throughout the menu completed the decorations, and each guest was presented with a potted Shamrock in tinsel.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Schulze acted as chaperones, and the guests included Miss Mary Conlin, Miss Mildred Pederson, Miss Verna Vosper, Miss Helene Trulsen, Miss Ruth Kellogg, Miss Eleanor Sherman and Miss Wilma Rosenbalm.

Hosts were Robert Jones, Dan Moses, Cecil Quessoth, Calvin Ritchie, Kenneth Hunt, Harold Hutchinson and Sam Kyle.

Announcement Made At Dinner

Coming as a surprise to his friends at Willamette was the news of the engagement of George McAllister to Miss Mona Starbuck of Portland, which was announced by Miss Starbuck at a party in Portland and by Mr. McAllister at dinner at the Alpha Psi house Monday night, with the usual passing of long, black cigars.

Miss Starbuck is a graduate of Washington High School in Portland with the class of 1933 and is residing there now. Mr. McAllister is a junior in the Willamette Law School; he is manager of Alpha Psi Delta this year.

The couple plan to be married in August, but the exact date has not yet been decided upon. Following their marriage, they will live in Salem, and Mr. McAllister will complete his work at Willamette.

Future Music Program Given

A twilight music hour will be the occasion for a series of short informal programs this spring to be given by members of Phi Delta Mu, newly organized piano club on the campus. These programs will be a daily feature of National Music Week and will include solo and ensemble work in comprehensive scope. A commentator will speak concerning the compositions played and will answer as far possible questions which may be asked. It is thought in this way to stimulate more general interest and understanding of serious piano music on the campus. If there is a demand, a question box and request numbers will be included in the program. Tea will be served by the social committee of Phi Delta Mu.

Junior Piano Recitals to be given late in April will be presented by Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, and Miss Ina Bennett. Miss Mary Virginia Nohlgren will assist in the ensemble numbers.

Sophomore examination for entrance to upper division work toward the Bachelor of Music degree in piano will be given the last of May and will be open to the public. Candidates for the examination are Miss Belle Brown, Miss Mary Virginia Nohlgren, and Miss Jean Rasey.

Coach and Mrs. Roy S. Keene entertained members of the Willamette basketball squad at dinner last week at the Keene home on Lefelle street.

Covers were placed for Dr. Bruce Baxter, Gerald Gastineau, Walter Weaver, Charles Versteeg, Laurence Nuttencamp, Basil Anton, Bill Beard, Harry Mosher, Verdell Ragsdale, Bryce Logan, Don Brandon, Oscar Specht, Jack Aiton, Ewald Franz and Coach Keene.

Alpha Psi Delta announces the pledging of Walter Rush, Jr., of Salem, and Harold Hutchinson of The Dalles.

Alpha Phi's Give Dinners Last Week

Saturday night preceding Freshman Glee members of Alpha Phi Alpha honored their alumnae with a delightful informal dinner at the Quelle at 5:30. The tables were lovely with centerpieces of daffodils, red carnations, and acacia, flanked with red tapers in crystal holders. Miss Rachael Yocom was toastmistress. Honor guests were Mrs. Charles Wilson, and her mother, Mrs. W. H. Riddell, and Mrs. Mary Johnson. Alumnae present were Miss Betty Ogden, Astoria, Miss Estel Chaney, Wheeler; Mrs. Floyd Albin, Portland; the Misses Mildred Drager, Ashland; Lorraine Sheldon, Seattle; Helen Knight, Hubbard; Vernita Van Fleet, Portland; Mrs. William Mosher, Corvallis; Mrs. George Van Natta, St. Helens; Miss Hazel Nauhouse, St. Helens; Mrs. Roy Harland, Mrs. Waldo Bellar and the Misses Velleda Ohmart, Helen Briet-haupt, and Harriet Adams. Members present were Mrs. Geo. Vehrs, the Misses Esther Vehrs, Lorna Barham, Arias Jones, Betty Galloway, Jeanette Brown and her mother, Mrs. E. A. Brown, Rose Ann Gibson, Genevieve Selander, Marjorie Jones, Helen Hammond, Lunelle Chapin, Ruth Yocom, Kay Thompson, Norma Fuller, Anoka Coates, Margaret Engdahl, Dorothy Moore, Betty Williams and her mother, Mrs. F. W. Rosen-treter, and grandmother, Mrs. Ryder, and Miss Rachael Yocom.

Last Friday night members of Alpha Phi Alpha were hostesses for an informal "St. Patrick's Day" party at the house. After an evening of dancing, refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Norma Fuller, Kay Thompson, Rae Yocom, Ruth Yocom, Helen Hammond, Helen Peterson, Lunelle Chapin, Margaret Engdahl, Muriel Stewart, Betty Taylor, Betty Williams, Barbara Kurtz. Escorts were Art Gallon, Everett Clark, Norman Hogansen, Ed Howell, Bob L. Smith, Francis Schmidt, Bruce Carkin, Tom Stacer, Ervin Potter, Verdell Ragsdale, Charles Bieker, Bob O. Smith and Harlan Sheldon.

Houses Sing—Or Something

Entertaining the living organizations of the campus last Saturday night in the wee small hours were the Delta Phi's and the Alpha Psi's, who joined to give a serenade. Soon after the student body dance, members and pledges of both houses met at the sorority and loaded bus and car. No serious mishaps were reported except perhaps the tumbling of one Alpha Psi piano and the difficulties in arousing one president. After the caroling, butterhorns, cocoa and the candy received were served as refreshments at the fraternity, and dancing to the radio was enjoyed. Mrs. F. A. Well served as chaperone.

Those serenading were the Misses Eleanor Sherman, Helene Trulsen, Barbara Crookham, Anna May Unrath, Mary Jeannette Sargent, Dolly Dingle, Dorline Wilson, Barbara Chapler, Win-fred Gardner, Kay Ringe, June Brasted, Vivian Noth, June Armstrong, Jean Bartlett, Virginia Moore, Enid Wittingham, Marian Steigerwald, Lois Burton and Ruth Tacharnier; and the Alpha Psi's, Victor Crow, Warner Crow, Harry Mosher, John Kelly, Wayne Brainard, Bill Anton, Jerry Gattineau, Dwight Aden, Joe Blanchard, George McLeod, Bob Yeo, Cal Ritchie, Fred Sanders, Steve Anderson, Corliss Betty, Louis Herabberger, Henry Frantz, Guy Helmsouth, Dan Moses, Cecil Quesseth, Frank Guerin, Maynard McKinley, Keith Matthews and Everett Gary.

A. S. W. U. Dance Is Successful

The first recognized student body dance was a great success last Saturday evening when in spite of other social events many couples and stags turned out to dance to the music of Dick Chaney of Corvallis and his wandering orchestra.

Talbot Bennett, Bill Miller and Steve Anderson were in charge of arrangements, assisted by Dick Van Pelt, Helen Olds, Betty Lins, Kay Thompson, Barbara Crookham and Tom Gabriel.

Decorations featured the Irish, and especially attractive were the large paintings of Irish figures done by Betty Lane. Flood lights were shaded by green top hats, and the wall lights carried smaller hats. Shamrocks further decorated the walls.

