

JUNIORS MERGE INTO ONE BODY LAST EVENING

Three Distinct Classes Are Now Affiliated as One Strong Organization.

THREE BIG PROJECTS TO BE HANDLED

Junior Annual and Junior Play Are to Be Followed by Mammoth Junior Banquet to Be Held at the Marion Late in the Season.

Last evening at 5:15, the Junior Laws and Junior Liberal Arts, along with the Theologues Juniors, merged into one large class.

Joint Officers.

The three classes are to have an up-to-date governmental system. An interclass president will be selected at large from the three classes. In addition each class will have three members on the executive committee, excepting the Theologues, who will have but one. The class from which the president is elected will have but two additional executive members, excepting that he be a Kimbal student.

This committee will have the same power as the executive committee of the Student Body.

Enterprises Many.

The first big proposition the classes have to handle is the 1915 Wal-tulah. Paul Smith, Junior Law, is managing the book, and Paul Irvine, Junior Liberal Arts, is the editor. Both fellows have their respective work well in hand and the book is now a certainty.

Play Next.

The cast for the Junior Play is to be selected in the next few weeks. After having written to the majority of the large eastern stock companies, the committee in charge of the play, has reported that the title of the production will not be made public until after Christmas holidays. The play selected has a large cast, and all available operatic material will be roped in before the footlights.

Banquet Great.

After the play is over, the surplus funds will be used to help finance the Junior Banquet, one of the most elaborate social functions of the year. Occurring at the Marion, all Juniors have an opportunity to indulge in true social nibbling of society dainties, after which temptations come the regular eats. A toastmaster is selected from the affiliated classes and presides at the banquet.

FOOTBALL CLOSES AFTER A VERY SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Manager Paget Gives Resume of Year's Work at Willamette and a Brief Report of Standing Financial Conditions

The football season has closed with a thud. Once more we are the undefeated non-conference champions. Once more the big frog has created "some splash" in the little pool. Once more, green material has been converted by our "Doc" into some team. Once more we are it—and the wind still blows.

All Praised.

Glory seldom comes without work. Our team worked. "Doc" worked. We all worked. Work started with the Alumni game on October 11, Pacific one week later and Chemawa the following Saturday. Some work-out, but oh, you, Oregon.

Undefeated.

Oregon, 25 strong, found that they still lacked considerable, chiefly touchdowns. Oregon's Blackstone element closed the season with an attempt. No defeats—Napoleon conquered Italy. Will we ever meet our Waterloo?

Finances Fair.

From a financial standpoint, the season was fair. The Alumni game netted $18.20, and Chemawa $17.55, but the other games lost, Pacific $55, Oregon $35 and the Oregon Laws $20. This leaves our non-conference schedule on the debit side to the extent of about $75. Equipment added to this will bring the cost of our present season to nearly the $200 mark.

Although we lost financially on our one conference team game, we must remember that $80 was netted us by the game with the same team last year. This leaves a balance of $45 for the two games. This example may be of interest to those who wonder how our conference games can be handled financially.

This season's success well warrants the expectation that next year, within the conference and with greater worlds to conquer, Willamette will be most creditably represented.

OXFORD EXAM RETURNS FAVOR OLD WILLAMETTE

Two Men Qualify at University of Oregon and Like Number Here.

FINAL SELECTION TO BE MADE IN DECEMBER

Committee Composed of Presidents of Five Oregon Universities to Pick the Winning Man to Represent Our State.

News has just been received that Paul Homan, a Senior in the College of Liberal Arts, has qualified for the appointment as a Rhodes scholar at Oxford University. The examinations were held in October but the fact that all papers must be sent to the Oxford committee for inspection caused the long delay in hearing the returns.

Luton Ackerson and Raphael Geisler of the University of Oregon passed the examinations at the same time. The final choice will be made between these three men and Seth Axley, a Junior of Willamette, who has previously qualified.

The board to choose the man to represent Oregon will meet during the Christmas vacation. It consists of the presidents of University of Oregon, Willamette University, Pacific University, Albany College, and M. Monville College. At this meeting the character and record of each man will be considered as well as his grades in the examination. Because of these requirements none but a well rounded and well balanced man can win out.

One man from Willamette, Henry Winans, has already been sent to Oxford on this basis. We expect soon to have another there whom we will be justly proud to have represent us.

Fawcett Selects All Northwest Team.

