LOCAL SCIENCE CLUB STARTED BY STUDENTS

Herman Clark, Science Enthusiast, Active in Aiding the Start.

Pfaff and Neustal Also Implicated

First Organization of Its Kind to Appear on the Campus.—Constitution Adopted and Meetings Held Every Tuesday.

An organization long needed at Willamette has at last been established. "The Willamette Institute of Scientific Research" has been started and bids fair to be one of the greatest things of its kind on the coast. The members of the organization are all to be science enthusiasts and well acquainted with the general workings of scientific actions. Prof. Von Eschen and Prof. Peck have long been trying to get such a club started and not until recently was the final spurt made.

Officers Elected.

The officers for the coming term were recently elected. Herman Clark, assistant in the chemistry department and an all around scientific man, was selected to act as president. The other officers are as follows: Vice-Presi-

LADY GREGORY'S COMEDY IS NEXT

Lady Gregory, the recognized comedy writer of England, will have her renowned comedy, "Spreading the News," staged at Old Willamette, before Easter vacation according to the plans of Professor Mac Murray, head of the dramatic interpretation class. The play has been presented in the majority of the larger cities of the world and the true worth of high class drama has long been recognized. The Boers, struck with the superiority of this bit of real life, had the writing translated into their own language and are now staging the production in all parts of their native land.

The play deals with the life of the Irish peasants. The main theme deals with gossiping women who spread a bit of news, unintentionally misgiven, by one of their number. The ludicrous situations that arise from this slight distortion of the truth, will keep the audience in laughter from the first curtain until the last. The settings are all to be truly depictive of real Irish life, and the actors have been chosen to fill their parts according to merit.

Cast Chosen.

The cast as decided upon is as follows:
 Bartlye Fallon ..... Miss Floria Lachmund
 Mrs. Fallon ..... Lulu Wesemah
 Lack Smith ..... Fae Goyns
 Shawna Early ..... Miss Fuller
 Tim Casey ..... Miss Minton
 James Ryan ..... Miss Cappe
 Mrs. Tarpey ..... Avace Ogden
 Mrs. Tully ..... Ruth Schultz
 Magistrate ..... Miss Eva Grant

The first rehearsal was held yesterday afternoon and the reading of the parts was the main feature of the meeting. All members of the cast are students of Dramatic Interpretation who

THIRD PLACE SECURED BY ERIC P. BOLT

Willamette Representative Puts Up Strong Fight for First But Unable to Win.

First in Delivery Help Willamette

Local Delegation Backs Man to Finish and Show Albany Gathering that W. U. is Ever Ready to Come Through with the Necessary Support at All Times.

That Willamette can put out orators as well as athletes was shown when Eric P. Bolt won third place in the Intercollegiate contest held at Albany Friday night.

The Placings by Judges.

George Stewart, Jr., of McMinnville College won first place; Lisle Hubbard, Pacific College, second, and Eric P. Bolt, Willamette University, third.

The Willamette delegation was the largest and most enthusiastic and loyally supported their representative, Mr. Bolt had the audience with him and many expressed their surprise that he did not receive first honors.

In delivery Willamette's man easily came out ahead, receiving two firsts and a third. The judges did not seem to be as impressed with the matter of Mr. Bolt's oration and rather low marks on composition brought our orator down to third place.

Banquet Follows.

The contest was followed by a banquet at the St. Francis Hotel where the contestants, delegates and many

ARTISTS COMING TO CERRY CITY

Beginning next November, Willamette and Salem will be benefitted by one of the best Lyceum Courses that Ellison and White of Boise, Idaho, have to offer. Glenn McCaddam, proprietor of the Varsity Bookstore, is to manage the proposition in co-operation with a few others who are interested.

Big Line Up Promised.

The course as arranged will include Beilharz—the renowned platform entertainer who has appeared before chataquias and at various big celebrations. Following him will be Dr. Green, recognized as a power in the lecturing field.

Crane, the cartoonist and modeler, is said to be able to sling the mud to represent the celebrities of the world better than any other person who has ever attempted the art. He is coming to Salem directly after an extended tour of Oregon and other western states.