Green punch was served during the intermission, while the Lorraine Hall trio, composed of Durine Wilson, Barbara Chapler and Betty Savage sang several numbers.

"Spec" and Mrs. Keene acted as chaperones.

Mr. Cecil Schaurman of Yakima was a visitor of Sigma Tau fraternity over the week end.

Miller's Basement

QUALITY PLUS LOW PRICES

Serges and Other Worsteds

SUITS

9⁸⁴ to 12⁸⁴

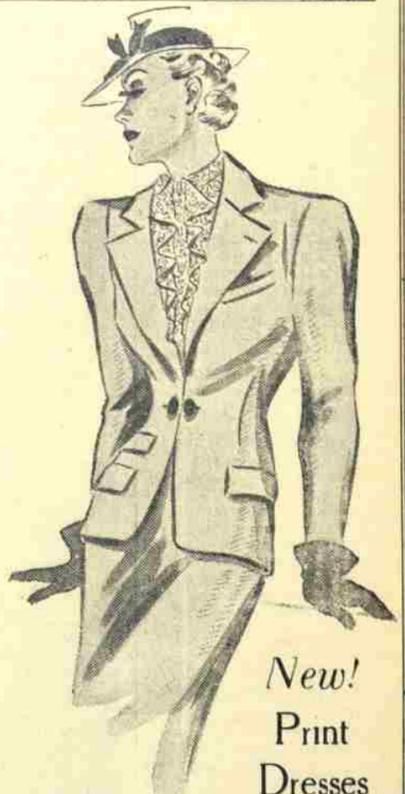

It's a "SUIT" season! And these smartly fashioned worsteds are going places! New greys in platinum, lead or oxford. Navy blue and brown. Plain tailored... button thru models just as you'd have them tailored to order. Also jigger suits in this showing at the above prices.

—Basement Apparel Sections

New COATS

7.84 to 9.84

Have you seen these lovely new light colored Spring coats? In natural beige, tan, crown jewel blues, red earth, etc. Also Jigger coats as low as $7.84.—Shop Miller's Basement for excellent ready-to-wear values.

New! Print Dresses

4.84 - 5.84 - 7.84

A galaxy of prints which embrace all the new spaced patterns as well as the brilliant four color prints of smaller design. Be sure to see these new frocks... you'll save money and still have the smartest of frock fashions.

—Basement

New Blouses 98c

New suit blouses are here! Rayons, crepes, plain and printed ones! Also washable cotton shirts for suits. These come in all the wanted shades.

—Basement

RAYON PANTIES 19c and 25c

Shop the basement lingerie sections for the best values in rayon panties!

Brassieres 25c, 49c

Good quality brassieres in the new uplift fashions here at small cost.

PURE SILK HOSE

59c, 2 prs. $1

Silk from top to toe! First quality chiffon with reinforced heels and soles for better service. Picot tops. All the shades including the bronzes and greys.

—Basement

New Straw Bretons

1.59 and 1.79

Your Easter bonnet is here... if you'd like smart style plus low price! All the new straws and felts in the smartest of Spring shades.

—Basement

Prospects For Nine, Pathmen Begin Practice

Hot Battles Promised For Positions On Diamond Aggregation

With the advent of spring weather, candidates for the baseball squad, defending Oregon intercollegiate diamond champions, and Coach "Les" Sparks' tracksters have begun regular workouts in preparation for the 1937 season in those sports.

With galaxies of material, most of which is untried in college competition, on hand, battles for spots on Keene's baseball nine are sure to be red-hot. Graduation has left vacancies at first base, shortstop, and in the box. Regulars from last year at several other positions face struggles to maintain their places.

Outstanding prospects for the mound staff are two of last year's aces—Jerry Gastineau and Walt Weaver—and two rookies—Tom Hager, who hung up a remarkable record in Nevada prep circles last year, and Jack Criswell, the only southpaw on the staff. Larry Nunnenkamp who hurled some last year may make the grade. Don Burch and George Erickson are the missing regulars from the '36 outfit.

Catchers are Dick Weisgerber, Hal Moe, Andy Van Otten, and "Fat" McRae. "Weisy" and Moe were the regular mittmen last season.

The big problem in the infield is to fill Kenny Manning's shoes at first base. Whether one of the following can do the job is questionable—Bill Anton, Oscar Specht, Frank "Goose" Guerin, Criswell, the pitcher, Doug Olds, a freshman, and Nunnenkamp. It is rumored that Bill Beard, star third sacker, may be shifted to the initial sack if none of the above comes through.

At second base Billy Sutton and Rex Pierce, alternates last year, seem to have the job cinched, though the latter possibly may be shifted to first.

At shortstop, the sensational-fielding Vinnie Hariman is gone, but Gordon "Dutch" Williamson and Dwight Catherwood, two smooth rookies, are expected to handle the job capably.

Beard may have plenty of competition at third from Les Shinn, hard hitting frosh from Baker, and Roy Orren.

In the outfield there is sure to be a dog-fight for starting posts. Regulars back are Dwight "Elmer" Adin and Verdell Ragsdale, Buzz Hagedorn, speedy fly chaser from Grant of Portland, Lynn Southard, from eastern Oregon with the reputation of never having been out-hit in any league; Stan Eland, Portland, and several others will be in the race.

State Champions Defeat Bearcats Second Round

Southern Oregon Normal Outclasses Field To Win Denver Trip

Running up against something of an anti-climax from their brilliant conference season, Willamette's Bearcats lost out in the second round of the A. A. U. meet in Portland, March 5, when Southern Oregon Normal, the quint which eventually won the state title and the trip to the national meet in Denver, spilled the Keenemen 41 to 31.

The Cardinal and Gold five downed Albany 38-30 in the first contest, with Gastineau, Anton and Weaver leading the way.

Scores of the meet: Eugene 31, The Dalles 23; Packards 43, Multnomah 38; Mantle club 54, Longview 45; Medford 22, Bradford 26; Willamette 38, Albany 30; S. O. N. S. 42, Mt. Angel 37; O. N. S. 54, Pacific 21; Portland 37, Linfield 20.

Packards 34, Eugene 33; Mantle Club 38, Bradford 32; Portland 37, O. N. S. 32; S.O.N.S. 41, Willamette 31; Packards 35, Mantle Club 24; Portland 27, S.O.N.S. 37; S.O.N.S. 37, Packards 31.

Bearcat scores: Willamette (38) (30) Albany Gastineau 9 ..F..... 6 Lyon Nunnenkamp 5 F..... 4 Garland Anton 8 ..C..... 4 Peterson Weaver 7 ..G..... 4 Haviland Versteeg 4 ..G..... 3 Decker Beard 2 ..S..... 2 Pete Mosher 3 ..S..... 1 Russell whose basketball quint concluded its season last week in the state A. A. U. meet. Keene coached his squad to 21 wins against only seven losses. The quintet won the conference crown without a loss and defeated Oregon State this year.

SUCCESSFUL HOOP SEASON COMPLETED

WEAVER VERSTEEG ANTON GASTINEAU NUNNENKAMP

COACH ROY S. KEENE

COACH LESTLE SPARKS

whose freshman basketball team won 19 games and lost 15 this season. The team finished fourth in the city league competition and downed some of the best high school teams of the valley. One member of the five, Cecil Quesseth, was named to the all-city league team.