Roscoe Fawcett, Oregonian sporting editor, gives conference team defeated by Willamette, three places on the All Northwest team. The team he has selected is as follows:

Player.	College.	Position.
Johnson, Idaho	Idaho	End
Chrisman, O. A. C.	O. A. C.	Tackle
Laythe, O. A. C.	O. A. C.	Guard
Harter, W. S. C.	W. S. C.	Center
Fenton, Oregon	Oregon	Guard
Anderson, Washington	Washington	Tackle
Sutton, Washington	Washington	End
Cornell, Oregon	Oregon	Quarterback
Miller, Washington	Washington	Halfback
Parsons, Oregon	Oregon	Halfback
Niles, Whitman	Whitman	Fullback

SHARES SELL FOR FIVE BONES

Coffee Club to Maintain Self Independently After Being Organized.

The meeting to permanently organize the Salem Coffee club will be held Friday night in the hall over the Salem Hardware Co. Here shares will be sold and the club put on a definite basis.

Committees Busy.

The meeting is called by the committees of several Salem organizations working together. Through Mr. Hammond, of Kimbal College, and Mr. Harris, state printer, invitations have been sent to organizations to send delegates and to prominent individuals to come.

Object Worthy.

As is well known, the object of

LOGICIANS ARE IN THE RING

Washington and California Being Considered as Opponents This Season.

With a choice between a triangular debate with U. P. S. and P. U., a debate with the U. of W. or the U. of S. Cal., the campus logician is consulting the sources on tariff, currency and the latest election returns.

Wrinkled brows, sleepless lids and ponderous volumes are beginning to appear.

Meet U. of S. Cal.

A debate with the U. of Washington can be arranged. However not only the expense but the possibility of meeting only a third rank team places this in the same class as the smaller schools—U. P. S. and P. U.

A forensic battle with the U. of S.,

OREGON LAWS BADLY BEATEN

Local Eleven Slaughters Portland Aggregation from Whistle to Whistle.

Willamette snowed the Oregon Laws under by the one sided score of 59 to 0, on Thanksgiving day. Nine touchdowns were made by the local players.

In the middle of the first quarter Small, the sensational half, got away a 20-yard run for a touchdown. Willamette failed to boot the pigskin over the bar and the score stood 6-0. After several line bucks Fullback Rowland then carried the ball within six inches of the goal line but time was called before the ball could be shoved over.

Curley Scores.

"Curley" Rowland started the fire-

Dr. Sweetland Satisfied With Season's Work

BY DR. SWEETLAND
Willamette Coach

"The recent season has been exceedingly gratifying to me. The boys have shown the right kind of metal and are deserving of much praise. From a financial standpoint, also, the season has been a success. Under the present system of free admittance for all students, it is hard to make the gate receipts pay for all expenses, but this year local enthusiasts have supported us faithfully and the gate receipts have been considerably larger than in the past."

The above statement by one of the best gridiron judges of the Northwest, shows what Willamette really does.

Undefeated Non-Conference Champs, Oregon Title Holders

Sporting Editor of Oregonian Boosts W. U.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT,
Sporting Editor of Oregonian.

In the non-conference division Willamette University, under G. J. Sweetland, Jr., again won everything in sight. Willamette, too, claims the Oregon championship by virtue of its 6-3 defeat of Oregon.

BOOST IT.

The convention to be held in Salem this week is of the type that deserves special mention. The leading christian workers of the Northwest will give addresses to the people of Salem. It behooves you, as an earnest christian student, to be on hand to absorb some of the thoughts such men as I. B. Rhodes, P. L. Campbell, Dr. John Byrd and Goodell will present.

The other colleges of the Northwest will have representatives at the meetings and it is the duty of every Willamette student to do their best to make the convention a success.

A PUBLIC MEDIUM.

This is your paper. It is the medium through which you must express yourself. Any articles dealing with a question relating to city or university problems will be received and edited.

We want all the students in Willamette, who have any desire whatsoever to present their views on any subject to hand their articles in to the Collegian, so that they may be published.

We want both sides of all questions fully discussed so as to give the general student body an insight into all problems which may confront them at any time.

Be brief, consistent, broad-minded and omit all personalities in your articles.

Only signed manuscripts will be published, but names will be withheld if desired.

WHO CAN PAINT?

The beautiful gym! What a picturesque building it is! Would it be the work of a vandal to have the castle out back of the athletic field painted? Of course, we realize that everyone has become accustomed to the dull gray tint that now covers the historic building, but it might improve the appearance of the campus just a little, if some real paint were applied to the structure.

Now that basketball has begun, we will have to invite our visitors to assemble in the gym. Being exempt from the punishment of being painted for many years, the gym has outgrown the habit of looking beautiful and will be a doleful sight to the visitors.

Why not have a few buckets of paint purchased and applied at once?

SONG BOOK TO BE OUT FEB. 1

Herman Clark Perfects First Official Warbling Publication at W. U.