The Apollos, world famous musical artists, follow Dr. Crane. They compose an unexcelled concert company and have played at Ravinia Park in Chicago, according to press reports. The grade of music required there is very high, so that in itself should be sufficient to assure the purchasers of the course tickets that they will get their money's worth.

The Stratfords, the best quartette that ever trod the boards of any city are to be one of the strongest numbers of the course. They come highly recommended by the manager, Mr. White, of Boise, who says that they have pleased the audiences of innumerable cities.

The course will probably be completed about February, 1915.

Major Dorsigny, the hero of Friday.

FINNY TRIBES AWAITING THE DEAN

Tomcod and Halibut Plying Up and Down the Coast to See the Music Master.

April First Set as Day of Departure

Dean Gives Up Knowledge Only After the Cub has Threatened to Warn the Inmates of the Pacific of the Musician's Approach.—Club Reaches Marshfield Thursday Night.

"I'll surely feed the fish on the way to the sunny city of Marshfield," moaned our good friend, the Dean of Music. "I can feel that peculiar sensation creeping on me now." Here the poor, billowy frightened music-master shuddered with horror, for he recalled the days when he returned from Oxford and the unobliging sea had kicked up waves high enough to startle a hardened sailor. "But", he continued, "I'll have the satisfaction of seeing 'Baldy' Mills and 'Aerial' Gilkey join in on the chorus and help me out. Although I can not say exactly whether the rest will be similarly honored I will be safe in saying that nearly all will arrive in the city by the sea in such a condition that concerts will not be given for a day or so." Having delivered the above oration

:-: NEFFE ALS ONKEL :-:

Never has a play been developed within local circles with such a demonstration of enthusiasm as accompanies Schiller's great German comedy, Neffe Als Onkel, Director Walsh and his troupe have perfected the "rough spots" and bid fair to bring honor and glory to themselves at the Opera House next Friday evening.

The play itself is great. Excitement, thrills and complications abound but always unwind in a humorous, satisfactory manner. The plot, as a whole, is exceedingly unique and may be easily followed by non-German speaking people with the slight aid of a complete synopsis on the program.

The costumes have arrived, and are gorgeous in every detail. Satisfactory German costumes are exceedingly costly to procure, but expense was not spared in securing these gowns. Rare jewels and superb scenery will combine in displaying these costumes to the best advantage.

Another great feature of the evening will be the orchestra. The Asylum orchestra composed of attendants of the asylum and generally accepted as the best in this section of the state, has been secured for the evening and will render various well known selections.

Following is the cast:

Oberst von Dorsigny.....Lester Proebstal
 Frau von Dorsigny.....Edith Sherwood
 (Their Nephew)
 Sophie von Dorsigny.....Eleanor Ruby
 (Their Daughter)
 Frau von Mirville.....Avace Ogden
 (Franz's sister)
 Valcour.....Laban Steeves

OUR MOTTO — "A SQUARE DEAL"

WE want some co-ed teams in tennis this year. Now is the time for the young ladies to get busy and bring out the racket sharks who are to defend their respective classes. The courts are soon to be in shape. The weather is ideal for the game and nothing is lacking but the inclination of the co-eds. Start things. Develop some teams that will make the class and inter-society contests snappy and exciting.

THE Collegian is now being printed by the Beaver State Printers. The work of the Statesman Publishing Company has been satisfactory but financial conditions made the change beneficial to the paper. Because of the congested condition of the printing office, occasioned by the moving of the plant to a new location, last week's issue was delayed, as is this one. The proof reading, according to contract, was to have been handled by the printers who are guided by copy. Through an oversight the proof readers did not finish the work of last week and the articles were put in the makeup uncorrected. The fault was not that of the staff.