Quesseth Makes All-Star Team

Bearkitten Star Only Man Chosen From Lower 5's

Though he appeared in stature to be a "mouse among elephants" and played against players who the most part had a great edge on him as far as experience goes, little Cecil Quesseth, star forward of "Les" Sparks' Freshman hoop five won a place on the annual City-Y Major League all-star team announced last week.

QUESETH

"Cece" was the only player from the lower division clubs named, the other seven spots going to men from the strong General Finance and Grand Theater teams.

The all-star team for the major and minor leagues were: Major forwards, Quesseth, Frosh; Kitehen, Grand; Morley, Grand; centers, Averill, Grand; Steelham, Grand; General; guards, Gemmill, Grand; Dick, General; Erickson, General. Minor—forwards, Causey, Paper; Ritchie, Bank; Summers, Liberty; centers, Gentskow, Paper; Forgard, Safeway; guards, Lewis, Paper; Allison, Safeway; Steinke, Bank.

The Season's Summary

Cecil Quesseth and Bill Anton led their respective teams in scoring for the 1936-37 hoop season, figures compiled this week by Paul Sturges, varsity statistician, and Bob Keuscher, Collegian sports editor, show.

Anton scored 224 points in 28 contests to lead the varsity. The big center made 89 field goals and sank 46 free throws to lead in those departments. His 64 personal fouls gave him "honors" in that column. Highest "batting average" on his shots for the regulars went to Larry Nunnenkamp with .293. The best shooting record on the team was made by "Rosy" Specht, a reserve, who hit four of his eight shots for a .500 average. The team outscored its opponents 1986 to 810.

Quesseth rang up 246 counters to lead the Freshman quintet. The diminutive forward tossed in 101 field goals in 411 attempts, made 44 free throws, and played in 33 games to lead in each field. Buzzy Hagedorn had the most personals, 52. Highest "batting average" of the regulars was made by.....

Player	AFG	FG	Pct.	FT	PF	TP
Anton	223	89	278	46	64	224
Gastineau	269	71	304	17	23	159
Weaver	215	47	219	48	49	137
Versteeg	192	55	1286	36	48	138
Nunnenkamp	99	29	293	38	43	106
Mosher	169	81	784	16	28	78
Beard	192	84	338	4	22	72
Brandon	38	17	316	10	16	54
Anton	28	8	288	9	12	25
Kelly	19	6	316	1	10	23
Specht	8	4	306	2	1	10
Palmdale	11	4	364	1	4	9
Logan	12	1	382	1	3	9

Player	AFG	FG	Pct.	FT	PF	TP
Quesseth	191	104	243	44	49	252
Catherwood	111	45	285	11	19	41
McKibbin	38	15	291	5	14	36
Shinn	59	12	249	8	12	32
Pyke	54	11	259	7	10	28
Williamson	37	7	412	2	3	17
Kyle	28	2	351	6	11	10
Caret	19	5	364	0	2	10
Barstow	21	5	393	0	2	10

Varsity Scores

- W. U. 32, Packards 31.
- W. U. 37, Brudfords 25.
- W. U. 39, Mantle Club 22.
- W. U. 23, Multnomah 32.
- W. U. 31, Oregon State 28.
- W. U. 29, S. Ore. Normal 33.
- W. U. 30, S. Ore. Normal 13.
- W. U. 27, Oregon Normal 38.
- W. U. 35, Mt. Angel 33.
- W. U. 42, Wagner's Ind. 35.
- W. U. 27, Portland U. 24.
- W. U. 42, Mt. Angel 25.
- W. U. 31, Union Oh 35.
- W. U. 32, Oregon Normal 41.
- W. U. 39, Portland U. 25.
- W. U. 34, Col. of Idaho 11.
- W. U. 34, Col. of Idaho 25.
- W. U. 28, Puget Sound 25.
- W. U. 43, Puget Sound 28.
- W. U. 18, Union Oh 36.
- W. U. 44, Albany 26.
- W. U. 36, Pacific 18.
- W. U. 32, Whitman 24.
- W. U. 58, Whitman 34.
- W. U. 31, Albany 16.
- W. U. 29, Pacific 27.
- W. U. 38, Albany 39.
- W. U. 31, S. Ore. Normal 41.

Freshman Scores

- Frosh 29, Woodburn 14.
- Frosh 48, St. Helens 25.
- Frosh 31, St. Helens 32.
- Frosh 12, G. Finance 21.
- Frosh 26, U. S. Bank 9.
- Frosh 19, Salem 20.
- Frosh 20, Bellfountain 21.
- Frosh 18, G. Theater 19.
- Frosh 18, Commerce 27.
- Frosh 35, W. U. Cubs 16.
- Frosh 27, O. Paper 30.
- Frosh 27, Tillamook 15.
- Frosh 29, Selo 21.
- Frosh 36, Y. M. C. A. 33.
- Frosh 21, Tillamook 17.
- Frosh 24, V. Motor 22.
- Frosh 19, Thurston 17.
- Frosh 16, G. Finance 37.
- Frosh 23, G. Theater 26.
- Frosh 26, Woodburn 31.
- Frosh 35, Milwaukie 26.
- Frosh 19, O. Paper 24.
- Frosh 25, Salem 18.
- Frosh 26, Silverton 25.
- Frosh 41, Y. M. C. A. 28.
- Frosh 42, Rose City 26.
- Frosh 25, Edison 15.
- Frosh 42, Selo 17.
- Frosh 31, V. Motor 18.
- Frosh 42, Mill City 29.
- Frosh 28, M. C. Townies 16.
- Frosh 33, McMinnville 37.
- Frosh 21, Bellfountain 39.
- Frosh 28, McMinnville 32.

KOLUMN * KOMMENT

By BOB KEUSCHER (Collegian Sports Editor)

How the Northwest conference could use a publicity man of the Paul Sturges type! With few of the schools willing to cooperate by exchanging scores, pictures, and dope on their teams and with newspapers finding little space for conference news, presenting facts on the league has always been a nightmare to sports writers hereabouts. A fine example of the poor cooperation is represented by the trouble with which Sturges compiled his record of conference scoring recently. Letter after letter was necessary to bring in the dope. The newspaper angle can be exemplified by the mixup that occurred over the Albany-Pacific series late in the hoop campaign. The only report of the games were a couple of lines allowed in a Portland daily. But one of the scores was printed incorrectly! Using this report the Collegian printed the final league standings incorrectly.

Here are the official final standings:

Willamette	10	0	1,000
Whitman	7	3	700
Puget Sound	6	4	500
Pacific	3	7	300
Albany	3	7	300
Col. Idaho	1	9	100

With basketball a thing of the past, Coaches Keene and Sparks will turn to their spring sports of baseball and track, respectively. Just what can be expected of the diamond aggregation is pretty much a mystery just now. However, the addition of several rock stars, including Buzzy Hagedorn, outfielder; Lee Shinn, infielder; Gordy Williamson, shortstop; Tom Hager, pitcher; Dwight Catherwood, shortstop; Doug Olds, first baseman; Jack Criswell, pitcher; and Lynn Southard, outfielder, should aid in offsetting graduation losses.