The Senior Song Book will hit the campus February 1. Plans for the publication are progressing nicely, nearly all the manuscripts being in and copied for the engraver.

All Songs Included.

The book will contain Willamette's most popular and beloved songs, and their arrangement is most convenient. Four main divisions, and an index, will be inserted so as to make a book that will meet with all the needs of such a publication.

The first division will contain about a dozen of the regular glee songs composed since 1909. The second section will consist of all the Willamette songs sung by the Glee Club, including the famous "Ode to Willamette." In the fourth section will be published other songs sung by Willamette students and the Glee Club. Songs arranged by Dean Menenhall for the sketches "The Mascot," and "The Rajah of India" will be in this section. The last division will contain all of the college choeuses and yells.

Book Large.

The book will contain 40 pages. Several cuts of the campus and of the city will be added as a special feature. The cover will be attractive, and loose-leaf binding will be used. Each year the new Glee songs can be obtained and inserted in the book.

Printed in East.

The cover and the index will be produced in Salem, but the music will be engraved and printed in Cincinnati.

Price.

The price will be but 50 cents.

Staff meeting today, 12:15. Important.

BOOTH HAS LOST ALL HOPE

Frosh Manager Dopes Out Saturday's Game a la Sweetland.

The comparative strength of the Sophomore and Freshman football teams and the outcome of next Saturday's game is a subject of much speculation on the campus.

Members of each aggregation are very reticent as to the strength of their team, making it evident that some dark horses are being put into harness.

When consulted, Toots Booth, coach of the Freshman team, put his hands in his pockets, took three strides a la Dr Sweetland, and said: "The Freshman team lacks weight and has no more chance against the Sophomores than a common grammar school team has against Washington. I am glad to make this statement as it is my last opportunity before a six months' seclusion."

Booth further stated that the 17'ers team was built around but one experienced man as a nucleus. With such a coach it is evident that no over-confident team will represent the Frosh, but that a scrappy bunch, with lots of pep are planning a surprise.

Paul Homan, who is coaching the Sophomore team, refused to make any statement but to the effect that the team was greatly weakened by the loss of six of last years regulars, and is working hard to make up for this weakness.

Although the Sophomores slightly outweigh the Frosh, it is generally believed that neither team will win with a margin of more than one touchdown.

What about a Big Spring Regatta on the river?

SALEM IS NOW DRY

Drys Carry Election by a Huge Majority, Even Though Wets Try Many Intrigues to Defeat Moral Issue.

Prohibition carried in Salem last Monday by a majority of 952 as contrasted to the dry majority of 487 on November 4. Each ward piled up a respectable dry majority.

The election was quiet and orderly, although it was unusual for the number of votes challenged.

Special police and other watches did much to effect an honest vote and many transients were followed from the stations to the polls, where their votes were challenged.

While the dry majority was larger than on November 4, the voting was not nearly as heavy. It is possible that both facts are due to the number of votes challenged.

At the same election the playground amendment was carried by a small majority.

Oregon Laws Badly Beaten

works in the second quarter by making a clean touchdown. Bolt, with his educated toe, kicked goal, the score then standing Willamette 13, Oregon Laws, 0. Rowland repeated his stunt, making six more points for Willamette. No goal was kicked and the first half ended with Willamette having 19 full points to the good.

Second Half Easy.

In the second half scoring began with a jump and six touchdowns were made in the last two quarters. The last was made by Emery Doane, the best ground gainer in the game. After kicking four of the six goals tried for the score stood 59-0 in favor of W. U.

SALEM GRIDIRON FANS RESENT.

Grover Francis Picked as Peer End in All-Star Selections.

(Excerpt from Oregonian).

Willamette University, Salem, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Salem football enthusiasts resent a paragraph in one of the Portland newspapers that "in Grover Francis there was buried at Willamette University last year a player who would have been a star on any college team in the country." He was not buried at Willamette for on December 1, 1912, almost exactly one year ago to the day, Roscoe Fawcett, sporting editor of the Oregonian in his all-star selections picked Francis as the peer of all ends in the Northwest. He was not buried here, nor was McRae, his teammate, who also is starring for the Multnomah Club.

Mrs. Patterson Recuperating.

Mrs. Patterson, the wife of Dean Patterson, is taking a complete rest in a convalescent hospital in Portland. She is expected home in two or three weeks.

Logicians Are in The Ring

California is the most promising for not only will our team then be with those of their own class but will also be defending the reputation acquired two years previous when Harry McCain defeated the star orator from the south. We have already received a challenge and with every student boosting. Willamette can send down a team that will win in spite of sideburns and mutton chops.