THE introduction of soccer will make a decided change in the athletic standing of Willamette. In proportion to her size, Willamette has a greater percentage of students engaged in some branch of athletics than any other university in the northwest. Since this new sport has been introduced, many students who have had no opportunity to engage in foot ball or other athletic games, will have a chance to really take part in competitive contests. The routine work of the gymnasium may develop the muscles, but it takes the close fought contests to bring forth the alert, ever-ready attitude so necessary for the man who is to enter into the real affairs of the business world. Clear and rapid thinking are necessitated. Snappy, correct judging is an essential. If all the students who are interested, would see that this new sport is carefully trained for and then entered, they would soon come to the realization that it is of the greatest benefit to them. Some have had the idea that it is all a "pink tea" affair, because the daily papers are not filled with bold headlines, telling the public of the number of deaths and injuries due to the game. The game of soccer needs men with grit and perseverance. Men who can do the hundred in time that makes the average track man blink in astonishment. The University of California, and Leland Stanford have the game of rugby as their primary sport. Although it was clearly a case of that or nothing, the southerners are enthusiastic about the game. The teams from Australia and Vancouver have met with the California aggregations and played some startling games. While soccer differs somewhat from the game played in California, yet by judging from the great amount of interest awakened there, we can safely say that soccer is deserving of just as much. Dr. Sweetland says, "It will make a man of every fellow that comes out. We will probably play Columbia or some other institution having soccer as a leading sport". Now is the time to get busy. Work starts this week and Willamette is to have a team that will startle the natives.

The Collegian wishes to make acknowledgment of a relative fault of last issue, in that certain facts given, seemingly true and unprejudiced as far as it was possible to ascertain, had a tendency to be misleading. We wish to express our regret for the possibility of any misinterpretation and for the publication of any etchings without previous sanction.

:- INTERCOLLEGIATE :-

Twenty acres of land, valued at $100,000, has been donated to the University of Oregon Medical school, by the Oregon-Washington Railway Company. The land is located in Portland, and is to become the permanent location of the campus and buildings.

The students of the Pacific University have adopted the honor system for examinations.

The school board of Seattle is considering the advisability of adding Swedish, Danish and Norwegian to the course in modern languages, now taught in city schools. The Scandinavian organizations, which presented petitions for this, pointed out that from an economic and business standpoint, these languages are as necessary and valuable as the German, French and Spanish languages now taught in the city schools.

P. U. and the U. of Puget Sound will debate on the question of Panama Canal tolls.

Five new records were made at the Amateur Athletic Union indoor track meet held at New York, March 2.

Thomas J. Halpin of the Boston Athletic Association won the 500-yard run in 1:13.2.5. A. T. Myers of the Irish American athletic club ran 300 yards in :32.1.5. R. F. Remer of the same club won the two mile walk in 14:21.4.5, and A. R. Kurat made the record time of 2:15.2.5 in the 1,000 yard run. H. J. Smith of Bronx Church House won the two-mile race in 9:18.

More college songs, and better college singing, seems to be the slogan of colleges in all sections of the country. Smith College is planning a song contest which is to be held between the four classes at commencement time next June. Columbia University, in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the School of Mines, is holding a competition for the best commemorative poem and song. In doing this both institutions are acting on the belief that good songs and good singing make for a more loyal student body quest.

A new college record, and what is regarded as virtually a world's record for rifle shooting in the class, was made by the Michigan Aggies with a score of 994 out of a possible 1,000 in the ninth week's match for the intercollegiate championship. The previous record was 988.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Dr. and Mrs. Steeves delightfully entertained the members of the Freshman class at their home Friday evening.

The living room and den were artistically decorated with flowers and greenery and Japanese lanterns. The entertainment consisted of games. Refreshments carrying out the color scheme were served a la Spa.

The guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. Henke, and Prof. Mae Murray.

The most brilliant social function of the week end was the fancy dress and masquerade party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Goltra on Court. The guests were received by Mrs. Goltra and Miss Helen Goltra. The evening was enjoyably spent in contra dancing. The costumes of the guests were varied and several were extremely gorgeous. George and Martha Washington, Prince von Orineau, resplendent in blue velvet and gold lace. Pierce and Pierrot, Little Boy Blue, and several Colonial costumes were especially noticeable. Jolly clowns and rollicking negroes added to the evening's enjoyment, while several dignified Sisters of Charity and an ancient hermit frowned upon the frivolity.