And while speaking of those graduates, two of "Spec's" stars of the past few years are now at the Oakland training camp in sunny California for trials that may lead to positions in the New York Yankee organization. They are Ken "Slug" Manning, first sacker, and Vinnie "Stub" Harriman, sensational shortstop. Others making the trip are two ex-high school flashes, Bill Bevans, Hubbard high hurler, and Bobby Baer, Grant high second baseman, an ex-teammate of Buzz Hagedorn and Dutch Williamson.

Sparks likewise has some promising rookie prospects. They include Chet Varnes, ex-Salem high discus thrower; Bob Jones, former McMinnville hurdler; Justin Weakly, from Camas, a javelin thrower; Jim Johnson, Salem high's speedy quarter-miler last year, and Cal Ritchie, from Taft—a weightlifter.

Another sport—tennis—will soon get started. Coach Sparks announces there will be a frosh racketeer squad this year.

Spring football hasn't been definitely footed but undoubtedly will be worked in somewhere. Lack of ends and tackles seems to be the crying need right now, but a fine list of players will return next year. Here they are: Ends—Weaver, Abbott, Hall; tackles—Billings, Kahle, Srinio; guards—Blake, Yada, Rogers, Becken, Hogenson, Rush; centers—Urell, Waldron, Olds, Peters, Schmidt; backs—Bennett, Weisgerber, Stone, Burnett, Beard, Gallon, Hogg, Shaffer, Densey, Weakley, Mosier, Russell, Frantz.

This human jumping-jack "Leo" Sparks has been showing off on his frosh team in Tom Hager, a baseball-basketball star from Nevada. Tom has simply dazed fans all year with his jumping feats—bating the ball both in and out of the basket. Over at Selo the other evening the baskets were a trifle low and Tom "dunked" the ball for 15 points. He should make "Spec" a valuable man next season.

Others who should make a bid for the varsity are Cece Quesseth, who can play ball in any league, Willard Petris, Bill Wagner, Dwight Catherwood, and Bob Jones. Biggest need of each of the above is lack of height.

One thing that aided the varsity this year is the fact that every man on the team was a scorer and could be counted on for some points each game. If somebody was "off," somebody else was "on." Distribution of the scoring is an important factor in a team's success.

Chloquin and Milwaukie are new teams to tournament competition this year, bringing the number of schools that have taken part here to 28.

BROOKS—SALEM STORE

CHAMPIONS

is one word that covers a lot of territory. So does our clothing for men.

BROOKS' Suits are Perrenial Champions

$29.50
$19.50
$24.50

Includes Our Finest Topcoats and Overcoats Single and Double Breasted

The Brooks Tailored Man Always Stands Out

Mention Darryl Newhouse AT BROOKS CLOTHIERS

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By DAN MOSES

By winning the intramural basketball title this year the Independent A's broke the reign of Kappa Gamma Rho which team has held the title for the past two years. The Kappa's finished in the cellar this year without winning a game all season.

Another outstanding event of the season's play was that Les Sparks, W. U. graduate manager, failed to lead the league in scoring for the first time in seven years. Sparks wound up the season with fourth place in scoring with Dick Weisgerber, Gene Hibbard, and Ralph Gustafson finishing above him in the order named.

This year's season was one of the most interesting in history with a large number of outstanding players many of whom were stars in high school. Among these were Bill Dick of The Dalles and Lee Canessa of Astoria, both of whom received all-state mention in the state basketball tournament; Dick Weisgerber, all-star honors, New Jersey; Gene Hibbard and Jim Pyke of Peking, China; Ralph Gustafson of Portland; Les Sparks and George Erickson, both former Willamette stars; Joe Harvey, former Franklin high of Portland and Willamette varsity player; Bob Vagt, letterman, of Garibaldi; Bob Jones, McMinnville star; Norris Joyce, Vancouver, Wash., letterman; Dale and Roe Crabtree, letterman from Stayton high; Dwight Aden, West Linn high and Willamette player; John Kelly, Roosevelt high of Portland and Willamette varsity; Bill Sutton, letterman of Jefferson high, Portland; Bill McAdam, Palmdale, Calif.; Paul Bennett, Portland; John Densey, letterman, transfer from Eastern Oregon Normal; George Srinio, Clatskanie, letterman; Karl Kahle, West Linn; Bob Keuscher, Salem; Roy Orren, and Hal Moe, former Silverton high stars; and Jiggs Burnett, LaGrande.

Scores of playoff games: Sigma Tau 7—Dunbar 2, Shepherd 1, Gladden 1, Harvey 1, Estes 2; Swishers 32—Hiland 7, Clarke 2, Kahle 8, Pierce 8, Orren 7.

Fish Chokers 16—Srinio 3, Joyce 6, Blake 6, Burnett 1, Densey 1; Swishers 13—Clark 5, Hiland 2, Kahle 2, Orren 3, Pierce 1.

Sigma Tau 26—Dunbar 3, Wilson, Estes 4, Harvey 13, Shepherd 6, Fowler, Gladden; Fish Chokers 35—Canessa 3, Burnett 6, Srinio 6, Phillips, Joyce 10, Densey 3, Blake 7, Waldron.

Swishers 19—Clark 4, Moe 2, Hiland, Orren 6, Kahle 2, Pierce 2; Independent A's 21—Crabtree 4, Hibbard 8, Edwards, Smith 2, Wiewesick.

Fish Chokers 18—Srinio 4, Joyce 2, Blake 6, Burnett 4, Densey 2; Independent A's 23—Pyke 4, Hibbard 4, Edwards, Wiewesick 2, Smith 7, Crabtree 6.

Independent A's 27—Pyke 16, Smith 1, Crabtree 3, Edwards 5, Hibbard 2, Wiewesick; Fish Chokers 14—Densey, Joyce 7, Srinio 2, Burnett 1, Canessa 5, Waldron.

Scoring almost at will the first all-star team defeated the second all-stars by the score of 24 to 20 in a game played in the gym last Tuesday. The game was very colorful and provided a great deal of action, and it brought on a miniature feud between "Bunny" Bennett and "Percy" Weisgerber which kept the assembled audience in a constant state of laughter. Due to a lack of substitutes "Bunny" wound up the game with a total of six personal fouls called on him, and Jim Pyke of the first all-stars was permitted to play after he had had four personal fouls called on him. The first all-stars not only won the game but they also won a milkshake treat which the losers had to provide for the winners.

By defeating the first all-stars 27 to 12 last Wednesday in the gym the "Colossals" won the all-star intramural championship and also milkshakes provided by the losers. "Wally Palmberg" McAdam (substituting for Lee Canessa) paced the winners with 10 points while Norris Joyce led the losers both offensively with seven points and defensively by checking the usually high-scoring George Erickson to only one field goal for the whole game.

Paced by "Jonathan Shamrock" Kelly who went on a scoring rampage to connect with the basket for eight field goals for 16 points, Alpha Psi Delta still retained its jinx over the intramural champion Independent A's with a thrilling 31 to 29 victory last Wednesday. Alpha Psi's are thus the only team which the independents have failed to defeat this year.