The team this year is sure to be a good one. McCaddam, Jewett, Axley and Ohling will again appear for the tryout. Strong competition is assured by the large number of new men and by the return to the forum of some with considerable experience.

Letters Awarded.

Three men will receive the "barred W" this year. Letters have been recommended for McCaddam, Axley and Ohling. Smith received his award the previous year.

McDaniel and Savage.

Two men of note are Ivan McDaniel and Harry Savage. McDaniel was a strong member of the 1912 team. Savage, the popular college reader and orator has never entered university debating but is strongly commended for his work in secondary schools.

Tryout in Spring.

The tryout will probably occur shortly before the spring vacation. Cooperative work previous to this "Inasmuch as the dry element has so forcibly expressed itself, I am determined to enforce their wishes. I am sorry that the fourth amendment did not carry."

Professor E. S. Hammond, Chairman
Coffee Club Organization.

"I think the third amendment, dealing with the increase of the tax from 1 1/2 mills to 3 mills for the maintenance of the city streets, failed to carry because of the general misinterpretation of the issue by the majority of the people. I am disappointed that the fourth amendment concerning the assessment for taxation for street improvement did not carry. City Engineer Tillman clearly showed that the change was necessary."

Dr. Patterson, Dean Liberal Arts.
"The people of Oregon are bound to assert their rights, as portrayed by the last dry vote. I am glad to see the emphatic manner in which the Salem citizens have acted. I am also glad that the play ground question has been settled so speedily for Salem has been greatly in need of such a place. As to the fourth amendment, I do not believe that the people are sufficiently educated up to the question to act wisely, consequently it failed."

Old Lausanne

The Misses Kate Barton and Grace Thompson spent the week end at the Hall.

Mable Goyne ex-'16, was a Lausanne guest during holidays. Miss Goyne is a Senior at Monmouth Normal.

The Misses Bartholemew, Tasker, Barnes, Ruby, Ambrose, McCulley, Ogden, Samson, Lewis, Perkins, and Davis spent a most enjoyable Thanksgiving recess at Portland.

Miss Helen Wastell entertained with a chicken spread Monday noon. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were Ermine Harding, Genevieve Avison, Gladys Chandler, Ava McMahon and Beryl Holt.

The Misses Cooke and Lent entertained with a chafing dish party ---urday evening in honor of Miss Goyne. Music and games were enjoyed. The guests were Harry Irvine, Emery Doane and George Vandeventer.

Laden with left-overs of the things that only mother knows how to make the following girls enjoyed a most sumptuous spread Monday evening at 6 in the Perkins-Lewis domicile: Mildred Bartholemew, Gladys Chandler, Eleanor Ruby, Leila Lent, Clara Perkins, Pauline Pennebaker, Elmo Ohling, Annie Ryan and Ione Lewis.

Slumber reigned on the second floor Friday night. For there was a real sleepy party of girls after the festivities of the preceding evenings. Present were: Gertrude Eakin, Ruth Hodge, Electa Chapman, Grace Thompson, Mable Goyne, Florence Cooke, Kate Barton and Leila Lent.

Elmo Ohling, Pauline Pennebaker, Marie Sneed, and Ruth Johns were in Albany and Halsey for the week end. Addie Tobie visited Areta Jones at Gervais; Flora Housel journeyed to Eugene; Annie Ryan and Esther Cox ate turkey at Vancouver, Washington; Ruth Winters and Ruth Whealdon were entertained by relatives, living in nearby towns; Annie Waldron and Edith Lornston went home; Lila Doughty, Corinne Lachmund, Floria Lachmund and Gladys Chandler viewed the new side-walk of Sheridan; and Helen Wastell made her debut into farm-life near Roseburg. So by the process of elimination, there were just four girls who enjoyed vacation time in town; namely, Ava McMahon, Lulu Weseman, Florence Cooke, and Leila Lent. Miss Beryl Holt.

Miss McMahon was the guest of ***** sell at $5 per, will start the thing and after that it is expected that it will be self-supporting. The profits from the lunch counter in connection will probably be sufficient.

Interest Keen.

Great interest is taken in the enterprise by Salem people. Mr. Geo. Rodgers has offered a temporary building and many others are hard at work on the subject. Several applications for the managership have been received.

Employment Bureau.

It is hoped that soon a free employment bureau and possibly a cheap but good lodging place may be run in connection with the club. These features will supply things needed but hard to find in every city. It is also planned to print meal checks, which can be given to beggars, thus eliminating the necessity of giving money.

Success Assured.

There is no reason why this should not succeed. It has succeeded in many cities, notably Eugene and California cities. Salem men who do things are behind it and it will succeed.