Refreshments were served a la cafeteria.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Goltra, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Henke, Prof. Wallace Mac Murray, Miss Ruth Hodge, Miss Inez Goltra, Miss Eva Hogue, Miss Ermine Harding, Miss Mabel St. Pierre, Miss Anna Ryan, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Anna Waldron, Miss Lucile Kuntz, Miss Margaret Poisal, Miss Genevieve Avison, Miss Bess Hockett, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Beryl Holt, Miss Edith Lornsten, Glen Hogue, George Odgers, Hans Schroeder, Rudolph Little, Tinkham Gilbert, Clarence Van Slyke, Foster Luce, Fred McMillin, Sam Busel, Alfred Hanke, John Gary, Oscar Lund, Joseph Gerhart.

CAMPUS NEWS.

Miss Mildred Baxter of Spray, Ore., was a campus visitor yesterday, and was a dinner guest at the Klossi Klub.

All were glad to see Mr. Little on the campus again.

Miss Vesta Mulligan spent the week end at the home of Miss Rosamand Gilbert.

Among the faculty members who attended the oratorical contest at Albany Friday evening were Professors Matthews, Chappell and Page.

Miss VanWinkle spent the week end at her home in Albany. While there she entertained Miss Barton and the Messrs. P. Homan and Eric Bolt.

Around the University students who took part on the Endeavor Union program at Falls City on Sunday were the Messrs. Maclean and Chandler and the Messrs. Clark and Sacket.

THIRTEEN THOUSAND HOMELESS TILL APRIL 7

Wellesley, Mass., March 19.—With a fire raging in a perilous manner, two hundred and fifty young ladies, fifty instructors and fifty maids successfully escaped from College Hall. The building was a seething mass of flames from top to bottom, and President Pendleton took occasion to congratulate the young women on the same manner in which they conducted themselves during the excitement. The loss amounts to approximately $900,000, $100,000 of which is covered by insurance. The college was ordered closed until April 7th, when new quarters will have been arranged for the young ladies. Of the 1300 women, practically 1,000 have left for their homes, clad in borrowed garments, theirs having been destroyed in the conflagration.

Be there Friday at Neffe als Onkel. The Grand.

HORSE HIDE FLITS THRU OZONE DAILY

Large Squad Utilizes Newly Crowned Diamonds Each Afternoon.

Battery Weakned by Loss of Drake

McRae, the Veteran Infielder and Harrison, the Alert Third Baseman, are Both Missing on the Field This Season.

On the newly crowned diamond a large squad is at work each day. Although it is too early in the season to judge as to the quality of the material, the boys are hard at work and are out in such numbers that both diamonds can be utilized.

Losses Heavy.

The loss of such a battery as Drake and Hamilton will undoubtedly be keenly felt. McRae is also lost to the infield. Only four "W" men are out and new material must be drawn upon to build up the rest of the team.

"Toots" Elected Captain.

Warren Booth has been elected baseball captain for this season. "Toots" has always turned out for athletics and has been on the first squad of football two seasons, as well as a member of the baseball squad for three seasons.

Practice games will probably be played with the different local nines every Saturday until the Spring vacation.

Aspirants Are Many.

Adams and Small are trying out as twirlers while Doane and Pfaff are behind the bat. Paget is out for the initial sack with Ohling and McCaddam as rivals. Honan is covering the second base, Gates is at third and Booth is at shortstop. Other infield aspirants are Newton and Eyre. In the outfield Shisler, Lund, Bain and Hill are contending for positions. Coach Sweetland is giving the men good training and is watching their work but as yet he has not divulged the secret as to "who is who" for the nine.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED BY UNKNOWN ELEMENT

The Kloshe Klub's challenge to the Nations of the earth for a game of basketball was accepted by an all-star unknown aggregation of missing links from Africa, Australia, the Orient, America and Salem. The game will be played as soon as Jube Pluvius sees fit to release his sprinkling can on the arid romping ground of the varsity track and base ball teams.

SOCIETY NOTES OFFICERS ELECTED.

The election for leaders of the Christian Association for young men passed off very rapidly and with very little excitement. There was no election in the case of the president and treasurer.

For the other positions the results were:

Vice President—Gibser.
Recording Secretary—Russell.
Corresponding Secretary—Bond.
The other places are to be filled as soon as possible.

Disturbance Created.