The scores and lineups are: First All-Stars (34), Pike 6, Weisgerber 11, Crabtree 6, Joyce 5, Keuscher 6; Second All-Star team (20), Bennett 9, W. Bertelson 6, Kahle, Gustafson 2, Hibbard 3, Referee, "Jiggs" Burnett; scorer, Erickson.

First All-Stars (12), Weisgerber 3, Pyke 2, Crabtree, Joyce 7, Keuscher; Colossals (27), Sparks 2, Erickson 4, Vagt 4, McAdam 10, Harvey 7.

Now that the intramural basketball season is ended and the Independent A's have been crowned champions, the next sport to which intramural sports followers will turn is softball which will start after spring vacation. Among the teams that will be entered in this year's league are Kappa Gamma Rho, Sigma Tau, Alpha Psi Delta, Law School, Independents, and the defending champion P. E. Staff under the tutelage of the venerable Les Sparks. However, the other teams promise to make it interesting for Mr. Sparks and company, so watch out P. E. Staff!

Discussing . . . Co-ed Sports

—with— ANTOINETTE IRISH

W. A. A. volleyball games were begun March 9 when team C won over team B with a score of 26 to 17. Players for the winning team were Irma Oehler, Cornelia Hulst, Frances Faber, Barbara Kurtz, Margaret Engdahl, Dolly Dingle, Ruth Teschner, Ruth Ramsden, and Myrie Martin. In the second game team D topped the score of team E 24 to 23. Team D consisted of the following girls: Marge Jones, Jimmie Tompkins, Marguerite Du Rette, Kay Thompson, Margaret Hauser, Loyal Bogardus, and Jean Landreback.

Other players were Jean Bartlett, Margaret Ann Kells, June Brasted, Margaret Moulton, Eileen Van Eaton, Margaret Magee, Jean Anusson, Betty Williams, Ruth Yeocum and Vivian Noth.

If you wish to arch for points sign up with Mrs. Royer or Lunelle Chapin. The hours for shooting are the following:

9:35—Any day.
9:35—10:30 Monday, Wednesday, Friday.

1:15—Monday, Wednesday.
2:00—Tuesday and Thursday.
4:00—Any day.

The Badminton squad played O. S. C. at Corvallis March 9 and won four sets out of the thirteen played. Those on the team were: singles, men: Wes Roeder, Gus Moore, French Hagerman; singletles, women: Alice Young, Rae Yeocum, Marjorie Herr; doubles, men: Bud Brandon and Norman Winslow; doubles, women: Alice Young and Marjorie Herr, Florence Foster and Beatrice Moore, Anoka Coates and Dorothy Moore. Mixed doubles included Wes Roeder and Rae Yeocum, Gus Moore and Beatrice Moore. Winners of the singles were Wes Roeder and Alice Young. Winners of the doubles were Bud Brandon and Norman Winslow, Alice Young and Marjorie Herr.

Four Quintets Still In Race For Title Cup

Surprise Victories Put Dark Horse Teams In Race

With most of the pre-tournament favorites watching the championship race from the sidelines, the battle for the state hoop crown had narrowed to four teams — Bellfountain, Lincoln, McLoughlin, and Franklin—with the conclusion of Thursday's round of games.

Kessler High

In each of their games Richard "Bunny" Kessler has been the shining light, scoring 20 points in his first start.

Chapple King's Franklin Quakers, hard pressed to down a fiery Milwaukie quintet Wednesday afternoon, sprang the surprise of the meet yesterday with a hair-raising triumph over the tournament favorites, Eugene.

Lead by a pair of sharp shooters, Oliver and Kremer, The Kingmen came from behind to turn almost certain defeat into a sparkling 26-24 victory over the Axemen, eliminating one of the best teams in the meet. The Quakers downed Milwaukie 33-24 Wednesday.

Mac-Hi Surprises

Biggest surprise of the tournament has been McLoughlin high's drive toward a spot in the final. Faced by sensational "Jiggs" Fisk, the Pioneers from the Columbia river district have disposed of LaGrande, and Ashland. LaGrande fell by a 26-29 count, while Ashland was beaten 34-26.

Boasting one of the tightest defenses seen in the meet thus far, Lincoln's Cardinals from Portland have fought their way into a semi-final berth by virtue of victories over North Bend, 37-17, and Salem's Senators, 29-15. Lincoln's big star is Lee Sifton, one of the best passers in the show, while Reynolds and Neill take care of the heavy scoring.

Amity First Out

Amity district champs were first to fall completely out of the picture. Coach Robbins' boys lost to Bellfountain and Athena. The latter game went to the eastern Oregon five by a 25-13 score.

Milwaukie was next to go, dropping a 30-44 decision to a rejuvenated Astoria outfit Thursday morning.

Kiamath Falls dropped her second straight game Thursday when Coach Ira Woodie's LaGrande Tigers triumphed 32-21.

The victory was LaGrande's first here in five years.

North Bend also fell by the wayside the second day, losing to McMinnville, 42-21.

Hill, Gallaher Good

Best game of the first day was the Salem-McMinnville fracas, with the local quintet carrying off honor with a well-earned 34-25 triumph. In starring roles for Salem were Tom Hill, rugged captain and guard, and Sumner Gallaher, a sharp shooting forward.

The anticipated struggle between Astoria and Eugene failed to develop on the opening day's program. Playing like champions throughout, Fritz Kremer's Willamette valley representatives won easily, 39-24.

Dullest game Wednesday, was the Chiloquin-Athena go, which was won by the former, 28-15.

THE UNREASONABLE MALE
Mrs. Jay Gee: "Your husband is sulking again, I see. What's wrong this time?"
Mrs. Engleme: "Oh, it's too silly; just because I used his new tennis racket to strain the potatoes."

Get Set for the Tournament

Thousands of strange faces—thousands of critical eyes—the college man on parade during this most important week of the year.

Say "goodbye" to the old—step out in the new. Select a Man's Shop suit with furnishings. Enjoy the comfort and added confidence gained from wearing correctly styled, quality merchandise.

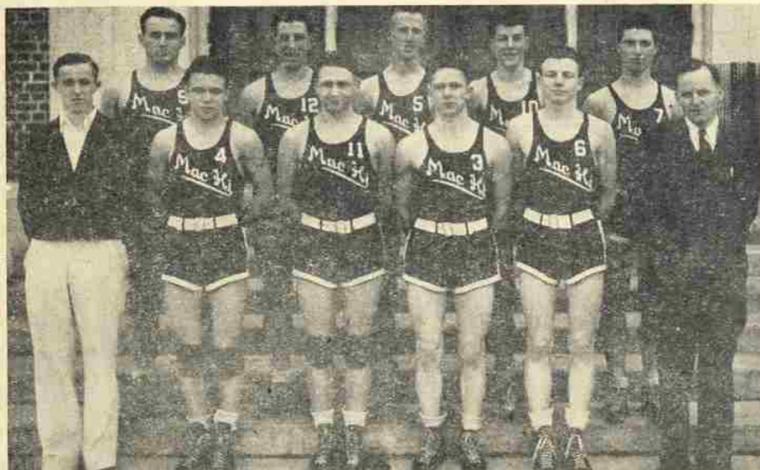

The Man's Shop
416 STATE ST.