Society

The dining room of the Kloshe Klub was the scene of one of the best appointed and smartest Thanksgiving day dinner parties. The room was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and ferns. The tables were arranged so as to form a large W. In the center on a pedestal, draped with green velvet, stood an immense bowl filled with greenery. From the center of the room green velvet streamers were strung to the table and caught by clusters of ferns. The five course dinner was partaken of by George Vandervert, George Odgers, James Corpe, Harvey Tobie, Harry Irvine, Gearheart Larsen, Stanford Moore, Ralph Bagley, Paul Todd, Roland Teeters, Ray Pepper.

One of the merriest and most enjoyed social events of the season was the affair given in the "gym" Thursday evening when the G. W. C.'s entertained the students who spent Thanksgiving on the campus. The evening was formally opened by a grand march, after which to the accompaniment of the lively strains poured forth by the orchestra, the prettily gowned maidens and jolly lads tripped through the intricate steps of the old English contredance. The Fjalnas Polska was then played, and followed in rapid succession by such games as Commaunskala, and Virata and Orsa. The many difficult steps were gracefully executed and the hours joyously and quickly passed away.

Refreshments were served by Miss Lela Lent, Miss Ruth Hodge, Miss Margaret Poisal, Paul Todd and Paul Irvine. Chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Robert B. Walsh, Prof. and Mrs. Martan Peck, and Prof. and Mrs. Florian von Eschen, about a hundred guest participated in the evening's jollity, the success of which was largely due to Miss Florence Page.

Talk about good times! The Adelprians certainly had one last Friday when they served a Thanksgiving Dinner. Grace was given by all the girls in the form of thanks. "Date salad" was served by Birdine McKinney, "Turkey" by Lucille McCulley, "Irish Potatoes" by Florence Cooke, "Chestnut Dressing" by Helen Goltra, "Pie" by Esther Cox, and "Ice Cream" by Mae Mickey. The dinner was novel and was much enjoyed by all present.

The Chemeketa street home of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Henke was the scene of a jolly party Monday evening, when Mrs. Henke informally entertained her Y. M. Mission Study class. The evening was delightfully spent in conversation and games. Mrs. Henke, who is an accomplished musician played several beautiful piano solos. Refreshments were served.

Paul R. Smith, Ex-Debater.

FOOTBALL PACKED AWAY IN ATTIC

Basketball is king. The football has been wrapped in silken clothes, amply supplied with moth balls, and packed away in the old alligator hide trunk in the attic. The nose guard is used to amuse the baby and the headgear for the cat to sleep in. The shoes are serving as ideal tack hammers, while the discarded socks make great stocking caps for the kids.

Material Elusive.
The material for the basketball team is rather elusive this season. Homan, the only old man on the job, can be seen roaming about the halls, a la Demosthenes, looking for an honest basketball shark. So far, no meteors have been unearthed but plenty of mediocre stuff is sticking around in the odd corners.

The men who represented us last year have entered into various fields of life, even matrimony. Tallman, "Red" Young and many others no longer belong to Willamette, but are making good in other institutions.

Game Planned.
Numerous games have already been planned for the season. The University of Oregon will probably be the first team that the Willamette quintet will buck up against. Following that, Multnomah and O. A. C. are to be met. As many other games as finances permit will be played, and, from the present outlook, at least four more worthy teams will lock horns around the local baskets.

Practice Starts.
Practice has been going on by jerks for the last few weeks, but will start in earnest immediately after the class football games are played off.

All classes should get busy with their basketball material and whip some spicy teams into working order. All class contests will not occur until late in the season.

PICKUPS

Whitman defeated Montana at Walla Walla Thursday, 35-0.

U. of W. defeated Pullman at Seattle Thursday, by the score of 20 to 0.

In the annual Thanksgiving game between U. of O. and Multnomah, the clubmen won, 19 to 0.

The Oregon Aggies won from the U. of Idaho at Corvallis on Thanksgiving day, 3 to 0. Blackwell starred for O. A. C.

A movement has been started at the U. of W. to place basketball and wrestling on the same basis as football and other major sports.

U. of W. took Northwest conference championship for the sixth time. O. A. C. ranks second. Willamette takes non-conference.

The senior class of the U. of Montana, has organized a student council, to perpetuate college traditions, and to "sit on" the Freshmen.

What Can You Earn?
What are you worth? How much capital would it take to bring the increase you could earn? Many students doubled, trebled and quadrupled their income and hence their capital through the commercial training secured at the Capital Business College. In addition, their abilities to seize better opportunities were increased manifold. Let us tell you about our work. A catalogue for the asking.