The students at Graz University, Rome, Italy, upon finding that their demands for an Italian faculty were not to be acceded to started a public agitation. On their parade around the city they found the path blocked by the German students, and a serious fight took place. Police interference was necessary to quiet the disturbance.

LADY GREGORY.

have shown special adaptability to play their respective roles according to drama interpretation.

Combined With "Riders to the Sea."

This comedy will be staged immediately following Synge's "Riders to the Sea," a heavy tragedy piece that is now being worked up. Neither play will take much time in being put across the footlights, and the combination of the two makes an exceedingly strong attraction for one bill.

Saturday night Miss Pauline Pennebaker entertained in honor of the W. U. students whose privilege it was to be in Albany last Saturday.

NEW ISLAND BORN IN ONE NIGHT

Tokio, Japan, March 19.—On January 23, after the smoke and steam from the erupting volcano Sakurajima and Iwo had cleared away, the natives of Japan were astonished when they beheld an island, 100 feet high and five miles in circumference, that had been born during the night. The steam which mounted skyward as the island was being raised attained a height of 10,000 feet. Great masses of hurling rocks filled the air and fell with tremendous detonations into the sea. The rumbling of the volcanos and the tremors which shook the earth created a great excitement in the islands. In 1904 a similar island was raised only to sink slowly back into the depths of the sea from whence it had so miraculously sprung. The eruptions and volcanic shakes are still being felt at Tokio.

CUBS NEED ONLY ONE FACT FOR STORY

Once more has a Kloshe Klubber parted with a two and a half levy and this time it was no other than the good-natured Milton A. Marcy who transferred a heap of silver shekels to the city treasurer. Where, how and which the cub knows not, but this is true that verily it is an ill wind that doesn't relieve a theologian of the chance to bestow blessings on city coffers. It is presupposed that a twinkling, radiant bicycle light was a negative quantity on a certain evening very recently when this expostulator of good and evil enjoyed the privilege of an introduction to the ever popular "gasoline cop" by the light of the latter's machine. It is further supposed that a never-to-be-forgotten ride was taken to the city's free lodging house for the accommodation of erring theologues and that a tearful, heart stirring scene was enacted in the presence of certain city fathers. And furthermore it is thought that a wiser, more cautious, deeply depressed Milton A. that left the courtroom the next morning and hastened to his adventures in the realms of theological thought. Verily a cub needs only one fact for a story.

REV. IRVINE, OF JASON LEE MEMORIAL CHURCH ADDRESSES Y. M. C. A. ON "WHAT IS MAN."

Rev. Irvine, pastor of Jason Lee Memorial church delivered a forceful address to a small but appreciative body of young men of Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon, on the subject, "What is Man."

He showed conclusively that man to be normal must be full three stories high. The first story is the animal or physical man, the second is the intellectual man, and the third and highest is the moral or spiritual man.

The animal or physical man without the intellectual and spiritual would be no better than any other animal, fighting for existence with tooth and nail. The physical and intellectual man without the spiritual would be a monstrosity and the most dangerous foe to mankind.

But the strong physical and intellectual man, with a proportionately highly developed spiritual nature is a normal man and truly an image of God. "I serve notice upon you young men," said Rev. Irvine, "that if you want to be successful in life you must be full three stories high."

One of the delightful features of the Albany trip was the house party given by Miss Elmo Ohling at which a number of the W. U. representatives were present.

Realm Feminine

Miss Ida Davis spent a very pleasant week-end in Portland during which time Miss Stella Chappell acted as preceptress of the Hall.

Willamette girls are to go hostesses to the Young Women's Christian Association Cabinet members of the Oregon colleges at a conference to be held April 3-5. May every girl plan to receive the very most from and to give the very best to these meetings.

The fairer half of our student body was well represented at the State contest at Albany. From its ranks were the Misses Harrison, McInturff, Ruby, Ketel, Phillips, Wastell, McMahon, Pennbaker, Page, Chappell, Barton, Heist, and Van Winkle.

Miss Helen Wastell was surprised with a very brief but delightful visit by her father, Mr. A. B. Wastell and by Brother Kenneth.

Among Hall callers of the past week were Mrs. Gaylord Patterson and daughter Louise and Mrs. Frederick Henke.