Franklin, Bellfountain, Lincoln, McLoughlin Enter Semi-Finals

QUAKERS VS. GIANT-KILLERS

PIONEERS VS. CARDINALS

Bob Mathews Begins State Tourney, 1917

Former Willamette Coach Began Annual Affair With Seven Teams

Old Frame Gymnasium Is Scene of Invitational All-State Meet

Inaugurating what later has become the classic of Salem's hoop season—the Oregon high school basketball tournament—seven teams, bidden by invitation of Willamette's athletic coach, R. L. "Bob" Mathews, first met in an invitational tourney at the old Willamette frame gymnasium in 1917.

The seven entrants were Salem, Roseburg, Amity, Monroe, Oakland, Silverton, and Woodburn. Homer Jamison of Jefferson high, and Coach Fletcher of Salem high, officiated.

In the first round Salem downed Amity 32 to 12, Woodburn crushed Monroe 31 to 8, and Roseburg beat Silverton 15 to 14. Eddie Durne, Silverton guard and later a star at Oregon, flashed in the latter encounter by scoring every point made by the Silver Foxes.

Roseburg Winner

The semi-final contests saw Salem steam-roller Oakland 55 to 15, while Roseburg trounced Woodburn 48 to 11. The finals produced a fast, exciting contest which went to Roseburg by a 21 to 6 count. Luke and Armory Gill, Salem's most famous brother team, were members of the runner-up quint.

The 1918 and 1919 tournaments were also invitational affairs and each year Salem carried off top honors.

O. S. H. S. A. Directs

In 1920 the Oregon State High School Athletic Association took over the meet. It was again held at Willamette and has remained there despite numerous moves to transplant it to Portland, Corvallis, or Eugene.

Attendance has grown yearly for the classic. The old frame gym has been replaced by the present spacious structure, but seating space is still at a premium. With completion expected to be unusually keen this year, capacity crowds are anticipated for most of the sessions.

TOURNAMENT CHATTER

For the first time in many years the rafters of the gymnasium seem to be safely above the heads of most of the players. Though here and there one can spot some lanky hoopster kinking his back to keep from bumping his head on the ceiling, the usual quota of go-liaths isn't around. Maybe this can be attributed to Chapple King who failed to bring down the usual number of bean-poles. None of his players this year would compare with Ray Jewell, Jack Kennitzer, Bob Williams, Tommy Hanson, or Bob McKeown of past Quaker fives.

Of all the names there are to pick from, those Astoria boys certainly select the hardest to spell and pronounce. This year's No. 1 tongue twister is Toivo Pippo. The name doesn't seem to bother the young Finn, however, for he's one of the best hoopsters in the meet. They'll have to consider this youngster when the all-state choices are made.

And speaking of all-staters... What a galaxy of stars the voters have to pick from for this year's team. There is Don Mabee, Dick Jones, McMinnville; Pete Igoe and Doug Caven, Eugene; Tommy Medley and "Sub" Gallaher, Salem; Bunny Kessler and Harry Wallace, Bellfountain; Steve Fowler, Ashland; Stitt, LaGrande; the illustrious Stanley Fisk, McLoughlin; Parker and Sandness, Astoria; Countryman, Milwaukie; Sifton, Lincoln; and Oliver and Kremers, Franklin. How can the five best be picked from a list like that.

And don't forget to fill out your all-state ballot to be found on the last page of the tournament program.

Best program in the history of the meet. Shows real effort on part of Warren Peters, managing editor. However, Peters must thank the various schools for their cooperation in submitting material. The writeups of the teams and special pages are the work of Bob Keuscher, Collegian sports editor.

History shows Roseburg won the first state hoop meet in 1917. It is interesting to note that the Indians didn't return to the meet until last year. Amity was also an entry in 1917. This year is Amity's first trip since then.

At least nine ex-stars from the meet have made names for themselves as coaches: Armory Gill, at Oregon State; Luke Gill, at Hall; "Skeet" O'Connell, Ashland;

"Chapple" King, Franklin; Dave Wright, Lincoln; Jean Eberhart, S. O. Normal; Howard Hobson, at Oregon; and Scott Milligan, at Lower Columbia Junior College, are the nine.

We surely miss "Holly" Huntington, Salem's ex-coach, who was known as the best dressed mentor of every meet. Well, why not? He owns his own haberdashery.

HOLLIS HUNTINGTON

Most nervous coach? The honors used to go to Don Faber and Russ Rarey. Neither are here this season. Though he doesn't jump up and down like some coaches have done in the past, Coach Harold Hauk, Salem, seems to win the "honors" this year.

Most complacent coach? All honors to Bill Lemmon, Bellfountain head-man.

Players from last year's meet who have made good in college are Johnny Selin, at Pacific; Dwight Catherwood, at Willamette, both ex-Milwaukie players; Hediger Moore and Walker (Tillamook) at Mount Angel; Ted Sarpola (Astoria), Stan Short (Roseburg), both at Oregon; Cecil Quesseth and Bill Wagner (Salem high), at Willamette; Stew Warren, Merle Krueger, and Pflugrad (Corvallis), at O. S. C.; Tommy Hanson (Franklin), at O. S. C.; Bruce Williams (Salem high), at San Mateo Jr. college; John Stonebure (Tillamook), at Linfield; Hal March (Franklin), O. S. C.; Sherman (Roseburg), at Linfield.

Not one all-state first string player back this year. Hansen is at O. S. C. Kennitzer is out of school. Warren and Krueger are at O. S. C. and Sarpola is at Oregon. Of the second team players, March, whose team Benson failed to make the grade, made the all-city quint in Portland this year; Moore is at Mt. Angel; Kokko, played independent ball in Portland; Crockett, of Corvallis, which also failed to return, starred for the Spartans all year; and Fisk, McLoughlin's ace, is back.

Wish we had a seat in the press box.

The Ashland Lithians are flashy, but we'd like to have seen the Medford Peapickers who have worn knee-length socks all season, presenting a colorful picture.

Wallace, Stan Buckingham, and Kessler, Bellfountain's trio of "B" team all stars of 1936, all have returned. Wallace was the best sport award winner last year.

TO BE SEEN ON THE SCREEN

GRAND

A blasting drama of a defenseless girl and four men whose lives are locked in a spell of vengeance, with a cast that carries you from the realms of reality to "Nancy Steele is Missing," starting at the Grand theater Saturday. Victor McLaglen, winner of the Motion Picture Academy award for the best performance of 1935, walls through the long years to strike again for greater vengeance... only to be punished by the greatest love a man can know. The picture brings us the newest and most sinister of the movie menaces. Peter Lorre, the new bogey man of the screen. Beautiful June Land is the center of the plot for revenge, which disrupts the lives of five people.

STATE

Starting Sunday at the State theater is a double feature of "Stowaway," with Shirley Temple, Alice Faye and Robert Young, and Ralph Bellamy and Mae Clark, in "Wild Brian Kent." In "Stowaway," America's little sweetheart speaks Chinese, and succeeds in the end in bridging Alice Faye and Robert Young together and making a happy home for herself. "Wild Brian Kent" is a story of the west, full of thrills.

Wednesday is another double feature: "Rose Bowl," a typical college film, giving the thrills of college life, with a cast of William Frawley, Eleanor Whitney, and Tom Brown and "Buildog Drummer Escapes," starring Sir Guy Standing and Heather Angelo.

HOLLYWOOD

Starting today at the Hollywood theater is a double bill presenting Mary Astor in "Lady from Nowhere," and "The Big Show," starring Joan Aron.

Survey Shows 96 Students Helped By Federal Fund

Ninety-six Willamette university students are employed through the national youth administration, better known as NYA, this semester, as shown by the records of Pearl Swanson, NYA administrator for Willamette university. Of the total, 53 are women and 43 men.

Willamette is allotted $950 monthly for NYA work. Individual assignments vary according to the need of the students. The assignments vary from 30 to 50 hours per month or $9 to $15 in wages.

Types of work done include typing, mimeographing, library work, tutoring under special conditions, remedial and corrective work, other various kinds of clerical work, and manual labor.

Students work in the Salem public library, state library, high school library, Red Cross office, Marion county health office, state school for blind, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., Salem, public school offices, Chreto Cottage hostess, laboratory assistants, personnel records, NYA payroll, athletic equipment supervisors, manuscript typists, appointment office, music hall, and English projects.

Publishing Near For '37 Wallulah

With the approach of spring vacation pre-publishing arrangements for the 1937 Wallulah near completion.

Ad collectors are still at work contacting some of the customers that have not yet signified their intention to buy space, but for the most part the advertising copy is in the process of preparation for the publishers.

Covers are finished for the new Wallulah, and all contracts have been let. There remains only the general windup.

"The Sportsman's Headquarters"

CLIFF PARKER
SPORTING GOODS

372 State Street
Phone 6042 Salem

Fishing Tackle
Ammunition
Outing Togs
Golf Cutlery
Guns

All Types of Athletic Equipment

Easter Brings Rabbits . . .

Candy rabbits of course, not the kind the magician pulls out of his hat.

When it comes to fixing up clever ideas in printing our master printers are real magicians. Tell them your problem and they'll pull ideas right out of their heads—good ones too—for all occasions.

Statesman Publishing Company

SPORTSMEN

We Carry a Complete Line of

FISHING - TENNIS - BASEBALL - SOFTBALL and ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT

SEARS ROEBUCK & CO.

Salem, Oregon

Open Saturday until 9

Three Injured In Millstream Dives

Three Freshman Glee swimmers are suffering injuries as a result from the traditional duck in the mill stream for falling to place in the Glee.

Acting on the statement made in the mock chapel Monday that the stream was deeper and swifter, Frank Guerin dived deep into the stream to hit the rocky bottom. He received a long gash in the forehead and two broken front teeth. Five stitches had to be taken in his forehead.

As a result of plunging the mill stream bed, Lawrence Guderian lost two of his front teeth.

Bob Laws was injured in the abdomen when one of his classmates unintentionally dove onto him. Laws was jarred against the rocks on the bottom.

Seabeck Dates Announced

Announcement has again been made of the annual Seabeck conference held each year at the close of the school year. The dates this year are from June 12 to 21.

Speakers this year include Dr. T. Z. Koo, who will interpret China and its people. Dr. Koo was former general secretary of the Chinese student movement.

W. E. Mendenhall, president of Whittier college in California, will be the speaker for California. President Mendenhall is division chairman of students activities of the national Y. M. C. A.

Piano Students Decide Schedule

Members of Phi Delta Mu, campus music organization for piano students, recently began club activity when they adopted an official constitution, elected officers, and decided upon a tentative spring schedule of group functions.

Since its formation five weeks ago the organization has been federated with the Oregon Federation of Music Clubs. Members expect to enter contests, sponsored by the state group, in solo and group work.

During National Music Week a twilight musicale will be given daily by the members. The programs will be presented at Kimball hall from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. Following are the general programs and chairmen for each:

Sunday—Bach, Cloyd Riffe.
Monday—Beethoven, Belle Brown.
Tuesday—Chopin, Stuart Bush.
Wednesday—Classic Composers, Mary Virginia Nohlgren.
Thursday—Liszt, Mary Jeanette Sargent.
Friday—Romantic Composers, Ariss Jones.
Saturday—Ultra Modern, Jean Rasey.

An editor is a person employed on a paper whose business it is to separate the wheat from the chaff and see that the chaff gets printed.—Pacific Index.

Kirk Memorial Chapel Service

Tuesday's chapel program featuring talks by a member of the student body and a member of the faculty was held in reverence in the memory of the late Professor Kirk.

President Baxter opened the service by introducing from the student body Charles Neville who spoke of the past professor from the student standpoint. "He was a friend of everyone, freshman, sophomore, junior and senior alike. I like to think of Professor Kirk here today," said Charles Neville in reference to the courage spirit he had left behind.

Dr. Jas. T. Matthews from the faculty was at Willamette when Professor Kirk first came. In his talk he stated that in a biography of Professor Kirk written by former president Doney, it was said that "Professor Kirk was the politest man on the campus."

"Professor Kirk possessed a cleanliness of spirit and enjoyed all good," said Professor Matthews. "He believed in prayer and he prayed."

"Professor Kirk," said Matthews, "we shall miss your bodily influence and to Mrs. Kirk we extend sympathy."

Additional SOCIETY

Gatke's Give Dinner Friday

Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Gatke entertained last Friday with an informal dinner honoring the senior majors in political science.

A centerpiece of daffodils and interspersed candles of pastel shades, with other white tapers on the table and buffet, made up the attractive decorations.

Plans were laid at the dinner for oral and comprehensive dates. A beach trip to Dr. Gatke's Nelscott cottage was also planned, to take place April 2 as a respite after the political science comprehensive March 30 and a preparation for the orals, which will begin soon after. Miss Pauline Winslow and Dr. and Mrs. Gatke will make the arrangements for the trip.

Guests at the dinner included Miss Pauline Winslow, and Randall Keeter, Joe Harvey, Bob Hart, George Self, Ross Gladden and Laurence Morley.

Miss Helen Carpenter, Miss Helen Woodfin, and Miss Lunelle Chapin; and Leonard Gottfried, Ralph Gustafson, and Bruce Carlin spent Sunday at Neskowin and Tatt.

The Portland members of the Sigma Tau mothers club will be entertained in Salem next Friday, March 19. Mrs. Otto Wilson is in charge of arrangements and is planning for the Salem mothers to entertain their guests with a luncheon at Godfrey's.

Cartoons Drawn By Artist Club

For almost every issue of the Collegian a cartoon has appeared. These weekly pictures have been one of the many jobs taken on by the artist's club of the campus, Paint Spots. The caricatures appearing in the new social guide are also a work of the art club.

Last fall Paint Spots sponsored the national art week on the campus. Following the art week the organization realized the importance of a good art club on the campus.

In order to distinguish a Paint Spot member from the other students on the campus a number of pins have been ordered for each of the members.

During the last year membership in the club has more than doubled itself. Three new honorary members have also been added to the roll. They are Mrs. Bruce Baxter, Professor Marshall, and Dr. Kohler.

All the stage sets for past plays and the advertising for such plays has been part of the work of the club.

For the future the organization is planning a smart exhibit for some time in May and later on in the spring a sketching trip to the coast.