Miss Keith Van Winkle, Miss Pauline Pennbaker, and Elmo Ohlinger '16, entertained some of our delegates at Albany. Miss Ohling gave a charming party, after the contest Friday evening. Miss Pennbaker entertained informally Saturday evening.

Saturday afternoon Albany College girls gave a tea in honor of visiting guests from Willamette.

Miss Valeria Goldberger was the dinner guest of Mrs. Frank Meyer Friday evening.

MARRIED.

Albert Nels Minton and Lucille Staley stole a march on Salem friends and were married at the parsonage of the Centenary Methodist church in Portland.

FINNY TRIBES.

"Making something?" inquired the cub.

"Baking bread", snapped the dean.

"Who for?" returned the news-gatherer.

"The fish, you opera singer! What do you want anyhow? Can't you see I'm busy? I have this whole play to work out before five o'clock so please beat it."

"Oh, then it's the sketch your getting out is it. Well, come across with the facts, or I'll let the fish know the day you leave Portland."

"Don't do that!" cried the dean, "here is the cast. Help yourself, but for my sake, please do not give that fiendish information to the tom-fool and hungry halibut that ply between here and Marshfield."

Having gained the desired knowledge the cub departed.

The sketch, La Mascotte, is to be given on the trip. The cast so far as has been arranged will be:

Rocco, the farmer.....Harold Jory
Bettina, the Mascot.....Errol Gilkey
The Beggar Prince.....G. McCaddam

The other parts have not yet been definitely assigned.

In addition to the musical numbers given by the club, as such, special instrumental numbers will be given by Shistler, cornetist; R. Irvine, clarinetist and A. Gillette, violinist. The three have been working hard on their numbers and the dean predicts that all will be received with enthusiasm by the coast people. Ivan G. McDaniel, an experienced monologist, will give some special feature numbers.

Leave April First.

The boat, that will carry the songsters, leaves Portland Tuesday morning, April first. Thursday evening the club will arrive at Marshfield and on April fourth the first engagement will be played at Marshfield. From then on the respective towns will be visited.

Shuns Ocean.

Dean Mendenhall expects to return by stage on the following Wednesday in order to be in town to arrange the Miss Davis' lecture before the Women's Hygiene class was decidedly practical, dealing with the composition and preparation of foods. Hear Dr. Clements on "Tuberculosis", Monday next!

Mr. Max Ball, chaperoned by Mr. George Van de Vert, made his debut into Lausanne society Saturday evening.

Adelante ladies gave their Brother Websterians a very pleasant surprise last Wednesday evening, the occasion celebrating the basket-ball victory over the Philodorian. After a very interesting program which culminated in a lively parliamentary practice, with Miss Lottie Penn in the chair, the meeting adjourned to a lighter social evening with the "Virginia Reel", etc. Sweets were served by the "visitors".

The Misses Ruth Young and Edythe Ridout entertained very informally with an oyster stew, Saturday evening. The guests were Miss Gertrude Ealdin, Miss Mildred Bartholomew, Mr. Paul Homan, and Mr. Seth Axley.

In honor of Mr. Hamschall, general secretary of the Student Volunteer movement, Miss Lulu Weseman gave a very much enjoyed dinner party. Present were the Misses Alford, Winters, and Waldron, and Messrs. Haunschell, Francis, Neustal, and Proebstel.

Miss Lulu Weseman entertained her class of the Leslie Juniors League in conjunction with Mr. Earl Cotton's class, Saturday afternoon from 2:30-5. "Bob-bob-bobby-bob" and other equally interesting youthful games were played. Delicious sandwiches, chocolate, cake, ice cream, and candy were served.

Spring has come and base ball, too! Among the latest enthusiasts are Miss Daisy Mulkey '15 and Miss Gladys Chandler '17.

Easter music. Some designing beings have said that he is doing so to escape the return trip by water, but the innocent look in the musician's eye plainly showed that he made the statement with a "clear" conscience. The club will remain until the following Saturday, when the boat will start for the Rose City.

Immediately after spring vacation, the Ladies club will appear in a recital at the Methodist church. Special songs are being learned, and the clever rendition will surely captivate the audience.