Campus Clubs

By Margaret Taylor

FRENCH AND GERMAN CLUB
The French and German club met Monday evening at Willamette lodge with an informal talk by Miss Gertrude Shoemaker as the program of the evening. Miss Shoemaker, who lived in the Belgian Congo for ten years, discussed that country. The remainder of the evening was occupied with the singing of French and German songs. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

This group will meet three times this year; at the next, a group of the members will present a one-act play.

Those attending the Monday evening meeting were Helen Peterson, Charles Perry, Naida Carroll, Gertrude Shoemaker, Antoinette Lambert, Margaret Doege, Muriel Jones, Elizabeth Brown, Miss Fuhrer, Nell Irvine, and Mrs. Vazakas, sponsor of the club.

CLASSICAL CLUB
Nine members of the Classical club, with their sponsor, Mrs. Edna Ellis, enjoyed a trip to the Portland art museum recently. The tour, conducted by Miss Failing, required three hours for its completion.

Due to the death of Professor Kirk no meeting is to be held immediately. The next meeting will be April 4th when the group will begin work on a Latin play. April 17th has been scheduled for a trip to the coast.

COOKIE JAR
Elsie Sharp is the chairman in charge of a special Saint Patrick's Cookie Jar Thursday afternoon at the First Methodist church. Students and faculty members are invited to drop in for cookies and tea any time between three and six o'clock. The program contains special music, Irish story telling, and group singing. It is in the form of a silver tea, the proceeds to purchase a rug for the room.

UNIVERSITY VESPERS
Miss Sybil Tucker, director of religious education for the Methodist churches of Portland, gave a pre-Easter talk on "The Cross" Sunday evening at vespers. Marie Bendiksen, who has known Miss Tucker for several years was chairman. Election of officers was held, George Self being elected president; June Brasted, vice-president, and Olive Clemes, secretary. These three will select several other cabinet members to work with them in the near future, and will be installed the Sunday evening following Easter.

THE ENGLISH CLUB
The members of the English club are English majors. The club is unique in its organization, in that it has no constitution and no by-laws but functions through a president annually appointed and committee changing for new occasions.

The emphasis of its work being centered upon the actively and creativeness of each member

DRESS UP FOR EASTER!

Wards Classic Fashions

stress new ideas at Wards Low Prices!

EASTER COATS
for Dress or Sports
Classic reefers and swaggers of novelty fleeces and sueded cloths. Sizes 12 to 32. 998

EASTER SUITS
are very Important
Mannish types made of men's wear fabrics by men's tailors! 12-44. 998

SUIT DRESSES
are Classic Favorites
Navy crepes or sheers in jacket styles. With cool white accents. Your choice! 12 to 32. 598

POLKA DOTS
repeat their Chic
Perennial charmers—with refreshing white trims. Navy grounds. Sizes 12 to 32. 398

Montgomery Ward

275 N. Liberty Street Phone 8774

MEAL TIME - ANY TIME

THE QUELLE CAFE

Fountain Service
Quelle Made Ice Cream
440 State Street

Your Grocer has

MADSEN'S BREAD

Made by Salem Baking Co.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

SALEM, OREGON
Founded February 1, 1842

Liberal Arts - Law - Music

Pre-Professional Curricula
Highest Accredited
Exceptional Location
Reasonable Expenses
Christian—Non-Sectarian
"An Outstanding American Institution"
Bulletin on Request

Bring This Advertisement and 10c
AND GET 1 LB. COMMERCIAL CHOCOLATES

No Ad . . . No Chocolates
GOOD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY

SCHAEFER'S DRUG STORE
Commercial St., Next U. S. Nat. Bank Salem, Oregon

CARDS FOR EASTER GREETINGS
to the Folks at Home

COMMERCIAL BOOK STORE
A. A. GUEFFROY 163 N. COMMERCIAL

SALEM'S ORIGINAL DAIRY LUNCH
New Location — 347 Court Street

COURT STREET DAIRY LUNCH

LLOYD THOMAS—Stylist
Aided by skilled attendants and the latest equipment a Coiffure will be created for you that is the latest word in Beauty Craft.

LLOYD'S BEAUTY SERVICE
230 North Liberty Phone 7131

HUTCHEON PAINT STORE
PAINT and WALLPAPER
ARTIST'S MATERIALS
"Buy Your Paint at a Paint Store"
174 N. Commercial St. Phone 6687

Registrar on Vacation

Registrar Ethyl Schreiber and her husband are vacationing in Los Angeles, Calif.

A good place to buy

ORVAL'S USED CARS

The Best Values in Town
Easy Terms

Center and Church
Salem, Oregon

PHONE 4702

WATCH OUT SOON

SPA Annual Basketball Window Tournament to help you Advertise

Something Different to Eat

Tokio Sukiyaki House
11 a. m. to 2 a. m.
Fountain Service
222 1/2 North Commercial
Telephone 4624

Library Contest Closes April 5

The annual library book-review contest closes April 5. All manuscripts must be in by this time, according to announcement made by Robinson Spencer, librarian.

The prizes are $10 for first prize, $8 for second prize, and $5 for a special freshman prize.

Mr. Spencer reports that a new group of books on art have been given by C. M. Epply to the Willamette Library.

$500 Fund

(Continued from Page 1)

manent collection for study, research, and possible later graduate work in the field. Dr. Gatke reports that the last three years additions to the collection have made a decided improvement because of the number of very rare volumes and MSS which have been added.

Two volumes which have lately been added to the collection are entitled, "Catin on Northwest Indians," George Catin, the author, made sketches of and interviewed the two Indians who made the trip back to St. Louis in 1821-52 in search of religious aid.

Dr. Gatke reports it has been strongly intimated that Willamette may be the recipient of a fine private collection of Northwest history volumes when the new library is built and that he looks forward in anticipation of this gift.

wherever possible, its activities relate to the many interests of the English field, including literature and creative philosophy.

COLLEGIATE QUOTES

By Gene Hill

Lehigh university chemistry students break more than 14,000 test tubes each year. What a bang that would make if it happened at once.—Reed College Quest.

According to a report from Florida some professors have great power over their students. The junior girl at Miami university who fell into a deep stupor every time she attended one of her lectures finally found that the reflection of four lights on the professor's glasses was hypnotizing her.

Will mighty Northwestern dissolve? A figure-fluder at Northwestern University has discovered that rain—carbon dioxide and water, as it strikes the limestone buildings on the campus will dissolve the structures in 72,000 years.

A new money-making scheme has been discovered in the South. "Just a gigolo, but we make the dough," is the theme song of five men students at the University of Oklahoma who have organized a society and escort dateless coeds for 25 cents an hour plus expenses.

On the campus of historic Harvard another tradition has been broken.

A recent abolishment of the "two-women" rule at Harvard university has given Harvard men the privilege of entertaining women in their rooms, unchaperoned. Formerly, the "two-women" rule specified that two out of the three persons of any private party must be women.

For that Tired and Hungry Feeling

The Bluebird

Next to Capitol Theatre

GOLDEN PHEASANT RESTAURANT

240 Liberty Street

TRY A MILKSHAKE AT BUNTIN'S SANDWICH SHOP

Next to Capitol Theatre

Eat and Sleep at HOTEL ARGO
More for the Money

Buy Your Easter Parade Clothes at Miller's